AS YOU LIKE IT. Russia owes over $20,000,000. There are 390 female physicians in America. A new paper is talked of at Moscow. "Me and the Czar is having a rough time of it."—Guitaua.

The Twentieth infantry holds its reunion at Eaton Rapids September 28. The Boston Y. M. C. A. remitted $2,000 to the Michigan fire sufferers. 55,000 baskets of peaches were shipped from Fenville, Allegan county, Sep. 5.

Jo Harvey, one of the oldest employees of the Michigan Central Company, died at Jackson Sep. 7. A Charleston dentist announces: "Teeth extracted without pain or the use of gas at reasonable prices." Miss Kinlin, of San Francisco, recently married a man named Wood. The marriage announcement was headed "Kinlin-Wood."

It is reported that formal charges against Sergeant Mason for shooting at Guitaua are forwarded to Gen. Howard. Oswego newspaper offices are being besieged by seekers after bits of roller composition, which material, it is asserted, makes the best of bait for bass fishing. About 500 dozen frogs have been shipped to Chicago from South Haven this summer. Frogs are a good rop on some kinds of land.

$1.25 to $2.75 per bushel is the price Allegan farmers get for their peaches. A good crop of peaches is almost as good as a gold mine this year. Worms are destroying what there is of the corn crop in the vicinity of Hartford, Van Buren county. One kind works at the roots while another tackles the ear. F. D. Harnley, a prominent citizen of Hillsdale, fell from a pear tree on Saturday, and received internal injuries which, it is feared, may prove fatal.

A man named Dooley fell from a wagon in Hatley, Osceola county, while intoxicated the other night, and received spinal injuries which resulted in his death in a few hours. A great shrinkage of milk is reported in all the dairy regions of the west on account of the drought. Some factories report a shrinkage of 20 per cent in 10 days. A call has been issued for a protectionist convention at New York, November 30, to represent the agricultural, commercial and manufacturing interests of the country, to recommend legislation to congress. Farmers along the Carson river are said to be troubled with porcupines. These intelligent animals are said to dig up the potatoes and roll on them until they can walk off to the hills with a peck or so of the tubers on their quills.

A lady in Bridgewater, Mass., 30 years ago stamped her initials and a private mark on a small coin and passed it out. In change not long ago she was surprised, after such a lapse of time, to receive the identical piece of money. At the Western, R. L. quarries a single stone has been obtained which is 150 feet long, ten feet wide by eight feet thick, weighing over 1,000 tons, and it was loosened by one oblong blast hole in a simple and perfect manner. An Illinois farmer declared that his daughter didn't earn her salt. She reported that she would be glad to stand on the same footing as his hired help. He consented, signed an agreement, and soon forgot all about it. That happened five years ago. Now the girl sues for wages and gets a verdict of $500.

Very Much Worn.—Tender wife—"Say, look here! I've got to have a new velvet skirt right off. Got to have it. This is old time is worn out—actually worn threadbare down the front." Brute of a husband—"Just the thing, my dear. All the rage. Fashion item says velvet skirts will be much worn this season. Sandpaper the back of your dress and you're setting the style." An excitement was caused in Battle Creek Saturday by the discovery of brass filings brought up by the drill in a well which was being bored on Cherry street. The brass filings was at first supposed to be gold sand, and it was thought that a bonanza had been struck, but a chemical test showed the metal to be brass. It is now believed that some outrageous practical joker poured brass filings down the well, or else that the drill has struck the remains of a pioneer politician, and opinions are divided as to which it is.

Harper's Magazine for October is a remarkable Number, both for the beauty of its illustrations and the interest and importance of its varied contents. The number opens with a beautiful frontispiece—a full-page illustration of the city of Boston. The leading article by William Hamilton Gibson, and is entitled "A Berkshire Road." The article and the illustrations (which are from Mr. Gibson's drawings) are fully worthy of the title of "Boston Days." Long ago Hutton contributes the first of a series of papers on "Journalistic London." Mr. Hutton opens his article with an interesting description of Fleet street—the journalistic centre of London—discusses the comparative importance of provincial and metropolitan newspapers, and gives some entertaining information respecting the establishment and career of several journalistic enterprises, paying special attention to "Punch," "The Field," "The Queen," and "The Daily News." The article is illustrated by sketches drawn by Mr. W. Riddle, and from photographic portraits by G. F. Bennett, J. C. Robinson, F. H. Hill, Archibald Forbes and James McCarty. Henry Vane's article, "A Roadside Days," is a charming sketch of vacation life and sport, with beautiful illustrations. Harper's publications sold on subscription at this office.

An Ancient Find. The hulls of four Russian men-of-war, which are believed to have been buried in the earth more than a century, were recently found at Revel, where they were going on to a new harbor. The discovery is interesting as showing how the sea has receded from the land. Between the walls of the town and the sea the distance now is half a mile, and where they tread the hulls of the Russian men-of-war the locomotive now runs between wharves and the offices of merchants.

A NUMBER of the business houses in this place were draped in mourning, and the church bells tolled on account of the news of the death of President Garfield, Tuesday.

Mrs. ELLEN GLOVER has gone to St. Joseph for the purpose of opening a dress-making shop in that place. Mrs. Michael takes her place in Mrs. Wilson's shop in this place.

A PATENT medicine advertising company treated the citizens of this place to a bit of music and any amount of cheap gab, Friday, Saturday and Monday. They had a fine "turnout," and kept the crowd interested.

The services at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath morning will be conducted with special appropriateness to the death of President Garfield. In the evening the subject will be historical.

MESSES. ROUGH & PEARS started the new machinery in their Buchanan Flouring Mills last Friday. The nuisance to them of being without sufficient power to propel their machinery at all times will no longer exist.

An excursion party of Sabbath school children went to Berrien Springs on the narrow gauge train Saturday afternoon. The children were charged ten cents for the round trip, a little less than one-half cent per mile. They had a good time.

THERE are a number of our subscribers who have asked the privilege of paying for their paper in wood. To such we would say that now is the time we want our wood, so that it may be in shelter before the winter storms commence.

Mrs. SARAH HOWE is one of the judges of good dinners for the Dowagiac fair. The test to be made on cold dinner, with tea and coffee, to be prepared by girls under fifteen years of age. The first premium is a silver cake basket valued at $10.

THE following is the list of letters remaining in the Buchanan post-office Sept. 22, 1881: Mr. W. J. Hodges, A. B. Morey, Mr. A. C. Marson, Charles Jackson, Mathilde Lertin, Mr. H. W. Rowley, D. H. Stephens, Walter E. Secord, Nellie Taylor, John Tripp, Postal card, A. H. Cline.

The Dye Brothers have put in their appearance for the fall apple market in this place. They have secured the Slater building for a packing room, and are ready for business. The boys have bought a good many car loads of apples in Buchanan, and look upon it as a good market point, expecting to buy a good many more.

MR. JOHN M. GRAVIN is the engineer in charge of the work being done on the harbor at New Buffalo. The proper improvement of the harbor at that place will revive the life of that village so that the citizens will begin to long for a return of their village charter.

THE South Bend people are busy at work on the South Bend Southern railroad line, and expect to have the line located in a short time now. A three feet gauge will fit pretty well on the end of the St. Joseph Valley road, east about one-third as much, and do the business of that line with ease. Will they build their road in that way?

QUITE a number of the citizens of this vicinity attend the State fair at Jackson this week. The farmers of Berrien county are taking greater interest in the improvement of the grade of their stock than a few years ago, and attend such gatherings for the purpose of seeing and buying fine stock for their farms.

AFTER copying the remarks of the Record regarding the slowness of the St. Joseph people with their aid for the railroad, the Republican says: "Don't get uneasy, Mr. Record, St. Joseph is nearly ready with the required amount of aid. The work may be slow, but it's awful sure." That's just what we have been listening a long time to hear, and are pleased to learn that the required amount is nearly ready and awful sure to come.

THE soldiers and others who expect to visit South Bend during the reunion at that place Sept. 30, will be accommodated by a special train from this place. The St. Joseph Valley road will run a train in connection with this special, bringing passengers from Berrien Springs in time for that train for half fare, or forty cents the round trip. The arrangement with the Michigan Central is on the condition that at least 100 people will go.

A SPECIAL train will be run on the St. Joseph Valley railroad next Tuesday, leaving Berrien Springs at 9 A. M., for the benefit of those who wish to attend the Temperance Alliance at Niles. Returning Wednesday, the train will leave Buchanan at 8:08, or directly after the arrival of the mail train on the Michigan Central. The charge will be 50 cents for the round trip.

THERE will be union memorial services at the Oak Street Advent Church next Monday, at 2:30 P. M., the day of sepulture of our late President, giving appropriate expressions of our sorrow as a people, at his untimely death, the several ministers of our place conducting the services, and it is expected that all the business houses and the manufacturing institutions will close for the greater part, if not all of the day.

A MEETING of the Common Council was held in this office Saturday morning, at which it was decided to move the rotary pump belonging to the village to a point where it can be attached to the water wheel of Rough & Pears' mill in such a way that it will be of use to its full capacity whenever it is wanted. The conditions of the order may be found in the proceedings of the meeting in this paper.

So near as the RECORD is able to inform itself, the brick that are to be used for the erection of an elegant business block in the village of Buchanan in the near future, are now being placed in kiln on Rough Brothers' yard. Four or five of those blocks were filled here at a good rate, and there are just that many wealthy men owning lots on Front street where such blocks would fit nicely.

A MEETING was held in Kinyon's hall Monday evening and committees appointed to canvass for aid for those who have been burned out at the north of us. We are sorry to say that Buchanan has been slow to move in this matter, perhaps because one has waited for another to take the lead. The wants have not been supplied, however, and the mite sent from Buchanan may be of service to some one who is worse off than we.

WORK appears to be an abundance of work in this place for an improvement committee. The life of the town rests with its manufacturing interests, and every energy should be bent to increase this interest as much as possible. There are manufacturing establishments that can be secured for Buchanan if the proper inducements are offered the proprietors, and in the absence of a committee to attend to this work, we trust that every one will do all in his power to bring such establishments to Buchanan. We learn that an opportunity will be offered in a very few days, and it must not be slighted.

It begins to appear more evident that Sol. Rough has struck a bonanza in his salt well on his Troy Station farm, being put down by Mr. George Blowers of South Bend. The bottom of the well was 380 feet below the top of the ground Friday, and Mr. Blowers reports the brine twice as strong as when first discovered, when a gill of the brine would make nearly a teaspoonful of salt. Parties from several salt producing sections are sniffing the air in that vicinity with a view to becoming owners of the land on which the well is being sunk, and there is a good prospect that the mineral wealth of Berrien county may yet be one of her leading factors.

FRANK HERMAN fell down the elevator, way in the new building at the wagon factory, from the second story to the basement, a distance of twenty-six feet, striking on his feet, this morning. He and Zenas Bird were hoisting wheels from the basement to the paint room, by a rope over a single pulley, when Frank proposed to have Bird let him down on the rope, and accordingly jumped on, and as he was the heaviest, and Bird did not care to be elevated, he let go and Frank went to the ground at full speed. He is quite badly bruised, but it is thought that no serious result will follow.

THE Secretary of State has just issued a report of the wheat crop of 373 townships of this State, which shows an average yield per acre of 10 and 15 hundredths bushels, or one bushel more than was estimated by the Supervisors July 2. The report for Berrien county shows that of 51,206 acres there were raised 527,422 bushels, an average of 10.3 bushels, a little below the average. The average for Cass county was 8.8 bushels, Van Buren county 9.7 bushels, Kalamazoo county 8.4 bushels, and St. Joseph 4.3 bushels.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Simeon Stephens, who has been running the engine in Weisberger's saw mill for some time past, met with a narrow escape from a fatal accident Tuesday morning. He stepped up on the cylinder of the engine for some purpose, when his foot slipped, and he fell across the cross-head of the engine, which was in motion. Some part of the engine struck him on the head, knocking him senseless, and there he hung across the steam. He was hurt about the shoulders and chest, and on the whole quite badly shaken up, but no serious result is anticipated.

THE driven well question is being revived again, striking this county this time. An advertisement in the Niles papers informs the public that the patent attorneys who have the matter in charge propose to try to collect $10 royalty on each driven well used for farm or domestic purposes, and not exceeding 1 1/2 inches in diameter. They kindly offer to take five dollars if paid within twenty days after the fifteenth of this month, and that owners of wells are liable to be called upon to defend themselves in a law suit. He claims this royalty under the Greene patent. The interesting question now is, whether the well owners will be obliged to pay this royalty or not. The Evening News of Detroit has the following to say regarding it: "The patentee of the drive wells is being heard from again. He was beaten in his suits against those using drive wells in New York, and now he comes well as 100 royalty on every drive well in other States, Michigan included."

As we go to press too early to give the result of the firemen's tournament at Michigan City, to-day, we give the result of yesterday:

On the first run, the 44 race, the first prize, $125, was taken by Defiance No. 2. of Niles; the second prize, $50, by Liberty No. 1 of Michigan City; and the third prize, $25, by Buchanan No. 1. The time made by the different companies in the race is as follows:

Table with columns: Running, Water, Defiance No. 2, Niles, Liberty No. 1, Buchanan No. 1, etc.

It will be seen that although the Niles company made the best time, our company made the best run. The Michigan City Dispatch contains the following notices of our boys:

"Next appeared the Buchanans, who are general favorites in this city. Physically they are the finest appearing set of men on the track, and their running simply amazing, making the time to the by-standers. The Buchanans were rather slow in putting on the pipe, thus reducing their total time to 41 1/2."

The Buchanan company is composed of about the same boys that were here two years ago. They are certainly a fine-looking and gentlemanly set of men.

The Buchanan boys made the prettiest run on the ground.

FRANK WAGNER, of Chicago, has been arrested at the house of his father and taken to Berrien Springs, where he is wanted to answer to a charge of stealing $84 from an uncle. The Inter-Ocean says:

"Wagner has spent most of his youth in the game of dice and boys' story papers, in which notorious highway men and desperadoes are made heroes and blood and thunder the acme of glory. His boss to the detectives was that he could hold him if he did not show up. About six months ago he was arrested for sneaking into a store at Keokuk, Iowa, and getting away with $284 in money and something over $300 in drafts and checks. He was taken to the police station at Keokuk, but was captured a few days later in a neighboring town and brought back. It cost his father $900 to settle the affair, and the reprobate was hardly free when he stole from his uncle who on a visit to that relative's Michigan home."

SOME little surprise has been expressed by a number of ex-soldiers hereabouts, that the handsome donation of provisions, etc., sent from St. Joseph to the regiment stationed at Buchanan, was not noticed by the local papers of that place, as it is understood that St. Joseph is the only place, outside of Buchanan, that made contributions of this kind worthy of note. Capt. Phos. B. Boham and others were the getters up of the donation. Hon. C. H. Potter gave the 100 loaves of fresh bread that formed a part of it, and the Captain paid $2 for flour to bake the bread. The provisions, then, by the St. Joseph Valley railroad to Buchanan. "Honor to whom honor" etc., neighbors.—St. Joseph Evening Herald.

We are sorry to see any complaint of this kind arise in this connection, but think that our St. Joseph friends must be laboring under a mistake. In each of the Buchanan papers of Sept. 1, was published a card of thanks by the commissary department to all who solicited donations, and to "the many citizens of Berrien county for their liberal donations of subscriptions, many of whom without solicitations sent in large quantities of provisions." No one man in Weesaw township gave 100 loaves of fresh bread, but on the whole, there was twice as much received from Weesaw as from St. Joseph, and from the fact that in all such cases where special thanks are tendered a few prominent ones the remaining many who gave as freely will be slighted, no special mention was made of any. Blanks for that purpose were furnished the committee on rations in the several townships, on which they were expected to report donations. A supply of these were furnished the St. Joseph committee, but as they failed to return any of them, it was a hard matter to decide just what came from that place. We trust our neighbors will cease their ill feelings, for no injustice was meant them.

Anniversary Surprise. Friday evening, Sept. 16, witnessed a very pleasant social event in Gallen. It was the anniversary of Mrs. George Partridge's birthday, and a surprise party was planned by a few of her friends, and successfully carried out. Mrs. Partridge was induced to call on a neighbor early in the evening, and on her return shortly afterward, was greatly surprised to find the house and grounds brilliantly lighted, and a large company gathered. The number present was estimated to be nearly 150; and to accommodate them it was found necessary to spread the tables in the yard, where all were supplied with a bountiful repast. The friends left substantial tokens of their esteem, as shown by the following list of presents:

Council Proceedings.

A special meeting of the Common Council of the village of Buchanan was held at the Recorder's office on Saturday, Sept. 17, 1881.

Present—J. D. Ross, President; B. D. Harper, Recorder; Trustees Hinman, Rough and Powers.

The Recorder stated that the meeting was called for the purpose of receiving the report of the committee on Waterworks in regard to moving the rotary pump from its present location in Rough & Pears' mill, and taking action upon the same.

The committee on Waterworks reported that they had examined into the matter referred to them, and in Rough & Pears' mill, and that the pump could be placed in the mill, and will so that it could be worked by either steam or water power, at a cost of about $200, and recommended that the removal be made.

Moved by Mr. Hinman, supported by Mr. Powers, that the report of the committee on Waterworks be accepted, and the committee instructed to proceed at once to place the pump in Messrs. Rough & Pears' mill, provided the committee can be assured it will work satisfactorily by either steam or water power. Motion adopted.

On motion of Mr. Powers, supported by Mr. Hinman, the Common Council adjourned. B. D. HARPER, Recorder.

An important coincidence in the life of General Garfield is that his death occurred on the anniversary of the battle of Chickamauga, in which he acted a most prominent part.
