From five to nine dollars will secure a certificate for one thousand dollars in good, reliable companies. The great feature in this plan is economy, always giving relief to the need, each member being his own treasurer, and keeping his money until assessed for a loss by death, while in ordinary Insurance Companies the policy holder must pay annually large sums in excess of the actual cost of the insurance.

THE HOUSE WITH CLOSETS.

How dear to the heart of the housekeeping woman. Are children of which so few architects build? Nice comforts, good servants, plenty of room for the well-dressed mansion in which they must dwell. But first of the blessings kind Fortune can give her. If she in the city or country abide, it is that which she longs for and covets forever. The big, airy closet, her joy and her pride. The roomy, clean closet, the well-oiled closet. The house may be perfect from cellar to eaves, but it is not a home until it has a closet.

The Michigan Central company expect to have their carpenters here the last of this week to work on the new freight house, and to bring with them the parts of the building already framed, all of which means that the building is to be completed shortly.

D. W. ENSIGN & Co. sent an attorney into this county last week to look after a few notes they took for the books they circulated in this county, purporting to be a history of the county.

APPLE buyers in Berrien Springs are shipping their apples to Chicago over the narrow gauge railroad for twenty-five cents per barrel, in lots of ten or more barrels.

H. E. BRADLEY returned from his six months trip in the west Tuesday, looking as if he had been living out of doors since he went away—considerably tanned.

THANKS.—Mrs. Orrin Churchill wishes to return her sincere thanks to the many friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted her during the sickness and at the death of her late husband.

IRA B. WINCH's planing and cider mill, and Winch & Starkey's cooper shop at Bangor, were burned on the 22d. Loss $2,000, with no insurance. Mr. Winch will be remembered by many as a former citizen of this place.

The room in the Union school in charge of Mrs. Welch is an interesting place of work. She has eighty-two little ones to look after in a room intended for about seventy at the outside, and nearly all less than eight of age.

Mrs. ELLEN GLOVER started for St. Joseph on Monday last, where she will follow her business, dressmaking. We can cheerfully recommend her to the people of St. Joseph as a lady who fully understands her business, and will please all who may deal with her.

The committee appointed for the purpose, report the Niles city bonds for aid for the railroad all sold. The report of this committee and of the one who had the printing of the bonds appeared in print at the same time.

The notice of Mrs. Miller having lost a neck chain from the neck of each of her two little girls, while attending the reunion, published in the RECORD and copied in the Niles Republican, has found one of the chains for her. Mr. John Feather found the chain while on the grounds.

The work of changing the bed of the narrow gauge railroad track at the depot in this place, so that the train may run along side of the Michigan Central warehouse, was done Saturday. The work of building the new warehouse and office is being done this week.

Mrs. DENNING has her house near the post office nearly completed, and will occupy it as a home and place of business, having rented her present business building to Mr. Trenbeth, to be used as a tailor shop, and with the intention of putting in a stock of clothes.

An association for the improvement of the intellectual and library interests of this place has been formed, consisting of one hundred members, who pay $1 each to a fund to be used for the purpose of employing competent lecturers, and other entertainments of an intellectual character.

We hear some complaint that wheat sown before the rain is not coming up, and that some fields are being re-sown. That sown when the ground contained some moisture is growing nicely, and will get a good start before the winter snows cover it.

The Niles papers appear quite indignant because of the amount of horse, foot and bicycle racing done on the fair grounds in that city on Sundays. The State law provides a way for stopping such work.

Quite a number of those who went to Michigan City paid pretty dear for betting against a tramp on a foot race. One bald headed boy fattened up his pocket-book by learning which way the race was going before the betting was done, and the other boys wonder how he did it.

POTATOES can hardly be had in this market at any price, and when they are sold it is for the exorbitant price of $1 to $1.25 per bushel. Reports come from the northern part of this State are to the effect that there is an abundance of the tubers there, and for sale at a reasonable price. Is there no dealer with enterprise enough to ship a carload or more here and make a good margin?

A MEETING will be held in Good Templar's hall, Friday evening, Sept. 30, for the purpose of the organization and election of officers of a literary society. Everyone who is interested in such work and in the success of an organization of this kind in this place, is cordially invited to attend and take part in the proceedings.

By ORDER OF THE COMMITTEE.

The Excelsior Manufacturing company of this place have been putting in a new and powerful machine for pressing and baling the excelsior packing they manufacture, that puts a large pile of the packing into a small bunch, and quite solid. We learn that it is the intention of this company to put in some new machines of improved pattern, that will manufacture the packing at a far more rapid rate than do the ones now in operation.

MR. C. H. REA writes to a friend in this place that he has been into both ends of Pomeroy's great Atlantic and Pacific tunnel and pronounces it all satisfactory. We are glad that Mr. Rea considers it all satisfactory. He is a stockholder, but that does not change our opinion of it as an investment for poor people, as expressed in these columns a few days since.

The work of leveling up, straightening, and ballasting the track of the narrow gauge railroad has been going on at a rapid rate, for the number of men employed, but there is an immense amount of dirt to be moved yet before the track is completed to Berrien Springs. The engineer estimates that about a thirty-foot fill has been built across the sink hole, just this side of Berrien Springs, and the top is about two feet above water, and must be raised about six feet to grade.

DAVID MARTINDALE, of Greeley, Iowa, a resident of this place twenty years ago, is here for a visit.

THE following letters remain uncalled for at the post office in this place: Mr. F. Elms, Mr. D. C. Guilford, Rev. John Hoyt, A. C. Mason, F. H. Ross.

THERE appears to be more difficulty among teachers to get duly signed certificates attesting to their ability for teaching, under the new arrangement for examinations, than under the old.

THERE is a parcel of boys sixteen or seventeen years of age who hang around the depot in Dayton, making a practice of catching on all freight trains that go through the place. It is but a few years since a fourteen-year-old boy was out in two in the middle, at that track in Dayton. The train jumpers in Buchanan are of a smaller size, and such that the healthy application of a good rawhide will be a benefit to them.

THERE will be a meeting in Rough's Hall, Monday evening, Oct. 3, at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a library and lecture association, adopting a constitution, electing officers, and transacting such other business as may come before the meeting. This call includes not only those who have signed any paper for such a purpose, but all who desire to become members of such an organization as indicated above.

If we were to allow the walk in front of our premises to go in so shabby a condition as that in front of F. M. Gray's lot, on Front street, has been all summer, we should expect to have the village authorities to build a new one for us and collect the tax, and if we recollect correctly, the Common Council ordered a new one built there at the same time it did at the front of Tom Jones' lot. Jones' walk was built. Why was not the other, or must the people who pass that way be obliged to walk in the mud all winter because the property belongs to a rich man? Use the poor and rich alike.

JACK DONNELLY, living about one mile north of Dayton, went hunting Monday morning, with an old-fashioned blunderbuss that had been in use a dozen generations or less, but in load enough for an ordinary field piece, and fired. When the smoke cleared away so that he could take an inventory of stock, he was holding a piece of the gun stock in each hand, the barrel lying on the ground bursted, his face was full of powder, and there was a hole in his forehead into which Dr. Bonine introduced a probe about three inches. It looks very much like a case that may be fatal, although he retains his senses and appears lively.

ATTORNEY GENERAL VAN RIVER, during a recent trip to Ontonagon on business for the State, took occasion to visit the bottom of the Calumet copper mine, and brought home with him some fine mineral specimens he picked up 2,000 feet below the surface, and at the bottom of the deepest hole in the ground east of the Rocky mountains. He thinks the traveling of the 800 feet of descent and ascent nearest the bottom is good for the development of the muscles of the arms and legs, and that 1,600 feet of ladder climbing gave his muscles a good test.

THE attention of the honorable Common Council is called to the fact that there is considerable doubt existing about there being an established fire limit in this place, and we suggest that this important question be made the subject of discussion at the next meeting. An ordinance should be passed, establishing a limit of this kind, and then enforce the requirements of the ordinance in every case. So long as wooden buildings are erected in the business part of town we must be subject to great danger from fire, and consequent high rates of insurance, and the sooner the matter is attended to in a proper manner the better for all concerned.

TO THE REUNION.—A special train will leave this place to-morrow morning at eight o'clock, on the Michigan Central, for South Bend and return in the evening, giving those of this vicinity an opportunity to attend the reunion at that place, and return the same day. For the accommodation of those living at Berrien Springs, the St. Joseph Valley railroad will run a special train in connection with that of the Michigan Central, leaving Berrien Springs at 7 A. M., and returning, leave Buchanan after the arrival of the Michigan Central train. The fare from Buchanan will be 60 cents, and from Berrien Springs $1, the round trip.

A STRIKE.—Tuesday morning one of the hands at the factory of the Buchanan Manufacturing Company asked Mr. Wm. Osborn, the superintendent of that establishment, to remain a little while after six o'clock, saying the boys wanted to talk with him, and then went about his work. Mr. Osborn could not imagine what it could be about and so asked one or two of the foremen what the boys wanted, but receiving no satisfactory answer made up his mind that a strike was brewing, and was worrying some to know just how to meet it as he could think of no cause for such a move. In the evening, as there was an appearance of an approaching rain, he did not care to wait for a wetting down, so he gave the engineer instructions to shut down and give the boys a chance to make known their demands. All assembled in the office. Mr. Frank Plimpton, the employees' chosen speaker, in a sharp but short speech gave Mr. Osborn to understand that inasmuch as he and Mrs. Osborn had been married just twenty-five years the Sunday before, and had allowed the day to pass without due observance, they proposed to take the celebration into their own hands, and accordingly presented him with a fine silver tea set. Mr. Osborn is not used to strikes among his employees, but thinks he would know how to meet any other kind better than this one.

A greater portion of the village of Lawrence, Van Buren county, was burned Sunday morning, incurring a loss of over $30,000. Lightly insured.

WE learn that there is a difficulty among county schools in this county to secure competent teachers for their winter schools. To one who has been a teacher, the explanation is an easy one. When a year editor was in the business, the most he could get for conducting the most difficult school in Buchanan township was $35 per month, and as a consequence he and other teachers went a few miles south across the State line, to where the ruling price was $40 and board. The difference now is greater than then. We recently saw one semi-intelligent looking school director who was in search of a female teacher to take charge of a school of forty scholars and build her own fires. Upon being questioned as to the price he expected to pay, he said the district had voted $28 for school purposes, and out of that he could pay but $20 for a teacher, and she must board herself, leaving the teacher but $12 per month. This he considered a liberal price, and appeared astonished because there didn't all of the young and old people in the country flock to him in quest of that job.

Meeting of the Berrien County Highway Improvement Association.

The next meeting of this association will be held at Berrien Centre Grange Hall, October 12, at which the following programme will be presented: 10:00 A. M. Meeting convene and organize for business.

Wm. J. Jones, of Oronoko, will open the exercises by presenting a leader on the following subject, viz: The rights and responsibilities of petitioners, praying for laying out, altering, or vacating highways. This will be followed by a general discussion of the subject, after which the meeting will adjourn to 1:30 P. M.

The prominent feature of the afternoon exercises will be the discussion of the money tax system, as asked by the State Tax Commission, and will be embodied in the following resolution: Resolved, That a money tax system for the construction and maintenance of highways would be preferable to the labor tax system. Affirm, Eon. Thomas Mars, supported by A. Keagley, Deny, Otis Sterns, Esq., supported by R. V. Clark.

3:00. General discussion and criticism by members present, of the above question. 4:00. Question box contents discussed.

Report of committees. Miscellaneous business. Adjournment.

We desire to say to the tax-payers of Berrien county, that this is the golden opportunity of saying to the State Tax Commission and to our members of the legislature whether you desire an entire money tax, or will you continue to give your labor for the support of highways. Come out and record your preference in this matter, by your vote on the merits of this question. The State Tax Commission asks you to answer this question. Will you do it, or will you remain silent?

The Hon. Wm. Chamberlain, a member of the Tax Commission, is expected to be present and receive your instructions. A very enthusiastic meeting is anticipated, and a general invitation is hereby extended to every taxpayer (whether man or woman), of the county to be present. As the place of meeting is without the convenience of hotels, the committee request each attendant to bring some refreshments with them, and add to a general stock, which will be served by the citizens of Berrien Centre, at the Grange Hall.

A meeting of the executive committee will be held at 1:00 P. M., at which it is desired every member should be present. Ladies are specially invited to attend the meeting.

County papers please copy. WM. S. FARMER, NORMAN DAVIS, OTIS MARS, JAS. F. JACKSON, EX. COM. OTIS STERN, A. N. WOODRUFF, GEO. A. BLANKFLEE, R. V. CLARK, Sec.

THREE OAKS ITEMS.

Warm weather for September. Nice shovels Monday morning.

Mrs. Vincent, of Buchanan, is visiting her son Herbert, at this place.

We noticed on our street last week Mr. Evans, of Buchanan, looking after the interest of the RECORD in this locality.

Quite a number of our citizens attend the Temperance Alliance at Niles this week.

Our village was draped quite extensively on Monday, and memorial services held at the Congregational church, which proved to be entirely too small for the large crowd that gathered. The ceremony was a very impressive one, and did honor to our little town. The remarks were all good and instructive. Especially do we thank the stranger for his timely and eloquent remarks. May we all remember what was said on that occasion, and profit by it.

The committee of ladies for draping the place of meeting for the memorial services on Monday deserve great praise for their work.

The singing at the memorial services was just splendid, and that committee on music did.

Master Artie Chatterton was driving his father's horse on Monday, when the horse became frightened and upset the buggy, demolishing it somewhat, but Artie came out all right.

Orrin Churchill, of Jamestown, Dakota, is visiting relatives and friends here this week, but will return to his home soon. We wish Orrin all manner of good luck, as he is a nice young man.

Fred. Weed is still with us. Fred. thinks Orrin had better hire a hall and tell the folks about the far west, as it would save him (Orrin) some trouble and time.

We listened to an excellent sermon on Sunday morning from Rev. M. M. Martin, of the Congregational church. It was a Garfield memorial sermon.

We hear of a firm worth ten thousand dollars giving fifty cents towards the Michigan sufferers' fund. Nobly done.

Quite a good many of our citizens went to Chicago on Tuesday. Will Copeland is visiting friends and relatives here. His family have been stopping here all summer. They leave for the east next week.

Henry Vetterly, son of August Vetterly, is quite ill.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Monday last was observed very generally throughout our whole land as a day of mourning. On that day the remains of our lamented President, James A. Garfield, were laid away in the silent tomb in Lake View cemetery, at Cleveland, Ohio, and the funeral ceremonies were witnessed by the largest assemblage of people ever congregated, in that city.

While those services were progressing, similar ones were held in nearly every hamlet throughout the country. In this village the day was appropriately observed. The factories were all shut down, the stores and business places closed, and the place had the appearance of a Sunday. At 10 o'clock the people filled Oak Street Chapel to its fullest capacity, (William Parrot Post of the G. A. R. occupying the front seats), where the services were held. The meeting was called to order by Hon. L. P. Alexander with a few appropriate remarks. The following programme was then observed:

- 1. Singing by the Roe family.
- 2. Reading of the Scriptures by Rev. W. I. Cogshall, of the M. E. Church.
- 3. Prayer by Rev. G. W. Rickafosse, of the U. B. Church.
- 4. Singing.
- 5. Remarks by Elder W. P. Bird-sall, of the Christian Church, Rev. W. I. Cogshall, Elder Geo. Wright, of the Advent Church.
- 6. Singing.
- 7. Resolutions read by Mr. LeRoy H. Dodd, which were adopted by a rising vote of the congregation.
- 8. Addresses by Hon. E. M. Plimpton and Mr. A. C. Roe.
- 9. Singing by the congregation, led by the Roe family, the beautiful hymn, "Nearer My God to Thee."
- 10. Prayer by Rev. J. D. McCord, of the Presbyterian Church.
- 11. Benediction pronounced by Rev. G. W. Rickafosse.

Each address, prayer and reading was listened to with the closest attention from beginning to end, and as the eloquent words fell from the lips of the speakers in eulogy of the great fallen chieftain, the silent tears coursed down the cheeks of many in the vast audience.

The following are the resolutions adopted: WHEREAS, The Nations of the earth, with this our beloved land, are in mourning over the death of our late President, whose earthly remains are now being consigned to their last resting place in his beloved State. Therefore, Resolved, By the citizens of Buchanan in memorial services assembled; that in the death of President Garfield, by the hands of an assassin, the Nation has lost its Chief Executive, beloved by his people North and South; a soldier, a statesman, scholar and Christian, whose great ability, breadth of intellect, purity of life and purpose, have endeared him to our hearts, until his faults have faded into oblivion in the brightness of his towering manhood, and he has become, and ever will be, a constant inspiration to those who may come after and succeed him in this hour of their deep distress and anguish, and pray that "He who doeth all things well" will turn this night of deep mourning into jubilant dawn; and that the Republic, purified by this furnace of affliction may continue a beacon light to all nations of the world, and the down-trodden everywhere.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be properly engrossed by the secretary of this meeting, and presented to the family of our illustrious dead, and that they be published in the several papers of our village.
