A COMPANY from Massachusetts will be in this place Dec. 15 with a brand new play, called Uncle Tom's Cabin. As our people are fond of anything new we expect to see a crowded house.

MR. SETH SMITH announces as Township Treasurer that he will receive taxes at his office on each day this month, excepting the Saturdays before Christmas and New Years.

DR. JOHN G. MASSFIELD has bought the west 1/4 of the south-west 1/4 of section 30, town 7 south range 19 west, which is in Weesaw, of Mrs. Hannah Free, for the consideration of $800.

THE St. J. V. Railroad Company have a fine depot and an engine house for two locomotives at Berrien Springs, which looks as if a new locomotive were soon to be on the programme.

THE tax in this township is some what lower than last year, with the exception of this school district, where the per cent. is 2-10 of a mill higher. For this district, the explanation is that about $1,500, for repairs on the school house and other expenses, were raised, more than was raised last year.

SOME of the teamsters who have been at work on the railroad bed near Niles have returned, thinking they would kill their horses a little too soon by working them on that job.

THE Kalamazoo Weekly Telegraph comes to us this week considerably changed in form, appearing now in eight pages and a four-page supplement, and a new head.

R. V. CLARK, Sec.

BUCHANAN has a lot of enterprising men. A man came here to see about starting a chair factory, and they rush here, take him by the ears, and lead him off if possible. All right, always glad to see our Buchanan friends.—Mirror.

IT's all right if the ear hold doesn't give out, is it not?

A SURPRISE dinner party was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Anslem Wray, on Front street, to-day noon. The occasion was the fifth anniversary of their wedding day. There were a number of valuable presents to accompany the feast.

WHEN the collection of clothing was made in this place, for the benefit of the fire sufferers, Miss Minnie Weston wrote a letter and placed it in the pocket of a dress given, asking the one who received the dress to write to her. She received an answer to her letter one day last week.

SOME little excitement was created in this place Saturday by the announcement that Miss Carrie Blowers had decided symptoms of varioloid, and as she had been in her school, and in nearly all parts of town, the prospect was anything but flattering, but when it was learned that her sickness was nothing more than a thorough working of vaccination, the most that could be done was to laugh at the scare.

MR. J. P. SMITH, who was mentioned as having bought Mr. Herman's property, has bought a 1/2 of Mr. A. C. Day in Block O, in Day's addition, and will erect a building for photographing purposes. George Churchill has the contract for erecting the building, and will have it done as soon as the weather will admit. This will be a marked improvement to that part of the town.

MISS LUCIA L. JULIAN and Mrs. SEERWOOD gave an entertainment of recreation and music in Rough's Opera House, Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the Buchanan Lecture and Library Association. There was a good attendance, and the verdict, so far as the Record is able to glean, is that the singing by Mrs. Sherwood was excellent, but the recitations of Miss Julian far from perfection.

SOME of those who live at Berrien Springs think that, to accommodate the greater part of the world, the narrow gauge train ought to stay over night there and run to connect with the Kalamazoo Accommodation each way. That would give the Berrien people a little better means of reaching Chicago, but how about those living along the line of the Michigan Central who wish to attend court, or other business at the county capital?

THE Library and Lecture Association have been very fortunate in securing for their next entertainment the excellent combination of the Swedish Lady Quartette and Emilie Gavin. The Swedish Ladies have a national reputation, and Miss Gavin is very favorably known to our people. It will pay all to hear them at Rough's Opera House, Dec. 20. General admission 25 cents. Reserved seats 35 and 50 cents.

A COUNTY convention of Good Templars was held in this place last Friday, conducted by Hon. Chas. Russell, of Detroit. Following delegates from the several lodges in the county were present:

Gallen Lodge No. 203—Andrew Shearer, Wm. McMaster, G. A. Blakelee, Jr., Porter Churchill, T. N. Chilson. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

J. H. Roe, D. T.; Mrs. Jennie Russell, D. V. T.; T. N. Chilson, D. S.; W. H. Plumb, D. F. S.; Mrs. Wright Smith, D. T.; A. Sherwood, Counselor; Mr. Hyde, D. Guard; Wm. McMaster, D. Sentinel; J. M. Logan, P. D. C. T.; H. Carlisle, D. Chaplain; P. Churchill, Asst. Sec.; Edwin Babcock, Marshal; Blakelee, Riley, Messenger; G. A. Blakelee, Jr., D. Marshal.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Last Saturday morning Mr. James Atkinson, the old Scotchman who has for several years lived on a small farm about four miles north of this place, but moved to Niles township in September, fell from a load of corn fodder he was loading on the Totten place, just north of town, striking on his head. He died about 9 o'clock Saturday evening of his injuries. He was nearly eighty years of age.

MESSRS. HUGHES and WARD closed their temperance meetings in this place on Sunday evening, and on Monday evening a social was given for their benefit. These gentlemen worked earnestly in this place fourteen days, and as a result of their labors the little red ribbon badges are worn by very many, including a few who have heretofore been considered "old soakers."

IT has been decided to hold Sunday evening meetings, the first one of which will be held at Rough's Opera House on Sunday evening next, commencing at 7:45, and be conducted by the pastors of the several churches. During the meeting J. J. Roe will sing "The Drunkard's Wife," a beautiful descriptive song.

M. elected made the following appointments: Rev. W. I. Cogshall, Chaplain; J. F. Hahn, Tyler; Clark E. Phelps and Jerome S. Beistle, Stewards.

A NUMBER of times the Record has given expression to its lack of faith in the great mining schemes of "Brick" Pomeroy, but notwithstanding a number of the good citizens of Buchanan who can better afford to invest their earnings in bread and butter, kept sending him a weekly stipend. The following from the Evening News confirms the opinion of the Record:

"Swindled Michigan men who had faith in 'Brick' Pomeroy's bonanza are writing occasionally to this paper to know if it is true that 'Brick' has failed. Weeping friends, according to all reports, his true 'Brick' has 'failed up' beautifully, and it is feared the Michigan enthusiasts whose faith in him took a moneyed form have been left."

IT may be put down as a good rule that when this man asks for investments in any great undertaking for the help and aid of the poor, down-trodden, God-forsaken laboring man, the laboring man's name is always Mark M. Pomeroy, and other poor men had better keep their hands out. Men of means always find ways to profitably invest their money without the aid of Mr. Pomeroy, and it is always the poor man that he skins.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN and THE MEMPHIS UNIVERSITY STUDENTS—Those who are looking forward with eager anticipation to the pleasure offered at Rough's Opera House Thursday evening, December 15, in the rendition of Uncle Tom's Cabin by the Ideal company, will, we feel sure, find their anticipations more than realized. There is not a poor feature or a poor artist in this company, which has crowded the opera houses in our largest cities from pit to dome. Uncle Tom's Cabin has lost none of its old time popularity. The present revival is without precedent in the history of any domestic work. The story with its pathetic scenes and humorous incidents ever proves attractive, and whether by the comicities of Topsy, the faithful devotion of Uncle Tom, the graces of Eva, or the cruelty of Legree, every heart finds something to charm. Miss Kittie Lougee, in Topsy, portrays the character in a most realistic manner, and her songs, dances and banjo solos never fail to please. The transformation scene at the close, entitled Rock of Ages or Eva in Heaven, is very beautiful and impressive. Those who have not procured their tickets should delay no longer. Remember that in other places hundreds have been turned away from the hall, unable to gain admission.
