Republican Meeting.

Hon. E. W. Keightley, well-known in this place, and

Giles B. Stebbins,

a fluent speaker, will address the citizens of Buchanan and vicinity, at Rough's Opera House, on Saturday Evening, Nov. 4.

Come out and hear them.

The President has issued a proclamation appointing November 30 as a day of general thanksgiving.

Tennessee authorities deal with matrimonial insurance companies as frauds.

Correct.

The Kewanee, Ill., bank robbers are all in the penitentiary. Two of them for six and one for four years.

The money order business of the post office department has grown to such dimensions that it has been outsted from the department into a building of its own. It requires 154 clerks to manage that branch of the post office business at Washington.

Will the Dowagiac Times have Daniel Lyle write some more for its columns concerning some of the Republican candidates? He is a very interesting writer, and what there is dirty that he cannot think of may be remembered by Spafford Tryon. Keep them in the ring. They are good performers.

The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul

R. R. Company have just issued a scram from the American Eagle in Dakota that enrages the hearts of loyal American citizens, and especially those who contemplate going west.

Send a postal card to A. V. H. Carpenter, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, for a copy.

New York State has commenced building a new capitol. The commissioner appointed to make estimates reported that it would cost $4,000,000.

They have already spent $18,000,000 on it, and although not nearly completed, is not considered safe to occupy, as it is liable to tumble down at any time. Michigan has a capitol building of which any State in the Union might be proud, and besides costing less than $4,000,000, it cost less than the first estimate, and a considerable sum of money appropriated for the building was turned back into the treasury after the capitol was completed. Democrats manipulated the New York building business and Republicans in Michigan. Which do you like the best?

The fusionists lay great stress upon the phrase "Tariff for revenue only."

The only use we have yet learned that has been made of the funds raised from the tariff is for the needed revenues of the government. Free trade means no tariff or tax on imported goods. If you will ask a pretended free trader how he proposes to keep up the supply of revenue he will say tax imports; or if he mean what he says, when he calls himself a free trader, he will say direct tax, to support the general government the same as local government expenses are now raised, and not one in a thousand can be found who advocates this plan. This leaves this only difference between the pro-tectionists and free traders of to-day:

The former propose to raise the funds necessary to run the government and pay the national debt, by levying a tax on such imported goods as come in direct competition with American industries to their extinction, and are honest enough to call it by its name, Tariff for revenue and protection. The latter propose to raise the government funds by taxing imported goods, but try to blind the people by calling it free trade. It is true that while the influence of tax on foreign goods is of great benefit in building up the American manufacturing interests, make markets at home, and thus make this nation as independent of European powers as possible, it is conceded by all that the present schedule needs some revision, and for this purpose a commission from the most competent men in the country was appointed at the last session of Congress to gather all information possible, relating to advantages of the protection and recommend to Congress at its next session, such changes as they deem expedient, and we can but await the report of this commission with the hope that they will perform their duty in a just and thorough manner.

Our idea of a protection tariff is that the tariff should be equal to the difference between the price of labor needed in the manufacture of the article in America, and the price of the labor required to manufacture the same article where the laborers are kept in a state of pauperism through generations without number, or if the selling price of an article here is $1, and the cost of the labor to manufacture that article at American prices is 50 cents, while the cost of the same labor in England, or whatever other country it comes from, is ten cents, we would make the tariff forty cents, thus protecting the labor of America in its present position to receive good living wages.

Buchanan is represented on the Republican county ticket by two worthy men, viz: Walter I. Himes, the present county clerk, for re-election, and A.

A. Worthington, for Circuit Court Commissioner. Walter I. Himes has not only the qualities of genial, social friend, but his incumbency of the office of County Clerk has shown him to be especially fitted for that place.

He has done the official work required of his position, thoroughly, systematically and promptly, and by arranging the records and files of many years accumulation in the office, he has made it possible for anyone requiring a copy of any legal document necessary in any case, to turn to it at once, without spending hours in the search, an accomplishment that few know anything about, who have had no occasion to consult the records, but the legal fraternity of the county unite in giving him unequalled praise for the thoroughly efficient work he has performed. The Board of Supervisors too, Democrats and Republicans alike, have seconded the warm approval of the secretary; no better endorsement could have been given by them than their recent vote, added to the vote of January last, found in the published proceedings of the board of Supervisors, 1881-2, page 70, which Mr. John P. Beckwith presented or moved its adoption, which was unanimously agreed to, and which is as follows:

"Resolved, That the thanks of this board be and are hereby tendered to Walter I. Himes, the clerk of the board, for the able and courteous manner in which he has performed his duties as clerk of this board for the past year; and also we would make due recognition of the labor he has bestowed upon his office in systematizing the same for the benefit of the public."

Now, with these official and unofficial testimonials of worth to a valuable official, are you willing to displace him from a second term, and for him? Simply a good fellow. No, voters of Buchanan township and Berrien county, rally to the side of Walter I. Himes, and roll up a routing majority for a good soldier, who served through the war faithfully, from Bull Run to Ap-tomatox, and has, in civil affairs, shown by his fitness, that your choice of clerk was well made, and let every man who honors the old flag, and who believes that merit and efficiency should be rewarded, come out next Tuesday and vote for Walter I. Himes, insuring a large majority for a valiant solidian, an honorable man, and a capable and worthy official.

A. A. Worthington, the popular law partner of Attorney General J. Van Riper, whose candidate appeals to all voters who believe in filling offices of responsibility and trust with capable, honest and clean men, will, by their votes, for him, accomplish their desires.

"Best" is short for "best qualified," and his long residence among us, has proven himself, in all business entrusted to his care, painstaking, careful and reliable, and all are pleased in a Circuit Court Commissioner. Buchanan has never had a Commissioner, and if so, so long ago that the remembrance of it has faded from the mind of the oldest inhabitants. All therefore, who would, in the interest of fair play, without regard to party lines, for this judicial office, like to see Buchanan have the Circuit Court Commissioner come out and vote for the candidate we present, Albert A. Worthington, who will prove worthy and well qualified, and only and truly prepared."

A Democrat on the "Vittles" Candidate.

Oct. 30, 1882.

BERRIEN COUNTY RECORD.—Will

you permit me, an old Democrat, to say a word or two through your paper, to those who propose to support the Union ticket this fall? I am, and have been in favor of a union of effort against the Republican party; while I favor such a union I do not propose to vote for candidates on that ticket who have steadily and persistently, up to the very time of their nomination, opposed the plan adopted by the Democratic and Greenback State conventions and ratified by the minor conventions of the said parties in their nominations for their local offices. I am well pleased with the Union ticket with the exception of one man, and for the reason that they have been in favor of just such an effort as we have inaugurated, to overthrow the Republicans in this State. I refer to the candidate for Representative in the 2d

District, on the Union ticket, William A. Keith. This man has steadily and persistently opposed such an effort as we are now making against the common enemy of the Democratic and Greenback parties. How he can come forward and accept the nomination he now holds, and expect the party he so bitterly opposed, to support him for a member of the legislature, is beyond our understanding. Very fortunately for the Union movement he had but little influence at home and none abroad. His ability will compare favorably with his influence abroad. To prove this assertion, allow me to call attention to his public career while serving his township, two terms, as supervisor. A close inspection of the record of the Board of Supervisors will prove him the boss do-nothing of that body. The only thing that is remembered of him is his voting with the Republicans, in 1881, to elect James Taskins chairman, against our candidate, Charles F. Howe. His vote gave the organization of that Board to the Republicans. When asked for an explanation of his vote on that occasion, he said, "I am engaged in killing the

If we, as Democrats, are to vote for a Greenback man for the legislature, why have such Greenbackers as Franklin, Drew, Fox, Ros, and a host of others, of ability been pushed aside, and an enemy of our cause placed in nomination, and we, like pliant tools, expected to support him. Is this the fault of the Democrats? I hear that it is charged as another of their "blunders." Let us vote straight for the Re-

GUS. M. DUDLEY passed through this place, Tuesday evening, on his way to the home of H. L. Mr. Dudley is a young printer who has been connected with the Era office at Berrien Springs nearly eight years.

In answer to the RECORD's question, Dr. J. M. Roe desires to inform him that he will, assuredly and gladly vote for Geo. L. Yapple.—Independent.

Yes, that's the idea exactly. "Principles be d—d," again. The principles advocated by Mr. Roe and by Mr. Yapple are as diametrically opposed as is possible, but the sale made at the nominating conventions did not take into consideration anything of that kind.

MR. E. P. MORLEY, an old resident of Vessaw township, died under rather peculiar circumstances, last week. The facts as we learn them are that he left his home Friday evening to remove a fence that had been built upon a lane near his premises, and Sunday morning, when next found, he was lying by the roadside dead. The coroner's jury decided that he came to his death by natural causes.

THE Mirror says that the Niles editorial "choir" cut a prominent figure in the first excursion over the new railroad to Benton Harbor. We should expect to find the make-up of that "choir" to consist of Major Duncan, soprano; Dr. Horn, "soprano" tenor; and Cook always sings double "base" on every subject he tackles, whether free trade, railroad passes, or suckers and milk.

A FELLOW named Wm. A. Frazier has been captured and arraigned before Justice Nichols, of Berrien Springs, for the robbery of A. J. Fox's store, of $4,000 worth of goods, a few months since, and held in $6,000 bonds to appear for trial. Frazier had just completed a four year's job for the State, at Jackson, for the robbery of Mrs. Fowler's millinery establishment, in Niles, when Fox's store was attacked.

DIED.—Mrs. Kate McCracken, daughter of Joseph Covey, died at her residence, in Buchanan township, on the morning of Oct. 24, 1882, aged 42 years. Mrs. McCracken possessed those sterling qualities that make the faithful wife, the devoted mother, the excellent neighbor and the true friend. She was united with the Christian church at the age of 22. Seventeen years ago the 17th day of last September, she was married to Charles McCracken. She leaves her husband, three children, and numerous relatives and friends.

It is delightful to see the Mirror's Cook try to condemn a brother editor in the eyes of the people for having a railroad pass, when he himself has carried from one to half a dozen the greater part of the time for the past forty years, a perfectly legitimate part of the newspaper business. The attempt to find fault with the Republican editor on that score is straining at a gnat, both petty and contemptible.

THERE are about 114 rods of the black concrete walk in this place that is about the same as solid rock, and is in excellent condition. There are about two miles of place for more of the same kind that ought to have been built during the past summer. It is to be hoped that the first work of the spring will be to continue the good work commenced. We cannot have too much of that kind of walk in Buchanan, or have it too soon. Poor and unsafe walks may be found in all parts town, and it is in the interest of all that they should be substantially replaced.

THANKS.—The relatives of Benjamin Franklin desire to publicly acknowledge their gratitude, and to express their heart-felt thanks to the kind friends and neighbors who so cheerfully aided him during his illness, and assisted us during the trying time of his interment. We especially tender our thanks to the choir who furnished us with such sweet music upon that occasion.

MRS. LAURA FRANKLIN, MR. AND MRS. F. FRANKLIN.

G. E. HOVEY, Clerk of Berrien township, and Joel Gillette is Supervisor and candidate for Representative, in order to get every Republican vote registered in that township. Mr. Gillette employs the Clerk and they go directly to their dwellings. This is a sure way.—Mirror.

So strong is the inclination of the Mirror to prevaricate, it leaves the above in such form that people will at once conclude that Mr. Gillette and the Clerk call upon only Republicans to have them register, when the fact is they made no discrimination, one called upon Republicans and opposition alike. The Mirror could not have told the story as it was, for that would not be doing Mr. Gillette any injury.

"OLD DEMOCRAT" whose correspondence appears in this paper, is one who knows what he is talking about, and by separate note gives the following reference for the benefit of those who may wish to make farther investigation: "If your readers want any proof of his 'do-nothing' ability let them visit his home in Chikaming. If they want directions as to where he lives, tell them to stop at the worst looking farm they can find in Chikaming, where the buildings, fences, orchard, and all the surroundings are in the most dilapidated condition, and there resides the statesman and representative man of the Democratic and Greenback parties."

NEW TROY, Oct. 31, 1882. EDITOR RECORD:—There seems to be a great many conflicting reports concerning the condition of Mrs. A. W. Sherwood, who was so seriously burned at her home in Sodas township, on Thursday, Oct. 18, 1882. In order that those interested may know the facts, I have thought proper to make the following statement: At first it was conceded that her injuries would prove fatal, and although she is still alive and seems to be doing well, her condition is still very critical. It will require a number of weeks, at best, before she can recover. She is very hopeful and unusually cheerful for one enduring so much pain. The case is in charge of Dr. Clippenger. Drs. Bell, of Benton Harbor, and Reiber, of Berrien Springs, have been called as counsel.

Respectfully,

MRS. ALONZO SHERWOOD.

The following list of fine presents were left with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weisgerber, on the evening of their marriage, October 25:

One set dishes, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Hathaway; bedroom suit and bedroom set, Mr. and Mrs. John Weisgerber; silver casket, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hathaway; clock, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Barton; one pair towels, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Atwood; glass bread plate and table linen, Miss Minnie Weisgerber; egg-batter, wash-tub, wash-board and clothes-line, Mrs. Jennie Lawton; lamp, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hahn; one pair towels, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. FROM THREE OAKS.

Nov. 1, 1882.

Everything is quiet at this time in our little town.

Thomas McCann and family left our town yesterday for California. He has been one of our main business men here for a good many years, and has made some money here. He will be missed by many.

Tom Walker, of St. Joseph, and Wm. McCoy are in town making friends, of course.

A good many people went from this place to New Troy, yesterday, to attend the horse thief association, which met there.

Hon. Wm. Chamberlain was seen to go out of town this morning with a gun on his shoulder. It looked very strange. Look out, squirrels.

Morris Carpenter shipped a car load of household goods and a good span of horses to Missouri, yesterday, where he is going to make his future home.

The Hon. J. C. Burrows will speak here next Friday evening, in the Town Hall. Come early and get a seat.

It is estimated that 100,000 people will emigrate to Dakota during the next year.

THERE appears to be but little confidence on the part of the opposition in this county that they can possibly elect more than two of their candidates. Thomas O'Hara for clerk, against W. T. Hines, and Thomas Walker for sheriff, against James R. Clarke. The principal claim made for them both, and the only point upon which their canvass is being worked up, is that they are jolly fellows among the boys. Both are working among that class of voters whose favor goes to the man who can "set them up" the oftenest. Mr. Walker spent one whole week among the saloons of Niles, and the New Buffalo also, and at other places the same plan is pursued. The other candidate while here was a good customer at the saloon, although not a drinker himself. The question arises, are good temperance, steady people going to throw overboard two so good officers as Messrs. Hines and Clarke have shown themselves to be, for this kind of men? Whatever other towns may do let Buchanan see to it that this kind of electioneering is not made successful here.

Lough-Leg.

Married, in Bertram township, Oct. 31, 1882, at the residence of the bride's parents, by Dr. F. H. Berriek, Frank E. Lough, one of Buchanan's promising and highly esteemed young men, and Miss Elouise Legar, a very interesting young lady. The wedding was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Legar about fifty invited guests to witness the marriage ceremony, which began precisely at eight o'clock. After the congratulations, the company were invited to partake of a bountiful repast of good things, prepared under the supervision of Mrs. Legar, who, together with her husband, made all present feel that it was good to be there. Invoking the choicest blessing upon the newly married couple, we give expression to the sincere sentiments of all those who attended the wedding, and many others who were not present. Below will be found a list of presents from different friends:

One pair towels and two table cloths, father and mother of the bride; one set dishes, Mr. Shaffer, South Bend, and father of the groom; one set silver forks, one table cloth and half dozen napkins, mother of the groom; one engraved glass fruit dish, and half dozen sauce dishes to match, Mrs. F. H. Berriek; one pair vases, Agnes Felty; one silver and glass pickle casket, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Dodge; one tidy, Mrs. A. J. Eychaner, Marshalltown, Iowa; one Majolica plate, one comb case and combs, Lynde Legar; one mirror, L. I. Wilson and Ed. Legar; one chamber set, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Redden; one book "Our Department," Carry and Harvey Dodge; one set silver table and teaspoons, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Lough; one Majolica card receiver, Delos Kounts; one silver butter knife, Willie Richards; one set silver knives, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Woods, Cassopolis; one-half dozen napkins, Mrs. Van Meter and son; one pair pillow shams, Mrs. K. Kooten; one egg beater and sugar scoop, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Baker; one bed spread, Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Sparks; one salt and tray, Della Haslett; one glass covered fruit dish and one Majolica pickle dish, Mr. and Mrs. E. Morgan; one engraved glass set, Melvin Farnham; one silver avir casket and one glass cake stand, Elsie Redden, Estelle Baker, Nellie and Emma Farran, Effie Treat, Geo. and Ed.
