NOBLE!

Will close out his stock of FALL & WINTER GOODS at prices so low that none need go with wet feet or poorly clad. Goods low down for cash. Call and see.

DR. E. W. ROE was in Buchanan with his family, Christmas.

This is the last copy of the RECORD you will receive this year.

Is this the hard winter the prophets were to give us?

WANTED BADLY.—About four inches of snow and little colder weather.

Bad time this for poorly shod horses. Ice roads bring them down.

A new advertisement for G. W. Noble appears at the head of this column. Read what he has to say to you.

THE C. W. & M. railroad have their depot open for business at Benfon Harbor this week.

REV. W. W. WELLS, of this place, is delivering a course of lectures at the Presbyterian church in Niles.

CHRISTMAS presents were more numerous than usual this year, and expensive ones were quite common.

THE funeral of Mrs. Mary Boss of Niles township was held at the Michael Hand place to-day.

MRS. W. W. ALLEN, of Burlington Iowa, is visiting with the family of W. A. Severson of this place.

The Journal figures up 157 saloons in this Congressional district. Enough, isn't it?

MRS. W. W. WEBBER, an old resident of Niles, died of cancer in the stomach, Tuesday.

MR. SAMUEL THOMPSON, for 38 years a resident of Niles township, a native of Glasgow, Scotland, died at his home Monday, in his 85th year.

It is by the kindness of Mr. John Searls that ye editor was enabled to eat from the "fatted calf" for Christmas.

MR. FRANK SPENCER, of Lawrence, Mich., a former resident of Portage Prairie, spends the holidays with his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Stryker, on Terre Coupee Prairie.

The Christmas tree, at the home of Mr. Riley Scott (the Scott family tree), contained, probably, the richest fruit of any of its species in this section.

A DAUGHTER and son were born to the household of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell, Tuesday. Unfortunately but one, the son, lived.

ED. WILLARD and Alvah Fancher returned Tuesday evening from Chicago, where they have been attending commercial college.

A GENERAL change in population takes place at the county seat next week. The new officers take possession next Monday.

DON'T head your letters with 1882 after Saturday night. Sunday is the last day of the year, but of course no one writes letters on Sunday.

Would you think it? We have two good correspondents at Bridgeman. Trouble is, nothing ever happens in Bridgeman.

MISS ANNETTE J. BALANTIN was the recipient of a beautiful photograph album, a Christmas gift from her pupils of the Third Intermediate Department.

A GAB pike 18 inches long came through the water pipes at Niles, from Barron lake, four miles away, he now decorates the aquarium at the city postoffice.—Evening News.

THE Ladies' Mite Society of the Advent church will meet at the residence of Wm. Blake, over the river, next Thursday, January 4. All those who wish to go, and have no teams of their own, will be provided for at J. K. Woods' store at 10 A. M., sharp. A cordial invitation to all.

In our list of tax payers last week we made an error in copying from the receipts, and omitted the name of Capt. George H. Richards, whose tax amounts to $181.

ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Wm. Lough while crossing the street from her home to that of Mr. John Reamer, last Saturday evening, slipped and fell upon the ice, breaking one bone of her arm.

SATURDAY was a lively day among the boys. Three of them were in the village refrigerator at one time, being cooled off sufficiently to admit of their undertaking a journey home.

THE warm weather and rain during the past week or ten days has had a demoralizing effect on the sleighing and business depending thereon.

SAM JORDAN, known in the west part of this county as Buckskin Sam, has come to grief. At last account he was in jail at Paw Paw awaiting an examination on the charge of rape.

CHARLEY EVAN has the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community. His wife and son have left him. They will return, however, after having had a visit of five or six weeks with relatives in Delaware county, Iowa.

EVERYBODY appears to be either visiting or entertaining company this week. The editor is the exception. Too poor to get himself out of town, and as he never has anything to eat company gives his shanty a wide berth.

The Michigan Central company has an elegant new passenger house nearly completed at Michigan City. Niles should send a petition long and loud to be served likewise.

MARRIAGE.—Mr. B. D. Harper and Miss Clara Harper went to Mendon yesterday morning, to attend the wedding of Miss Carrie Morten to Prof. S. W. Cupples, of Paw Paw, which occurred at 5 o'clock last evening at the home of Mr. T. P. Morten, in Mendon.

COL. BAYLIS, a prominent Democrat of Clinton county, was in Buchanan Christmas. He says he expects to help inaugurate that Greenback Governor. Col. Baylis figured quite prominently as a candidate on the Democratic State ticket a few years since. Democrats in this vicinity will remember having voted for him.

THE Christmas tree at the Christian church, Monday evening, was well patronized, there being a good display of presents. The church was crowded to overflowing. The speaking by the little ones was excellent.

BUSINESS CHANGE.—Mr. William Powers has made arrangements to move his boot and shoe store to the west front room in the Major House, about Jan. 1, but will have his custom work done at his present stand for a time.

THOMAS DENNISTON built a log cabin in Niles in 1858, which was recently torn down, and in order to preserve the cabin history, a portion of the timber found in it has been made up into chairs and distributed among his descendants.

OWING to a decision of the managers of the Michigan Central railroad to the effect that their agents should not be allowed to furnish newspapers with statements of business, without consent from headquarters, we omit the usual statement of this kind this year. It is interesting to have such statistics for reference, but—

DIED.—Mrs. Mary Flannigan, an old resident of this vicinity, died at the residence of her son-in-law, Hon. J. H. Service, at New Carlisle, Dec. 25, aged 75 years and 6 months. She was a resident of St. Joseph county, Ind., over 40 years, living with her husband, Hugh Flannigan at Cottage Hill, where he was killed by lightning in 1845.

THE social event of the season, in Weasau, was the marriage of Mr. Joseph S. Beale, of the Buchanan-Marble Works of this place, and Miss Alice Hagley, which occurred at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Gottlieb Hagley, Sunday evening. There were over eighty persons present, and a large number of valuable presents were bestowed upon the new family. Rev. Mr. Eastman performed the ceremony.

Now comes a citizen of St. Joseph, in a communication to the Republican, scoring the voters of that township for refusing to settle with the holders of their railroad old bonds when they had easy terms offered. It appears from the communication that the bondholders have taken steps toward the collection of a large installment of the bonds this year, and are in a fair way to collect.

ELECTION.—The following were elected officers of Buchanan Lodge No. 75, I. O. O. F., at the regular meeting on Tuesday evening:

Warren McDonald, N. G.
Ira Emmens, V. G.
Allen Emmerson, Rec. Sec.
John C. Dick, Par. Sec.
Hiram N. Nowrey, Treas.
W. W. Smith, Rep. to G. L.
Charles Snyder, Trustee.

THE "famous" jubilee singers tried to sing to a fair-sized audience in Rough's Opera House, for the benefit of the home company, on Monday evening. The general opinion was that the company was "fresh," as a concert company. Some of the female voices would be good if trained as was that of Bessie Warwick, who sang one piece, "I'll Follow Thee," in a very acceptable manner. The home company did not realize any benefit, the receipts being too small.

A NUMBER of farmers who come to town by way of River street, and consequently are obliged to cross the St. Joseph Valley Railroad at that street, complain of the switch that has been put in there by the company, as dangerous to horses, saying that the horse's feet get caught in the switch iron, and few roads either way would have placed the switch so that this danger would have been avoided, and it might pay the company to make the change yet before they have some one's horse to pay for, on account of a broken leg.

Those who write for the papers, using a lead pencil and colored paper, will just set a sheet of their copy about four feet from them and undertake to read it, they will understand why it is that compositors never go to heaven and will ever after write on white paper with ink.

List of letters remaining uncalled for in the post-office at Buchanan, Mich., for the week ending Dec. 28, 1882: Mrs. Nellie M. Kinnic, Mr. Samuel Kelly, Mrs. W. S. Kirkbride, Mr. William O'Brien (foreign).

L. P. ALEXANDER, P. M.

MR. AND MRS. MAJOR, of the Major House, entertained a number of their friends, by a pleasant dancing party, Monday evening. Every one was made to feel perfectly at home, as are all of the guests of the Major House. During the supper the company was entertained with some music by the Tennessee Jubilee Singers, who were stopping there.

THE fourth quarterly meeting of the Advent Christian Church, of Bremen, Union Mills, Olive Branch, Sumption Prairie, Indiana, will meet with the church of this place, on Oak street, Thursday evening, and continue to the close of the year, three services each day. All are cordially invited.

ONE day last week three boys were before Justice Dick charged with having shot a dog belonging to Davis, colored, but the prosecuting attorney did not appear and the boys were discharged. Saturday afternoon Davis' boy "Frock" amused himself by setting the dog on to some children who were coasting on Day's avenue, and two or three of the little girls were quite badly bitten. The boys are requested to go hunting once more and make a better shot next time.

THE following item we find in the Hartford Day Springs. Mr. McMullen will be remembered as the conductor on the St. Joseph Valley railroad:
"A serious accident happened on the narrow gauge railroad at Four Mile Lake Wednesday afternoon, by which four men were seriously, and one it is believed, fatally injured. They had been working in the deep cut between this place and Lawrence, and were going east on a day car with a saw, a plow attached and which was being pushed ahead of the engine. In passing over a switch at the lake the plow struck an iron, stopping it and the engine, turning the car and all seriously injured. Mr. McMullen about 20 feet, injuring his neck and shoulder. Mr. Stavers, Knapp and Kelly were caught under the car and all seriously injured. Mr. Stavers hit being crushed, and at present his recovery seems doubtful. Had it not been for the snow they would doubtless have been instantly killed."

THE Farmers' Institute which was held in Buchanan Grange Hall last Thursday afternoon was quite a success, both in attendance and interest. Papers were read by the following persons: F. Franklin, B. Chamberlain, L. Sparks and J. H. Rogers. The discussions of the subject of each paper which followed its reading formed quite an interesting part of the meeting.

Some difference of opinion was expressed with reference to plowing. A number of the farmers thought that a heavy or clay soil should be plowed deep, while a thin, loose or sandy soil should be plowed shallow. Others thought it would be better to plow all kinds of soil deep.

One of the essayists said he thought we were naturally social beings. But a part of the persons present seemed to think differently, and believed that sociability and generosity were the fruits of education and Christian civilization, while people in their natural state are unsocial and selfish. If the latter is true it would seem as if some of our people were quite natural at present. How is it?

Very practical and appropriate remarks were made by Hon. Wm. Chamberlain, Albert Drew and W. K. Sawyer.
[Niles Mirror.]

George A. Irwin, residing five miles north, on the Berrien road, found four of his fat hogs drowned in the lake near him, one day last week. The fence having been let down at the end of the lane leading to the lake, it was suspected that some one drove them upon the ice with a view to get them across, for the fence was let down not far off and a sled track led to it. The ice broke and let the hogs in, and the attempt to capture them seemed to have been abandoned.

Arbela, Tuscola county, boasts of a woman who has gone into the woods with her husband, and done her half of the sawing, splitting and piling four of the logs in a day, and can keep it up for any length of time. She weighs 120 pounds, and is 28 years old, of English descent, and the strangest of all is she says she never saw a tired day in her life.

A GARD.
After several months of severe sickness and pain, I am happy to be able to say that I am so far recovered as to be in the enjoyment of a reasonable share of health and freedom from pain. And it is my wish hereby to express my gratitude to our Heavenly Father, who either directly or indirectly is the Giver of every good thing, but also to acknowledge gratefully the sympathy and kindness of my neighbors and townsmen, grown people and children, which were expressed in so many ways; he prays, both public and private, offered in my behalf; and also the kind and careful nursing and medical treatment, all of which I believe to be the agencies through which the kind Father's blessing of returning health is secured to me. It has been indeed a pleasant surprise to me to know how fully the whole community have sympathized with my recovery. It is my heartfelt wish that as long as I am agreed to live among you I may be worthy of the kind and universal interest and sympathy which were exhibited toward me, and that by deeds of charity and love we may mutually serve one another.
JOHN WEISBERGER.

That Road Again.

As the highway commissioner of Buchanan township has had his say in regard to the road in the south-west corner of the township, the overseer of the district now has a word to say. The commissioner will bear in mind that there were only 37 days work assessed in the district. I also call your attention to the fact that there are three miles of road in the district, including some as bad as there are in the township. Now, I invite the commissioner to compare the two and a half miles of road that I repaired with the district road, to the ten or fifteen rods that he repaired at a cost to the township of $50. I also wish to know if forcing the water to run 20 rods up hill to run down again on the other side of the road, and the heaping up of 18 inches of clay in a mud hole in the fall of the year is a fair sample of the judicious road work that he speaks about. I also wish to inform him that I have heard no complaint of any part of the road except the west half mile that he agreed to repair.

As the commissioner seeks to lay all blame to me, and has made the statement to the effect that I have not done ten cents worth of work on the dollar in the district I have secured the names of those who have assessed and worked their road tax, they are persons of undoubted integrity.

ALONZO POTTER, Overseer.
We, the undersigned, hereby certify that our road tax assessed in District No. 15, Buchanan township for 1882, was faithfully worked, and applied to advantage under the direction of the overseer of highways.
Buchanan, Dec. 21, 1882.

ENOS HOLMES, THOMAS MCNALLY, FRED. ANDREWS, CHAS. KOTSHOF, WILLIAM BURRIS, CELIA MORLEY.

"All of our readers who are afflicted with long standing or chronic diseases, should not fail to consult Dr. Price, the celebrated Analytical Physician. We have been acquainted with him for years, have made diligent enquiries in relation to his practice, and as a result of our enquiries, have learned that he is skillful, as several of our well known citizens, who have obtained relief from him, when all other remedies failed, can testify. He has visited all the principle cities in this section of the state regularly for years, and in every place, on account of the almost miraculous cures he has performed, his fame as a skillful practitioner has spread far and wide. We therefore deemed it our duty to advise all suffering from chronic diseases, to consult Dr. Price. If your disease is beyond your control, he will candidly tell you so. If it is not, your consulting him may be the means of your enjoying years of health and happiness."
Dr. Price will be at Niles, Bond House, on Saturday (until 8 o'clock) the 20th of January, 1883.
