COMING—Dan and Josie Morris Sullivan, who will be remembered as having visited this place a number of years ago, with his Mirror of Ireland. Two of the best Irish character actors that have ever visited Buchanan. They come this time supported by a good company, among whom is Fred Wildman, well known here, producing the new Irish drama, "Shiel Agar," in Rough's Opera House, on Monday evening next, April 2. Tickets are on sale at Kinyon's.

If some of those in this place who have the means would invest it in twenty-five or fifty cottages, that would cost $500 or $600 each, they could rent them as fast as they could be built, for a good, profitable rent, and increase the population of the town by that number of families. Some time has passed since there has been a greater demand for houses to rent in Buchanan.

An agent, soliciting subscribers for the Inter-Ocean, was in town the other day, and started to go through Spencer & Barnes' furniture factory with a lighted cigar in his mouth. He went all over the first floor and was going up to the second when he was discovered by John Barnes, and the fellow was peremptorily ordered off the premises. Served him right.

A most contemptible outrage, of which a young man named Barrow, who has been in the employ of Clifton Hamilton during the winter, was the victim, was committed last Sunday evening at the corner of Front and Lake streets. Mr. Barrow says that he was going home, between ten and eleven o'clock that evening, and when at that corner, seven or eight men came from the shade of the trees, grabbed him and threw him to the ground, demanding his money. He told them he had none, when they rifled his pockets, but took nothing. One of them then proposed to castrate him, and after mangling him in a horrible manner let him go. He worked all next day without making known his condition, but at night, feeling weak from loss of blood, started to his home in Niles township, and on his way he met his brother, who discovered the young man's condition, took him to his home and sent for Dr. Dodd. When he arrived he found the young man so nearly bled to death as to require sharp work to revive him. He is getting along well now, and may recover. There is no clue to the perpetrators of the dastardly act. The boy was so badly frightened that he would not have known his nearest friends, and did not recognize any of the gang. Some young bloods were making night hideous with their drunken howlings, a short time afterwards, in another part of town, but it is not known that they were connected in any way with this performance. Punishment of such fellows could not be too severe could they be detected.

[St. Joseph Traveler-Here.]

Some $300 more are still needed to make up the sum necessary to secure the telephone connection to the county seat and Niles. St. Joseph and Benton Harbor are expected to make up this amount. Both towns ought to have this telephonic communication with the points named.

PROCLAMATION.

By an act of the people of the State of Michigan entitled "An act to make the judicial purity" approved May 22, 1877, making it unlawful for any person to sell, barter, or give away any Spirituous, Vinous or Malt Liquors on the day of any election held within the State of Michigan, under the Constitution or laws thereof, and making it the duty of all Mayors of Cities, Presidents of Villages and Supervisors of Townships, within five days previous to the day of election to issue a proclamation warning the inhabitants of said act, and that all violation of the same will subject the offender to prompt and speedy punishment, and requiring sheriffs, marshals, constables and Police Officers to close all houses or places found violating the provisions of this act, and to report forthwith all violations of the same to the Prosecuting Attorney and Mayor, President or Supervisor aforesaid, whose duty it shall be to immediately prosecute such violations of said act.

Therefore, I, the Supervisor of the Township of Buchanan, in accordance with said act, do hereby warn the inhabitants of the provisions of the same, and that all violations of section nine of the act shall subject the offender to prompt and speedy punishment.

Given under my hand this 27th day of March, A. D. 1888.

ALFRED RICHARDS,

Supervisor of the Township of Buchanan.

To the Republicans of Bertrand Township.

In consideration of the fact that a number of Republicans and other citizens friends have spoken to me as the probable Republican candidate for Supervisor in Bertrand township, this spring, and have expressed an intention to support me for the same, I deem it wise, both from gratitude to my friends and in justice to myself, to publicly express my appreciation of your good will, and also my inability to accept such a nomination.

For my unsought election as Supervisor, a year ago, and the unexpected compliment paid me, I entertained a deep feeling of gratitude commensurate with manifest favor. But when you repeated, as you did last November, your expression of esteem, it bound me in friendship, with inseparable ties, to the citizens of the township of my birth. For these voluntary expressions on your part I have endeavored to discharge the duties imposed upon me, honestly and faithfully, and should still consider it an honor to longer do your bidding did I not know it would be at the sacrifice of personal financial interests. From the consideration that my business demands my personal attention, I ask as a favor that you excuse me from further services as Supervisor.

Respectfully,

JOEL H. GILLETTE.

THE following interesting item we find in the Battle Creek letter to the Post and Tribune, Friday:

"A man from Assyria tells your correspondent that about a year ago, Peter Farley died, and his remains were interred in the village cemetery, and it was his request that the remains of his beloved wife Anna, who was buried near Berrien Springs, in the south part of the State, in the cemetery of that village, be taken up and laid beside his. One day last week a son of Mr. Farley went to Berrien Springs, and with four other men from that place, started out for the cemetery to fulfill the dead man's request. Digging down to the coffin they placed the strap under, but couldn't budge it any more. The grave being on a side hill, they dug away the lower side, and by putting shanks underneath the coffin, were able to slide it out. The corpse being so heavy it prompted their curiosity to open the coffin, when they found the corpse petrified, resembling yellow marble, and solid as stone. The features, body and limbs appeared to be perfect, except the top of the hands, which, as they lay crossed, were out of the water with which the coffin was nearly full. The ground where the coffin lay was clay. Mrs. Farley died nearly fourteen years ago, of typhoid fever, and was buried on the same day. She was a fleshy woman, weighing nearly 300 pounds. The son estimates that the petrified corpse weighed at the least calculation 300 pounds."

FROM THREE OAKS.

March 28, 1888.

Miss Lottie Paddock died this morning at 5 o'clock. Funeral Friday at 11 o'clock a. m., at the Congregational.

Mr. Wm. Chamberlain is quite sick. His little child is not expected to live long.

Thomas Martin is going to rebuild his hotel this spring, and make a good deal more room. He needs it.

If our village had a health officer it would be a good idea for him to take a stroll through some of the alleys and vacant lots and see what condition he would find things in. If there is nothing doing in that line, the doctors and undertakers will have plenty of business this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Munger, of Starburg, Mich., are visiting their parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Ely.

Wm. Bremer is better.

FROM BERRIEN CENTRE.

March 26, 1888.

Easter was generally observed by laying in and partaking of an extra supply of fresh eggs.

The excursion to Benton Harbor, on Saturday last, took a large number of our citizens there to see the launching of the new steamer, "City of St. Joseph."

Prof. Blanchard's "Talk on Education," given two weeks since at Maple Grove, was replete with sound statements upon the leading educational questions, and especially was his advice good to the young who are now just starting in life, and fitting themselves for life's duties and requirements. He is a dauntless defender of the Gospel truth, and every word goes right home. We are in hopes he will come again.

Mr. Thomas Biggin and family start for their Dakota home in a few days. Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Peck go with them. He ships a carload of provisions, stock, etc., or summer use.

A letter from our timer, Mr. W. H. Carpenter, who with his family has spent the winter in Ohio, states that his little son is very low with lung fever.

Miss Genie Mars has returned from Olivet to spend the vacation at home with her parents.

Mr. O. A. Lacroce returned from the State University on Thursday, where he has been pursuing the medical course. He will retrench his purse and recruit his strength on the farm during the summer, and go back again at the fall semester.

Several of the farmers have opened their sugar orchards, but the constant cold weather has prevented any good runs so far.

Nathan Borton will move, on Tuesday next, to his new farm, one-half mile S. of Eau Claire.

A particular case in court last week seemed to have attracted a large amount of attention to curious folk.

Circuit Court.

Simon Hamilton vs. David A. Best; trespass, and the case of Geo. A. Howard, et al. vs. Henry C. Platt, et al.; assumpsit, were continued until next term.

Union School district No. 1, of Buchanan township vs. Jacob Weaver, et al.; assumpsit. It having been suggested to the court that Jacob Weaver is dead, it was ordered that John T. Beckwith, his administrator be substituted in his stead.

The people vs. James Zimmerman; charge, malicious mischief. The case was dismissed upon the payment of ten dollars by the defendant.

The people vs. Albert Lamb; charge, seduction. Continued until next term of court, defendant giving bail for his appearance.

Harriet Fuxton vs. Ross Pierce; malpractice. Continued until next term.

Joseph S. Tuttle vs. Royal T. Twombly. On petition of defendant this case was transferred to the United States court at Grand Rapids.

The people vs. Rosewell Hunt; larceny. Arraigned and plead not guilty. Trial was continued until next term.

The people vs. William Caldwell; charge, larceny. Arraigned and plead not guilty.

Harriet Metzger vs. Robert Chambers; replevin. Judgment set aside.

Abraham J. Knisely vs. Charles Morris, Christian Stein, and Henry Stein; trover. Case dismissed.

Henry Chamberlain vs. Christian Ahrens; ejectment. Judgment in favor of defendant, and plaintiff given fifty days to settle a bill of exceptions.

The people vs. George Anstee; charge, cruelty to animals. The defendant not appearing at this time the do. for his appearance, with Ferdinand Schneewind as security was retried.

John P. Frazier vs. Jacob Baldard; assault and battery. Judgment in favor of plaintiff.

The people vs. William A. Frazier; charge, burglary of Fox's store in Niles, last August, is being tried by jury as we go to press.

Frazier was found guilty.

STATE ITEMS.

The Jackson Citizen, boasts that Jackson has a goose-egg on exhibition which weighs 10½ ounces, 12x8¼ inches in circumference.

The total receipts of the treasurer of South Haven, last year, excepting the highway tax, was $2,453.35. Of this, $804.35 was by direct tax, and $1,438.50 was from liquor taxes.

A silk hat factory is among the new enterprises in Battle Creek.

The city of Lapeer is asked to pay Miss Martha Daniels $10,000 for injuries received in consequence of defective sidewalks.

Richard Fox was arrested in East Saginaw Friday for embezzlement—taking a $10 gold piece from a man to look at and then refused to return it. He was jailed.

The locating committee of the State Agricultural Society have decided to hold the State Fair in Detroit this year, providing the promised bonus of $5,360 be raised. Jackson and Kalamazoo were the contesting places. There was the bonus offered by Detroit difference in favor of that place.

Don. C. Henderson, of the Allegan Journal, accused R. Koning of seduction, and was sued for $10,000 damages, the jury giving a verdict for the plaintiff, but cutting down the amount of damages just $9,000. Now the father of the girl sued Koning for $10,000.—Evening News.

A nine-year-old boy in Unionville, Bay county, attending school, during play hours, in a fit of anger, said "god darn you" to a playmate. Thereupon the teacher, named W. E. Jackson, whipped the boy severely, upon the ground that saying "god darn" is profanity. The boy's father sued the teacher, who was fined $25 and costs, after which he was dismissed from his office by the school board.

Abe Brewer, a Genesee county granger, sold in Flint a carcass of veal for $8, but before delivering it or receiving the $8 another man offered him $8.75, paid the money and took the meat. Very soon after Mr. Brewer was paying damages and costs to buyer No. 1. A bargain is a bargain, whether purchase money or commodity changes hands or not. After accepting the $8 offer the calf was not Mr. Brewer's to sell.—Evening News.

Easter comes unusually early this year. The earliest date on which it can occur is March 22. It has not occurred on that date since 1818, nor will it do so again this century or the next. The latest date on which it can fall is April 25. It always comes the Sunday after the full moon which occurs on or after March 21. Should the full moon fall on Sunday, Easter will be the Sunday after.—Lansing Republican.

BATTLE CREEK, MICH., March 27.—A man named Johnson, living near Johnston, suspected his hired man of undue intimacy with the former's wife, and finding Frey alone in a dense woods, bound and gagged him, and succeeded in securely pinioning him to a tree. After mutilating his person his assailant left Frey, and the latter was discovered by a search party, two days afterward, unconscious, and his limbs badly frozen, but he may recover. Johnson's wife have fled.

A two-year-old girl was brought in to Saginaw City on Tuesday that the doctor might examine a sound in her face, near the mouth, and swelling on her neck under the ear. The explanation of the injury given was that she was out on the ice sometime ago and fell, and apparently struck her face on some sharp stick. The doctor thought that the stick must have broken off and part of it remained in the wound, causing the swelling on the neck. To the doctor's surprise a bullet nearly as large as an ordinary rifle ball was discovered. The true explanation was then ferreted out. A brother of the little child had a pistol and shot her, but being frightened at the consequences had kept it a secret, and the little one could not tell her misfortune.—Evening News.
