"TURN OF THE TIDE," is the title of the play to be put on at Rough's Opera House to-morrow evening, by the Buchanan Dramatic Company, for the benefit of the Engine Company. The company have given the play a good drill, and will give a good entertainment. For this reason, and the fact that all should turn out to assist the boys, there should be a full house.

The Post and Tribune uses over half a column in explaining why the Republicans have failed to carry Michigan this year, but it fails to say that among other reasons, that paper had taken a leading part in the worst squabble, one that did the party more injury than any other thing that has occurred to it in Michigan. It was hardly necessary for the paper to make the announcement as it is well known to all.

THE BRIDGE.—There appeared to be four voters in this township who thought more of their tax than the welfare of the town, and voted against the bridge tax, or the vote would have been unanimous here. Not so, however, in Niles, as the measure lacked 98 of being a success. The meaning of this may be construed as the abandonment of that road by the voice of the people of that township, and delay in securing a means of crossing the river. It is evident that the majority of the people in Niles feel that a bridge at this point is not a necessity.

BUCHANAN Village By-Law No. 20 says: "Any person who shall injure, dig up or destroy any shade, ornamental or other trees, shrubbery, plants or flowers, in any street, public grounds, cemetery, or on his own property, by fastening any horse or other animal thereto, or by permitting any animal to run at large, or in any other manner shall be punished by fine not exceeding fifty dollars, or by imprisonment, not more than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court."

There appears to be a great inclination on the part of some who drive in to town from the country, and of others who live in town, to use the fine maple shade trees, on the streets, for hitching posts. Some of the blame for this may be credited to the owners of the property, in not providing hitching posts at the front of private houses and might save their trees by a small expense of this kind. The absence of a hitching post does not serve as an excuse for using shade trees for such purpose, however, and violations of this By-Law should be punished.

Mrs. Josephine, wife of Henry Scribner, of this city, dropped dead on Sunday morning last, with heart disease. The wife of Thomas Moran, of Niles township, fell down, on Friday evening last, while passing from the house to the house, and made a bad fracture of the right arm, near the wrist.

The most enjoyable entertainment we have had this season, was given in Rough's Opera House Monday evening, by Dan and Josie Morris Sullivan, with their new drama, "Shield and Arrow," which was written specially for them, being the first appearance of the play. The Irish characters, by Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan, are inimitable, and kept the audience in a roar of laughter. The house was well filled, and all were well pleased with the entertainment. Mr. Sullivan has a large amount of scenery prepared especially for this play, but, unfortunately, by its full effect could not be given on account of the small size of the stage. They will receive a hearty welcome if they return to Buchanan.

A PETITION will be circulated in the western section of Niles township, asking that that portion of Niles township lying west of the first section line, east of the range line, be set off from Niles township and made a part of Buchanan township, taking in sections 6, 7, 18, 19, 20 and 31. This will give Buchanan township full control of the bridge which has always been a bone of contention, and always will be, so long as the two townships remain as they are. It is this done it will throw upon Buchanan a heavier first cost for the bridge, but the excess would very soon be made up by the amount of taxable property brought into the township by the change. Taken as a whole, the change would be a beneficial one to this township, and not a disadvantage to the section set off.

At the township election, Monday, it was voted to raise the following sums by direct tax, for the ensuing year: For township purposes, $800; Library, $100; Poor fund, $1,200, and for Highway purposes, $200. The poor fund is in debt $800, the expense of the past year having been $1,400, and but $800 having been raised last year. This leaves $600 for this purpose for the ensuing year. Of the $2,000 raised last year for highway purposes, about $800 remains in the treasury unexpended, making $1,000 for that fund for this year. The Highway Commissioner recommended that $1,800 would be required to do the work needed. It was also voted to apply the one mill tax to school purposes this year, the same as has been done heretofore. The township tax this year is the same as the highway tax alone of last year.

SEVERAL accounts of aged families have come to our attention recently, but that Mr. H. G. Sampson of this place beats anything we have heard of yet. There are twelve members of the family now living and on April 3 were aged as follows: 78 years, 4 months, 12 days; 77 years, 3 months, 10 days; 75 years, 7 months, 20 days; 73 years, 4 months, 12 days; 70 years, 8 months, 27 days; 69 years, 1 month, 21 days; 67 years, 5 months, 10 days; 65 years, 4 days; 64 years, 20 days; 62 years, 2 months, 7 days; and 60 years, 15 days, making an aggregate of 830 years, 3 months and 13 days. The mother of this large family died in 1835, aged 82 years, 1 month and 5 days, and their father in 1868, aged 86 years, 1 month and 9 days.

ARNOLD W. PIERCE, of New Troy, was elected Justice of the Peace to fill vacancy for three years, by a unanimous vote. This would, under most circumstances, indicate great confidence, as unanimous votes are, in common; but it does not follow in this case. Last year Daniel Babcock was elected for a full term, but did not qualify. This was not mentioned by the township board in their election notice, and no candidates for the vacancy were nominated. On election day he told Arnold of the fact, and Arnold straightaway wrote on his ticket his own name for that place, but none of his friends do likewise, and hold their peace, and was elected without opposition receiving four votes.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's mother in this place, Wednesday evening, April 4, 1888, by Rev. W. I. Cogshall, Mr. Willis B. Howe and Miss Ella M. Simmons. About thirty of the relatives and friends were present, and presented the couple with the following list of elegant presents:

[Niles Mirror.] Mrs. Josephine, wife of Henry Scribner, of this city, dropped dead on Sunday morning last, with heart disease. The wife of Thomas Moran, of Niles township, fell down, on Friday evening last, while passing from the house to the house, and made a bad fracture of the right arm, near the wrist.

LOCAL politics frequently develop some absurdities that would not otherwise be discovered. For instance, the most pronounced prohibitionist who hardly considers an advocate of license of liquor traffic in the light of respectable citizenship, talks all kinds of unreasonable stuff about never supporting one of them for anything, comes right down the post, seeks office on the same ticket with the tippler, votes the whole ticket straight, and votes hard for its success. It brings to light all of the evil characteristics of the candidate. The moment his name is on a ticket his enemies tell all they know about him, and a great deal more, and what they do not tell he proceeds to demonstrate himself, by advocating a local measure where it is popular, to secure the votes of the opposite party, and at the same time wink at his friends in another part of his precinct, and point out to them how he is pulling the wool over the eyes of the other fellows, and proves that he is by peddling tickets against the measure. It finds a fourth or fifth rate man, acknowledged so by all parties, elected to a responsible office over one of the best and most capable men in the precinct, the defeated man being one of great experience and the successful one with none. It finds the loudest praters about ring breaking in the midst of the strongest rings, and working hardest to carry it out, and howling loud and long about honesty in politics. It finds a "consistent" candidate go into caucus, get fairly defeated, and then do his best to defeat the successful caucus candidate at the polls. It finds others assist in making nominations, with apparent good faith, and break that faith in the first word. It finds the prohibitionist working for the Democratic ticket, because that party is always on the side of the whiskey dealer, the Greenbacker working for it because he can help elect a Democrat, and the whiskey dealer and tippler working for it because the Republicans are not friends to his business. All of these items of the most opposite pretensions working together in perfect harmony. It finds Greenbackers refusing to vote a Democratic ticket, but accept the same ticket with the heading, "Greenback Labor Reform Ticket," and be perfectly happy. In fact, no better medium for exhibiting the beauties of the human character can be found than the ordinary town meeting.

FROM BERRIEN CENTRE.

April 3, 1888. Editor Record.—Our schools during the past winter have been extremely well managed, and more general satisfaction is expressed than any time since the repeal of the county Superintendent. Three leading teachers have been recommended for summer terms, and there is not a shade of doubt that all save one, can again fill the positions they occupied, the next winter term. The one who failed was perhaps less to blame than the negligent board, who did not once visit the school nor sustain the teacher when necessary. Nothing so cheers the teacher as a word of approval or a timely suggestion. Every well meaning teacher receives timely warning gladly.

I observe that a very important step forward has been taken, in that nearly all of our best conducted schools pursue the study of History and Civil Government. This, it seems to me, is much better than to spend the time in Algebra or Complete Arithmetic. (?) I am glad to say that our most successful schools have received numerous visits, ranging from five in some to sixty in the highest. It is encouraging to both pupil and teacher to receive an occasional visit.

A few words upon the work for the coming or present term will be of interest to our friends. Our schools will be taught by experienced teachers, mostly, the coming term.

Mrs. Lidia Ricketts will teach in Franklin District No. 2.

Miss Estella Kibbler, a young teacher, will commence her first effort at St. Joseph Valley District No. 4.

Miss Amanda Layman is employed at National No. 5.

A. C. Palmer is retained at Maple Grove, No. 8.

Miss Emma Taylor is employed for the two succeeding terms at Eau Claire District No. 10.

W. E. Peck continues at Liberty, District No. 11.

Miss Nellie Marquette goes back, after an absence of one term, to Painter, District No. 12.

Morris Chapel, District No. 20, has secured the services of Miss Gallup, of Niles.

I am unable to report District No. 3 and 7, as no reports have been received. Mrs. George Caldwell, wife of an old citizen, was buried at Maple Grove, on Thursday last.

Father Shearer, father of John H. Shearer, lies very sick and feeble, at his home in Berrien Springs.

The election passed off very quietly, resulting in all the Republican candidates being elected, save Mr. Joseph Tenant, whose defeat was due to misrepresentation and crookedness on the part of the opposition.

NEW BUFFALO ITEMS.

April 4, 1888. Election passed off with but little excitement. The Republicans electing C. H. Schultz, Supervisor; Henry L. Hess, Clerk; J. V. Phillips, Justice of the Peace. The balance of the officers are Fusionists. The township board is Republican for the first time for a number of years. The township board and one elector constituted a committee to settle the railroad bond question. H. P. Nourse will leave for the West in a few days. T. J. McKinney, station agent for the Michigan Central, will take a Western trip in a few days. J. M. Glavin has been on the sick list for some time. We are glad to learn he is able to be around again. The latest report from Mrs. E. L. Phillips is that she is no better. The "mail train" which left here for Grand Rapids, last Saturday, met with a serious accident near Holland, caused by a broken axle under the tender. The mail and express cars were completely wrecked. Mr. Halt, route agent, and Mr. Pierson, express messenger, were both quite badly bruised up. Charles Deuell will move into the north part of this state this spring. Dr. Clark has employed D. Bryant, of Coloma, to assist him in his practice.

BRIDGMAN ITEMS.
