

THE ELECTIONS.

Tuesday was the day for the State election in Ohio and Iowa. In each of these States there has been a bitter fight over the liquor question. In Iowa there was to be elected Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Congressmen in the sixth district to fill vacancy, and with four tickets in the field. The Democratic candidates and speakers planted themselves squarely for a "saloon on every hill-top," with neither prohibition nor restriction, and were solid, and gathered all of that class from the other parties. On the other hand, those who favored prohibition and restriction were divided by the ultra prohibitionists placing a ticket in the field. The large Republican majority saved the State to them, notwithstanding this opposition and division, and the entire ticket was elected by good majorities, and Iowa will not have "a saloon on every hill-top," but will have a Republican in the United States Senate in place of Allison, Republican.

In Ohio the result was far different. That state was getting along nicely under the workings of the Scott liquor law, which placed a heavy tax on the traffic. The prohibitionists could not be satisfied with this, but must have constitutional prohibition, and consequently succeeded in placing before the people a prohibition amendment and an independent ticket, which drew from the Republican ranks, as in the other state, the Bourbons being solid for free whisky. The result is, the prohibition fanatics have failed to secure their amendment, and have placed the anti-liquor law in the hands of their enemies for execution. In Ohio the Democrats have elected the entire state ticket and a majority in the Legislature, which the Democrats count as having no reference to free or taxed whisky, but to Democratic success in 1884. Among other important meanings is that it returns a Democrat to the United States Senate in place of Pendleton, Democrat. The Republican vote in that state was considerable a gain over that of last year, but not enough so to save the liquor reform, over which the contest was made, from total loss. By reports in Chicago papers this morning both candidates are still claiming to be Governor elect, but the returns show that Forsaker lacked from 5,000 to 12,000 of being justified in his part of the claim.

The rescals the New York Sun wants turned out, reduced the national debt $14,707,229 during the month of September. Yes, "Turn the rescals out" by all means.

A yellow fever scourge is possible in California. A vessel from Mexico with the disease on board is quarantined there, and the weather is not yet cool enough to prevent its spread.

There are in this country over 80,000 post-offices. Less than 100 years ago there were only seventy-five, and the time was when it cost $10 to send a letter from New York to San Francisco. It goes now for two cents.

Jay-Eye-See and St. Julian, the fastest trotting horses in the world, having records of 2:10 1/4 and 2:11 1/4, will trot for a special purse of $5,000 at the Chicago Driving Park, Saturday, Oct. 13. If you enjoy horse racing, here is a chance for you to see a pretty race.

A law of this state, enacted during the last session of the legislature, makes it the duty of the owner, proprietor, lessee or keeper of any public inn more than two stories high to provide suitable ladders, or other safe fire escapes, from each and every fire above the second story, and each room thereon, of such building.

It is said that the best oil region in the world is in Wyoming Territory. There are nine oil basins there, within easy reach by pipe lines when they are needed. There is no fear of a scarcity of oil in the next thousand years or so, and by that time the most of us will be so old we can't read well after dark anyway.

The protectionist truthfully says: "Lower duties mean larger importations. Larger importation means less American production. Less American production means less demand for American labor. Less demand for American labor means lower wages. All of which follows as surely as does the night the day, and yet free traders have the astonishing impudence to think that they can fool the people by crying 'free-trade and high wages.'"

"On this question," said Candidate Hoody, speaking of the tariff, "the Democratic platform speaks plainly; at any rate there is nothing to be done on the tariff question for three years to come." That is to say, the Democrats offer a plain policy, but if you don't like it, it won't do you any harm any way, for it is not intended to carry it out.—Evening News.

While conversing with a prison official a few days since, the question came up as to which was most subduing in its effects, solitary confinement and similar methods, or the use of the strap. He claimed that the latter was the most effective, and gave the following incident illustrative of his theory: A short time since a burly convict, recently received under a five years' sentence, informed his keeper that he declined to further waste his energies in labor. He had concluded to knock off permanently and rest during the balance of his sentence. As he made not the least pretense of sickness or incapacity as an excuse for his conduct, he was ordered strapped. This appeared to strike him satisfactorily, he simply remarked that as all right; he was ready for the punishment, but it would not influence him in the stand he had taken on a note. It took just six strokes of the strap to convince him that his position on the labor question was illogical and untenable. He begged to be released, and declared that he would take no further part in the management of the prison. The gentleman thought that this same treatment applied to the degraded species of tramps who fill our jails, would have an excellent effect. To furnish them with good food and lodgings, at the expense of the county for ten or fifteen days, he regards as no punishment whatever. And he is undoubtedly right in the latter premise. The jail has no longer any terror for the professional tramp. It is in his line and after short periods of travel, particularly in cold weather, he casts anchor in his farm and comfortable precinct without any useless regrets or impunction, and his standing in community is in no wise affected by his brief confinement. The stone breaking department used to be a good feature of the jail here. With the steam road roller it would seem that this system might be advantageously put in operation again. It might prove cheaper than running the stone crusher.—Jackson Patriot.

A Prosperous Nation. Men who shout for reform should glance at the following record: The national debt was reduced $14,000,000 in September. There are now $400,000,000 in the vaults of the United States treasury. The rates of letter postage have been reduced one-third. The credit of the nation is so absolute that it is contemplated to issue a new 2 per cent. bond which the secretary thinks can be sold at par. Universal prosperity reigns throughout the land. Can the Democrats offer any better reform than this?—Jackson Citizen.

STATE ITEMS. The Jackson corset factories employ 1,000 girls. There was $1,074,267.20 in the State Treasury September 30. Snow is reported in small quantities in the north part of this peninsula. The Adrian canning works have put up from $300 to 10,000 cans of tomatoes per day. The mangelina butter plate factory makes 300 plates per minute when it feels well. There have been built in Dowagiac this season 497 rods of cement walk, the greater part of it six feet wide. The surplus crop of dogs in Detroit is drowned. Eighty per cent in the drink there last month. Bels are getting quite plenty in all parts of the State, especially in the streams in the vicinity of Three Rivers. A Petosky lady grows 139 kinds of pansies, and has given the Democrat editor a bouquet with that many varieties in it. Rice A. Beal, of Ann Arbor, publisher of "Dr. Chase's Recipes," died at Iowa Falls, Iowa, Oct. 2, of acute pneumonia, being sick but a few hours. The expense to the State for per diem and expenses of members at the meeting of the legislature was $100,049.10. An arrangement has been effected whereby 6,000 copies of "The Resources of Michigan" will be distributed at the at the Louisville exposition. As a seven-year-old son of James Dailey, of Maple Grove, Manistee Co., was chopping wood, his baby brother ran under the ax, was struck and killed. Michigan militia men captured all of the highest honors at the recent rifle contest at Creedmoor. Michigan products are on a continual boom. Hon. David Woodman, of Paw Paw, is one of the commissioners appointed by Gov. Segoe to take charge of the display of Michigan products at the Louisville exposition. The sawdust dumped into the streams of Northern Michigan by the mills on their banks, is rapidly driving away the trout and other "game" fish. Sportsmen and others are protesting. Michigan is now represented at the Louisville exhibition by a car load of the products of the State, sent by the Western Michigan Farmers' club of Grand Rapids. While boring for water on the premises of Dr. Bogel, at Holloway Leavenworth county, a few days ago, the workmen struck a small vein of gas, which, in bursting forth, materially aided in the business of excavating. The safe of Wm. Dutton, of Adrian, was robbed on the night of Oct. 4. His loss includes real estate mortgages aggregating $100,000, government bonds $7,000, other bonds $3,500, and a small amount of cash and a gold watch. The body of a man buried at Charlevoix 15 years was exhumed for removal, and found to be so well preserved that the features had not been changed. The Judges of Probate throughout the State have been notified to send no more insane females to the asylums, as they could not be received. In the case of males they are only to be accepted after corresponding with the asylum authorities. A Lapeer man has a hip bone of an Indian's skeleton, exhumed at Inlay City, which has imbedded in it an Indian arrow-head. The remainder of the bones are in the high school at Inlay City. The water in the water works well at Mt. Pleasant colors glass when immersed in it, and is so strongly magnetic as to enable boys to pick up needles with their knives which they have placed in it.—Detroit Evening Journal.

The only carpenter of Norman McClellan for the current week, that we have heard of, is the wedding of a bullet half way down the bore of Alex. Tann's rifle, and then shooting it off. The stock was shattered and the barrel split, but the boy was uninjured.—Petoskey City Record.

Joseph Williams brought into this office Monday a piece of the rough bark from a large black walnut tree he had cut on the premises of John Greer, on Pine river. The bark was six inches thick, and Joe says the tree is six feet through at the but, and contains 5,000 feet, broad measure.—Gladwin Record.

Farmers are cutting up their corn and feeding it to their hogs without husking. This will have a tendency to an early fattening of hogs this season and throw the porkers on the already weak market earlier than usual. While the corn does not have its full fattening qualities, on account of the frost, hogs eat it eagerly and are doing well upon it.—Battle Creek Moon.

Citizens of Dexter were somewhat startled on Monday to observe a man on horseback coming from the west with extraordinary rapidity. A few moments later it was ascertained that the rider was trying to, and did, win a bet of $100 that he could ride from Chelsea to Dexter in 30 minutes. He won in 27 1/2 minutes. Distance, 8 miles.—Ann Arbor Argus.

The commissioner of railroads of Michigan has sent a circular letter to the managers of railroads in the State, calling attention to the provisions of last session's "frog bill." He says: By the requirements of the law as it now stands, it becomes your duty, under a heavy penalty of failure or neglect thereof, to "have the frogs, switches and guard rails in all yards at divisional and terminal stations, and where trains are made up, so adjusted or blockaded as to prevent the feet of employes or other persons from being caught therein," and this must be done on or before the first day of January, A. D. 1884.

WHAT TRAINS ARE WORTH. But few persons, as they see one of the fast express trains fit by, are aware of the value of such a train. What is known as the Royal limited express over the Pennsylvania road, as the train is ordinarily made up, represents over $120,000, as follows: Engine, $12,000; baggage-car, $1,200; smoking-car, $5,000; dining-room car, $12,000; five elegant Pullman cars, $18,000 each, $90,000. While this may seem to be an exception, the ordinary express trains represent $88,000 to $85,000. The engine and tender, which are considered together, valued at $10,500; the baggage-car, $1,000; the postal-car, $2,300; the smoking-car, $5,000; two ordinary passenger cars, $10,000 each, and three palace cars, $15,000 each—total, $83,000. This is a low rather than an excessive estimate of one of the fast expresses. The palace cars, put down at $15,000, are in many cases worth $18,300, and some Pullman cars are now run which cost in the neighborhood of $30,000. It is stated that the average value of a freight train is still greater than a passenger train, when the rolling stock and value of property carried are included. Sometimes the freight on one of these through trains aggregates in value $250,000 to $300,000, and what is a little singular is the fact that the trains moving westward are more valuable than those moving eastward—a large per cent. of the westbound business is merchandise or valuable machinery, while nearly 55 per cent. of the eastbound business is grain, which is carried in a car costing $450, and the property carried will average $400 per car, so that the entire train of twenty-five cars, engine included, are not worth over $34,000 to $35,000, while frequently one car-load of merchandise coming West will represent that value, and these palaces on wheels carrying thousands of passengers and the thousands of freight cars carrying millions of valuable property are dependent for safety upon one man—the engineer. There are other men—the conductor, baggage-master, fireman, and three or four brakemen—but the hand upon the lever and the brain directing it have an immense responsibility.—Philadelphia Journal.

GRAVE ROBBER.—A Of all classes of people the professional grave robbers are the most despised. He robs us of our dear friends for a few dollars. How different is the case of the soldier, who is a patriot, and who, in three years he got over $50,000, and on the interest he lived in idleness.

SALT-WATER ETIQUETTE.

Most every one in Washington knows Judge Pat Hayes, of Nebraska. The Judge is a genial, pleasant fellow, and, though having won for years the judicial ermine, is not a whit like the average jurist—stern, stolid and indifferent. On the contrary, he is, to use a common phrase, "one of the boys." One day last summer the Judge, by way of escaping the heat of the city, hired him to Ocean City, where he indulged in salt-water baths to his heart's content. The second day after his arrival he put on his handsome spangled bathing suit, and was the object of admiration of all the other bathers. He cavorted around in the water with the agility of a cat, and many complimentary remarks were made about the Judge's excellent swimming qualities. Two or three gentlemen whom the Judge knew were "ducked" by him, and they all took it good-naturedly. By-and-by, the Judge espied a handsome lady who would balance the scales at 190. Going gently up behind her he caught the lady around the waist, and with a tremendous effort threw her a half somersault. The lady remained under the water about half a minute. When she came up and had tipped the water from her eyes she turned toward the Judge and poured a torrent of abuse upon him. The Judge apologized the best he could and walked away. He had gone over near his male friends, who had stood off for some distance witnessing the circus business between the fat lady and the Judge, when another gentleman came up, and, tapping the eminent jurist on the shoulder, said: "Sir, you ducked that lady over there."

"Yes, sir," said Judge Hayes, "I did."

"But," said the gentleman, "do you know her?"

"No, indeed, I never saw her in my life," responded Judge Hayes.

"Don't you think you assumed a great deal in catching hold of a lady whom you never saw?"

"It never occurred to me that I had committed an indiscretion. I saw the other fellows ducking the girls, and I thought I would follow suit," quickly spoke up the man whose judicial ermine had never been spoiled.

"Sir," excitedly said the gentleman, "you owe that lady an apology."

"I just apologized to her," said the Judge, "but she wouldn't accept it."

"Then you owe me an apology."

"All right," said the Judge, "I most humbly ask the pardon of both you and your lady friend, but I'm a Westerner and I'll be hanged if I know anything about your salt-water etiquette," saying which the party broke up, all hands being apparently satisfied.—Washington Critic.

In the public schools of New Haven, Conn., a new course of study called "newspaper geography" has been adopted. This consists of requiring the student to trace out, on his map, places referred to in news reporters of the daily papers.

A Starting Discovery. Physicians are often startled by remarkable discoveries. The fact that Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and all throat and lung diseases is daily curing patients that they have given up to die, is startling them to realize their sense of duty and examine into the merits of this wonderful discovery; resulting in hundreds of cured cases.

John Jacob Astor pays $100,000 in taxes annually upon his real estate.

The best blood purifier and system regulator ever put within the reach of suffering humanity, truly is Electric Bitters. Inactivity of the liver, biliousness, jaundice, constipation, weak kidneys, or any disease of the urinary organs, or whenever requires an aperient, tonic or mild stimulant, will always find Electric Bitters the best and only certain cure known. It looks encouraging to see Niles business men bring their wives to Buchanan to trade in dry goods, as was the case last Friday.

AN anonymous letter containing 25 cents has been received at this office. If the writer will make his identity known he may have his money.

In another column may be found the advertisement of J. Asher Parks' new opera, "The Double Proposal." The music and plot both warrant all that is said of them in the advertisement.

The new uniforms for the band boys have come. The band has rented Roe's hall for a band room, where their melodious practicing can hereafter be heard.

FARMERS who have hogs ready for market are not in the highest spirits, as prices are ranging considerably lower than their anticipations had indicated.

The South Bend Tribune has gotten out a pamphlet, displaying the history, enterprises and resources of South Bend and a good sprinkling of advertising. It is a commendable job.

GEORGE H. ROUGH has been jubilant. The surveyors for the South Bend extension of the St. Joseph Valley railroad have run a line, commencing through his $30,000 farm.

If you want some lively sport just shoulder your fishing tackle and go for the rock bass, just below the dam at Niles. They are doing their best biting now.

BERRIEN SPRINGS people call on Jim Clarke for the latest election news. Jim has direct telephone connections with headquarters, and consequently gets the very latest.

A GAME of base ball at Edwardsburg, Friday, ended rather sadly. When Bradford Sanson, aged seventeen years, was at bat, the ball from the pitcher struck him just above the right ear. He afterwards struck the ball and ran to first base, where he fell, and in about six hours afterwards died from the effect of the injury.

Mr. H. H. KINYON has just been getting a new safe for the protection of his stock of jewelry. It is the finest in town, aside from the one in the bank, and weighs three tons.

The narrow gauge road brought 21 passengers from Berrien Springs for the excursion to Chicago Tuesday morning. Fifty-four tickets were sold by the M. C. agent that morning.

WILL BAINTON is praying hard for rain. His business in the Dayton mill has been such that the water has given out. The lake is lower than has been known before in a number of years.

ATTENTION is called to the new advertisement of C. H. Baker, at the northeast corner of this page. Clyde carries a large and well selected stock, and is doing a good business.

H. N. MOVREY has bought of A. C. Day, the lot 40x80 feet, next south of the express office. We understand it to be the intention of Mr. Movrey to erect a double building of brick on the lot next season.

MR. FRANCIS WELLS, of Portage Prairie, will celebrate his sixtieth birthday by a family dinner, next Monday. Mr. Wells will then have been the fourth member of the family to have such celebrations.

The prophets are getting in their work on an open winter. Cornshucks loose, muskrat houses small, bark on the hickory tree roughest outside, pigs tails curl to the left, and other equal indications have been noticed.

BUCHANAN Hose Company are preparing for an entertainment to be given in Rough's Opera House Oct. 30. By knowing some of the parts to be in the entertainment we are able to prophesy that it will be a good one.

The Mirror complains because there are so many white women in Niles living with colored men, pretending to be married to them. There is no accounting for tastes in some parts of the country, and especially among some of the black men.

QUARTERLY meeting next Saturday and Sunday at the M. E. Church in this village. Presiding Elder, Rev. I. Taylor, will be present and officiate. Quarterly Conference will probably be held Monday evening, Oct. 15.

BUCHANAN hose company is the only one attending the tournament that received special mention for their gentlemanly appearance and good behavior while in Niles. A sample of the notices given the boys is copied from the Democrat, in another part of this paper.

MR. S. W. REDDEN had an injunction served upon the contractor, Tuesday, to restrain him from trespassing upon his property in running the McCoy's creek across it, and as a natural consequence work on the stone culvert was stopped. It commenced again next morning.

We have now on hand 2,200 pounds of paper like this sheet, and when that is gone we shall endeavor to procure another supply that shall be at least no poorer than this, and the endeavor shall be for the better. That this is better than what we have been using is plain to us, by the additional $15 per ton in price.

YOUNG men of the village whose working hours do not permit their attendance at school in day time, and who realize a lack of preparation in common school studies, to fit them for active duties of life, are requested to meet Mr. Rankin at the bank building Monday evening at seven o'clock, to talk over the project of an evening school.

LAST of letters remaining uncalled for at the post office in Buchanan, Mich., for the week ending October 11, 1888: John McHugh, Mrs. Louisa Rose. Drop—Sam N. Brasher, John Hollenbeck. Postal cards—James Pointer, Sarah Roach, Miss Mary Raymond, Mrs. Anie Starks.

L. P. ALEXANDER, P. M.

THERE were 340 pupils in school in this place Monday. This makes a very fair sized school, but instead of being nine-tenths of the children in the district, as should be the case, is less than half of them. This district pays out thousands of dollars for a good school, and the children living in the district ought to take the benefit of it. What they miss now they can never gain hereafter.

WILL Martin left to-day for Buchanan, Mich., to play his vocation of piano tuning in that city and vicinity for a short time. The citizens of that burg will find Mr. Martin worthy of their courtesies.—Michigan City Enterprise.

Mr. Martin is now in town, and will make visits regularly every three months. He will be here on his next visit in December.

Samuel Lamont, of Paw Paw, accommodated a young man who is in the habit of getting intoxicated, by buying for and delivering to him a bottle of whisky. Result: Sam was fined $25 and 15 days in jail. In case of non-payment of fine and costs then 45 days additional was to be added.

Properly followed, this part of the country might furnish instances of about the same sort. "Habitual drunkards" who cannot procure liquor at the saloon are frequently found drunk, and no explanation of where the liquor came from.

McWILLIAMS was arrested once more, Friday, by Marshal Russell. This time for abusing his family when drunk. The last time he was in jail it was for being drunk and abusing his family. Mac gets a pension of $8 per month, paid to him in three months' installments, and he cannot take so large an amount of money without having one of these spells. There are two ways to stop them: Stop his pension, and he will never earn enough money ahead to get him blind drunk; and to lock him up and keep him there. It is a case that needs radical treatment. His case was heard by Justice Dick, Monday, and he was placed under $300 bonds, to behave himself three months, or go to jail thirty days. He gave the bonds.

Mr. Lewis Grimm, of Cincinnati, Ohio, has been visiting with the family of his uncle, Mr. E. R. Ashbrook, in this place, the past few days.

Messrs. George Sears and Hon. C. Holler of South Bend, started Monday for a trip through the west, visiting Illinois, Missouri and Kansas, and may make some investments before returning.

Mrs. Wm. Mead and daughters, Mrs. Peacock and Miss Annie, started yesterday for a visit in Davenport, Iowa, and other points in the west, to be gone a few weeks.

Mr. Michael Mansfield, well-known by those who lived here twelve or more years ago, is in town with his family for a short visit, while on his way to Washington Territory, where they expect to spend the remaining portion of their life.

The first team to cross the new bridge at the river was Thursday evening, although at the time there were over 200 feet of the planking that was not spiked down. Since that time the ferry has ceased to do service.

MR. ALBERT SUSAN, employed in putting in a plank culvert on the narrow gauge railroad, Tuesday, had one of his feet smashed by a heavy plank falling a number of feet and striking him. Mrs. Baker and Pierce dressed the wound, and express a feeling that there is a bare possibility of saving the foot from amputation. They made nineteen stitches where the flesh was burst open by the crushing.

GALLEN, Oct. 9, 1888.

EDITOR RECORD.—The Methodist quarterly meeting held at Galien last Saturday and Sunday was a grand success. A Board of Trustees were appointed, and a lot already purchased to build a new church. Rev. Jas. Docking is the popular young pastor, and we think he deserves the hearty co-operation of every one, in his effort to build a church here.

A LARGE force of men is at work on the St. Joseph Valley railroad, putting the track in better order, straightening some of the short kinks, strengthening the banks, and other needed improvements. Twenty-five men, with the construction train, worked Sunday at removing that part of the clay slide that is likely to make trouble the coming winter, and at the same time taking out one curve.

THE patrons of the Dayton school held a special meeting Monday evening, to decide whether they should furnish another room in their school building, hire another teacher and grade their school or not, and decided not. If the officers had taken their law books, withdrawn to some quiet corner and studied for a short time, they might have decided the question with less trouble.

AMONG the careless practices at public gatherings is that of allowing shooting galleries to be placed in the midst of the crowd and then allow all kinds of drunken coots to shoot, with just as much certainty of missing the board as of hitting the target center. A case of this kind was noticed at the young people's last picnic, where the shooting was in exact range with the entrance way to the grounds. No one happened to be hit in that case, but the shooting at the fair at Benton Harbor, where a horse received a shot in the neck, and another shot made a hole in a boy's foot, was less fortunate.

THE executive committee of the soldiers and sailors' association of Southwestern Michigan are considering the advisability of choosing a permanent location for the future reunions of the veterans. Niles, Three Rivers and Kalamazoo are desirous of securing the encampment as a permanent possession. The last assembly at St. Joseph brought together over 20,000 people.—Post and Tribune.

The only consideration the committee has yet done is to pass a resolution at the time of the reunion, to the effect that such a question would be entertained. There will be a meeting for that purpose some time next winter, and until then its consideration will be mostly guess work.

THERE was another picnic among the prisoners in Berrien jail last Sunday. The turkey mistaking that something was wrong, went into the cell room and found three of the prisoners missing, and upon further examination found that they were down in the cistern, at work on the old route of the ones who escaped a few weeks since. They were locked in their cells to meditate on the unpromising aspect of their work.

The Ladies' Mite Society of the Advent church will meet Thursday afternoon, Oct. 13, at the residence of Mr. Threadkill, on River street. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Each lady is requested to take a napkin.
