THE large steer sold by Enos Holmes to the South Bend market, for Christmas beef, dressed a little over sixty-five pounds to the hundred. Butchers in this vicinity consider this a first-class showing, and Frank Merson gives it as his opinion that it would be impossible to buy one hundred beves in this county that would average fifty pounds per hundred, and the greater share of those butchered yield less than forty-five.

A FIFTEEN-years-old son of Elder Sackafoose was skating on the race near the engine house, Saturday evening, when by some accident, fell, and struck on the runner of the skate of a boy who was just ahead of him, in such a way as to cut the cartilage from both lids of one of his eyes, so as to very materially injure his beauty. Drs. Baker and Pierce are attending the case, and are of the opinion that the boy will be obliged to sleep with one eye open the remainder of his life.

As a printing office never gets so large that it may not be improved by adding new and fashionable type, we have just added a dozen or so of fonts of advertising and job type of the latest patterns to the RECORD outfit. THE President stated he had called the meeting for the purpose of making all necessary arrangements to authorize the issue of bonds to pay the judgment of Mrs. Sarah Ashcraft against the village of Buchanan.

MR. J. M. STUBBS, introduced the following resolutions and moved their adoption, which motion was supported by Mr. Barnore:

Resolved, That the Common Council of the village of Buchanan issue bonds to the amount of thirty-five hundred dollars, to be used in the payment of the judgment of Sarah Ashcraft against the village of Buchanan.

Resolved, That the Common Council issue and negotiate the bonds required by the above resolution.

REPORT of School District No. 5, Weesay township, for the month ending Jan. 11, 1884: Number of pupils enrolled, 33; average daily attendance, 20. Owing to the severe weather the first week in January the attendance was small. This would necessarily make the average daily attendance much smaller than it really is.

Names of pupils who stand highest in department attendance and progress: Elmer Boyle, Willis Boyle, Frank Hall, Myra Hall, Belle Hall, James Doyle, Martha Lamb, Ida Lamb, Flora Lamb. Whole number of visitors, 10. Patrons of the school are especially invited to examine our work. Visitors welcome.

O. G. HARDING, Teacher.

DEPUTY SHERIFF HARMON, of Benton Harbor, deserves more than usual credit for his skill in working up the Jack McCrone murder case. He captured the two men, Billington and Hare, and has secured from Billington a full confession of the crime.

His story is that McCrone came along the street in Benton Harbor, where he and Hare were standing, and commenced to blackguard them, but passed along. Have proposed to follow, as he intended to whip McCrone. They followed and succeeded in getting into the fight, which had not lasted long before McCrone cried out that he was stabbed, and that Hare then pushed him over and choked him to death. They both then took the body to the canal and threw it in. The examination is being conducted in Niles yesterday and today.

SUNDAY and Monday issues of the CHICAGO papers, and since that time papers of lesser importance in other parts of the country, have been filled with accounts of the doings of a G. Frank Anderson of this place, a reputed $8,000,000 millionaire, none of them very greatly to his credit.

THE South Bend Times, to take full benefit of the excitement, sends over the announcement to this place, wanting to know how many papers can be sold if they will use about six columns on Anderson. The gist of the entire matter, as it appears now, is that Anderson has been doing considerable speculation on the credit of his prospective fortune, which still remains in Scotland, and unless it is far different from the usual run of foreign estates may yet give him considerable trouble before he can transport it across the pond.

It is evident from the stories told by the Chicago papers that Mr. Anderson had experienced an undue elation over the news of his heritage, and had been acting on the presumption that the fortune was now within his grasp, and to such an extent that a failure on the part of the fortune to materialize might lead to disastrous results. There are very few poor men in the world who can withstand the shock of the sudden possession of conclusive evidence that they are heirs to $8,000,000.

The amusing part of the affair is that the ones who are howling themselves the hoarsest when they think Mr. Anderson has no money are the same ones who could not be too nice in telling the public of his gentlemanly, affable manners and strict integrity, when they thought he was loaded down with wealth.

Whether this disturbance amounts to anything more it will at least be a lesson to all parties concerned.

Common Council Proceedings. A special meeting of the Common Council of the village of Buchanan was held at the Council room, in Engine House No. 1, on Tuesday evening, Jan. 15, 1884.

Present—Wm. Osborn, President; B. D. Harper, Recorder; Trustees Barnore, Mead, Mowrey, Powers, Weisgerber and Willard.

The President stated he had called the meeting for the purpose of making all necessary arrangements to authorize the issue of bonds to pay the judgment of Mrs. Sarah Ashcraft against the village of Buchanan.

MR. J. M. STUBBS, introduced the following resolutions and moved their adoption, which motion was supported by Mr. Barnore:

Resolved, That the Common Council of the village of Buchanan issue bonds to the amount of thirty-five hundred dollars, to be used in the payment of the judgment of Sarah Ashcraft against the village of Buchanan.

Resolved, That the Common Council issue and negotiate the bonds required by the above resolution.

Resolved, That the Common Council be and are hereby authorized to issue and negotiate the bonds required by the above resolution.

Resolved, That the Common Council adjourn. Motion adopted.

B. D. HARPER, Recorder.

NEW TROY ITEMS. Jan. 14, 1884. Mrs. Bunnell, of Kansas, is here visiting with friends and relatives. Mrs. Bunnell is more familiarly known as Aunt Jane Morley.

Miss Till Anderson, who for several years past has made Chicago her home, is here visiting with her parents. Mr. Frank Carpenter, of Gallien, was in town Thursday, looking after his various business interests.

Mr. Perry Fox paid a short visit last Friday. Perry evidently learned that cheap bread commanded a better sale among his rustic neighbors than suburban real estate.

More changeable than the mind of the weather prophet is the abode of Mr. Wm. Baker.

MR. S. A. JOHNSON, of Westville, Ind., showed his smiling countenance on our streets last Saturday and Sunday. The mill jinto succeeded in shutting down the saw mill last Monday, and the parties to the sedition also succeeded in stopping their pay for an indefinite period.

MR. JOHN SHETTERLY talks of buying a tract of land in Mississippi, the larger portion of which is cypress brake.

Miss Hattie Kempton, of Hill's Corners, spent last week in visiting with her many lady friends here.

There is no trait of the human character more despicable than hypocrisy, yet none is more thoroughly cultivated by the would-be leaders of society, until at last it has become a necessity, in order to successfully combat with the world, that you must possess an unlimited amount of hypocritical talent.

If you would retain your position in the social world, friendship must mean anything but loyalty.

The Sunday School Institute will be held at the Elm Village school house next Sunday.

Miss Franc Morley will no longer lack for company, as Miss Christina Anderson and Miss Nina Kempton have concluded to live with her.

The society for prevention of cruelty to animals is completely outdone by one of our citizens, who traded for a worn out specimen of horse flesh, merely to rid the animal of its earthly woes; or at least there are only nine chickens, two cords of wood, one pig and a half ton of hay between him and such benevolent intention.

The pastor of the M. E. church, in his sermon last Sunday, effectually disposed of the carefully made investigations of Darwin, and the studious observations of Herbert Spencer, and also tossed aside into the same heap of scientific rubbish the world renowned philosophy of Thomas Carlyle and R. W. Emerson.

A few charges that yet remain upon the "to do" side of New Troy's public ledger: The repairing of the school house fence; the building of a new sidewalk on Main street; the digging of one more ditch on Garfield avenue; the regeneration of the cemetery, and last, but not least, the final settlement of the ungliding road controversy.

SAVDSUET.

GALLIEN ITEMS. Jan. 16, 1884. Last Thursday evening Arnold Pierce, of New Troy, came to Gallien to attend the Odd Fellows' ball, being accompanied by one of limited intelligence, going by the name of Dul Cimet.

It is ascertained that Arnold had been "picking" on Dul for several days, and the affair culminated in the ball-room, by his giving the latter a terrible beating. The fellow is still unable to walk.

The New Troy people come to our quiet village and act in this way they must expect to be noticed in the paper. Mrs. Montross has been enjoying a visit with her friend, Mrs. Bostater, of Chicago. She returned home last Friday.

The Odd Fellows' ball last Thursday night was a very pleasant affair, though the preparations would have accommodated a much larger attendance.

B. K. STERNS, of Custar Post No. 208, is elected as representative to the State Encampment, to be held at Detroit on the 23rd and 24th of this month.

With the beginning of the year the Detroit Evening Journal congratulates itself upon the marked success it has achieved, and promises to give its readers the benefit of every dollar it earns for the next twelve months. The Evening Journal aims to meet the long-felt want for a clean, spicy and enterprising newspaper.

It avoids sensationalism, and all matters of an objectionable character are excluded from its columns. This may be safely said to be one of the great secrets of its success, and as a family paper it is now a recognized favorite.

It reads matter than any evening paper in Detroit, and gives all the news of the day in an attractive form. It is the slave of no party, and the servant of no man or set of men, but stands as a thoroughly independent journal, devoted only to what it believes to be for the best interests of Michigan.
