THE case against Pen Cox came up for trial Monday. The Judge allowed Pen to plead guilty to the charge of assault and battery, and on Tuesday sentenced him to pay a fine of $100 and costs. This is a pretty expensive lesson, and it ought to be a good one.

BURGLARS entered C. H. Strong's house, two miles north of Gallien, yesterday about noon, and took out $70 in money and Mrs. Strong's gold watch. The case looks like one done by some person pretty well acquainted with the surroundings, as the watch was taken from the bottom of a large sack of carpet rags, and the money from an equally secure hiding place in another part of the house. Mr. Strong discovered his loss last evening about five o'clock, when he came to this place and placed the case in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Palmer.

A TRUE STORY.

After being reminded, I set once planned to meet on Detroit street with the Home Mission Band. The thermometer was near zero, but warm hearted hosts high.

As they thought of the distribution so nearby. As no gentlemen were there, it was a quiet affair. And the committee began overheating the goods that were there: They were hats, coats, underwear, and shoes. That by turning and mending could be put to good use. There were seventeen present, and I thought of a mill. Harried with work, their large orders to fill. But instead of wheat, they donations ground through. And instead of flour, made clothing that looked like new. Like a mill, each wheel did its share. And all the machinery was useful that was there. And remnants and garments, though considerably worn. After going through the mill were at to be worn. A collection was taken and placed in the treasurer's hand. For it takes money to run even a Home Mission Band. But the ladies spend it in various ways. And truly their benevolence is worthy of praise.

H. N. MOWREY had, perhaps, the most peculiar surprise party last Friday that he ever had. A party of friends of John Holloway came over from South Bend to give him a visit, and thinking they had found John's domicile, stopped at the front of Mr. Mowrey's home, and after singing a song or two marched boldly into the house. They marched out again, with the firm intention to knock before they went into the next place.

MR. GEORGE BLACK, of Black & Pierce, is having a building erected, two stories, 20x50, for the accommodation of the business of finishing and packing the Queen of the Garden Plows. They have 8,000 of these little plows in course of construction, and ought to be able to sell twice the number during the season. No man who raises a garden of any kind can afford to be without one of them.

DEED.—Mr. Truman Hinman died at the home of his son, Mr. D. E. Hinman, in this place, last evening. He was born in the town of Russia, Herkimer county, N. Y., August 27, 1803. Was married to Margaret Burmore January 1, 1827. Lived in Catteraugus and Chautauque counties until 1845, when he settled in the township of Hudson, Laporte county, Ind., arriving there on the 4th day of May, settling in the same summer on the farm where he has since had his home, till he came to Buchanan. Had nine children, three boys and six girls, four of whom survive him. His living children and widow are all residents of this county. The funeral will be held Saturday at 10 A. M., from the house.

EDITOR RECORD.—Allow me space in your paper for a brief reply to the unprovoked abuse of A. L. Drew, in the Niles Mirror of this week. Did I look upon Mr. Drew as a gentleman whom I could respect, the insulting manner he makes in the Niles Mirror of Jan. 30, in connection with my address, would be annoying in the extreme. But I consider who did the kicking, and further, if anything in the world would have a tendency to put even a good cause in a bad light it would be to have Mr. Drew advocate the same, for it requires a great amount of self restraint to endure one of Mr. Drew's bombastic harangues, which was the cause of a rather hasty remark by the writer at the last meeting of the Super-visors. ALFRED RICHARDS.

FROM THREE OAKS.

Jan. 30, 1884.
Our January thaw has come, but rather late in the month.

The forest product has been brought into our town for the last six weeks in large amounts.

The two handle mills are running with a full force.

The feather bone factory has started again with a few hands.

A house in the north-east part of town, belonging to Becca Turner, was destroyed by fire Saturday evening, and people had all they could do to save J. D. Miller's house. The one that burned was only twenty feet from Miller's.

Died, in Chicomango on Wednesday, Jerome Burnett. He leaves a wife and one daughter, Mrs. Dr. Harris, of South Bend, Ind. Funeral last Friday at his late residence.

We noticed that Mr. A. Wright went to New Buffalo last Friday with his horse to attend the funeral of a Mr. Harmon, an old resident of that town.

Mrs. M. J. Levy, of Chicago, is spending a few days here among friends.

J. L. McKie is taking an invoice of his stock of goods, and you ought to see how rich he does feel. All on account of a nice boy left at his house last Friday. Also James A. McKie, of New Buffalo township, was made happy on the same day with a bouncing big boy.

The band give a concert to-night. We think it will be a good one. B. [Niles Republican.]

Burglars entered the M. C. R. ticket office, Tuesday evening, securing $25 in money and a watch which had been left as security for a ticket. The safe was not disturbed and no tickets were taken. Burned matches were scattered around. A gentleman from Buchanan was watching the depot for friends expected on the night express heard nothing, neither did any of the night employees of the company.

NEW TROY ITEMS.

Jan. 28, 1884.
Mr. A. C. Day and Mr. J. Matthews, of Buchanan, were in town last Thursday, and while here were entertained by Mr. P. J. Pierce.

The musical entertainment was in some respects a success, although not a financial one. For several weeks past there has been missed from the weekly prayer meetings the voice of that able leader, Rev. J. A. Docking, and it is but doing justice to him that the reason of such absence be stated. His parishioners being too neglectful of his and their common comforts to provide a warm room for his reception, and it is discouraging to a minister, after driving eight miles, sunshine or storm, and find his only welcome the cold and dark outlines of the church.

Mr. John Shetterly has the mill yard file with as nice a class of logs as is usually found in these parts.

Dr. King, who for some time past has been confined to his house by several complicated diseases, has gone to live with his daughter in Buchanan. Mr. and Mrs. John Thursty, of Union Pier, were in town Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Edward McKeen is father, and so is Christopher Rice; wish 'em joy, a long life and future prosperity. SAWYDER.

GALLIEN ITEMS.

Jan. 30, 1884.
Mention was made a few weeks ago of the recklessness of some of the teamsters who drive to Gallien.

Theodore Borden, of New Carlisle, got on too much steam last Saturday night to get out of town safely. His team ran away, threw him out, and he was picked up senseless, but recovered, being badly bruised. Friends gathered him up and took him to where his team had been stopped, and the team ran away and threw him out the second time. That team is losing the respect of Theodore.

The representative of the George A. Custer Post of Gallien, B. R. Sterns, while at Detroit, had an introduction to the wife of the brave general, whose name is borne by this Post.

The voters of Gallien are petitioning the village Council to prohibit pool rooms inside the corporation.

Fred Davis and George Cone have the un-suppor-tative inflammation of the suppur glands.

A Teachers' Institute for Southwestern Berrien County has been organized, and the next session will be held in Gallien March 1st. The RECORD is mistaken as to Gallien being its headquarters. I think Three Oaks might claim that honor. Its forerunners and headquarters are to be distributed among Gallien, Buchanan, New Troy and New Buffalo.

Henry Marks is sick with typhoid fever. The I. O. O. F's have hired Wm. Swen to take care of him.

Elder Columbus Scott, of the Saints' church, preached last Sunday in their hall.

The stove factory has shut down for a few days, to make repairs. The superintendent, Mr. Prince, reports that timber is coming in very lively.

Mrs. T. N. Chilson returned from Albion last Saturday night, and reports her father as improving.

Four persons were baptized by Eld. Davis, last Monday afternoon.

The union meetings are still in progress, with crowded houses and many conversions.

Mr. Blakeslee will make a million and a quarter of broom handles out of the timber he has on hand.

The G. A. R. boys will give an oyster supper at the Commercial Hotel next Tuesday evening, to be followed by a social hop at the town hall.

Mr. Cephas Glover has bought Mr. Jacob Myers' house and lot and moved into Gallien. A.

FROM BERRIEN CENTRE.

Good wood much in demand. Several of our farmers are laying in a new supply of the first quality of beech and maple wood, in anticipation of the needs of next winter or possible necessities of the present.

Our farmers are putting up their summer's supply of ice, and judging from the thickness and clearness of the blocks they are well paid for their labor.

Our Good Templars enjoyed a very pleasant visit to Pipestone Lodge one week ago last Friday night. We are glad to say that the influence for good on the part of our temperance society is becoming more manifest, as new accessions to their numbers are reported nearly every week. Let the good work go on. Educate the young folks in the true principles of temperance and their subsequent lives will prove manfully better and happier.

The organization of the Teachers' Association of the central and south-eastern part of the county was fully effected on the 19th inst. A committee, appointed to draft a Constitution and By-Laws, offered an instrument which, after a few slight modifications, was adopted. An executive committee consisting of Chairman Walker, O. A. Lacroix and C. A. Palmer was appointed to arrange for a place of meeting and a program. An excellent program has been made, and it has been decided to hold the next session at Berrien Centre Grange Hall, convening at 7 o'clock P. M., Saturday, February 10, 1884. Every one is cordially invited to attend.

The union revival meetings now progressing in our neighboring churches are resulting in great good to many seekers of Salvation. God speed the good work!

We are very glad to learn that Mrs. Joseph A. Becker is recovering, surely but slowly, from a very severe attack of pneumonia and nervous prostration.

Myron S. Peck and lady and Mrs. Henry Null, of Benton Harbor, are spending a few days with friends at this place.

Mr. Joel Layman is drawing and shipping some very choice poplar logs from this point.

C. E. Powers and family, of Manistee, Mich., are still here visiting friends and relatives. They expect to return home some time the present week. G.
