

The panic in Wall street of last week was only a cyclone among the brokers, that does not effect the people in the least.

The South Bend Tribune tells of an old bachelor who has worn medals for eight cents a day. Peppercorn and crackers.

Once more the talk of this country buying Cuba is being revived. Spain is said to be willing to take $300,000 for the island.

James Anderson, an old citizen of Mishawaka, committed suicide Friday by shooting himself through the heart. He has for some time been considered of unsound mind.

It is now stated that Representative Horr, of this state, will be temporary chairman of the Republican National Convention, to be held in Chicago June 3. It would be a good choice.

The Anti-monopolists, at their Convention in Chicago last week, failed to nominate a candidate for Vice President. They evidently thought Ben Butler able to run the Government without any Vice he does not already possess.

Emory A. Storrs in an interview in the Chicago Times Tuesday:

"What has been the effect of the defeat of the Morrison bill? It has placed the Democratic party in the position of an ox half way over a fence. It can't go in front or kick behind; it is useless for offensive and defensive purposes. The party can't say its protective one, because the Morrison bill was fathered by it; it can't say it is free trade, for it killed the bill. It is in a bad box."

The Post and Tribune yesterday contained the following bit of encouragement:

"Col. L. F. Copeland, formerly of Buchanan, where he was an ardent Democrat, writes to a friend in South Bend as follows: 'Going up and down the land I find a tremendous revival of confidence in the wise and patriotic policy of the Republican party manifested, and many are pointing to my recent victory for its nominees in the coming campaign. And I am glad to say that I find myself once more in hearty sympathy with the party of my first love, the party of the Union, the party of its majorities.' The Tribune says: 'This is strong language for one who acted with the Democrats here in the campaign of 1876, and since then, and was one of their most efficient campaigners and stump speakers.'"

The Copiah County Farcé Ended.

The trial of Wheeler at Hazlehurst, Miss., for the murder of Matthews has ended with the acquittal of the murderer. It will be remembered that Matthews was a prominent person and cop of Copiah county, who was obnoxious to the Bourbons of his neighborhood. Upon the approach of the November election the Bourbons of Hazlehurst held a public meeting, at which Matthews was notified that he must not appear at the polls election day, and the man Wheeler was selected to "remove" him if he did appear, as a warning to other Republicans that Matthews must not work to the detriment of alleged Bourbon majorities. Matthews, being a courageous man, paid no heed to the warning, went to the polls, and as he was about to vote was shot from behind by Wheeler and killed. The murderer had no personal quarrel with his victim—indeed, only an evening or two before the murder he had dined with the Matthews family and enjoyed their hospitality. He had come to work to the plantation which had been assigned by his Bourbon associates. No inquest was held upon the body of Matthews, the Coroner having been notified by the sheriff that it was a matter against the Matthews family. No complaint was lodged against the murderer. The only cognizance of the awful deed was at a public meeting of Bourbons, who passed resolutions justifying and applauding the act and notifying other Republicans that they would be treated in a similar manner if they took any part in politics. At a subsequent local election the murderer was rewarded by being made City Marshal of Hazlehurst.

The insurance companies have paid about $100,000 on the Allegan losses. G. E. Green, of Kalamazoo, has perfected an electric gas railway. A. Middaugh of Vassar has just received $3,765 back pension. Fully 1,000 shade trees have been planted on the streets of Traverse city this season. The Van Duren county pioneers meet at Paw Paw, June 4. Gov. Begole is to rate. The Michigan overall factory at Ionia is run by a fifteen-horse power water motor. A large bald eagle has been shot near Climax with a young lamb in its talons. A New York drummer, who is doing Michigan, carries seventeen sample trunks with him. Michigan Military Cadets will assist Ann Arbor G. A. R. to celebrate Memorial Day. A snapping turtle weighing 50 pounds and having on its shell the inscription "1770" was caught near Battle Creek last week. The Marshall Council will not allow telephone poles to be erected in the streets of that city. Frogs bring 15 cents per dozen in Port Huron and the small boy of that region is wide awake. Kalamazoo came out ahead in the contest for the state fair, and the exhibition will be held there this year. The Allegan Tribune thinks J. J. Woodman would make a good Governor, and the Tribune is probably not far from right. Saturday night Harvey Park, of Dowagiac, attacked and robbed a stranger from Bronson. He was caught in the act and arrested. E. Middleton & Sons of Greenville lost thirteen carloads of flour en route to England in the steamship State of Florida. A Battle Creek saloon-keeper has offered the city officers $50 if they will spare him the mortification of periodic arrests. His magnanimous offer was declined. There is some talk of starting a wagon factory in the near future at Battle Creek with a capital of $50,000.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

MARRIED.—Mr. LeVant O. Hall of this place, and Miss Laura B. Smith of Weesaw, were married by Rev. Davis, at his residence, in Galien, on Sunday, May 18.

There was a heavy frost here Friday morning. Capt. Bartlett reports having left a pall of water standing in his yard and finding it so frozen that he could invert it without splashing the water. So far as can be discovered, but little damage was done to fruit, a few of the most exposed of the strawberries being killed.

MEMORIAL exercises will be held in Rough's Opera House Sunday, May 25, at which the following program will be observed: 1. Singing. 2. Reading Scriptures and Prayer, Rev. B. Finney. 3. Singing. 4. Sermon, Rev. H. Vallette Warren. 5. Singing. 6. Address, Rev. C. G. Thomas. 7. Benediction.

There is a little circus going on in Elkhart over a claim for five cents per foot royalty on the cement walks. The patent covers the process of dividing the walks into blocks by means of tar paper placed in the cement. As the walks now being put down in this place by Mr. Sumption are not "pointed" in any such way, those who have such walks made may not have any fear from this patent.

FOLLOWING is the time for Michigan Central trains to pass this place since the change of time, Sunday: Going east—Mail, 10:05 A. M.; Night Express, 1:24 A. M.; Kalamazoo Accommodation, 7:51 P. M. Going west—Mail, 1:54 P. M.; Kalamazoo Accommodation, 6:54 A. M.; Evening Express, 3:15 A. M. The card on first page of this paper will be corrected to correspond with the above next week.

The account of the robbery of S. A. Earl, of this place, in Muskegon a few days since, is going the rounds of the papers as something enormous. He left his sachel in the depot while he went out on the street, and some fellow carried it off. It contained a suit of clothes, a lot of statements of account that can be duplicated by a few hours' work, and some notes drawn to Earl & Brant, the amount of which is not known. Not nearly $30,000, however, as is being reported.

[Benton Harbor Expositor.] Yesterday morning on going out to fish, the Fred Clamfoot's fishing boat turned bottom side up just outside the piers. There was a heavy sea running at the time and the wind was blowing quite fresh. The boats were racing and Clamfoot's boat had all her canvas up when a gust caught her just right and caused her to go over. The crew of three men, Paul Lorscheer, John Weber and one other, were rescued by the life-saving crew.

FROM THREE OAKS. May 21, 1884.

Wheat is looking better in this locality than it did a while ago. Henry Chamberlain went to Lansing Tuesday. John A. Thursby, of Union Pier, was in town Monday.

We had the pleasure of listening to a temperance lecture by Rev. Mr. Beebe, of New Carlisle, last evening, at the Congregational church. He was accompanied by Eli Wade, who made a short speech.

Guy Drew went back to Lansing Tuesday to attend college. D. P. Martin has gone into the machine shop of the featherbone factory to help make the machinery. Willie Whitehead is at home for a few days, making many pleasant calls. Mrs. H. M. Jussell, who has been visiting friends in Nebraska for several weeks, returned last evening. She reports a good time. Our town was full of runners yesterday. Our street lamps have all gone out. Joseph Carroll, of New Carlisle, was in town Saturday.

Deaths of the Mississippi.

One of the most important effects of ignorance among the people of the continent and islands the gradual (not violent) elevation and depression of the earth's crust. This force extending over a vast area is so slow in its action as to be imperceptible to an ordinary observer. The Mississippi is an example of the changes which occur in other large areas of similar formation. This delta, formed by the fine sand and clay which have been deposited where the still waters of the Gulf crosses an area of 12,300 square miles, and is advancing at the rate of a mile in sixteen years. The evidence of the slow depression of this great plain is found in the presence of Fresh-water shells and vegetable deposits, or dirt-beds. A cross section of the delta shows, below the present forest plain, strata of river sand, clay, marine shells, and other fossils. The fossils which are of the finest, far coarser materials have been deposited further up the stream; and in them are found numerous fresh-water shells. The probable history of the delta is that the land here was once a fresh-water swamp overgrown with cypress trees, which, as the land subsided, was filled with sand and clay brought down by the river. On a certain day the subsidence was more rapid, the sea overtook the country and marine shells were deposited. So stratum after stratum was formed—the forest filling the river, and the land being buried with sand and covered by the sea. Lyell estimates the depth of the Mississippi deposits to be 525 feet, and the annual discharge 7,400,000,000 cubic feet; but Professor Hilgard has proved that the delta deposit is only about forty feet deep, and the strata belong to the quaternary or the preceding geological epoch.—Inter Ocean.

At a meeting of the Methodist Church Eastern Society in South Bend, Tuesday night, Chaplain McCabe was turned loose in the audience and succeeded in raising $50,000 for the work of next year.

The season at Diamond lake opens May 28. The Michigan central will charge one fare the round trip to the lake during the season. The Crouch-Holcomb case has been put over to the September term of court, and new bonds given for the defendants' appearance. There were not so many rich men on hand anxious to go on the bonds as when the first were given.

The workmen on Washington street, Saginaw, discovered three human skeletons in coffins. The remains are supposed to be those of soldiers, and one of the skulls had what appeared to be a bullet hole through it. They were buried in Oakland. Steven Padlock, landlord of the hotel at Union City, has closed shop because the Common Council refused to accept his liquor bonds, and expressed his supreme disgust by seeding the main street to oats and dragging them in.

The colored citizens of Battle Creek are making great preparations for the celebration of Emancipation Day in that city August 1, at which time Frederick Douglas, Gov. Josiah Begole and a number of other prominent men have expressed their intentions of being present.

A canvass of over one thousand students of Michigan University shows 850 supporters of Blaine, 211 of Edmunds, 65 of Arthur, 107 of Tilden, 29 of Butler. Out of 741 Republicans, 612 are in favor of Lincoln for Vice-President.

Mrs. J. Dibble, formerly of Monroe county, died at Elkhart, Ind., a few days ago, and was buried at Hudson Sunday. She was a woman of ponderous physical proportions, and when over 70 years of age weighed about 400 pounds. Her husband who died some years ago was also of large stature.

The Kalamazoo Gazette, recently published a statement that it had been convinced that a short statement that it had previously published contained only ten misstatements regarding the action of Hon. J. C. Burrows. This is done well for a Democratic paper. First to have some misstatements, and then to own up.

Mrs. Geo. H. Felt of Jackson has sued the Michigan Central railroad for $10,000 damages for injuries received in a runaway occasioned, she avers, by the gate man at a street crossing in Jackson carelessly letting down a gate so that it hit her horse and frightened him. She was thrown out and claims to have been rendered a permanent cripple.

Judge District Attorney advised United States District Attorney Stone and Deputy Hyde to notify all persons who take copies of the Police Gazette and like publications from the post office to stop or prosecution will follow. The statute prohibiting the circulation of objectionable literature through the mails includes subscribers as well as publishers of such so-called literature.—Grand Rapids Eagle

Some heavy ditches are being laid out in Ionia county. One intended to drain the big swamp in Orange and Sebawa, including a branch, is 11 miles long, 14 feet wide and 3 feet deep. Another designed to aid in reclaiming the same swamp is also 11 miles long. The two will cost $10,000, and are intended to reclaim some 5,000 acres of land. Another ditch is two miles long, and still another three and a half miles. It is a wise expenditure of money.

The woolen company brought from Chicago about a thousand pounds of black wool last week, and among the lot were two fleeces that were genuine curiosities. They were entirely black on the outside, and also at the point of cutting next the skin, but in the center of the fleece was a section of white about a half inch thick extending through the entire fleeces. From this it will be seen that the same sheep alternately grew black, then white, and then black wool over its body. Specimens of the wool can be seen at the factory.—Vassar Pioneer.

Dr. Woodcock has a peculiar case under treatment. Some time since Miss Nettie Cole, a girl about ten years of age, living with her parents in west Ovid, had a serious attack of diphtheria, from which she recovered, but shortly after she was set free. The peculiarity of this disease is that the muscular or cellular tissues become hardened so that when the finger is pressed on the part afflicted, the flesh all around responds and not alone the part touched as in a healthy person, and at the same time the girl is in no pain. It appears to be a gradual hardening or ossification of the flesh and now affects portions of one side of the girl's body. Dr. W. thinks the flesh is softening, and hopes to get control of the disease.—Coldwater Courier.

A Frenchman in the Toronto university, on examination in English, described an epigram as something written on a leaf of paper, and the young man's Paradise Lost as an example of an allegory.

—An End to Bone Scraping. Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Balm, I feel it my duty to let the world know. I have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone or leg amputated. I used, instead, a few bottles of Electric Balm, and seven boxes Buckley's Sassafras and My leg is sound and well." Electric Balm is sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Buckley's Sassafras at 25c per box by D. Weston.

THE mushroom crop appears to be pretty good this year. Charles Brown found 29 on a piece of ground six feet square, two of which measured eleven inches in length and eleven in circumference.

LIST of letters remaining unclaimed for in the postoffice at Buchanan, Mich., for the week ending May 22, 1884: Peter Gaurhart, Postal Curator; Sylvester Loney, Geo. Smith, L. P. ALEXANDER, P. M.

ANOTHER business change took place in Buchanan yesterday. Mr. G. A. Dutton sold his stock of furniture to Spencer & Barnes, and they sold a one-half interest to Clyde Baker, who will have charge of the store. Notice change of advertisement in this paper.

The Ladies' Mite Society of the Advent church will meet Thursday afternoon, May 29, at the residence of Mr. Robert Mead. All the ladies are requested to be present, it being our annual meeting. A cordial invitation to all.

J. W. FANCHER has a living curiosity in form of a common crow, that talks equal to a trained parrot, and cuts up all kinds of comical antics. He, the crow, is the neighborhood pet and keeps the blues out of that vicinity.

The trial of Jim Madron for chicken thieving was held before Justice Dick, Friday. Madron was found guilty, and Saturday morning was sentenced to ninety days' service at Ionia, and left by the noon express for that place, accompanied by Constable Evans.

The M. C. R. Co. will sell excursion tickets to Chicago on May 29 to June 2 inclusive, for one fare for the round trip, good to return not later than ten days from date of sale, on account of National Republican Convention June 3.

A. P. PEACOCK.

The employees of the Michigan Central Company have just received notice from headquarters that they will be required to wear a full uniform, which is to be furnished by the company and the pay for the same to be deducted from their salary.

WHITE REDDEN and C. W. Smith have become interested in the publication of a new book soon to be issued. It is of a biographical nature and will be of great interest to the reading public. Apply to either of the above for a prospectus or agency.

SINCE the change of time on the Michigan Central the hardest engine on the road to run is the one that draws the Kalamazoo accommodation. The engineer is on a constant strain to keep from running too fast. They manage to make a speed of as much as fifteen miles per hour.

MEMORIAL services on next Sunday will be quite universal in Michigan towns. The exercises will be held in Rough's Opera House in this place at 3 o'clock P. M. This does not take the place of the regular memorial services May 30, but are in addition thereto.

The Cornet Band is preparing a program for a concert on Memorial day evening, May 30, which promises to be of a first-class order. They will be assisted by home singers and by some foreign talent. Further particulars next week. In the meantime make up your mind to attend.

ALONZO SHERWOOD, of Weesaw, was a delegate to the State Prohibition Convention. He says he does not expect to ever receive full forgiveness for having been so long a Republican. It's too bad. It is likely that he will be obliged to pass his eternity in purgatory for want of forgiveness if he be truly penitent.

The people at the north end of the county are showing up check full of candidates. They pretend to be able to furnish county clerk, sheriff, judge of probate, treasurer, and prosecuting attorney. With the register of deeds from Ononok, places nearly the whole list pretty well to the north.

APPLICATIONS are beginning to come in for positions as teachers in the several departments of our school. It is earnestly to be hoped that none but those who are known to have been successful teachers shall be selected, instead of making the acceptance of small salaries the chief requirement, as has been done in times past. It costs no more for incidental expenses to employ first-class teachers in all of the departments and have a good school than to employ those who at best are but experiments, and barely able to procure third grade certificates and have a share of the department's utter failures. If there is any community under the sun that has been imposed upon with teachers who do not know the first rudiments of an English education it is district No. 1, in Buchanan township. Our school costs enough to have first-class teachers, and we should have them. If they cannot be had for a small salary pay more, but get them and then keep them. It has been our past experience that as soon as a teacher shows some ability and life and can command a competent salary she is allowed to go to our neighboring towns, get steady employment, and they have good schools, while we go on trying experiments. A person who cannot discover the cost of 75¢ per cord of lumber @ $3 1/2 per C. should seek some other employment than teaching Buchanan school and having pupils skip all such difficult problems. Yet it is just such teachers that have been employed. They can be hired cheap, but are the dearest possible kind, and the patrons want no more of them. No person who cannot procure at least a second grade certificate on every application should be employed in any of the departments of Buchanan schools at any salary whatever.
