The Fourth District Republican Convention met in Three Rivers, Friday, and on the first ballot nominated...

Considerable anxiety is already being manifested about Democratic headquarters over the developments in some of the Southern States...

Cleveland's letter of acceptance appeared in yesterday's print. It is a very short article, and of little interest in itself...

The South Bend Tribune has the following remarks concerning the maple tree lice.

John Kelly has just defined his position and that of Tammany. In a letter in answer to a direct inquiry...

The Cleveland Democrats are entirely welcome to such comfort as they may be able to extract from Mr. Kelly's letter.

The Democratic, Greenback and anti-monopoly moguls met in conference at Detroit, Monday, to discuss the important question of fusion.

Delaware still has laws on her statute books that are relics of slavery. Even at this late date, when colored persons wish to get married, they must certify that they are free.

The Iowa State Fair commences on Tuesday and closes on Friday of the following week, with devotional exercises on the Sabbath.

Grover Cleveland is growing stronger among the masses of intelligent voters every day.

Wayne county Democrats favor fusion but propose to do nothing to imperil the national ticket.

Owing to ill health Hon. Wm. Williams, the Republican nominee for Congress in the thirteenth Indiana district, has declined the nomination...

Ex-Senator John R. Lynch, of Mississippi, says the Republicans expect to carry that state this year, and thinks the prospects of obtaining a fair count do enough to warrant the attempt to do the voting, notwithstanding the threats of the usual shot-gun campaign.

An effort will be made by the Prohibitionists at Lawrence, Kan., to procure the indictment of persons who have been selling liquor contrary to the Prohibition law.

"If Blaine is elected, he will be the last Republican President," says the Boston Herald. Of course he will; in fact it is already a sure thing that Blaine will be the last Republican President in the next four years.

The talk about Cleveland's withdrawal, the Springfield Republican says, is moonshine. So is the talk about the possibility of his election.

The Prohibitionists and Democrats are widely different at all points, and both are working for the success of Democratic principles.

The Jersey City Argus refers to the Rev. Mr. Beecher as "the sacerdotal hero of the paroxysmal kiss."

Ben. Butler has at last become tired of waiting for the Democratic candidate to speak his little piece, and has given his manifesto to the public.

The letter as a whole is one with which Republicans can have but little to do, as it is almost wholly a Democratic funeral.

Solon Chase for Blaine. Solon Chase, one of the most prominent Greenbackers of the country, has come out for Blaine, and gives his reasons therefor as follows:

"It was at Springfield, in the spring of 1860," said an old Republican, "and pending the municipal election in April, the Republican party was in the vigor of youth and acquiring strength."

"The prohibition element in politics in this campaign is one of the unknown quantities that is making trouble for political leaders on all sides, and it appears to THE RECORD that the management of that party is being of such a character that the end it is working for will be most surely defeated."

FRANK AND GEORGE OSBORN expect to start the last of this week, or early next week, for Andover, Dakota, where they expect to settle on some lands recently purchased by their father. The land is near that owned by their brother Walter.

Mrs. A. C. HARGER and son expect to start soon for Louisville, where they expect to spend a few months. Her home here will be occupied by Mr. Brownfield's family, who vacate their present home to make room for the family of Mr. Oppenheim, who will be here next month.

Mrs. J. MEANS, who came to this place from Chicago a few months since, and was engaged at dress making at Mrs. Dunning's home, died at Mrs. Dunning's home Friday, August 15. Her remains were taken to Adrian for interment.

THERE are a number of owners of cows in this place who make a mistake in trusting the cows to the care of little boys who are not capable of managing the animals, and they run through gardens and yards at a wild rate. Either take care of your own cows or leave them with some one who knows enough to do it properly.

SNAIL—Mr. Carpenter, a well-to-do farmer living in the north part of Weasaw, who was never known to tell a lie or even to dress making at Mrs. Dunning's home, died at Mrs. Dunning's home Friday, August 15. Her remains were taken to Adrian for interment.

SOME heavy capitalists have been investigating the business prospects of this town the past week, with a view to investing largely in a business property, if suitable grounds may be had on terms that will make the investment a safe one. They want to build a skating rink.

WELLIE PARSON climbed up one of the ladders, at the switch lights at the depot, last evening, and fell to the sidewalk, striking on his nose and smashing it so that he required the manipulations of the doctor to make of any further use as a nose or mark of beauty.

ELLIAM FEASER, who was mentioned a few weeks since as having been arrested on charge of passing raised money, has been held in $500 bonds to appear in the United States District Court, at Grand Rapids. This decision was reached by Commissioner Gilbert yesterday.

PORTAGE township, St. Joseph county, Indiana, have concluded to submit to vote the proposition of donating $32,000 to aid in building a railroad from South Bend to St. Joseph, with the expectation that if raised, it is to be applied to the line that is to cross the St. Joseph river two or three times.

ACCORDING to the program previously arranged, Gen. John A. Logan is to be at the reunion in Battle Creek to-day, and to-morrow morning will go by special car to Chicago, stopping at various points along the line, and it is expected that Buchanan will be made one of the stopping places. We are at this time unable to announce the time of arrival.

ANOTHER business change is announced to take place next Monday. It is that of the stock of jewelry, &c., by Mr. H. H. Kinyon & Mr. J. H. Iose and W. A. Severson. Mr. Roe takes the jewelry and sundry trade, and Mr. Severson the books and notions. Mr. Kinyon expects to remain for a time free from business troubles, and will spend the coming winter in the south.

A LARGE barn on the farm of Ransom Hubbard, on Terre Coupee prairie, near Hamilton, was destroyed by fire Tuesday evening, entailing a loss of from $2,000 to $5,000. The barn contained a large quantity of hay, two years' clipping of wool, besides farming tools, a span of mules and a horse. The insurance had expired a few days before. The light was plainly seen from this place. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

THE Secretary of State, in his August crops report, estimates the average wheat yield for this county at 15.23 bushels per acre, and of oats 20.01 bushels. His correspondents report corn fully up to the standard of last year. Our recollection of last year's crop does not make this a very favorable report, and we think for this part of the county somewhat below what the facts will safely warrant. He estimates the probable average yield of apples at 60 per cent of an average crop, and peaches at 10 per cent.

THE time is near at hand when the candidates for representative in the legislature will be chosen, and in the meantime it may be worth while to take a view of the situation. The combined opposition has a majority in this district of not far from 150 on a full vote, and to succeed, the Republicans must select a candidate who is not only qualified in every sense of the word, but at the same time well known and popular. A view from this part of the district shows Mr. John M. Glavin to be the one who most nearly fills every requirement of the situation.

NOTICE has been received by his relatives, in this county, of the death of Mr. David W. Penwell, for over twenty years a resident of Weasaw township, which occurred at Shelbyville, Ill., on Sunday, August 10. His funeral was conducted by the Masonic Lodge, of which he was a member, on Tuesday, August 12. He will be remembered by a large number of Berrien county citizens. He first came to this county in 1852, remained four years, and returned again in 1855 and remained until two years since, when he removed to Shelbyville.

THERE is a condition of affairs at the old cemetery, in the north part of town, that ought not to exist. A wilder piece of grub, underbrush, weeds and briars it would be hard to find. The ground is not now used for burial purposes, and a majority of the bodies originally placed there have been removed to Oak Ridge cemetery. Either the balance should be removed and the ground devoted to building purposes, or the rubbish cleaned out and the lot kept in a presentable condition, instead of the abandoned appearance it presents now.

NOW DON'T LAUGH—The contract has been drawn, signed, sealed and delivered for the extension of the St. Joseph Valley railroad to St. Joseph and for the straightening, strengthening and otherwise improving the road bed between this place and Berrien Springs. The work to be built with material suitable for broad gauge road, but a three-foot gauge, work to begin within ten days from date of contract, and to be completed by January 1, 1885. This is one step farther than has been taken before toward the extension of the road, and we have remarked in this connection before, let us hope for the best and be pleased with what comes. This much once completed, and there will be little trouble about the south end of the road.

WHEN you hear a young man growling about hard times just notice whether he has a cigar or tobacco in his mouth, or smells of whisky. He will be most apt to have one or the other. Yet how many will believe the story of the amount that the three worst town lads Buchanan, you believe that this contributes to any great extent to the hard times, or when once made to believe this, will make any change in his procedure? The Record has taken some trouble to obtain as near as possible an estimate of the amount of money expended in Buchanan for the one item of tobacco and cigars, since January 1, and find it to be not far from $10,750, enough to buy the best brick block in town, or a first-class farm, and the most of this amount is paid by young and poor men, who cannot afford to pay for a farm every seven months, yet they are using up that amount regularly.

It seems to the RECORD that there might be some improvement in matters if some officer, with power to arrest, were to visit the vicinity of the head-quarters on Sunday. By standing at a safe distance and slinging his ears to the boyish voices uttering such phrases as, "I bet ten cents," "I see you and raise five cents," "Show up," "Two axes, a pair of queens and a ten spot," "Now you pay me my thirty cents," &c., &c. We could not tell what they were doing, but these utterances being so out of the usual run of English language we mistrust that something is not all right in this kind of Sunday exercise.

BUCHANAN, Aug. 20, 1884. MR. EDITOR:—Under the heading, "Strategy," in last week's issue, you give great publicity to the somewhat known action of Mr. Howard Roe, in taking possession of the property left by his deceased sister, Margaret Lemmons, to her daughter Rose, the taxes on which, for sufficient reasons, for a time having been unpaid. As agent for my niece, permit me to say that for a sum less than $10, as shown by the Treasurer's books at Berrien, paid for taxes, Mr. Roe, in the night, and against my personally forbidding the trespass, took possession of an orphan's sole patrimony, worth several times the taxes he had paid, and proposes to hold it or compel her to enter into expensive legal proceedings to possess herself of her own. I will add that the taxes which I, as agent of my niece, had raised on the lot this year, were cut and gathered into the barn of Mr. Jesse Roe, although I forbade that trespass also. Does it not appear to you, Mr. Editor, that that sort of strategy is oppressive?

MINA McMULLEN.

THE great amount of economy practiced by a portion of the American people is sometimes wonderful to behold. The ones who show it in the most marked degree are of the class who are making the greatest disturbance and finding the most fault with the oppression of capital on the down-trodden laboring man. During the fore part of the week business men and others who were supposed to have a little change about their pockets, were importuned on all sides for loans of small sums to bear expenses to the reunion. One man who, with a good-sized family, had money enough to pay for a ticket but not for his expenses, wanted to pawn his work account for enough for that purpose. When he gets home you will hear him cursing every man who is managing a business in which he has his money invested, because he is making some money. Another wanted to pawn his watch for $2, and still another proposed the ingenious method of mortgaging his sweet potato patch, and would probably have mortgaged his family rather than not go to the reunion. Others would borrow, a few with the expectation of paying again, but usually with no such thought. With this class, and we are sorry to say it is a large one, it makes no difference what the present condition of themselves or families, or their future prospect, they must attend every amusement, of whatever character that may come along, at any cost.

State Items.

Forest fires are raging in the east part of the state.

Professor Campbell has resigned his position as Professor of Law in the Ann Arbor law school.

One Grand Rapids citizen is suing another to recover a bet of $10 made in 1878 on the result of the State election.

A piece of rail in front of Norton's hardware is one of the pioneers of Michigan and is marked as follows: Split in October, 1836, by Chas. Evans, on the farm now owned by Thos. Hunt, in Rives. It says that in the same fall Mr. E. split 1,000 oak rails 11 feet long, for 10 bushels of potatoes. — Leslie Local.

On the night of the 8th inst. Mrs. Joseph Drake, of Elk Rapids, dreamed that her child was drowned in a mortar box near the house. The following afternoon the child was absent longer than usual from her side, and the dream came so vividly to her mind that instinctively she started to search for him, and going directly to the mortar box found her dream realized and her darling dead, face downward in a few inches of water. — Evening News.

The Saginaw Common Council has contracted with the Van De Poels Electric Light Company to furnish the plant for single lights for stores and for running 50 lights on five towers. It will cost them $23,000, besides the expense of the building for the machinery, which will probably increase the expense to $30,000. In about five years the city expects to make money from the receipts of the private consumers to whom they will rent it. The Mayor will veto the proposition, and four of the twelve Aldermen are said to be opposed. — Evening Journal.

A Muskegon jeweler says that, singular though it may seem, no watch will keep the same time with two people, and if passed from one person to another for use must be subject to re-regulation. This is said to be owing to the temperature of the wearer, and it is claimed that even the mere physical difference in gait and movement between different people will affect the keeping of absolutely accurate time, and that it is also affected in a slight degree by the magnetism of the wearer. — Muskegon News.

The Indianapolis Sentinel recently published a slanderous yarn of how James G. Blaine had, in his younger days, seduced a lady whom he afterwards married, after being persuaded by a shot gun in the hands of her father, to do so. Mr. Blaine did not appoint a "vindictive" committee to investigate the matter and report the charges as true, but immediately telegraphed the following:

BAR HARBOR, Aug. 14.

To Col. W. Halloway.

I have this moment received the atrocious libel of the Indianapolis Sentinel. It is utterly and abominably false in every statement and in every implication. Political slanders I do not stop to notice, but this editor assails the honor of my wife and children. I desire you, without an hour's delay, to employ the proper attorney and have the responsible publisher of the Sentinel sued for libel in the United States district court of Indiana. It is my only remedy. I am sure that honorable Democrats alike with honorable Republicans will justify me in defending the honor of my family if need be with my life.

JAMES G. BLAINE.

Under this instruction Mr. Halloway placed the case in the hands of Senator Ben Harrison, who immediately commenced suit for $50,000 damage, in the United States court.
