Mr. Arch. Dakeyple had two large ricks of brush burned Tuesday evening. He accuses tramps of the work. It is insured.

We fail to see where the ticket nominated Monday, is any improvement over the one the Republicans already had in the field.

Elder Wilson Collins will preach in the Christian church next Sunday morning and evening. All are cordially invited.

If you have any grapes that you do not want stolen you had better gather them before some one else does. The grape thieves are on their annual tour.

J. Barre & Son's foundry and machine shop, in Benton Harbor, was burned last evening. Loss about $4,000.

The Independent says the Oronoko township Democrats raised a hickory pole Saturday that is 500 feet high. Oronoko whiskey is not suitable beverage for Greenback editors.

Read the comments of the South Bend Tribune on the speech of Mr. A. C. Geyer before the young men's Republican club in that city.

Lost.—A watch chain, twisted link, was lost between the C. B. church and Morris' restaurant. The finder will please leave it with the owner, Walter French.

While growing about the hot weather, don't forget that it is making money for the entire country faster than any other one thing. Just what the corn needs most.

The great amount of dry weather we have had this summer has quite materially injured the corn crop, although there will be a better yield than last year.

Mrs. H. M. Alvord arrived at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Burris, Friday evening, from Minneapolis, Kansas, where she has lived the past two years.

The next number of the North American Review is to contain an elaborate defense of the tariff system, prepared by leading advocates of protection.

Mrs. Vaughn, of Greeley, Iowa, who has been visiting in this place the past four months, started for home Tuesday, accompanied as far as Chicago by her daughter, Mrs. C. Evans.

FOUND.—A sum of money was recently found in this place. The owner may recover the same at this office by giving satisfactory evidence of the loss, and paying the cost.

This vicinity was visited by a shower Monday afternoon, that made a whole community happy. The heat that preceded it was suffocating in the extreme.

A MEETING will be held in Kinson's hall to-morrow, Friday, evening, for the purpose of organizing a Blaine and Logan club. All who have a desire to join such a club and be on the right side of politics are invited to attend.

CHARLEY SPONDS had on exhibition, at Noble's store last Thursday, an elegant crazy quilt, containing 750 pieces. It was the work of his mother, Mrs. A. L. Simons, and displayed a great amount of labor and ingenuity.

This morning's papers state that Rev. W. I. Cogshall, so well and favorably known here, was unanimously re-elected Secretary of the Michigan M. E. Conference.

Mr. GUY OSBORN has secured a most excellent position in the wholesale drug house of Morrison, Plummer & Co., of Chicago. He could not ask for better opportunities, and it now lies with him to improve them.

GEORGE W. DONALDSON'S circus performed in this place Saturday, and had good audiences. Donaldson has a good show, and is more free from the class of rough characters that usually follow a circus than any show that has struck this town in years.

THERE is talk of some more business in Buchanan. One enterprise in prospect is a Boston Bazaar, in the Fulton building, by W. J. Collinson, of Rochester, N. Y., and there is some talk of a new hardware store. The more the merrier.

List of letters remaining unclaimed for in the postoffice at Buchanan, Mich., for the week ending Sept. 11: Overt Aldrich, Buchanan; Berrien Co., Barton F. Pierce, Nellie Wood—Cards. I. G. Sanborn, G. T. Smith.

L. P. ALEXANDER, P. M.

It may be well for some of our local leading lights in the prohibition party to hear Mr. Wm. Osborn tell how prohibition prohibits. He has just returned from a two weeks' trip through Iowa, where they have prohibition, and has had an opportunity to see some of the workings of the law.

The young ladies of the M. E. church and Sabbath school will give a pink social in Redden Bros' new store room, Monday evening, Sept. 15. Refreshments will be served during the evening. There will also be a table of fancy articles for sale. No extra charge at the door. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

THERE was a St. John ratification meeting in this place Tuesday evening. Rev. Pattee of this place, and Norman Nims of Berrien Centre, were the leading speakers. Notwithstanding the righteous pretensions of that party we do not see but their speakers are about as apt to mingle false statements into their speeches as are those of the other parties who make less pretensions.

Mr. NORMAN NIMS, in his speech Tuesday evening, spoke of some county paper that called the prohibitionists a pack of lunatics and fools. We have seen no such statement in any paper published in this county, although it may be so. Hope it is, for knowing Mr. Nims to have always been a man of veracity when he was a Republican we should hope he would remain so after having become a prohibitionist.

Mr. J. H. MATTHEWS, as General Superintendent of the St. Joseph Valley narrow gauge road, has extended the courtesies of that road to the New Orleans World's Exposition, in an offer to transport any articles intended for exhibition at the exposition, over the entire line free. One-half this price will be charged for the return of the goods after the exposition shall have closed. This is a great inducement to exhibitors who live in Berrien Springs to come this way when they go to the exposition.

The high school lyceum held its first meeting for the term Tuesday evening. The meetings and work in this part of the school should be the most profitable part of the school, and while the other school work should by no means be neglected, there can be no argument in favor of allowing interest in the lyceum to wane. There was a good attendance at their first meeting, and the exercises were all well performed. The teachers have a duty to perform in this connection that should not be neglected.

The work of grading the narrow gauge extension to St. Joseph is being prosecuted vigorously, a large force of men and teams being employed, and more being added. We are beginning to have some faith that we may, some time, be able to ride over the road to the lake, but that faith is not yet strong enough to admit of our announcing what is to be done at any future time. There have been some failures in the work that it seems almost like a dream to hear that work is actually being done.

A PROHIBITIONIST in this place, thinking that he was on the right track and a fresh scent, undertook to convert St. Wm. Redden to the St. John ranks. Mr. Redden listened very attentively to his arguments and then told him he thought his statements all sound, and agreed fully with him on the great needs of temperance, "but," said Mr. Redden, "I am a regular dyed in the wool Democrat and I am going to vote the Democratic ticket. There is no use for you to spend your valuable time trying to get any Democrats to vote for St. John. You go and try your hand on the Republicans, and get just as many of them to vote for St. John as you can." The fellow was not quite sure whether he saw a point or not.

The consistencies of this campaign are rather more curious and plain than usual. One prominent Greenbacker in this place, formerly a Republican, has a platform of his own that he considers the most important question of the campaign. He is in favor of a tariff for protection only, with incidental revenue, and in order to get this tariff for protection he proposes to vote for Yapple for Congress, who, if he is to be judged by the speech he spoke about the district during the last campaign, is an absolute free-trader, wants no tariff whatever, and if any must have no protection. The Evening News is in favor of free trade, and has been teaching that tariff tax is direct robbery, and in order to get free trade is supporting Ben Butler, who is an outspoken protectionist. We like to see men work and vote so directly for what they pretend to want. It shows so plainly an earnestness and honesty of their political pretensions.

Tabernacle Meetings.

There will be a tabernacle meeting held in Buchanan, for the conversion of sinners, commencing Friday, Sept. 12, at 7 o'clock p. m. This meeting will be in charge of Rev. R. J. Parrett, the Evangelist of the St. Joseph conference. He will be aided by the resident minister and other good workers from abroad. All Christian ministers and workers are invited to take part in the meetings, which will continue ten days. The order of services will be as follows:

9 1/2 A. M., prayer and experience meeting.
10 1/2 A. M., preaching.
2 1/2 P. M., devotional services.
3 P. M., preaching.
4 1/2 P. M., children's meeting.
7 P. M., preaching.

This order of service will be adhered to every day.

R. J. PARRETT, Evangelist.

A FEW weeks since a statement of the appropriation of library moneys was copied in these columns from the Berrien Springs Journal, stating that a number of districts had failed to receive their money because of a failure of the director to report. Mr. A. T. Hall, of Veesaw, being one of the directors who was interested in this question has been investigating the matter, and requests us to say that he finds the failure to be with the township clerk, who did not properly report to the county clerk, and as a consequence, the district economies to the extent of that fund.

THERE is one grave in the Mt. Zion cemetery, on Terre Coupee Prairie, that of an old lady who died a number of years since, and in whose coffin was placed a torpedo, as a guard against disturbance of the remains. Recent remarks have caused considerable unfavorable comment and demands for an investigation among those of the neighbors who were acquainted with the facts of the sudden death and unusual burial of the aged lady. No act of that kind having any appearance of crookedness should be allowed to pass without a thorough investigation, as people will talk about such things. It might be difficult to find volunteers who would go fooling around that torpedo. No such thing should ever be allowed in any cemetery, as there is no knowing what mischief it may cause to innocent persons.

THE Waterford Record contains the following account of the wanderings of Theodore Barnum, the wandering Benton Harbor man mentioned in these columns a few weeks since:

"He says he felt impressed he must leave home, so he started, going directly north until he reached Lake Michigan. He traveled, or, as he expressed it, 'drew' along the lake shore until within about three miles of South Haven. He lay in a barn until daybreak, when he hastened on his journey. He took the train at South Haven, stopped at the Grand Crossing to get some lunch, and proceeded on to Grand Haven, where he purchased a ticket to Minneapolis, Minn. He went to Stillwater instead of Minneapolis and wandered out into the country about three miles, where he found work in a Methodist family. * * * He says he knew he was away from home, but had the impression he must not return until Sunday evening, August 24, when suddenly he 'came to himself' and realized his situation. He felt he must return home immediately, and did so."

DROWNED.

NEW BRFALO, Mich., Sept. 9, 1884. A very sad accident occurred here, on last Friday evening about 8 o'clock, while a party of three, composed of Mr. Henry Harris, day operator, and wife and Miss Emma Phillips, daughter of Mr. J. V. Phillips, were out bathing near the mouth of the river. Mr. Harris and Miss Phillips, it seems, got into a hole which seemed to have been formed by the action of the water and found to be about fifteen feet deep, and were both drowned. It seems that Mr. Harris was teaching Miss Phillips to swim, when the accident occurred. Mrs. Harris was obliged to walk about 1 1/2 miles before she could give the alarm.

The bodies were recovered about 10 1/2 o'clock that evening. It is supposed that Mr. Harris was seized with cramps.

Both parties were highly respected, and are sadly missed by their numerous friends. Mr. Harris leaves a wife and two little daughters.

Miss Phillips' funeral took place from the Baptist church, of which she was a leading member, Saturday at 5 P. M. The body of Mr. Harris was taken to Coloma, Mich. Funeral there Sunday A. M.

OUR schools are now fairly in working order, and although it may be somewhat early to form an intelligent conclusion as to results, yet there are some facts that can be readily seen by the visitor heretofore familiar with the school.

To begin with, the attendance in nearly all the departments is larger than at the commencement or close of last year, the Grammar room being nearly double what it was at the close of last year.

The next noticeable feature is the respect is marked. Without any apparent attempt or rigid discipline or severity on the part of any one, there seems to be an indescribable air of dignity and respect common to teacher and pupil pervading the whole school.

Prof. Aleschke comes among us with very flattering recommendations from prominent educators of Illinois, regarding his executive ability and success as a teacher in that State. Thus far we have seen no indication that any of these statements were overdrawn. We bespeak for him a prosperous year.

The school board endeavored to exercise great care in the selection of all teachers for the present year. They are, without exception, teachers of experience, and whose labors are known to have been satisfactory and successful heretofore. If time proves that any mistake has been made, the school board are certainly relieved from all blame, as they have acted with the best intentions, and in the selection of every teacher have acted unanimously. We cannot help but think, however, that wise selections have been made. What the school board, teachers and pupils all need is the hearty support of every one. Shall they not have it? Don't be too ready to find fault. Speak of the good things as well as of the mistakes. We are all interested in the prosperity of our schools, whether we have children to send or not. A first-class school would be a credit to our town. There is no good reason why we should not have, this year, a school that we might all be proud of.

If you hear anything that does not meet your approval please give it a personal investigation before speaking of it to your neighbor. Visit the school, make the acquaintance of the teachers. Let us all work together and give school board, teachers and pupils our hearty support and encouragement.

THE Democrats and Greenbackers met in Berrien Springs Monday and performed the ceremony of political matrimony, and the two parties propose to sail through this campaign as one household. Neither party to the family relation is exactly pleased with the offspring, each claiming that it too strongly resembles the ancestors of the other. The ticket nominated is as follows:

Judge of Probate, A. H. Potter, of S. Joseph; Sheriff, Byron Peck, of Niles; Clerk, Thos. O'Hara, of Benton Harbor; Prosecuting Attorney, Allison C. Roe, Buchanan; Register of Deeds, A. C. Bisbee, a drug clerk of Benton Harbor; Circuit Court Commissioner, J. A. Eastman, of Benton Harbor; and Geo. Lambert, of Niles; Coroners, J. M. Scott, of Benton Harbor and Greenville Finley, of Niles. The division of officers was evenly between the two parties. The Greenbackers wanted Capt. Keith for Sheriff, but the Niles Democrats would listen to no other proposition than that Peck should be the candidate, and Keith, the most popular man in the party, was slaughtered to please the Niles Democrats. J. L. Richards of this place wanted the nomination for Register, but the slaughter of Keith must give that to the Niles, and poor Joe got left. He had placed his confidence in Mills Landon, of Niles, who was to do the wire pulling for Joe, but Mills failed to materialize, and two of their best men were the demands of the Niles Democrats came very near being the start of a first-class breach of promise case, but the timid bride, rather than not be married, conceded to the demands of the groom, but with grumbling.

The editor of the Mirror is now shedding crocodile tears because Judge Leeds was not re-nominated by the Republicans for Probate Judge. Four years ago, after Judge Leeds had served the county four years faithfully, honestly and acceptably, and when the Republicans re-nominated him for a second term, this same Mirror abused him unmercifully and inexorably. The Judge was a candidate then, and if a candidate now no man in his senses believes that the Mirror would say a kind or pleasant word about him. Judge Leeds has been treated well by the Republicans of Berrien county, as he deserved to be, and the Judge appreciates the fact. The Mirror's motive is to injure Mr. Heman, the Republican nominee for Probate Judge, and nothing else. Any man of sense can see this.—Niles Republican.

The Republican also spends a great amount of energy and valuable space in attempting to refute some of the charges of the Mirror in regard to the expenditures of county moneys by Republican officers. The methods and the disregard for truth of the Mirror in all such questions are so well known that its statements are not worthy of a moment's notice, and we are somewhat astonished that the Republican should give it so much attention. It is only a few months since the Mirror announced that it was a common practice of that paper to publish lies made from whole cloth simply to see the county exchanges copy them. The management of the paper is in the same hands now as then. On account of a number of figures contained in the Republican article that will be of interest to the public we give the article space this week.

Young Republicans.

A Kinging Speech by A. C. Geyer, the Young Michigan Orator.

Blaine and Logan hall was well filled Tuesday night, at the regular meeting of the young men's Republican club. The meeting was opened by a stirring song by the Gibson glee club, which was so loudly applauded that the club had to sing another, which was also well received. The chairman then introduced one of the speakers of the evening, Mr. A. C. Geyer, of North Liberty, formerly of Buchanan, Mich., who was received with cheers. Mr. Geyer is a bright, scholarly young man, and belongs to that noble army of intelligent and progressive young men who have identified themselves with the party of progress. He addressed the young men upon the issues of the day for fully an hour. The speech was of such a character that it would be difficult to give anything like a just synopsis of it in the Tribune. It was a dignified, able and earnest appeal to the intelligence of young men. He reviewed the history of the Republican party and referred in eloquent words to its grand national achievements, and paid glowing tributes to the memory of such names as Lincoln, Grant, Garfield and Blaine. The Republican party had commended itself to the favor of intelligent young men because it recognized ability and statesmanship and did not ignore the men of learning and political scholarship to elevate ward politicians. He gave an exhaustive treatment of the tariff question and showed himself to be familiar with the subject. He reviewed the past and put the services of Judge G. Blaine and paid a glowing eulogy to his statesmanship, his scholarship and his American manhood. He closed with an eloquent appeal to the young men to stand by the Republican ticket. The meeting closed with three rousing cheers for Blaine and Logan and Calkins.—South Bend Tribune.

THREE OAKS ITEMS.

Sept. 10, 1884.

Have you heard from Maine? Then hurray for Blaine.

E. K. Iby, of Indian River, Mich., is visiting his parents and other friends here.

Mrs. M. J. Levy, of Chicago, is spending a few days with friends here.

Old Mrs. Dickerman was buried last Friday. She died with dropsy.

Will Hollett is getting better.

George Hanley, of Edwardsburg, was in town Saturday.

C. C. Brown is painting his house.

J. Wyeth says they had a splendid time at Hudson Lake last Sunday.

Whitehead has a new awning in front of his store.

Grace Bradley is at home for a short time.

Grover Cleveland's public record all lies before him, which is his trouble. Thomas Hendricks' public record lies behind him, and that is his trouble.—Philadelphia Press.

State Items.

There were 307,285 barrels of salt inspected in this State in August.

Jay-Eye-See and Phyllas will trot in Kalamazoo next Saturday. Half fare will be charged on the railroads.

Sault Ste. Marie sports will sow wild rice in Hay lake, hoping to make a resort for the toothsome wild ducks.

Deer slaughterers are already making their way to the North woods, upon death intent.

Sheriff Winney, of Jackson, is having difficulty in securing a jury for the coming Crouch and Holcomb trial. Persons who have not formed an opinion are at a premium and mighty scarce at that.

Thaddeus Hampton, of Glenwood, planted 500 German carp last fall in a seven-acre pond on his farm there, but thinking they were frozen during the past winter he last spring planted 800 more. About two weeks ago he examined the pond and found plenty of carp ten inches in length. He will make an effort to save them this winter, and in view of his present success we presume he will plant more. We hope his experience will persuade others of like tastes to also engage in such work, as the benefits derived are of the kind that are valuable.—Dowagiac Times.

Boldly declares the Free Trade Club of London: "Let it be understood once for all that the salvation of England depends upon the destruction of 'American manufactures, and that the only way in which American manufactures can be destroyed is by free trade.'" Mr. Henry Watterson, Col. W. R. Morrison, Speaker Carlisle, and other leading Democrats declare that their party is for free trade. This is why the Englishmen love our Democratic party.

STOLEN! The Bankers and Business Men's Excursions will leave Chicago for City of Mexico, San Francisco and Honolulu, via. Kansas City, by special trains in Pullman Palace Cars, October 14, November 15, December 9, 1884, and January 6, 1885. Round trip tickets, good for six months from date—Chicago to City of Mexico or San Francisco, $117; San Francisco to Honolulu, 125. Persons desiring to join any of these parties should advise at once the time they prefer, and for any information, address, I. C. Storer, Care Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Ry., No. 54 Clark Street, Chicago.

The October Harper's will contain as a frontispiece a charming picture by Mr. Albert of "Judith Stakespeare," the heroine of William Black's story, which bears its close, and will have more of the delightful engravings from the pencils of Edmund and Gibson, illustrating E. P. Rock's "Nature's Serial Story," part eleven. Both Mr. Boughton and Mr. Abbey illustrate the installment of the former's clever "Artist Strolls in Holland," which will appear in the number. Horace E. Soudier will take the reader to Copenhagen, "The Home of Hans Christian Andersen," and Rufus F. Zogbaum to "The Home of Tommy Atkins," who is quite another kind of person. Tommy Atkins is the popular name for the British soldier, and the home described is the great camp at Aldershot. Both these papers will be fully illustrated, the latter by the writer himself. A Mexican metropolis, Monterey, will be described and illustrated in an article called "The Gateway of the Sierra Madre," by Frank R. Brown. Two historical papers, one on King's College (now Columbia), New York, by John MacIntosh, and the second by Rev. Treadwell Walden, on Westminster Hall; and two biographical—one a reminiscence of Mr. Darwin, with a portrait of him in the middle age, the other the remarkable story of a slave horse-jockey, Charles Stewart, told by himself and edited by a Southern lady, will be features of the number. One of the miscellaneous papers, on "Municipal Finance," by W. M. Ivins, private secretary to Mayor Grace, of New York, will attract much attention, and there will be the usual variety of stories, poems and departments.
