

HIGH'S COLUMN.

PARASOLS AT COST!

Now is the time to buy a Parasol to use this year and to have for next year, at wholesale price. Look at them; they are cheap.

Closing Out!

Having decided to go out of the Wall Paper business we will sell you Papers and Borders cheap. Bear this in mind and paper this fall, and then you will have clear rooms all winter.

STALEY'S YARN

is found only at our store, as we are the agents for them this year. You know we have sold them the last five years.

LaPorte Flannels

are now in on our shelves, and we are selling them for early work. You will then have them ready for use.

Ball Corsets

to sell for $1.00 are only found at our store. Then we have four other kinds to sell for $1. Be sure and see ours before you buy.

We have always sold an enormous amount of Cotton Batts for two years because our price and quality have been the best. Come in and see ours.

Gents, we sell the best unadorned shirt in the city for 75c, and we have them at 50c and $1 besides. Every one that buy our shirts once come back for more of them on account of the durability and fit.

Colored Cotton Skirts that are cut and made same as dress skirts, that are cheap. Ladies, you will save work by wearing them.

October next Wednesday.

St. Joseph's prohibition club has twenty members.

Hon. J. C. Burrows speaks at Three Oaks this evening.

YARLE is billed for a speech in this place next Monday.

Don't forget the McFibben family to-morrow evening.

Wm. H. Rose, an old citizen of Niles, died Sept. 15.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eliza Roe died Tuesday morning.

St. Joseph has a new concert and orchestra club, called the Harmonia Society.

Miss KATE FLYNN, one of the Niles graduates, has been engaged to teach in Gales.

Mrs. DUBOIS, of Kankakee City, Ill., daughter of Elias Eaton, is visiting in this place.

Hon. M. C. BURROUGHS will speak at Berrien Springs for the Republicans, October 7.

Mr. F. R. HARDING has the thanks of the Record office for a basket of delicious grapes.

OLIVER T. MORTON, son of the late Senator Morton, will speak in South Bend next Saturday.

Mr. HANCOCK WILSON, of Greeley, Iowa, made Buchanan a short visit Tuesday.

Mrs. H. M. GILLETTE goes to-morrow for a visit in Adrian, to be away for the winter.

Miss MARIA WELLS started this morning for a few weeks visit with friends in Minneapolis.

A good time for the youngsters is expected at the union picnic in the park grounds next Saturday.

The St. Joseph Republican appears this week with a new head. A very much needed improvement.

JOHN HANOVER and family arrived in this place Tuesday, and he is now a citizen of Buchanan.

The Northern Berrien County Fair at Benton Harbor opens next Tuesday, September 30, and lasts four days.

ATTEND the fair at Berrien Springs next Saturday. 50 cents the round trip on the narrow gauge road.

SOUTH BEND fair this week. A number are going from this place. They get up first-class fares there.

COMMON COUNCIL meets to-morrow evening. Will they take some action regarding the sidewalk on Chicago street.

Mr. HENRY BLODGETT is prepared to make cider, and invites those who are fortunate enough to have apples to bring them along.

Mr. F. F. CLARK has set a good example for the street he is living on, by having a concrete walk built at the front of his residence.

Mr. SCOTT WHITMAN has had made a cement walk along the Detroit street front of his property, and one leading from his house to Front street.

For the credit of the town there should be a sidewalk built on Chicago street, between Oak street and the creek, north side.

J. P. FINNEY is having a cement walk made at the front of his new building to-day. This is a start in the right direction for that street.

H. OPPENHEIM & SON have an announcement on this page that is of interest to all who trade in Buchanan or may be induced to do so. Read it.

The Record job department has a supply of work that has rendered it necessary to more than double our force in that department.

WHAT people thought was an earthquake last Friday, is now claimed to have been nothing more than a shake of the Michigan age.

MAYOR T. G. BEAVER, of Niles, and Miss Lodema Dragoon, formerly of this place, were married by Rev. G. C. Tate, in Niles, Tuesday evening.

MARRIED.—At the home of the bride's parents, in Berrien Centre, September 18, by Rev. J. F. Bartness, Washington E. Parker, of Ayr, Dakota, and Miss Cass L. Barnhart.

Berrien county is now enlightened by fifteen newspapers. She ought to be a model county.—Dowagiac Republican.

Berrien county is just that.

The Detroit Evening News of Friday contains the following item:

John Arthur, employed in a stove mill at Charlotte, had an arm nearly severed by the machinery yesterday.

DR. BERRICK will preach in the Old

Advent church next Sabbath, at 3 P. M.

The cool nights begin to indicate that Jack Frost will probably soon be here. Crops are all out of his way and he may put in his appearance as soon as he likes.

Hon. J. C. Burrows opened his part of the campaign in this county, in Berrien Springs, yesterday, and the new Town Hall was crowded with hearers.

REV. C. G. THOMAS expects to return from conference in time to conduct prayer meeting this evening, and preaching Sunday morning and evening.

Mr. WILL H. GADY, a former Dayton lad, and Miss Anna B. Royter, of Chanute, Kansas, were married at the home of the bride's parents, on Wednesday, Sept. 17.

The annual fair of the Berrien County Agricultural Society will be held in Niles, October 14, 15, 16, and 17. This is a little later than usual, because the South Bend fair is held at the usual time for holding there.

As no one calls for the cash that was left over for an owner, we have turned it over to the finder for safe keeping, and he has probably used it for the benefit of the poor.

The picnic by the Buchanan Sunday schools, advertised for next Saturday, will be held at the park ground grove. A general invitation is extended to all to attend and have a good time.

There appears to be a general impede of old and young bachelors and maids in this place in prospect. The reports of weddings soon to be numerous to mention.

There have been more potatoes raised in this State this year than any year before for twelve or fifteen years. The crop in this part of the State is like the old time Michigan potato crops, when four or five hills would fill the bushel basket.

Prohibition Rally.—Prof. Samuel Dickie, of Albion College, will speak at Buchanan on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 7, and come everybody and hear the subject of Statutory Prohibition discussed in an able manner.

TREAT & REDDEN have moved their stock to the Redden Bros. new building at the foot of Day's avenue, and are ready for business again. They now occupy the finest store room in town.

The ladies of the Methodist church in Dowagiac, held an "Art Loan" exhibition last week, on the plan of the exhibition held in Detroit last fall, and netted $100 by the enterprise.

H. M. ROSE, former owner of the Benton Harbor Palladium, has finally found a town of the right size to correspond with his importance, and is employed as "local" on the Grand Rapids Daily Telegraph.

There appears something curious that bills advertising Republican meetings cannot be made to stay posted in this place without being mutilated or destroyed, while those of the successful party stay up without molestation.

There appears to be considerable moving about in this place just at present, but no recent house longer than time enough to change families. Vacant houses have not been very common property in this place during the past few years.

There are about 400 voters in this town. The Republican club has over 200 members, and Dr. Roe informs us that the Butler club, formed Tuesday evening, has 125 members. Wonder where the Simon pure Democrats are going to get their Cleveland club?

MORE BUSINESS.—Mr. John T. O'Neil, of Niles, has rented J. P. Bins' new building, and expects to open a boot and shoe store about Oct. 10, and is now asking Mr. Bins to hurry his work of finishing the room.

THERE was a short sparring match between Jake Imhoff and Sol Routh, Tuesday, in Roe Bros' hardware store, and they both came very nearly being hurt. You shouldn't indulge in such sport, boys. It is dangerous for the eyes, besides not looking well.

List of letters remaining unclaimed for in the postoffice at Buchanan, Mich., for the week ending Sept. 25: Mr. I. I. Hutchinson, Nelson A. C. King, Mrs. Anna Price, Christian Peterson. P. O. Cards.—W. D. Espey, Mrs. Amanda Griffin, Sime Swartz.

L. P. ALEXANDER, P. M.

Our friend John Morris returned from Dayton, Ohio, with his bride, Monday evening on the accommodation train, and later were serenaded by the cornet band. The Record, together with John's many friends, congratulate the new family and wish them a long and happy life.

REV. S. HENNINGER, Corresponding Missionary Secretary of the Evangelical Association, will preach in the Evangelical church on Portage Prairie next Sunday, Sept. 28, at 10:30 A. M., in the English language, and at 3 P. M. at Keller's Corners, in the German language.

THE Evening News Monday contained the following:

A large audience assembled at the Presbyterian church, Niles, Sunday evening to bid farewell to Miss Jennie Neilson, a member of that church and a graduate of the Niles high school, who will leave this country in a few days to go as a missionary to Siam, under the care of the woman's board of missions of the Presbyterian church.

AN employee of the Buchanan Mfg. Co., who is a Democrat, approached another employee of the same shop, a member of the M. E. church, and solicited his name for a Butler club, when he was informed that he did not train with that crowd, but should vote the Republican ticket. Mr. Succatash party man then tells his friend that, as a Christian, he ought to vote for St. John.

Gen. R. A. Alger,

Republican Candidate for Governor of Michigan,

Hon. T. W. Palmer,

U. S. Senator, and

Hon. J. C. Burrows,

Republican Candidate for Representative in Congress, will address the people of Berrien county, at

Buchanan,

Thursday, Oct. 9th,

Afternoon and Evening.

A DISTINCT shock of earthquake was felt in this section at about three o'clock Friday afternoon, that shook buildings hard enough to rattle dishes and loose windows. The shake was quite extensive, being felt throughout Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia, in many places more distinctly than here.

JAMES A. SCOTT, of Benton Harbor, who was nominated for coroner on the successful ticket, has the following card in the Palladium:

I wish to publicly withdraw my name from the Democratic county ticket as a candidate for coroner. I have always been a Republican and expect to remain as such, and while I am grateful for the compliment from my Democratic friends, I shall be compelled to decline the same. Respectfully,

JAMES A. SCOTT.

LIGHTNING at last struck Buchanan. Messrs. Bishop & Fisk, of Union City, will build a skating rink on the corner lot opposite Spence & Barnes' factory, the building to be 40x100 feet, one story. These gentlemen will move their families to the place and will commence the work of erecting the rink at once.

NORTH BEND, Mich., Sept. 24, 1884.—The knowledge of the fact that a few of the great intelligent human family know the first rudiments of common decency, and there is probably no man better qualified to testify to this fact than was Scott Whitman when he found the prints of a number bent plant in the surface of the walk he has just built for the accommodation of the pupils, and built a good stout fence around to keep this same public off until it should have time to harden, or when he found young men (?) and young ladies (?) or persons, who bear the resemblance of such, deliberately tear down the fence and climb on to the walk to see if they can not injure it, after being requested not to do so.

While on the way to the successful convention at Berrien Springs, John Redden, a life-long Democrat, had occasion to call upon Mr. Jesse Roe, on a business errand, when the following conversation took place:

"How are you going to vote this year, Jesse?"

"Well, I hardly know, but think some of voting for St. John."

"Give me your hand on that. That is just the thing to do."

"Well, how are you going to vote?"

"Well, O, I am a Democrat. I shall vote for Cleveland, of course."

Mr. Roe is a Republican, and thinking that he could see the ghostly specter of Democracy behind the St. John movement, will vote for Blaine and Logan and the Republican local ticket.

There seems to have arisen a new complication in the narrow gauge railroad extension. St. Joseph people appear to be loth to grant right of way through one of their streets to the point the company desires to reach, and the company is now looking for a way to get into Benton Harbor. They find that two and a half miles may be saved in distance by crossing the river and making Benton Harbor the terminus, besides having no trouble and expense in procuring right of way. A delegation of the money holders in Benton Harbor was in this place last Thursday on that business. A survey of the Benton Harbor route has been made, and it shows up quite favorably. The accommodations in depot and yards in Benton Harbor are far superior to those in St. Joseph, and there is not a certainty that the route may not yet be changed.

The Greenback and Democratic parties met in this place yesterday to nominate a candidate for representative for the second district of this county. The Greens met in Kinyon's hall and the Democrats in Rough's Opera House. The usual marriage ceremonies were manipulated, and the two conventions finally came together in the Opera House, although the Greens were somewhat shy, as it was understood that the Democrats wanted to name the candidate, and as an inducement the Democrats promised to use their influence to give the candidate for Senator to the Greens. Dr. Roe thought he was perfectly willing to trust them, while others were not so free to do so. The result of the deliberation was the nomination of James L. McKie, of Three Oaks, where he has been engaged in the mercantile business for a number of years. The successful party has a majority of about 100 in the district, and it is necessary for a Republican to run more than that much ahead of his ticket in order to be elected, which makes the chances of an election not the most encouraging; but we think there is a man living at New Buffalo who can come so near "getting there" that it will make Mr. McKie's hair rise.

FROM DAYTON

Sept. 24, 1884.

Preaching at the M. E. Church next Sunday at 11 A. M.

The paragon has been improved with a coat of paint.

Mr. Simeon Hamilton has returned home from Dakota.

Mrs. Perry has returned home to Wisconsin.

Mrs. Francis, of Tilsonburg, Ont., is out on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Finch.

Mrs. and Mrs. A. Weaver's daughter spent Sunday in town.

Mr. James Wilson has returned home.

Mr. Redding is able to be out again.

Miss Mattie Foster has returned home.

The Redden Bros' new building, two rooms, and Kinyon's building received new plate glass fronts Saturday. This is the first plate glass brought to Buchanan for window purposes. There will be more before many months, and the appearance of Front street will be greatly improved by their presence.

The Advent Christian conference of northern Indiana and southern Michigan will hold its annual session at the Oak street Advent Christian church. Meetings will commence Wednesday evening, Oct. 1, and continue over Sunday. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

BENJ. FINNEY, Pres.

CARD OF THANKS.

The ladies of the aid society of the M. E. Church desire, through these columns, to express their heart-felt thanks to Redden Bros. for the use of their store room during their last social; to Mr. Carothers for the ice donated; to the ladies for their donation of fancy articles; also to the young ladies for their earnest and efficient effort in making it a success, both socially and financially, the proceeds being $28.

MATRIMONIAL.

About two hundred invited guests assembled at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Richards, last evening, to witness the marriage of their youngest daughter, Miss Mary, and Mr. George G. Rogers, a young man of most excellent prospects, junior member of the firm of Dr. E. S. Dodd & Son in their drug and proprietary medicine business. The ceremony was neatly and appropriately performed by Rev. W. W. Wells. The young couple was presented with a large and magnificent collection of presents comprising articles of all kinds, one of which was an elegantly bound copy of the Record, the volume being made and compiled by the Record office. The crowd fully half their new home fully prepared for their occupation before the wedding, and are now happily settled at the new home, and fully prepared to receive and entertain callers. They may be found at the former home of Mr. J. L. Richards, on Clark street.

FROM BERRIEN CENTRE.

Sept. 24, 1884.

Mrs. O. A. Lacrone went on Monday morning to Ann Arbor, where her husband has resumed his studies in the department of medicine and surgery.

Our genial friend, C. H. Knapp, and his companion have also made them a home at the University. His two sisters, Emma and Nellie, who are in attendance there, will live with them the coming year.

Mr. Arthur Ulrey, son of David Ulrey, has entered upon his first course of Medical Lectures at the University. We wish our young friends prosperity and enjoyment in their new fields of labor.

D. H. Rolver goes to St. Joseph where he will enter upon the duties of clerk in the establishment of E. T. Rousens & Co.

There are poles and poles at Berrien Centre. One is spliced to denote (con) fusion, I suppose. The others are not spliced, but they mean to win.

Jenkins & Pelter shipped a carload of hogs from this point to-day.

Poultry buyers are after all the chickens they can find. They drop the fraction of a cent in the price each day. So it is necessary to sell quickly, or take rock-bottom, or keep on feeding.

Every farmer is grateful for the recent good rains. There is fair promise of still more.

Mr. Martin L. Becker and Miss Ona M. Becker, here elected by Berrien Centre Lodge I. O. G. T. as representatives to the Grand Lodge, soon to convene at Lansing.

[St. Joseph Republican.]

A Royalton woman caught a skunk stealing her hens, and she killed it with a club. She now wishes that the skunk had killed her. Indeed it begins to look as if the St. Joseph Valley railroad would be built to St. Joseph, work is being pushed all along the line, and many men and teams are employed.

A contribution of money soon be put on to work from this end of the road. This road promises to be a great help to St. Joseph, and trains will be running across this place, Buchanan, ere the sun goes down, January 1st, 1885.

Pensioning Rebels.

Address of the Iowa Republican State Committee.

HEADQUARTERS REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE, DES MOINES, IA., Sept. 15.—At the Democratic Convention held at Chicago last July, Gen. Benjamin F. Butler, being a member of the Committee on Resolutions, presented a series of resolutions, among them being the following in relation to internal revenue:

Resolved, That the system of direct taxation known as the "internal revenue" is a war tax, and so long as the war continues the money so raised shall go to the support of the war.

Resolved, That the money so raised shall go to the support of the war, and shall be used for no other purpose.

Resolved, That the money so raised shall go to the support of the war, and shall be used for no other purpose.

Mr. L. Adams of Greenville, Ill., desiring to have Gen. Butler's statement in regard to the matter, wrote him as follows, enclosing the newspaper statement above quoted:

GREENVILLE, Ill., July 19, 1884.—Gen. B. F. Butler.—DEAR SIR: I find the enclosed slip from a newspaper giving the rounds of the press, and being desirous of knowing whether such a resolution was introduced to the committee by you, and whether you are currently reported in the remarks attributed to you at that time, is my apology for writing this to you. An early reply will much oblige. Yours respectfully,

To this letter Mr. Adams received the following reply, enclosing a copy of the Internal Revenue platform is not correctly copied.
