BENTON HARBOR children have the whooping cough.

Mr. C. H. FRENCH is building an addition to his house.

PEOPLE who travel over the country roads now do so from necessity rather than choice. Plenty of mud.

CAPT. KERR captured the game he was after and is now Deputy United States Marshal for this county.

ATTENTION is called to the new advertisement of W. H. Keeler, the new druggist, as it appears in this paper.

C. C. SHERILL formerly of Three Oaks, later of Kalamazoo, now calls Niles home.

TAXES will be ready to gather in a few weeks and, like other crops, there is an extraordinarily large crop.

THE latest form of amusement in Niles is "beating" socials. Dye know how it's done?

MR. SETH SMITH of this place, has just been re-elected trustee at the Niles district M. E. Conference, an office he has held for a term of years.

SCOTT & BROWNFIELD moved to their new quarters in Inhof's new building Tuesday, and are now comfortably located.

THE O'Neill brothers now turn up in San Francisco. That is about near enough. Better on the other side of the Pacific.

MR. THOS. WRIGHT is taking up his abode with his family at Anna, Ill., where he has gone to engage in the lumbering business.

MR. SETH SMITH has taken the agency of this township for the sale of Rogers' new county atlas, and is now pushing his canvass.

THE Niles District Conference of the M. E. Church will be held at Decatur Nov. 10 and 11. Rev. G. C. Thomas and Seth Smith will represent the church at this place.

REV. G. C. THOMAS will conduct the quarterly meeting at Lakeside next Saturday and Sunday. Rev. Mr. Patterson, of Three Oaks, will preach at this place next Sunday, in consequence.

DIED.—Mrs. S. E. Cadwell, of this place, died Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 10, after a long and painful sickness with cancer, aged 42 years. The funeral will be held this afternoon.

A PAWN-BROKER, styling himself "Cheap John," has succeeded in nicely skinning the Benton Harbor boys out of their watches on small loans. He has moved to other verdant fields.

JOHN HOGUE of Sodus lost a $200 horse by his team running away in his orchard, this one butting his brains out against an apple tree.

THE new Buchanan band claims to be the highly prosperous, with money in the treasury and more coming, which condition is flattering for a starter.

W. A. WATKINS, for many years connected with the business interests of Niles; Republican candidate for Register of Deeds at the last general election, died at his home in Niles Saturday.

THE river steamer May Graham has been somewhat unfortunate this season. She ran into the bridge at St. Joseph Friday night, and demolished her pilot house, incurring a loss of about $100.

INTEREST now centers on the kind of houses muskrats are building. They will probably not trust themselves in houses after the experience of last winter, and burrow the river banks instead.

THE Buchanan Fire department has presented their chief, Mr. J. L. Richards, with an elegant fireman's badge. The badge and case are on exhibition in J. H. Roe's jewelry window this week. They are beauties.

DR. SLOOM is forming his opinion of chicken thieves very rapidly just now. He had nearly a hundred chickens three weeks ago, but, as less than half that number now remain, he mistrusts that someone must be "eaten on 'em."

While carelessly handling a loaded revolver Friday morning a little daughter of John Miners, of Royalty, was shot in the hand by the accidental discharge of the weapon, making a bad but not dangerous wound.

The Visitors.

MR. JOHN M. GALE, of Paw Paw, is visiting with relatives in this place. MR. AND MRS. JOHN SPENCER, of Nora Springs, Iowa, are visiting here.

Mrs. J. M. WELLS of Jackson, Mich., is visiting in this place, the guest of Mrs. Ralph Russell.

Mrs. A. S. COHN of Toledo, Ohio, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. H. Oppenheim, in this place.

ROBERT DAVIS of Denver, formerly a Buchanan lad, visited in this county last week.

THE new deputy United States Marshal, from Cheleaming, was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. TRAVIS, of St. Joseph, formerly of this place, is here for a visit this week with old friends.

MR. D. A. DODD, of Howard City, Kan., son of Dr. T. A. Dodd, formerly of this place, is visiting here.

MR. GEO. F. BROWN and FAMILY, of Caro, Mich., are visiting relatives in this place and Keeler, Van Buren county.

Mrs. R. S. BLACK and son Charles visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Plimpton, at Benton Harbor, last week.

Mrs. N. FAVCETT of Des Moines, Iowa, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. G. H. Richards, in this place, the past two months, returned to her home Monday.

Geo. H. MURDOCK, Jr., editor of the Berrien Springs Journal, was in this place over Sunday. No special attraction here for the young editor. He just comes to have a good time and see the boys and girls.

WANTED BADLY—A good sidewalk on Detroit street, east side, just north of Chicago street. It is a large sized imposition on the little folks to compel them to wade the mud there in order to reach their school.

THE house occupied by Mrs. Laura Chapman and family, in this township, was burned Thursday night, leaving the family without clothing or provisions, as the contents of the house were destroyed.

IT took a quarter of a column of the valuable space of the St. Joseph Republican to tell about the weddings of that town for last week, which indicates a boom in the furniture business.

MR. T. R. MARBLE had a valuable mare injured by breaking through the old wooden bridge on north Oak street, which brings to mind the fact that it would not be a bad idea to serve that bridge the same as was done to the one just below, on Main street.

THERE is a prospect that the Vandalia—but what's the use? We have had so many of these "prospects" that they are becoming monotonous. We might as well go right along moving the county seat, just as if the Vandalia had no ideas whatever. Unless they materialize, they can be of but little value.

THE St. Joseph and Benton Harbor Street Car Company is highly elated at the opening of business for their new road, and the citizens are tickled on account of the convenience of the thing, and think that fewer ferry boats will be required to do the business hereafter.

SOME fellow with a small amount of brains and those of very poor quality has been practicing his ax on some shade trees about town. If he wants some right lively fun, he had better let some one catch him at it, and he will most likely get his worthless neck twisted, and then be prosecuted for malicious cussedness.

FOLLOWING is a copy of a sign that appears at the front of a manufacturing establishment in this place:

WAGON REPAIRING SHOP. A SPECIALTY.

BUGGY—SINGLE TR—EES—IRON & PAINT—ED. READY, FOR—USE. FOR SALE HERE. It is not copyrighted.

THE St. Joseph fruit region is regaining its old popularity so suddenly lost, a few years since, when the peach growing qualities of the section deserted them, by the amount of other kinds of fruit that are shipped from there. More money went into that section this year, for fruit, than before since peach time.

LIST of letters remaining uncalled for in the post-office at Buchanan, Mich., for the week ending Nov. 12: H. Baber, Rob Donaham, Thomas Holmes, Mrs. Lema Howell—A. Samuel Johnson, E. J. Morin, O. S. Richardson, St. Johns Mfg. Co.

L. P. ALEXANDER, P. M.

THE Niles Democrat has taken a new "Devil." He is a little "Devil," and useful at present only in keeping pa and ma busy, but the fiery free trade editorials he will write for future readers of the Democrat will doubtless make worlds revolve. The Democrat is to be congratulated on its important acquisition. Weight, only ten pounds.

THE HUSS-RICE adultery case occupied the attention of Hizonner, Esquire Dick, Saturday, but was not completed, and now stands adjourned to next Monday, Nov. 17. The disgusting details of the trial attracted a crowd of small boys to the court room that it would seem to be in the interest of morality to exclude therefrom on such occasions.

WE have received an anonymous complaint that some school director has refused to allow some lady, whom he had hired, to teach their winter school, simply because she had married. Not knowing any of the parties, we venture the remark that that director understands his business, for when a young woman gets married it is her duty to pay strict attention to taking care of her husband.

THE Brighton, Mich., Citizen is offered for sale for $1,500 because the editor is tired of the business. The property is undoubtedly well worth the money but the display of "trade" advertisements in the paper would most likely discourage the editor.

TOBACCO dealers now make general merchandise houses of their business places. They have stork guns, clocks, whips, monkey wrenches, and nearly everything to induce people to buy the weed. Lotteries and all kinds of snap games, not prohibited by law, are brought into service.

ABOUT the midnight hour last night our slumbers were disturbed by the sound of heavenly music, and we were just deciding that a band of angels were hovering about us, when the familiar voice of Walt. Harper, saying, "Give 'em yer solo, Pete," brought us to a realizing sense that we were being visited by the Buchanan serenading club. Such visits are enjoyable.

THE Mirror has already commenced to work on Tom. O'Hara's feelings to induce him to locate his enormous type-writer factory in Niles. Now, Bro. Cook, that is useless. He will just plant it about half-way between Benton Harbor and St. Joseph, and in a short time he will have both towns under his thumbs, and peace and tranquility will reign over that community such as has never been known there before.

Mishawaka has a new sensation in the shape of a "kid" marriage. The discovery by the parents of a girl, aged 16, that she was in an interesting condition divulged the secret that she was married several months ago to a young man of the town, about the same age. The ceremony was performed in Michigan and the couple have succeeded in keeping it a profound secret until now. The names of the new bride, Grace Martin and Eddie Moore.—South Bend Tribune.

The little girl in the case visited here last week, and reported here that Eddie came with her to Niles, where they were married, Nov. 3, by Esquire Barron, when he returned.

NEARLY A BROKEN NECK.—Moses Shook and a few other boys went out coon hunting one night last week. They treed a coon and Mose helped hold the dogs while one of the party cut down the tree. Not being an expert lumberman, the fellow chopped all around the tree, Indian fashion, and it fell the wrong way, one of the limbs striking Mose and knocking him into Dr. Baker's domain. He feels worse than if he had the Kentucky rheumatism. Dr. Baker reported the case to us, but failed to state whether they caught the coon or not.

As the time approaches for the change in the post-office at this place the anxious seat appears to be warming quite rapidly, and the "froze sweat of labor" orator is made the center of attraction. The Record learns of an enthusiastic delegation of leading Democrats who visited Benton the fore part of this week in the interest of one of the candidates, while the others are quietly depending upon their influence to carry them through. It appears to be a ruling passion with the administration to cause lightning to strike where it is least expected, and it is this kind who usually get left.

A GERMAN was making a pretty free flourish of a new revolver, on Front street, Saturday night, and there is still some doubt whether the fellow was drunk or crazy. He has been given credit for having better sense than was displayed in the performance. The fellow made free use of the same weapon Tuesday evening, threatening to shoot a number of persons. He was taken in charge by Marshal Shook, and on promise to behave himself, was let off by paying $2. The latest heard from him he was making it lively for the people in Niles.

EVERY year brings with it a large amount of work on the streets in this place and each wet season gives a lot of mud to wade through. Streets and drives in the vicinity of Hyde Park are made perfectly hard, smooth and dry during the entire year by the application of ground limestone, which appears to be a cheap and durable way of paving streets that are not submitted to any heavier usage than are the streets of Buchanan. It would seem to be a matter of economy to have some arrangement made by which the surface of some of our streets be made permanent. Is this not a question that should attract the attention of the common council?

Reading Matter.

This is the time when nearly every person provides himself with reading matter for the year to follow. We have special arrangements by which we can furnish any of the leading American periodicals to subscribers for the RECORD at rates lower than can be had directly, saving our patrons from five cents up, on any combination they may wish to select. Persons wishing to avail themselves of these reductions must be or become subscribers to the RECORD. These reductions are made for the accommodation of our patrons. All others will be charged full price.

DIED.—Mr. Charles Cowles, one of the first white settlers in this village, died at his home, on River street, Sunday morning, Nov. 8, aged 82 years.

Mr. Cowles has been one of the most active men ever in this part of the country, of vigorous health, until within the past year when his reason deserted him, and he wandered aimlessly about town. He was confined to his house but a few weeks, when his insanity at times rendered him nearly unmanageable. Mr. Cowles came to this place in 1834, and made a claim of government land in Section 25, just north of the village, on which he erected a shingle mill, site now occupied by what is known as Rural mills. This he afterward sold to Charles C. Wain, who converted it into a gristmill and corn meal mill. Mr. Cowles was afterwards engaged in the manufacture of furniture in Niles. Conducted a farm in Niles township, and was at one time landlord of the American House, in which he lost a good share of the money he had collected before. When in his prime he was the noted wrestler of the entire community, people coming many miles to wrestle with Charley Cowles, but it was his pride that no man ever placed him on his back. He leaves a widow and two daughters, Mrs. A. J. Crandell and Mrs. Geo. Fletcher, both of this place.

Another Pioneer Gone.

MR. Andrew C. Day, who has been a citizen of this village continuously since 1836, died at his home, at the corner of Front and Portage streets, yesterday morning, Nov. 11, aged within a few days of 81 years. Mr. Day came with his family to Buchanan in 1836, and bought of Leonard Madron his claim, with a small house and a few other effects. The claim being what now forms a greater portion of the south part of the village of Buchanan, and known as Day's addition. He has been actively connected with the business of the town, being for a number of years a half owner of the Day & Rough Wagon Factory, and at different times in the mercantile business. There remains of his family, his widow and two daughters, Mrs. J. P. Binns and Mrs. J. M. Matthews, both of whom are now in this place, arriving here just before the death of their father. The funeral services will be held at his late home to-morrow (Friday) afternoon at 1 o'clock.

FROM BERRIEN CENTRE.

MR. Aaron Toney returned, on Monday evening, from California, where he spent a month with his brother. He says California was extremely dry up to within one day before he returned. He also reports having traveled through snow for over nine hundred miles after leaving the Humboldt valley.

Mrs. Henry Hess returned, on Friday evening last, from a few weeks' visit among relatives in Ohio and Indiana.

Mr. Warren Toney and wife started, on Tuesday morning to Clinton County, Indiana, to visit her parents and other relatives.

The Township Board of Inspectors have chosen and purchased several sets of very choice books for the township library. It is a disgrace to our leading men, and the township generally, that no appropriation was granted for the library last spring. It is a powerful educator for good, and its influence should not be ignored.

Trish Shaffer has taken charge of 'Ee Express office at this place. The congregation of Maple Grove church voted to grant letters of release and recommendation to sisters Mrs. J. F. Peck and Miss Corn Peck. It is with much regret that our community bids good-bye to this excellent family. We heartily commend them to the good will of the community, where they seek a new home. C.

THREE OAKS ITEMS.

If the foot of one of our business men had not slipped, an Avery pen-ant would have been "punished severely." Although we mourn with our citizen that he failed to secure the medal as rooster of the promenade, we comfort ourselves with the thought that the rising generation have received an invaluable lesson in the flow of soul.

Popular gossip accuses the furniture clerk and W. F. shipping clerk, of distributing a little vocal and instrumental harmony on the north side, last Friday night. Never mind the gossip, boys; wake us up some more.

All are cordially invited to participate in the festivities at Town Hall, on Friday night, at fifty cents per festivity. The band boys are gentlemen, and will promptly sit out the disagreeable party who is full of elixir vitae.

John Holden is at his brother's home, sick.

Arthur Paine is no better at this writing, Wednesday forenoon.

Today Chikaming mused on the corpulent bond holder.

S. H. Martin spent two days in Chicago this week.

Four youths went to Buchanan Tuesday. We don't know what they did, but perhaps their friends had better save their money to pay possible fines.

One plus one equals one, is the conclusion Rev. H. Spafford came to, in a little calculation Sunday afternoon. Mr. Brown drew Carrie in the great matrimonial lottery, and we trust that Cupid may eat at the same table with the rest of the family, and stay around home between meals.

J. B. Pomeroy is walking around carefully on three legs.

Miss Grace Bradley is home for two weeks. KENO.

Circuit Court.

Since our last issue the following business has been transacted in the circuit court:

The people vs. John O'Brien; larceny from the person. Sentenced to the state prison for three years.

The people vs. Chas. Pooler; selling liquor to a minor. Continued for trial at next term.

Maria Gilbert vs. Albert Southworth, Jas. Shiley vs. Stannan, and Kellogg Stanley; trespass. Tried by jury which according to the instructions of the court gave the plaintiff $12 and costs and the defendants were given time in which to move for a new trial.

John A. Montague vs. William Woodford; assumpsit. Continued until next term.

Cynthia A. Rice vs. Thomas H. Rice; assumpsit. Continued until next term.

Silas Ireland, administrator of the estate of Betsey Shemley, vs. Sarah Palmer; trover. Tried by jury which returned a verdict for defendant.

James Conkright vs. Charles Haskins. Continued for trial until next term.

John Huss vs. Thomas H. Rice. Continued until next term upon terms.

E. P. Crocker vs. the village of Buchanan. Continued until next term.

Gideon Sperrin vs. John Hodgson. Tried by jury which gave plaintiff $25 damages.

The court will continue until Thanksgiving week when it will adjourn for one week. There are 21 jury cases yet to be tried.—Berrien Springs Journal.

whether for country, village or city.

The price is also reduced to only $1.50 a year. And more than this, every one subscribing now for 1886, receives the Weekly Numbers for all the rest of this year free. Take our advice and subscribe at once, and get the two months extra. It will pay you well. Or at least send for a specimen copy. Address Prairie Farmer, Chicago Ill.

County Press.

[Benton Harbor Wedge.]

Just as we go to press we learn that our friend John W. Leslie fell from a scaffold this morning in the basket factory and broke two of his ribs.

Mont. Farnum met with a painful accident on Thursday morning. While engaged at John Altmeyer's ship yard, cutting plank with which to put the Myrtle McQuarrie in shape to go up north fishing, he had the misfortune to run his right hand against the circular saw, nearly severing the thumb and first finger from the hand.

A fine girl baby was born to Mrs. N. Seger on Friday morning last. This makes the eighth child in the Seger family, seven of whom were born on Friday and one on Thursday. Two of the children were born on the same month, same date and same day of the week, but in a different year. This surely downs the old saying that "Friday is an unlucky day," and if there is any family in the county who can beat this record we would like to hear from them.

[Benton Harbor Palladium.]

The schooner Addie, in attempting to enter the harbor at South Haven at half past one o'clock Monday morning, struck the north pier and sunk. All hands were saved but had a narrow escape. Captain Delella, of South Haven, her master, lost quite a large sum of money and the crew lost all their effects aboard. The Addie had cleared with lumber from Racine for St. Joseph, but encountered bad weather outside. The wind was blowing from the west at the time, and a very heavy sea was running. The night was extremely dark. The Addie is a small schooner, having a carrying capacity of 30,000 feet of lumber, and is owned by J. B. Fiedridge, of Benton Harbor. The latter was called to South Haven and found the schooner with a bad hole stove in her hull and both masts gone. She can be raised and repaired, with a loss probably not to exceed five hundred dollars. She is valued at fifteen hundred dollars.

[Berrien Springs Journal.]

Samuel Hartman, of Three Rivers, has been taken in to the tune of $100 by lightning rod sharpeners. They looked over Mr. Hartman's premises and were so well pleased with the situation that they had permission to put one on Mr. H's barn, to be used as an advertisement for the company, asking the unsuspecting farmer to sign a paper that he would receive the lightning rod as a gift when it came. Mr. H. wrote his name very plain and pretty, consoling himself with the idea that he had a "soft snap" and would soon have a corner on lightning. Afterwards a bill was presented to Mr. Hartman for the cost of the rods and he was obliged to pay. W. J. Jones, of this township, was presented with rods for his house in the same way a few years ago, but he was sharp enough to make the men sign a receipt for lodging and a little grain in full payment for their work. When the bill was presented he was able to show it had been paid. Just imagine Berrien Springs without the county seat, as so many towns are now plotting it. It would be like a cat without a tail. [Just as useful if not so ornamental.]

State Items.

An apple tree in Keene, Ionia county, is credited with bearing 52 bushels of fruit this year.

In Muskegon and vicinity, within three months, there have been six sales of pine lands, aggregating $1,176,000.

The board of supervisors of Saginaw refuse to help make up the $750 lost by the county fair.

A Muskegon man is reported as saying that "God made Muskegon late on Saturday evening."

Jas. Rowe, the oldest inmate of Jackson county poorhouse, died Saturday of old age. He was sent there 26 years ago.

The Wabash Railroad Company does not allow employees to smoke while on duty, which gives them a good excuse for quitting the habit entirely.

The receipts of the Dowagiac fair amounted to $1,547.32, and there is now in the treasury $157 after paying for extensive improvements.

St. Joseph circuit court has convicted Geo. Monroe, of Bronson, of selling diseased meat to a Sturgis butcher last winter, and sentenced him to six months in prison and $250 fine.

East Saginaw has a prospect of getting a clock factory that is to employ 150 hands and manufacture 1,000 clocks per day. The concern is to come from New Haven, Connecticut.

Undertaker Howell, of Caro, laid out a diphtheria corpse some time ago, and came near losing one of his arms in consequence of inoculation.—Evening News.

Mrs. Arthur Cross, of Vermontville, recently dug 15 bushels of potatoes in the unprecedented time of one hour and a half. If any Michigan woman can beat the record, Mrs. Cross wants her to step up and claim the cake.—Evening News.

Duck law suits are the order in Monroe. Victor Willis has been arrested for trespassing on the duck marsh, and two boys, aged about 15 years, Wallace Bowditch and Columbus Doby, entered the marsh and were ordered off by the keeper, but refused to go, and a scrimmage ensued in which the keeper received a serious blow on the side of the head, and one of the boys was considerably mauled and had his gun taken from him. A suit for assault and battery is the result.

A St. Joseph county farmer, while recently plowing some drained marsh, run into a number of stumps and logs which obstructed the work. These were all entirely under ground and their existence unknown until the plowing commenced. The wood appears to be tamarack and is sound and firm enough for firewood. The oldest resident in that section never saw any trees of any kind growing upon that marsh. The soil has not been suitable for the growth of timber within the memory of white men. In some former age, away back, there was a heavy growth of timber upon what is known as the Bryan marsh, which was killed, and covered up by some change in the level of the country, the result of unknown causes.—Dowagiac Republican.

Peter Butler, of Boston, wears the famous wig given to Daniel Webster by the Hon. Moses Grinnell and others. Mr. Webster gave it to his friend and biographer, Peter Harvey, and he in turn bequeathed it to Mr. Butler, who possesses Mr. Webster's gold snuff box, a gift from that statesman's direct.

The Grand Rapids Democrat has the following postoffice chapter: The postmaster at Kinstonia will resign in favor of his wife, who is the only democrat in the family. A physician at Waverly writes that the postmaster is 80 years old and too sick to resign, and something must be done at once. The new postmaster at Root's declines the office without thanks. The postmaster at Burke's refuses to execute a bond.
