THE ELECTION.

Monday gave us one of the bleakest storms of the spring, yet there was an extraordinarily heavy vote polled, owing mostly to the interest taken in the Prohibition Amendment. In the state the Republican candidates for Justices of the Supreme Court and Regents were elected by 9,000 majority. In the judicial district Tom O'Hara counts his majority at about 900. It is a sad joke on the district, but we shall have to put up with it for six years, when the Republicans will perhaps have learned a few points on proper nominations. Tom will most likely get along passably if he has no important cases to try, and if anything like the Hair murder case or plow company's case comes up can hire a Judge from some neighboring district to try it for him. There are always many ways out of the woods, and we must trust to Tom's ingenuity to find a way out.

The inter state commerce bill will be a heavy load on numerous traveling show companies. The law forbids reduced fares to any of them by the railroads. Railroad passenger and freight rates are about the only commodity that cannot now be sold at wholesale.

According to the latest returns we have been able to secure, the Prohibitory Amendment has failed to pass by about 3,000. Several counties not yet heard from may still reduce this, or even carry the measure. The Salaries Amendment has passed by a good majority.

The result of the election in Chicago, Tuesday, was the election of the entire republican ticket excepting five aldermen, four of whom are democrats and one a socialist. The republican ticket was supported by the better class of democrats as against the socialist ticket which Carter Harrison tried to drive them to support. While the election does not mean much in itself politically it gives the republicans a precedent that will hold a large number of the voters for future elections.

The reduction of internal revenue and the taking off of revenue stamps from Proprietary Medicines, no doubt has largely benefited the consumers, as well as relieving the burden of home manufacturers. Especially is this the case with Green's August Flower and Boschee's German Syrup, as the reduction of thirty-six cents per dozen, he has added to increase the size of the bottles containing these remedies, thereby giving one-fifth more medicine in the 75 cent size. The August Flower, Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and the German Syrup for Cough and Lung troubles, have perhaps the largest sale of any medicines in the world. The advantage of increased size of the bottles will be greatly appreciated by the sick and afflicted in every town and village in civilized countries. Sample bottles for 10 cents remain the same size. 1. Pine saw-dust in neat boxes is said to keep lice from fowls.

She was made very ill by the gas, as she claims."

The comedian and author, Prof. W. E. Stedman, of Goleville, Mich., is engaged by the Wm. Perrott Post, G. A. R., to present his new military drama, "The Confederate Spy," under the auspices of their Order in the near future. Mr. S. comes well recommended by other Posts as being not only a fine actor but a gentleman in every respect, and his play is second to none in that line and will be supported by the best home talent in this place.

THERE is Fred F. King of Sodus' John A. Watson and Lawrence C. Fyfe of St. Joseph, E. M. Plimpton of Benton Harbor, and G. W. Coolidge and Jim Kellogg of Niles, that we shall be pleased to hear from at anytime on the question of the Judgeship. They are the fellows who had the largest sized hand in the nomination of the republican candidate. When you get ready to make your little speech we will try to have a reporter there to catch the dew drops as they fall from your lips.

J. P. THRESHER, of Benton Harbor, is now making great calculations on a navigable canal from Benton Harbor to Waterliet and Coloma, that shall make of these two places the most important shipping points in the state. As a figure on magnificent schemes with millions in them, Mr. Thresher vies with Col. Sellers for the championship. This, however, is supposed to be the starting point of the much talked of Michigan ship canal.

At the election Monday, the following were elected Pathmasters for the several districts in this township: 1, Wm. Coons; 2, Ashael Kelsey; 3, R. V. SERIOUS charges affecting the virtue of himself and some of the female attendants have been brought against John N. Foster, who has well and faithfully filled the position of Superintendent of the State School at Coldwater, and are now being investigated by a committee. Mr. Foster was a former Berrien County teacher, and the good reputation he has heretofore borne and the responsible position he has held makes it a case demanding careful investigation.

The saloon keepers who were interested in the Rouse case have been too sharp for the Rouse family, and by calling in a force of eighteen, induced Mrs. Rouse to agree to a settlement for $500, and the last heard of Rouse he was on his way to St. Joseph to spend that. This is a case that illustrates the beauty of attempting to do anything for people who do not know enough to appreciate a good thing when they have it. Supervisor Alexander has spent considerable of his time and money to get their case under way and had every prospect of getting a good living for them. They will be ready for public charity yet again in a short time.

Board of Supervisors.

The following is the new Board of Supervisors. Those marked with an * are re-elected:

- Buchanan—L. P. Alexander, R. Bainbridge—Geo. F. Stewart, R. Bertrand—Joel H. Gillette, R. Benton—J. C. Lawrence, R. Berrien—C. B. Grant, R. Chickaming—Wm. A. Keith, G. B. Galien—Melvin Smith, D. Vincent, R. Waterliet—Edward Brant, D. Weesaw—Peter Smith, D.

Twelve Republicans, nine Democrats, one Greenbacker, and Geo. F. Comings, who is a Prohibitionist elected on the Democratic ticket.

The Prohibition Amendment in this county had the following majorities in the several townships:

Table with 3 columns: Township, Yes, No. Bainbridge: 20 Yes, 180 No. Benton: 188 Yes, 188 No. Berrien: 188 Yes, 188 No. Buchanan: 98 Yes, 88 No. Chickaming: 26 Yes, 71 No. Hagar: 24 Yes, 74 No. Lake: 110 Yes, 110 No. Lincoln: 408 Yes, 408 No. Niles City: 110 Yes, 110 No. New Buffalo: 81 Yes, 81 No. Oronoko: 131 Yes, 47 No. Pipestone: 144 Yes, 68 No. Royalton: 94 Yes, 94 No. Sodus: 996 Yes, 996 No. Three Oaks: 4 Yes, 68 No. Waterliet: 94 Yes, 94 No. Weesaw: 2 Yes, 996 No.

This shows the county to have voted yes by 6 majority. The Star published the majority for Niles at 504 no, which would make a change in the voice of the county on the question.

The Taxes Not Paid.

The township treasurers have all settled with the county treasurer. The following table shows the amount of tax not collected in each fund, but does not show the amount of township tax assessed. Sodus returns the largest amount unpaid are generally struggling under a railroad or heavy drain tax:

Table with 4 columns: Townships, State and County Tax, State Tax, Town Tax. Sodus: 4177 34, 14 75, 23 22, 41 87. Berrien: 3277 76, 41 84, 41 87. Buchanan: 4522 11, 37 89, 125 79, 17 24. The Grand Rapids Eagle has the following commendatory mention of a former citizen of this place.

Col. Wells, who retired from the management of the Home today, has had the care of it since September, 1884, during the most difficult period, the formation or organizing. One of the originators of the project which resulted in the present success of the Home, and a firm friend of our city, he has done as much or more towards securing it, and locating it here, as any other man in the State. He had a particularly difficult task in managing the many scattered homes, in organizing the system, etc., and that so little cause for real complaint has been given, is the highest possible praise. The recent investigation really exonerated him, and proved conclusively that his management had been remarkably wise and successful. The Colonel has made many warm friends here who, with the best wishes of the community, hope that his new sphere of duties will win him the highest measure of success.

GALLIE TITERS.

The feeling of the republican candidates for the late township election, is this: "I was wounded in the house of my friends." Most of the democratic candidates were elected, and the result shows that the mischief was done by disaffected republicans. The vote was a great surprise to all, as was the Amendment meeting held last Sunday evening. Elder Joseph Smith was expected but failed to come, his place was taken by Elder W. W. Blair, of Iowa, who gave a good temperance talk for half an hour. He was followed by Elder Hicks, who began by giving the saints a stab about miraculous healing, then told us of a farmer's boy entering a lawyer's office and puzzling his brain over musty copies of Blackstone. Reaching the question of temperance finally, he seemed determined to avoid committing himself on this subject. Wanted all men to vote as they happened to think, a whisky man for whisky, a high license man for high license, etc., thus trying to be all things to all men. When asked what are his politics, he replied, "If any man asks you, tell him you don't know." Finally, with the greatest caution lest he should make some one else think the same way, he admitted that his preference was for local option. Shame on a man who will assume to be a spiritual teacher of the people, and yet hesitate to declare boldly for temperance and prohibition because he is a candidate for a township office, and may lose votes by so doing.

Mack Smith has returned from Ill. He may soon be found behind the counter at Tim's store.

Geo. Cone has purchased a horse. He was elected, you know, hence the need of the steed.

Our friend of the millinery store is very busy, preparing to plant his spring crop of rattlesnakes. Last year's crop was somewhat injured by dry weather and early frost.

Joseph Chevie will visit France this spring. He will doubtless bring a fine Norman horse home with him.

G. A. Blakeslee is in Ohio attending conference.

Charles Ashman got his hand too close to a circular saw in Peck & Imhoff's mill. A thumb and two fingers mangled will make him remember the event.

NEMO.

FROM DAXTON.

The funeral of the late Mr. James Redding of this town, who died in Niles on the first inst., was held in Mt. Zion church, on Sunday afternoon, the pastor of the M. E. Church officiating. The sermon preached was from a text selected by Mr. Redding, (Luke 12, 32.) The large attendance at the funeral shows the respect of the community for its deceased citizen.

We are sorry to say it, but Dayton went against the prohibitory amendment, but we would suggest an affirmative vote in the amendment of our sidewalks, especially the one from the hotel to the M. E. Church.

Elder Tench who has been quick sided with a gathering in his head is next Sabbath morning Easter will be celebrated in the M. E. Church by an Easter Missionary Concert, given by the Sunday school. A rich treat is promised to the public. Come out everybody. An original poem has been written for the occasion.

THREE OAKS ACORNS.

April 6, 1887. Election was "red hot" here on Monday. The ladies say: "Well, we didn't know the law wouldn't allow us to have lunch at the polls." But they found it to be a fact when Henry Chamberlain read it to them. Republicans carried the day here with a full ticket.

The concert given last evening by the Acome Quartette, for the benefit of the afflicted family, was a decided success, and we hope the family realized much from it.

The alarm of fire was heard on Elm street, Monday evening, and the street was crowded with people running northward, but they soon returned saying, "Only a chimney burning out down at Paine's, and we were glad to hear it, for if a fire had got started that night, nothing could have stopped it."

The family of P. C. Cross is getting better, after losing two of their little ones. No other case of measles has been heard of in town.

A. L. Drew has a party of twenty-five couple, invited to his place to eat maple wax. Suppose A. L. will make it lively for them.

SEWELL HULL, of Pipestone, Berrien County, is one of the settlers, having come here in 1850. He is now 63 years of age and in the best of health, with his mind still active. He rises and retires with the rest of the household and works out of doors each day, and the weather is at all suitable. During the last season he bustled himself with the exclusive care of a garden seven rods square, from which he harvested 150 bushels of turnips, 110 cases of berries and 200 pounds of grapes, and he completed all his seasons' work by setting out 10,000 strawberry plants on another piece of land.—Detroit Tribune.

[Berrien Springs Journal.]

Considerable excitement on our streets one day last week, caused by rumors that work on the narrow gauge had been resumed. It was said that the engine was being repaired and that ties were being hauled to Buchanan for the extension to South Bend. When the truth became known, it was found that the engine had been sent to northern parties and was being repaired for them, and that the ties were for the Michigan Central. W. W. Graves will now soon have his atlas ready for the printers. He has concluded to add an early history to it, and as soon as this task is completed it will be published. He has secured enough subscriptions to the atlas to at least make him safe, but not much more. Mr. Graves has spent many months on this atlas, and has gone to not a little expense to obtain the many changes made in the county since the latest atlas was issued, and it has been his aim to make it as nearly perfect as possible, and a book that could be relied upon; and in view of this he should have received a liberal patronage from the people, a fair compensation for his efforts, instead of barely enough to cover the costs of getting out a work of that kind in good shape, to say nothing of his labor.
