THE new coat of paint at W. A. Palmer's materially improves the appearance of that corner.

THIS part of the country has received a very welcome wetting-down the past ten days.

BENTON HARBOR and St. Joseph are talking of combining under one city charter. A sensible move, surely.

ONE workman in Benton Harbor made $800 fruit boxes in ten hours and got all the bottoms at the regulation height.

A BILL to authorize Benton Harbor to borrow money for the construction of water works has been passed by the house at Lansing.

MISS CORA EDMONS, well-known in this place, was married last Sunday at Keeler to Mr. Riley Reems of Dowagiac.

ARRANGEMENTS are being made for a large temperance convention to be held in St. Joseph the last days of this month.

THE rains of the past week has come finely to the rescue of the strawberry crop, and we may look for reports of the largest yield ever recorded.

NILES has the prettiest girls of any town in Southwestern Michigan.—Star. Let's see. Are you not a married man, Fred?

A GIRL has come to be a permanent boarder at the Major house, and when she becomes old enough will call Mr. and Mrs. Helmick papa and mamma.

THE ladies of the Presbyterian church gave an ice cream and strawberry festival in Inhoff's building, last evening.

BERRIEN SPRINGS people are making calculations for one of the largest crowds next Wednesday that has visited the County Capitol on the occasion of any pioneers' picnic.

REV. J. F. BARTNESS is in Chicago, this week, as Michigan's representative in the International Sunday School Convention being held in that city.

MASONIC.—A special meeting of Buchanan Lodge No. 68, F. & A. M., will be held Monday evening, June 6, 1887, to make all necessary arrangements for moving the Lodge to the new location selected by the committee. It is earnestly hoped that every member will be present. By order of the W. M.

B. D. HARRIS, Secretary.

LAWN SOCIAL.—Alert Hose Co. No. 1 will give a lawn social and ice cream festival at the old school house grounds on Tuesday evening. Give the boys a rousing benefit.

MR. ENOS HOLMES' flock of 235 sheep yielding him 2,457 pounds of fleece this year, being an average of 10 pounds and 14 1/2 ounces. Not bad for so large a flock.

A COUPLE of the little boys took to calling each other hard names, and finally came to blows, and the claret flew, at the Major House, Tuesday afternoon. Oh, if they only had a Marshal! Better not play checkers any more, children, if you cannot keep from quarreling about it.

$10,000 Benton Harbor five per cent. bonds were sold at par for school building purposes. We can just go home double on that. Our school bonds draw ten per cent. and have no refunding clause.

THIS charges found against the keeper of the Berrien County Poor House, as chronicled in another column of this paper, are the rankest that have reached Berrien county and it is sincerely to be hoped that they may prove groundless. A thorough investigation should be made, and the charges given a thorough airing.

THE damp weather of Monday gave this place a large crowd for memorial services, one of the largest in a number of years. The program, as advertised in last week's RECORD, was carried out. Owing to the indications of rain, the exercises were held in Rough's Opera House, which was far too small to accommodate those who wished to hear. The weather was cool and no rain until the ceremonies of the day were successfully closed.

FRANK LANDON, of the Niles Democrat, and Sherman Adams have commenced the issue of the Niles Daily Herald, No. 1, of which reached us Tuesday morning. The initial number is a very creditable effort, and shows an understanding of their business that bodes success. One very important thing they have thus far omitted. They have not told their many thousands readers where they can get an egg in their beer, or a drink of that splendid eight year's old reserve whisky.

LATER.—The second issue "got there", and tells where to buy "grit beer", or something of that sort.

THE WEATHER.—Following is our record of the temperature, as shown by our self-registering thermometer, for the week ending at 6:30 this morning:

V. E. DAVID, Observer.

The storm of Tuesday afternoon, while quite heavy here, did great damage on the south-east of Portage Prairie and through Niles, that section being visited by a heavy hail and wind storm. Farmers near the Dunker Church report the wheat crop badly damaged, and other crops nearly ruined. A considerable amount of glass was broken and other damage to property done. The Star says: "The storm did not reach as far as South Bend, but another of similar character came up from south of town and gave a part of the city a battering. There was a small amount of hail at this place."

Our brass band does not have the support of our citizens as it should. They have done so much gratuitous playing that many seem to expect them to continue doing so. They evidently forget that music, leaders, uniforms, etc., cost money. Let us not be behind our sister towns in substantial encouragement to the band boys.

It has once more been demonstrated here that the way of transgressors is hard. Several men went to Indiana Monday, and carried home some decoration whisky. One of them became too jubilant, and was being quietly taken home by Marshal Harner, when Wm. Morris attacked the Marshal. The result was that Mr. Morris found himself in the cooler, where he remained until next day. Mr. Bridgman appeared for the People, and Attorney General Hicks for the defense. W. H. Beach, claimed to be health officer and claimed that Morris was sick. He evidently forgot that his predecessor was appointed six weeks ago.

Twenty-five dollars and costs was the fine.

The boys from Galien Center thought they could play ball, and challenged the Galien boys for a game on Decoration Day. The score for the first inning was 10 to 0 in favor of Galien. The Galien boys got 6 more tallies in the second inning, when rain stopped the game.

A few of Miss Martin's friends planned a surprise for her on Tuesday evening. Rainy weather made the attendance small, but the surprise was complete, and a copy of Webster's Unabridged was presented her in token of appreciation of her labors among us, and regret at her leaving.

A little girl was being asked a number of questions here recently, and finally if she were the oldest child in the family. To this she replied "No, father and mother are older than I."

THREE OAKS ACorns.

Lots of rain and plenty of mud.

Hon. Wm. Chamberlain went to Lansing this morning to attend the meeting of the State Agricultural Society.

Several of your young people went to Hudson Lake Sunday.

The McKie brick store building is ready for the plate glass front. It is a daisy.

The annual picnic of the young people of Three Oaks will be held at Hudson Lake, June 15.

Mr. James Atwell has procured a position in the State Prison, at Jackson, as guard. He goes to his new work to-morrow morning.

The band boys look pretty gay in their new uniforms, and Arthur is more proud of them than ever.

Del. Boardman has gone for a week's visit with relatives and friends in LaPorte county, Ind.

The factories were all closed on Decoration day.

ONCE more there is a distant rumbling in railroad circles, and a brightening prospect of a cross road at this point.

John Inling and his party, who have been in this part of the country, and we learn that a corps of engineers are looking the ground over for a standard gauge road from South Bend to St. Joseph, connecting with the Vandalia. Thus far the whole is talk, but we shall live in hope that something material may develop soon.

A FARMER from two miles south of Niles was in this place this morning with samples of ruins of his crops, as left by the hailstorm of Tuesday. His wheat, peas, grass and vegetables are literally beaten to pieces and ruined. A heavy stalk of ryebarb was battered and broken. He reports his entire crop ruined, and that the storm covered a strip about a half-mile in width at his place. It was a repetition of the storm that struck this place last fall, but at a time when greater damage was done.

THERE has existed in Dayton for a number of years a mutual life insurance company in which each member is assessed one dollar upon the death of any of its members. No special effort is made to increase the membership, but occasionally some one has his attention drawn toward the institution and he joins. The writer has held a policy since February 1881 and has just received notice of the second assessment which is made on account of the death of Mr. James Redding. The policy is worth $1 for each member at the time of death, and assessments are made ahead and the money always on hand for immediate payment. There are now about sixty members. Mr. Elisha Allen, of Dayton, is Secretary and issues the policies.

We find the following regarding a Berrien County boy in the San Bernardino (Cal.) Times:

Gus Drew, while riding a bicycle yesterday in front of Mr. H. J. Drew's residence, fell from it and upon the iron picket fence which surrounds the yard there. He struck with his breast upon one of the pickets and the sharp point penetrated under the large pectoral muscle of the left side, inflicting an ugly wound some two inches in depth. Dr. Johnson was called to attend the wounded boy, and after careful examination pronounced it a flesh wound from which the patient will recover with a little attention.

School Notes.

The school in District No. 3 is taught by Miss Louise Schray, and has but a meagre attendance. The number of scholars enrolled during the present term is only twelve, and the average daily attendance does not exceed six. The number of daily recitations is seventeen. The scholars seem to be making fair progress in spelling and reading, but in writing they are much behind the majority of the scholars in the First Primary of the Buchanan public schools. Miss Schray is evidently making the best effort in her power to teach a good school, and considering all the circumstances is doing well. The scholars seem to be generally backward in most of their studies, and their attendance is very irregular. It occurs to the writer that the number of scholars might be increased, and that the regularity of their attendance might easily be improved. Parents should heartily co-operate with those who are called to discharge the responsible duty of teaching their children.

Judging from the keen disagreeable scent, the inference does not seem far fetched that the teacher's desk in this school house was made in the not distant past, the repository of tobacco. The present teacher does not possess olfactory nerves of sufficient strength to allow her to undertake the work of renovation.

The school in District No. 5, seems to be in fair condition at present. Miss Marie Gallivan is now teaching her fourth term in this district. The enrollment for the spring term comprises 38 names, and the average attendance is twenty-five. The number of daily recitations is thirty-two. The average attendance of the fall term of school in this district was thirty-seven, and of the winter term thirty-eight. More state work might no doubt be profitably done in all our country schools. The scholars in most of these schools seem to be backward in writing. Miss Gallivan has given good satisfaction in her school work, and evidently has her scholars under excellent control. So far as the writer knows she has the sympathy and cooperation of all who patronize this school.

WAR M. ROE, School Inspector.

D. A. Cuthbert has started on an extended trip through the west, with the hope of improving his health. He will visit Colorado and the Hot Springs first.

The G. A. R. boys have very recently purchased a fine flag which enjoyed a prominent place on Decoration Day. The exercises on that day were somewhat shortened by bad weather, a hard shower making the services at the cemetery rather brief. The program at the grove was carried out in full. Three able addresses being given by H. L. Potter, Esq., County Clerk; P. H. Keeler, and Rev. E. Trench. The Glee Club rendered some beautiful and appropriate music.

Our brass band does not have the support of our citizens as it should. They have done so much gratuitous playing that many seem to expect them to continue doing so. They evidently forget that music, leaders, uniforms, etc., cost money. Let us not be behind our sister towns in substantial encouragement to the band boys.

ONCE more there is a distant rumbling in railroad circles, and a brightening prospect of a cross road at this point.

John Inling and his party, who have been in this part of the country, and we learn that a corps of engineers are looking the ground over for a standard gauge road from South Bend to St. Joseph, connecting with the Vandalia. Thus far the whole is talk, but we shall live in hope that something material may develop soon.

A FARMER from two miles south of Niles was in this place this morning with samples of ruins of his crops, as left by the hailstorm of Tuesday. His wheat, peas, grass and vegetables are literally beaten to pieces and ruined. A heavy stalk of ryebarb was battered and broken. He reports his entire crop ruined, and that the storm covered a strip about a half-mile in width at his place. It was a repetition of the storm that struck this place last fall, but at a time when greater damage was done.

THERE has existed in Dayton for a number of years a mutual life insurance company in which each member is assessed one dollar upon the death of any of its members. No special effort is made to increase the membership, but occasionally some one has his attention drawn toward the institution and he joins. The writer has held a policy since February 1881 and has just received notice of the second assessment which is made on account of the death of Mr. James Redding. The policy is worth $1 for each member at the time of death, and assessments are made ahead and the money always on hand for immediate payment. There are now about sixty members. Mr. Elisha Allen, of Dayton, is Secretary and issues the policies.

We find the following regarding a Berrien County boy in the San Bernardino (Cal.) Times:

Gus Drew, while riding a bicycle yesterday in front of Mr. H. J. Drew's residence, fell from it and upon the iron picket fence which surrounds the yard there. He struck with his breast upon one of the pickets and the sharp point penetrated under the large pectoral muscle of the left side, inflicting an ugly wound some two inches in depth. Dr. Johnson was called to attend the wounded boy, and after careful examination pronounced it a flesh wound from which the patient will recover with a little attention.

School Notes.

The school in District No. 3 is taught by Miss Louise Schray, and has but a meagre attendance. The number of scholars enrolled during the present term is only twelve, and the average daily attendance does not exceed six. The number of daily recitations is seventeen. The scholars seem to be making fair progress in spelling and reading, but in writing they are much behind the majority of the scholars in the First Primary of the Buchanan public schools. Miss Schray is evidently making the best effort in her power to teach a good school, and considering all the circumstances is doing well. The scholars seem to be generally backward in most of their studies, and their attendance is very irregular. It occurs to the writer that the number of scholars might be increased, and that the regularity of their attendance might easily be improved. Parents should heartily co-operate with those who are called to discharge the responsible duty of teaching their children.

Judging from the keen disagreeable scent, the inference does not seem far fetched that the teacher's desk in this school house was made in the not distant past, the repository of tobacco. The present teacher does not possess olfactory nerves of sufficient strength to allow her to undertake the work of renovation.

The school in District No. 5, seems to be in fair condition at present. Miss Marie Gallivan is now teaching her fourth term in this district. The enrollment for the spring term comprises 38 names, and the average attendance is twenty-five. The number of daily recitations is thirty-two. The average attendance of the fall term of school in this district was thirty-seven, and of the winter term thirty-eight. More state work might no doubt be profitably done in all our country schools. The scholars in most of these schools seem to be backward in writing. Miss Gallivan has given good satisfaction in her school work, and evidently has her scholars under excellent control. So far as the writer knows she has the sympathy and cooperation of all who patronize this school.

WAR M. ROE, School Inspector.

D. A. Cuthbert has started on an extended trip through the west, with the hope of improving his health. He will visit Colorado and the Hot Springs first.

The G. A. R. boys have very recently purchased a fine flag which enjoyed a prominent place on Decoration Day. The exercises on that day were somewhat shortened by bad weather, a hard shower making the services at the cemetery rather brief. The program at the grove was carried out in full. Three able addresses being given by H. L. Potter, Esq., County Clerk; P. H. Keeler, and Rev. E. Trench. The Glee Club rendered some beautiful and appropriate music.

Our brass band does not have the support of our citizens as it should. They have done so much gratuitous playing that many seem to expect them to continue doing so. They evidently forget that music, leaders, uniforms, etc., cost money. Let us not be behind our sister towns in substantial encouragement to the band boys.

It has once more been demonstrated here that the way of transgressors is hard. Several men went to Indiana Monday, and carried home some decoration whisky. One of them became too jubilant, and was being quietly taken home by Marshal Harner, when Wm. Morris attacked the Marshal. The result was that Mr. Morris found himself in the cooler, where he remained until next day. Mr. Bridgman appeared for the People, and Attorney General Hicks for the defense. W. H. Beach, claimed to be health officer and claimed that Morris was sick. He evidently forgot that his predecessor was appointed six weeks ago.

Twenty-five dollars and costs was the fine.

The boys from Galien Center thought they could play ball, and challenged the Galien boys for a game on Decoration Day. The score for the first inning was 10 to 0 in favor of Galien. The Galien boys got 6 more tallies in the second inning, when rain stopped the game.

A few of Miss Martin's friends planned a surprise for her on Tuesday evening. Rainy weather made the attendance small, but the surprise was complete, and a copy of Webster's Unabridged was presented her in token of appreciation of her labors among us, and regret at her leaving.

A little girl was being asked a number of questions here recently, and finally if she were the oldest child in the family. To this she replied "No, father and mother are older than I."

THREE OAKS ACorns.

Lots of rain and plenty of mud.

Hon. Wm. Chamberlain went to Lansing this morning to attend the meeting of the State Agricultural Society.

Several of your young people went to Hudson Lake Sunday.

The McKie brick store building is ready for the plate glass front. It is a daisy.

The annual picnic of the young people of Three Oaks will be held at Hudson Lake, June 15.

Mr. James Atwell has procured a position in the State Prison, at Jackson, as guard. He goes to his new work to-morrow morning.

The band boys look pretty gay in their new uniforms, and Arthur is more proud of them than ever.

Del. Boardman has gone for a week's visit with relatives and friends in LaPorte county, Ind.

The factories were all closed on Decoration day.
