OUR postmaster finds his hands full in trying to get the Democrat boys, who have joined the young Republican club and will vote for Harrison, to come back to democracy, but it don't work worth a cent. There are a number of them, and the number increases with each Democratic demonstration. Let the good work go on.

SETTLED—Charles Antisdale came over from Niles, Monday morning, and settled with Esquire Dick, for his part in the egg throwing performance, for the same fine—$10—as was charged Brown. The cost was less by his coming without the officer. This will probably end that business, as the boys are quiet.

AN item we missed last week by its nearness: Married, at St. Joseph church in Chicago, on Tuesday, Oct. 2, 1888, Mr. Henry Grover, job printer in the Record office, and Miss Helena Schottler, of Chicago. They arrived in this place the next morning, and now are comfortably located at the former home of Mrs. Mary E. Straw, on Portage street, where they will be glad to receive their friends.

THE Republican caucus, Saturday afternoon, selected the following delegates to attend the Representative Convention, which is held in Three Oaks this afternoon: L. P. Alexander, I. L. H. Dodd, John M. Rouch, G. W. Noble, A. Miller, Chas. Pears, Frank Treat, Fred H. Andrews, Geo. Hanley, Geo. Searls, A. A. Worthington, C. B. Treat, C. O. Hamilton, Thos. Biddle, Dana Phelps, E. F. Mench, Morris Lyon, John S. Curtis, W. A. Palmer, John Hamilton, John Montague.

FORGERY—When Henry Storm sold his Winamac, Ind., drug store he took, among other securities, two $500 notes secured by a real estate mortgage. One of the notes became due a few days since, and when the bank here forwarded it for collection he discovered the whole transaction to be a forgery. He went to Winamac to find the forger had moved to parts unknown, and Henry is now in a state of doubt whether he will get his $1,000 or not.

MRS. J. ELLEN FOSTER, who is to speak in this place next Saturday, has held the position of President of the W. C. T. U. for Iowa for a number of years, and was recently re-elected by a majority that was nearly unanimous. She is an indefatigable temperance worker, but not by the third party method, as she will doubtless explain. At the Democratic meeting, Saturday evening, an attempt was made to detract from the force of any remarks she may make by a statement that the local Union deny her title. The action of the local union, or whatever it may be, or the statement at the Democratic meeting will have no effect upon the truth in the matter.

BYRON SMITH, the affable prescription clerk at Will Doumar's, has resorted to a shrewd galley proof from the drawer of a sewing machine he purchased at Seth Straw's place last week at Buchanan. At the top of the proof is the date "Sept. 24, '87." This bears evidence that the six lines were put in type at that date. Buchanan people can probably enjoy the joke better than any one else we know of. Here is what "Bible" Smith found: "Notice. Belle Welch having grown tired of flying, as it were, will jump from the bridge into the noble St. Joe, next Sunday. All who wish to see her in the last grand act will please assemble at the fish pond."—Niles Star.

Gib Duval had his pension raised recently and has just received $750 back pension. Del McKean had his arm badly slashed in the belt of a threshing machine a few days ago. Fred Waterman's hand which was so seriously injured in the pulp mill, is healing nicely. Mrs. A. M. DeWitts, whose serious illness we have a number of times noticed in these columns, died Sunday afternoon, Sept. 30, 1888, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Nathan Kelley.

A CARD.—The visit of our congregation, on the eve of our departure on a short vacation, last Monday evening, was eminently successful as a surprise. But it was more. The warm greetings, the cordial and kindly address of Bro. Hamilton, the many earnest wishes that he might have a pleasant journey, and the golden gifts that emphasized these expressions of regard will increase the pleasure of our visit a hundred fold. From the depths of our hearts we thank you, kind friends, and pray that God will repay you abundantly one and all.

ONE of the coaches on the Kalamazoo accommodation train Tuesday morning caught fire before reaching Niles, from an overheated stove from the coal fire, and had to be left at Niles. It needs a new roof.

THE cheeky habit that many people have of helping themselves to an apple, or a peach, or a bunch of grapes, when entering a store, is a constant drain on the storekeeper's purse and patience. A Mt. Clemens merchant kept track of it one day last week and found that he was out $1.67. No town is free from this kind of pilfering. Buchanan has her full quota of that kind of thieves.

THE Bertrand Republican Club had an interesting meeting at George W. Roush's, Tuesday evening. The club now numbers over ninety members, which includes some men who have heretofore voted the Democratic ticket. About forty new names were added to the list Tuesday evening. Next Monday evening the club will meet at Bakertown, and as the Republicans of Bertrand are more earnest this year than ever, a rousing good time may be expected.

OLD PEOPLE'S DAY.—At the Methodist Church next Sunday morning Oct. 14th, Rev. S. L. Hamilton will preach a sermon adapted to old people. The singing as well as the sermon will be in the interest of the veterans, and all the old people of the place, whether they are Methodist, members of other churches, or not members of any church, are invited to be present, and to sit in the front pews. Easy chairs will be provided for the infirm and for dear that they may sit very near the pulpit. The pastor not only invites but urges the old people to be present at this service.

IT is worth while for the voters of Berrien county to remember not only that the incumbents of the Sheriff's and Prosecuting Attorney's offices are candidates for re-election, and that their present opponents are the gentlemen who preceded them in office, respectively, but also that the records—accessible to all citizens—show that the convictions of criminals during the year 1887-8 aggregated 142 the previous year, while the general expenses of the county, largely made up of the costs in court cases controlled by these officers, was $11,544.72 the past year against $13,000 the year previous—more than one-third less, for nearly double the convictions. This record shows the faithfulness, ability and economy of B. R. Sterns and Geo. W. Bridgman and ought to induce the citizens of Berrien county to give them a rousing majority on the 6th of next month.—Benton Harbor Palladium.

ST. JOSEPH and Benton Harbor are anticipating a grand improvement for the coming season. The Detroit and Cleveland Navigation Co. has bought a tract of nine acres of land that lie, under water, on the Benton Harbor side of the St. Joseph, river near the highway draw bridge, and in the spring will build a dock there, and put on a side-wheel steamer between that point and Chicago, about May 1. The improvement proposed is to cost $10,000. The new wharf is to be about 750 feet long, and all of the accommodations for freight and passenger traffic most elaborate. This company has for a number of years been operating one of the finest lines of steamers between Detroit and Cleveland, and Detroit and Macine, employing four of the finest side-wheel steamers on the lakes. The decision of this company to locate a branch of its business at that point will be a great boon for Berrien county, and especially the north end of it. It is announced that a boat will be run to Milwaukee from the same dock.

DIED, at her residence in Buchanan, Oct. 5, 1888, Mrs. Maryette Bush, wife of Geo. Bush, and mother of Wm. and Sherman Chambers, of Buchanan. Deceased, whose maiden name was Maryette Van Gorden, was born Nov. 23, 1832; was one of the early settlers of Michigan. Funeral was held at her home, on the 7th inst., services by Rev. Mr. Hamilton, and there were present a delegation of the relief corps, of which deceased was a member, who gave her remains the solemn obsequies of that order. Also a large delegation of the G. A. R. men and Odd Fellows, who acted as pallbearers and escort to Buchanan cemetery, followed by a large concourse of relatives and neighbors, plainly showing the fact that none knew her but to love her, and her many acts of kindness will be remembered, although from earth she is gone. Mr. Bush wishes to return thanks to his friends and neighbors for their friendship shown; also to Dr. Berwick for his services, to Rev. Mr. Hamilton, the Messrs. Beistie, the Ladies Relief Corps, for the beautiful flowers and for assistance in the burial, not forgetting Mr. J. F. Hahn, the undertaker, for the able way in which he conducted the funeral.

BERRIEN SPRINGS EM.—Mrs. CELESTIA SSESSENHAUS sues Lake Township for $5,000 damages sustained by falling through a defective bridge. The boys are not the only fruit pilferers that bother the citizens at this season of the year. The other night a citizen slipped out of his house and found his grape arbor full of young ladies, who were out on a lark. He says "they sailed over the fence like balloons, when they saw me, and landed in a heap on the other side. I tell you it was fun to see 'em."

CLERICAL COURTIER.—Gib Duval had his pension raised recently and has just received $750 back pension. Del McKean had his arm badly slashed in the belt of a threshing machine a few days ago. Fred Waterman's hand which was so seriously injured in the pulp mill, is healing nicely. Mrs. A. M.
