SEND THE NEWS TO THE WIDOW GUELPH!

Protection is Good Enough for Uncle Sam!

HARRISON! ELECTED!

Congress Safely Republican in Both Branches!

The People Decide that Four Years of Democratic Misrule is Enough. It Will Not be Tried Again!

The election returns so far as heard from up to the time of going to press, show that the republicans have made a clean sweep of the entire north, east and west, with the possible exception of New Jersey and Connecticut. Certain it is Harrison and Morton have enough to insure their election. The next congress will probably stand 171 republicans and 154 democrats, giving the republicans both houses. In Michigan the republicans elect in all but the first, seventh, and perhaps the tenth districts, giving them 8 and perhaps 9 of the 11 members, to be before. The entire state ticket is elected. Gov. Luce's majority over Burt being not far from 20,000. Burrows' majority is 3672 with 4 Kalamazoo towns and 9 scattering precincts yet to hear from. We have received full returns from all of the townships of this county, and the entire republican ticket is elected by the following majorities:

KNOXVILLE, TENN., July 2, 1888. The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga. Gentlemen—I can cheerfully and truthfully say that S. S. S. is the greatest blood purifier on earth. In 1884 I contracted blood poison. Physicians treated me with no good results. I took a half dozen different kinds of blood medicines, but without receiving any permanent relief. I was induced to try S. S. S. I began the first bottle with the greatest doubts of success. I had been so often deceived. I had no improvement came, and I continued its use until perfectly well. I have since married, and have a healthy family. No other medicine is so good as S. S. S. for this purpose, and I am most grateful. Yours truly, J. S. STRADER. 115 Dale Ave.

ACCORDING to the Berrien Journal, Niles church social attenders talk by rote, skipping from one victim to another every five minutes, at the tap of a bell, in order to avoid wall flowers and cliques. A good comment on Niles church society, surely.

STED.—Capt. W. A. Keith, was in this place Monday to serve notice upon the president of the village of Buchanan, of suit by Amanda Kingston, for $10,000 for "trespass upon the case." No one at this writing appears to know who Amanda Kingston is, nor just how the village has trespassed upon her case. In her notice she claims to be an American citizen, resident of the state of Indiana. The case is in the hands of village attorney Worthington, to try to learn just "what's the matter with Amanda." It is probably another sidewalk case.

THE Niles Democrat allows that it is all right for women to march in political parades if they want to, but doubts the propriety of their standing up to the bar and drinking beer as some of them did after a recent Republican parade in Niles. —Berrien Springs Journal.

Yes, and the same Democrat so connected, that remark with the account of the parade by the Buchanan girls as to give its readers to understand that it was they who stood at the bar and drank beer, and making it a base slander on as respectable a lot of young ladies as ever visited Niles.

THE Republicans of this representative district, while they failed to elect their candidate to the legislature, they feel pretty good in the fact that the democrat majority in the district four years ago was 450, and Mr. Aleshire, in the hardest contest on the ticket, succeeded in getting 192. He had the support of the prohibitionists, fourteen of them using his slips in this place, and in Niles he had the support of the other extreme end of the whiskey question. Rather a curious combination. He is the only democrat in the county elected and the burden of the entire democracy is likely to make him round shouldered early in life. We trust he will bear up under it.

RUNAWAY.—Last Friday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Aleshire were returning from Sawyer, where Mr. Aleshire had been to speak, they had the misfortune to be upset, be thrown from the carriage and let the team, one of Frank Jaster's get away. They procured another means of conveyance from a farmer and after proceeding a short distance, found where one of the horses had run off from a bridge, over one of the branches of Galien river, and was in the stream with its neck broken. A short distance farther on the other horse was found. After returning the farmer's rig they returned home by rail, reaching Buchanan the next morning. The had a fortunate escape from being badly hurt themselves.

JOHN FEDORS was arrested in the saloon, Saturday evening, and as Deputy Sheriff Palmer and special policeman Walters were taken him to the cooler a number of his friends rushed in to release him from the officers, and a lively fight ensued, in which Fedors was pretty severely whacked over the head with the butt of a revolver. He went before Squire Dick and was released. There were about twenty others who made themselves subjects for one or more years in state prison, for interference with the work of the officers. It is the business of the fellow who is arrested to go along, and that of the officer to take him peacefully if possible, but to take him, and those who are about shall keep hands off unless they want to take the chances of getting hurt. The law protects the officer in the performance of his duty, and the community should do the same.

W. W. FULLER, who attended the reunion of the 12th regiment in this place, in writing an account of the meeting for the Laporte Republican, pays the following compliment to the citizens of Buchanan.

A better time could not be had, and it was due to the splendid manner in which the citizens of Buchanan entertained us. Tables spread with abundance of everything were ready at every meal time and attended by the good-looking ladies whose praise was on every veteran's tongue, and they deserved it all for the work done and the pleasant way in which it was done. It was plain to be seen they were heart and soul in the work because they loved it, and not because they had to, and we heard more than one God bless the noble ladies of Buchanan.

About 7 o'clock Monday morning, Mr. George Bollinger, a Cincinnati, Washish and Michigan brakeman, was leaning far out from the caboose of his train when near Eau Claire, looking for a target when his head struck the end of a box car standing on a siding, and was frightfully bruised and lacerated. The injured man, who it is feared cannot live, was taken to his home in Elkhart, 28 years old and has a family. —Palladium.

FIRE.—What was in many respects the worst fire Buchanan ever had, occurred Monday morning starting just before midnight Sunday night, in the Buchanan Manufacturing company's barn and destroying their large factory. The night watchman, Allen Johnson, had made the round a few moments before and had spread his dinner in the office ready for eating, when he saw the light from the flame. There was but a light wind blowing from the South west, but enough to carry the flames quite rapidly through the light and dry stuff in the long shed between the barn and factory, and although the steamer was as promptly on hand as can be expected for a night alarm, the flames had reached so near the building before it could be gotten started, that nothing could be done but save surrounding property, which was most effectually done. The fire company worked hard and faithfully, and saved many thousands of dollars worth of property by their efforts. The shop contained a large lot of furniture that was about ready for shipment when closed last week and was nearly an entire loss, but a small part of the finished goods being carried out. The amount of property destroyed will reach nearly $40,000. The company was carrying $24,000 in W. A. Palmer's agency. A portion of this was on the lumber in the yard which was not burned. This is the worst blow that has struck Buchanan in the life of the village, affecting more people than the fire twenty years ago, and the property loss is nearly equal if not more than then. The question of re-establishing the factory is of vital interest to Buchanan, as upon that depends whether fifty or more families will live here remain or not. The town can not afford to have it not start. It must start. No move will likely be made in that direction however, until the question of insurance is settled.

NOTES.

The explosion of the finishing room made a wild scattering of bricks and men.

Clark Phelps was struck by a brick. Not seriously hurt.

The horse boys need more hose. Will they get it? 1000 feet would not be too much.

A regular snow storm of coals fell all over the business part of town, setting fire as far north as Ashley Carlisle's.

Fire was started in the rotten rubbish over the wheel of the big grist mill. It was promptly extinguished by Willis Weaver and a larger blaze than was had, averted.

Fire was started in dozens of places about town, but the vigilance of citizens and the dampness kept them all down.

The steamer ran four and a half hours without a stop.

Lute Walters had about a full day as engineer, being on close duty from midnight until two o'clock Monday afternoon.
