ONCE more has cupid gotten in a shot upon one of the RECORD office employes, selecting Thomas F. Cox for his victim, he having joined fates and fortune with Miss Annie Reamer, Dec. 24, 1889. The ceremony was performed at the M. E. parsonage, Rev. S. L. Hamilton officiating. This Tom is the third of the RECORD forces to commit matrimony (since September). While the complaint appears to be contagious, there is no likelihood of it becoming epidemic.

THE Grand Jury is doing some good work that is making the greatest rattling among the bones (wet bones) that has ever been known in Berrien county. Of the Niles saloonkeepers, George K. Forler has three indictments to answer; his son George, and Lester, the beer peddler, each one. The latter is said to have been on the testimony of ex-sheriff Wallace Peck. A long list of witnesses from Three Oaks and New Buffalo have been subpoenaed and will be given a chance to tell what they know. The greatest sport of the session was when Fred Cook was on the witness rack. The Star has toned down very materially in its opinion of the Grand Jury movement. Fred had to be shown the open jail door before he talked freely, but there was no trouble after that. His longings were not in that direction. His nerves were quiet enough next day for the Star to tell just how long it takes the Star to run to Berrien County. Future developments will decide whether the Prosecuting Attorney has made a profitable move.

DEPUTY SHERIFF PALMER arrested Will Rouse and Frank Lingo, Monday evening, and took them to jail on charge of being drunk and disorderly. In default of $200 Rouse stayed in jail, and Lingo was released on his own recognizance. Rouse will most likely go to live with the State for abusive and indecent language to a lady. Lingo is in a trouble by being in bad company.
