

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1889.

L. A. DUNCAN, Chairman. T. L. WILKINSON, Secretary.

G. Cleveland, attorney at law, New York, will be the address after March 4.

Buffalo, N. Y., had a fire, Saturday, destroying three blocks in the principal part of the city and entailing a loss of about $2,000,000.

John M. Clayton was murdered in Little Rock, Arkansas, and an attempt was made upon the life of Frank W. Pope in Jacksonville, Florida, last week.

The Austrian crown prince Rudolf, and his wife, were shot and killed in Bosnia, on the 28th of July, 1888.

Democrats in this state are trying to get up a little fight among themselves. It now appears that the state central committee is in debt and unable to pay for services rendered and expenses incurred during the last campaign.

W. Irvine Hancock, present grand master of the Grand Lodge of Masons of this state, was born at Troy, N. Y., July 7, 1833. His education was secured at the common schools of that city, supplemented with courses at the college institute at Charlotteville and at Genesee college.

Mary C. Weedle, mother of Christian, John and Fred Weedle, died Tuesday, Jan. 29th, aged 82 years and 11 months. She was born in Germany and came to this country in 1855, and had resided here ever since.

The membership of the A. O. U. W. in Michigan is over 14,000. There are 25,000 pensioners residing in this State.

Sixty-six deaths is the report for January, in Grand Rapids. Van Buren county pays $3 per week for board for her prisoners and furnishes the house.

The State House of Correction has 487 inmates. 106 prisoners were received in January. The University Republican Club, at Ann Arbor, continues to be a wide-awake one.

It took $11,406.38 to pay off the 125 Grand Rapids school teachers Saturday. A Bottle Creek firm shipped a car load of buckboards to Australia a short time since.

James Welch, aged 40, formerly a member of the bar dropped dead of heart disease in the court-room at Jackson, Monday afternoon.

Salvation Army veterans at Ishpeming, are having trouble with police and Sunday rescued several of their number who had been arrested. The new upper peninsula state prison is built of Marquette and Portage stone, and contains 312 cells.

James Mahler, teamster in a lumber camp in Menominee county, was recently tried by five juries. Lumbermen heard his cries and rescued him, killing two of his wolves.

John Bergman of Campbell City went to Ely, became intoxicated and laid down on the railroad track. A car ran up against him and stopped, and he was lifted off the track only slightly injured.

Various Items. Democracy, after having howled against "Blaine in the Cabinet" until it is bald-headed, now turns to say "Blaine in the Cabinet is Democracy's blessing in disguise."

Texas has the largest school fund in sight of any state in the Union, but she should use it to better advantage. Said Governor Hill to a New York Tribune correspondent who asked him how he wrote a message: "Perhaps the chief difficulty in writing is not what to say, but what not to say."

James Sheldon, an employe at Saxton & Kilborn's mill, at Farwell, fell headlong from a tramway 14 feet high. He struck squarely on his head on a log, and neither fractured his skull or broke his neck.

Booker McGargle seems to be having a good time in Canada. It is reported that he leads a fashionable church choir, and is a favorite both in society and among leading Dominion officials.

It is reported that the salary of the Salmon King is $20 per month. He must have received several years' salary by carrying for his army at the rate of 11 cents a piece. War is in the nature of a luxury.

New York state's serious problem is in its prisons. Sing Sing holds 1,538 men confined, but 652 of these can be employed. The chief reason for the enforced idleness, that becomes maddening, is the law that protects free labor from the use of these convicts.

"I have frequently heard Gen. Alger," remarked the pale, scholarly professor, with a perplexed air, "and see no objection to him as a member of the cabinet, but what is this B. H. Wright so often spoken of in connection with him?"

If Cleveland does open a law office after his retirement from the presidential chair, as reported, he will not make a specialty of securing pensions for soldiers. If he does he will be a starving beggar.

Circuit Court. William H. Tayer vs. Samuel F. McClung, case; plaintiff not-sued for want of due diligence. People vs. Schandoff, burglary; sentenced to Jackson nine months.

People vs. Charles Williams, assault and battery; sentenced three months at Leona. People vs. Charles Mulcahey, assault with intent to commit rape; withdrawn his plea of not guilty and pleads guilty; sentenced to Jackson one year.

People vs. Charles Whetstone, violation of liquor law; respondent gives bail to appear at next term. Richmond vs. Richmond; continued. Frank E. Rough vs. Peter Waker et al.; evidence heard and case taken under advisement.

John Bergman of Campbell City went to Ely, became intoxicated and laid down on the railroad track. A car ran up against him and stopped, and he was lifted off the track only slightly injured.

A $2,900 pension check, belonging to Mary F. Voorus, of Bronson, sent from Detroit to her by mail was lost en route. There is so much red tape between the people and justice at Washington that it will take months to get it.

The Universal Verdict of the People. Who have used Papillon (Clarke's extract of flax) Skin Cure, award it the first and highest place as a remedial agent in all cases of Skin Diseases, Erysipelas, Eczema, Pimples, unsightly blotches, hummocking eruptions, Boils, Carbuncles, Piles, Tetter, Rash, Burns and scalds, yield to this wonderful preparation at once.

George Barnhart of Quincy, was convicted in Branch county 14 years ago of making a criminal assault upon a young girl. He was sentenced to Jackson for life. A year ago a Branch county man made a death bed confession exonerating Barnhart, but his release was not secured.

James Sheldon, an employe at Saxton & Kilborn's mill, at Farwell, fell headlong from a tramway 14 feet high. He struck squarely on his head on a log, and neither fractured his skull or broke his neck.

Onions that were shipped to Chicago from Pearl, Allegan county, the fore part of the winter, have been heard from, and the shippers, many of them, paid the freight, and that is about all of the returns they received.

The arrest of a bald-headed book agent in Battle Creek for kissing a Mrs. Smith after she said he couldn't, is another instance of the failure of prohibition. Hence she is now trying what virtue there is in taxation by the police court.

Tr's Tenth Annual Convention of the Berrien County Sunday School Association will be held in the United Brethren Church, in Berrien Springs, Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 10 and 11, 1889.

Not an Unlucky Number. The following curious story serves as an illustration: "A soldier in the time of William and Mary was tried by a court martial on a charge of having fallen asleep at midnight when on duty upon the tower at Windsor."

Consumption Surely Cured. To THE EDITOR—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured.

English Spavin Liniment removes all Hard, Soft or Calloused Lumps and Blisters from horses, Blood Spavin, Curbs, Splints, Sweeney, Ring-Bone, etc. It is not necessary to be troubled. It is demonstrated beyond question that Papillon (Clarke's extract of flax) Catarrh Cure immediately relieves and permanently cures Catarrh. Do not hesitate to receive a bottle at once.

Revolution does not insure progress. When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she became a Child, she clung to Castoria. When she became Miss, she cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Wedding Present. So long as this notice appears in this paper, the publisher of the RECORD will make a wedding present of one copy of the RECORD to any couple who marry and settle in Berrien county, the only requirement being that they apply for it within three months after their marriage. The same will be extended to those who are married within the county and go elsewhere to live, but such will be required to subscribe for one year, upon making application. That is, by paying the price of one year they will be given credit for two years and receive the RECORD that time.

Republican Caucus. A Caucus will be held in the Justice office of L. P. Alexander, in this place, on Saturday, February 9, at 8 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of selecting 21 delegates to represent Buchanan township in the Republican County Convention, at Berrien Springs, February 13, and for such other business as may come before the caucus.

The woodchuck sign does not count for anything excepting when followed by such weather as we have had since Sunday.

DR. AND MRS. J. W. BEISTLE left Monday for Florida, and will spend a few weeks with Mrs. Beistle's sister, Mrs. Redding, in Ocala.

The ladies republican club of St. Joseph and Benton Harbor are holding regular meetings and are great helps in keeping up an interest in political matters.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Benton Harbor Palladium wants the county divided so that they can have a county seat at that place. Your wants will never be supplied. Mr. correspondent.

MESSRS. BOARDMAN & WHEELER, a Three Oaks grocery firm, two young men full of vim, have rented the corner room in Opera house block, and will move their stock therein.

GEORGE PARKINSON bought of Wallace Riley, agent, a German sewing machine for use in repairing boots and shoes, that is said to be a great invention, and to do its work nicely.

LET every Republican in Buchanan township remember the caucus to be held at the office of L. P. Alexander, next Saturday afternoon, and attend if possible.

LIST of letters remaining uncalled for in the post-office at Buchanan, Mich., for the week ending Feb. 6, '89: Mrs. Sarah Cobb, Mrs. Ella J. Williams, J. G. MANSFIELD, P. M.

The first plant and seed catalogue to reach us is John A. Salver's, of La Crosse, Wis. It is filled with beautiful cuts and descriptions of flowers and vegetables. Send for a copy.

REV. W. I. COSSGILL preached an able sermon in the M. E. church Sunday evening. He will preach again at the same place this (Thursday) evening.

EACH Saturday finds our streets lined with teams. Not only the main but side streets and mill yards, wherever hitching accommodations are to be found.

If you want to buy a railroad, be at Berrien Springs on Feb. 26. Receiver D. H. Patterson, will sell what remains of the St. Joseph railway on that day. See advertisement.

The Niles gas well has reached a depth of 540 feet. The owners intend to go 700 feet and then if gas is not struck they will split on their hands and decide whether operations will stop or not.

It is said that a great change has come over Niles. The rumor well founded, is that you cannot get a drink of anything stronger than good jap tea or ginger pop, on Sunday for love or money. A Grand Jury was convened a short time since.

We are glad to know that Roe & Neib, the hard-working hardware men of Niles, have so much business that they have to seek larger quarters. Mr. R. will be remembered as Howard Roe, formerly of Buchanan.

EDWARD DEAN, of Niles, a blacksmith's helper, has got himself into trouble in South Bend. He confesses to stealing money from the house of his employer, and is bound over to the Circuit Court for trial.

The Farmers Institute at Berrien appointed a committee consisting of Messrs. Thos. Matts, Geo. F. Comings and LeRoy Bronson to draft a petition demanding of the Legislature a prohibitory law for this state.

A new depot has been placed at Bertrand. Moved down from Niles on a flat car. Niles people would now be pleased to have a new one moved into the place of the old wooden one occupied by the Michigan Central there.

The school board has just paid the bonds of the district, due this year with interest, $2400. One more payment of $2000 and interest one year $2800 in all, will clear up the indebtedness of the district.

J. F. HAIN has found the silver-plated hub cap lost off his hearse a few weeks since. An advertisement in the RECORD did the business. It pays to advertise in this paper.

REPRESENTATIVE ALESHIRE went to Ann Arbor last evening to meet his brother members of the legislative committee that will inspect the University to-day.

The Presbyterian chicken-pie social, at the residence of Mr. H. C. French south of town, Tuesday evening, was well attended, notwithstanding the storm. Between sixty and seventy were present, and all reported "a big time".

THERE will be an oyster supper at the residence of James Scott, three miles south of Buchanan, to-morrow evening, under the auspices of the Sons of Veterans. Take your girls and go.

GEO. R. MALONE of Lansing, Mich., will lecture in the Evangelical church on Thursday evening, Feb. 7th, '89. As the lecture is free and not political we feel that all will go away pleased. There will be good music. Everybody come.

NILES people were highly elated last week because something resembling oil and gas has been discovered at the gas well, and their anticipations were raised to the highest pitch. We can understand why they might feel glorious over such a discovery. The well is about 500 feet deep.

The village authorities are annoyed by the breaking of the glass globes on the streets by boys. Some of these fine days some one will be caught at that trick, and the practice will stop as suddenly as sling-shot practice on window glass did.

The Chicago Daily News has gotten out an Almanac for 1889 that contains collections of statistical information convenient to have about the house, and while the Daily News sells for one cent, the book costs 25 cents but worth the cost. The Almanac calls our Governor "Silas".

The greatest amount of gall we have yet discovered was when a subscriber wanted a letter to his daughter in Kansas printed in the RECORD that she might get it and save him the letter postage. This happened since the letter postage was reduced from three cents.

SOME of our exchanges are publishing an article to the effect that it is supposed Mr. Niles, who was burned in his house in Berrien Springs recently, had been murdered before the house was fired. His daughter has investigated the matter and pronounces there is no foundation for the article.

CHARLES ROUSE is in trouble at St. Joseph. He is charged with receiving stolen property from boys who have made it a practice to steal everything they could reach, and encouraging them in their pilfering. He is under $300 bonds to appear next term of court. He says he is not guilty.

The Legislature has adjourned for twelve days, in order to allow the several committees to visit the various state institutions to look after their wants. Representative Aleshire is on the State University Committee, and Dr. Baker, from the First district, on that to visit the Insane asylum, at Kalamazoo.

The Farmers' Institute held at Berrien Springs closed Saturday afternoon, after having a splendid and well-attended meeting. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Geo. F. Comings; Vice President, Joel H. Gilllett; Secretary, Frank L. Jones; Ex. Com., Almon Keigley, W. A. Smith; G. V. Wilson.

We have lately placed the Covert News on our exchange list, and we hope the publisher will not fail to mail our copy regularly. It would be greatly missed in this office. The paper is not unlike a majority of the small country papers in appearance, but the reading matter on the home side is immense, which shows that the editor has a great big head—as big as a barrel's.

MARRIED, at the residence of the bride's father, Erastus Kelsey, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 6, 1889, by Rev. H. V. Warren, Mr. Charles Thain and Miss Amy Kelsey. There was a blizzard in the air but it could not chill the pleasure of the large company drawn together by the happy event. The happy couple have already commenced "keeping house" on Fourth street. Invitations are out for a reception at the residence of Mrs. Bainton, the groom's mother, Feb. 13.

MISS GRACE PALMER has had her right side partially paralyzed, affecting her head, so that she has but little use of the arm. This is a sad affliction to one of the greatest favorites among the little girls of Buchanan. Her parents attribute it to over-work in school. The fact that several other children are noticed to be in failing health, supposed to be by the same cause, leads to the inquiry whether there is something wrong in the present method of teaching little girls.

The meeting of tax payers and Citizens' improvement Association in Y. M. C. A. hall, last evening to get an expression on the advisability of submitting to the voters of the village a proposition to bond the village for public improvements, was largely attended, and the question fully discussed. There seemed to be no opposition to the movement. A committee of five, consisting of A. C. Roe, W. F. Ruppner, L. E. Fox, E. H. Rogers and O. E. Aleshire, was appointed to draft an act to be submitted to the legislature, empowering the council to raise $10,000 or less in that manner, if the vote should prove in favor of it. The next meeting will be held on Monday evening, Feb. 26.

The Benton Harbor and St. Joseph electric light company has been organized with a capital stock of $25,000.

A transient auction store has stopped here for a few days, and is located in the "Phillips Opera House".

FROM GALLEN. Mrs. H. H. Smith and daughter Maggie arrived home on Tuesday from Dowagiac, where they have been spending a few weeks with Dr. Spaulding.

St. JOSEPH wants better mail facilities to and from the county seat, and the Board of Trade will ask the postoffice department to improve upon the present system, so that mail matter may be received and forwarded to that point more promptly.

Let the people of St. Joseph have patience. In about a month a new administration will have the handling of government affairs, and the incompetent will be given the run and the old trusty men returned. Then it will take three days for a letter to find its way from Three Oaks to Buchanan, and St. Joseph will not have so much cause for complaint.

The custom of publishing a "card of thanks" for kindness shown to the family upon the death of a member is no longer considered in good taste, for excellent reasons. Persons assisting in caring for the sick improve upon the present only doing what common humanity demands them, and their reward will come when they are obliged to accept like services.

That has been our idea of the "Thanks" business several days.

MARRIAGE LICENSES. Ira M. Kellogg, Berrien Springs. Olive D. Matthews, "

Frank E. Rogers, Benton Harbor. Zora B. Dixon, West Bay City. Eugene R. Leach, Montrose.

Mary A. Geyer, Buchanan. John Dicy, Galien. Nettie Wisman, Galien.

A CASE brought by Mrs. Blume, of Oronoko township, to have dissolved an attachment on her land filed by W. J. Quan, Chicago grocer, was commenced before Commissioner Watson Monday and was adjourned until next Monday. Mr. Quan obtained a judgment against J. C. Blume & Co., grocers, of Michigan City, and sought by this attachment to establish the responsibility of Mrs. Blume for the debts of the firm and so recover by attachment. Mrs. Blume contests and is represented by Mr. Fyfe, W. J. Gilbert, of Niles, appearing for Mr. Quan.

In the above case the attachment was dissolved, it being proven that she is a resident of this state, and her property not liable to attachment for the debts of Blume & Co. of Indiana.

THREE OAKS AGENTS. It is rumored that one of our townsmen proposes to open a saloon in the near future. We do not see how any person who makes any pretensions to respectability can seriously think of entering into such business, and we hope for his sake, and the good of society, that the rumor is without foundation.

Miss Gibberd, of Charlotte, returned to her home on Thursday last. She was accompanied by her friend Anna Hess who will remain at Charlotte several weeks visiting friends and former pupils.

Rev. E. B. Patterson made our village a brief visit on Friday. He was en route from Chicago to his home at Constantine, where he proposes to re-convert for a few days.

The ice business has been active here during the past week. Acting upon the principle that "delays are dangerous" most of our people secured a supply before the quality was as good as the present indications promise.

Mr. T. A. Parsons was shopping in Chicago on Saturday. "Coming events cast their shadows before them."

John Mansfield, P. M., was seen on our streets Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Will Copeland, of Providence, R. I., has been spending a few days with relatives and friends in our village.

J. B. Pomeroy has gone south on another exploring expedition. He thinks of moving his saw mill machinery to Florida.

Dr. McCoal a former resident of Three Oaks, was greeting old friends on our streets last Saturday. The Dr. is now located at New Carlisle, but has announced his intention to come here on Saturday of each week in the interests of his profession.

Mrs. Dr. Ulrey is here for a few weeks, while her mother makes an eastern visit. Meetings are still in progress at the Christian church and with many apparent results.
