TROUBLESHOME NEIGHBORS.

Oh, could there in this world be found

Some little spot of happy ground

Where village pleasures might go round

Without the village tattle?—

How doubly blessed that spot would be,

Where all might dwell in liberty,

Free from the bitter misery

Of gossip's endless prattling.

If such a spot were really known,

Fair Peace might claim it as her own,

And in it she might find her throne

Forever and forever;

There life a queen to reign and live,

While every one would soon forgive,

The little slights that spot receive,

And be offended never.

These mischief makers that remove

Far from our hearts the warmth of love,

And lead us all to disapprove

What gives us another pleasure.

They seem to take one's part, but when

They've heard our ears, kindly then

They soon retail them all again,

Mixed with their poisonous measure.

And then they've such a cunning way

Of telling ill meant tales, they say:

"Don't mention what I've said, I pray;

I would not tell another!"

Straight to your neighbor's house they go,

Narrating everything they know,

And break the peace of high and low,

Wife, husband, friend and brother.

Oh, that the mischief making crew

BUCHANAN RECORD.

JOHN G. HOLMES, Editor.

THURSDAY, MAY 2, 1889.

Hon. J. C. Burrows will speak in Nashville, Tenn., on Memorial day.

New Jersey is said to be without peer as a hunter's paradise. Hunters are already after the festive mosquito without shotguns.

Hon. Wm. H. Barnum, chairman of National Democratic Committee, died at Lima, Pa., on the night of April 30.

The nation's debt was decreased $13,000,000 during April, and the total decrease since June 30, 1888, amounts to $64,000,000.

For some reason the trusts of recent formation do not appear to be very trustworthy, at least they are of short duration and full of sorrow for the manipulators.

Already yellow fever has broken out in Florida. Unless the most rigid care be practiced, the epidemic of last year will be but a play skill in comparison with what may be expected to follow.

Governor Luce has $8,000 worth of stock in a Coldwater national bank—Kalamazoo Telegraph.

Yes, the Democrats told us all about that during the campaign of 1886. They were very quiet about it last fall, however.

A north bound train on the Toledo and Ann Arbor road had just passed a point three miles north of Howell at 9 o'clock on the night of April 30, when the track sank fully five feet below the former level for a distance of half a mile. It is attributed to quicksand.

One of the most terrible railroad accidents in months occurred near Hamilton, Ontario, on the Grand Trunk railroad, at 6:55 Sunday morning, caused by the train jumping the track at a frog. Twenty persons were killed outright, a number cremated, and a large number injured.

A bill has been passed by the house at Lansing, prohibiting the sale of tobacco in any form to minors under the age of seventeen years, without the written consent of parents or guardian. Also another prohibiting the manufacture and sale of cigarettes to any one. Both good acts if properly enforced.

There is said to be a rustling among the animals in Canada in consequence of a bill recently passed by the dominion parliament, to add to the enumeration of offences for which the criminal may be returned to this country. The sport of it is that the law is retroactive, applying equally to the crooks now in Canada and those who may go there in future.

The New Railroad.

The following is what the Era says this week, under the above heading, on the subject uppermost in the minds of this community:

Much of a conflicting nature has been given to the readers of Berrien county newspapers the past week as "reliable" information regarding the new railroad project, but the following will be found as near the facts as is possible to give at present:

The St. Joseph Valley R. R., mortgages, stock and judgment, held by the Farmers and Manufacturers bank, and the Roughs at Buchanan, were sold to J. J. Burns of Goshen, Ind., Saturday evening April 30. Next Tuesday, May 1, Mr. Burns will bid in the road at Receiver's sale, thus relieving everybody heretofore interested in the road of "all right, title and interest" in said road, making him the sole owner of the narrow gauge road and its franchises, with no string tied to any part thereof by Buchanan or Berrien Springs parties.

About May 9 Mr. Burns will commence the reconstruction of the ten miles between this place and Buchanan, putting it in operation as a standard gauge as quickly as his facilities will allow. Then, as soon as the people show a disposition, and act, in assisting him financially, he will put the two ends to the ten miles to South Bend and St. Joseph. The fact that no money will be asked from the people along the line until the road is in operation should leave no excuse for complaint or censure. That Mr. Burns will do just what he says, any one can be convinced by hunting up his record as a gentleman and a railroad builder. He built the road now operated from Battle Creek to Goshen, and is at present busily engaged procuring the right-of-way and terminal grounds at Goshen for the extension of the same road, the Canada and St. Louis R. R., southwest to Plymouth or some other point. He also originated the project and built the Denver, Memphis & Atlantic R. R., over 600 miles of road, through Kansas and Colorado in 500 days. He has a mammoth construction plant and idle men to put on the line as soon as the people do their part. The Era predicts that the present ten miles will be ready for Old Settlers' picnic, June 5, and also the whole line from South Bend to St. Joseph will be in operation by October 1st. There is no delay on the part of the people along the line. Can we afford to waste any time?

FROM BERRIEN CENTRE.

April 30, 1889. The principal parties of the Taylor saloon murder case are endeavoring to effect a compromise by the saloon men paying a small sum to the widow.

Mr. Kipp, brother of Mrs. Jas. Peck, late of Pennsylvania, has been busy getting his house ready to move into, the past few days. He comes as a mechanic, and will prove a useful member in our midst.

Mr. E. T. Dickson was chosen as a juror on the liquor case, tried last week.

Mr. W. S. Farmer, of Benton Harbor, was here yesterday looking after his farm interests.

Dr. O. A. Lacroix lost a valuable colt by accident, on Sunday night. The fire at Niles, on Saturday night, shown vividly and excited the concern and sympathy of every one here.

The fruit tree agents are still busy distributing their orders in this locality. In honor of the day and occasion, our people have sung the grand old stars and stripes to the breeze at full mast. Long may she wave in future returns of the anniversary we to-day so proudly celebrate.

Miss Nannie Dean was born in Niles township, Dec. 25, 1865, and died April 23, 1889, aged 23 years, 4 months and 8 days, at her home near Eau Claire, in Berrien township.

THREE OAKS ACROSS.

George Ray, an old and respected citizen of our township, died last Sunday morning. The funeral services were held at the M. E. church, Tuesday afternoon.

Godfrey Shelly, the victim of the recent railroad accident, was seen on our streets again this week.

Miss Sophia Klute started to Washington Territory, Monday morning, to join her prospective husband, John Setig, who preceded her by a few weeks to their home in the northwest.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. M. H. Nye Tuesday afternoon.

The people of this town were quite enthusiastic in celebrating the centennial anniversary of Washington's inauguration. A large crowd assembled at the Congregational church at 10 A. M., and although the exercises lasted two hours, no one seemed to be tired. Dr. Wilcox acted as president of the day, and short speeches were made by Wm. Chamberlain, E. K. Warren, Rev. Mr. Cross and Henry Chamberlain. Patriotic songs, selections from the inaugural address, a poem, and the responsive scripture reading used at the first inauguration were included in the program. In the evening the school gave a centennial entertainment consisting of songs, essays, class exercises, etc.

FROM GALLEN.

Miss Jennie Cone and Mrs. G. A. Blackless, Jr., are on an extended visit in Oxford, Ohio.

Mr. Clint White returned to Lamonia, Iowa, after spending the winter with friends and relatives in Galien.

It don't do men in Galien to practice pugilistic feats upon their wives, because they are called to account before a Justice for their pleasure.

Mr. Bennett, our day operator, favored his people with a visit over Sunday. Dr. Bonine, of Niles, was called to this place on business pertaining to his profession.

The many friends of Dr. Spaulding and wife were favored with a short visit from them on Friday last.

Every available room in Galien is rented, and many more could be supplied with occupants if buildings were erected. We can boast of having no idle houses, and believe no other village of its size can give as good a report.

Mr. Ed. Phillips, a former resident and business man of this place, paid his regards to this place last week.

Miss Elmira Burrus, of Pullman, Ill., returned home on Tuesday.

We are pleased to see our friend Mr. Come again upon the streets, after his serious illness.

Mr. T. N. Chilson is recovering somewhat from his recent sickness, and hope he may soon be able to resume his place among us again.

Miss Alda Emery visited relatives here on Sunday.

Mr. Morgan Mann and wife are to be found at home again from their trip in Indiana.

We are sorry to announce the severe illness of Mr. John Mell, Sr., also of Mr. George Fredenburg, but we hope for their recovery soon.

The friends of the late Lulu Jones extend their most heart-felt thanks to their friends of Buchanan, Galien and Hill's Corners, for their many kindnesses and tender sympathy to Lulu and themselves during her long illness. Like ministering angels have they been, and this double affliction through which they have just passed, has taught them as never before, how much the deepest sorrow can be lightened by the touch of human sympathy. And to the choir also, who so well rendered the songs she herself selected, as to enable them to look by faith beyond the vale. May Heaven bless them all, and give them like comfort when their hour of darkness shall come, is their prayer.

The people who never read the papers are just now contributing to the exchequer of a swindler, who offers a bottle of medicine, a box of salve and a perfume of disinfectant for a dollar. He specially commends the disinfectant, and says that when the cork is left out of the bottle, a pleasant and healthful odor is diffused. He leaves a sample bottle, from which he purposely removes the cork, and when he calls a few days later to take his property or its price, half the contents of the bottle have evaporated. Unless he gets a half a dollar as the value of the goods, he'll trouble me. He usually gets the money. Instead of the help he should be treated to a red-headed reception.—Detroit Journal.

The following is the latest, and as it looks innocent, we warn our readers that it is loaded: A pretty sly game is being worked by a female who of course is backed by a gang of scoundrels. She solicits ten cent subscriptions to a foreign missionary society and those who donate are requested to sign their names on a paper with the others who have kindly given something to the heathens. Beneath the paper the "sucker" signs is an ingenious copying paper which transcribes the name on a promissory note, and she leaves the place with as many notes as she has names. These she proceeds to sell to "innocent purchasers" and the victim finds how sadly he has been deluded when the notes come on for collection.—South Bend Times.

We have frequently alluded in these columns to the propriety and importance of good country highways. If roads are to be patched up as usual, now is the season of the year to "work" them. But it does seem to us that farmers stand in their own light who do not urge and vote a more thorough system of road building. There is nothing perhaps that adds so much to the prosperity of a country or a community as good transportation facilities. The highways should be constructed in the most solid manner feasible. Roads, as certainly as graveyards, are an index to the thrift and public spirit of a settlement. The roads of a place are a sure exponent of slipshod farmers.—Three Rivers Tribune.

A Word in Season.

The barking of a pack of hounds may be music, but the barking of the human family is certainly discord. Stop that cough with Humphreys' Specific No. seven.—N. Y. Sportsman. Humphreys' Specific No. seven possesses true merits. Nothing that we have ever tried in our family equals it for coughs, colds and sore throats.—Cresco, Ia., Plain Dealer. By our exchanges we observe that similar reports are appearing in every part of the country, and having found specifics Nos. one and seven of priceless value in our own family, we deem the above "a word in season" to our friends and readers.—Mobile, Ala. Blade.

We can fully endorse the above, as we have used the medicine and know of its efficacy.

Less Liquor, Less Crime.

The Iowa State Register says that there are fewer convicts in the Iowa prisons now than there were three years ago, notwithstanding the fact that the population of the state is much larger now than it was then. The Register says that "so large has been the decrease in number at Fort Madison, where the contract work is carried on, that more than two-thirds of the state has contributed to that prison, in order to get enough men to do the work. Warden Crockett says that there has been a decrease of 25 per cent in the number of prison inmates during the last three years. There has been no appreciable difference in the vigilance of officers, or the rate of convictions to indictments, and the manifest inference is that there are not so many crimes being committed in the state of Iowa as there were three years ago. Here is a decrease of 25 per cent to be explained. How can it be done?"

This is certainly a remarkable showing—a decrease of 25 per cent in crime within three years within a state whose population is steadily increasing. The Register doubtless gives the correct explanation when it says that "the only marked change in the social life of the state during the last few years has been the closing of the saloons." In four-fifths of the counties of the state there are no open saloons, and it was about three years ago when the strict enforcement of the law was commenced. The decrease in the number of prison convicts began about the same time.

Although Iowa has "state prohibition" the law in its operation is simply "local option." This is proved by the fact that in one-fifth of the counties of that state there are open saloons. Public sentiment in those counties will not enforce prohibition. In four-fifths of the counties there are no open saloons because public sentiment in those counties does enforce prohibition. This is "local option," pure and simple, and nothing else. Now if in those counties where prohibition does not prohibit, where the open saloon is running free, and in defiance of law, if in those counties they had a high tax and regulatory law, there would be still less of the drink evil to complain of in Iowa than there is now.

Go where you will you will find that state prohibition, so-called, is, in the practical operation of the law, simply local option; nothing more, nothing less. Local option by counties will secure prohibition in as much territory as will state prohibition, and the tax and regulatory law will restrict the liquor traffic in those counties that reject prohibition. And that is better than free whiskey.—Detroit Tribune.

State Items.

Forepaugh will do Michigan up in the show business this season.

The Battle Creek Moon has a $25,000 libel suit on hands. A sure indication of prosperity.

A new disease has made its appearance among the horses in the vicinity of Ann Arbor. An animal afflicted with it acts as if paralyzed.

Maggie Tice, of Bay City, fell upon a defective sidewalk and broke her leg. She has sued the city for $10,000. Repairs to the sidewalk would have cost less than $3.—Detroit Journal.

There are 2120 mortgages on Tuscola county real estate held in other counties in Michigan, reported by the register of deeds for taxation, besides those held within the county and by eastern capitalists, and the Caro Advertiser is now running nine foreclosure notices. There must be a hard run of luck in Tuscola.

The Grand Rapids Leader announced the other day that Gov. Luce was scattering pardons around about as thickly as Uncle J. Begole used to. Just here, however, the State Republican steps forward and begs to announce the following: Pardons issued by Gov. Begole in two years, 70; by Gov. Alger, 38; by Gov. Luce in two years, 14.

Taylorville is in a state of excitement, caused by two children and a number of cattle having been bitten by a mad dog. The country is filled with a lot of worthless curs good for nothing but to shoot at, and occasional occurrences of this kind is the reward for their presence.

"We have been so often bored by persons traveling over the country, professing to be endowed with abilities to cure every disease that it is his heir to that we require considerable satisfaction in regard to traveling physician's reputation before we are willing to commend them to the public. After a long business acquaintance with Dr. F. W. Brewer, and considerable knowledge in regard to his success, during the many years that he has been traveling through this part of the country, we are satisfied that he is an honorable exception to the common rule, and those who trust themselves in his hands may rely on a speedy cure, if their disease is curable. His large success in the past is ample evidence of his skill as a medical practitioner. He charges nothing for consultation, and deals frankly and fairly with all who call upon him for advice, and gives no encouragement unless confident of his ability to afford relief."

We believe we are doing a service to such as may be troubled with chronic complaints, to call attention to the fact that Dr. F. W. Brewer, now a regular visitor for years, will be again in the Bond House, in Niles, on Wednesday, the 15th of May.

FACTS AND PHYSIC.

Modesty is the politeness of conceit.

Sudden Death. The papers are full of sudden deaths. If you have choking sensations, fluttering pain or tenderness in chest, faint easily, take Miles' New Cure for the heart, and so escape death, as did Henry Brown, druggist, Cleveland, Ohio. Sold by W. H. Keeler.

Good management is better than good income.

Forced to Leave Home. Over 60 people were forced to leave their homes yesterday to call for a free trial package of Lane's Family Medicine. THE members of the old band got together Tuesday evening and serenaded nearly all the business places in town, furnishing our people some of their old time good music. We learn he leaves for San Jose, next Tuesday. John Hamilton was over from Niles with his tuba.

AFTER copying our remarks regarding the publication of their proceedings by the common council, the Niles Democrat adds: "Niles city pays forty cents per thousand ems which is small enough certainly, barely paying for composition. We believe the fact that the publication is made is a powerful incentive to economy."

DIED—Clarence, youngest son of Mrs. Julia Murphy, died at her home in this place, Sunday evening, after a sickness of a few weeks, of inflammation of the bowels, supposed to have been caused by his being struck a heavy blow by one of his playmates sometime before. THE NOSS FAMILY will give an entertainment in Rough's opera house, Wednesday evening, May 15, for Gen. Buell Camp S. O. V. Those who heard them then will not fail to attend one week from next Wednesday. Tickets are on sale at J. H. Roe's jewelry store, or may be had of members of the S. O. V. camp. It may be expected that the Buchanan committee will have some active service in that same direction in a short time.

THE Detroit Journal, which has just divided $4,007.09 between the Detroit charities, making $281.29 for each (the result of the 4 days charity Floral Exhibition which it organized and recently conducted) is not satisfied with its first success, and is already planning for another and much greater affair for 1890. Nothing succeeds like success, and no one is better qualified to make success succeed than W. H. Bierley, and the fact that he will be in charge of the exhibition in 1890 will be proof positive of its success.

FIRE—The residence of Mr. Daniel Russell in the "bend of the river" was burned Tuesday afternoon. The old couple, Mr. and Mrs. Russell, were alone in the house at the time and managed to get out, but Mrs. Russell attempted to enter the house again to save some of their goods, when her clothing took fire and she was so badly burned that we learn her life is despaired of. The old gentleman, who is 90 years of age, is now at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Weaver, in this place, while his wife was taken to the home of Mr. Batchelor, near by, and is being tenderly cared for. Nearly all their household goods were destroyed. No insurance.

At the regular meeting of the Council on Friday last, among other business transacted, was the approval of the $6,000 liquor bonds of A. J. Carothers, with Solomon Rough and S. A. Earl as sureties; the druggist bonds of W. H. Keeler and W. F. Runner and the official bonds of Marshal Shook. Bills to the amount of $327.73 were allowed. The proper committee was instructed to have a closet made in fireman's hall, where the uniforms of the engine company will be kept, and also to purchase hats for the engine company. The same committee was also instructed to procure estimates of the cost of a hook and ladder outfit, consisting of trucks, ladders, etc., and also to purchase a coal cart to accompany the steamer when on duty.

THE Washington anniversary meeting in the Evangelical church, Tuesday forenoon, was largely attended, and the exercises thoroughly enjoyed by all. A large choir, composed of most of the singers in the various church choirs of town, furnished excellent music, and Rev. S. L. Hamilton made a good presiding officer. The following is the program observed: Prayer, by Rev. H. F. Strauch, of Poughkeepsie; Reading 133d Psalm, by Rev. J. A. Frye.

Addresses by Prof. B. F. Buck, Mr. A. A. Worthington Mr. A. C. Roe and Elder O. E. Gates. Remarks by Messrs. O. E. Aleshire and Abijah Estes. Prayer by Rev. Martin. This program was interspersed with patriotic music by the choir. To conclude, the audience joined in singing America.

There was a hard frost last Thursday night, and considerable damage to the fruit crop is feared. In the Annac case, which was tried in the circuit court last week, the jury on Saturday rendered a verdict of no cause of action. This was the case in which Mrs. Annac sought to recover damages from the village for injuries received by falling on the sidewalk. A delegation of citizens from Berrien Springs was here Wednesday conferring with the people of St. Joseph regarding railroad matters, and more particularly in the interest of the extension of the narrow gauge road to St. Joseph. Nothing definite was decided upon, but assurances were given the visitors that the people at this end of the route would do the fair thing in aid of the new enterprise.

THERE appears to exist a fear lest some wrong impression may escape regarding the character of the sale of the narrow gauge railroad. So near as the RECORD can learn it is this: The owners of the mortgages and judgment against the road have signed an agreement to transfer these claims to J. J. Burns, a railroad contractor of Goshen, and placed the papers in the hands of Charles Johnson, cashier of the First National bank, for delivery to Mr. Burns. Mr. Burns, for his part, agrees to utilize the road-bed in building a standard gauge road from St. Joseph to South Bend; to have the ten miles between here and Berrien Springs running within ninety days, and extend the two ends of the road at once; issue to the claimholders a block of stocks in the new road. On one side there is a forfeit, that in case Mr. Burns fails to perform these things, the agreement is no longer in force. Nothing has been paid excepting in traveling expenses. Berrien Springs people have held some enthusiastic meetings in consequence and we hope to see their expectations realized, as we want a road to the lake through that town, and save to Buchanan the competition of two or three other small towns at the north of us, and to the county the removal of the county seat, which must inevitably come without the railroad.
