A church in Southern Illinois is about to have a fair, in which one of the features will be the pigs in clover with real pigs. A large fair of the toy will be built in the hall, and a prize will be given to the man who pens the porkers.

Mrs. Laura Darling Middlebrooks, of Adams, DeWitt county, N. Y., was born July 17, 1798. She has spent her whole life there, has ninety-six descendants, and is just as happy and as wise as if she had been moving ever since the date of her birth.

A Milwaukee genius has established a school for the training of professional beggars. He furnishes disguises, rules for begging and a regular route for each of his pupils, telling the stories to be told, and the names of those who are likely to meet. In exchange demands half the profits.

The consideration for which Bombay Hook, near Wilmington, Del., was transferred by its original owner, an Indian, to the British government, was two shotguns and four handfuls of powder. The land is worth now about $300,000. Quite appropriately, the sign manual of the Indian, chief was a goose.

Probably not one in a thousand realizes the fact that next to England, little Holland, whose king is at present at death's door, is the greatest colonial power in the world. Dutch colonies have an area of nearly 80,000 square miles, which includes some of the finest colonial possessions in the world.

Field Marshal von Moltke has celebrated his seventieth anniversary of entering the German army, and the members of the staff corps presented him with a magnificent album containing portraits of every officer who has served under him. He is as devoted to music as ever, and he can rarely touch the piano, though he was formerly a first-class performer, playing the best classical compositions from memory.

The acquittal of Elizabeth Bechler for the murder of young King in Omaha was necessitated by the court's instructions that if in "her morbid state of mind" she really believed King meant to kill her, she had a right to kill him. It seems that the Bechlers were a pistol and a morbid state of mind before using the pistol, the knife, or the bludgeon. It seems that this decision has reduced the number of martyrs for murderers to its extreme of simplicity.

A cup and saucer, the only remains of a china service which was once the property of Martha Washington, is still shown to visitors at the Smithsonian Institution. The set was originally made to order for the French officers who fought under our flag during the revolutionary war, and who subsequently presented it to the leading lady of the time. It numbered 180 pieces. The wars was the finest then made in France, and predominant colors were green and blue, the latter being the colors of the French flag.

By all means avoid meanness and stinginess. Give away as much as you please. The more the better, always provided that nobody but yourself suffers from your giving, and the person benefited is worth, and that it is done without ostentation.

DRS. BONINE, of Niles, were in this place and made a successful operation upon Mr. Abijah Estes for cataract in the eyes. Mr. Estes has been nearly blind for a number of years and within the past few weeks almost totally blind. To remove the obstruction to his sight will be a good work. The fact of his being over eighty-four years of age is somewhat against a perfect recovery.

MR. HARPER, of Kansas City, was here last week examining our dam site, and expressed himself quite favorably regarding the improvement. It would be highly satisfactory to all Buchanan to have the property improved. It is the best privilege on the river by a great odds.

THE village of Berrien Springs will vote on Thursday, the 23d inst., on the question of bonding the village in the sum of $10,000 for the purpose of making public improvements in that village. To get a railroad that will run through the county seat will be worth more than the sum asked, and we have no doubt that the people there know this fact well enough to vote unanimously for the loan.

ENTERTAINMENT.—Mr. Shannon, of Chicago, will give an entertainment in S. O. V. Hall to-morrow, Friday evening, consisting of Stereopticon and Microscopic projections. He has a splendid collection of microscopic objects that will be of great interest. Special terms to schools. His instruments are of the best, using the lime light of great power.

THE Chicago Inter Ocean of yesterday contains the following notice of one of Galien's citizens:

Louis C. Mudge distinguished himself about 5 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Mudge is a hotel-keeper at Galien, Mich., and came to Chicago yesterday. He sampled all the different brands of beer and then laid in a flask of whisky, which he put in his pocket in case of an emergency. For fear he might be accosted by confidence men Mr. Mudge had provided himself with two huge revolvers, which he cocked and placed in his pockets. After visiting the last saloon the rural visitor found Madison street a hard road to travel, and at the corner of Clark he reeled, slipped, and fell with a crash to the pavement. There were two pistol reports, the screams of passing women, and the odor of whisky which flowed from the broken flask in Mr. Mudge's pocket. Where the ladies went no one seemed to know, but no one was hurt, not even Mr. Mudge, who lay on the sidewalk until officer Birmingham picked him up and locked him up at the armory on the charge of carrying concealed weapons.
