

Business Directory.

SABBATH SERVICES. SERVICES are held every Sabbath at 10:30 o'clock a. m., at the Church of the Larger Hope, also Sabbath School services immediately after the morning meeting. Prayers and confessions meeting every evening. A contribution is extended to all.

BEST BUILDING BRICK, AND TILING.

Having recently erected an Improved Brick and Tiling Kiln I am now prepared to furnish the Best Brick the market affords.

FIRST-CLASS TILING.

Having recently erected an Improved Brick and Tiling Kiln I am now prepared to furnish the Best Brick the market affords.

Dr. J. T. SALTER.

Would inform the citizens of Buchanan and surrounding country that all who want his PAIN SUBDUER

LIVER PILLS.

Aske or endorsed by himself, can obtain them at any of the Buchanan Drug Stores.

NEW MARKET.

Will open a new Meat Market in Croxon's old stand, south side of Front street, on Saturday, April 2,

St. Joseph Valley Railway.

On and after Sunday, Dec. 14, 1890, trains will run as follows:

VANDALIA LINE.

In effect March 1, 1892. Trains leave Galien, Mich., as follows:

MORTGAGE SALE.

THE sum of nineteen hundred twenty dollars is claimed to be due at the date of this notice on mortgage made by George W. Ross to Joseph Covenny, dated February thirteenth, 1888, and recorded April third, 1888, in Liber 13, thirty dollars of the power of sale of Berrien county, Michigan, contained in the premises therein described, to-wit: The south-east quarter of the south-east quarter of section six (6), forty acres, and the west half of the south-east quarter of the north-east quarter of section six (6), forty acres, and the west half of section eight (8), twenty acres, in Township 35 N., Range 18 W., Meridian 10 W., in Berrien county, Michigan, will be sold public auction, on the premises, on the first day of May 1892, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, to the highest bidder, for cash, together with the costs of foreclosure.

ALL WHO OWE G. W. NOBLE.

SPRING OPENING SALE.

Are Invited to CLOAK and Suit Department.

Tea Gowns, Wrappers, House Robes, Blouses and Bell Shirts to Match.

Standard Print Wrappers, $.58 to .75. Challie Wrappers, .90 to 1.25.

Flanchette Wrappers, 1.38 to 1.98. Swiss Zephyr Tea Gowns, 1.48 to 2.50.

Percale Tea Gowns, 1.35 to 2.00. Scotch Gingham Tea Gowns, 1.38 to 2.45.

These garments are sold at about the price it would cost to make them.

Shirt waists at 38c, 45c, 58c, up to $6.00, in all the materials out this season.

Ready-made black and colored undershirts, 50 cents to $1.00 each.

It Will Pay You to Inspect These Goods.

Rose & Ellsworth.

South Bend, Ind.

HEART.

DISPENSE palpitation, pain in side, shoulder and arm, short breath, oppression, asthma, swollen ankles, weak and smothering spells, dropsy, wind in stomach, etc., are cured by Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure.

What nonsense! said my friend, Mrs. Hill, to-day, throwing the paper which she had been reading upon the table.

What is it that excites your displeasure? I asked.

Why, an article in that paper which asserts that every life, no matter how commonplace it may appear to others, contains all the elements of romance and tragedy.

It is absurd. For instance, the romance or tragedy is hidden in my life or your own, you who have lived in this house ever since you were born, and whose decorous, uneventful, courtship was open to the eyes of all who passed the door.

What, indeed, could there be? I answered lightly.

But I thought, what if she knew? What would she say if she had seen my tall, grave, handsome husband, as I first saw him, dusty, wounded, fainting with thirst and hunger, and with the look in his dark eyes of an animal driven and hunted to his death, and at bay?

It was a warm, cloudy evening—oh, so many a warm, cloudy evening—when Peter Green, the miller, who was too fond of gold to let his wheel stand idle, but he was the only one. Even my father yielded to the excitement, and he came away that evening, morning to join the searching party.

My mother and I were alone, so at dusk I took the pails and went to milk the cows. They always came up to the barn at the hour of milking, and I was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder. It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

A rustle, a step, and a young man stood before me in the soft ray twilight.

It was at that time when things seem so much more vivid and distinct than in the full light of day, and I saw at once that he lay under the shadow of my father's hand, and that he was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

A rustle, a step, and a young man stood before me in the soft ray twilight.

It was at that time when things seem so much more vivid and distinct than in the full light of day, and I saw at once that he lay under the shadow of my father's hand, and that he was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

A rustle, a step, and a young man stood before me in the soft ray twilight.

It was at that time when things seem so much more vivid and distinct than in the full light of day, and I saw at once that he lay under the shadow of my father's hand, and that he was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

A rustle, a step, and a young man stood before me in the soft ray twilight.

It was at that time when things seem so much more vivid and distinct than in the full light of day, and I saw at once that he lay under the shadow of my father's hand, and that he was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

A rustle, a step, and a young man stood before me in the soft ray twilight.

It was at that time when things seem so much more vivid and distinct than in the full light of day, and I saw at once that he lay under the shadow of my father's hand, and that he was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

NOTE OR CASH.

HE WANTS TO USE HIS MONEY.

NEIGHBOR JONES.

I'm thinking, wife, of neighbor Jones, the man with a stalwart arm.

He lives in peace and plenty on a forty-acre farm;

When men are all around us, with hearts and hands a-rove,

Who own two hundred acres, and still are wanting more.

He has a pretty little farm, a pretty little house, he has a loving wife within, as quiet as a mouse;

His children play around the door, their mother's heart to charm,

Looks just as neat and tidy as the tidy little farm.

No weeds are in the cornfield, no thistles in the oats;

The horses show good keeping by their fine and glossy coats;

The cows in the meadow, 'neath the beechen shade, learn all their gentle manners from a gentle milking maid.

Within the fields on Saturday he leaves no crannies open to the wind;

To be gathered on the morrow, for fear of coming rain;

He lives in joy and gladness, and happy are his days;

He loves his Sabbath holy; his children learn his ways.

He never had a lawsuit to take him to the town,

For the very simple reason there are no fences down;

The room in the village for him was not a chamber;

I can always find my neighbor on his forty-acre farm.

His acres are so few that he plows them very deep;

'Tis his own hand that turns the sod; 'tis his own hands that reap;

He has a place for everything, and everything in its place;

The sunshine smiles upon his fields, content with his fate.

May we not learn a lesson, wife, from the prudent neighbor Jones,

And not sigh for what we haven't got—give vent to sighs and groans?

The rich man's always happy, nor free from care, but best are those who live content, though small may be their farms.

—Attain's Constitution.

THE ROMANCE OF A LIFE.

BY NINETTE M. LOWATER.

It has often been said that "truth is stranger than fiction," and this little story may help to prove this assertion.

I have left it nearly as possible in the words which it was given to me, merely changing names, and in order to maintain the secrecy which I promised.

I will only add that I have reason to believe it to be entirely true.

"What nonsense!" said my friend, Mrs. Hill, to-day, throwing the paper which she had been reading upon the table.

"What is it that excites your displeasure?" I asked.

"Why, an article in that paper which asserts that every life, no matter how commonplace it may appear to others, contains all the elements of romance and tragedy.

It is absurd. For instance, the romance or tragedy is hidden in my life or your own, you who have lived in this house ever since you were born, and whose decorous, uneventful, courtship was open to the eyes of all who passed the door.

What, indeed, could there be? I answered lightly.

But I thought, what if she knew? What would she say if she had seen my tall, grave, handsome husband, as I first saw him, dusty, wounded, fainting with thirst and hunger, and with the look in his dark eyes of an animal driven and hunted to his death, and at bay?

It was a warm, cloudy evening—oh, so many a warm, cloudy evening—when Peter Green, the miller, who was too fond of gold to let his wheel stand idle, but he was the only one. Even my father yielded to the excitement, and he came away that evening, morning to join the searching party.

My mother and I were alone, so at dusk I took the pails and went to milk the cows. They always came up to the barn at the hour of milking, and I was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

HEART.

DISPENSE palpitation, pain in side, shoulder and arm, short breath, oppression, asthma, swollen ankles, weak and smothering spells, dropsy, wind in stomach, etc., are cured by Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure.

What nonsense! said my friend, Mrs. Hill, to-day, throwing the paper which she had been reading upon the table.

What is it that excites your displeasure? I asked.

Why, an article in that paper which asserts that every life, no matter how commonplace it may appear to others, contains all the elements of romance and tragedy.

It is absurd. For instance, the romance or tragedy is hidden in my life or your own, you who have lived in this house ever since you were born, and whose decorous, uneventful, courtship was open to the eyes of all who passed the door.

What, indeed, could there be? I answered lightly.

But I thought, what if she knew? What would she say if she had seen my tall, grave, handsome husband, as I first saw him, dusty, wounded, fainting with thirst and hunger, and with the look in his dark eyes of an animal driven and hunted to his death, and at bay?

It was a warm, cloudy evening—oh, so many a warm, cloudy evening—when Peter Green, the miller, who was too fond of gold to let his wheel stand idle, but he was the only one. Even my father yielded to the excitement, and he came away that evening, morning to join the searching party.

My mother and I were alone, so at dusk I took the pails and went to milk the cows. They always came up to the barn at the hour of milking, and I was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

A rustle, a step, and a young man stood before me in the soft ray twilight.

It was at that time when things seem so much more vivid and distinct than in the full light of day, and I saw at once that he lay under the shadow of my father's hand, and that he was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

A rustle, a step, and a young man stood before me in the soft ray twilight.

It was at that time when things seem so much more vivid and distinct than in the full light of day, and I saw at once that he lay under the shadow of my father's hand, and that he was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

A rustle, a step, and a young man stood before me in the soft ray twilight.

It was at that time when things seem so much more vivid and distinct than in the full light of day, and I saw at once that he lay under the shadow of my father's hand, and that he was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

A rustle, a step, and a young man stood before me in the soft ray twilight.

It was at that time when things seem so much more vivid and distinct than in the full light of day, and I saw at once that he lay under the shadow of my father's hand, and that he was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

A rustle, a step, and a young man stood before me in the soft ray twilight.

It was at that time when things seem so much more vivid and distinct than in the full light of day, and I saw at once that he lay under the shadow of my father's hand, and that he was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

A rustle, a step, and a young man stood before me in the soft ray twilight.

It was at that time when things seem so much more vivid and distinct than in the full light of day, and I saw at once that he lay under the shadow of my father's hand, and that he was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

A rustle, a step, and a young man stood before me in the soft ray twilight.

It was at that time when things seem so much more vivid and distinct than in the full light of day, and I saw at once that he lay under the shadow of my father's hand, and that he was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

A rustle, a step, and a young man stood before me in the soft ray twilight.

It was at that time when things seem so much more vivid and distinct than in the full light of day, and I saw at once that he lay under the shadow of my father's hand, and that he was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

HEART.

DISPENSE palpitation, pain in side, shoulder and arm, short breath, oppression, asthma, swollen ankles, weak and smothering spells, dropsy, wind in stomach, etc., are cured by Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure.

What nonsense! said my friend, Mrs. Hill, to-day, throwing the paper which she had been reading upon the table.

What is it that excites your displeasure? I asked.

Why, an article in that paper which asserts that every life, no matter how commonplace it may appear to others, contains all the elements of romance and tragedy.

It is absurd. For instance, the romance or tragedy is hidden in my life or your own, you who have lived in this house ever since you were born, and whose decorous, uneventful, courtship was open to the eyes of all who passed the door.

What, indeed, could there be? I answered lightly.

But I thought, what if she knew? What would she say if she had seen my tall, grave, handsome husband, as I first saw him, dusty, wounded, fainting with thirst and hunger, and with the look in his dark eyes of an animal driven and hunted to his death, and at bay?

It was a warm, cloudy evening—oh, so many a warm, cloudy evening—when Peter Green, the miller, who was too fond of gold to let his wheel stand idle, but he was the only one. Even my father yielded to the excitement, and he came away that evening, morning to join the searching party.

My mother and I were alone, so at dusk I took the pails and went to milk the cows. They always came up to the barn at the hour of milking, and I was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

A rustle, a step, and a young man stood before me in the soft ray twilight.

It was at that time when things seem so much more vivid and distinct than in the full light of day, and I saw at once that he lay under the shadow of my father's hand, and that he was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

A rustle, a step, and a young man stood before me in the soft ray twilight.

It was at that time when things seem so much more vivid and distinct than in the full light of day, and I saw at once that he lay under the shadow of my father's hand, and that he was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

A rustle, a step, and a young man stood before me in the soft ray twilight.

It was at that time when things seem so much more vivid and distinct than in the full light of day, and I saw at once that he lay under the shadow of my father's hand, and that he was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

A rustle, a step, and a young man stood before me in the soft ray twilight.

It was at that time when things seem so much more vivid and distinct than in the full light of day, and I saw at once that he lay under the shadow of my father's hand, and that he was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

A rustle, a step, and a young man stood before me in the soft ray twilight.

It was at that time when things seem so much more vivid and distinct than in the full light of day, and I saw at once that he lay under the shadow of my father's hand, and that he was as pale as it could be while life still remained in it, the sunken eyes were strained and glaring, the cracked lips tense and set, and from his side a sharp bark which told that it was occupied by some intruder.

It could not be alarming, I thought, for the cattle were peacefully chewing their food without a sign of fear, so I went to the door and called.

What is it, Leo? I went to the door.

A rustle, a step, and a young man stood before me in the soft ray twilight.

It was at that time when things seem so much more vivid and distinct than in the full light of day

W. TRENBETH, Merchant Tailor, CARRIES THE LARGEST STOCK OF

CLOTHS, SUITINGS, Pants Goods,

to be found in Berrien county, at the lowest living prices for good work.

An Inspection is Solicited.

Front Street, Foot of Day's Avenue, BUCHANAN, MICH.

Buchanan Markets. Hay—$10 @ $12 per ton. Lard—1 1/2 c. Salt, retail—$1.00. Flour—$5.20 @ $6.00 per bbl., retail.

Mr. V. M. GORE is attended the convention at Three Rivers, Tuesday.

GEO. WYMAN & Co. are now making special sale that will take the curl out of your hair.

Mr. STROBE has been visiting his many Buchanan friends the last few days.

HARRY BINNS tells you of the different kinds of ink he sells, in his space on the first page.

REV. F. KLUMP having returned from Conference, will occupy his pulpit as usual.

Gov. WINANS has issued his proclamation designating Thursday, April 28, as Arbor day.

RAY LORD, employed in the office of the Elkhardt Truth, was in Buchanan over Sunday.

JACOB LITOFF is home from Missouri for a short visit.

JOHN GROVES, of Kalamazoo, is visiting his mother and brother Charles today.

A GIRL baby came to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Camp, Monday.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN HAM, of New York, are visiting Mr. Ham's parents in this place.

CHARLEY WRAY has had a relapse in his sickness, and is in a critical condition once more.

ED. JENNINGS, who was arrested at Dowagiac on the charge of burglary in that city, has been bound over to the Cass circuit court.

MISSSES Jessie Valentine and Lottie DeMott spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Valentine, in South Bend.

THE Niles Sun says that Isaac M. La Fless, the veteran auctioneer, who was here a short time ago, died at Coldwater a few days since.

THE Ladies aid society of the Presbyterian church held a chicken-pie social at the home of James Mathews, Friday, which netted the society $17.25.

THE new Republican County Committee is officered as follows: A. N. Woodruff, of Watervliet, Chairman; John F. Gard, of St. Joseph, Secretary.

EASTEE CANTATA at the Christian church Sunday evening. Come and see if Hope's Messengers have not some comfort for you.

MRS. GRANTVILLE LACY, of Niles, died last week, in Los Angeles, California. The remains were brought to Niles for burial.

MARRIED, April 11, 1892, by Rev. W. W. Wells, at his residence in Buchanan, Mr. James D. Warman and Miss Etta J. Richardson, both of Gallien, Mich.

MISS ELSIE KINGERY commenced the spring term of school in the Broceus district, Monday, after a vacation of two weeks, spending clerking for her uncle, D. W. Brown, in Niles.

CHAS. FULLER struck the end of his thumb against the end of a rip saw in the Wagon Works, Tuesday morning, just hard enough to learn that it would out. It is a flesh wound.

INVITATIONS are out for the wedding of Mr. Jacob E. Vite and Miss Anna L. Brown, which will take place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, next Wednesday evening.

LAST summer Three Oaks brought a large supply of our gravel for streets. They like it so well that last week the township voted to raise $1000 for the purchase of more gravel.

REGULAR meeting of Buchanan camp of Modern Woodmen of America, to-morrow evening. New adoptions and other important business. All neighbors are requested to be present. H. GROVER, Clerk.

THE Ladies of the Maccabees will hold a Shadow social in Maccabee hall, on Friday evening, April 22, to which everybody is cordially invited. They promise a good time to all who will attend.

THE large number of friends of D. F. Bommerheim, of Three Oaks, will be pained to learn that his mind is so affected that his relatives have taken him to Philadelphia for treatment in an asylum.

E. S. SCHNADER, one of St. Joseph's popular citizens, commandant of the G. A. R. Post and W. M. of Occidental Lodge, F. & A. M., died suddenly of heart disease last Sunday, aged 47 years.

LIST of letters remaining uncalled for in the post-office at Buchanan, Mich., for the week ending April 11, 1892: Mrs. Mary Donley, Mr. James V. Himes.

Call for letters advertised. JOHN GRHAM, P. M.

REV. C. D. GREGORY, Baptist State Missionary, will preach at the Advent Christian church, next Sunday afternoon, at 3:30. Every member of that denomination is urgently requested to be present, and the public generally are invited to attend.

MORE railroad rumors are afloat. One, that someone of the great companies of the country is seeking a line in this direction. Another, that the St. Jo. Valley road had been sold. Diligent search has thus far failed to locate the foundation of either story.

ONE of the liveliest snow storms of the winter struck this place Saturday morning. The temperature ran down to 23° and the ground was whitened. It was about all gone by noon, and no damage is supposed to have been done.

MR. RAYMOND, of Raymond & Crozier, who bought out O. S. Tourje's meat business last week, has sold to Chas. Bishop, who will be one half of the firm henceforth. Mr. Bishop is said to be getting back to one of his old trades by the purchase.

THE Pomona Grange of Berrien county held its second quarterly meeting for this year in Bainbridge Grange Hall, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week with a very entertaining program.

Every Superintendent who has not made a statistical report from his school since last convention is requested to do so at once and send to the secretary, Miss Lena Eldred, Benton Harbor, Mich. Blanks will be furnished if needed.

County Sunday School Convention. The annual convention of the Berrien County Sunday School Association, appointed for February 28th and 27th and postponed on account of prevailing sickness in the county that time, will occur Tuesday and Wednesday, May 3d and 4th, at Three Oaks. Free entertainment will be furnished to all delegates in the county and it is hoped every Sunday School will be represented.

Marriage Licenses. Charles H. French, Bertrand. Lucy A. Feather, Oronoko.

Marion S. Brickel, Niles. Anna M. Geringer, Niles.

Thomas M. Taggart, South Bend. Libbie Merriman, South Bend.

David Sax, Benton. Ida Labonski, Benton.

Joseph H. Monger, Benton Harbor. Amy L. Gray, Benton Harbor.

THE RECORD hears of contemplated improvements to be made by the Michigan Central Company at this place during the coming summer.

REPORT has it that they will include removal of the sidetrack along the north of the passenger house, moving the roadway over to the north line of the Company's possessions, sodding the space lying west of the passenger house up to the line of Day's avenue, and converting it into a park.

DIED.—The wife of Dr. J. L. Hicks died at Benton Harbor, April 11. Deceased leaves a husband and six children, one of whom is Mrs. Ingles, of Gallien, formerly of this place. She was an intelligent christian woman, dearly loved by all who knew her. She had a few relatives and many friends here. The remains will be interred to-day at Maple Grove cemetery.

THE Niles Sun announces the death of Miss Minerva Earle in that city, aged 80 years, and says Miss Earle was, in her younger days, the belle of Buffalo, N. Y., where she was born, and was at one time engaged to Millard Fillmore, afterwards President of the United States, but that the engagement was broken off upon the removal of Miss Earle to Niles, in 1828.

THE Republican County Convention held in Berrien Springs last Thursday, with Herbert L. Potter, chairman, and F. R. Gilson, secretary, selected the following delegates to attend the State and Congressional district conventions:

STATE—First District.—J. R. Clarke, C. M. Edick, R. D. Dix, Samuel Handy, A. N. Woodruff, J. P. Gard, F. R. Gilson, P. L. Northrup, John Clark.

Second District.—L. P. Alexander, Wm. Sullivan, L. A. Duncan, Geo. W. Ingles, Samuel Hess, Thos. Mars, Ed. Blakeslee, Ed. P. Woodcock, John M. Glavin.

Congressional—First District.—C. M. Becraft, W. E. Hogue, Geo. B. Tattman, A. W. Wells, John T. Owens, L. McManis, J. P. Gard, W. A. H. Hiss, John Schwan, Second District.—W. J. Gilbert, W. A. Palmer, F. E. Sovereign, Geo. W. Bridgman, E. L. Hamilton, C. B. Groat, L. H. Dodd, John C. Morgan, Joel H. Gillette.

The delegates present at either convention were duly authorized to cast the full vote of the delegations.

On motion, the county committee were requested, in making further calls for county conventions this year, to appoint delegates to St. Joseph and Benton Harbor cities by wards, based on the vote cast in the spring elections.

A county central committee to serve two years was selected by voting precincts as follows: Bainbridge—P. L. Northrup, Spink's Corners.

Benton township—S. L. Van Camp, Benton Harbor.

Benton Harbor—R. D. Porter; 2, S. C. Zombro; 3, F. A. Hobbs; 4, A. Vincent.

Berrien—Thos. Mars, Berrien Centre, Bertrand—Geo. W. Rough, Niles; Buchanan—W. A. Palmer, Buchanan; Chickadee—John C. Morgan, Lake-side.

Gallien—Frank E. Simpson, Gallien. Hagar—E. L. Kingsland, Benton Harbor.

Lake—Geo. W. Bridgman, Bridge-man. Lincoln—Wm. M. Parrish, Stevensville.

Niles—John Hamilton, Niles. Niles City—1, Howard Rose; 2, W. I. Babcock; 3, Robt. M. Allen; 4, Wm. Stroup.

New Buffalo—A. W. Davison, New Buffalo. Oronoko—W. P. Harmon, Berrien Springs.

Pipstone—Anson Lewis, Naomil. Royaltown—R. D. Collier, Royaltown. St. Joseph—J. F. Gard.

St. Joseph City—1, L. J. Merchant, Henry B. Rosenberg; 2, M. Shepard, Wm. Freitag.

Sodus—Robt. M. Hogue, Sodus. Three Oaks—Henry L. Hess, Three Oaks.

Watervliet—A. N. Woodruff, Watervliet. Weesaw—H. B. Tirrell, New Troy.

The convention was an exceptional large and enthusiastic one for a delegate convention. Eloquent and interesting speeches were made by Mr. V. M. Gore, of this place, E. L. Hamilton, of Niles, and others.

ELMER CAUFFMAN, a straw hauler for the Ohio Paper Co., had unloaded his wagon of straw, yesterday afternoon, and was crossing the C. W. & M. tracks at the dam, on his way home, when the special train, containing the officials of the road, that was backing from the Y. Frictional, hit his team just as they were on the track and they became uncontrollable, and started down the track in the same direction the train was going, the coach striking the wagon and completely demolishing it. The team was plucked down the embankment.—Niles Star.

Real Estate. Farm to rent or for sale. J. M. PLATT'S, Buchanan.

FOR RENT.—A nice new eight-room house, fine grounds, good garden and orchard, in limits of Buchanan. Rent cheap. Inquire of Jno. C. Dick, Buchanan, Mich.

FOR SALE.—40 acres within two miles of Village of Buchanan, also house and lot, in town. Call at this office.

FARM FOR SALE.—140 acres, 1 1/2 miles from Buchanan. Price low—terms easy. For particulars address "Farmer," in care of RECORD office, Buchanan, Mich.

MRS. HOWARD SMITH will open a dressmaking establishment in Mrs. Morgan's house, on Lake street, next Tuesday, and she will be pleased to see her old customers and many new ones.

A new rug carpet, 25 yards, for sale. Inquire at residence of JOSEPH BLAKE.

When you want a good Buggy look for this name-plate at ELSON'S.

MICHIGAN BUGGY CO., KALAMAZOO, MICH.

WANTED. Men to work in our finishing room, Michigan City, Ind. No experience required. Apply to Superintendent.

J. S. FORD, JOHNSON & CO. Fancy Barley Seed Oats for sale. Also Millet and Grass Seeds.

THE C. BISHOP GRAIN CO. No, sir, I cannot sell gold dollars at 80c. This I can do—give you 16 oz to the pound, 30 in to the yard, full weight and measure. I can give you the best Buggy for the money gold in any market. A good square deal and warrant my goods. Come and see me and I will do you good. T. C. ELSON.

Just go to the Millinery Emporium for the latest styles. Mrs. B. B. B. leads.

I. N. BATHUR wants to buy two good lively Horses, geldings. He also has a good mare in foal for exchange for gelding.

New Goods, New Candles. A new line Fishing Tackle.

HARRY BINNS. BOX PAPER. In Boxed Writing Paper we have an assortment at twenty-five cents that will surprise you. See them.

HARRY BINNS, Opp. Hotel

DIED, Monday April 11, 1892, after an illness of only two days, Mrs. Esther McCoy, one of the oldest residents of this village and vicinity. She was the daughter of John and Fannie Weaver, and was born in Darke county, Ohio, Feb. 8, 1827, and moved with her parents to this village, near Berrien, in 1850, and to this locality in 1857. She was married to Russell McCoy, March 31, 1859, and has been a resident of this village ever since. Mr. McCoy died in December, 1878. She was the mother of eleven children, ten of whom, nine daughters and one son, survive her. For many years she was a faithful and exemplary member of the Advent Christian church. The funeral services were held this afternoon, at 2 o'clock, in the Advent Christian church, and the interment made in the family lot in Oak Ridge cemetery.

THE Republican County Convention held in Berrien Springs last Thursday, with Herbert L. Potter, chairman, and F. R. Gilson, secretary, selected the following delegates to attend the State and Congressional district conventions:

STATE—First District.—J. R. Clarke, C. M. Edick, R. D. Dix, Samuel Handy, A. N. Woodruff, J. P. Gard, F. R. Gilson, P. L. Northrup, John Clark.

Second District.—L. P. Alexander, Wm. Sullivan, L. A. Duncan, Geo. W. Ingles, Samuel Hess, Thos. Mars, Ed. Blakeslee, Ed. P. Woodcock, John M. Glavin.

Congressional—First District.—C. M. Becraft, W. E. Hogue, Geo. B. Tattman, A. W. Wells, John T. Owens, L. McManis, J. P. Gard, W. A. H. Hiss, John Schwan, Second District.—W. J. Gilbert, W. A. Palmer, F. E. Sovereign, Geo. W. Bridgman, E. L. Hamilton, C. B. Groat, L. H. Dodd, John C. Morgan, Joel H. Gillette.

The delegates present at either convention were duly authorized to cast the full vote of the delegations.

On motion, the county committee were requested, in making further calls for county conventions this year, to appoint delegates to St. Joseph and Benton Harbor cities by wards, based on the vote cast in the spring elections.

A county central committee to serve two years was selected by voting precincts as follows: Bainbridge—P. L. Northrup, Spink's Corners.

Benton township—S. L. Van Camp, Benton Harbor.

Benton Harbor—R. D. Porter; 2, S. C. Zombro; 3, F. A. Hobbs; 4, A. Vincent.

Berrien—Thos. Mars, Berrien Centre, Bertrand—Geo. W. Rough, Niles; Buchanan—W. A. Palmer, Buchanan; Chickadee—John C. Morgan, Lake-side.

Gallien—Frank E. Simpson, Gallien. Hagar—E. L. Kingsland, Benton Harbor.

Lake—Geo. W. Bridgman, Bridge-man. Lincoln—Wm. M. Parrish, Stevensville.

Niles—John Hamilton, Niles. Niles City—1, Howard Rose; 2, W. I. Babcock; 3, Robt. M. Allen; 4, Wm. Stroup.

New Buffalo—A. W. Davison, New Buffalo. Oronoko—W. P. Harmon, Berrien Springs.

Pipstone—Anson Lewis, Naomil. Royaltown—R. D. Collier, Royaltown. St. Joseph—J. F. Gard.

St. Joseph City—1, L. J. Merchant, Henry B. Rosenberg; 2, M. Shepard, Wm. Freitag.

Sodus—Robt. M. Hogue, Sodus. Three Oaks—Henry L. Hess, Three Oaks.

Watervliet—A. N. Woodruff, Watervliet. Weesaw—H. B. Tirrell, New Troy.

The convention was an exceptional large and enthusiastic one for a delegate convention. Eloquent and interesting speeches were made by Mr. V. M. Gore, of this place, E. L. Hamilton, of Niles, and others.

Everybody is invited to our Opening, Thursday afternoon and evening.

My Goods are from N. Y., and the prices way down.

Ladies, come and see my stock of Underwear. All kinds cheaper than ever.

Call on BARMORE, the druggist, and buy Savings Stamps of the First State Savings Bank of Niles. This will enable you to save your small sums of money, or large ones.

CARPETS! CARPETS!! Lots of them, at H. B. DUNCAN'S.

BARMORE, he will explain it to you. Call on him.

I have the finest Hosiery in town for the money. Come and see them.

For all kinds of Monuments, in Marble or Granite, apply to J. P. BEISTLE, Buchanan.

You can save a dollar and forty cents in full every two weeks, by using Quick Meal Stoves. Sold only by TREAT & GODFREY.

See the new adjustable Stand, at GEO. RICHARDS'.

New styles in Upholstered Furniture, at GEO. RICHARDS'.

A nice lot of Baby Carriages, at GEO. RICHARDS'.

Sixty cents worth of gasoline will do as much cooking on a Quick Meal Stove, as two dollars worth of wood with the common cook stove.

Fresh Fine Candy, at HARRY BINNS'.

Where was you when wood went up? Buy a Gasoline Stove down at TREAT & GODFREY'S.

Look at BOARDMAN & WEHRL'S stock of Chamber Sets before you buy. A large and nice line of Millinery will now be found at MRS. J. P. BINNS'.

A nice assortment of Lace Curtains, at S. P. HIGHS'.

LOOK HERE! A good Flannelette Shirt for 25c, at J. IMHOFF'S. Call and see them before they are all gone.

Men's and Boy's Bicycle Shoes cheap, at J. IMHOFF'S.

Torchon Laces. A new and nice line of them very cheap, at S. P. HIGHS'.

Timothy Seed, at SPARKS & HATHAWAY'S.

If you want nice Dried Fruit cheap, call at MORGAN & CO'S.

Sweet Pickles, Mixed Pickles, Pickled Onions, Pine Apple Preserves, Bottled Catsup, and a full line of Canned Goods, at SPARKS & HATHAWAY'S.

A new lot of splendid 50 cent Tea, at MORGAN & CO'S.

New Dress Goods. Call and see them. S. P. HIGHS'.

ANOTHER NEW DEPARTURE.

In connection with ten thousand other articles which I carry in stock, have just added a fine line of

HATS AND CAPS

OF THE LATEST STYLES.

YOU CAN SURELY BE SUITED BY CALLING AT

MORRIS' THE FAIR,

Dealer in Almost Everything BUCHANAN, MICH.

This will be my last season in Millinery trade in Buchanan, and ladies can buy Millinery cheap now. Call while the stock is new and complete. I am going to Benton Harbor, and do not want to move a large stock.

LOUISE DEBUNKER.

HULL'S SUPERLATINE is a positive cure for liver and kidneys, nervous prostration. Bad results from grippe. Warranted to give satisfaction. Sold by W. F. RUNNER.

ENOS HOLMES has a good Work Horse for sale.

Mrs. J. P. BINNS and trimmer, Miss Katie Thomas, will now be found at store opposite hotel, ready to wait on all our old customers and as many new ones as would be pleased to give us a call.

House to rent, on Postage street, close to town. J. G. HOLMES.

Grand Opening at the Millinery Emporium, April 14, afternoon and evening.

FOR SALE.—A number of those and Souhegan Raspberry Slips for planting. The earliest variety in the market. Address, STEPHEN HARNER, Berrien Springs.

Everybody is invited to our Opening, Thursday afternoon and evening.

MRS. BERRIOL.

Ladies, come and see my stock of Underwear. All kinds cheaper than ever.

Call on BARMORE, the druggist, and buy Savings Stamps of the First State Savings Bank of Niles. This will enable you to save your small sums of money, or large ones.

CARPETS! CARPETS!! Lots of them, at H. B. DUNCAN'S.

BARMORE, he will explain it to you. Call on him.

I have the finest Hosiery in town for the money. Come and see them.

For all kinds of Monuments, in Marble or Granite, apply to J. P. BEISTLE, Buchanan.

You can save a dollar and forty cents in full every two weeks, by using Quick Meal Stoves. Sold only by TREAT & GODFREY.

See the new adjustable Stand, at GEO. RICHARDS'.

New styles in Upholstered Furniture, at GEO. RICHARDS'.

A nice lot of Baby Carriages, at GEO. RICHARDS'.

Sixty cents worth of gasoline will do as much cooking on a Quick Meal Stove, as two dollars worth of wood with the common cook stove.

Fresh Fine Candy, at HARRY BINNS'.

Where was you when wood went up? Buy a Gasoline Stove down at TREAT & GODFREY'S.

Look at BOARDMAN & WEHRL'S stock of Chamber Sets before you buy. A large and nice line of Millinery will now be found at MRS. J. P. BINNS'.

A nice assortment of Lace Curtains, at S. P. HIGHS'.

LOOK HERE! A good Flannelette Shirt for 25c, at J. IMHOFF'S. Call and see them before they are all gone.

Men's and Boy's Bicycle Shoes cheap, at J. IMHOFF'S.

Torchon Laces. A new and nice line of them very cheap, at S. P. HIGHS'.

Timothy Seed, at SPARKS & HATHAWAY'S.

If you want nice Dried Fruit cheap, call at MORGAN & CO'S.

Sweet Pickles, Mixed Pickles, Pickled Onions, Pine Apple Preserves, Bottled Catsup, and a full line of Canned Goods, at SPARKS & HATHAWAY'S.

A new lot of splendid 50 cent Tea, at MORGAN & CO'S.

New Dress Goods. Call and see them. S. P. HIGHS'.

WANTED.—Family Washings to do. MARY WACHS, Oak Street.

BOARDMAN & WEHRL'S keeps brands of Flour including "Pillsbury's Best."

The Milwaukee Harvesting and Mowing machines may be had the coming season of JOHN DEERE, who has the agency for Dayton and vicinity. He also has the agency for the Russell Threshing machinery, made at Massillon, Ohio.

We have some of the finest yellow Corn ever saw. Inquire at our office. THE C. BISHOP GRAIN CO.

ADAM KERN has moved into the Marble building in Dayton, and will continue his business in Boots and Shoes and Furnishing Goods as heretofore. He will be found on the west side of the street hereafter. He is putting in a fresh stock of new Goods, and invites people to call and see them. A full line of Jackson Corset Waists for ladies, at S. P. HIGHS'.

Barley Coffee at SPARKS & HATHAWAY'S. 10c a pound or 3 pounds for 25c.

Citizen's National Bank,

NILES, MICH.

DIRECTORS:

A. G. Gage, J. L. Reddick, I. P. Hutton,

H. M. Dean, J. H. Richardson,

L. H. Beeson, E. F. Woodcock.

4 PER CENT INTEREST PAID ON DEPOSITS.

BUY BUGGIES

AND ROAD WAGONS

OF ROE & KINGERY.

New stock ready for your inspection. Prices right.

WALL PAPER!

SPRING, 1892

Is soon coming, and most everyone is going to do house cleaning and wall papering, and

