THE PRESIDENTIAL SHOES.

There's a cobbler old and wary,

With a gravity contrary.

Sits patching up the Presidential shoes;

And he's a cobbler of some name.

"Popular Franchise" is his name,

A patching on the Presidential shoes.

He's made the shoes fit many a foot that others

He's getting rather old and gray, but he cobbles

As of yore.

And he "sizes up" with flashing eye each passer-

By his side.

Each candidate for Presidential shoes.

He frequently must alter

Size and shape, nor ever fatter.

For the fashion of the Presidential shoes

Seems to change with each successor—

Some are big, some are lesser.

Of the ones who wear the Presidential shoes.

The first were made for Washington, they've

Changed a little since then.

For different times make different styles, as

Well as different men;

And the shoes must fit the wearer (they seem to Have fitted Ben).

These much sought after Presidential shoes.

There were several who followed

After the first.

Quite lately for the Presidential shoes;

But the first, to my poor thinking,

To fit the Presidential shoes.

Then Grant came next, and Garfield, then "a

Burst of acclamation

(So 'twas said) called "our Grover" to the first Place in the Nation;"

And ever since he's wondered how he fell from

His high station.

Of wearing the Presidential shoes.

Four years ago it elapsed

That a new aspirant danced

Right into the Presidential shoes;

The people were well pleased.

So the other pair was booted.

And last his pair of Presidential shoes.

He's worn them very carefully; they need a

Pipe and bowl.

But still they fit him nicely, and I think upon

The whole.

That the cobbler better take a rest, enjoy his

Pipe and bowl.

And let Ben keep a-watching these old shoes.

THE DIFFERENCE.

BY MISS S. S. ALDRICH.

"Oh, the little more, and how much it is!"

And the little less and what words are!"

"What is it you tell me? That you

Have promised to marry Ray Allan?"

And yet only last night I saw you walking and talking with Ned Bruce in a

Way that would lead people to suppose

You were devoted lovers. Oh, Beth

Adams! That I should ever have to Acknowledge to myself that I believe

You are a flirt!"

Beth laughed a little constrained,

Nervous laugh, and going over to the

Fireplace, cupped up her feet and

Heard-rug at her aunt's feet and leander her head against her knee.

"Now, Aunt Myra, that is too bad,

For you are not only acknowledging

It to yourself, but you are also

Accusing me. A new discovery by the en-

tirement Indiana Specialist. Fine-illustrated

Up there, "close to the sky," as Daisy

Said, Sybil sketching "sweet glimpses"

That caught her fancy, scraggy white

Birch, maybe, with a tuft of violets at

Its base, or a tiny brookling leaping

Gaily down the hillside with a glint of Blue sky through the leaning alders.

And Daisy explored the ledges for

Ferns or bits of dainty moss and wild

Flowers.

Misses Georgia and Alda Emery have returned home for their summer vacation from Muskegon. They will return, in September, for another year.

NEXT Sunday, 10:30 a. m., Rev. Wm. Cook will preach in the M. E. church, Buchanan. Subject, "A painless world"; at 7:30 p. m., a funeral sermon, "A mother's death."

Gov. WINANS has appointed Levi Sparks as county agent of corrections and charities, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of W. J. Jones.

Prof. J. J. BRONSON has accepted the position of Superintendent of the Whitehall schools for the coming year. He will move his family to that place about the 20th of August.

MR. AND Mrs. WILL ANSTISS, of LaPorte, and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Hasse, of South Bend, were the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Anstiss of this place, the Fourth.

MR. AND Mrs. W. B. CROXON were particularly pleased this Fourth because their three daughters were all with them. One of them resides in Manitoba and the other two in this state.

THERE will be a meeting of the Republican Club, at Roe's hall, on Friday evening, July 8, 1892. Every Republican in the township is requested to be present. By order of the SECRETARY.

BERRIEN SPRINGS is commencing to relieve itself of the relics of backwoodsism, by the removal of front fences. There are a few left here which are neither ornamental nor useful.

A NUMBER went to Niles to celebrate. Those who enjoy a good horse race better than anything else speak of the celebration in the highest praise. Those who do not naturally were not pleased with it.

NILES is figuring on getting another north and south railroad, which is heading for Benton Harbor. While Buchanan would like a cross-road, we shall be pleased to see Niles capture all such as she can. The more railroads centering in Berrien county the better for all parts of the county.

THE RECORD has been informed that the township board had examined the bridge on Portage street, and decided that it was all right, with a little fixing on the approaches. This probably settles it. There is a beauty spot there, to say the least of it.

A merry-go-round anchored in this place Monday morning, for a term as long as business holds up. In Chicago that kind of institution are not allowed to run, being declared a nuisance. If allowed to run here at all, it should be under a license of about $10 a minute.

A BUCHANAN Democrat was overheard, Monday morning, to remark that it was carrying the thing too far for the Republicans to have their American flag floating over Front street on the Fourth of July. Characteristic.

RAY DONALDSON, a seventeen year's St. Joseph lad, shot himself through the right breast, last Wednesday, the ball lodging under the shoulder blade. A Detroit paper reports says he did not find a return of affection had been sought and was trying to heal one wound with another. He claims the shot was accidental, that he was taking the cartridge out of the revolver.

NILES RECORDER attempts to make a dive at the RECORD for publishing the sermons of Rev. Thomas Dixon, "a red hot, fire eating, North Carolina Democrat." We never took pains to inquire into his politics. His sermons make good reading and his exposure of the rottenness of New York City Democracy and Tammany is refreshing for a Democrat.

INSTALLATION.—The following were installed officers of Buchanan Lodge No. 75, I. O. O. F., on Tuesday evening: Chas. W. Groves, N. G. Samuel S. Bunker, V. G. Rudolph F. Kompass, R. Sec. Allen Emerson, Treas. Peter Wesse, R. S. N. G. N. E. Jones, L. S. N. G. A. C. Matthews, W. John Hanover, Con. H. B. Duncan, R. S. V. G. B. S. Crawford, L. S. V. G. Lages Antislade, R. S. S. Ed. Cooper, L. S. S. S. W. Van Meter, I. G. John Hanover, Janitor.

THE changes of the salaries of postmasters in Berrien county are as follows: Benton Harbor, $1,900 to $2,000; Niles, $1,800 to $1,900; St. Joseph, $1,700 to $1,800.—Niles Star.

BUCHANAN experienced rather a peculiar Fourth of July celebration. Different from anything heretofore attempted or thought of; that of using the Nation's birthday as an attraction to draw a crowd for a political harangue. Never before when celebrations have been had has the question or thought of politics been mentioned, but in this case, under the guise of a patriotic celebration, the people were treated to a political stump speech by a Prohibitionist orator. A few races were added as a drawing card and the whole was eminently successful. There was a general kick among those who were asked to contribute to the expenses.

NILES is to have a public meeting, tomorrow, at which the question of a other north and south railroad is to be discussed by Mr. William Dallin. Mr. Wm. Dallin is vice-president of the Atlantic and Pacific Construction Company which will build a double track road from New York City to San Francisco. The main line of the road will pass about twenty-five miles south of this place. There will be a spur built to Benton Harbor, and the meeting in Niles tomorrow will be to discuss ways and means of securing that spur to run from Nappanee, Ind., through Mishawaka and Niles to Benton Harbor.

THERE was a big crowd in Buchanan in the afternoon and evening of the Fourth, yet there was not a single case of drunkenness, fighting or disorder.—Independent.

The Independent evidently was not there.
