A prominent organ of the prohibition cause in this county has a canvasser out who is a shining example of the needs of the policy he is trying to advance. He encountered our old friend in Chickaming, S. F. Finell, last week and concluded before he got through that he had struck a whirlwind, seasoned with "chilly" sauce. He didn't stay long.

THE Supervisors at their meeting last week very sagely resolved that it was the sense of that body that a $90,000 court house was good enough for this county. No plans, or specifications, or estimates were submitted, and the probability is that those who voted for that "sense" has almost as lurid an idea of the question as have an unborn child. This county's seat is deprived a number of great freaks.

FROM this time on, for five years at least, the pumping at the waterworks will be done by electricity, the current being generated by the waters of the St. Joseph river and delivered over two miles of wire. This, we believe, is the only place in the state where a similar power is used for the public pumping works. The generator and motor are both manufactured by the Commercial Electric Co. of Indianapolis. No steam will be carried on the boilers, unless in case the power pumps shall need repairing. What may be a curiosity to many is the fact that the whooping whistle at the waterworks will be sounded as a fire alarm, notwithstanding the absence of steam from the boilers.

Marcellus wants $8,000 worth of waterworks.

THE Humeston, Iowa, New Era, contains the following obituary of Miss Grace Covey, whose remains were recently brought here for interment:

GRACE COVEY died at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Chas. Crumpacker, on Friday, January 19, 1894, aged 14 years and 9 months. She came home with Mrs. Crumpacker and entered college at the beginning of the school year. Although she had not been with us long, she had by her presence and purity, endeared herself to all who knew her. Her death is deeply mourned by her friends and schoolmates, and has caused universal sorrow. She was one of the brightest in her classes and had a sunny smile and kind word for all with whom she came in contact.

Her death is indeed a heavy burden of sorrow for her parents, and she leaves aching hearts that even time cannot heal. Although she has been quite sick her death was unexpected. Friday morning she seemed to be out of all danger. But at noon she went to sleep and did not wake up again. It was found that the best medical aid and the help of kind friends could do averted nothing, and she passed peacefully away at 3:15 p. m. A short funeral service was held at the home of Prof. Chas. Crumpacker, on January 20. Rev. Wiggins officiating. Her remains were then taken to her late home, near Buchanan, Michigan, accompanied by Mrs. Crosby.

THE union revival services, after continuing for four weeks, closed on Friday evening with a song and re-unions service. Some thirty-five took the stand for a better life, and both churches had a wonderful spiritual uplift. The meetings were of a very worked character in that no excitement prevailed, no "patent" methods employed, no great pulpability imported from abroad, nothing but the simple story of Salvation. Simply, but earnestly told.

Her death is indeed a heavy burden of sorrow for her parents, and she leaves aching hearts that even time cannot heal. Although she has been quite sick her death was unexpected. Friday morning she seemed to be out of all danger. But at noon she went to sleep and did not wake up again. It was found that the best medical aid and the help of kind friends could do averted nothing, and she passed peacefully away at 3:15 p. m. A short funeral service was held at the home of Prof. Chas. Crumpacker, on January 20. Rev. Wiggins officiating. Her remains were then taken to her late home, near Buchanan, Michigan, accompanied by Mrs. Crosby.

Special Sale of CARPETS.

Commencing February 1, and continuing all through the month of February, Geo. Wyman & Co. will offer Carpets at a less price than we ever sold Carpets for.

We offer Carpets at a ridiculously low price, because people will go farther to buy Carpets cheap than for anything else. The same people want to pay more for Curtains cheap than for anything else. The same people want to pay more for Curtains than their neighbors, see? Besides we want to start our Carpet trade early to avoid the rush at housecleaning time. We have seen the time we could not make and lay the Carpets that we sell each day during the busy season. This year we offer them for less money than usual so we can draw trade from a greater distance and sell, as near as possible, as many goods as we did last year.

- We shall offer Lowell and Park Mills' extra super, all-wool Ingrain Carpets for an even half dollar. In other words 50 cents per yard. That is the price we used to sell home made rag Carpets for. Delhi Aggra extra super, all-wool Ingrain Carpets for 65 cents. Good cotton chain Ingrain. 25 cents. Union Extras, 35 cents. Tapestry Brussels, 50 cents to 65 cents. Five frame body Brussels, 75 cents to 90 cents. Lowell five frame body Brussels, three thread, $1.00. Nimes' Moquets, 85 cents. Alexander Smith & Son's Moquets, $1.00. All Oriental Rugs, 50 cents on the dollar. In addition we will make up these Carpets free of charge during February.

These prices, we anticipate, will turn the wheels of commerce at a rapid rate.
