Church Notices.

AN unusually large and appreciative congregation listened to very interesting exercises, at the Methodist church, Sunday morning. The sermon on the Resurrection of Christ, was very appropriate and well received; the singing full of inspiration and spiritual enjoyment, and the instrumental music excellent. In the Sunday school the interest continued and increased; 291 were present, including some visitors. All seemed to be delighted, especially with the singing and instrumental music.

NEXT Sunday morning the pastor of the Methodist church will speak on "Abundant Life in Christ, our risen Lord". Union services in the evening.

Two mass meetings in the interest of Sabbath observance will be held in the Evangelical and Presbyterian churches, next Sunday evening. The pastors of the town will address both audiences, in turn, each one having a different phase of the subject.

COMMUNION service at the Presbyterian church, next Sunday morning; baptism and admission of new members. Preparatory lecture on Saturday, 2:30 p. m.

THE Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church have a maple wax social, at the church parlors, this evening, from 6 o'clock on.

THE Pottawatomie Indians of this state, the most of whom reside in this and adjoining counties, have had a favorable report from the Court of Claims at Washington and been allowed $104,826, and an estimate has been submitted to Congress by the secretary of the Treasury for an appropriation of the same.

THE Modern Woodmen of America is the only fraternal life insurance organization that is limited to the healthiest localities of the healthiest states, thus making the death rate much lighter and the cost to the members less than any other order. Every man should be insured in the M. W. A. and leave his family well provided for when he dies. Remember you can carry $3,000 in the M. W. A. as cheaply as $2,000 in any other order in Buchanan.

THE W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Wm. Mead, corner of Clark and Roe streets, next Tuesday, April 3, at 2:30 p. m. All ladies cordially invited.

MR. FRED WEISBERGER has secured employment in the freight department of the M. C. R. R. at Jackson and has moved his family there.

ST. JOSEPH people have been writing to Chicago and Detroit papers long walls because of the stories of their fruit being killed, and claiming that the stories are told simply to affect the county seat question and denying them. We have the word of Mr. Henry Feather, as large a fruit grower as the county contains, that not a bud is left living unless it may be applied to the story may affect the county seat question, but the fact remains just the same, that the fruit is dead.

MISS BESSIE GEORGE, the famous elocutionist of Michigan, appeared before a Buchanan audience for the second time last evening. Although the day was one of the stormiest of the winter, the large Evangelical church was well filled with an appreciative audience.

BURNED OUT.—About 2 o'clock, Monday morning, Mr. Wesley Dempsey's daughter discovered the whole upper part of their house to be on fire. She alarmed the other members of the family barely in time for them to escape with their lives. The house and most of the contents are lost.

THE Detroit News, Monday, stated that Frank Whitman, from this place, had been probably fatally injured by a collision with another young man, while both were attempting to catch a ball, on the University campus, at Ann Arbor, Saturday afternoon. A letter from him states that while he was hurt by the collision, he was not seriously injured.

THE St. Jo. Press, under its new management, is a dandy. It published last week an interview with Wm. R. Rough of this place, in which he is represented as being in favor of removal of the county seat. It is all right excepting that Mr. Rough has not been interviewed on the subject, 'has not been in St. Joseph in twenty-five years, and is most positively not in favor of removal.

I would announce to the tax payers of Buchanan township, that if I am elected Commissioner of Highways I will be doing work in all the people, and do work in all parts of the township wherever most needed, without favoring one locality above another. Look out for all kinds of false reports before election.

JOSEPH E. COVENEY.

MR. A. M. LAPIERRE, one of the oldest and best known citizens of Niles died Tuesday morning. He was born in Montreal, Canada, July 15, 1814, and had been a resident of this section since 1838, in that year coming to South Bend, and removed to Niles in 1838, which place has since been his home with the exception of between 1840 and 1850, when he lived in South Bend. He was a staunch Republican and a faithful member of the M. E. church.
