Because It is so Pure!

That's the great reason why you should know about our salt. It requires the best to produce the best. The good farmer realizes this with his salt; still the better maker does not. Our salt is an especially made for your better-made express for dairy work and bright dairy men everywhere find their better made and their labor better paid when they use

Diamond Crystal Dairy Salt. No matter what brand you have used, just give this a fair trial. It is first in flavor, first in grain, and first in purity. Whether for dairy or table use, you will find it to your advantage to be acquainted with the salt that has all the virtues of the best.

SHIPS THAT PASS IN THE NIGHT.

By BEATRICE HARRADEN. SYNOPSIS. Bernadine Holme is the piece of a London girl who is intelligent, but for the time being is in a political situation. Finally she takes her own course. There she meets the Disagreeable Man, whose name is Uncle Zerkiah. He is a miserably poor pessimism more gloomy than that of Scrooge, and he is a man who is not well for any of us to stand alone. There was a time when the loneliness is more than we can bear.

CHAPTER XXIV.

THE DISAGREEABLE MAN GIVES UP HIS LITTLE INNER ROOM. The morning after Bernadine began her book she and old Zerkiah were sitting together in the shop. He had come from the little inner room where he had been reading Gibbon for the last two hours. He still held the volume in his hand, but he did not continue reading; he watched her arranging the pages of a dilapidated book.

CHAPTER XXV.

THE DUSTING OF THE BOOKS. It was now more than three weeks since Bernadine had returned to her home at the second-hand bookshop. She spent her time in dusting the books and arranging them on the shelves. She had not been to the shop for some time, and she was now in a hurry to get them ready for the summer season.

CHAPTER XXVI.

THE DISAGREEABLE MAN STOOD AT THE COUNTER. He was almost like a child in his new found interest. On what Monday he both went to the shop and brought in a copy of The Daily News. "I don't remember what you like, but this will do," he said.

H. BINNS.

His Bellows Forewarned. James Beckwith, the famous "scout" who became war chief under the name of Medicine Cat among the Crows, has related to a friend an extraordinary feat of levitation which a great war chief of the Crow Indians performed in his presence on the eve of leading his warriors to battle. The chief was an aggressive man and professed to have a premonition of death. For many moons he had led the Crows successfully against their hereditary foes, the Blackfeet. It was not his heart that failed him now, but his medicine had lost its potency. In the dusk of the gray morning he led his braves out on the open prairie, and setting his shield on edge some 10 or 20 feet in front of them pointed to it with his lance.

As the eyes of the fighting men rested upon the embossed surface of the buckler it appeared to rise slowly from the ground until it reached a height corresponding to the head of the chief. It then, by the same invisible means, passed through the air until it obscured his face and hid it from his warriors. A thrill of horror pervaded the assemblage, but no word was spoken. It was taken as an omen of his approaching death, his banishment from the world, his journey to the land of the Great Spirit, to which all Indians, good and bad alike, went with unhesitating faith. The great chief was killed that morning.—North American Review.

John M. Houghton of Frankfort, Herkimer county, who was 11 years of age when the Erie canal was opened, is a hale man yet. He went on the canal as driver when he was 15 years of age. He has been a boatman, a boat captain, the owner of the boat William Tell, which was the first boat to pass over the canal from Buffalo to Albany and down the river to New York. Her cargo consisted entirely of hogsheads, barrels and bottles of Lake Erie water, part of which was damaged by the owners of the boat of New York on the occasion of the opening of the wonderful waterway. Her passengers included Governor De Witt Clinton, the leader in the canal enterprise, and a delegation of statesmen and distinguished persons from foreign lands and various parts of the United States.—Utica Observer.

BUCHANAN RECORD.

D. H. BOWER,
PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

THURSDAY, JULY 5, 1894.

Senator Lexow is making things interesting for Tammany, in his New York City police investigation.

Congress should give the matter of immigration prompt attention. If we examine closely we find nearly all the prime movers in the labor and other disturbances are foreigners who are in it for what they can make, and are not in any sense true American citizens.

Mark Twain has never written anything more striking than the article, "In Defense of Harriet Sheller," the first installment of which appears in the July number of the North American Review. As its title implies the paper is in the nature of vindication of the memory of the poet's wife from biographical misrepresentation, and even those who are not especially interested in the subject cannot fail to be attracted by the famous humorist.

It is now stated that "Jim" Turner has made a combine with Ex-Governor Luce against the re-nomination of John T. Rich for Governor. As Gov. Rich stood by Turner through thick and thin, and Ex-Gov. Luce was satisfied that two or more terms as governor was all right when he filled the gubernatorial chair himself, the sincerity of the motive for the combine may well be questioned. Gov. Rich has given us a good, clean administration and there is no sense in trying to turn him down, for the people will be heard in November, if the "sore heads" of the "one term" club try to foist any such scheme on the rank and file of the Republican party. Gentlemen, it won't work.

The strikes which have been the outcome of the Pullman troubles bid fair to become a serious matter. Owing to the disregard by the strikers of injunctions issued by the federal courts, the troops from the regular army have been ordered out. It is to be regretted that the strikers do not cease to attempt, by riot and destruction of other people's property, to force a settlement of the difficulties that exist. When they don't want to work for the wages offered them they have the privilege of every American citizen to quit, but they have no right, either as individuals or as a body, to interfere with property belonging to another, or to attempt by force or intimidation to prevent other men going to work for the same rate of wages if they so desire. The laws of our United States must be respected and upheld, come what may.

It is proposed to give a concert, upon its dedication in October.

If You Want to Help the Town—

Don't fail to sound its praises wherever you are.

Don't make your money out of its citizens and spend it somewhere else.

Don't frown on every public improvement simply because it will cost you a dollar or two.

Don't sneer at the efforts of your fellow citizens to build up the town, but lend a hand yourself.

Don't talk a great deal about what should be done and remain on the back seat, waiting for some one else to do it.

Don't say a word of trade is "no good on earth" until you can prove it by statistics.

Don't say the public schools are a failure because your boy has been upstaging the school discipline and has been punished for it.

Don't stay at home on election day, but get out and "hustle" for good men and government.

Don't let a good local paper that is the town's shining champion abandon the champion business for lack of deserved patronage.

Don't forget to drop your dollars in the slot when the committee that is after a new enterprise comes around with the subscription list.

Don't forget that in building up the town hearty co-operation, united endeavor and a spirit of get there first is the only way. There is no pull like a long pull, a strong pull and all together.

The hall was beautifully decorated with flowers and emblems of the two orders, and in the front of the hall was a miniature tent of red, white and black stripes. After the second dish of ice cream and a speech by Post-Commander, the Knights bid the Ladies good-night.

Some have finished making clover hay, while others have scarcely begun.

John Orris and Otis Sterns began harvesting Saturday.

Frank Hunter had the misfortune to get his feet poisoned, while helping to survey, and is laid up from the effects.

Mrs. Ralph Hunter, of Chicago, is visiting relatives here.

The Baptist people have changed the hour of their Sunday School to 4 p. m., giving those who so desire a chance to attend Sunday school twice the same day.

A number of young people went to Lake Michigan, Sunday, for a picnic. All reported an excellent time and a determination to go again.

BERRIEN CENTRE.

From our Regular Correspondent.

"The Glorious Fourth."

John Myers, of Chicago, spent Sunday with friends in this village.

Isaac M. Ober has returned from North Manchester, Ind., and will stop with former friends here for a season at least.

Mrs. Emma Peck of Buchanan, and daughter Blanche, called at the Robinson house yesterday, on her way to Benton Harbor to spend the Fourth.

Mrs. J. P. Shaffer is quite ill with a severe attack of follicular tonsillitis.

Mr. Benj. Nye, of Quincy, Mich., late of Bear Lake, Mich., is in this locality visiting relatives.

Miss Bertia Becker was elected delegate to the National C. E. convention held in Cleveland, O., this month.

Mr. E. F. Myers' new house is said to be one of the best made and most convenient residences in the township.

Among the Items of Interest Gathered in the Late Census by the Enumerators.

The following may be noted for Berrien township: Oldest resident, Mrs. Mary Lacy, aged 91 years; second oldest, Mrs. Deliverance Fialler, aged 87; number of Union soldiers, 41; number of Confederate soldiers, 1; soldier of Sioux war, Uncle Dan Johnson, aged 87, who draws a pension on account of that service; colored people, 26; whole number of inhabitants, 1530. No. of sets of triplets, 1; infant daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman. These pretty children have the freedom of the neighborhood, and though but 15 months old much of their time is passed from home with the neighbors, by whom they are warmly welcomed.

The difficulty mentioned in a former communication regarding a fence was about a small sum of money it turns out, and is likely to result in a lawsuit for damages.

Hay harvest about completed and wheat cutting in rapid progress with a twine binder on nearly every farm of any size.

The wonderful rain of Saturday night has brought the growing crops along with a great bound.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Rutter on Sunday morning, a daughter. Mother and daughter doing well at this writing.

BENTON HARBOR.

From our Regular Correspondent.

July 3, 1894.

Peach trees were somewhat injured by the heavy wind Saturday night.

Ed. DeLish, a single man of twenty-five years, was drowned last week while fishing. He was subject to epileptic fits, and the excitement of catching a large fish probably brought on an attack, for he suddenly threw up his hands and reeled forward into the water. Only a small boy was with him at the time.

The Pierson meetings, last week, were productive of so much good that they will continue this week and close next Sabbath evening. Mr. Pierson is a very earnest, forcible and rapid speaker; his reasoning logical, and illustrations striking. The interest is general and deep, and many have signed the cards expressing a desire to live a Christian life.

The Sunday excursion train on the Big 4 was four and a half hours late, having met with an accident four miles south of Niles, caused by a wash-out. The cars left the track and bumped along on the ties until stopped, but were not overturned, so the hundred passengers suffered only from fright and a general shaking up. Better not patronize Sunday excursions anyway.

The Fourth will be celebrated with a big C. There will be sack, foot, tub and bicycle races, tight rope performance, hose coupling contest, Midway Pleasance, steamboat rides, etc., etc. At 5 p. m. a balloon ascension and parachute drop by Prof. Hogan. East—9:45 a. m., 1:02 p. m.

Imports Under Free Trade.

Free traders frankly admit that under the operation of the Wilson bill, if it becomes a law, importations will be vastly increased. Now, is it not plain that for every additional dollar's worth of goods imported, the like of which we can produce here, a dollar's worth less of goods will be manufactured by our own people, and in the exact ratio of increase there will be a decrease of manufacturing with less profits for manufacturers and less work and less wages for the laboring man? Is it not a present, a pressing, an imperative duty, to foster labor and keep working-men from idleness? The threat of free trade has brought wider spread suffering than our country has ever before known; it has enabled "Coxeyism" to grow and spread, and stimulated the feeling of unrest and dissatisfaction which now causes all thoughtful men to look with genuine anxiety to the future.

The Democratic members of the Senate may as well wake up to the fact that they will not be able to do very much of anything until they have "seen" Senator David B. Hill of New York. When they run up against him they tackle the shrewdest politician in the democratic party.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in the back and sides, that his bladder was affected. By Order of the Committee,
W. IRVING BABCOCK, Chairman.
Joux F. Gann Secretary.

Last Saturday's storm caused a washout on the Big Four, six miles below Niles. Three coaches of the Sunday morning train were derailed, causing some delay but no loss of life or serious injury to the passengers.

The fourth was celebrated in a very quiet manner in Buchanan. Some of the stores were closed and others kept open all day. The post-office closed between the hours of 10:30 and 4:30 and at 7 o'clock instead of 8 o'clock at night.

REGULAR meeting Modern Woodmen of America, Friday evening at 8:00 sharp. New neighbors to be adopted. Every member is requested to be present.
H. GROVEN, Clerk.

The wheat in this neighborhood is being harvested. Every thing points to an unusually good crop, and if our Democratic friends would see that the promised $1.25 a bushel is forthcoming the farmers would be correspondingly happy.

The Union Gospel Temperance Meeting next Sunday will be held at the corner of Main and Front Streets, at 3:30 in the afternoon. An address by one of our pastors, and good music has been arranged for. Come everybody and have a good time.

REGULAR meeting of Sylvia Chapter No. 74, O. E. S., will be held in Masonic hall, Wednesday evening, July 14, 1894. There will be initiation. A full attendance is desired.
Mrs. M. M. KNIGHT, W. M.
Mrs. F. A. STRYKER, Sec.

About the only railroad not affected in any way by the strikes, is our own St. Joseph Valley Railroad. Thus far, the running of Pullmans over this line has not been interfered with and the freight traffic has not fallen off any great amount as yet.

Willard Marble, who lives some eight miles south of town, has been a great sufferer from necrosis, having had a piece taken from his arm some years ago, and last year he lost a leg from the same cause. Now, he had to have another piece taken from his arm, and a tube inserted.

The family of Mr. Clout, residing opposite the M. E. church, were poisoned in some unknown manner yesterday. Mr. Clout, his niece Miss Oman, and a nine year old nephew were very ill for several hours, Miss Oman's life being despaired of at one time. Dr. Henderson is attending them.

Sad misfortune has befallen "Old Jack". Ed. Bird's dray horse, Bert Harding drove him to the ball game, Saturday afternoon, and hitched him to a barbed wire fence, and now "Old Jack" is laid up with badly mangled fore feet. As "Old Jack" was an old and highly respected denizen of Front street, he has the sympathy of a large circle of friends.
