BUCHANAN RECORD.

D. H. BOWER,
PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1894.

The Christmas edition of the Allegan Journal consists of twelve pages of good seasonal reading with an art supplement, "Two Niles-ists."

The January number of The Ladies' Home Journal came to hand in the new wrapper, which is supposed to open upon "pulling the string." The idea is a good one and we guess it works all right, but we opened our copy the good old-fashioned way—with an envelope opener—before we saw the new idea.

Cannet Coins.
People who live in the United States should avoid using Canadian silver. The laws of this country provide no penalty for counterfeiting them, and the manufacturers of queer feel comparatively safe in handling them. A number of small coins of this class are known to be in circulation in this vicinity, and the only safe way is to refuse to handle all Canadian money.

Jones County Calf Case.

The supreme court at Des Moines, Iowa, filed a decision in the celebrated Jones county calf case, which has been a source of litigation for many years in that state. The case has cost many thousands of dollars, and the original parties to the suit are nearly all dead. The original action it was over the possession of a calf valued at two dollars. The present decision fixes the costs on the defendants. The costs amount to $2,988.84. This is the end of the famous case.

Caught Asking a Bribe.

The Chicago Herald Saturday published the statement that Alderman John Powers, one of the most prominent members of the city council, has been caught in the act of asking $25,000 for a bit of legislation, offering to deliver the votes of forty or more members of the council for a consideration of that amount in cash. The $25,000 proposition is stated to have been made to Neil McCoull, the Chicago manager of a large corporation, the forty votes to be furnished to kill the so-called anti-cigarette ordinance in which McCoull is presumably interested.

ONCE MORE.

On Nov. 23 an election was held for the purpose of voting on the bonding of the village of Buchanan for the sum of $10,000. This resulted in a vote of 178 against to 138 in favor of bonding, or in other words by a good majority the citizens said that they considered our village was bonded enough and that our water works were ample. Now, in a little over a month after this election, a petition is presented to the Common Council, signed by 50 persons, requesting another election on identical the same question as before submitted, and as a result an election is ordered for Jan. 4, one week from tomorrow. It is interesting to know how much expense our village will be put to in the effort to secure under one pretext or other, the last cent which our charter permits the village to bond itself, and that money to be used for the benefit of a private corporation. If we are to hold an election every month until the result is satisfactory to a certain pecuniarily interested class, it is time a halt was called and that, too, in no uncertain terms. Our village deficit for this year will be in the neighborhood of $4,000, and when this is added to next year's tax levy, to say nothing of our proportion of the new $70,000 court house at St. Joseph and the $14,000 bridge, we venture the prediction that next year's tax rate will be sufficiently high to please the most fastidious.

The Education of the Blind.

The Midland Republican of Dec. 7, says:
"Examples of cookies and biscuits, made by girls totally blind, can be seen at the Republican office. These samples are from some that were taken Tuesday from the school for the blind (at Lansing) to Adria for exhibition in connection with the convention there of the State Board of Corrections and Charities. A hammock and various samples of needle work made by the children were exhibited. One exhibited, also a book of raised point letter (Braille) which was stereotyped at the school, and best of all, four of the children were there, two girls and two boys, who read from the books and the stereotypes with their fingers, played the piano, sang, wrote Braille from dictation, gave recitations, etc., arousing great interest in those who saw and heard them. They were under the immediate care of Supt. Church and a lady teacher and remain through the entire convention, also visiting the Industrial House for girls. The children enjoyed the change from school routine immensely and set with great patience through the long sessions, in which some most valuable papers and discussions were given."
Hon. L. C. Storrs, Secretary of the State Board of Corrections and Charities, that the school for the blind was never in better condition than now.
This school is a state institute and is located at Lansing. Blind children are boarded and taught free of charge. Further information may be obtained by addressing the Superintendent of the School for the Blind at Lansing, Mich.

Any person knowing of a blind child or one so nearly blind as to be unable to learn in the public schools should encourage the parents or guardian to have such child sent to the school at Lansing.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

Niles is Learning.

In October Niles voted to issue $34,000 bonds to build water works. The bonds were sold to Chicago parties. Ferdinand Schneewind, a merchant, sought to restrain the city from issuing the bonds. An injunction was refused, and Mr. Schneewind carried the case to the supreme court, where the decision was reversed and the injunction allowed.

Having rendered the bonds worthless, Mr. Schneewind threatens to cause the arrest of the mayor, recorder and every alderman who gave his assistance in calling the freeholders' election. The new water works is now over half completed, and the contractor says he will finish the system, having no fears but that he will be paid.

A Youthful Suicide.

Frederick Rice, aged 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rice, of Fowlerville, committed suicide Tuesday afternoon five miles north of Niles, by shooting himself in the head with a shotgun. He left a note saying that he was tired of life and wished to be buried at Green Oak cemetery in Fowlerville.

There is no known cause for the deed other than brooding over some fancied wrong.

Mr. and Mrs. Rice formerly resided near Buchanan, living just across the river.

NEW TROY.

From our Regular Correspondent.

Dec. 26, 1894.
This is Christmas, and an improvement on some of those that are past. We should have milled this yesterday, but the truth is we were out of meat and was after a rabbit and failed. There are so many Troy fellows after them they are getting shy.
Christmas tree at the M. E. church last night was pretty well attended. Prof. Benson is furnishing a house with new furniture, and acts very much as if he was going to marry.
W. A. Seekell, Prof. Benson, A. W. Pierce, were at South Bend Saturday. The big drain of deepening the north branch of the Gallen river was let last week to John Almandinger of Benton Harbor, for $4500, making it about $2.60 per rod. It went cheap, as 3 miles is 10 feet on bottom and 20 on top, and 2 1/2 miles 12 feet bottom and 24 on top, and is about an average of 6 feet in depth. It will start at the bridge, north of Painter's school house, and run to the mill pond at New Troy. 8 per cent is assessed to the township of Lake at large, and 21 per cent to Weesaw township at large; balance to individual owners of lands benefited. There is no question but it will be the making of a large track of the bottom lands—several thousand acres.
Vacation in schools. Will commence again Dec. 31. This Fore.

What Does It Mean?

Fact or Fiction about Two Great Fair Awards.

A newspaper paragraph denounces as "false" the claim of a baking powder company to an award at the World's Fair. Whom can it mean? Certainly not Dr. Price's. Why? Because, as the records show, Dr. Price's exhibited, competed and received the highest award, both at Chicago and the California Midwinter Fair. The award in California included Gold Medal. The official examiners pronounced it the strongest, the purest, the most wholesome and efficient of all the baking powders. Its title to confidence is unquestioned.
Can it be the manufacturers of a New York powder, notoriously labeled "absolutely pure" who are making "false" claims? That would be strange indeed, inasmuch as they were not even considered in the awards.
Was it Ammonia in the New York powder that prevented its makers from competing? If not what?

It proved a great inducement to stop in and buy something.

The older members and their friends of the Evangelical church sprung a surprise on their pastor and wife on Christmas evening. They took possession of their home in their absence, and when Mr. and Mrs. Johnson returned home they willingly surrendered to the inevitable. Before going home the company left a goodly number of tokens of their love and respect with which their victims will be enabled very pleasantly to remember the event.

On Christmas Eve "The Star of Bethlehem" shone with an old time brilliancy at the Presbyterian church, and a host of happy children saw it, in company with their parents and friends.

An excellent and most appropriate program, literary and musical, entitled "The Star" was rendered, and St. Nicholas was present with gifts, much to the joy of all. The pastor O. J. Roberts was the recipient of a handsomely bound volume of Dante's writings, presented to him by the young men of his class, which he very much appreciates.

CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT.

The Methodist Episcopal Sunday School gave a Christmas Cantata entitled "Santa Claus on Time" at the Rough Opera House on Saturday evening. The house was well filled and the entertainment was an entire success, those participating in it performing the parts assigned them in a delightful manner. The children's choruses were well rendered the little folks seeming to enjoy themselves fully as much as the audience. In addition to the cantata several musical selections were rendered, consisting of a quartette by the Buchanan Male Quartette, Soprano Solo "Waiting" by Miss Grace Palmer, and a solo "Angel's Serenade" by Miss Bronson. Mr. Alfonsi's orchestra furnished the music for the cantata and it is needless to state that it gave universal satisfaction. The entertainment was a successful one throughout and reflects great credit on those who arranged it.

The Sunday School of the Methodist Episcopal Church had their Christmas tree on Monday evening. The Church was filled to overflowing by the scholars and their friends. The literary part of the entertainment consisted of a well arranged program, after which candy, oranges, and various presents were distributed. Mrs. Wilson, the wife of the pastor was the recipient of a very handsome plush cape from the members of the church and congregation.

A Christmas Wedding.

A pleasant Christmas event occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Richards at high noon. It was the occasion of the marriage of their only daughter, Daisy, to Mr. Edwin P. Benedict of Chicago. The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Richards had been handsomely and tastefully decorated. In the corner of the parlor, where the ceremony was performed, was a pyramid of handsome palms of various kinds. Holly decked the curtains, and wreaths and ropes of evergreens furnished the other decorations of the rooms. A few moments before the time appointed for the ceremony the house was darkened and the electric lights turned on. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Charles Pears upon her harp, and the bride and groom came into the room, preceded by the bridesmaid and groomsmen, and took their position before the Rev. W. W. Wells, who, twenty-one years before had pronounced the words making Mr. and Mrs. Richards man and wife, and who now was to pronounce the words making their only daughter the wife of Mr. Benedict. The bride was attired in a white broadcloth suit trimmed in lace, ribbons and smilax. Her only ornaments were a diamond pendant and necklace, and a diamond ring, both gifts of the groom's parents. The bridesmaid was Miss Marion Skinner of Chicago and the groom's best man was Mr. Frank Whitman of Buchanan. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Benedict, parents of the groom, of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Smith of Minneapolis, and Mrs. E. Rickard of Marietta, Ohio. The presents were numerous and beautiful. A wedding breakfast was served after the ceremony. The happy young couple left shortly after, amid a shower of rice, old shoes and good wishes, for their future home at Evansville, Ind. The RECORD voices the sentiment of all who knew Mr. and Mrs. Benedict, when it extends to them hearty congratulations and expresses the wish that their voyage through life may be a happy and prosperous one.
