

Business Directory.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH. - Preaching every Lord's day at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Also...
WOMAN'S BELIEF CORPS, Wm. Perrott Post No. 35.

The Salt You Use. Diamond Crystal Salt. Is healthful for the impurities...

NEW SUPPLY OF SCHOOL SHOES. Henderson's lines of Red School Shoes cannot be excelled...

Milwaukee Grains. For Boys are the proper thing for hard wear. Sizes 12 to 5.

Plant's High School Shoes. have style and service. Sizes 2 1/2 to 6.

School Suits. for your boys. All prices and ages.

Bang Up Suits. At a low figure to close.

G. W. NOBLE. DIX & WILKINSON, Law and Abstract Office.

VANDALIA LINE. MONEY TO LOAN. Large or small sums, at low rates...

ADIRONDA. Wheeler's Heart Cure AND Nerve.

OPIMUM PATENTS. WE TEACH TELEGRAPHY.

SMITH & CASE, Plumbers, Hot Water, Pipe and Steam Fitters.

ROSE & ELLSWORTH'S. Opening of the Holiday Season.

SPECIAL SALE OF APRONS. For ladies and misses, in plain, tucked, embroidered and fancy styles.

ROSE & ELLSWORTH'S. Opening of the Holiday Season.

HANDKERCHIEFS. Thousands of dozens in cotton, linen and Swiss embroidery.

ROSE & ELLSWORTH'S, South Bend.

TERESA.

By Captain C. A. CURTIS, U. S. A.

[Copyright, 1894, by American Press Association.]

"The volunteers had to keep the road to the woods open with shovels for some time, and their wheels run hard."

"I wonder if a sled could be made for hauling wood, sergeant?" "I doubt if we have a man in the company besides yourself and me that ever saw one."

"What do you mean by a sled?" "Well, I can draw the patterns. I was born in a snow and logging country and am familiar with the various kinds of sleds."

"I suppose the lieutenant is aware that there is no hard wood in the valley, nothing harder than pine, hemlock, spruce and poplar," said Sergeant Cunningham.

"The hard pine will make excellent runners, and bars can be made of the hemlock and ash of the two broken wagons the volunteers left."

"I think, sir," said the sergeant, "that the Mexicans are in trouble. From the ridge I can see them, near the south end of the valley. They have not moved for a long time."

"What do you mean by that?" "The lieutenant took his fieldglasses and ascended the southern arm of the ridge. Arrived there, he saw, when the whirling wreaths of snow permitted him to catch a glimpse, that the travelers were grouped at a point about six miles from the camp and that he had discovered."

"I have a hunch that the lieutenant is aware that there is no hard wood in the valley, nothing harder than pine, hemlock, spruce and poplar," said Sergeant Cunningham.

"The Mexicans are in trouble. From the ridge I can see them, near the south end of the valley. They have not moved for a long time."

same time murmuring something too low for any one to hear. When she had finished, she said, "La Senora Vieja returns her thanks."

"The frequent repetition of La Senora Vieja, the Spanish for old lady—struck the lieutenant as odd, but reflecting that it might be a custom of the class to which the lady's attendants belonged he dismissed the matter from his mind."

"I think, sir," said the sergeant, "that the Mexicans are in trouble. From the ridge I can see them, near the south end of the valley. They have not moved for a long time."

"What do you mean by that?" "The lieutenant took his fieldglasses and ascended the southern arm of the ridge. Arrived there, he saw, when the whirling wreaths of snow permitted him to catch a glimpse, that the travelers were grouped at a point about six miles from the camp and that he had discovered."

"I have a hunch that the lieutenant is aware that there is no hard wood in the valley, nothing harder than pine, hemlock, spruce and poplar," said Sergeant Cunningham.

"The Mexicans are in trouble. From the ridge I can see them, near the south end of the valley. They have not moved for a long time."

rested men, and a few rivets and bolts also needed to complete it.

"The volunteers had to keep the road to the woods open with shovels for some time, and their wheels run hard."

"I think, sir," said the sergeant, "that the Mexicans are in trouble. From the ridge I can see them, near the south end of the valley. They have not moved for a long time."

"What do you mean by that?" "The lieutenant took his fieldglasses and ascended the southern arm of the ridge. Arrived there, he saw, when the whirling wreaths of snow permitted him to catch a glimpse, that the travelers were grouped at a point about six miles from the camp and that he had discovered."

"I have a hunch that the lieutenant is aware that there is no hard wood in the valley, nothing harder than pine, hemlock, spruce and poplar," said Sergeant Cunningham.

"The Mexicans are in trouble. From the ridge I can see them, near the south end of the valley. They have not moved for a long time."

Jemez or elsewhere except the weekly military carriers from Santa Fe.

"At the end of the week and for several days succeeding Raymer noticed whenever he returned from the forest to his cabin that it appeared to be in better order than usual. There was a neater arrangement of rugs and mats and the articles on the mantel were more tastefully disposed."

"What do you mean by that?" "The lieutenant took his fieldglasses and ascended the southern arm of the ridge. Arrived there, he saw, when the whirling wreaths of snow permitted him to catch a glimpse, that the travelers were grouped at a point about six miles from the camp and that he had discovered."

"I have a hunch that the lieutenant is aware that there is no hard wood in the valley, nothing harder than pine, hemlock, spruce and poplar," said Sergeant Cunningham.

"The Mexicans are in trouble. From the ridge I can see them, near the south end of the valley. They have not moved for a long time."

"The Mexicans are in trouble. From the ridge I can see them, near the south end of the valley. They have not moved for a long time."

most interesting to watch these glacial improvements, and he was aware that his old soldier servant had not earlier discovered this taste for order.

"You are improving in the care of my quarters, Cain," they had very near." "It's not me, it's the Sayayura Vayher."

"What do you mean by that?" "The lieutenant took his fieldglasses and ascended the southern arm of the ridge. Arrived there, he saw, when the whirling wreaths of snow permitted him to catch a glimpse, that the travelers were grouped at a point about six miles from the camp and that he had discovered."

"I have a hunch that the lieutenant is aware that there is no hard wood in the valley, nothing harder than pine, hemlock, spruce and poplar," said Sergeant Cunningham.

"The Mexicans are in trouble. From the ridge I can see them, near the south end of the valley. They have not moved for a long time."

"The Mexicans are in trouble. From the ridge I can see them, near the south end of the valley. They have not moved for a long time."

DIARIES FOR 1895.

MEMORANDUM AND BLANK BOOKS.

Turn over a new leaf. It's a New Year.

BINNS, OPPOSITE HOTEL, BUCHANAN.

Women in Washington Society.

Mrs. Grant has not as yet selected a permanent home in this city. It was thought that her plans for the winter provided for a residence in this city, but she finally decided to accept a house in the country, and she has moved to a new home in the country.

Some of the society women are in the habit of writing books, and these are often very interesting. They are usually about social affairs, and are often very well written. Some of the most interesting are those written by Mrs. Brice, Mrs. McLean, and Mrs. Warder.

The ladies of the Diplomatic circle from a charming if not an influential element in society circles. Their importance is not as great as was the case in the early years of the city, and many of them are now engaged in various social and domestic pursuits.

The ladies of the Diplomatic circle from a charming if not an influential element in society circles. Their importance is not as great as was the case in the early years of the city, and many of them are now engaged in various social and domestic pursuits.

The ladies of the Diplomatic circle from a charming if not an influential element in society circles. Their importance is not as great as was the case in the early years of the city, and many of them are now engaged in various social and domestic pursuits.

The ladies of the Diplomatic circle from a charming if not an influential element in society circles. Their importance is not as great as was the case in the early years of the city, and many of them are now engaged in various social and domestic pursuits.

The ladies of the Diplomatic circle from a charming if not an influential element in society circles. Their importance is not as great as was the case in the early years of the city, and many of them are now engaged in various social and domestic pursuits.

The ladies of the Diplomatic circle from a charming if not an influential element in society circles. Their importance is not as great as was the case in the early years of the city, and many of them are now engaged in various social and domestic pursuits.

The ladies of the Diplomatic circle from a charming if not an influential element in society circles. Their importance is not as great as was the case in the early years of the city, and many of them are now engaged in various social and domestic pursuits.

The ladies of the Diplomatic circle from a charming if not an influential element in society circles. Their importance is not as great as was the case in the early years of the city, and many of them are now engaged in various social and domestic pursuits.

The ladies of the Diplomatic circle from a charming if not an influential element in society circles. Their importance is not as great as was the case in the early years of the city, and many of them are now engaged in various social and domestic pursuits.

The ladies of the Diplomatic circle from a charming if not an influential element in society circles. Their importance is not as great as was the case in the early years of the city, and many of them are now engaged in various social and domestic pursuits.

The ladies of the Diplomatic circle from a charming if not an influential element in society circles. Their importance is not as great as was the case in the early years of the city, and many of them are now engaged in various social and domestic pursuits.

The ladies of the Diplomatic circle from a charming if not an influential element in society circles. Their importance is not as great as was the case in the early years of the city, and many of them are now engaged in various social and domestic pursuits.

The ladies of the Diplomatic circle from a charming if not an influential element in society circles. Their importance is not as great as was the case in the early years of the city, and many of them are now engaged in various social and domestic pursuits.

The ladies of the Diplomatic circle from a charming if not an influential element in society circles. Their importance is not as great as was the case in the early years of the city, and many of them are now engaged in various social and domestic pursuits.

The ladies of the Diplomatic circle from a charming if not an influential element in society circles. Their importance is not as great as was the case in the early years of the city, and many of them are now engaged in various social and domestic pursuits.

