BY CHANCE.

I don't know exactly why Jack called mo governor, but I suppose it was because I was some years older than he was and because, when he was a wee toddler, I had made him kites and showed him how to spin tops, and perhaps because I used to help him out of scrapes, either with his teacher or some playmate too large for him to "lick." At all events, I got the name, and it has stuck to me. What surprised me most, however, was to hear it a few weeks ago, when I supposed Jack was thousands of miles away. I was strolling leisurely down an old street in Dublin, looking about for some old landmark of the "stamping ground" of my childhood. How things had changed ! Yonder where the little frame church had been was a stately stone edifice. Over the old golf links had been built long rows of stores and houses, but there-yes, it must be-there was a house that had not been changed.

"Governor," said a voice behind me, "isn't that the house where Alice lived?"

I never should have known the speaker had it not been for the epithet. It was Jack, careworn and gray and looking 35 instead of 27.

"Jack, old boy, what brings you here? I thought you were in America."

"I have been in New Orleans for agood many years. This is the New York office of a suburban cemetery, where are cremated the bodies of those who prefer that their remains shall be consumed by fiame rather than to let nature take its course in a coffin six feet under the sod.

A World reporter dropped into the office and had a talk with the young man in charge. It was too late on that afternoon to witness a cremation, but ordinarily the crematory people are glad to have spectators when the interesting process is going on.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EVANGEL

EDITED BY REV. O. J. ROBERTS.

This column is open to any who has any com-munication bearing upon practical Sunday School work, or has any news concerning the progress of the work. We solicit correspondence along these lines from all workers.

The editor of this column is at the State Sunday School Convention at Detroit this week, as delegate at large from Berrien county. Full report of the Convention will appear in this column next week.

Do not forget the Sunday school meeting at the Evangelical chruch next Sabbath afternoon, at 3 o'clock, to hear the report the house to house canvass and the report of the delegates to the State Convention.

Thou, too, shalt rise To sunny skies, And open wide thy baby eyes. —Rowan Stevens in Youth's Companion.

The report for Buchanan township, shows S schools, 135 officers and teachers, 728 pupils; total, 863; average attendence, 501; added to churches. 5; mission offering, $63.84; for state and county work, $22.66; school expenses, $400.14

The Field Secretary visited Galien on Friday, the 15th, visiting Sunday school officers and teachers, especially Primary teachers. In the evening he addressed an interesting meeting, held in the M. E. church, after which a Sunday School Union for Galien township was organized, with the following officers: Pres., E. A. Blakeslee; Vice-Pres., Rev. S, I. Horr; Sec., Frank Hall; Treas. C. A. Vinton. A Convention is to be held soon, and the prospect is good for a wide awake time in Sunday school matters in Galien township the coming year.

The following is worthy of endorsement by every Sunday school:

the schools of anarchy and crime have their tens of thousands. This sad fact should arouse all to renewed activity in this special line of work. We recommend total abstinence from any use of stimulants for the individual and absolute annihilation of the traffic in intoxicating liquors for beverages purposes as the settled policy of the state, and to attain this end we believe the acts of citizenship should voice and enact into law the prayer of God's people that these hotbeds of crime be blotted out. Annual Report of Rev. O. J. Roberts as Field Secretary of Berrien County. The time w ich this report covers is from March to November, 1895. During this time I have not been able to give much time to the work-some twelve days in all. I have visited in eleven townships and have kept in touch with the workers in every township in the county. Practically, there are only three townships unorganized, and they will be organized very soon. Two immense rallies were held during the year, one at Lakeside for the north-western townships, and one at Niles for the northern and central townships. The attendance at these rallies, on a conservative reckoning, was nearly 6000.

Normal work has not been pushed as it ought, for lack of time and means. Some good work within a limited territory has been done along Primary work lines. Our County Superintendents of Primary Work, Mrs. J. D. Greenamyer of Niles, and Miss May T. Bisbee of Benton Harbor, deserve great praise for their faithful services. Also Miss Edith Beardsley and Mrs. G. W. Noble, president and secretary of Buchanan Primary Union. A new feature in this county is this primary exhibit at the County Convention, under the direction of the County superintendents, with the able assistance of Miss Howe of Berrien Springs. Another new feature of our work has been the using of the columns of our secular papers to advertise Sunday school interests. The good work began by the courtesy of D. H. Bower of the BUCHAHAN RECORD, giving one whole column weekly for the use of the secretary. The idea has been adopted by many of the county papers, and has even crossed the line into Indiana. We have found the gentlemen of the press invariably ready to give space for Sunday school news, and we appreciate them for it.

> During the year a District Convention was held at Crystal Springs. This was largely attended by Sunday school people from Berrien, Cass and Van Buren counties. Much of its success is credited to Mr. E. D. Wood of Sumnerville, Dr. J. D. Greenamyer of Niles. Mr. B. S. Reed and others. It is hoped that arrangements can be perfected to have a Convention similar next year.

WASHINGTON LETTER. SOCIETY IN WASHINGTON

People Who Entertain Elaborately, and Live in Splendid Style.

The mere display of weaitly is not a prevailing characteristic of the social life of Washington. That is not because people of ample means do not make their homes here or that the scale of living is not so elaborate as is the case in a large money center. It is probably due to the fact that at the Nation's capitol social lines do not fol-low a golden boundary. Official life largely influences the character of the society, and as a consequence, men who occupy public places, whatever their bank accounts may be, are recognized as eligible for social functions Worth does not determine the matter, although for once money is not the paramount question. To a considerable extent official position takes the place of dollars in opening the doors of society.

It is, however, true that there may be witnessed in Washington during the season a display which can only be kept by the expenditure of large sums of money. A Question of Wills. The making of one's will is hardly to Harlar d will add to the interest of this striking issue of the Bazar. A very notable issue of The Art Amateur is that for November. Since this admirable magazine set the fashion, years ago, of giving absolute fac-similies of paintings in oil, water-colors and pas-tels, it has had many cheap imitators; but cer-taiwly no "cheap" production of any kind could compete with either of the two superb color-plate-The Art Amateur gives this month. "A Modern Madonna," by C wind Kilesel, the German Court nait r is the head of a beautiful woman very beautifully reproduced; and this periodical has in ver brought out a more dainty flower-piece than the "Yellow Roses and Violets," by Mrs. Mu-margh. In pursuance of the editor's plan of giv-ing a thoroughly practical art magazine, these pictures are primarily intended to cerve as copies for the smateur artist; but we venture to say that iew persons possessing thom will be able to resis the temptation to frame them and harg them. All of the usual instructive features of th- maga-zine are well maintained; the sindent in oil, water-color, pastel or china painting will each find something specially snited to his needs; and about wood carving, pyrography, free-hand d-ax-ing, drawing for reproduction for books and ma -azines, Church and Home needlework, etc., the information is abmdant, and the designs seeming-ly are without limit. The biographical notices of artists and art criticisum are, se usual, a striking feature, and the numerons "answere to corres-pondents" suggest that the edit r has his hands hull in advising not only art students who wish to be helped in their work, but ludies all over the country who want suggestions for furnishing and decorating their homes. But Hood's Sarsaparilla Restores Cood Health.

Lillie May Bentley is an accomplished elocu-Honist and natural born speaker of only 13 years of age. She is the only child temperance lectarer before the public. Her genius, however, did not exempt her from an attack of a disease of the blood. Her own words best tell the story: "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
