The Financial Plan.

The Republican Party is unopposedly for sound money. It caused the enactment of the law providing for the redemption of specie payments in 1875, since then every dollar has been as good as gold.

We are unopposedly opposed to every measure calculated to debase our currency or impair the credit of our country. We are therefore opposed to the free coinage of silver, except by international agreement with the leading commercial nations of the world, which we pledge ourselves to promote, and until such agreement can be obtained, the existing gold standard must be preserved. All our silver and paper currency must be maintained at parity with gold and in favor of all measures designed to maintain unimpaired the obligations of the United States, and at all money, whether coin or paper, at the present standard, the standard of the most enlightened nations.

Old Hayden Hits the Mark.

We doubt if any speech will be made that will go straight to the heart of the question than that which a colored man who calls himself Old Hayden, and as such is affectionately regarded by the members of the club, made at the Ward Republican Club, made at the ratification meeting. Hayden was a slave until he was over 50 years of age; he cannot read or write, and he is not a polished orator, but he knows a few things and says them forcibly.

What he said was in this wise:

The white gentlemen who have talked before me have told you about sound money. I can't get much about sound money; ain't hardly seen none since the Dimytrats cut down the tariff and the wages, and made all kinds of work scarce. But its Old Hayden's opinion that I can't get much about sound money, unless its counterfeit. A green-bill's sound money, and so's a silver dollar, and so's a five-dollar gold piece. And the Republican party made me sound, I don't care nothing about your currency plank. What I care about is work; when there is plenty of work there is plenty of money—and its sound money, when you go to buy groceries and stuff with it. Mistah McKinley means protection; protection means plenty of work, plenty of money. They tell me that Old Hayden must turn Democrat, because the Republicans is for gold money. Well, I ain't seen no gold money for a long time; if its going to pay me in gold its all right—less as soon take gold as silver, but I can't get neither gold nor silver without work. The Republican plank says, "Give Old Hayden work"—that's what it says. That's what protection means.

When Harrison was president and the McKinley bill was in force Old Hayden didn't have an idle minute. "Fore he got up in the mornin'" some one was at his door saying, "Mr. Old Hayden, can't you come and work for me today?" And the pay was in sound money—same money as is lyin' idle in banks today instead of making it self useful in factories and homes. The work question is on top, set it and the money question settles itself. Give Old Hayden work to do, and he'll see that he gets money.

This, we take it, is going to the root of the matter. The white gentlemen nags again; set the wheels rolling in the factories; make a demand for more meat and flour from people who have been living on a low scale because their incomes have been cut down, and there will be no grumbling about the quality of currency that is offered in pay for it. What "Old Hayden wants" is what the country wants—more work for Americans.

The money of today will be good enough for the enlarged business that protection will insure.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Peter English's New Deal.

The Kalamazoo News of the past week contains the following account of the new enterprise of Mr. English:

There has been a good deal printed of late in the local papers concerning the formation of a new gas company in this city without authority. Those directly interested in the project, the subscribers to the capital stock of the company, which will be known as the Kalamazoo Heat, Light and Power Company, met at the office of Judge A. M. Stearns Tuesday afternoon and organized. The stockholders are George A. Miller, and Homer, Esq., Judge A. M. Stearns, Dr. C. T. Wilbur, Julius Schuster, Cyer Dessenberg, Jr., A. L. Pratt, F. M. Clark, Frank Henderson, Horace Prentice, Carl Rudow and E. L. Caldwell. Mr. Caldwell represented L. Armon of Chicago, Peter English and others. The directors are Homer Marvel, G. W. Miller, C. T. Wilbur, A. M. Stearns and E. L. Caldwell. The officers are: E. L. Caldwell, president; Homer Marvel, treasurer; A. M. Stearns, secretary.

The capital stock is $200,000, half of which is already subscribed. It assures the erection upon the site of the old Kalamazoo Natural Gas Company, on Harrison street, of the works, the normal capacity of which will be 100,000 cubic feet of gas per hour. Many of the stockholders of the old company will be interested and the new company will operate under the franchise of the old company, which has been purchased. The company expects to be ready to furnish gas for heat and power by Jan. 1, 1897.

Seven car loads of material consisting of machinery are now on the ground and construction will be commenced at once.

The United States treasury reports show that the total amount of silver dollars coined in this country from 1879 to 1895 was $3,031,238, and that the amount of silver dollars coined from 1879 to June 30, 1896, was $4,700,041.

The coinage of the standard silver dollar, which was discontinued in 1873, was restored in 1878. The ratio was changed in 1894 and again in 1897 to make the coinage ratio agree with the commercial ratio. As we have said before, there never was a coinage law passed that did not seek to make the coinage and commercial ratio agree. It is now for the first time proposed to ignore entirely the commercial ratio. That means silver monometallism and short dollars.—Detroit Journal.

Mr. Terrell is building a sparkling room to his building, and Mr. Lawrence is remodeling his dwelling after the fashion of Queen Anne.

The McKinley and Hobart ratification meeting held in the Town Hall, Friday night, was a rousing success. C. W. Noble of Buchanan, Rev. Frank Fox of Three Oaks, and Prof. M. W. The mail carriers will begin taking their vacation Aug. 18. Mr. Kittell, the substitute, will take each one's place in succession while he is gone.

Four men were drowned in the lake, at LL Gap, Sunday, while bathing. One got beyond his depth and two of the others went to his assistance, with the usual result. The fourth went bathing alone, and as his clothes were found in a bath-house, it is thought he was drowned, though the body has not yet been recovered.

The steamer Minnie M. of the new line and the big liner Jay Gould collided, while passing under the draw of the railroad bridge, which is too narrow for both boats at once. They were damaged but slightly. The bridge was rendered unsafe for trains, till it could be repaired.

The Graham & Morton Transportation Company has received communications from nearly every quarter of the globe, offering plans for finding their lost steamer. Now comes one from a scientific aeronaut, in Elberfeld, Germany, who says that as objects at the bottom of a body of water are plainly visible from a balloon some distance above it, he suggests that this means be used in finding the boat. The company has already spent about $15,000 in the search, but may decide to make this one more attempt, as it looks quite feasible.

SECOND ANNUAL CONVENTION.

and the congregation was dismissed with the benediction, by Rev. Waller.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

The session was opened by Mrs. M. H. Reynolds of Owseno, who explained the purpose of the meeting. The devotional services were led by Miss Edith Beardsley of Buchanan. The congregational united in singing "Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove," after which Miss Beardsley read the Scripture lesson, and several offered prayer. No. 186 was then sung.

After the singing, Miss Clara A. Hubbell of Buchanan read a paper on the Arrangement of the Primary Room." After the paper, Mrs. Reynolds read an interesting one on "The Organization of the Primary Department." After which song No. 111 was sung.

Then Mrs. Angie R. Brooks read a paper on "The opening and closing exercises of the Primary room." She was followed by Mrs. J. H. Royce of Baroda, who read a most excellent paper on "The importance and methods of visiting the children." Rev. Pauline Barrows of Vandalia being absent Mr. Mohr of Grand Rapids opened a discussion on the subject of "How to secure regular attendance." It was then thrown open to the Convention. Miss May T. Bisbee of Benton Harbor then conducted a delightful primary class of twelve little people. No. 121 was then sung by the congregation.

The Question Box which was to have been conducted by Mrs. Reynolds was postponed until later.

Mr. E. D. Wood of Summerville then made announcement in regard to the financial standing of the Convention. A motion was made by some one in the audience that the several counties assume the deficit. A collection was taken, at Mr. Mohr's suggestion, to pay the expenses of the meeting. Mr. Parsons then spoke a few words to the Convention, in objection to sending the deficit back to the several counties to be paid.

Rev. E. R. Clark of Edwardsburg, who was to speak on Lesson Helps was absent, so that part of the program was omitted. Mr. C. W. Cory of Dowagiac, President of the Cass County Sunday School Association, addressed the Convention on the subject of "Work and Responsibility." After Mr. Cory's address, Mr. Mohr took charge of the question box, Mr. M. H. Reynolds first offering prayer. One verse of No. 42 was sung as the closing hymn and Rev. O. J. Roberts pronounced the benediction.

THURSDAY EVENING.

The evening session was opened by singing, "The Wonderful Gift of God's Love." This song was followed by Nos. 1 and 159, after which Rev. Roberts offered prayer. Mrs. M. H. Reynolds of Owseno then endeavored to answer the questions of the postponed Question Box of the afternoon, but on account of the noise of the rain that was again postponed, and Rev. C. D. W. Brower of South Haven delivered an address on "Christian Citizenship and the Sunday School." After Rev. Brower's address, the choir and audience united in singing No. 16.

After the singing of the hymn, Dr. J. W. H. Carlisle, Presiding Elder of the Niles District, was called to the platform and he made a few remarks, in his usual pleasing and forcible manner.

Rev. G. C. Draper of Dowagiac the final address of the evening and of the Convention, in a most masterly manner. At the end of Rev. Draper's address Mrs. Reynolds answered the delayed questions in a satisfactory manner.

The closing hymn of the Convention No. 164, "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder." After the song, the benediction was pronounced, by Rev. Herbert Polster.

Brodick, Misses Ollie Bronson, Ada Steom and Clara Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hubbard and Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Bower. The sail on the river was thoroughly enjoyed by all hands. At Niles a short stop was made, after which the party started for home. The boat made the return trip in the quick time of one hour and four minutes.

A Big Bass.

The local sportsman have a life of conversation just now, and the subject is saying, "I told you that there's a big bass in Clear Lake." Tuesday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Chandler, of Chicago, who are occupying the cottage of Desires, Carothers and Morris at the lake, were engaged in trolling for bass when Mrs. Chandler had a "strike" and after a tussle captured a magnificent bass, the largest ever taken from Clear Lake. Immediately after being taken from the water the fish was weighed on Mr. Fuller's scales and tipped the beam at seven pounds. Mr. and Mrs. Chandler brought their catch to town and had it photographed at Elson's gallery. After exhibiting the monster fish to the admiring gaze of the local fishermen, the fish was taken to the market and it weighed about six and one-fourth pounds. Mr. and Mrs. Chandler returned to the lake with the trophy.

Church Notes.

PRESBYTERIAN.

The Y. P. S. C. E. meetings of late have been largely attended, and very interesting.

The hot weather has a damaging effect upon the church and Sunday school attendance. The pastor, however, manages to attend the three services every Sunday. But, then, it is his duty to be there, so he does not deserve any credit.

Buchanan, 9; Dowagiac, 0.
It is the same old story. Buchanan just "didn't do a thing" to Dowagiac, last Friday. The latter team has postponed the satisfaction part of the deal for some other day. The following is the story:
