

BUCHANAN RECORD.

VOLUME XXX.

BUCHANAN, BERRIEN COUNTY, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1896.

NUMBER 37.

Much in Little

Is especially true of Hood's Pills, for no medicine ever contained so great curative power in so small space. They are a whole medicine chest, always ready, always effective, always satisfactory; prevent a cold or fever, cure all liver ills, sick headache, jaundice, constipation, etc. See the only Pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Pills

Rubber Weather

RUBBER GOODS

THE OLD RELIABLE.

I will cross a big line of Men's and Boys'

Winter Trowers

CHEAP FOR CASH.

G. W. NOBLE.

Teeth! Teeth!

DR. S. OSTRANDER,

DENTIST,

NILES, - - MICH.

Best Set of Teeth, $8.00

Gum or Vitrified Air, also local applications to Gum for patients extraction of teeth, and all modern dentistry, and all modern dentistry at reasonable prices.

All Work Warranted,

And a written guarantee given for five years

Four Doors West of Post Office.

TELEPHONE 58, BELL.

LUMBER!

Stop! You need not go further to look for Building Material.

WM. MONRO,

BUCHANAN.

Plumbing & Tinning

S. A. WOOD.

REAL ESTATE.

THE REAL ESTATE REG. STER.

NOBLE'S BUILDING,

BUCHANAN, MICH.

WANTED—AN IDEA Who can think thing to patent? Protect your ideas; they may bring you wealth. Write JOHN WEDDER-

BURN & CO., Patent Attorneys, Washington,

D. C., for their $1,000 prize offer.

THE BEST WEEKLY

IN SOUTHWESTERN MICHIGAN

52 DOSES, $1.00.

SEND IN YOUR ADDRESS,

AND DON'T FORGET TO ENCLOSE

THE DOLLAR.

ELLSWORTH'S

Special Announcement.

WE ARE NOW READY TO SHOW YOU

NEW FALL AND WINTER DRESS GOODS,

SILKS, VELVETS, CLOAKS, JACKETS, FUR

COLLAR, WRAPPERS, CHILDREN'S CLOAKS,

WRAPPERS, BLANKETS, ETC.

OUR NEW CARPETS, CURTAINS AND RUGS

ARE ALL IN STOCK, READY FOR INSPECTION.

OUR NEW UNDERWEAR AND HOSIERY.

FOR FALL AND WINTER, HAS ARRIVED and we should be pleased to see you in that department.

OUR PRICES ARE ALWAYS THE VERY LOWEST.

WE HAVE IN OUR KID GLOVE DEPARTMENT

ALL THE NEW FALL SHADES AND COLORING.

ELLSWORTH'S, South Bend, Ind.

THE HOUSE OF THE WOLF.

BY STANLEY J. WEYMAN.

[CONTINUED.]

The man's bearing was a stronger argument than his words, for I am sure that a stouter or more reckless blade never swaggered in church or street.

I knew him instantly, and even the crowd of the butchers seemed to see in him their master. They flung back a few curses at him, but having nothing to gain they yielded. They threw down the book with contempt—showing purely the sense of futile rage. But and scooped off roaring, "Tuez! Tuez!

Aux Huguenots!" at the top of their voices.

The newcomer thus left with us was Lure—Blaise Bure, the same who only yearly, though it seemed months and months back, and I had seen him before. Since that moment we had not seen him. Now he had wiped off part of the debt we looked at him uncertain whether to reproach him or to thank him, for he had not only not absented, but returned our regards with a not unkindly leer.

"I bear no malice, young gentlemen,"

he said, impudently.

"No, I should think not," I answered.

"And besides, we are quits now," he knave continued.

"You are very kind," I said.

"To be sure. You did me a good turn once," he answered, much to my surprise. He seemed to be in earnest now.

"You do not remember it, young gentleman, but it was you and your brother here," he pointed to Croisette. "Did I

And by the pope and the king of Spain

I have not forgotten it!"

"I have," I said.

"What! Have you forgotten spitting that fellow at Croisette ten days ago?"

"I remember—then whom no braver man was, whose love, indeed, for indeed, for his own sake, and courted it as a mistress, could never sleep on the night before an action. I have heard of the noble and the noble, the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble

and the noble, the noble and the noble by in the gutter. Whence came the stream? Alas, there was something more to be seen yet, something not over instinctively thought last of all.

The body of a man.

It lay on the threshold, the head hanging back, the wide glaring eyes looking up to the summer sky whence the sweetening heat came, and the down upon it. We looked and shuddered at the face. It was that of a servant, a valet who had been with Louis at Caylus. We recognized him at once, for we had known and liked him. He had smiled and pressed his lips to dozen times, and told us stories of the war. The blood crawled slowly from him. He was dead.

Croisette began to shake all over. He clutched one of the pillars, which bore up the porch, and pressed his face against its cold surface, hiding his eyes from the sight. The worst had come. In our hearts I think we had always fancied some accident would save our friend, some stranger warn him, "poor Kit!" Croisette cried, bursting suddenly into violent sobs.

"Oh, Kit! Kit!"

CHAPTER X.

HIS LATE MASTERS, HENRY THE FOURTH.

I remember—then whom no braver man was, whose love, indeed, for TRENBETH.

The Tailor.

Will save you money by ordering your Spring Suit of him.

Look at These Prices:

Fine all-wool Suits made to order for $16, $17, $18, $19 and $20. Pants made to order from $4.00. A fine line of Fancy Vestings. A large line of Piece Goods to select from.

W. TRENBETH,
MERCHANT TAILOR.

Buchanan, Mich.

WE

HONESTLY BELIEVE

you'll agree with us that our prices on Furniture are not high but low—lower than you have been in the habit of paying. Low in price but high in quality, is the impression you get when you come here and look.

If you think of brightening up your house a bit with a new piece of Furniture, or a whole Suite of any kind, come here and see what we can do for you.

GEO. B.

RICHARDS.

JUST

A FEW

LEFT

of those $1.50 Spectacles for 50 cents. Call quick or you'll miss the chance.

H. E. LOUGH,

THE JEWELER.

Dr. E. S. DODD & SON

Druggists and Booksellers,

—ARE SELLING—

Pefumery, Toilet Soap,

Sponges, London Purple, Paris Green, White Hellebore, Insect Powder, Hammond's Slug Shot, Camphor, Fly Paper, Dye Stuffs, Tablets,

DODD'S SARSAPARILLA,

75C PER BOTTLE.

No Shadow

of a doubt about it! There are many good ranges and heaters. We could name a dozen kinds, all good, and against which we say not a word of disparagement. Granting all this, there is but one line which bears the name,

Cortland Howe Ventilating, and he who knows says: "It's the kind I want!"

SOLD BY

H. R. ADAMS

OUR FALL STOCK

Winter Blooming Bulbs

IS HERE.

Narcissus, Sacred Lilies, Easter Lilies, &c.

PLANT THEM EARLY.

D. L. BOARDMAN.

BERTHA ROE,

Home-Made Bakery.

BREAD, CAKE, PIES, &c.

Everything first-class and sent to home-made.

Front St., third door west of Post-Office.

ORVILLE CURTIS, M. D.

Office over Mrs. Berwick's Store, Residence, C. D. Kent's, Main Street. Office hours until 9.00 a. m. 1.00 to 3.30, 7.00 to 8.00 p. m.

D. N. SWIFT D. D. S.,

Graduate of Dental Department University of Michigan.

DENTIST

Office, Treat & Boston block, Successor to S. Ottander.

GOLD CROWN AND BRIDGE WORK.

BUCHANAN RECORD.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1896.

Entered at the Post-office at Buchanan, Mich. as second-class matter.

Only 166 out of a possible 375 of the weekly newspapers in Michigan are accorded a circulation in actual figures by the American Newspaper Directory for 1896. The publishers of the Buchanan Record will guarantee the accuracy of its rating by a record of one hundred dollars of the first person who successfully sends it. Advertisers should note that the Buchanan Record is one of the 166 that are not afraid to let their customers know just what they are buying.

Buchanan Markets.

Hay—$7 @ $8 per ton.
Lard—100, retail.
Salt, retail—$1.00.
Flour—$3.00 @ $4.00 per bbl.
Honey—12c.
Live poultry—5c.
Butter—14c.
Eggs—12½c.
Wheat—65c.
Oats—21c.
Corn—25c.
Clover Seed—Rye—24c.
Beans—$3.50 @ 1.00.
Live Hogs—$2.00.

FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

TAKE YOUR PICK AND ORDER AT ONCE.

The Record is pleased to announce that we can offer the following special offers for campaign purposes for a limited time only, so if you are interested don't delay but act at once:

The BUCHANAN RECORD and The Weekly Inter Ocean, 1 year—$1.35
The New York Weekly Tribune, 1 year—1.25
The Semi Weekly Free Press, 1 year—$1.75
Address (with the money), BUCHANAN RECORD, BUCHANAN, MICH.

G. W. Noble made a rattling campaign speech last Friday, at Sodus.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Dickenson of Day's avenue, on Sunday last, a girl.

The Misses Shafer will move their dressmaking establishment to rooms over the post office.

Hon. J. C. Burrows is booked for a speech at Dowagiac, Saturday of this week.

W. A. Palmer is putting a cement walk on the front street side of his residence property.

Fred E. Lee has purchased the interest in the Earl hotel owned by C. H. Chipman.

Frank Thomas et al vs William Thayer is the title of a new case in Chancery court filed in the clerk's office Monday.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. William Mead, Friday afternoon at 2:30. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Born, on Sunday last, at the residence of L. L. Bunker in Buchanan, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dillingham of Elkhardt, a girl.

Get Bubs for fall planting, out doors—Tulips, Crocus, Hyacinths, Narcissus, Jonquills, &c.—at the new greenhouse on River street, Buchanan.

The Freshman class at Albion College numbers 85 this year. Miss Mary Swain and J. Clyde De Vinney are the Buchanan representatives.

J. M. Hubbell is greatly improving the looks of his front street residence, by grading the lot, cutting out trees and putting in a driveway.

S. P. High has a change of advertisement in this week's issue, and it will pay intending purchasers of dry goods to read his announcement, then call upon him.

Presidential candidate W. J. Bryan will pass through Niles Oct. 15th, coming in over the "Big Four" arriving at 12 o'clock and leaving over the Michigan Central at 12:30.

The big first voters meeting at Detroit, which was to have been held last Friday, and at which Messrs. Hamilton and Gore were to speak, has been postponed until Oct. 21.

The juvenile silver medal contest, which was to be held at the Presbyterian church to-morrow (Friday) evening, has been postponed to Friday evening, Oct. 16, at the same place.

Rob. Dodd will have a pole raising, Friday evening, at his residence. The Ladies club and the Marching club will be on hand, and there will be good speaking, and singing by the club. The raising will occur at 8 o'clock.

Frank T. Beaver, who has been for some time at the Niles Daily Star, has accepted a position on the new South Bend daily as local reporter. His position on the Star has been taken by Clarence Coolidge.

The M. C. Railroad Co. will run a special train to South Bend on Monday provided 100 people are guaranteed, the rate being one fare for the round trip. There will be no difficulty in securing the desired number, and the train will leave Buchanan about 12 o'clock noon.

The Ministerial Conference of the Evangelical Association was held Monday and Tuesday at the Evangelical church, Buchanan. Wednesday and Thursday were devoted to the Young People's Alliance. The meetings were well attended, and were helpful and instructive.

The democratic representative convention for the first district of this county was held at Rough's Opera House Tuesday at 11 o'clock. After considerable discussion the convention was adjourned and the committee directed to make a new call as the one under which the convention was held was deemed defective inasmuch as the call was for a Democratic convention and the candidate to be nominated is to be placed upon the Democratic, Peoples, Union Silver ticket. A new call has been issued for next Monday at Rough's Opera House, at one o'clock in the afternoon.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK, Auction! Auction!

BUCHANAN, MICH.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $65,000.
RESPONSIBILITY $1,500,000.

INTEREST PAID ON TIME DEPOSITS.

Drafts and Exchange made on all points, and a General Banking Business Transacted.

HERBERT ROE, CASHIER.

Church Notes.

UNITED BRETHREN.

Services at the United Brethren church, next Sunday, beginning in the morning at 10:30, and in the evening at 7, by the pastor, Young People's meeting at 6, Sunday school at 11:45, Mrs. S. G. Light, Supt.

PRESBYTERIAN.

Large congregations, both morning and evening, last Sunday. Next Sunday evening the Sunday school will give a concert. In the morning the pastor will preach, taking for his subject, "Harvest Home". In the afternoon, at 2:30, he will preach at the Miller school house.

CHRISTIAN.

The Sunday school was presented with a book case, last week. "The Flood" is next Sunday's Bible school lesson.

"Does water save?" will be next Sunday evening's theme. Sunday and Thursday evening meetings are changed to 7 o'clock.

Four of our members are attending the Sunday School Convention, at Benton Harbor.

Sunday's exchange in pulpits was mutually enjoyable and profitable, we believe, but "there is no place like home." Comparisons are most favorable to the church here.

Remember, Capt. K. mball wishes to see you, Thanksgiving night.

METHODIST.

A. B. Sewell leads the Class meeting, next Sunday morning. All invited.

Rev. W. W. Divine will preach from the theme, next Sunday evening, "A Miserable Hell; if Not, Why?"

Mrs. Nettie Stanton leads the Epworth League meeting next Sunday, at 6 o'clock p. m. Subject, "The Circle of Duty." Math. 10:34. Mark 4:30, John 10:28.

Mrs. DeVinney, Mrs. Estes, Messrs. I. L. H. D. d. d. A. B. Sewell and W. W. Divine were elected delegates from the M. E. Sunday school to attend the Convention, this week, at Benton Harbor.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Miss Nellie Coddington, a teacher in the Passaic, N. J. public schools, visited our schools last Friday.

The Literature class are reading Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice. The Juniors and Seniors again crossed bats, last Friday night. Score, 10 to 8 in favor of the Seniors.

The Seniors will hold their first Class meeting this year, Oct. 16.

The Twelfth grade class in English have finished reading Evangeline, and will commence Scott's Marmion today. The last cold snap started the furnaces of our schools.

Sustie Fiss who has been out of town for two weeks has returned and is back in school.

Mrs. John Holmes and her mother, Mrs. Selmore visited the First Grade Wednesday afternoon. Carrie Wells was much pleased to have her aunt see our school and work.

The bell didn't respond to the pull of the rope Tuesday—it was caught. Swinging doors and a new black board are improvements in 2nd Primary room.

Enrollment for September, 40. Average attendance, 38.

Mr. O. E. Pagan has erected a fine new greenhouse, on the Soham place on River street, and has the same stocked with a fine lot of plants and bulbs. As he has more than he wishes for his own use, he advertises a limited quantity for sale in this week's Record.

List of letters remaining uncalled for in the post-office at Buchanan, Mich. for the week ending Oct. 5, 1896: Mr. William Jackson; Mr. I. A. Mansford; Mr. Dell Brighton; Everett Price.

Call for letters advertised.

JOHN C. DICK, P. M.

As will be seen by their advertisement in another column of the Record Messrs. L. Grossman & Co. of South Bend, are holding a "Retiring from business sale," and to that end are advertising some great bargains to their patrons and all others who are interested. Look up their announcement.

There has been circulated on the streets a political leaflet, entitled "Shall we eat pork?" purporting to be written by J. Francis Forsyth, 11 Wall St., New York. Some of the statements were so wild that Rev. Wm. Roe wrote a letter to the author in regard to them. The letter was returned by the New York post office, that no such person could be found. Thus one by one the false arguments are refuted.

There will be a big demonstration at South Bend on Monday afternoon of next week, when the old soldiers, Gens. Sickles, Howard, Sigel, Alger and Stewart, and Corporal Tanner, all will speak that afternoon at 3 o'clock. Arrangements have been made for special trains over all the railroads, and there will be a big parade of marching clubs from all points within reach. At the meeting of the Marching club last night a committee was appointed to arrange for making the trip, and participating in the parade.

Marriage Licenses.

John R. Rough, 68, Bertrand; Susan Huntz, 61, same.

Edward L. W. Wagner, 25, Chicago; Robie M. Dennis, 23, Grand Rapids.

Wm. E. Grimm, 38, Chicago; Ella L. Kissinger, 31, St. Joseph.

Howard M. Rouse, 31, Benton Harbor; 34, White Pigeon.

Fred Vandenberg, 23, Grand Haven; Maude Ryder, 18, Coloma.

Fred A. Malsch, 34, Bridgman; Anna Bachman, 27, same.

Fred B. Stone, 20, Derby; Vina L. Brunko, 20, Roylton.

Commencing Friday, Sept. 25th,

I WILL SELL THE ENTIRE

C. H. Baker Dry Goods Stock

To the highest bidder, in lots to suit the buyer.

This Stock Must Go Immediately

Come and be convinced that price cuts no figure. This sale includes all new goods bought for Fall trade. Finest line of Black Dress Goods in the town.

FIXTURES FOR SALE

PRIVATE SALES AT ALL TIMES.

Three Auction Sales Daily,

Until all is sold: At 10 A. M., 2 P. M., 7:30 P. M.

LADIES SPECIALLY INVITED.

H. A. HATHAWAY, Auctioneer.

FOUR PER CENT

Per annum paid on time deposits, if left three months or longer, at

LEE BROS. & CO'S BANK,

BUCHANAN, MICH.

Strongest Bank in Southwestern Mich.

RESPONSIBILITY $500,000.

Remember we receive deposits from $1.00 upward in our Savings Bank Department. Start an account and watch it grow.

We solicit your account, whether large or small.

W. C. EDWARDS, Cashier.

NOTICE TO THE RUPTURED.

DR. W. W. KIRKMAN, from the O. E. Miller Co's Rupture Institute, who has visited this city before and treated with great success several prominent citizens, will be at the Earl House, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 15, 16 and 17, to treat and cure all rupture sufferers at reduced prices. References and trial free. New patients should call on him early.

FOR SALE, A first class Coal Heater, nearly new. Inquire of N. HAMILTON

EXCURSION TO CHICAGO.

A GRAND AFFAIR AND A GORGEOUS PAGEANT. The Michigan Central, "The Niles & Pullman Co's Rupture Institute, who has visited this city before and treated with great success several prominent citizens, will be at the Earl House, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 15, 16 and 17, to treat and cure all rupture sufferers at reduced prices. References and trial free. New patients should call on him early.

Chicago Day, October 9th will be signalized by a grand parade during the day, with many unique features, the business men of the city sparing no pains or expense to make the event one of the grandest and most not in its history. More than a hundred thousand persons are expected to be in line, in robes to the music of 150 uniformed bands. The veterans will turn out 5000 strong, forming living flags of brilliant color, while the different industries 500 floats carrying loads of goods. At 10 o'clock there will be a grand torchlight parade in which more than 20,000 cyclists are expected to participate. The electric cars will run at intervals, and a display as has never before been seen, embracing many novel and startling features. At the evening held in the honor of the event, Hon. C. M. Dewey will deliver the oration.

For special information, inquire of the Michigan Central ticket agent, E. F. PEACOCK, Local Agent, O. V. PUGGLES, Gen. Passenger and Ticket Agent, CHICAGO.

The M. C. R. R. Co. will sell excursion tickets to Kalamazoo, Nov. 17 and 18, limited to return until Nov. 20, at one first-class limited fare for the round trip. Account of the Michigan State Sunday School Association Annual Convention.

Van Vredenburg's Famous Painting. An exquisite reproduction in 14 colors of Van Vredenburg's oil painting, "Our Bench Show," representing a yard of beautiful puppies (size, 10x36 ins.), is given to every subscriber, with the December issue of Demorest's Magazine (published November 15). The issue is enlarged and bound in a beautifully printed cover, and is replete with illustrations and reading matter pertaining to the X-mas holidays. It is sold for 20c a copy. The Van Vredenburg picture alone in this one number is worth more than the price of a year's subscription. It is the cutest picture we have seen and appeals to every lover of art and to everyone who is fond of dogs. Any of our readers who wish this beautiful picture can, by cutting out this notice and sending it to the Demorest's Magazine, 110 Fifth Avenue, New York, with 20 cents in stamps, receive it by mail, carefully packed, and at the same time a copy of the X-mas Demorest. The magazine, by the way, has been phenomenally successful during the past year, having increased its subscription list to 150,000 names—a clear gain of 100,000. There must be something in a magazine that can Van Vredenburg's Famous Painting.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

CARMER & CARMER,

DEALERS IN

LADIES', GENTS' & CHILDREN'S

TURN, WELTS AND MCKAY

SHOES.

OUR FALL STYLES ARE BEAUTIFUL.

THE PRICES ARE RIGHT.

32 FRONT STREET, BUCHANAN, MICH.

WE DESIRE

TO CALL YOUR ATTENTION TO OUR

New Fall Fabrics,

IN NOVELTY DRESS PATTERNS, BRAIDS, BUTTONS AND SILKS.

We are also showing a new and complete assortment in all kinds of Staple Goods.

Prices Always the Lowest.

S. P. HIGH.

FALL STYLES.

WE CARRY THE LATEST STYLES IN

LADIES', MEN'S, BOYS', GIRLS' AND CHILDREN'S

SHOES

WE HAVE ALSO A FULL ASSORTMENT OF RUBBER GOODS & FELT BOOTS.

SEE US.

G. E. SMITH & CO.

BUY

OF E. S. ROE.

CAPES AND JACKETS.

Are the accepted stylish garments for this winter. We unquestionably show the greatest variety of them in Seal and Crushed Plush, Beaver, Kursey, Bonde, &c., ever displayed in our city. We particularly pride ourselves on the perfect fit from our lowest priced to the very best. It will pay you to investigate our line.

The Headquarters for Stylish Dress Goods

Is at "The Big Double Store," for you can there find all the latest productions of foreign and domestic manufacture at lowest possible prices.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's Shoes.

We have something new to show you in E. P. Reed & Co's Ladies' Fine Shoes for winter, combining the greatest amount of service, style and comfort.

A Thorough Test

Is what we ask you to make of our Clothing, for we are confident that such a test will demonstrate the fact that it is to your advantage to buy of us. Our complete stock of Men's, Youths' and Children's Suits and Overcoats are now in.

B. R. DESENBERG & BRO.,

The One Price Large Double Store.

DAUNTLESS

Revenue Cutter Close Behind the Vessel, WHICH IS A FILIBUSTERING ONE.

The Revenue Cutter Bowtell Is Under Orders to See that the Dauntless Does Not Stop in the St. John's River to Take on Arms for the Cubans—Butchered on an Awful Scale Being Perpetrated in Havana.

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 6.—The Cuban filibustering steamer Dauntless was seen Monday morning with the revenue cutter Bowtell close behind, under orders to see that she did not stop in the St. John's river to take on any of the arms or munitions which are stored up the Sisters creek, near the mouth of the river. Before leaving port the captain of the cutter notified the captain of the Dauntless that if he made any attempt to run away from the cutter while within the maritime jurisdiction of the United States he would sink the steamer. The captain of the Dauntless is reported to the collector of customs that he was going to Brunswick to pull off the sandbar several vessels that were driven ashore by the recent storm. The collector gave the Dauntless permission to leave port under escort of the cutter, but gave positive orders that she should not be allowed to leave it. The cutter has an extra supply of coal that had been placed in sacks ready for shipment. The coal was not on the wharf, but as soon as the Dauntless left port the cutter's vessel had the coal shipped by rail to Fernandina. The captain of the Dauntless is now under bond for carrying out an expedition from Brunswick Aug. 12. It was regarded as almost a certainty that the Dauntless will go to Fernandina, take on a supply of coal and then go to meet the Dauntless in the St. John's river. The men and cargo from the Laureada to Cuba.

Warships Watching the Suspect.
The United States man-of-war Newark arrived at the mouth of the St. John's river last night with instructions to follow the three vessels—the Dauntless, the Commodore, and the Three Friends. The Newark left Key West under sealed orders Saturday last, and Monday the commander of the Bowtell received word from the Newark would assist in watching the alleged filibustering fleet. The captain of the Commodore has applied to the collector of customs for permission to go to sea, as he has been requested by Major J. W. Sackett of the United States engineer corps at St. Augustine to go to Gilbert's bar to lay a government dredge to Cape Florida.

Collector Blabbe has not granted permission, as he has instructions from the treasury department to keep the Commodore clear of the coast until further orders. One of the owners of the Commodore said that the steamer was going to sea, and that if the cutter Bowtell attempted to stop the Commodore the cutter would better hold with solid shot, for they did not intend to be killed. The Dauntless and the Three Friends will follow the Bowtell, which will go on the way.

AWFUL BUTCHERIES.
Terrible Tales Told in a Letter Received from Havana.

Key West, Fla., Oct. 6.—Butcheries on an awful scale are being perpetrated nightly in Havana, according to a letter received here from one of the most reliable correspondents in the Cuban capital. Chief of Police La Barre, who was said to have been appointed because of his brutal nature by Weyler, is responsible for the butcheries, it is stated. La Barre's office corresponds to the chief of police, and the chief of police would accept the office under the conditions of cruelty imposed by Weyler. Every night at midnight the prisoners are taken out and put on the books as released. These individuals are guarded by one "celador"—police delegate—and two policemen, taken between 1 and 3 a. m. and taken to the harbor, where they are taken to the harbor, two blocks from the police headquarters. Once there the prisoners and three policemen step in a boat and take off their clothes and go to where, but after awhile the officers come back without the prisoners. This action has been watched night after night.

From the 1st of September to the 30th, eighty-three prisoners have disappeared in this way. Five were drowned on the night of Sept. 28. From the 1st of September to the 30th, 200 prisoners are taken out and drowned in the same way. The reason they are taken out of the harbor is on account of the number of sharks, which get hold of the bodies and leave no trace. The families of officers living in Morro Castle and the Cabanas have made a complaint of the lamentations they hear late in the night. The cries are attributed to prisoners being drowned. La Barre has five men under arrest on suspicion of putting in a dynamite bomb under a gas main. They are kept at the police station and tortured to make them confess. The torture consists of feeding them with dry bread and allowing them to drink water. No other food is allowed, and they die of starvation if they refuse to eat the bread. This is said to be a means employed by Weyler to produce the desired effect.

ENGLAND LEFT BEHIND.

The Car and Carriage Embark for Cherbourg, France.

Portsmouth, Eng., Oct. 6.—The inhabitants of this port, military, naval and civil, were astrait at an early hour Monday in order to witness the departure of the car and carriage for France. Their majesties passed the night on board the imperial yacht Pole Star. The weather was fine and cold, and all the vessels in the harbor were dressed in rainbow fashion from stem to stern, and the imperial yacht was given a hearty send off. The first lord of the admiralty, the Hon. George J. Goschen, on board the first-class cruiser Blenheim, started at 8:30 a. m. for the Nab lightship, where a fleet of fifty-two British warships assembled to see their majesties and escort them to mid channel. At the special request of the car there were no guards of honor mounted ashore, the only military display being a detachment of marines, which did sentry duty during the night and morning. The entire absence of ceremony connected with the departure of the car has been a surprise to the crowds ashore were not nearly as large as might otherwise have been expected. The Pole Star started at 7 a. m. and as she passed the various war vessels their tides or yards were manned and the imperial yacht given bugle salutes, while the band of the Pole Star played the effect of the British fleet. This was followed by the roaring of cannon salutes from the Inflexible, Victoria, and Hero and from the batteries ashore. The Duke of Connaught, on board the steam yacht Comet, accompanied the Pole Star to the mouth of the harbor and then returned to shore. The Pole Star then proceeded to sea, and the French fleet followed her to sea, and the French fleet from Cherbourg, which was to escort the imperial party to that port.

TYNAN RELEASED.
The Dynamite Suspect Now on His Way to America.

New York, Oct. 6.—Dispatches have been received by friends of P. J. P. Tynan stating that he has been released from prison in Barcelona, Spain, and is now on his way to this country. Mrs. Gertrude Kearney Saturday received the following cablegram from her husband, John Kearney, at Rotterdam: "I am returning for New York today." It is also expected that Edward J. Ivory, now in jail in London, and Haines, the other suspect, under arrest at Rotterdam, will be liberated on Monday.

ENDED IN A HORROR.

SANTA FE TRAIN WAS HELD UP IN NEW MEXICO.

And When Near Osaage City, Kan., the Boiler of the Locomotive Exploded Killing Six People—One of the Injured Passengers Killed Instantly—Wild Plunge of the Locomotive.

Osaage City, Kan., Oct. 6.—Santa Fe train No. 2, which was held up in New Mexico Friday night, was wrecked at Peterson, two miles east of this city, at 4:45 o'clock Sunday morning, and the engineer, fireman, and four tramps were killed. Four other persons were injured, and as a result of the accident one passenger shot and killed himself an hour after the wreck. The engine, baggage car, mail car, express car, and one passenger car were totally wrecked. Following is the list of killed and injured:

Olmehead Hollister, fireman, Topeka; William McAdams, coal miner, of Ottumwa; George Strunk, engineer, of Topeka; tramp, supposed from papers on him to be Louis Werner of Odin, Kan., 3123 W. 12th street, Kansas City; tramp, in pocket were found papers bearing the name of W. J. Davis and a cabinet photograph of a little boy taken by E. L. Land, Atchafalpa, Kan., Chicago, boy, 13 years old, name unknown.

Wilfred Burson, son of Conductor Burson of Great Bend, Kan., both legs cut and bruised, not dangerously; James Coleman, colored, of Osaage City, Kan., left port the owner of the editor of The Evening Telegraph, Colorado Springs, hand cut trying to break open a window after the wreck; Louis Williams, of Osaage City, Kan., badly injured. All these were beating their way except the engineer, fireman and Mrs. Maxwell. Besides these there lies dead on the wreckage are the tramps William Becker, who was a passenger in one of the day coaches, and who shot himself an hour after the wreck. The passengers in the day coaches were taken care of by the Pullman agent, Mr. Scott. Scott began to say that he was badly hurt, but examination failed to show any hurt. He then handed his purse to one of the passengers, telling him to send it to S. S. Rogers of some town in California, the name of which the passenger could not recall. The man then returned the car. It was noticed that he had a small single-barreled 22-caliber pistol in his hand. He placed it to his right temple and fired, killing himself instantly. His hat was a paper bearing the name of William Becker, Sioux Falls, S. D.

The injured exploded. A report went to the scene of the disaster early in the morning. The mail and express cars were telescoped and lying over on their sides by the track, while near them and on the wreckage were the bodies of the passengers, some badly wrecked and another passenger car only slightly injured. Underneath the hindmost of these passenger cars was extended a terrific explosion. Here the boiler of the engine had exploded. The engine had been blown into the air and had come down and first 200 feet farther on. At this point there was a hole, five feet deep and eight or ten feet across, where the nose of the engine dived through the ground, and the engine and heavy steel rails as though they had been cut. Then the engine must have turned a somersault, for it righted itself, and was found about 100 feet farther on, where it had struck a hole in the ground for a coal chute and knocked a corner out of it. The building had been struck near the top, showing that the engine had turned after it had first struck the ground. The cause of the explosion, the accident had been caused by dynamite, but the boiler of the engine showed that it had exploded.

NO LIVE STOCK SHOW.
It Will Not Be Held as Planned This Year.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—The loving of cattle, the bleating of sheep, the grunting of pigs, and the lowing of cows, live stock shows which are the vital part of a live stock show will not be heard in the collection from Nov. 9 to 12, when the state board of agriculture planned the live stock show. This announcement is made simultaneously with the news that the Springfield state fair, which closed last week. After looking over finances and discovering that the collection was not proffered the guaranty of $30,000 promised last June, the state board, in session in Springfield, canvassed the exhibitors at the state fair and found that the limited time now remaining would not be sufficient for preparation, and took action on Friday night. President J. Irving Pierce of the board, who is in Chicago Sunday with the tidings. He particularly regretted the failure of the enterprise, as it had been expected to prove a world-wonder, by far greater than any previous exhibition exhibition ever held.

Accident at a Barn Raising.
Wooster, O., Oct. 6.—While raising a barn on the farm of Daniel Wiley, near West Canaan, O., the frame work broke just as the men were about to put the beams in position, letting the heavy mass of oak timber fall upon twenty men engaged in the work. All of them received injuries, and several of them having limbs broken. Cyrus Evers, who had his jaw broken, and Henry Snell, all of the ribs of his left side, it is thought, will die. The accident was witnessed by 300 people who had gathered to assist in the work.

Filled Their Protest.
Albany, N. Y., Oct. 6.—The protest of the regular democratic committee against the use of the word "Democrat" by the gold standard advocates on the official ballot was filed with the secretary of state. A hearing on the protest will probably be given on Wednesday of next week.

Buy Out Mohammedans.
Berlin, Oct. 6.—The Kölnische Zeitung asserts that the Greeks propose to appeal to the Christians of Europe and America to subscribe $100,000,000 in order to buy out all the Mohammedan land owners in the island of Crete.

To Guard the Mines with Cannon.
Leadville, Colo., Oct. 6.—General Brooks and his staff have been ordered to make provisions for defending the endangered mines by placing cannon on Carbonate hill, which commands most of them. The next object of the military is to attack the mine, is pretty well understood to be the great pumping plant of the Maid of Erin mines, which drains the mines. The pumps belong to the Smith-McCormick & Co. mines named. If these pumps were crippled, the ruin of the mines by water would reduce the normal production of the camp fully.

Failure in Carpets.
New Orleans, Oct. 3.—A. R. Brosseau, one of the largest carpet dealers in New Orleans, has made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. His assets are $90,421, liabilities, $246,042. Of the liabilities $154,024 are unsecured and $132,221 secured by mortgages on real estate and pledges of securities. Mr. Brosseau is a half brother of Justice E. D. White of the United States supreme court, who was summoned here from Washington to look into Mr. Brosseau's affairs.

Terror in Havana.
Havana, Oct. 6.—Havana is in terror since the late decisive battle between the Cuban and Spanish troops, when, for the first time, dynamite guns were used, ending in a complete victory for the Cubans, led by General Maceo in person. Havana has been hourly expecting Maceo's hordes down upon the city, and the people are in a state of constant alarm. The Cuban course is evidently run. The Cubans are in control. Later advice from Madrid says that it was Lopez, the insurgent leader, and not General Maceo, who was killed in the engagement at the reserve plantation.

"SIXTEEN TO ONE."

We'll coin the silver we have got and all that we can get. We'll make the dollar of our duds' and summer you can bet. Some say 'twill bust the country, and the devil too to pay. "In God we trust" we'll stamp on it, such luck to keep away. We're worth a hundred times the head and all is said and done. And we'll coin the bloom silver, boys, twice sixteen to one.

And, furthermore, to set the pace and spite the goldbug crowd And prove that we are patriots and show we can do it. We'll copper coin and place the stamp upon our bloom silver boys. (If we've got no cents (sense) at all, we've got no end of brass.) So brassities we are, says I. Just let us take the mun, and we'll coin the bloom silver, boys, at sixteen to one.

And with the iron and steel we find where we may move. We'll coin the lucky horseshoe and the old cracked cooking stove. And when we've cleaned these scrap heaps up, we'll turn ourselves about And set the furnace ablaze and run the mill. Pigeons we be, says I, says we, and then we'll have some fun. As we coin the bloom silver, boys, at sixteen to one.

And there is paper, too, my boys, that may be made from rags; So we may coin our cast off duds and have some royal rags. Of wood pulp, too, is paper made; so we'll cut our forests down. And when we've made the money make the shade trees of our town. We're pulpists or populists, and if you want some more, we'll stamp the bloom paper, boys, at sixteen to one.

With this "good money" talk we hear that now is going round. We do agree—at least we like the very name. And so we'll shout and shout, my boys, to win the voting herd. And when we're full of promises and words, words, words. But words are wind, and so with wind, we'll liquidate our bloom debts. At sixteen to one.

Nothing in It for Wage-Earners.
Mr. Bryan has claimed that the free coinage of silver would benefit the working people. How they would secure anything from the free coinage of silver he does not say, perhaps because he does not know the answer. In the great risk involved, the storekeeper, by charging high prices for his goods and by paying low prices for farm products, really gets from 25 to 40 per cent. interest on the credit given to the farmer. Of course, the storekeeper is up all of the profits of a large class of farmers.

The country storekeeper really does a banking business in a clumsy and costly way. Local banks, such as exist in Canada, could furnish the same service with credits at about one-fourth the cost of store credits. With such banks the farmers would sell their crops for checks, deposit them in banks and take up their discounted notes in this way. The farmer knows nothing of this method of conducting his business. He thinks that his needs can be supplied only by making more money—cheaper money, if necessary.

The farmers, therefore, make no efforts to obtain better banking facilities. Instead, they work as hard against banks and banks at every opportunity. They tax money and other loanable capital at two or 2½ per cent. while demanding that interest be reduced to two per cent. They thus drive away the very money they are so eager to get.

Democratization of Silver.
Silver was not democratized by a conspiracy nor clandestinely; neither have the results been as they are claimed by the free silver men. Silver was democratized by Great Britain, 400 years ago, because it was found, because two barbed sticks of unequal length or two bushels of unequal quantity is an absurdity, an obstacle to business and commerce. All the civilized nations have tried the same experiment with the double standard and have found it a failure, a snare and have come to the single gold standard as a better thing.

The civilized world is now using more silver, has sounder money and lower interest than ever before in the history of mankind. It is not to return to the double standard is reactionary, illogical and irrational and will not succeed. Revolutions go forward, not backward.—Madison (Ind.) Courier.

Bushels and Dollars.
A great proportion of the American people work for wages, salaries or other fixed incomes.

Suppose that all these incomes were fixed in bushels of grain—so many bushels of grain per day or per week.

Suppose it had been the custom to pay wages in wheat.

Suppose a change was made to corn. The number of bushels remaining the same.

Would not this reduce wages by just the difference between the value of wheat and corn?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

PUTTING RINGS ON THE RIGHT HOGS.

THE FARMER'S REAL GRIEVANCE

Not a Lack of Money But of Banking Facilities in Country Districts.

Why has Canada no currency question, no cry for cheap money and no campaign against gold? These are questions which Mr. Thomas G. Shearman answers very effectively in the London Times of September 11.

Briefly summarized, Mr. Shearman's explanation of the discontent among farmers, which has led to the ridiculous demand for free silver, is that most farmers in the west and south are deprived of the benefits of banking facilities. They seldom see or use a check and are unequalled with the benefits of banks and bank credits. For this reason there is a great scarcity of currency in most rural districts. The "country store" supplies in part and in a crude and costly way the credits which rural farmers receive from one season to another. Because of the great risk involved, the storekeeper, by charging high prices for his goods and by paying low prices for farm products, really gets from 25 to 40 per cent. interest on the credit given to the farmer. Of course, the storekeeper is up all of the profits of a large class of farmers.

The country storekeeper really does a banking business in a clumsy and costly way. Local banks, such as exist in Canada, could furnish the same service with credits at about one-fourth the cost of store credits. With such banks the farmers would sell their crops for checks, deposit them in banks and take up their discounted notes in this way. The farmer knows nothing of this method of conducting his business. He thinks that his needs can be supplied only by making more money—cheaper money, if necessary.

The farmers, therefore, make no efforts to obtain better banking facilities. Instead, they work as hard against banks and banks at every opportunity. They tax money and other loanable capital at two or 2½ per cent. while demanding that interest be reduced to two per cent. They thus drive away the very money they are so eager to get.

Democratization of Silver.
Silver was not democratized by a conspiracy nor clandestinely; neither have the results been as they are claimed by the free silver men.

Silver was democratized by Great Britain, 400 years ago, because it was found, because two barbed sticks of unequal length or two bushels of unequal quantity is an absurdity, an obstacle to business and commerce. All the civilized nations have tried the same experiment with the double standard and have found it a failure, a snare and have come to the single gold standard as a better thing.

The civilized world is now using more silver, has sounder money and lower interest than ever before in the history of mankind. It is not to return to the double standard is reactionary, illogical and irrational and will not succeed. Revolutions go forward, not backward.—Madison (Ind.) Courier.

Bushels and Dollars.
A great proportion of the American people work for wages, salaries or other fixed incomes.

Suppose that all these incomes were fixed in bushels of grain—so many bushels of grain per day or per week.

Suppose it had been the custom to pay wages in wheat.

Suppose a change was made to corn. The number of bushels remaining the same.

Would not this reduce wages by just the difference between the value of wheat and corn?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

PUTTING RINGS ON THE RIGHT HOGS.

THE FARMER'S REAL GRIEVANCE

Not a Lack of Money But of Banking Facilities in Country Districts.

Why has Canada no currency question, no cry for cheap money and no campaign against gold? These are questions which Mr. Thomas G. Shearman answers very effectively in the London Times of September 11.

Briefly summarized, Mr. Shearman's explanation of the discontent among farmers, which has led to the ridiculous demand for free silver, is that most farmers in the west and south are deprived of the benefits of banking facilities. They seldom see or use a check and are unequalled with the benefits of banks and bank credits. For this reason there is a great scarcity of currency in most rural districts. The "country store" supplies in part and in a crude and costly way the credits which rural farmers receive from one season to another. Because of the great risk involved, the storekeeper, by charging high prices for his goods and by paying low prices for farm products, really gets from 25 to 40 per cent. interest on the credit given to the farmer. Of course, the storekeeper is up all of the profits of a large class of farmers.

The country storekeeper really does a banking business in a clumsy and costly way. Local banks, such as exist in Canada, could furnish the same service with credits at about one-fourth the cost of store credits. With such banks the farmers would sell their crops for checks, deposit them in banks and take up their discounted notes in this way. The farmer knows nothing of this method of conducting his business. He thinks that his needs can be supplied only by making more money—cheaper money, if necessary.

The farmers, therefore, make no efforts to obtain better banking facilities. Instead, they work as hard against banks and banks at every opportunity. They tax money and other loanable capital at two or 2½ per cent. while demanding that interest be reduced to two per cent. They thus drive away the very money they are so eager to get.

Democratization of Silver.
Silver was not democratized by a conspiracy nor clandestinely; neither have the results been as they are claimed by the free silver men.

Silver was democratized by Great Britain, 400 years ago, because it was found, because two barbed sticks of unequal length or two bushels of unequal quantity is an absurdity, an obstacle to business and commerce. All the civilized nations have tried the same experiment with the double standard and have found it a failure, a snare and have come to the single gold standard as a better thing.

The civilized world is now using more silver, has sounder money and lower interest than ever before in the history of mankind. It is not to return to the double standard is reactionary, illogical and irrational and will not succeed. Revolutions go forward, not backward.—Madison (Ind.) Courier.

Bushels and Dollars.
A great proportion of the American people work for wages, salaries or other fixed incomes.

Suppose that all these incomes were fixed in bushels of grain—so many bushels of grain per day or per week.

Suppose it had been the custom to pay wages in wheat.

Suppose a change was made to corn. The number of bushels remaining the same.

Would not this reduce wages by just the difference between the value of wheat and corn?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

Isn't this what would happen if we changed from the present full dollar standard to a gold standard?

SWIM OUT, OH, BRYAN.

I am a wondrous craft upon The sea of politics. And for the sawed-off dollar, sure, I'm putting in big blocks. My voice is my protector, and The foe I never fear; For every day my friends all stoop To whisper in my ear:

"Swim out, oh, Bryan! Swim out and don't you care; Your metaphors will put you in The presidential chair. Just chase the vicious goldbugs And grab 'em by the hair; So swim out, oh, Bryan, Swim out!"

I am the greatest orator That ever spooned a speech. I have similes original By the scores within my reach. Original by some one else; But that fact doesn't queer My friends, who stoop to pat my back And whisper in my ear:

"Swim out, oh, Bryan! Swim out and bruise the air, Fill all the world with words, my boy. But now that I am started, 'twill Be hard to stop, I fear. Especially while my friends insist And whisper in my ear:

"Swim out, oh, Bryan! Swim out for everywhere! Tear up the United States and spread Its words upon the air; Just chatter on incessantly, Your lungs will win, we swear! So swim out, oh, Bryan, Swim out!"

I'm sorry for the atmosphere; It's overworked, I know. My words have raised a mighty heat And set the sun aglow. Fear up the United States and spread Its words upon the air; Just chatter on incessantly, Your lungs will win, we swear! So swim out, oh, Bryan, Swim out!"

"Swim out, oh, Bryan! Swim out for everywhere! Tear up the United States and spread Its words upon the air; Just chatter on incessantly, Your lungs will win, we swear! So swim out, oh, Bryan, Swim out!"

"Swim out, oh, Bryan! Swim out for everywhere! Tear up the United States and spread Its words upon the air; Just chatter on incessantly, Your lungs will win, we swear! So swim out, oh, Bryan, Swim out!"

DARING HOLD-UP.
Paymaster Robbed of $2,500 While Riding.

Huntington, W. Va., Sept. 22.—Holding up occurred on the Short Line railway between Sewall and Cliff Top, eight miles from the city. Joe Thompson, who came from the west about a year ago, learned that W. L. Wilson, bookkeeper and paymaster of the Longdale Iron company at Cliff Top, was going up the road to pay off the men.

Wilson had $2,500 with him and rode on the engine. When the train reached a lonely spot in the mountains Thompson, who had boarded the train held up the money and the engine and the two men. He suddenly grabbed the money from Wilson and jumped from the engine. Wilson shot at Thompson but missed twice and Wilson returned the fire, shooting Wilson fatally. Thompson made his escape.

A Thompson Buttery.
We have heard of tame fiascos and performing midgets, but the following authentic story of a tame butterfly, told by a French lady, has novel elements in it.

I found in my garden a magnificent butterfly, quite new with cold. Taking it into the house and putting it in a box for two hours revived the little thing. The butterfly dipped its antennae in a solution of silver and sugar, and continued this treatment for three days. On the fourth day the creature fluttered on to my hand and sucked the liquor of its own accord, and after this it became perfectly tame. I put flowers into my garden, and it fed on them, and was perfectly tame. I was very happy. I could pass my finger down its back without the slightest fear the butterfly might take to wing. In fact, it arched its back as does a cat when it is pleased. After three weeks of perfect tameness the colors faded, its wings shriveled up, and it died.

What next, oh wonderers? A butterfly arching its back when stroked by a human hand is surely a phenomenon that seems to give promise of all kinds of possibilities. Scientists and variety artists take note. Washington, D. C.

Salisbury and the Great Grand.
London, Oct. 6.—The Chronicle says that it learns from a good source that the earl and Lord Salisbury have agreed upon a policy for the ultimate disposition of the sultan.

Deafness Can't Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube is inflamed, it swells and shuts off the normal drainage of