BUCHANAN RECORD

BUCHANAN, BERRIEN COUNTY, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1896.

Majority for the Ohioan. EASTERN STATES SOLID FOR HIM.

Illinois Leads Off in the West with a Plurality of Over One Hundred Thousand.

BRYAN CARRIES HIS OWN STATE.

Kausas May Also Go for Him When the Returns Are All in-Kentucky Is Very Close with McKinley in the Lead-Plurality for the Ohioan in New York Foots Up 303,000 with Pennsylvania Not Very Far Behind-Tanner Wins in Illinois and Pingree in Michigan.

Chicago, Nov. 4.-William McKinley has been elected president and Garret A. Hobart vice president of the United States by a majority so large that it cannot be questioned. It is evident also that the Republican plurality of the popular vote will be great, approximating 1,000,000. The middle west has joined hands with the east, and the solid south has been broken.

The eastern states, as was expected all roll up big majorities. New York occupies the post of honor with the record-breaking plurality of 305,000. Pennslyvania is close behind. Massachusetts gives a plurality for McKinley proportionately as large. Even Delaware, despite the Addicks-Higgins fight, comes in the Republican fold. Kentucky and Maryland. Kentucky and Marylandare conceded to McKinley by good majorities. Tennessee is close, and the early returns gave much hope to the Republican tee, the latter claiming by 20,000. Later returns indicate the probability that it will go to Bryan. North Carolina is claimed by the Republican-Populist fusionists. plurality of over 100,000, followed by Iowa, Ohio, and Wisconsin. Minnesota gives a plurality for McKinley Michigan gives McKinley its electoral vote, and Indiana also.

North Dakota remains in the Republican column. South Dakota is in doubt as yet, but the chances are strongly in favor of McKinley. Kansas May Go for Bryan. In Bryan's own state, Nebraska, the Democrats are confident of a fair majority there. Kansas may go for Bryan when the returns are all in. Missouri votes for Bryan. The Rocky Mountain states, with the possible exception of Wyoming, are The fight is close on the Pacific coast. Oregon has gone for McKinley, but Washington seems to have given its franchise to Mr. Bryan. California is claimed by both parties, but appears to have gone for McKinley. Despite this wonderfully large number of close states the elction of Mc-Kinley is beyond all question safe by a large majority in the electoral col-

RESULT IN ILLINOIS.

Tanner Runs Ahead of McKinley Outside of Cook County. Chicago, Nov. 4.-The entire Republican state ticket floated in on the crested of the McKinley wave. The following ticket, headed by John R. Tanner, was chosen by majorities that keep in the vicinity of McKinley's vote. Tanner fell behind in Cook county, as the politicians had predicted, but to the surprise of nearly every one, he ran ahead of McKinley in nearly all the counties outside of Cook county, while Governor Altgeld's name appears to have been "scratched" by the rural voters to an extent that put him behind his ticket in nearly all the counties outside of Cook. The Republican ticket elected was: Governor, John R. Tanner; lieutenant governor, William A. Northcott; secretary of state, James A. Rose; auditor, James S. McCullough; state treasurer, Henry L. Hertz; attorney general, Edward C. Akin; trustees of the University of Illinois, Mary Turner Carriell, Thomas J. Smith, Francis M. McKay; clerk of the supreme court, northern grand division, Christopher Mamer. Incomplete returns from the state indicate a majority for McKinley and the state ticket ranging from 100,000 to 125,-000. It remains to be seen how Tanner's vote will compare with McKinley's, but it is not unlikely that his losses in Cook will be offset by his gains in the country districts, bringing his majority very close to McKinley's in the entire state. The Republicans are claiming also a safe majority in the legislature, which insures Shelby M. Cullom a Republican colleague from Illinois in the United States senate after March 4, when John M. Palmer's time expires.

EMPIRE STATE WILL BE 303,000. New York Will Give Major McKinley Than

Plurality. New York, Nov. 4.-With less than one-fourth of the election districts above the Harlem river to hear from and with the vote of New York city and Kings county complete, the plu-rality of McKinley over Bryan promises to exceed 303,000 in the state. One county in the state, Schoharie, which is the home of Chairman Danforth of the state Democratic committee, has given Bryan a plurality of 500. New York city has broken its political record of presidential elections. It has given a Republican plurality for president for the first time in its his-

Corrected returns from the Second district in this state show the election of Dennis M. Hurley, Rep., to congress. This makes the total congressional returns in New York state 29 Republic-

IN THE BUCKEYE STATE McKinley's Plurality Is Estimated at from 50,000 to 60,000.

Columbus, O., Nov. 4.-More returns reduce the Republican plurality from what was claimed Tuesday night by about one-third. The returns from cities were received Tuesday night and the reutrns from the rural districts Wednesday, increasing the Democratic vote so that McKinley's plurality is now estimated at from 50,000 to 60,000. The Democratic state committee claim they will make gains over the vote of the last three years. The Democrats claim four to five out of ten congressmen, and the Republicans concede three congressmen to them. When the Republicans carried Ohio two years ago by 137,000 the Democrats elected only two congressmen. The Demo-Returns Show an Overwhelming crats claim the election of George W. Marshall, David Meekison, James A. Norton, and James McDowell in the Fourth, Fifth, Thirteenth, and Seventeenth districts, and that the results in the Third and Twelfth districts are in doubt.

IN BRYAN'S OWN STATE.

Fusionists Secure Almost Everything and Bryan Has a Handsome Plurality. Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 4.-Chairman Post of the Republican state committee conceded Nebraska to the fusion ticket on presidential electors and governor. He says the legislature and the congressional tickets are still in doubt. It appears quite certain, however, that the Populists will get four of the six if not the entire six.

congressmen and they may have five Returns from the state are still quite meager, though almost all those received show material Republican losses. The Republicans have complete returns from only 235 election precincts out of a total of 1,600. These give a Republican plurality of 2,450, but they indicate losses and they do not show the large losses in Douglas and Lancaster counties, in which the cities of Omaha and Lincoln are situated. Judge Post does not concede the entire state ticket, but the opposition claims it all and also the legislature and all the congressmen. It looks as if the fusionists would secure almost everything, and it is certain that Mr. Bryan's own state will give him a handsome plurality.

Chairman Dahlman of the Nebraska Democratic state committee telephoned Mr. Bryan from Omaha headquarters Wednesday that the state was safe for him and for Governor Holcombe's re-election by from 12,000 to 15,000 majority. Dahlman claims all six congressmen, except Duffie in the Omaha district, whose possible defeat he concedes. The Democrats claim Broady's election in the Lincoln district, and there is little doubt of his success. The Republicans practically concede the other four.

RAN AHEAD OF HIS TICKET. Pingree's Plurality in Michigan Estimated

at 58,000. Detroit, Nov. 4.-Returns, incomplete as yet, from the eighty-three counties of Michigan indicate McKinley's plurality in Michigan to be 40,000. The same returns give Pingree for governor an estimated plurality of 58,000. That Pingree should have run decidedly ahead of his ticket generally throughout the state is regarded as something of a surprise in view of the combined interests allied against him. In Detroit Pingree got more votes than he ever received in his candidacy for mayor. In 128 precincts of this county Pingree received 37,923 to 19,134 for Sligh: McKinley 33,658, Bryan 24,417. The Republican state ticket ran considerably behind Pingree's vote, and several thousand behind the McKinley vote. The Republican members of congress are elected in each of the twelve districts of the state, except the Third and Eighth. In the Eighth the issue is still doubtful between Congressman Linton and Ferdinand Brucker. Wayne county elected the entire Republican delgation to the legislature, ten representatives and four senators, although ex-Mayor William G. Thompson narrowly escaped defeat. The legislature will be overwhelmingly Republican, but by what majority is not

THIRTY THOUSAND IN INDIANA. State Goes for McKinley — Republicans

Elect Congressmen. Indianapolis, Nov. 4.-Four hundred out of the 3,115 precincts in Indiana outside of Marion county (Indianapolis) show a net Republican gain of 4,-179; a trifle over ten to a precinct. This ratio of Republican gain has been kept up and it it continues will give the state to McKinley by over 30,000. With such a heavy Republican vote over the state the Republicans have probably all the congressional candidates. though there is doubt about Sulzer in the Fourth district, Tracewell in the Third and Landis in the Ninth. There is little doubt that Johnson is re-elected in the Sixth. The Republicans will have a majority in the legislature which the Republican managers place at 42 on joint ballot. Marion county will probably give a Republican majority of 7,000, which is a big increase over the last vote.

Late returns Wednesday afternoor indicated heavy Democratic gains in southern Indiana strongholds. will reduce the estimates of a big Re publican plurality early in the day, but from present indications it will not effect the general result, which is that McKinley has carried the state. The Republicans probably elect nine con-

KENTUCKY FOR M'KINLEY. Republicans Claim the State by a Plurality of from 2,000 to 3,000. Louisville, Ky., Nov. 4.-At this hour Kentucky seems safe for McKinley. though the majority is too close; in 1,265 precincts out of 1,663 his plurality is 3,506. By the election the Republicans will probably be enabled to elect a Republican to the United States senate to succeed Senator Blackburn. Latest returns from Owen and Henry counties, in the Seventh district, show Bryan majorities of 2,250 and 398 respectively, which easily overcomes Breckinridge's lead and elects Settle, Dem., to congress by about 1.500. At 1:30 p. m. the Republican state committee had revised figures, and now claim the state for McKinley by from 2,000 to 3,000. The congressional situation is unchanged.

Incomplete Missouri Returns. St. Louis, Nov. 4.-Missouri returns are very incomplete, but it is known without doubt that St. Louis has given McKinley from 12,000 to 25,000 plurality, the former being conceded by the ocrats, and the latter claimed by the Republicans. There seems to be no doubt that two of the three congressmen in St. Louis will be Republican-Rartholdt in the Tenth district and Pearce in the Twelfth district. Congressman Joy, Rep., appears to have been defeated by Hunt, Dem., according to the latest returns. Out of 2,040 precincts outside of St. Louis, but 545 have been heard from. These give Bryan, 64,393; McKinley, 50,989; Steph-

Lewis, Rep., 44,959. Connecticut Gives McKinley 54,000. Hartford, Conn., Nov. 4.—Chairman Fyler of the Republican state committee made the following statement:

With every town but one heard from McKinley has 54,000 majority in Connecticut and about 53,000 majority for Cooke for governor. Four Republican congressmen are elected by majorities ranging from 8,000 to 16,000. The legislature will be about 225 out of 252 representatives and the senate wholly Re-

California for McKinley. San Francisco, Nov. 4.—California has joined the east in the McKinley landslide and its majority for the Republican standard bearer will pass 5,-000 at least. Many of the counties have not yet sent in returns, but the more populous and those in which the fate of the Republicans hinged, have all been heard from, and swell the Republican majority to a point where nothing to come later can possibly dis-McKinley's Plurality in Pennsylvania. Philadelphia, Nov. 4.-Estimates from every county in the state give Mc-Kinley an apparent plurality of 266,-950. The great size of the ticket made counting necessarily slow and the estimates in many countics are undoubtedly below the actual Republican pluralities. There is every reason to be-lieve that the official returns will show a plarality for McKinley of nearly 280,-600. The legislature is almost entirely Republican, the Democratic representatives not exceeding 10 per cent. in membership in the lower house of 204. Clough May Lose in Minnesota.

Minneapolis, Nov. 4.—Estimates on thirty-four out of eighty-one counties in Minnesota give McKinley a majority of 13,405 over Bryan. Clough for governor is 11,000 behind this. As many counties to be heard from are fusion strongholds Clough may yet lose to Chairman Bixby claims Clough's election by 11,000 and the electoral vote for McKinley by 30,000. Congressman Towne claims his own election to congress in the Duluth district. New Jersey Returns. Trenton, N. J., Nov. 4.-Revised returns give McKinley a plurality of 68,-000 in New Jersey, Monmouth county gives McKinley 110, but the state senatorship is in doubt. The Republicans have elected seven congressmen sure and the result in the Seventh district between Young, Dem., McKwan, Rep., is in doubt. Both claim the election. The plurality of 26,000 given Criggs, Rep., for governor last year, is more than doubled.

Maryland for McKinley. Baltimore, Nov. 4.-McKinley has carried Maryland by at least 18 000 majority. And from present prospects it looks as if Chairman Wellington was McKinley Ahead in Oregon. Portland, Or., Nov. 4.-Nearly threefourths of the total vote of Oregon has been received. McKinley, 32,133; Bryan, 27,409; McKinley's plurality, 4,-724. Palmer's vote in the state will be about 100. It is estimated that the precincts yet to be heard from will reduce McKinley's plurality 1,500, making his plurality in the state 3,200. The Hawkeye State.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 4.-All the Republican congressmen in Iowa are known to be elected beyond all doubt, and McKinley's plurality in the state is estimated at from 80,000 to 90,000. The state ticket is likely to run slightly ahead of the national, owing to Palmer Democrats voting the Republican state Bryan Carries Utah.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 4.-Incomplete returns from the city and some parts of the state seem to leave no doubt that Bryan has carried the state by from 15,000 to 20,000 majoriy; that King, Democrat, has been elected to congress and that the Democrats have elected a majority in the legislature. The Florida Election. St. Augustine, Fla., Nov. 4.—Seventy precincts out of 649 give Bryan 4,752; McKinley, 2,474; net Democratic loss, Congressmen-First, Sparkman, Dem.: Second, Davis, Dem. Key West complete gives McKinley 13 majority. Indications are Bryan's majority in the state will be 50 per cent. less than Bloxham, Dem., for governor, in October. Palmer and Buckner's vote will be under 1,000, and Prohibition vote insignificant. Nevada Returns Will Be Late.

San Francisco, Nov. 4.—Returns from Nevada will not be complete for ten days, owing to few railroads and telegraph lines. Newlands, silver, is certainly elected congressman, and according to best estimates thirty out of the forty-five members of the legislature will be Democratic. No reasonable doubt but that Bryan has carried the state.

Democrats Claim Ter Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 4.-Returns received form the state are very meas er. The Democrats are claiming the state for Bryan, and there is a probability that he will get a small plurality The Republicans still claim the state by a small plurality and are more confident of the election of their candidate for governor.

North Carolina Washington, Nov. 4 .- A special from Raleigh, N. C., says that advices received by Republicans say returns from twenty-one counties in the state not extravagant in his estimate when he claimed the state for the Republican ticket by 25,000. He now names $5,000 as the possible limit. The indications also are that Maryland will send a solid Republican delegation to the next house of representatives.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 4 .- It seems practically certain that Bryan has carried Kansas by a small majority. Chairman Briedenthal of the Democratic state committee claims the state by 13,000. Chairman Simpson of the Republican state committee, however, refuses to surrender, and declares that complete returns will show a victory for the Republicans. Returns generally indicate Bryan Vote Larger Than Expected. Yankton, S. D., Nov. 4.-The Republican majority in South Dakota suffered a loss and contactive estimates now place McKinley's inajority at from 3.000 to 5.000. Congressman Gamble has wired the chairman of the Republican congressional committee that the Republican state electoral and congressional tickets are elected by safe majority. The Bryan vote is much larger than anticipated.

Colorado for Bryan by Over 100,000. Denver. Nov. 4.—Scattering returns show that Bryan and Sewall have carried Colorado by over 100,000 plurality in a total vote of about 175,000. No effort has yet been made to tabulate the returns. The Democratic-Silver Republican fusion state ticket, headed by Alva Adams, Democratic candidate for governor, apparently has a plurality of 12,000 over the Populist-Silver party fu-

One Democratic Elector in Delaware. Washington, Nov. 4.-Chairman Faulkner of the Democratic congressional committee has received a telegram from Handy, Democratic candidate for congress from Delaware, stat ing that he has been elected and that the Democrats carry one elector in Delaware. This is on account of some disarrangement of the ballot where two Republican names appeared. Fusion Carries in Arkansas. Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 4.-The fusion ticket in Arkansas was elected Tuesday by a majority of from 25,000 to 30,000. Returns from over the state ens, Dem., for governor, 55,275, and indicate that about the usual vote was polled. A few counties show a slight increase over the September election. The Democratic candidates for congress were all elected by good majeritru, Light Vote in Louisiana. New Orleans, Nov. 4 .- The election Tuesday was the most peaceable and quiet ever held in the state. In the country parishes the Australian ballot had the effect of keeping many negroes away from the polls, resulting in light vote.

Bryan Wins in Washington. Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 4.-Sullivan. Republican candidate for governor, concedes the election of Rogers, his fusion opponent. Bryan and the fusion state ticket have apparently carried the state by a majority of less than 5.-

Bryan's Majority in Virginia. Richmond, Va., Nov. 4.-Returns are still coming in slowly. Bryan's majorty probably will reach 25,000. Eight Democratic congressmen are certainly elected. The Republicans probably carry the Ninth and Tenth districts. Count Slow in Texas. Dallas, Tex., Nov. 4.-The count is slow, nothing official can be obtained, and it is hard to estimate the result in Dallas. Bryan will carry the state by nearly 50,000, with the Democratic state ticket somewhat behind. Republican Gains in West Virginia Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 4.-Returns from the state, which are slow, show Republican gains over 1892, and there is a strong probability that the state has gone for McKinley.

New Hampshire Concord, N. H., Nov. 4.-On the face of returns McKinley carries New Hamshire by 25,000. Ramsdell for governor has 20,000 plurality.

Alahama. Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 4.—The majority for Bryan will probably not much

Washington, Nov. 4.—Chairman Babcock received a dispatch from Detriot Wednesday saying that Corliss in the First district, Spaulding in the Second Hamilton in the Fourth, Smith in the Fifth, Snover in the Seventh, Bishon in the Ninth, Crump in the Tenth, Mesick in the Eleventh, and Sheldon in the Twelfth, all Republicans, are elected to congress. Also that Todd, fusion had defeated Milnes, Rep., in the Third,

Some of the Early Morning Scenes at Canton.

PARADE OF THE TIPPECANOE CLUB

It Passes McKinley's House at 4 o'clock in the Morning and the President-Elect Reviews It from the Roof of His Porch-Mr. Brya. Rises Early at His Home in Lincoln, Neb., and Receives Callers-Encouraging Telegrams.

Canton, O., Nov. 4.-Major McKinley was about the house by 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, after three hours of naps broken by the demonstrations all around him. At 4 o'clock Wednesday morning he had stood on the roof of his porch reviewing the Tippecanoe club, 1,000 strong, from Cleveland. It was a stirring scene in the gray of the morning. Major McKinley took a final survey of the estimates up to 4:15 a.m. There had been marked fluctuation after midnight. But in any view of the situation the feeling about the McKinley home was that the contest was now

In order that Major and Mrs. McKinley might have rest members of the local reception committee were early on hand to keep away visiting delegations until later in the day. A curious crowd filled the streets and sidewalks about the home, but no visitors were admitted. Telegrams by the hundred had accumulated through the early morning and were delivered in huge Mainly Congratulatory.

They were mainly congratulatory, with some additional advices on the situation. Word came that Oregon gave a McKinley majority of 7,000; Louisville would give a majority of 13,-500, an increase over the previous night of 1,500, which renewed interest in the Kentucky outcome; Wisconsin's plurality would reach 100,000. In a general way the returns led to the conviction among Major McKinley's close associates that 239 electoral votes were assured beyond peradventure; forty-eight more were regarded as probable for McKinley, and eighteen doubtful. Those regarded as certain are Connecticut. Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania. Rhode Island. Vermont, and McKinley's Plurality. Those counted as probable for Mc-Kinley are North Dakota, South Dakota, Delaware, Kentucky, Montana, Washington, West Virginia, and Wyoming. The doubtfuls are Kansas and Nebraska, Joseph P. Smith, political secretary of Major McKinley, has made an unofficial summary of pluralities, giving the states in detail, and showing a total of 1,537,000 McKinley plurality in twenty-seven states. He adds: "The electoral vote of McKinley and Hobart will be somewhere between 289 and 354, leaving to Bryan and Sewall not more than 92 to 158. In my confident judgment McKinley and Hobart will receive nearly, if not quite, 1,500,000 plurality of the popular vote." BRYAN IS CHEERFUL.

Does Not Concede His Defeat Nor Claim His Election

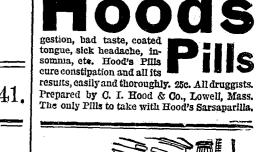

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 4.-Mr. Bryan does not yet concede his defeat, nor on the other hand, does he claim his election. "We are making no claims." he "But are awaiting the later returns with much interest." Mr. Bryan was a comparatively earlier riser Wednesday. He had had his breakfast and was receiving callers at 9 o'clock. He was cheerful and buoyant and clearly showed that he had had a refreshing night's rest. Telegrams began to arrive early in the day, and while none of them made any positive claims as to the general result, they were all of an encouraging character, giving the Democratic candidate far more ground for hope than do the public bulletins. Dispatches from Kentucky made positive claims for him for the state on the basis of big gains in the western section, while encouraging word was received from Indiana and Michigan. Mr. Bryan commented upon these as a disinterested observer might have done, but made no general claims upon them. He said he would have no comment to make until the result was absolutely known. Among the dispatches received were several from Senator Jones, national chairman, all of which were reassur-

THE NEXT SENATE.

On the Currency Question It Will Have an Anti-Silver Majority. Washington, Nov. 5.-From returns thus far received the next senate probably will stand as follows: Republicans, 42: Democrats, 32: independents and Populists, 11; doubtful, 5; total, 90. On the currency question the senate undoubtedly will have an anti-silver majority. The doubtful states are Delaware, Kansas, Kentucky, North Carolina and South Carolina. The Republicans would need forty-five with the vice president to control the senate. The Republican senators who bolted the St. Louis ticket and platform are classed as independents. They are: Teller, Dubois, Mantle and Caned to succeed Brown will undoubtedly he independent. Classed by states the senate will stand as follows: Alabama, 2 Democrats; Arkansas, 2

Seventeen Republicans "Get There" and Two Democrats.

Columbus, O., Nov. 4.-At 1 a. m. the returns indicate the election of seventeen Republicans and two Democrats to congress and two districts in doubt. In the Fifth district David Mecktson, (Dem.), and F. E. Dewitt, (Rep.), both claim their election. In the Thirteenth district James A. Norton, (Dem.), and S. S. Harris, both claim their election. The Democrats elected J. P. MacLean, of Greenville, in the Fourth district, and James McDowell, of Millersburg, in the Seventeenth district. A. S. Mc-Clure, the Republican candidate in the Seventeenth district, was a pronounced free silver man and failed of re-elec-

The Republicans elect the following: First district, W. B. Shattuck, Cincinnati; Second, J. E. Bromwell, Cincinnati; Third, R. M. Nevin, Dayton; Sixth, Seth W. Brown, Lebanon; Seventh, W. I. Weaver, Springfield; Eighth, Archiba Lybrand, Delaware; Ninth, J. H. Southard, Toledo; Tenth, I. J. Benton, West Union; Eleventh, C. H. Grosvenor, Athens; Twelfth, D. K. Watson, Columbus; Fourteenth, W. S. Kerr, Mansfield; Fifteenth, H. C. Vanvorhis, Zanesville; Sixteenth, Lorenzo Danford, St. Clairsville; Eighteenth, R. W. Taylor, Lisbon; Nineteenth, S. A. Northway, Ashtabula; Twentieth, C. B. Beach, Cleveland; Twenty-first, T. E. Burton, Cleveland. When the present Ohio delegation in congress of 19 Republicans and two Democrats was elected the state gave a Republican plurality of 187,000. One of the Features in Massachusetts. Boston, Nov. 4.—McKinley's majority n Massachusetts is now placed at 124,000. governor have carried every city and town for the first time in the history of the state. The congressional delegation is unchanged—twelve Republicans and one Democrat, the latter the only one in New England. The gold vote was about 3 per cent. There is little difference in the vote between Bryan and Williams.

When the Wilcox law goes into effect in New York on Jan. 1 next. about 4,000 convicts in the state prisons will be idle. By this law physical culture will take the place of work, and prisoners will play football and ride bicy-

Democratic Majority in Georgia. Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 4.-Returns from the state are coming in more slowly than usual. The party managers are making no effort to collect them and they will be allowed to drift in through slow official service. The Democratic majority will possibly be about 25,000 and all the congressmen are Democrats.

Montana Gives 26,000 for Bryan. Helena, Mont., Nov. 4.—Returns from two-thrids of the precincts show that Bryan carried the state by 26,000, or at least 6,000 more than the most sanguine expectations of the Democrats before election. Hartman goes back to congress. He ran behind his ticket. The entire Democratic ticket is elected. North Dakota Republican. Fargo, N. D., Nov. 4.-Every indication is that the state is from 3,000 to 6,000 Republican. Johnson is re-elected to congress. The whole Republican state ticket is elected. Returns from the north are slow in coming. Repub licans gain in the south part of the state. Wisconsin Republican by 100,000. Milwaukee, Nov. 4.—There is no change in the political situation in Wisconsin. The state is Republican by about 100,000. The legislature is at least solid Republican and the entire congressional delegation is of the same

In Arthur Sewall's Home. Bath, Me., Nov. 4.-Local pride over the fact that their fellow-townsman, Mr. Arthur Sewall, was the candidate for vice president on the Democratic ticket did not influence voters here. The Bath Republicans cast their votes straight and McKinley led Mr. Sewall by 101 votes in the latter's own ward, and 752 in the city.

Complexion of the House. Washington. Nov. 4.—Chairman Babcock has reports showing 177 Republicans surely elected to the house, and partial reports indicating that the total number of Republicans will be 230. Bishop of Wilmington, Del.

Rome, Nov. 4.-Rev. C. F. Thomas has been appointed bishop of Wilmington, Del.

In Administration Circles. Washington, Nov. 4.-There was an air of unconcealed satisfaction in administration circles here Wednesday morning over the results of the election, yet this was tempered in many instances with pity. From the president in the White House to the lowest official there was no disposition to exult over the defeat of their old-time political associates, and the members of the president's official family, one and all, preserved a dignified silence in the hope of thus making easier the task set for them in the future of healing the breaches in the party.

Buchanan Record

D. H. BOWER, PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1896.

Only 166 out of a possible 575 of the weekly newspapers in Michigan are accorded a circulation in actual figures by the American Newspaper Directory for 1896, and the publishers of the Directory will guarantee the accuracy of its rating by a reward of one hundsed dollars to the first person who successfully assails it. Advertisers should note the fact that the Buchanan Record is one of the 166 that are not affeid to let their customers know just what they are buying.

WELLDONE, BUCHANAN,

The vote polled on Tuesday in Buchanan township was a record breaker, it being the largest ever polled. The result speaks well of the earnest and faithful work done, by workers in the interest of sound money, patriotism and prosperity. The Republican party was aided very materially by the work of the sound money Democrats who rose above party, and helped the cause of sound money with no uncertain aim or wasting of ammunition. The splendid showing made by onr own John W. Needham, gave evidence that when a Buchanan man starts out for anything he generally wins out in fine shape. The vote is as follows:

MICHIGAN'S NEXT GOVERNOR There seems to have been an election

this week. Who said Buchanan township was for free silver?

Now for a revival of busines; and a return of prosperity.

Ten out of twelve Congressman in Michigan—and yet they did say Michigan was a doubtful state.

Those political prophets who doubted the Republicanism and Patriotism of Buchanan can now take a vacation. We are obliged to go to press one day later this week owing to the pres sure of election news, but as we publish complete returns in this issue we trust our readers will overlook the delay.

The results of election show a decisive victory for McKinley and Protection. Both branches of Congress will be republican. Michigan goes over 50, 000 for McKinley. The State legislature has a majority on joint billot of 80 and Berrien county goes republican by 1863 on head of ticket. It is glory enough for one day.

BENTON HARBOR. From our Regular Correspondent.

Election day-Lowe & Rouse, druggists, have placed a long distance telephone in their store.

Seven Benton Harbor gentlemen are running for office today. Three on the Republican and four on the union silver ticket. Charler Schriver picked four quarts of strawberries out on his farm, yesterday morning, and sent them as a present to Hon. William McKinley. A man named Frank Mand was assauled and knocked senseless, by a highwayman, on Eighth street, Sunday even, and would also have lost the $30. on his person had it not been for time-lv help. Forty-four foreigners were admitted to citizenship, last Saturday which makes over 100 within the last two weeks of franchise and will cast their first their first vote for President. today. Most of them are Germen, and the others being from England, Sweden, Russia, France and Denmark. The St. Joseph Valley Company failed to get the right-of-way, near Territorial street, because the owner asked an enormous sum for a few feet of ground- By working Saturday night and Sunday morning, workmen changed the course of Ox creek a little and Senator-Edwin A. This vote is very pleasing to our next Congressman, inasmuch as it shows that the voters of the District recognize sterling worth and integrity in a young man, and do not hesitate to place such young men in positions of trust and responsibility.

FROM WASHINGTON.

EDITOR BUCHANAN RECORD: Buchanan, Mich., Dear Sir: -Before I left Buchanan,

many of my friends wanted to hear from me. I thought I could serve more of them by writing to the RECORD. I have been here twenty days, and think I am some stronger. The air is light, and I have to breathe oftener and fuller. It was hard work for me to breathe, for a few days, to get air enough to satisfy me, but now I can walk around the yard and ride on horse back everyday. I think my appetite has improved some. I am stopping with my brother, Nehemiah, on a ranch, eight miles from the beautiful city of North Yakima, in Central Washington. This city has a stream of clear water running on each side of north and south streets, taken from the Yakima river. They have water works and electric system, full city style and, in fact, everything that you will find in the East. This city is situated 180 miles east of Seattle, on the N. P. R. R., in the eastern portion of a valley 20x40 miles, longest east and west, of the same name, which is a very fertile valley for wheat, oats, barley, hops, hay, and fruit of all kinds that is raised in a temperate zone. I wish I could place upon your table, for you and Mr. Harper to inspect, a basket of peaches, pears and apples. The finest apples you ever saw, not a spot or blemish on them. Plums and prunes are gone, but they grow prunes for market, the dried ones being as sweet as sugar.

Stock raising is carried on successfully, in this part of the state. Many thousand head of sheep are in sight, on the hills, where they are herded from March to November, on Uncle Sam's land. Cattle and horses roam the mountains and valleys all winter. Dairying is paying business here. Butter is worth from 171/2c to 25c per lb., and will be 40c per lb. before spring. Cows can be bought for $25, and alfalfa hay is worth only $2.50 per ton. You can raise and cut alfalfa three times in a season and get from six to nine tons a season per acre. It is the best of pasture and cannot be fed down, if you keep it watered, and without water this country would not be worth anything, but there is plenty of that to be had in this valley, and at small cost. That is an advantage that you, in the East, cannot have-rain just when you want it, and have the best of pasture for ten months every year, and some times all winter. There are plenty of cheese and butter factories in this valley, and farmers get good prices for their work. Very few thrifty farmers here, but there are a few of them and things look home like around their places. This valley is watered by the Ahtanum river and has an average fall of twentysix feet to the mile from where it enters this valley through the mountain to the Yakima river, a distance of about twenty fulles. The eastern part is watered by the Yakima river, which runs south-east to the Columbia river. a distance of eighty miles, principally through level and fertile country, country, forming the east line of the Yakima Indian Reservation, containing 875.000 acres of which one-half is the best farming land in the state. The Ahtanum river, that runs on the south side of this valley, where we live, is the north side of the Reservation. Our valley is entirely surrounded by a range of mountains, only where the two rivers enter and where they go through the mountains. On the extreme eastern part of the valley there is some Artesian wells. One that flows as much water as runs in McCoy's creek in summer. It irrigates several hundred acres.

Hop raising has been profitable here, until this year. The cost to raise, pick, dry and bale hops is 61/20 per lb., and is selling now for 7½c per lb. The hops were damaged by the frost, in the eastern part of the valley. Where my brother lives, the leaves on the English walnut trees are not hurt. Tomatoes, mélons and potatoes are as green as in June. No frost to speak of in this part of the valley. We have peaches yet for table use-nice vellow ones, as good as you could wish for. This country is different from any of

THE CAMPAIGN ENDED.

Now that the election is over, let us get to work once more. While it has not turned out as some expected, yet we are all citizens of the greatest commonwealth in the world, and with the agitation and unrest of a political campaign ended, there is no reason why our nation should not prosper as never before. Confidence will be re-Tuesday morning, one little First stored, every one can take hold with grader said, "I don't like Mr. Bryan," renewed energy, and the dark clouds Croisette had muttered something, and this had drawn on him the glare of Bezers' eyes. But the threat was effectual. Croisette was silent. The two were left henceforth to one another.

Yet the vidame seemed to be put out by the interruption. Muttering a string of oaths, he strode back again. The cool cynicism with which he was wont to veil his anger and impose on other men. while it heightened the effect of his ruthless deeds, in part fell from him. He showed himself as he wasmasterful, and violent, hating, with all the strength of a turbulent nature which had never known a check. I quailed before him myself. I confess it.

"Listen!" he continued harshly, coming back and taking his place in front of us at last, his manner more violent than before the interruption. "I might have left you to die in that hell yonder! And I did not leave you. I had but to hold my hand and you would have been torn to pieces! The wolf, however, does not hunt with the rats, and a Bezers wants no help in his vengeance from king or canaille! When I hunt my enemy down I will hunt him alone, do you hear? And as there is a Heaven above me"-he paused a moment-"if I ever meet you face to face again. M. de Pavannes, I will kill you where you

He paused, and the murmur of the crowd without came to my ears; but mingled with and heightened by some confusion in my thoughts. I struggled feebly with this, seeing a rush of color to Croisette's face, a lightening in his eyes, as if a veil had been raised from before them. Some confusion-for I thought I grasped the vidame's meaning; yet there he was still glowering on his victim with the same grim visage, still speaking in the same rough tone. "Listen, M. de Pavannes," he continued, rising to his full height and waving his hand with a certain majesty towards the window-no one had spoken. "The doors are open! Your mistress is at Caylus. The road is clear, go to her; go to her, and tell her that I have saved your life, and that I give it to you not out of love, but out of hate! If you had flinched I would have killed you, for so you would have suffered most, M. de Pavannes. As it is, take your life—a gift! and suffer as I should if I were saved and spared by my enemy!"

Slowly the full sense of his words came home to me. Slowly; not in its full completeness, indeed, until I heard Louvre in broken phrases, phrases half proud and half humble, thanking him for his generosity. Even then I almost lost the true and wondrous meaning of the thing when I heard his answer. For he cut Pavannes short with bitter. caustic gibes, spurned his proffered gratitude with insults and replied to his acknowledgments with threats.

"Go! go!" he continued to cry vio-"Have I brought you so far safely that you will cheat me of my vengeance at the last, and provoke me to kill you? Away! and take these blind puppies with you! Reckon me as much your enemy now as ever! And u i meet you, be sure you will meet a foe! Begone, M. de Pavannes, be-"But, M. de Bezers," Louis persisted,

"hear me. It takes two to--' "Begone! begone! before we do one another a mischief!" cried the vidame, furiously. "Every word you say in that strain is an injury to me. It robs me of my vengeance. Go! in God's

And we went on; for there was no change, no promise of softening in his malignant aspect as he spoke; nor any as he stood and watched us draw off slowly from him. We went one by one, each lingering after the other, striving, out of a natural desire to thank him, to break through that stern reserve.

But grim and unrelenting, a picture of scorn to the last, he saw us go. My latest memory of that strange man-still fresh after a lapse of two and fifty years—is of a huge form towering in the gloom below the state canopy, the sunlight which poured in through the windows and flooded us, falling short of him; of a pair of fierce cross eyes, that seemed to glow as they covered us; of a lip that curled as in the enjoyment of some cruel jest. And so I-and I think each of us foursaw the last of Raoul de Mar, Vidame de Bezers, in this life.

He was a man whom we cannot judge by to-day's standard; for he was such an one in his vices and his virtues as the present day does not know; one who in his time did immense eviland if his friends be believed, little good. But the evil is forgotten; the good lives. And if all that good save one act were buried with him, that one act alone, the act of a French gentleman, would be told of him-ay! and will be told-as long as the kingdom of France, and the gracious memory of the late king, shall endure.

I see again by the simple process of shutting my eyes, the little party of five-for Jean, our servant, had rejoined us-who on that summer day rode over the hills to Caylus, threading the mazes of the holm-oaks, and galloping down the rides, and hallooing the hare from her form, but never pursuing her; arousing the nestling farmhouses from their sleepy stillness by joyous shout and laugh, and sniffing, as we climbed the hill-side again, the scent of the ferns that died crushed under our horses' hoofs—died only that they might add one little pleasure more to the happiness God had given us. Rare and sweet indeed are those few days in life, when it seems that all creation lives only that we may have pleasure in it, and thank God for it. heart, a great rejoicing for our own

Now with the nightfall and the darkness, now when we were near our home, and on the eve of giving joy to another, we grew silent. There arose other thoughts-thoughts of all that had happened since we had last ascended that track; and so our minds turned naturally back to him to whom we owed our happiness-to the giant left behind in his pride and power and his loneliness. The others could think of him with full hearts, yet without shame. But I reddened, reflecting how it would have been with His parents were natives of the same us if I had had my way; if I had re- county and of German descent. sorted in my shortsightedness to one

It is well that we should make the most of them, as we surely did of that

It was nightfall when we reached the edge of the uplands, and looked down on Caylus. The last rays of the sun lingered with us, but the valley below was dark! so dark that even the rock about which our homes clustered would have been invisible save for the half-dozen lights that were beginning to twinkle into being on its summit. A silence fell upon us as we slowly wended our way down the well-known

All day we had ridden in great joy; if thoughtless, yet innocent; if selfish, yet thankful; and always blithely, last violent, cowardly deed, and killed him, as I had twice wished to do.

Pavannes would then have been lostalmost certainly. Only the vidame with his powerful troop—we never knew whether he had gathered them for that purpose or merely with an eye to his government-could have saved him. And few men however powerful-perhaps Bezers only of all men in Pariswould have dared to snatch him from the mob when once it had sighted him. I dwell on this now that my grandchildren may take warning by it, though never will they see such days as I have

And so we clattered up the steep street of Caylus with a pleasant melancholy upon us, and passed, not without a more serious thought, the gloomy, frowning portals, all barred and shuttered, of the House of the Wolf, and under the very window, sombre and vacant, from which Bezers had incited the rabble in their attack on Pavannes' courier. We had gone by day, and we came back by night. But we had gone trembling, and we came back in joy.

We did not need to ring the great bell. Jean's cry: "Ho! Gate there! Open for my lords!" had scarcely passed his lips before we were admitted. And ere we could mount the ramp, one person outran those who came forth to see what the matter was; one outran Mme. Claude, outran old Gil, outran the hurrying servants and the welcome of the house. I saw a slender figure all in white break away from the little crowd and dart towards us, disclosing as it reached me a face that seemed still whiter than its robes, and yet a face that seemed all eyes-eyes that asked the question the lips could not frame. I stood aside with a low bow, my hat in my hand; and said simply—it was the great effect of my life: "Voila, mon-

And then I saw the sun rise in a woman's face.

The vidame de Bezers died as he had lived. He was still governor of Cahors when Henry the Great attacked it on the night of the 17th of June. 1580. Taken by surprise and wounded in the first confusion of the assault, he still defended himself and his charge with desperate courage, fighting from street to street, and house to house for five nights and as many days. While he lived Henry's destiny and the fate of France trembled in the balance. But he fell at length, his brain pierced by the ball of an arquebuse, and died an hour before sunset on the 22d of June. The garrison immediately surrendered.

Marie and I were present in this action on the side of the king of Navarre. and at the request of that prince hastened to pay such honors to the body of the vidame as were due to his renown and might serve to evince our gratitude. A year later his remains were removed from Cahors, and laid where they now rest in his own Abbey Church of Bezers, under a monument which very briefly tells of his stormy life and his valor. No matter. He has small need of a monument whose name lives in the history of his country, and whose epitaph is written in the lives of

Note.-The character and conduct of

Vidame de Bezers, as they appear in the above memoir, find a parallel in an account given by De Thou of one of the most remarkable incidents in the massacre of St. Bartholomew. "Amid such examples," he writes, "of the ferocity of the city, s thing happened worthy to be related, and which may perhaps weigh in some degree against these atrocities. There was a deadly hatred, which up to this time the deadly natred, which up to this time the intervention of their friends and neighbors had failed to appease, between two men—Vezins, the lieutenant of Honoratus of Savoy, Marshal Villars, a man notable among the nobility of the province for his valor, but obnoxious to many owing to his brutal disposition (ferina natura), and Regnier, a young man of like rank and vigor, but of milder character. When Regnier, then, in the middle of that great Regnier, then, in the middle of that great uproar, death meeting his eye everywhere, was making up his mind to the worst, his door was suddenly burst open and Vezins, with two other men, stood before him, sword in hand. Upon this Regnier, assured of death, knelt down and asked mercy of Heaven; but Vezins, in a harsh roles hid him rice from his prevers and voice, bid him rise from his prayers and mount a palfrey already standing ready in the street for him. So he led Regnier-uncertain for the time whither he was being taken—out of the city and put him on his their journey, the two traveled all the way to Guienne. During this time Vezins hon-ored Regnier with very little conversation; but so far cared for him that food was prepared for him at the inns by his servants; and so they came to Quercy and the castle of Regnier. There Vezins turned to him and said: 'You know how I have for a long time back sought to avenge myself on you, and how easily I might now have done it to the full, had I been willing to use this opportunity. But shame would not suffer it; and, besides, your courage seemed worthy to be set against mine on even terms. Take, therefore, the life which you owe to my kindness." With much more which the curious will find in the second (folio) volume of De Thou.

THE END.

MIJRDER OF MRS. KAISER. The Husband's Story of the Attack by Footpads Generally Discredited.

Norristown, Pa., Nov. 2.-The mystery of the death of Mrs. Emma Kaiser, who was shot through the head while riding with her husband on a lonely road near here on Wednesday night, is growing deeper daily. The husband's story of an attack by footpads is generally discredited, and the theory that he killed her to obtain insurance money is gaining weight. After a brief formal hearing he was committed to prison without bail. A partial autopsy held Friday strengthens the theory that the shot was fired by a person in the carriage, and not on the ground where. Kaiser declares, the highwaymen stood. The detectives have obtained a signed statement from Kaiser, but decline to divulge its con-

Late developments strengthen the belief of the authorities that an insurance swindle, with Mrs. Kaiser's life as the forfeit, had been contemplated, and that a strange man and woman were conspirators with Kaiser. It has been learned that five policies had been issued to Kaiser and his wife, on which $84 is the aggregate amount of premiums thus far paid out. On two of them $54 would have become due next month. As it is known that Kaiser is not in a good financial condition the detectives believe that he meant to close out the transaction by putting his wife out of the way. Another strange fact has come to light. Two months ago the couple made a joint will under an arrangement similar to that in the policies, but there was a clause inserted at Kaiser's suggestion, it is said, to the effect that their bodies should be cremated. The police intimate that Kaiser intended to profit by this arrangement by the use of poison, but that this pecuniary embarrassment coming upor him, he used the medium of lead and concocted the highwaymen story.

Items Which Will Be of Interest to Our Readers Gathered from Here and There -Crimes Casualties and Other Occurrences of the Week Reported by Wire. Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 3.-A suit of more than usual interest to bankers has been submitted in the United States court. It is that of Robert T.

Gibbons, receiver of the City National bank of Greenville, against Henry N. Anderson and John J. Foster, directors. Leroy Moore was president of the bank. When it failed, in June, 1893, he was found to be a debtor to the amount of $175,000, or for three and a half times the total capital of the bank. In October, 1892, his indebtedness, direct and as indorser, was $121,000, and the comptroller of the treasury ordered a curtailment. The bank was managed entirely by Moore and the directors continued to let him have his own way. and he increased his liability by $54,-000 before the failure.

The suit is to determine whether the directors can be held financially responsible for their neglect of duty in permitting Moore to continue his looting operations. Some of the testimony adduced, showing Moore's methods, is sensational in its nature.

UGLY CHARGES AFLOAT Concerning the Assignment of a Michigan

Savings Bank. Detroit, Nov. 2.-A special to The Free Press from Big Rapids, Mich., says: A seemingly great wrong is being uncovered by the assignees of the Mecosta County Savings bank. Friday Mr. Brown, the assignee, made affidavit that D. F. Comstock, the bank's president, had received $75,000 of the bank's funds and was putting his property into other hands. An injunction was issued and at o'clock the sheriff attached Comstock's unfinished block and all other realty that could be found. During the issuance of the papers it was discovered Comstock had Friday deeded to his wife the $15,000 homestead and given chattel mortgages for $21,000 to his two married daughters on personal property. His son, Chester, who was general manager of the bank, is still absent and the ugly charges afloat are strengthened by his continued ab-

CLAIMS MOST OF MT. PLEASANT. Real Estate Man Wants Eighty Acres of the Town.

Ithaca, Mich., Oct. 30.-John Jeffery,

a real estate man here, has claimed eighty acres of land in the heart of Mount Pleasant. The land covers the south half of the city and includes the Central Michigan normal school and the fine residence portion of the city. When John Jeffery, Sr., died he held a warranty deed to the property from a man named John M. Hursh, who made the deed from his wife by power of attorney. Mrs. Hursh claimed the deed was a mortgage and that she never gave him the power of attorney. Then a man named Robert Hillock secured a deed from Mrs. Hursh and commenced suit against Mr. Jeffery and heirs to set aside the Jeffery deed and got a clear title. Jeffery claims the of an error in the proceedings. The case will be upon the Isabella county circuit court docket this fall. The land is worth over $100,000. RICHEST FIND IN YEARS.

Bessemer Ore in the Old Channel of the Michigamme River. Mountain, Mich., Oct. 31. find of Bessemer ore in the old channel of the Michigamme river at the Mansfield mine promises to be the richest and most extensive that has been discovered in the upper peninsula in recent years. Investigation proves that the deposit is over 1,000 feet in length and is supposed to have a great width and depth. As soon as the lower dam is completed, which will prevent the water in the new channel from backing up into the old, the find will be tested. In many places the ore is so soft that it is thought it can be mined with a steam shovel loading directly into cars. The cost of changing the channel of the river has not exceeded $30,000, and the ore in sight is worth many times that sum.

Students Systematically Robbed. Hillsdale, Mich., Oct. 31.-Students in the Hillsdale college have been syste-matically robbed of clothing, watches and other articles during the past few weeks, and two burglaries have been reported to the police, but the latter failed to locate the thief. Two students saw a man enter the college chapel Thursday night, and, knowing he had no business there, called a policeman. Up in the organ loft the searchers found Ben Kennan, a theological student in the college last year, surrounded with piles of stolen clothing and other small articles. He was taken to the station and confessed his

Round House Destroyed. Iron Mountain, Mich., Oct. 30.-The round house of the Quanesec logging railroad, 'about five miles from this city, was totally destroyed by fire at an early hour Wednesday morning. There were three locomotives in the house at the time, and they are damaged beyond repair. The loss will exceed $15,000, with no insurance. Logging operations had just commenced along the line, and 30,000 were being banked daily. The fire will necessitate a suspension of operations, throwing 100 men out of employment. The railroad is owned by the Sawyer, Goodman and Marinette Lumber Discovers a Rich Mineral Vein. Marquette, Mich., Nov. 2.-William Dowdell, a prospector, has discovered a rich mineral vein near the headwaters of the Sturgeon river in Baraga county. Specimens exhibited by him are rich in silver. The vein outcrops in the vicinity of the so-called silver mountain, where, according to tradition, a fabulously rich vein of silver was discovered by the French courier De Bois; many years ago. The outcropping was lost and never since found. Dowdell has taken pains to locate his find accurately and his specimens are now undergoing analysis.

Say the Physician Is Innocent. Holland, Mich., Nov. 3.-Dr. Judson D. Wetmore has been acknowledged innocent of the charge of complicity in the murder of Enos Lawrence, for which he is now confined in the county jail at Grand Haven. The wife of Lawrence and her brother, both of whom are serving time in Jackson prison as confessed murderers of Lawrence, have now confessed that the doctor, whom they implicated last month in the crime, is innocent of all knowledge of the murder, and that it was the woman's hope to lighten her own sentence by implicating him.

Minister Dies in Church. Lansing, Mich., Nov. 2.—Rev. William H. Allworth, a Congregational minister of prominence in Michigan and Canada, died under peculiar circumstances Thursday night. He attended the mid-week prayer meeting at Plymouth church and while making a fervent talk on the broad catholicity of the church fell to the floor and died instantly of heart disease. He was for seventeen years a pastor at Paris, Ont., and was 78 years old.

Street Fight with Burglars. Armada, Mich., Oct. 31.-A battle with burglars took place on the streets Thursday night. The thieves broke into D. H. Barrow's store and blew open the outer door of the safe. The burglar-proof steel box prevented the burglars from attaining their object. The noise of the explosion aroused citizens in adjacent houses, and several shots were exchanged between the citizens and the burglars, but in the darkness no one was hit.

Guests Escape in Night Clothes. Manistee, Mich., Nov. 3.—At an early hour Sunday morning flames burst from under the main stairway in the Franklin House and rapidy ate their way upwards, cutting off all communication with the street. Fifteen guests were compelled to jump from the second story in their night clothes. W. T. Kessick, a traveling man, discovered the fire and aroused the guests. Mrs. Clark threw her child into the arms of a spectator below and jumped. Many were severely burned. The servants escaped by a back stairway into the Summer Cottages Robbed. Holland, Mich., Nov. 2 .- Parties with boat have been systematically robbing cottages at the summer resorts in Macatawa Park and Highland Park, near Grand Haven. Mrs. Edward Layton and son, Leo Bridges, were arrested by the city marshal Friday. He seized their boat, which contained a variety of goods. The woman claims that her husband lives in Chicago. Other arrests will follow.

Dead Under a Load of Lumber. Benton Harbor, Mich., Nov. 2 .-Charles Evans, ex-treasurer of Eau Claire, was found dead Saturday morning under a load of lumber that he had been hauling from this city. The team had turned out of the road and dumped the driver and lumber in a promiscuous heap, where he had smothered in the blankets.

Mother and Child Burned to Death. Jackson, Mich., Oct. 31.—Newsreached the city yesterday that Mrs. Albert Robinson, aged 35, and her 8 year old daughter, were burned to death in their house in Sandstone township yesterday morning. It is believed that the cause was explosion of some kerosene which was being used to light a Ashland, Pa., Nov. 3.-Six men were killed Monday afternoon by an explosion of coal gas in Packer No. 2 mine. PREPARED FOR HIS OWN BURIAL.

General Torrence Had a Sarcophagus Ready to Receive His Remains. Chicago, Nov. 3 .- The body of General Joseph T. Torrence, who died Saturday night, will be laid in a sarcophagus prepared under his own supervision. The tomb is in the central ridge of Rose Hill cemetery beside that of his wife and one that is reserved for his daughter, Mrs. Magoun. At the time of his wife's death the general had the sarcophagi built. They are made of granite, with lids so ponderous that a derrick is required to lift one. The funeral will take place Tuesday at 2 o'clock. At the residence on the Lake Shore drive and Bellevue place services will be held by the Rev.

T. C. Hall, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church. General Torrence died at 9 o'clock Saturday night, after a brief illness. For twenty-four hours he had been in a comotose condition and for several days his recovery was known to be im-

Mannow Executed. Chicago, Oct. 31.—At just twenty-five seconds after 12 o'clock Friday Julius Mannow dropped from the scaffold in the north corridor of the county jail. His neck was broken. In fourteen minutes he was pronounced dead from strangulation. He had expiated the murder of Carey B. Birch upon the same scaffold on which in June died his companion in the crime, Joseph Windrath. The ceremonies were as simple as were ever seen in that fated corridor. Contrary to expectations the doomed man walked upon the gallows with no outward show of fear. No minister accompanied him. He had refused all spiritual assistance for the
