A SEPARATION.

The room which I inhabited at that time in Via Bagutta was really higher up than was needed. I told myself so four times a day when I ascended the 118 steps that separated me from the level of the ground on the street, but because when one had reached the top

there was to be enjoyed a magnificent panorama of roofs and chimney tops

I said there. Besides, in the course of four months I had made the acquaintance of all my neighbors, and usually among the neighbors of a bachelor there is some one that he would be sorry to miss.

It was there that I knew the oddest wedded pair that can be imagined. To say that Signor Sulpicio and Signora Concetta were one is not a metaphor, for between them they hardly had as much flesh and bones as an ordinary couple. And yet they were as well set up individually. But their united age was a decade more than a century and a half. And if Signora Concetta had taken the frank to stand upon her husband's head, she would have touched the ceiling. Now the rooms in that house are 8 1/2 meters in height—11 feet 8 inches by the American measure.

Whichever has solved these arithmetical problems will have before him, I should think, the precise likeness of these old persons and sees them, as I do in my mind's eye, long, meager, gaunt, with white heads, faces scamed by wrinkles, with sunken, gleaming eyes.

But the knowledge that both were away from the house seemed to disquiet her, and she did not move.

"If you would like to wait here, I will come another time," said I.

"Thank you. You probably are come in order to"

"For the same reason?"

"I invited her to take my place at the table, yet when she was seated there I did not leave the room. Signora Nina went to her room, and I went to mine.

Nina went to her room, and I went to mine. She had noted the color of her hair and vainly hoped for the opportunity to learn the color of her eyes.

Now the white little hands that I had seen in the window sill were playing with the toys of the domestic hearth. I saw clearly the face that had been a mystery for me. Ah, the Signora Nina was beautiful, or at all events she pleased me so much!

But the knowledge that both were away from the house seemed to disquiet her, and she did not move.

James H. Jackson of Benton Harbor has been granted a pension.

Ralph English has relinquished his position at the power house of the Electric Light and Power plant.

Mrs. James Patterson has been at Plymouth, Ind., several weeks caring for her mother, who died one week ago yesterday.

Mrs. W. A. Kuehler is very ill at present as a result of an operation on her hand, caused by a silver a few weeks ago.

Sam Bunker, employed in Boardman's grocery, accidentally cut his hand, Tuesday, and is now taking a short vacation.

D. B. Cook, the veteran editor of the Niles Mirror, celebrated his 83d birthday, Jan. 1. The RECORD wishes him many more anniversaries.

The case brought against the village for the penstocks, now lying idle at the dam, has been decided in favor of the village, in the Circuit Court.

A letter received Monday announces the serious illness of "uncle" Peter Weese, at Huntington, Ind. His many old friends here will be pained to hear of his illness.

Friday evening about 70 young people gathered at the home of Wm. Blake, across the river, to welcome Mr. and Mrs. S. out who were married in St. Joseph. All had a merry time.

Mr. H. R. Adams, the hardware dealer, has purchased the house recently built by Mr. Myron Mead, on Day's avenue. It is a fine property and will make Mr. Adams a good home.

Mr. John A. Arthur was called to Baxter Springs Kan., leaving here Tuesday noon, to attend the settlement of the estate of his uncle, Jam. S. Arthur who died a few weeks ago. Mr. Arthur is reported to have been quite wealthy, and John is one of the heirs.

The day express, No. 10, which passes here about 12.50 p. m. met with an accident just east of town, Tuesday. Two engines were pulling the train when one of them became disabled by the breaking of a drivewheel. The passengers received good shaking up but no one was injured.

List of letters remaining uncalled for in the post-office at Buchanan, Mich. for the week ending Jan. 4, 1897: Miss M. A. Johns, Mrs. David Hummel, Mr. Reuben Dorr, M. S. Baker, H. Hamilton, I. Legatir. Call for letters advised.

JOHN O. DICK, P. M.

County Clerk John W. Needham has appointed his father, B. F. Needham of this place, and Fred A. Woodruff, the retiring clerk, as his deputies. Our young friend John bears the reputation of being the youngest county clerk in the State, being but 26 years of age.

INSTALLATION BANQUET.
Woodman Hall, New Year's Night. Nearly two hundred persons witnessed the public installation of the newly elected officers of Buchanan Lodge, No. 586, M. W. A. The friends and neighbors of the Order assembled at 8.30 o'clock, New Year's night, and all had an enjoyable time. Stephen Arney officiated as installing officer, and delivered the various charges, installing the officers as follows:
V. C. R. Myers.
W. A. O. Lauer.
E. B. A. Johnson.
C. W. F. Hunter.
E. W. H. Jodrick.
W. F. C. Hathaway.
S. Frank Thomas.
Physicians: H. M. Brodick and O. E. Colvin.
Manager, J. P. Barnes.

After the installation ceremonies were completed, a varied program of music, recitations and readings occupied the more pleasantly until the guests were invited to the banquet. It was impossible to seat all at the tables at once, so the visitors were seated at the first tables. After they had done ample justice to the refreshments provided, they retired to the hall to make room for those who had not been seated. During this time music and recitation passed the time, and pleased the audience.
Everyone who attended reported an enjoyable time at the assemblage dispersing about 1 o'clock.

Marriage Licenses.
John Steinson, 31, Bloomingdale, St. Joseph; Emma Dunham, same.
Frank L. Bradford, 21, St. Joseph; Nellie Ludlow, 20, Benton Harbor.
Adelbert G. Pratt, 23, Riverside; Anna Hendricks, 24, same.
Fred G. Zebell, 24, Royaltan; Anna M. Curtis, 23, St. Joseph.

Our Neighbors.
Niles has a huzzler. Mrs. S. E. Bolton of that city was stopped on the street, Friday evening, and given a "queer" by the fellow, who ran when she screamed. When caught, the scoundrel should be severely dealt with.

Walter Denison, who recently stole a pair of felt boots from the store of Noble & Son, Niles, has been given a sixty days sentence in the county jail.
Fred A. Woodruff, during two terms as County Clerk, issued 1792 marriage licenses, 432 of which were during the past year.

Shirley Ferguson's staff is as follows: Deputy—Wardell Tert, Lake; John Wenger, Buchanan; Geo. Minister, Galien; Alva Sherwood, Three Oaks; John Umphrey, Waterville; Joseph Tennant, Pipestone.
The recent heavy rainfall did considerable damage at Benton Harbor by overflowing the streams. Flooding many hundreds of acres of land in that vicinity. Some bridges are gone and buildings flooded. The Big Four railway tracks in the city were under four feet of water, and all traffic blocked. The St. Joe. Valley road is inundated for several rods, and trestle works rendered.

A State farmers' institute, given under the auspices of the Michigan agricultural college, will be held in Niles on Feb. 20 and 27.
The stores of Benton Harbor have entered into an early closing agreement, to be binding until March 1. The dry goods store will close at 6:30 and the groceries and meat markets at 7 o'clock, except on Saturday evenings.
E. B. Scofield, a well-known Benton Harbor man, died of heart failure, Monday. He belonged to the G. A. R.
Rev. A. B. Cockran of Bangor claims the distinction of running the only temperance drug store in Berrien county. He recently bought Dr. Watson's store at Benton Harbor and declared that not a drop of intoxicating liquor should go over his counter, even for medicinal purposes. He will not even fill a prescription in which whiskey and brandy are the ingredients.

GALIEN.
From our Regular Correspondent.
J. W. Cone has returned to his home in Benton Harbor.
Mr. J. C. Harris, of Chicago, was in town the first of the week.
The Misses Kit Wade and Lizzie Tennis, of New Cassille, spent Sunday here.
Services were held in the Baptist church Sunday evening, Rev. Slusser occupying the pulpit in the stead of Rev. Herring.
David Potts, of Three Oaks, was in town Saturday, on his way to Fort Wayne, Ind.
Miss Edith Logan went to Kalamazoo Monday, where she will receive a course in music.
J. D. Logan was in South Bend Monday and Tuesday.

THREE OAKS.
From our Regular Correspondent.
Jan. 6, 1897.
The heavy rains of late have filled all the swamps with water and ice only is needed to make the small boy's happiness complete.
Nearly all of our teachers have been out of town spending their vacation. They returned Monday to resume their studies.
Mr. E. K. Warren and son Paul started for the east last Monday morning. We understand that Paul goes for the purpose of attending school.
Regular meeting of East Hiv. No. 10, L. O. T. M., Tuesday evening, Jan. 12.

ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY.
Mr. C. W. OSBORN has established a dancing class in this city. A term of six lessons will be given. The first of the series will be given Friday, Jan. 8, at 7:30 p. m. A class of thirty has already been secured. Special attention will be given the waltz and two-step. This is a splendid opportunity for those who desire to learn dancing. Prices for lessons 50 cents each, three lessons to be paid for in advance at First National Bank. Germans, cotillions, etc., will be introduced during this series, making it an enjoyable one for all. A reception will be given after each lesson from 9 until 11:30.

Miss Bessie Rose returned to Buchanan Monday, where she is attending school.
George Minster was in St. Joseph, Monday.
Owing to the weather no Epworth League services were held Sunday evening.
Orville Penwell has moved to town.
Arch Lyon was at New Carlisle the first of the week.
S. A. Clark returned to Chicago Tuesday, to finish his year's work at a homeopathic medical college there.
Jo. James returned from Detroit Tuesday morning, where he has been visiting for the past week.

BENTON HARBOR.

The Evening News now issues a weekly.
Some of the churches are observing the week of prayer.
Rev. W. P. French and wife went to Buchanan today.
The Y. M. C. A. membership contest resulted in the addition of thirty-four members.
The new Presbyterian minister, Rev. E. A. Hoffman, who comes from Vassar, began his pastorate last Sunday.
This city used to be called "Bungtown" in the "old lang syne," when it was a little hamlet set in a swamp.
Those who are making up a lecture course should, if possible, add the name of George Kennan, the famous Siberian traveler. He gave us a most interesting, thrilling and pathetic lecture on the Russian exiles in the mines of Siberia.
The long rains have flooded Ox creek bottoms and the Big Four tracks are under water some little distance. The water reached to the footboards of the passenger coaches yesterday morning. The St. Joseph Valley road, which runs parallel, is graded higher, but being new is washed out in places and the Main street bridge is carried away.

A Cure for Lane Back.
"My daughter, when recovering from an attack of fever, was a great sufferer from pain in the back and hips," writes Louisa Grove of Sardis, Ky. "After using quite a number of remedies without any benefit, she tried one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and it has given entire relief." Chamberlain's Pain Balm is also a cure for rheumatism. Sold by Barmore, Druggist, Jan.
The progressive ladies of Westfield, Ind., issued a "Woman's Edition" of the Westfield News, bearing date of April 3, 1896. The paper is filled with matter of interest to women, and we notice the following from a correspondent, which the editors printed, realizing that it treated upon a matter of vital importance to their sex: "The best remedy for croup, colds and bronchitis that I have been able to find is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For family use it has no equal. I gladly recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Barmore, Druggist, Jan.
