BUCHANAN RECORD.

D. H. BOWER,
PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

THURSDAY, JULY 22, 1897.

We present on our fourth page the full text of the new tariff law as it will be passed by Congress.

After an uncessing warfare for nearly fifteen years, E. W. C. Reed of the Allegan Gazette has demonstrated his ability to conduct a successful newspaper, and last week the Gazette absorbed the list good will and advertising contracts of its bitter rival, the Allegan Journal.

President McKinley will soon see the realization of his wishes in the passage of a tariff bill that will be designed not only to provide sufficient revenue but also to protect our various industries so that the manufacturer will be enabled to give his workman not alone more work but also better pay.

I. C. SHAFER.

Why Not Organize.
In view of the opportunities afforded Buchanan to secure factories by concerted action, the Record would urge the formation of an association among our business men and others who are interested in the welfare of our town. With such an association in existence the various factories seeking locations could be investigated and the true inwardness of an h proposition could be discussed.

PASSES THE HOUSE.
The conference committee on the tariff bill reported to the house on Monday at 10 a. m. and after an all day session and remaining until 12:15 Tuesday morning a vote was taken and the report adopted by a decisive majority. Evidently the house of representatives believes in doing business promptly. The report is now in the Senate and it is expected that it will pass without much delay, and will become a law before the week is out.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.
The New Wagon Road.
Over the St. Joseph River, Granting Across the State.

The M., R. I. & C. have a large force of men at work near the new bridge, at the St. Joseph river, cutting a wagon road through the bank and making a road on the marsh leading to the river. The cut is a handsome one and it has been necessary to remove many tons of earth from the top of the bank to the marsh below.—Benton Harbor Palladium.

The State Teachers' Institute
For Berrien County will be held at Buchanan, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m., Monday, Aug. 9, and closing at 4 p. m. Friday, Aug. 13.

A good institute is of inestimable value to the teacher and to the person preparing for the profession. It gives inspiration and suggestion to the progressive teacher, and leads the novice to prepare more thoroughly and hold higher ideals of the teacher's work. A good institute is a genial, lively, methodical, systematic, orderly, enthusiastic school. Instructors have been selected who have had much practical experience in the school room and know how to give others a portion of what they have thus learned. It is confidently expected that this will be one of the best institutes ever held in the county.

The work will combine professional and academic instruction. The institute will be divided into sections; and the instructors will conduct classes for the purpose of reviewing some studies, and also to illustrate up-to-date methods of instruction. The workers have been urged to arrange for calisthenic exercises, singing, marching, and the like, so as to make the work move off cheerily and without fatigue.

The time for study at the institute will be necessarily limited and, in order to permit the most profitable of class exercises, the following topics are suggested, so that those who purpose attending may be thinking and reading along the lines to be followed.

ARITHMETIC—(1) Mental arithmetic drill. (2) Cancellation as applied to analysis, proportion, and percentage (including bank discount). (3) Business forms.

ALGEBRA—(1) Analysis of definitions and discussion of signs. (2) Factoring. (3) Affecting quadratics. (4) Binomial theorem.

GEOMETRY—(1) Definitions. (2) Construction of problems, with demonstration of the same.

BOTANY—Elementary instruction. (1) Government of plants. (2) Similarity of government of county, state and nation. (3) Discussion of last special session of congress.

WASHINGTON LETTER.
From our Regular Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 19, 1897.

Now that we are about to bid adieu to the Wilson law, it may not be uninteresting to point out some of its failures, since it is impossible to say anything good in taking leave of a measure which has brought such distress to the country and the Treasury.

The deficit of $128,000,000 which it has made up to the time of McKinley's inauguration has been somewhat reduced by the enormous importations of the past three months which were made in order to escape duties under the new tariff law. Notwithstanding the increase in receipts by reason of this flood of importations, since the inauguration of President McKinley the customs, internal revenue, and total receipts under this law have been much less than in the corresponding months of the history of the McKinley law. This is especially interesting and important because of the statements made from time to time by the Democrats to the effect that the Wilson law was more successful as a revenue producer than the McKinley law. The absolute falsity of this statement is shown by the official figures covering the receipts of the Wilson law from the beginning of its operations down to the present time, and comparing those with the receipts under the McKinley law in the corresponding months of its existence. The Wilson law has now been in operation 34 months. In those 34 months the customs receipts aggregated $497,465, 248, while in the first 34 months of the McKinley law the customs receipts were $548,452,414. The internal revenue receipts under the Wilson law in its first 34 months, ending June 30, 1897, amount to $904,200,952, while the McKinley law were $433,772,458.

The total receipts under the Wilson law in its first 34 months, ending June 30, 1897, amount to $904,200,952, while the McKinley law were $433,772,458.

CHICAGO LETTER.
Special Correspondence.
Last week, it was claimed that the world's conditions were favorable to a higher price for wheat, and the view then taken was fully justified by the events of the succeeding four days, during which time wheat steadily advanced until it reached 75 1/2c for the July option and 71 3/8c for September. This was an extreme rise of over 6c in two weeks, or practically 10 per cent on the price of the product when the rapid appreciation began. From that high point there has been a natural reaction, but it is noticeable that there has been thus far no prospect of a return to former low figures.

On the other hand, the feeling is one of buoyancy, and there is a belief that not only will the better prices of the past week come to stay, but that there is also a very good chance of even further betterment. That the foreigners are in immediate need of our grain is now beyond question, the only point being how much their requirements will aggregate. From information secured by their agents in the principal European markets, Schwartz, Dupes & Co., estimate this shortage at from 125,000,000 to 150,000,000 bushels. There is no other place than the United States where this wheat can be bought, as India and Argentina are out of the market as sellers, and will be for months to come. Our crops of wheat and corn will undoubtedly be generous, but with present prices maintained, or more likely improved upon, an abundant harvest will be a source of enormous income to this country.

There was a feeling when the markets closed, Saturday night, that the bears would today make strong effort to force prices down still further, they having succeeded in knocking them off over a cent from the high point. Call were a trifle lower, and the opening trades at 69 1/2c to 69 1/4c, were nearly a cent under the Saturday close. There was a rally to 71 1/2c, however, and then an easier feeling, 69c for September being reached. There was quite a bunch of buying orders from abroad, and the later cables were more favorable. A sale of 140,000 bushel cash wheat for export hardened matters so that September rebounded to 70 1/2c and was hard to beat below that point. An hour before there was a report that the English visible had decreased 1,367,000 bushel and 240,000 bushel were taken here for export. This sent the bears flying to cover, and September went to 71 1/2c, closing only an eighth below that point, a net gain of 1 1/2c from Saturday's close. The following table shows range of prices during the last 10 days:

	Close July 19	Range last week	Close July 19

Five children were born, of whom three are dead and two sons, James K. of Buchanan and Oren E. of Cassopolis, survive her.
The funeral services will be held on Friday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock.

LEVI LISTER REDDEN was born, April 22, 1838, on the farm known as the Farren place, situated about one mile south of Bak town, in this county, the old Redden homestead being about forty rods from the log house in which the subject of this sketch was born. His parent's names were Samuel and Sarah Redden, and Levi was a lifelong resident of this county. When but four years of age his father died, and young Levi grew to young manhood upon the farm assisting his brothers in the work about the place. During the war, he came to Buchanan and entered the grocery store conducted by his brother, Mr. S. W. Redden, remaining with him a little over a year when, his health failing him, he removed to his farm south of Buchanan, and about three-quarters of a mile east of the Redden homestead, the place being known as the Samson farm.

On January 1, 1868, he was married to Marietta Treat who, with their daughter, Miss Florence, and his three brothers, Samuel W., William and John Redden, and one sister, Mrs. Mary Perry of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, still survive him.
In 1881, having recovered his health to some extent, he again embarked in the grocery business with Mr. Chas. B. Treat, since which time he has been identified continuously with the business interests of Buchanan, being at the time of his death in partnership with Mr. Willis W. Treat, under the firm name of Treat & Redden.
For some months past, Mr. Redden complained of ill-health, but did not seem seriously ill until quite recently, although he was under medical treatment for some time past. The end came early on Friday morning, July 16, 1897. Mr. Redden was a man whose kind and sympathetic nature made for him a host of sincere friends, to whom his death comes as a personal loss. At the time of his death, he was a member of the Village Board of Trustees, and a member of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist church.
The funeral services were held from his late residence on Front street, Sunday afternoon, at half-past two, and were conducted by Rev. W. W. Divine of the M. E. church, assisted by Rev. J. W. H. Carlisle of Niles and Rev. J. F. Bartness of the U. B. church, Buchanan. The attendance at the funeral was the largest in Buchanan for many years. Several musical selections were beautifully rendered by a quartet consisting of Mrs. E. S. Dodd, Mrs. M. M. Knight and Messrs. J. W. Beiste and Claude Molton. The floral tributes were numerous and very beautiful. After the services, a long procession of carriages containing the relatives followed their way to Oak Ridge, where all that was mortal of Levi Lister Redden was consigned to its final resting place.

Resolution of Respect.

The undersigned, members of the Board of Trustees of the Buchanan M. E. church, in view of the removal from our midst of Levi L. Redden, who has been for many years a member of this Board, do hereby express our lively appreciation of his uniform interest in, and many acts of service to promote, the welfare of our church and while with his afflicted family, we share the heavy loss, we can only commend them to the God of the widow and the fatherless, and pray that by His own presence in the bereaved hearts of these dear ones, and the entire church membership as well, we may come to realize His promise to supply all our needs.
