"We are all friends," the man said

again, as his head reached below the level of the floor. Dim though the light was upon the stairs, I recognized him immediately, and with a loud call sprang toward him.

"Mr. Perry! Oh, thank God, you have come!" I stepped unthinkingly on the plank at the bottom, and he caught me and grasped my hand.

"Don't mind that. It cannot hurt

you," I remarked, as the warning voice again sounded out, just as though its services were longer needed.

"How is it now?" Mr. Perry remarked, with a smile. Here Sonatag and another man brushed by us, and went to Jackson's prostrate body.

"Will you look here, sir?" Sonatag called, motioning for Mr. Perry to approach.

"My God! It is Jackson! How terrible! Is he dead?" "Who did it?"

asked Mr. Perry, glancing up at me. "We are compelled to shoot him, Nelson."

"No, I am thankful that no man's blood is on my hands. Although I came very near shooting him."

"Then I explained how Jackson had been killed, and told nothing about Mr.

Morley's connection with the affair.

They listened intently, and then Sonatag, carrying a jimmy, went to the door.

"Will you two stand to one side?"

Sonatag called out. "That shooting affair is over. We go off again in getting the door open."

The bundle of papers which had fallen from the dead man's grasp was picked up by Sonatag's companion and handed over to Mr. Perry. Then the man turned to me, and, bestowing a smile upon me at the astonishment he evidently saw depicted on my face, went to Sonatag's assistance.

No wonder I was amazed. For the

A MUSICAL EVENING.

Last Friday evening about fifty of the music loving residents of Buchanan were entertained at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Edwards on Front street. The vocalist was Miss Day Snell of Niles, who rendered a number of fine selections, her voice showing evidence of having been carefully trained. She was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. W. C. Edwards and several of her selections were also rendered with a violin accompaniment by Mr. Bert Nickerson. Both Mrs. Edwards and Mr. Nickerson favored those present with instrumental solos that were pleasingly rendered and listened to with evident delight by the audience.

After the formal program had been rendered an informal reception was held to enable those present to meet Miss Snell. After the reception an exhibition of sleight of hand was given by Mr. Snell, a cousin of the vocalist of the evening. Taken all in all the entertainment was a very pleasing one indeed.

The State Teachers' Institute for Cass county will be held at Cassopolis, Nov. 4, 5 and 6. W. N. Ferris of the Ferris Industrial school, Big Rapids, has been appointed conductor. He will be assisted by Dr. Arnold Tompkins, of the Illinois university, and Miss Flora Cooke of the Cook County Normal, of which Col. Parker is president. The workers are of national fame and the institute promises to be one of the very best ever held in the county.

The Fourth Michigan Cavalry, the regiment which bears the distinction of having made the capture of Jeff Davis, the leader of the confederate cause, began a two days' reunion, last Thursday, at Kalamazoo. The regiment was mustered into service in July, 1862, and was engaged in many of the most severe engagements of the war. During its history it had about 2,500 members, of whom it is estimated that only 300 are alive. More of these live in Allegan and Van Buren counties than in any other section. Corporal Munger of Company C, to whom belongs personally the honor of stopping Davis, is a resident of Marcellus, and was present. The attendance was quite large, more than 100 of the veterans being present.

MARRIAGES.

STARET-KRIMBLE.

Mr. Robert Staret and Miss Mary Krimble, of Dayton, were married Sunday in Dayton by Rev. E. S. Allen.

WEISBERGER-EMERSON.

Our esteemed townsman, Mr. John Weisberger was married Oct. 12, 1897 at Belmont, Mich. to Mrs. L. J. Emerson, of Boston, Mass. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Paton. Mr. and Mrs. Weisberger are at home in their Day's Avenue residence.

FYDELL-ROUCH.

Last evening witnessed a very pretty home wedding, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rouch on Day's avenue. It was the occasion of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lou, to Mr. John L. Fyde. Promptly at the appointed hour, the young couple took their places before the Rev. H. L. Potter, who pronounced the words which made the twain one, for the rest of their lives. The groom was attended by Mr. Frank E. Rouch of South Bend, the bridesmaid being Miss Adah, sister of the bride.

The home was very prettily decorated with autumn leaves, and presented a very cheerful and beautiful appearance. After the ceremony, a repast was served and all united in expressing heartily their best wishes and congratulations to the young couple. Among those from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bressler, Miss Debbie Bressler, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Valentine of South Bend; Mr. Richard Sutton of Peru, Ind.; Miss Bertha Shotwell of Dowagiac, and Mr. James Obeck of Big Rapids, Mich.

The wedding presents comprise a long list of beautiful and useful articles. Mr. and Mrs. Fyde will reside at No. 87 Day's avenue.

STEELE-CAROTHERS.

At the spacious parlors of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Carothers on South Portage street, Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 10, 1897, a very pretty marriage was solemnized, uniting one of Buchanan's most highly respected daughters to a former townsman of this village, the contracting parties being C. Martin Steele of Fenville, Mich., and Miss Nettie E. Carothers of Buchanan, Rev. Herbert L. Potter officiating. Mrs. Wm. Grimes (nee Carothers), maid of honor, was assisted by six bridesmaids—Misses Blanche Hunt, Mame Hoffman, Miss Perkins of Niles, Zulu Redden, Pauline DeArmond and Florence Redden. Mr. Will Grimes acted as Groomsman.

The shades were drawn, and the incandescent lights showed a beautiful variety of flowers and gifts from well wishing friends. The bridesmaids preceded the happy couple, strewing flowers in their pathway. The bride was dressed in an elaborate white silk and the groom wore the regulation suit of black. The ceremony was rendered impressive by the singing of that appropriate song, "O, Promise Me", by Miss Jennie Churchill. After the congratulations of their hosts of relatives and friends, a regal feast was served, and all present were regaled with both the delicacies and the substantial, in a manner which reflects credit upon the entertaining precivilities of our friends, "Andy" and his spouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Steele were accompanied to the depot, enroute for their future home in Fenville, by a numerous host of acquaintance; and were showered with rice, old shoes, etc.

Mr. Steele is now a full-fledged M. D., and has a lucrative and increasing practice in Fenville, and indications are that the earnest wishes for the success of this couple will be happily fulfilled.

COUNTY SEAT NEWS.

The total equalized value of the county is as follows: Realty $18,606,075; personal, $1,708,567; aggregate, $20,314,642.

Buchanan's share of State and County taxes is $22,125.08. The largest amounts in dog taxes are paid by Lake and Buchanan townships and are: Lake, $258.24, Buchanan $217.02.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

The next matter taken up by the board was the selection of a member of the board of county school examiners, to succeed R. H. Struble of Watervliet. There were three candidates for the office, Messrs. Benson of Eau Claire, Mills of Watervliet, Carmody of Berrien Springs and Millham of Three Oaks. It was here that party lines were drawn, and as the board is composed 16 democrats and a like number of republicans, both parties concentrated their forces upon a candidate each, from the number, the democrats selecting Mr. Carmody and the republicans Mr. Benson. Then began a promising deadlock which was not broken until after thirty-one ballots had been taken. Then a short conference was held and at the resumption of the session Captain Keith, the democrat supervisor of Chickawagon, announced that it had been agreed that he should change his vote from Mr. Carmody to Mr. Benson, on condition that Supervisor Baldwin, of Watervliet, republican, should vote voluntarily for the democratic candidate for drain commissioner. Another vote was then taken which resulted in the election of Byron J. Benson, the republican candidate.

The Board of Supervisors did nothing Thursday afternoon but allow a few bills and talk over matters upon which they took no action. They will not complete their business this week and possibly not next week either as there are a number of important affairs to come up for consideration before the board adjourns.

FRIDAY SESSION.

The board of Supervisors Friday morning elected Mr. J. P. Beistle, of Buchanan township, county drain commissioner to succeed Mr. John E. Burbank, whose term expires Jan. 1. There were five candidates and the first ballot, upon which Mr. Beistle was elected, resulted as follows: Beistle, 18; Burbank, 10; Jennings, 1; Glavin, 1; Harner, 1.

The election of Mr. Beistle was no surprise, as a compromise trade had been made Thursday in order to elect a Republican school examiner.

Following the election of Mr. Beistle the Republicans having the majority elected Geo. A. Correll to succeed Mr. Freeman Franklin as county Superintendent of the Poor and elected Mr. T. W. Reynolds to succeed himself as the other member of the board of county poor superintendents. There were two candidates for the office vacated by Mr. Franklin, Messrs. Geo. A. Correll, Republican, and E. W. Sanders, Democrat. Mr. Correll received 17 votes and Mr. Sanders 14.

FRIDAY EVENING SESSION.

A nocturnal session of the board of supervisors was held Friday night with the expectation that the committee on equalization would be prepared to make a report but they were unable to agree and it was consequently necessary to adjourn until this morning.

The county building committee in their report, which was accepted, recommended several minor but necessary repairs to the county buildings including the replacing of iron bars saved off by the prisoners when they escaped from the jail.

The soldier's relief committee made their annual report which was accepted. Of the $781.90 raised for the use of the committee $736.50 was utilized. They requested that each supervisor report to the committee the names of all persons living in his respective township or ward who are entitled to relief from this committee.

Upon recommendation of the county building committee $800 was appropriated to the building fund to be used in repairs and improvements on the engines in the county jail.

The finance committee recommended that the following amounts be raised in the tax levy for 1897: General expense fund, $25,000; for payment of bonds, $10,000; jury fund, $6,000; poor fund, $4,000; building fund, $800; asylum fund, $8,400; officers' salary fund, $6,000; stenographers' fund, $1,000; soldiers' relief fund one-tenth of one mill; State tax, $88,764.21.

Sheriff Ferguson appeared before the board Saturday morning and requested that the price for feeding prisoners be changed from 30 cents to 40 cents a day as the present price is not sufficient to cover the expense. The price had always been 40 cents a day until it was cut down by the board at last year's session. The matter was referred to the committee on sheriffs' claims.

Fearing that there might be a question as to the legality of Friday's election of Supervisor J. P. Beistle to the office of County Drain Commissioner to succeed Mr. John E. Burbank another vote was taken by the board of supervisors Saturday morning.

Before the ballot was taken Mr. Burbank addressed the board, stating that he wanted to see Mr. Beistle legally elected as his successor and he requested the board of supervisors to take another vote and at the same time urged all of the Republicans to cast their votes for Mr. Beistle in order to carry out their political promise to the Democratic members.

The vote resulted in 29 for Mr. Beistle and 8 for Mr. Burbank. It is understood that the three votes were cast by disgruntled Democrats.

There is now no question of the legality in Mr. Beistle's election and he will assume the office Jan. 1 at the expiration of Mr. Burbank's term. Mr. Burbank has made a good drain commissioner and has been untiring in the performance of his duties. The board Saturday afternoon adopted the report of the equalization committee as first presented and at 2 o'clock adjourned to meet next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

TUESDAY SESSION.

The Board of Supervisors convened in adjourned session Tuesday morning for the purpose of completing the business of the October term. An effort to reconsider the report of the committee on equalization was lost.

New telephones were ordered placed in the register of deeds office and the treasurer's office. It was also voted to pay one half the expense of a telephone in Prosecuting Attorney Valentine's residence.

The following table shows the valuation of property in Berrien county, real and personal, as equalized by the Board of Supervisors:

NEW CASES.

Henry Tibbs has commenced a suit in assumpsit against the Milwaukee, Benton Harbor and Columbus railway. The suit was commenced by summons and no declaration has yet been filed.

State Sunday School Convention.
The attention of all persons connected with, or interested in Sunday School work, is called to the fact that the thirty-seventh annual convention of the Michigan State S. S. Association will be held at Port Huron, November 16, 17 and 18.

This gathering, being international and interdenominational in its spirit and aims, and with spiritual, edifying, educative in its methods, we can confidently commend it to the general patronage of the public.

The committee would specialize a few matters:

First: The sessions will be held in the new and magnificent auditorium now approaching completion.

Second: The program already adopted will be eminently practical and helpful, and ably sustained from outside the State by Alfred Day, General Secretary of the Provincial Association; Mrs. J. W. Barnes, of New Jersey, a Primary worker of national renown, and E. O. Excell, of Chicago, who will conduct the song services; and by representative talent within the State. It is expected that some member of the International Committee will be present.

Third: One-half day will be given to a Field Worker's Conference, in charge of Dr. Day; and a half day to Primary methods, the discussion of primary principles, etc.; led by Mrs. Barnes, and in addition several important conferences will be held, independent of the regular program.

Fourth: The Michigan R. R. Association has granted a rate of one fare for the round trip from all points in Michigan. Dates for the sale of tickets, Nov. 15th and 16th. Return limit 18th, 1897.

Fifth: County and township associations are entitled to two delegates each, besides their officers; and every Sunday School in the State should send its Superintendent and one delegate.

Sixth: Entertainment, so far as lodging and breakfast is concerned will be provided by the people at Port Huron; dinners and suppers will be provided at 20 and 25 cents each.

Programs in full, with further details, will be supplied to the schools and workers soon.
