A summer assembly has been arranged for by the Michigan department of the Baptist Young Peoples' Union of America.

With the Mich. Press Association—III. Edmonton, Alberta Prov., Can., July 25, 1898.

Dear Sir: I will take this first opportunity since I last wrote you to send some more particulars of the trip.

Next stop was at Souris for lunch at 11:28, Saturday morning. The ladies here had provided a fine picnic dinner in a grove to which we made ample justice.

We are just now whizzing through rather uninteresting country, no trees but a rolling prairie of short grass with occasionally a small herd of cattle or horses.

At 8:00 Bow river was crossed and at 8:15 the train stopped at Calgary depot. An immediate rush was made for Hotel Alberta, which is by far ahead of everything this side of Winnipeg.

The train at about midnight took us to Edmonton where we arrived at 10 Monday morning.

After viewing the coal mines which run from the level of the river under the high bluffs upon which the town is built, the big supply store of McDougall and Secord, at which place we saw all kinds of hides, beaver, grizzly, black and cinnamon bear, marten, otter, musk ox, etc., and other interesting places.

It is at Edmonton, by the way, that a great many outfits for Klondike parties are fitted out.

FARM AND DAIRY

Conducted by Percy G. Shrum

Our readers are invited to send in any questions for information on this subject, and any communications bearing on dairying will be received with pleasure and will be fully discussed in this column.

It cannot be too strongly impressed upon the farmer, that his farm animals should have plenty of clean, fresh water. They should have access to it all times of day, and more especially in this so of milch cows.

How ravenously the cows eat the green corn that has been grown for them by the long-sighted farmer, and then just think of the extra milk they give when they have green corn to eat twice a day.

It is fast drawing near the time to fill the silo with the corn. When the ear is glazed nicely before the dent comes in the grain, is the proper time. It is to be hoped the farmer of this country will wake up to the advantage of the silo.

With the experiences of the past four years in getting a crop of clover, it seems now almost useless to try to get a catch by spring sowing.

Another good way is to burn stubble where wheat has just been cut. Work the ground up nicely with disc harrow, going both ways to insure thorough working.

Work the ground up nicely with disc harrow, going both ways to insure thorough working: sow clover seed and cover with harrow. By way of insuring the covering of all the seed, follow the harrow with heavy roller.

The question of fertilization by commercial manure has been brought up, and the question has been repeatedly asked: "If we once use commercial fertilizers, will we not be compelled to continue the use of them?"

The American Angler for August is replete with seasonal reading and the fishing enthusiast and the sportsman will enjoy much pleasure in perusing the pages of this magazine.

The Art Amateur for August is an interesting number and is full of valuable hints and suggestions for the amateur. The frontispiece is a fine engraving of Rembrandt's painting "Christ at Emmaus."

"The Blessings of Protection," is the title of a document just issued by the American Protective Tariff League. This document clearly demonstrates the effect of the system of Free Trade under the Wilson Tariff, and of Protection under the Dingley Tariff.

POULTRY COLUMN

Conducted by D. F. Greene

Does it Pay to Cook Food. While the food for animals may be cooked with profit, it is doubtful if the cost of the labor can be regained when cooking the food is resorted to for an ordinary flock, though it may be of advantage where large numbers are kept.

The sugar crop of the world amounts in a normal year to about 3,000,000 tons, of which the largest part, about 4,500,000 tons, comes from beets, and the remainder, 3,500,000 tons, from sugar cane.

One Foot's Wisdom. Quad-Footlet makes a fair income writing obituary verses, I understand. Dash—is that so? Then he has more sense than I gave him credit for.

Meaning of Doll Signs. A traveler visiting Servin will often notice dolls hung up inside the cottage windows. He learns that the dolls are put up as a sign to announce to wayfarers that a marriageable daughter dwells in the house.

Sympathetic Visitation. We must all die once, says Mr. Murphy—Yes; that's just what worries me. If I could die six or seven times, I shouldn't mind peepin' out just once.—Ally Sloper.

THE MEXICAN DOLLAR.

Its Value Unstable, Changing From Day to Day.

Under Free Coinage the Credit of a Nation Has No Effect on the Value of Silver Coin—That Would Be Controlled by the Market—Mysteries Made Clear.

Ground meat is very cheap. It is prepared from the collected material from which all fat is extracted for the purpose of making soap, the residuum, or lard, being dried and ground.

One breed is more satisfactory than two, and less fencing will be required to keep them separate. When more than one breed is kept there is a temptation to cross them, and the breeds will be allowed to run together, resulting in the destruction of both flocks in a few seasons.

Bantams lay more eggs (by weight) in proportion to their size and cost of food, than any of the larger breeds, and there is no sorer way to get the children interested in farming and live stock than to encourage them with a few Bantams of pure breeds.

When the fowls seem to refuse food, the first duty is to withhold all food 48 hours. Then give a mixture of equal part of linseed meal and bran (by weight), slightly moistened, to all the members of the flock, as much as they will eat.

"But the government of Mexico is weak and unable to stand up to the United States," it is urged by advocates of free silver, "and the credit of our country is great enough to make its currency good."

full protection and enjoyment of anything valuable he may find. Under the present law, with a small expense for "denouncement," three months are given to the proprietor to ascertain the value of his find and to acquire possession if its development may so warrant.

I have referred to the recent rapid increase of silver mining operations in Mexico and to the extraordinary profits this industry offers and is yielding here in order that a practical, actual view of the situation may be fully afforded.

Just here the question may be reasonably inferred as to what warrant exists in past experience for the declaration that bimetalism, or the equal and concurrent circulation of two metals as money, is a sound and profitable legal enactment.

A summer assembly has been arranged for by the Michigan department of the Baptist Young Peoples' Union of America. It will be held at Orchard Lake from August 16, to 19th, and will be an interesting meeting, being for Baptists of all ages.

With the Mich. Press Association—III. Edmonton, Alberta Prov., Can., July 25, 1898. Dear Sir: I will take this first opportunity since I last wrote you to send some more particulars of the trip.

Next stop was at Souris for lunch at 11:28, Saturday morning. The ladies here had provided a fine picnic dinner in a grove to which we made ample justice. At 3 p. m. we made a 15 minute stop at Griswold while the mayor and others, all of which showed how sincere the Canadians are in wishing to become better friends with the Americans; how they were ready at the first intimation of danger to aid us in our present war.

We are just now whizzing through rather uninteresting country, no trees but a rolling prairie of short grass with occasionally a small herd of cattle or horses. The train stopped to allow the kodak fiends an opportunity of getting pictures of a band of Indians encamped in eight wigwams near the track. There were some terrible looking old squaws in the party but otherwise they were a lot of hardy, fearless, appearing fellows.

Sunday morning dawned bright and clear, breakfast at Swift Current at 7:55, dinner at Medicine Hat at 1:12. Here we crossed the south branch of the Saskatchewan river. Medicine Hat is a hustling place of about 1400 people; a great shipping point for beavers. A $20,000 hotel is building here.

At about 5 o'clock we could see the Rockies away off to the west, over a hundred miles. At 8:00 Bow river was crossed and at 8:15 the train stopped at Calgary depot. An immediate rush was made for Hotel Alberta, which is by far ahead of everything this side of Winnipeg. A fine meal was here indulged in.

The train at about midnight took us to Edmonton where we arrived at 10 Monday morning. Edmonton is the western place north reached by a railroad in North America. Carriages took us across the north branch of the Saskatchewan river to the hotels of North Edmonton.

After viewing the coal mines which run from the level of the river under the high bluffs upon which the town is built, the big supply store of McDougall and Secord, at which place we saw all kinds of hides, beaver, grizzly, black and cinnamon bear, marten, otter, musk ox, etc., and other interesting places. Andrew W. Marrs has been appointed postmaster at Berrien Springs to take the place of L. B. Marquisse. The new postmaster at Lakeside is Marion D. Wire who takes the place of James A. Wilkinson.

The Republican County Committee held a meeting at Niles on Wednesday and it was decided to call the County Convention to select delegates to the State and Senatorial Conventions, for Sept. 8th, at Niles, and the convention for the nomination of the County officials for Sept. 13th, at Berrien Springs.

Jesse Noe, whose home is at Buchanan, but who is well known in the Pearl Grange settlement, is still nursing a crippled hand. Mr. Noe while at work near South Bend, was cleaning out the cylinder of a threshing machine when the machinery was unexpectedly reversed and Noe's hand was badly lacerated. It was fortunate for Mr. Noe that he did not lose his arm.—Benton Harbor Banner-Register.

It takes as much courage and convictions sometimes to stick to your advertising through the dull seasons as it would take to face an army. But it is the man with the courage to stick to his task who wins out in the end. Ceaseless pounding is what counts. Advertising to-day, to-morrow and the day after is what brings trade. It is money thrown away to advertise a day, a week or two weeks unless it is followed up.—Shoe and Leather Gazette.

The following complimentary notice refers to one of the Buchanan boys who have gone west and have rapidly risen in their chosen calling. The gentlemen referred to is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Seawles:

One of the best known railroad men at the Chicago (Montana) meeting of the Western Stockmen was J. W. Seawles, livestock agent for the Great Northern railroad, with headquarters at Helena, Montana. Mr. Seawles knows every man in his territory, and they all know him and like him. His popularity among stockmen was shown Monday, when one of the members of the "round up" association proposed a resolution in which Mr. Seawles was thanked for the courtesy with which he had always treated stockmen and for the efforts he made in their behalf to secure all the advantages for them offered by his road. The resolution was unanimously passed by the association.—Helena (Mont.) Independent.

County Teacher's Examination. An examination for the County teachers will be held at the Court House, St. Joseph, on August 18 and 19, 1898. ERNEST P. CLERKE, County Commissioner.

A Successful Institute. School Commissioner E. P. Clarke has been conducting a Summer Institute for several weeks this summer and has had a great success both in numbers present and work accomplished. The institute closes to-morrow and over one hundred and twenty teachers are in attendance. Many prominent workers in school work have been present and have rendered valuable service. The success of this institute proves that Commissioner Clarke is the right man in the right place.

Resolutions of Respect. At the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Berrien County Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Co., held last Saturday, the following resolutions were adopted by the Board, in memory of the death of their fellow member, Mr. Francis Wells:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to remove from our worthy Brother Francis Wells, an honorable member of the Board of Directors of the Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Company;

WHEREAS, We deplore the fate that deprives us of his counsel, and the careful management of his business entrusted to his care. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That the community has lost a noble citizen, an honest man, the neighborhood a true friend, the family a true and loving husband and father;

Resolved, That we shall ever cherish for him and his work with us a high regard for moral worth and business integrity;

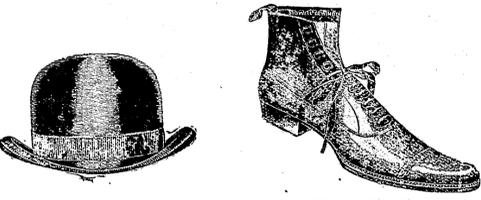

Resolved, That this tribute of respect be published in the BUCHANAN RECORD and a copy mailed to the family.

Easy to Become Saints in China. It is possible for any Chinaman, or even any Chinese woman, to become a deity by paying for the honor. A few years ago a rich and devout Chinese lady died in Soochow. Her friends thought that an apotheosis was no more than her due, and communicated with the priests, who interviewed the gods on the subject, and discovered that the god of the Left Little Toe-Nail had no wife. Now the devout lady is the goddess of the Left Little Toe-Nail.

Japan's Great Steel Plant. Japan is now building a great steel plant. The works will cost $10,000,000, and will be put into operation within three years. The product of the plant for the first year will be almost exclusively steel rails, and probably some steel plates for ships. Boiler plates, bar steel and structural iron will follow in order. This steel plant, which will be situated in Yawatamura, a town of about 10,000 inhabitants, is on the extreme northern end of the island of Koshu. This island, according to reports, is rich in coal.

Rear Admiral Dewey's Prophecy. Leavenworth, Kan. (Telegram).—While in Leavenworth today Justice Keene, of the Supreme court, who Dewey replied: "You need not confide with me, gentlemen. The government will not stand this Cuban foolishness much longer, and we will all have something to do. I will come back again, but some fine morning, I will take the Philippines before breakfast."

Twofores Were Good Enough. This is one of the late Thomas Keene's stories. "For ten years I bought all of my theatrical costumes from one dealer, and, as during much of that time I was playing many new parts in the old California theater stock company of San Francisco, my theatre was a matter of considerable importance. When I was about to leave the slope and come East I went to make a final order and bid my costumer goodbye. 'I'm very sorry you're going,' he said. 'Here, Jake!' calling to a clerk, 'run out and get Mr. Keene a good quarter-of-a-dollar cigar.' As Jake started, my costumer whispered behind his hand: 'Two for a quarter, Jake; two for a quarter.'"

In the Name of the Prophet. In Morocco everything is sold in the name of the Prophet. The storekeeper, the auctioneer and even the pedlar call upon Mohammed or one of the saints to aid him in disposing of his wares. The auctioneer who sells a slave girl or a rug interlards his talk with many allusions to the Moorish deities. In the streets it is an uncommon thing to hear such cries as, "In the name of our Lord Mohammed Al Hadji! Popcorn! Popcorn!" "In the name of Sidiu, Al-H-Rhaleh! Melons! Nice, sweet melons!" "God is gracious! Beans! Fried beans!" "There be no might or majesty save Allah! Water! Water! Cool water!" To the stranger it would appear as if the pedlar and prophet were partners in business.

John Sherman for Congress. The movement to nominate the Hon. John Sherman for congress in the Mansfield district has a formidable appearance. Long-time friends as well as traditional enemies seem to be in favor of his nomination. The motives of his enemies, though, ought to be suspected. There are candidates who want to kill. They think Sherman is the club. They would not regard it as much of an honor for a man who has been a senator of the United States so long, and a member of two cabinets, and a very prominent candidate for the presidency, to take a seat in a house of representatives in his advanced age. On the contrary, they might regard it as a humiliation.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Somewhat Fishy. Wonderful are the tales of travelers, and the proof is generally ready for purposes of substantiation, if their truth is called in question. A tourist who had returned from a trip to Seattle and Tacoma was describing to his eastern friends the glory of that region, its marvelous climate, and the rapid strides its people are making in the arts and sciences of civilization. "I tell you," he said, "they are away ahead of you people here. Even the animals are more sprightly, and have more go-ahead-iveness about them than the animals in this part of the country." "I have heard," said a sarcastic listener, with a wink at the others, "that the fish out there can sing."

"Well, they do have a kind of Puget Sound about them," rejoined the traveler.

Idiosyncrasies of Women. "There are some things in the matter of ladies carrying bundles that are past my understanding," volunteered a merchant to a Star reporter recently. "There are some things in the matter of ladies carrying bundles as long as it is tied up in brown paper, or store paper, as many call it. But if any other paper is used they will surely object. Some weeks since my stock of wrapping paper ran out, and until I could get another supply I had to use a white paper which I had had on hand for a long time. Just as quick as our female customers would see the bundles being tied up they would ask that they be sent to their homes. Many of them said that they would have twice as much work to do as if we had brown paper. I lost no time in securing it.—Washington Star.

Third Largest Library. Imperial library of Russia, established by Peter the Great in 1714, is the third among the world's great libraries. It contains about 1,200,000 volumes, and about 26,000 manuscripts. It attained a place in the front rank of European libraries by the acquisition of the celebrated Zaluski collection. Count Zaluski had collected about 260,000 volumes and 10,000 MSS. On the suppression of the Jesuit order in Russia, the collection of the books in their possession was taken in charge by Prince Lublinski, and, among other libraries, the prince transferred the Zaluski collection from the Jesuit college at Warsaw to St. Petersburg. The most important of the manuscripts in this library is the "Codex Sinaiticus" of the Greek Bible, brought from the convent of St. Catherine on Mt. Sinai by Prof. Tischendorf, in 1826.

Editor to Impertinent Advertiser. who is on the hunt for a free advertisement in the leading article.—No, I am afraid we can't admit that into the leader. Why Advertiser—Well, can't you make a paragraph of it, and say this is the sort of thing unscrupulous people try to palm off on you?—Moonshine.

Outward Effects the Same. Two reporters, slightly acquainted with each other, met one day at a cafe counter. "You're not eating anything today," remarked one of the two, after they had exchanged a few commonplaces. "No," replied Larkins, "I am so worked up over the scoop I got this morning on the Daily Cyclone fellow, about the bankruptcy of that big firm on Silver street, that I haven't any appetite. But you are not eating anything, either, Hawkins." "No," gloomily replied Hawkins. "I'm the fellow you scooped."

No Profanity in Japan. There is one peculiarity about the Japanese that is not particularly known—they never utter an oath. The reason for this is that there is no word in the Japanese language which is an equivalent to the English word "swear." The number of foreigners who have gone to that country during the last ten years and the thousands of new words added to the language have not in the least affected the Japanese in swearing. In this respect the Japanese stand alone, for all other inhabitants of earth can, when they step on a tack, use a stronger expression than the one used in general conversation.

Clarence and Ethelina. Clarence and Ethelina are great chums, notwithstanding the difference in color. In fact, that there was any difference in color did not seem to have occurred to either until the other day. Ethiopia is a half-orphan, the scantly-toothed, regretful author of his being having departed, a year ago, on a "hot time" in this life to the probable enjoyment of something of a similar description elsewhere. "O, Ethy," said Clarence, patting Ethy's shining cheek as he sat in a tight-fitting seat in the small vestibule of the "Black," "What makes you so black, Ethy?" "Dunno," responded Ethy, slowly, allowing his mind to stray over a variety of possible solutions, "less it's 'cause ma fawser's daid."—Judge.

In Servis. A traveler through Servia will often notice dolls hung up inside the cottage windows. His first idea is to store the dolls in the country, and he chooses this particular spot to store their toys. But presently he learns that the dolls are put up as a sign to announce to wayfarers that a marriageable daughter dwells in the house. "The idea is to bring many a man from other villages who may have forgotten her existence. This custom is naturally confined to peasants, but nearly every house has a wreath of corn ears hung up on the outer wall. This wreath is brought back from the harvest festival, and there is a superstition that if it be stolen, a daughter of the house will shortly be married. Where this is particularly desired, care is taken to suspend the wreath well within reach of possible marauders.

Correcting a Reporter. A reporter for an exchange in speaking of a woman's convention last week, says: "There was much bustle and confusion." Of course the confusion could be easily determined, but the bustle part could only be guessed, and was really none of his business. It is too much guessing that is giving journalism a bad name, and these women ought either to make him prove his opinion or take it back.—Beardstown (Ill.) Star.

Very Tough Luck. Customer—If you ever send me another piece of meat like the last one, I'll take away my custom. Butcher—What's the matter with it? Customer—Why, it was so tough that when it was cooked I couldn't get my fork into the gravy.—Pick-Me-Up.

ELLSWORTH'S "AT THE POPULAR STORE." ELLSWORTH'S

HATS! HATS!! HATS!!! The policy behind our Millinery business is the same that prevails through the whole store—to give THE BEST FOR THE LEAST. Please do not understand from this that we do cheap work. The word "least," referring to prices, is not easily misunderstood. We think there may be lower prices than ours, BUT NOT ON OUR KIND OF WORK.

There's a particularly strong line of materials which we will make up into hats for you at 75c, $1, $1.25, $1.50. There's a splendid choice of hats and trimmings which we will make up for you at $2, $2.50, $3, $3.50, $4, $4.50, $5, $5.50, $6, $6.50, $7, $7.50, $8, $8.50, $9, $9.50, $10, $10.50,
