SCHOOL NOTES.

BUCHANAN SCHOOLS.

The death of Frank Keller cast a deep gloom over the school. He was universally loved and respected by his teachers and schoolmates. He was a boy of most excellent promise, honorable alike toward his teachers and his playmates. He will long be remembered by those who knew him.

Ex-Supt. Public Instruction will lecture in Buchanan on the evening of Feb. 17, 1899, on a popular topic. Mr. Pattengill is one of the forcible men of Michigan. His lecture will be a treat and inspiration to all.

The 16th inst will be the time for the regular examinations. It is the last week of the first semester.

On Jan. 23 inst some new classes will be formed. They are as follows: Ninth Grade—

Algebra in place of Botany. White's Complete Algebra is the text book. Grammar in place of Arithmetic. Patrick's Higher English is the text book.

Physiology—Hutchinson's text book. Tenth Grade—

Astronomy in place of Physical Geography. Eleventh Grade—

American Literature, Brander Mathews text book.

Feb. 18 prox, the teachers of Berrien county will hold an association at Buchanan. It will be attended by teachers and superintendents from the adjoining counties and cities. It is intended that the meeting will be one of the best held in the county this year.

The schools of Buchanan will this year celebrate Washington's birthday. If any boy or girl wishes something to speak, let him send to Hon. J. E. Hammond, Lansing, Mich., for a copy of "Suggestive Special Day Programs. They are free. It is hoped that parents will see to it that their children perform some special patriotic duty on that day, either by song or speech. Pupils who have pictures of Washington or Lincoln may lend them to the school for this occasion. They may be brought in a few days earlier and hung in the school-room, so that pupils may become familiar with the picture.

EIGHTH GRADE.

Mrs. Bristol of Battle Creek visited us Tuesday.

Blanche Peak entered school Tuesday.

THEY CANNOT AGREE

Factions in the Miners' Convention Still at War.

IS STILL AN UNORGANIZED BODY.

Delegates Apparently Disgusted at the Delay, Threaten to Go Home Unless Convention Gets Down to Business.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 12.—The committee appointed to prepare the books of the United Mine Workers of America was not ready to report when the convention opened Wednesday morning and, after a short session, during which nothing of importance was done, a recess was taken until two o'clock in the afternoon.

The investigating committee was at work all night and will probably not finish the work before this morning. The convention is still an unorganized body and practically no business has yet been accomplished. After the seating of the delegates an election of officers will be held, and this will leave but two days in which the important business of the convention must be rushed through to completion in time to meet the operators in the interstate convention next week. Many of the delegates are becoming provoked over what they consider an unnecessary delay, and a number have expressed determination of leaving for home to-day if the convention does not get down to business.

After the adjournment the investigating committee held another meeting and adopted a resolution requesting the convention to send a committee to Indianapolis for the cash book. The delegates were hastily called together and the convention reconvened.

A motion to send a committee to Indianapolis to receive the cash book was adopted and the delegates were called to order for Tuesday and the delegates wrangled for nearly two hours, the convention finally taking another recess without reaching a vote on the motion. During the discussion charges were made that certain delegates were in the pay of operators, that the tactics of delay were in the interest of the employer and those favoring the delay wanted to prevent an election of officers until after the meeting with the operators next week.

At the afternoon session John Fahey reported the investigating committee was handicapped by not having all the books necessary for a full investigation. A number of inaccuracies were discovered in the report on credentials. A long and animated discussion followed on the necessity of sending to Indianapolis for the books. Treasurer Pearce finally made a speech showing that all necessary books were here and the resolution was voted down. A resolution by "Dad" Hunter, of Illinois, was adopted, giving the investigating committee until nine o'clock to-day to complete its report, with the understanding that if not ready then the report of the credentials committee would be taken up.

MET A JUST FATE.

Negro Is Lynched in North Carolina for the Brutal Murder of a Widow.

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 12.—A special to the News and Observer from Guilf, N. C., says: Mrs. Nancy Welch, a white widow and mother of five children, residing about three miles from Harper's Cross Roads, in Chatham county, was outraged and murdered by a negro five o'clock Tuesday afternoon by Henry Jones, a negro. The negro was found at his home near Richmond Wednesday morning about three o'clock. He confessed his guilt, and was carried back to the scene of the murder and hanged by a crowd of about 60 men.

Look a Safe and Escape.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Jan. 12.—An early hour this (Thursday) morning burglars broke into the main building of the Iowa state university at Iowa City and blew up the safe with dynamite. The report was heard and the fire alarm was turned in. When the fire department arrived they discovered the work of the burglars. They had looted the safe and made their escape, but were compelled to leave their tools behind. There is no clew, nor is it known what has been taken.

Voted Against Secession.

New York, Jan. 12.—Col. George P. Webster, a well-known lawyer and a prominent member of Tammany Hall, died at his home in this city Wednesday. He was born in Connecticut but in early life went to Newport, Ky. He served several terms in the Kentucky legislature and was one of those who voted against secession. Col. Webster was the senior army and was an assistant quartermaster. He removed to New York city about 25 years ago.

Will Favor Revision.

Paris, Jan. 12.—The Liberte quotes "a personage closely connected with the court of cassation" as saying that the inquiry into the Dreyfus case is about finished, that a decision may be expected early in February, and that it will be almost unanimously favorable to a revision of the trial.

Another Sentence for Zola.

Paris, Jan. 12.—Emil Zola, the author, has been sentenced to pay a fine of 100 francs and 500 francs damages for accusing M. Juret, a writer of the Petit Journal, of using forged documents in attacking M. Zola's father.

Teacher Cuts Her Throat.

Cincinnati, Jan. 12.—Miss Jennie Stamm, a teacher in Avondale, highly educated and of high social position, suicided Wednesday by cutting her throat with a razor while crazed with grip.

Victim of Moonshiners.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 12.—A special from Roanoke says: It is reported from Floyd county that a man by the name of Underwood, who was suspected of being an informer on moonshiners, was seized by a gang of the latter and his throat cut. He was then thrown across a log and decapitated with an ax.

To Oppose Senator Hale.

Augusta, Me., Jan. 12.—A caucus of the 24 democratic members of the legislature was held at the close of the session Wednesday, and Samuel L. Lord, of Saco, was unanimously chosen as candidate for the United States senate. Senator Hale is the republican nominee.

I still make the famous Bertha Roe Home Made Bread at the Cottage Bakery. Have you ever tried it?
