Missionary Address.

Miss Bertha Bellows, of Ypsilanti, who is itinerating through Michigan in the interest of missions, has been spending the past few days in our village and has been giving some exceedingly interesting talks in the Presbyterian church. Sunday morning she spoke regarding the growth and development of the missionary work and how, instead of prayer being offered now for the open doors into foreign fields, the present need was for funds to send the young men and women who are anxious to go into fields ready to receive them.

At a union young people's meeting at 6-30 Sunday evening Miss Bellows again spoke and advanced the plan of forming a class here for the study of missions. A sufficient number of signatures was obtained in response to this invitation to form a class and this will be done at once. Doubtless more interest would be taken if the average church member were better informed as to the need of missions.

Tuesday afternoon Miss Bellows met with the ladies of the village who are interested in missions and still further steps were taken to advance this great cause.

Miss Bellows is a very pleasant speaker with an attractive personality and gave some good practical points along the line of her work.

Public School Teachers.

The board of education have about perfected plans for next year's work in the public schools of our village and have the following corp of able teachers engaged. There is a little uncertainty about the 5th grade teacher but the work will probably be taken by Miss Lindsley.

Following are the teachers and their grades:

Supt. W. L. Mercer; Principal of High School, J. W. C. Brown; latin Miss Mabel Currier; science, Miss Bernice Worth; 8th grade, Mrs. Cora Crossman; 7th grade, Miss Caroline Pearson; 6th grade, Miss Nina Holliday; 5th grade, Miss Mabel Lindsley; 4th grade, Miss Alta Wright; 3rd grade, Miss Anna Simmons; 2nd grade, Miss Carrie Williams; 1st grade, Mrs. Elizabeth Mercer; music, Miss Marion Shaw.

FINE GATHERING.

Benton Harbor Assembly a Great Source of Inspiration.

The value of a series of summer lectures and entertainments such as the faculty of the Benton Harbor assembly have presented cannot fail to be felt and appreciated by some of the citizens of the county at least.

The three most important days remaining are today (Wednesday) when Miss Ellen Stone lectures and next Saturday the McGibengs and Lorado Taft, and then Saturday, August 16th, the grand finale.

The program for the balance of this week is as follows:

Thursday, August 7, morning Dr. Munhall; afternoon, African Choir boys; evening, Ernest F. Fenolossa, the Japan lecturer. Friday morning, Dr. Munhall; afternoon, Prof. Lorado Taft, clay moulding lecture; evening, African Choir boys. Saturday morning, Dr. Munhall; afternoon, musical recital, Prof. and Mrs. McGibeny; evening, lantern lecture by Lorado Taft, subject, Painters and Sculptors of America.

Special train will return Wednesday and Saturday evening from Benton Harbor for the accommodation of those who care to hear these choice numbers of the series.

Lost Brothers Met

A St. Joseph dispatch says: "The Lake View hotel bears upon its register the name of H. E. Crocker, of Chicago, a tobacco salesman, who arrived here Monday. It also contains the name under Tuesday's date of W. H. Crocker, of Cleveland who represents a coffee and spice firm.

"Today this last named gentleman asked Clerk Harry Bryson for mail addressed to W. H. Crocker. He was told that letters were there addressed to H. E. Crocker. Immediately the owner of these initials, who was standing within hearing, stepping forward and remarked that the mail belonged to him. W. H. Crocker turned quickly to H. E. Crocker. They looked at each other for a few minutes and then spoke together: "Henry!" "Will!" and embraced. This was the explanation of their strange greeting.

At the time of the Johnstown, Pa., flood, 17 years ago, both lived in Johnstown. The great catastrophe separated them. Each supposed the other perished. It appears, however, that one went to Oklahoma and the other to Chicago, and from that period until Friday each thought the other brother was dead. The brothers have made arrangements to remain in St. Joseph for two weeks and celebrate their reunion."

A Plea for Missions

Miss Bertha Bellows of Chicago, who is sent out by the Presbyterian general campaign board to work for foreign missions, gave an interesting talk at 4:30 Friday on "The present opportunity of the Church," a large number of people remaining after the Jones lecture to hear her. She used a large map on the platform to point out the various fields of missionary work and presented facts and arguments to show the great need of more helpers.—Benton Harbor Palladium

County Convention

The republican county committee held a meeting Friday afternoon in the office of S. H. Kelley in this city, for the purpose of deciding upon a date for the republican county convention to nominate county officers. It was decided to hold the convention in Niles on September 18.

Some other matters of importance were discussed.—Benton Harbor News.

L. O. T. M. Lawn Social

Last Friday evening on the lawn of Mrs. Sarah Scott the Lady Macca bees gave a delightful lawn social serving ice cream and cake to the crowds who came. Their supply of refreshments was exhausted long before the multitude had been served. The band boy's presence added much to the occasion, as music always has charms.

The sum realized for the Macca bees treasury was about $13.00.

Call for State Judicial Convention

DETROIT, Mich., August 1, 1902. To the Republican Electors of the State of Michigan:

The State Convention of the Republicans of Michigan is hereby called to meet at the Auditorium in the city of Grand Rapids on Thursday, September 25, 1902, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Justice of the Supreme court, and transacting such other business as may properly come before the convention.

In accordance with the resolutions of 1876 and 1900, every county will be entitled to one delegate for each five hundred of the total vote cast therein for Governor at the last election in a presidential year (November 1900) and one additional delegate for every fraction amounting to three hundred, each organized county being entitled to at least two delegates.

Under the resolutions of 1858, no delegate will be entitled to a seat in the Convention who does not reside in the county he proposes to represent.

The delegates from the several counties in each Congressional District are requested to meet in district caucus at ten o'clock a.m. on the day of the State Convention, and select officers as follows, to be presented to the State Convention for confirmation:

- 1—One Vice-President;
- 2—One Assistant Secretary;
- 3—One member of the committee on "Credentials;"
- 4—One member of the committee on "Permanent Organization and order of Business;"
- 5—One member of the committee on "Resolutions;"

By order of the Republican State Central Committee.

GERRIT J. DIEKERA, Chairman
DENNIS E. ALWARD, Secretary.

APPORTIONMENT OF DELEGATES

The apportionment of delegates to the several counties, on the basis of the total vote cast for Governor, on November 6, 1900, (the last election held in a Presidential year,) viz: one delegate for each five hundred votes or more—entitles Berrien county to 24 delegates.

Rural Mail Delivery.

The two Rural Free Delivery routes were put in operation from the Galien postoffice this morning, Aug. 1st, the carriers John Batten and Dale Swem have each purchased a fine R. F. D. wagon of the Studebaker factory which means that they are of the best and that the mail will be safely handled in all kinds of weather. These routes like all others are a disappointment to a number of farmers who happen to reside on roads which could not be reached without traveling some road twice the same day, this the department will not allow. Some eighteen months have elapsed since this service was petitioned for and many believed they had been pigeonholed and the routes would never be established but Congressman E. L. Hamilton is not in the habit of looking after the welfare of his constituents in that manner. The delay was caused from the fact that at that time petitions were pouring into Washington from nearly every post office of any size in the United States and were it not for the great influence Mr. Hamilton has in Washington many more months would have lapsed before these routes would have been established. To those who at any time may have imagined that their interests were not being well guarded by either Congressman Hamilton or Postmaster Glover, we will just say that out of a total of 38 postoffices of the fourth class in Berrien county Galien is first to get rural delivery.

Rural Free Delivery From St. Joseph

Rural free delivery commenced from St. Joseph Friday. The two routes take in the post office sections of Glenlord, Vineland, Derby, Royalton, Carl and Hollywood.

The only post office effected is Hollywood which was officially discontinued Thursday.

Union Services

The first of the Sunday evening union services was held last Sunday night at the Presbyterian church, the Christian, Methodist, Evangelical and United Brethren congregations uniting.

The sermon was preached by Elder Darby, the Christian minister of Decatur who had exchanged pulpits with Elder Black for the day. The speaker took for his text, the second utterance of Christ on the cross, the words addressed to the thief, "This day shalt thou be with me in paradise." There were some new thoughts presented on paradise and the judgment.

A good sized audience was present to enjoy the services.

The next union service will be held next Sunday evening at the Christian church and Rev. C. E. Marvin will deliver the address.

CORRESPONDENCE

BENTON HARBOR

The inimitable Sam Jones drew nearly as large crowd last Friday as did Hobson two days before. He has a personality of his own. Plain, lean, sharp, shrewd and with a keen biting sarcasm one moment and a lofty presentation of truth the next. He kept up a running fire of wit, humor or stern facts that provoked a continuous artillery of shouts and laughter from his audience. We think however, with many others, that he would serve the cause of right far better, by dispensing with the scurrilous epithets he applied so freely and indiscriminately to the audience and others.

He began his talk by saying that once when a colored lady tried to compliment him on his sermon she said "Brudder Jones you'se preaches just like a nigger. You'se got a white skin, but thank God you'se got a black heart." He said that at his silver wedding they got a swallow tailed coat on him. He never had one on before and he get that on mostly behind.

He despises theo'ogy and botany, but loves religion and flowers. There has been a great cry for an educated ministry and now that we have it the church of God is deadlier than it ever was before. Now every little preacher is a D. D., L. L. D., T. R. S. or A. S. S. Culture is whitewash on a rascal. There is a difference between being white-washed and washed white. There are three essential things: Religion, fun and money. Religion fixes a man for the next world, fun fixes him for this and money foots the bill.

He then told of a man who, when first married, felt like eating his wife, but who lost his appetite in a week. He says dancing is all right if done his way. Let the boys have a stag dance all by themselves one night and let there be a doe dance, the next night, the girls by themselves. It is when you mix them that the devil gets into it; he would no more send his girl to a dancing school than to "douse her into hell." The more we live like children the better off we are. Peace and prosperity don't depend on the standard, but on industry, honesty and sobriety. He announced that he is "a prohibitionist from snout to tail," and severely scorched those who do not vote as they pray. He was born a Methodist, bred one and buttoned one too. He believes the story of Jonah and if he had been told that he swallowed the whale would have expected to meet him with his pants let out.

After speaking for over an hour, he said his lecture was like a freight train, that could be cut in two any where and the caboose hitched on, and if they had not got their quarters worth yet they must have a little hole to let it in. He spoke of the coldness and indifference in some homes, and told the husbands to praise their wives if some them did have to tell a lie. There are no mummies and daddies now-a-days, and "many a kid is born an orphan." He closed with the finest tribute to mother love that we have ever heard.

JOHN G. HOLMES

Former Editor and Proprietor of the Record Sustains a Severe Loss by Fire.

In a letter received on Tuesday by Miss Vera Jenning from Miss Grace Holmes, daughter of John G. Holmes of Boone, Iowa she relates the following: "Friday afternoon at about 5 o'clock the pottery was burned to the ground. There was very little insurance, so we are extremely upset."

The fire started by some children about 6 years old playing fire company, one child made a fire in a barn near the pottery and the other child was to have put it out, the latter became frightened and ran away, thus the fire started.

Mr. Holmes' many Buchanan friends will be sorry to learn of his loss.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local application as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

The advance styles for autumn are presented most attractively in the Designer for September. Of great practical value is an article on School Array for the boys and girls, and in the millinery pages are given full directions for making a stylish toque suitable for the season. Especially interesting among the literary features is the initial appearance of What Women are Doing, under the editorship of the female readers of the Designer. Indian Lace Work, by Jane W. Guthrie; Simple Treatment of Mantels, by Mary Kilsyth, and The Little Lady's Toilet, by Dr. Sarah A. Frency-Batley, are contributions of great merit, all handsomely illustrated. The fiction of this number consists of The Effacement of Susan Ross, by Celia E. Shute; The Little Dark Room, by Harriet Caryl Cox, and the continuation of The Apology of Ayliffe, by Ellen Olney Kirk. Crocheted Table Mats, by Kate P. Daniel, furnishes suggestions for the employment of idle hours. The regular departments of Notes of New Books, Selections for the Recitationist, Toilet Table Chat, Etiquette Hints, Points on Dressmaking, In-Motherland, and The Kitchen Kingdom, are practical, valuable and timely.

The beginning of a new serial in the August Scribner by J. M. Barrie is an event in the world of letters. "The Little White Bird" is a most delightfully fanciful tale of an old club bachelor, a young married couple and a charming little boy. All of the pathos and tender fancy which characterize Barrie at his best will be found in this story, which will be completed in the fall numbers. What the "Child's Garden of Verses" is to lovers of Stevenson, "The Little White Bird" will become to the lovers of Barrie.

AFLOAT ON THE ST. JOE.

A Quintette Have a Delightful Sail.

Saturday afternoon if you had been on the lookout you might have seen Frank Barnes taking to the river a good sized, flat bottomed scow, and have concluded that something interesting was being contemplated. At 12 o'clock Saturday night there were in the scow Frank Barnes, Ed Bird, Nelson Boyer, J. E. Scott, and Evan Gage. They dropped down the river leisurely until they reached Batchelor's Island; by this time they had caught enough black bass for breakfast (though they had caught vastly more mosquitos than bass.) After breakfast they began to float down the river, catching, by noon, ten more black bass. After their noon repast they again floated toward the lake and found they had left the mosquitos behind. It had been arranged to have a team meet the party at Berrien Springs, and after having
