PART 2, NUMBER 30.

SPECIAL SALE OF WOOL BED BLANKETS FOR AUGUST.

Geo. Wyman & Co. offer one entire line of samples of white, grey and red bed blankets. They have been carried through the large cities and put up at the best hotels, and they are slightly soiled. The price is very much under their value.

$9.00 Blankets go for.....$6.00
7.50 blankets for.....5.00
6.00 blankets for.....4.00
5.00 blankets for.....3.50
3.00 blankets for.....2.00

This will eclipse any Blanket Sale we ever have had.

We think we have enough to last during August. Take them while they last.

COME AND SEE US.

Closed evenings except Saturday

Weekly Climate and Crop Bulletin

The U. S. Department of Agriculture, Michigan section, reports the following for the week ending Aug. 25. Daily temperature 63.3 degrees, or 2.3 degrees below normal. Rain fell was .52 of an inch or .02 above normal.

Moderately heavy showers, which were of great benefit, occurred in the Upper Peninsula and northern counties; in the central and southern counties the rainfall has been lighter; generally, the week has been too dry and cool for the maturity of fall crops. Corn, although earing nicely, remains small and has made very little growth during the week; it is so backward that it will require from three to five weeks of favorable weather without frosts to mature. Late potatoes have improved, but their present condition is only fair and does not indicate good yields. Beans are setting fairly well, but the cool weather has prevented very much growth and at present the condition of the bean crop is rather poor. Buckwheat is filling nicely and looks promising.

In the Upper Peninsula pastures have been improved by showers; in the Lower Peninsula pasturage continues very good.

The condition of apples, pears and late peaches continues to indicate fairly good yields; plums have rotted badly and some rot is reported in grapes.

Fall plowing is general in most counties, but in spite of the heavy rains of June and July the soil is rather dry and lumpy.

Gleanings

Genl Franz Sigel answering to his last roll call, died in N. Y. August 21 aged 78 years.

A coal journal in N. Y. says, Welsh coal operators agree to deliver coal in N. Y. at from $15 to $6.68 per ton according to quality.

Calvin B. Potter an attorney of Salt Lake City committed suicide. He was well known in Berrien Co., once a member of the legislature from this county.

Dr. Cogshall M. E. pastor of Benton Harbor practices what he preaches. He is opposed to Sunday base ball and classes camp meetings where a fee is charged on Sunday in the same group.

There never was anything so interesting as the market reports and financial page of the Chicago Weekly Inter Ocean. You may have both the Inter Ocean and this paper combined for one year at the specially low rate of $1.35. It's a rare chance.

A HORRIBLE DEATH

Was that of Geo Edwards last Thursday

BUT HE DIDN'T DIE

Read our Benton Harbor Correspondence.

George Edwards, a colored man of Benton Harbor, died a horrible death last Thursday, near Claypool, Ind. Returning on the Marion excursion, Edwards was standing on the rear platform, and in some manner fell from the train that was going at the speed of about 40 miles an hour. While falling he caught the railing of the car and managed to hold on for some time, swinging first to one side of the track and then to the other, but finally his strength gave out and the motion of the train threw him nearly 20 feet in the air, and a horrible death resulted before the eyes of his friends who could not lend a helping hand, for fear of losing their own lives. The train was at once stopped, but it was impossible to find the body which was thrown in the woods—This account is going the rounds of the county papers.

The following is quoted from the Niles Sun of last Saturday after reading the account in a Benton Harbor paper.

The above heartrending tale requires some revision. Edwards did fall off the rear platform of the train. He was engaged with others in passing a bottle around. It came his turn to take a drink and throwing his head back he said, "Here goes nothing." At that he lost his balance and his half drunken companions saw him disappear. Edwards grabbed the rail but couldn't hold on. The train had run ten miles before the conductor was notified. He wired back to Claypool for the agent to send a force out to pick up the pieces. But it takes more than a simple drop off the rear end of a train going forty miles an hour to kill a coon full of whiskey and to the astonishment of the entire population of the twin cities, Edwards put in an appearance at St. Joseph yesterday morning to explain his absence to the foreman of the paving job and inform him that he did not exactly feel like going to work.

Strange to say not a bone in the man's body was broken. He said he fell in some bushes and was not seriously hurt. He caught a freight train and came on to Benton Harbor. Read our Benton Harbor correspondence and get correct report.

Do you realize all the fund of information that comes to you twice a week in the columns of the Record? If you want to know what time the trains leave on the Michigan Central, the M. B. H. & C. the Big Four the I. I. & I. R. R. the Pere Marquette or when the boats run on the Graham & Mortan line, D. & B. line between Detroit & Buffalo, or the Indiana Transportation Co. running from Michigan City to Chicago, you find it all in these columns.

If you wish to know when the mails close at our village post office, or who the village and township officers are, or whom the lodges and churches meet, it is all here.

If you are looking for the leading merchants of the town and what good things have for sale, their names are in these columns.

The principal business places of South Bend are speaking to you through this paper, and the professional men of our village give you needed information here. The current news and all important local happenings are recorded and our correspondents give you items of interest from all around the county.

What else is wanted?

LOST, DOG—Fullgrown English Setter, long hair, grey and tan color with reddish brown spots. Tag on collar "Schoolcraft." Strayed from home Thursday morning Aug. 21. A liberal reward will be paid for his return. Inform A. A. Worthington or W. L. Mercer.

House Warming at the Home of Prof. and Mrs. Mercer.

The Bethany class met Wednesday night at the home of Ada Rouch's on Days avenue and from there went to the home of Prof. Mercer, who, was very much surprised to see such a large number of callers at once.

The class made themselves at home and spent a very enjoyable evening. A two course supper was served by the class. There was no mistake about the lateness of the hour when they took their departure as they left behind them a beautiful clock and an oak mantle, which the class teacher, Mr. Worthington, presented in a very pleasing manner.

The Bethany class is largely increasing in numbers and interest and they are planning a very interesting course of reading in connection with their social gatherings, for the coming winter, to which they extend an invitation to any one to join.

Among the visitors present at the class meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Douglass, Mrs. Crossman, Prof. Brown, Miss Ella Vanslyke of Cassopolis, Miss Lulu Lyon of Galien and Arthur Ravin of Niles.

Blow! Blow!! Blow!!!

The horns are blowing and the people have begun to be awakened. Oh! don't be frightened if you were asked for fifteen cents before this week, and are now being asked for ten cents more.

Why dear oh! you got fifty cents worth of fun out of the ball game and now the Lady Maccabees and the Royal Neighbors are going to give you the biggest plate of cream you ever saw and the profits go to the band. Home improvements you see. Oh, if you can't see they will make you hear on Tuesday evening. All go to the Arthur building for your cream.

Boardman's Successor.

J. Cohl of the firm of J. Cohl & Co. of Baraga, Mich., was in town Thursday he has arranged to put in a complete line of dry goods and gents' furnishings in the room occupied by D. L. Boardman.

The room will be thoroughly renovated and new fixtures placed in the store. Mr. Cohl is a practical dry goods man having had fourteen or fifteen years experience, and is confident that the stock will be as complete as can be found in many large towns and will run up an to date store.

Candidate for Sheriff

S. B. Miners of Carl was a caller at the Record office on Wednesday with Mr. Scherer of Derby. We understand that Mr. Scherer is Mr. Miners man for sheriff and we have no doubt he is a good man from our knowledge of Mr. Miners, but please do not forget that Buchanan township has a candidate of its own, and it will be mighty hard to find a better one. Call again gentlemen and we hope to be in and show you around our thriving village.

Traffic is Again Resumed on the M. B. H. & C. Railroad.

By noon Saturday, August 23d the track at the scene of the late wreck was all cleared and all trains were again running through on scheduled time. Shipments were again receiving quick and careful handling as usual. The prompt manner in which the wreck was cleared up shows that the policy of the management is to serve their patrons right and render the best service.

Lost, Strayed, Stolen.

Lost—Valuable time belonging to the Lord.

Strayed—A number of sheep and lambs from church and Sunday school. When last seen they were going down the streets of No Good, Sabbath Breakers Lane, Grumble Town and Devils Gulch.

Stolen—By the devil, a number of promising young men. When last seen they were going in the direction of the devil's kitchen, the saloon.

A reward is offered. J. TURNER

The lordly lion, in absolute submission, can be seen in the wonderful trained animal show with the Bostock-Ferari Mighty Midway.

Interesting Boxes, Bales, Packages

Are coming to Ellsworth's store every day. They contain the new goods from New York. Pretty soon this store will be filled with new merchandise. A lot of it has arrived already. We are putting low prices on the goods we intend to sell this fall. It is to our advantage to do this, for we know the prices please you and you buy more. The more we sell the better we can buy next time for buying in large quantities enables us to sell at low prices. So in the long run you get the benefit as well as we, if you buy here. Come down often and see what we are offering. You will be interested.

John Chess Ellsworth

113-115 NORTH MICHIGAN ST.,

SOUTH BEND, -- INDIANA.

Store open Thursday and Saturday Evenings.

Criminal Action Dismissed.

August 18 John Snyder went to Henry W. House's to pay some money, and became involved in a quarrel with Mr. House each calling the other bad names, then Mr. House struck Snyder and knocked him down, when Snyder drew his knife and cut a slight wound in his hand. House had Snyder arrested last Saturday, and Frank Rowley and Frank Wells went his security for his appearance Thursday. Prosecuting Attorney Riford, Thursday, after an investigation in which a number of persons testified to Snyder as being a quiet, peaceable and honest man, and House as one who would provoke a quarrel, he moved the prisoner be dismissed which Justice Dick did, and the affair ended.

Band benefit Tuesday eve Arthur building. Ice cream social.

Christian Church Picnic

Wednesday the Christian Sunday school had a delightful all day picnic on the lawn of L. S. Bronson. There were about 85 present, going in carryalls and private carriages. The lawn was furnished with swings, hammocks etc. and these, with the games played, gave much pleasure. A basket dinner was enjoyed and a record was made in the company's disposing of twelve watermelons. During the afternoon the party went over to the M. C. R. R. and watched with interest the steam shovel at work.

Marble-Swift Automobile.

Mr. Marble has his auto in working order and has had it on the street. Of course it will need some readjusting before he offers to run a race, but we feel quite sure he has a good thing and a short time of trial and readjusting will bring it out right.

Some Queer Kinds of Eyes

Look at the next spider you find, and try to find the eight shiny little eyes at the anterior end, some above and some put under the edge of what we may imagine to be its forehead. To examine these parts to the best advantage hold the spider in tweezers, or it may be better to use a spider killed by being dropped into a bottle of diluted alcohol. These eight eyes vary in arrangement and in relative size in various species of spiders, in some they may be arranged in two rows, in others in three; some may be very small and others large and prominent; and so on, but there they are; rather poor eyes, near sighted, looking in several directions at once, and the spider, who can never shut any of them, is sure to see everything that approaches, unless she is asleep.

For some purpose it may be convenient to have eyes that roll up and disappear at the approach of danger. And these are exactly what the snail has, situated at the end of two long and sensitive palpi, or feelers. When all is quiet their owner extends these organs, and you can see at their tips small round knobs upon which the eyes are placed. But if you touch one of the palpi, or even jar the snail a little, the eyes begin to roll back into these feelers as the tip of a glove finger may be turned in, and they no longer see the danger. Queer animal, that, which dares to peep at the world only when it is in perfect safety, and refuses to look when danger threatens! But the snail never had much reputation for bravery and therefore has little to lose.

But there are many animals whose eyes are not perfect enough to form a complete image, or even parts of an image, but which can receive only a sensation of light and perhaps, in some cases, an indistinct impression of color; and among those that can in this way perceive light, it is probable that the sensation is more like what we call heat than it is like actual vision. In the simplest of these cases, the "eye" consists of nothing more than a little mass of dark coloring matter, known as pigment, placed around the outer edge of a nerve. You know how much warmer on a hot day a black dress is than a white one, and a black sunshade seems to collect more heat than does a light one. In a similar way the little black mass of pigment absorbs the heat in the strong light, and by this simple means the animal may be able to perceive the direction of the light and regulate its actions accordingly. A greatly improved form of this pigment-eye is seen in a tiny crustacean, that is, a crab-like animal, about the size of a pinhead and almost everywhere in fresh-water ponds and ditches. Its name is Daphnia, and its head, when seen side-wise under a microscope, looks like that of a bird, with its large round black eye. But if you see it from above you will notice that instead of having two eyes it has but one, and that one in the center of the head, and thus upon whichever side you look you see the same eye. This queer organ does not come to the surface anywhere, which is in this case of no importance, since the head is perfectly transparent; and surrounding the mass of pigment there are clustered a number of crystalline bodies which draw the rays of light like so many lenses, and in addition may catch a little of the color, and possibly of the form, of surrounding objects. This eye is turned up and down by the muscles, which act much like rubber bands, and the eye is constantly cocked up and rolled around as if to search farther into the world of which it can learn so little.—From the Nature and Science department in the September St. Nicholas.

THE BOYS' BATH TUB.

Ralph Connor, in his new Glengarry Stories, in Leslie's Monthly for September.

The last quarter of a mile to the Deephole in the brook was always a dead race, for it was a point of distinction to be the first to plunge, and the last few seconds of the race were spent in the preliminaries of the disrobing. A single brace slipped off the shoulder, a flutter of a shirt over the head, a kick of the trousers and whoop! plunge! "Hurrah! first in!" And then the little boys would dress. A simple process, but more difficult by far than the other, for the trousers would stick to the wet feet—no boy would dream of a towel, nor dare to be guilty of such a piece of "stuck-up-ness"—and the shirt would get wrong side out, or would bundle round the neck, or would cling to the wet shoulders till they had to get on their knees almost to squirm into it. But that over, all was over. The brace, or if the buttons were still on the braces were easily jerked up on the shoulders and there you were. Coats, boots and stockings were superfluous, collars and ties utterly despised.

A Logging Story, by Stewart Edward White in the September McClure's. Stewart Edward White seems at present to hold an unquestioned literary mortgage on the forests of Michigan. When he writes of lumbering he is always at his best, whether it be in novel or short story form. Every bit as good in its way as his "Blazed Trail," which is now going into its seventh edition, is a short three-page sketch in the September McClure's, called "The River Boss," which tells how Jimmy—he had no other name, in the simple process of obeying orders unlawfully flooded the town of Grand Rapids in the dead of night in order to float a 5,000,000-foot drive of logs off the shallows and save the owner's contract.

A young woman of my acquaintance makes her pin money marking linen. She writes a fine hand and her dainty chirography on pretty gift handkerchiefs gives to them an additional value. She does the work at her own convenience, not being at the "beck and call" of an employer. The nicety of the work is well understood, and so it comes about that much of the household linens, napkins, towels, handkerchiefs, bridal outfits in that little city bear the print of a delicate touch. For weeks before the holidays she is kept busy marking the hundreds of articles to be given away. For weeks after, her nimble fingers are no less busily employed marking the hundreds that have been received. In the fall the wardrobes of the young girls going off to college and seminary must be marked—and so this young woman with the deft fingers reaps another harvest. She stiffens the corner of each handkerchief crosswise—a space just large enough to take in the name—with cold starch and presses with a very hot iron, thus making the fabric like paper to write upon.—Good House-keeping.

TRAINING THE LORDLY LION.

Madame Devere tells of Her Dangerous Profession.

Madam Pauline Devere, the French lion trainer, who will be seen here in the great Bostock Ferari trained wild animal show is without question the greatest female lion subjigator the world has ever known. Her mastery over the mighty forest monarchs is something which seems almost superhuman.

In an interesting talk about her savage pupils she recently said: True I dearly love my lions and they love as much as a lion can love. Their very love and the jealousy that accompanies it may at any time cause one of them to tear me to pieces if I chance to make too much ver one of the others. Once in Minneapolis where I was exhibiting, Nero sprang at me and nearly tore my arm off. When Nero attacked me lioness Empress leaped at him and grabbed him by the throat throwing him backwards away from me. She would bite me herself if she felt ugly but she would go for any one of the others that did it.

Kindness should be the foundation of the training of all wild animals. Get their love and confidence and the battle is half won. I have used no other method and I know of no other lion trainer who can do more with lions than I can. The simple diverting of his intelligence and natural sagacity from the forest to those of the arena is the secret of lion training. But in order to succeed with them you must make a life study of their natures and dispositions and always treat them kindly.

See the wonderful dancing bear, Farina, on the Bostock-Ferari Midway. South Bend Sept. 1 to 6.

The FASTEST GROWING STORE IN INDIANA

FIRST SHOWING Dress Fabrics FOR FALL WEAR

No truer index to a store's worth than its dress goods; no better evidence of our leadership is necessary than our present marvelous growth—it's the keen study of your needs—the vast purchases for two thriving stores and the consequent price concessions therefrom, these two elements make "Economy" dress goods important. This showing excels any previous season's—embraces all the novelties in weaves and designs; particular folks will find much to admire, nothing to disappoint. That's our warrant—for asking you here. But the fact we wish to emphasize (and one you will easily verify) is the prices—that clinches the argument. We're being deluged with goods—builders are a bit tardy—interior changes are imminent—we must sell the goods—these are friend-making prices that impress every judge of good values:

CHIQUITA'S AUTOMOBILE.

The Smallest Ever Built Will Be Seen Here Shortly.

The most unique and, at the same time, the smallest automobile ever built will be seen here. The Jenkins Automobile Company, of Washington, have completed the machine. It has been at the order of Chiquita, the tiny Cuban atom of humanity. The machine is a splendid specimen of the carriage-makers skill, fitted with electric lights and electric gong. It is a victoria, with top and upholstered in solid leather. The body is painted a dark green, with running gear of bright red, with nickel-plated wheels and pneumatic tires two inches in diameter. In fact, it is an exact miniature of a full grown Victoria, with everything complete down to the tiny gong and card case. With the top up it does not come up to an ordinary man's elbow. It is, to look at, a toy or model. Victoria of the style that has become so popular, and is easily the most graceful of all the machines so far turned out. It is perfect in all its appointments, even to the most minute details. In order that the chauffeur may be in keeping with the machine, Mr. Frank C. Bostack, who controls the destinies of the little lady, has secured a dwarf who has been taught how to handle the vehicle. Chiquita's automobile is operated by electricity, and with the batteries charged and in position weighs 225 pounds, and can run for fifteen hours at an average speed rate of ten miles an hour. It is not much larger than an ordinary baby carriage. The seat is eighteen inches long, and the forward wheels with pneumatic tires are eight inches, while the rear wheels are twelve inches in diameter. The lacquer work and general finish of this dainty little affair is of the very best workmanship, and with its mistress and her little chauffeur it can not help but make a very attractive appearance on the city streets. At the Elks' fall festival South Bend, Sept. 1 to 6.

CORRESPONDENCE

BENTON HARBOR

The list of criminal cases to be tried at the September term of court, is of unusual length and interest.

John Barnes, of the firm of Spencer & Barnes, is now the proprietor of the largest steamer on Indian lake.

The new ward school building on Columbus Ave., will be completed in November.

There was a big excursion last Saturday of eighteen coaches full of people from Three Rivers and intermediate points.

The types made us say last week, that there were 1,200 visitors in St. Joseph the Sunday before. Just one cipher short.

J. C. Lewis who tours the country as "Si Plunkard" likes our city so well that he has bought a small fruit farm near by, for a home, when off the stage.

The Twin cities have been billed for several weeks announcing the big Labor day celebration to be given at St. Joseph by the different Trades unions.

Prof. Avery, formerly connected with the Buchanan schools, has been visiting with his family at the home of his brother Geo. Avery. He left last Friday to assume the superintendency of the public schools of Madison, S. D.

Cyrus Curtis, the engineer at Spencer & Barnes, formerly of Buchanan, became dizzy and fell from a ladder, spraining his wrist and cutting his head. He was insensible for a time but is now recovering.

Another drowning occurred at King's Landing Sunday. Joseph Garrett of Chicago 28 years old fell from a pleasure boat. He threw up his hands in the act of laughing, lost his balance and fell backward into deep water.

Rev. Geo. B. Simons of Indianola, Ia., is spending his vacation here. Yesterday morning he preached for Rev. E. A. Hoffman, whose wife is very ill. Next Sunday he will preach to his former parishioners, at the First Baptist church. By the way, the town in which he now lives has a population of over 4,000, but no saloon is allowed there and even the drug stores will not sell whiskey unless mixed with some other ingredient. As the excursion from here to Marion, Ind. last Thursday was returning home, Geo. Edwards, colored, who has been employed in the street paving, fell, while intoxicated, from the rear platform of the train, which was running 40 miles an hour. In falling he grasped the railing and was dragged and thrashed about for 400 feet and when he let go was thrown 20 feet into the air, then rolled off one side into the woods. Word was brought home that he had met a horrible death. Searchers for the body however failed to find it, for the reason that it was making good time on the ties toward home, where he resumed his work next day at the street paving.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

- For Congressman HON. EDWARD L. HAMILTON, of Niles. For Governor HON. A. T. BLISS, of Saginaw. For Lieutenant Governor ALEX. MAITLAND. For Secretary of State FRED M. WARNER. For Treasurer DANIEL MCCOY. For Auditor General PERRY F. POWERS. For Attorney General CHARLES A. BLAIR. For Land Comr. EDWIN A. WILDEY. For Supt. Public Instruction DELOS A. FALL. Members State Board of Education LUTHER L. WRIGHT, PATRICK H. KELLY.

EDITOR BOWER, Record Reader

Again we take off our hat to our readers. April 17 about four and one half months ago, we took charge of the RECORD. You were then getting 8 pages once a week. On July 16 we decided that you would like the paper better if we gave it to you twice a week; for one month and a half we have been visiting you each week two times, with 4 pages each time, and we have been giving you as much local news in each as you had in both before, but our advertising and our news gathering capacity has outgrown our 8 pages. We will this week give you 14 pages, almost double what we have been giving you, and we shall always aim to give you at least 12 pages.

Some one says how can you do this at $1.00? We can if all our subscribers pay promptly in advance, but we cannot unless you do. We shall hereafter charge $1.25 per year, but those who pay promptly in advance will have a reduction of 25 cents and all new subscribers will have a reduction of 25 cents.

Every subscriber will be welcomed at the office, if it is possible for you to call upon us—unfortunately we have not the opportunity of knowing you as you know us. We would be very glad to have you all call, and when you have any news items to as many others have, bring it in. We cannot see you all so you must tell us what you have if you wish us to mention it.

Keep your eyes open and watch us grow, not by gathering what others sow, but by what we ourselves do.

Advertisers

The business people of Buchanan who advertise want to bear in mind that to bring returns from your advertising you must first offer some thing of exceptional value, next you want to place that advertisement where it will reach the people, lastly you want to give the people just what you advertise or better; let no one after reading your ad when seeing your goods go away and say he is disappointed, but have him say he is better pleased than he expected. You have the goods to advertise, we have the medium to get it to the people, and when we send it out you need not send circulars after it for fear it did not get to them. The RECORD reaches the people you wish to have know what you have to sell.

We might mention a number of instances to prove what we say is

Sunday School Lessons

We begin with today's issue an exposition of the Sunday school lesson. This ought to be appreciated by many people. If it is we hope you will show your appreciation by at least speaking a word to us; if after a thorough trial we do not find it appreciated we will discontinue it.

Next Monday will be labor day. We are not aware of anything being done in Buchanan.

Next Tuesday the school room will again house hundreds of our bright active pupils, some for the first time others starting their final year's work.

Tuesday night the "Noisy Dozen" were entertained by Mrs. H. H. Hosford at Clear lake, in honor of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Webster, of Mishawaka.

We believe in home improvements, and the towns that have more neater and bright looking homes than we have are difficult to find, but we do not want to rest until we have a nice park.

The citizens of Benton Harbor are coming to the rescue of the assembly, and they can wisely do so, for nothing that they could bring to Benton Harbor will produce so good and lasting effect as the assembly. It is a pity that some of the money now donated was not spent for tickets to admit many who could not pay.

Dr. Andrew D. White, ambassador at Berlin, has resigned the ambassadorship to take effect November 7th next. The announcement is not unexpected as a report has been current sometime that he would retire from public life on reaching his 70th birthday. His retirement will be a loss to the diplomatic service which he has honored so many years.

D. L. Boardman advertised in no way except in the columns of the RECORD and in the history of Buchanan there never was a better sale. Our ad came out in the Saturday morning paper and before the door was open the people were there and it has been a constant rush ever since. Offer real bargains and we will get it to the people and you will get the trade.

Religious Exhibits at World's Fair.

For the first time in the history of exhibitions there will be, at St. Louis a distinctive religious exhibit in a building exclusively for this purpose. All religious bodies having the Bible as the basis of their organization will be given space for exhibits.

The St. Louis Evangelical Alliance which includes 12 denominations started the movement; Jews and Gentiles, Catholic and Protestants are engaged in the movement and all religious depositories throughout the world will be drawn upon for their most costly treasures. The history and progress of missions and the development of religious educational work will also be presented.

Call for State Judicial Convention

DETROIT, Mich., August 1, 1902.

To the Republican Electors of the State of Michigan:

The State Convention of the Republicans of Michigan is hereby called to meet at the Auditorium in the city of Grand Rapids on Thursday, September 25, 1902, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Justice of the Supreme court, and transacting such other business as may properly come before the convention.

In accordance with the resolutions of 1876 and 1900, every county will be entitled to one delegate for each five hundred of the total vote cast therein for Governor at the last election in a presidential year (November 1900) and one additional delegate for every fraction amounting to three hundred, each organized county being entitled to at least two delegates. Under the resolutions of 1858, no delegate will be entitled to a seat in the Convention who does not reside in the county he proposes to represent.

The delegates from the several counties in each Congressional District are requested to meet in district caucus at ten o'clock a.m. on the day of the State Convention, and select officers as follows, to be presented to the State Convention for confirmation: 1—One Vice-President; 2—One Assistant Secretary; 3—One member of the committee on "Credentials;" 4—One member of the committee on "Permanent Organization and order of Business;" 5—One member of the committee on "Resolutions;" By order of the Republican State Central Committee.

GERBERT J. DIEKEMA, Chairman. DENNIS E. ALWARD, Secretary.

APPORTIONMENT OF DELEGATES.

The apportionment of delegates to the several counties, on the basis of the total vote cast for Governor, November 6, 1900, (the last election held in a Presidential year), viz: one delegate for each five hundred votes or more—entitles Berrien county to 24 delegates.

Republican County Convention.

A Republican County Convention will be held at the city of Niles on Thursday the 18th day of September A. D. 1902 at eleven o'clock in the forenoon to nominate candidates for the following county offices: Sheriff, County Clerk, County Treasurer, Register of Deeds, Prosecuting Attorney, 2 Circuit Court Commissioners, 2 Coroners, County Surveyor, Fish Inspector, and for the election of twenty-four delegates to attend the Republican State Convention to be held at the city of Grand Rapids on September 25 1902; and for the purpose of electing thirty-two delegates to the senatorial convention yet to be called; and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.

The following is the number of delegates to which each township and ward is entitled:

Representative Convention

A Republican representative convention will be held in Bullard's hall in the city of Niles, on Wednesday, September 3, 1902, at 11 o'clock a. m. to nominate a candidate for Representative in the State Legislature from the Second District of Berrien County, and to transact such other business as may come before the convention.

The following is the apportionment of delegates to the several townships and wards:

Table with columns: Township/Ward and Delegates. Lists townships like Bainbridge, Berrien, and wards like 1st W., 2nd W., etc., with delegate counts.

HENRY L. HESS, E. L. HAMILTON, THOMAS MARRS } Committee.

Democratic County Convention.

The Democrats of Berrien county will meet in convention at St. Joseph, Mich., at the Academy of Music, on Wednesday, September 10, 1902, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the county ticket, and to transact such other business as may properly come before it.

The following is the apportionment of delegates from the several voting precincts of the county:

Table with columns: Precinct and Delegates. Lists precincts like Bainbridge, Berrien, and wards like 1st ward, 2nd ward, etc., with delegate counts.

BUCHANAN BOASTS OF THE PUREST AND HEALTHIEST WATER.

In this issue we give a full and complete description of Buchanan water supply and pumping station. The cuts show the building and also the engineers. Geo Heward the genial night engineer has been at the station since July 19, 1894; one year after the work was begun. In all that time he has lost only twenty-three nights, this is a record that can find few equals.

W. L. Vinton the day engineer has been at the station for three years, having had experience as an engineer previous to this at Bainton Bros., the Cabinet works and other places. Having had considerable practice he is now taking a course of study with the National Correspondence School of Scranton.

We think all will recognize the pictures and will now proceed to give a detailed account of the plant.

exhaust steam from the main or service pumps.

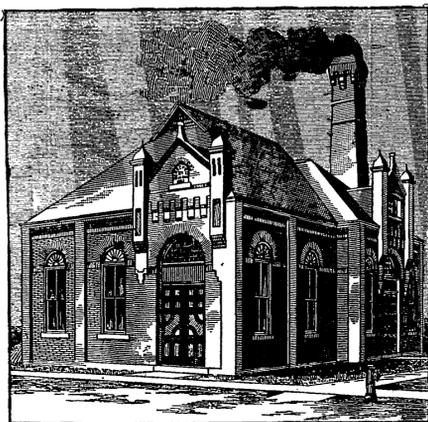

The water is heated from two hundred to two hundred twelve degrees by the exhaust steam which would otherwise go to waste and makes a gain of about 20 per cent over feeding cold water. The pans contained in the heater collect all sediment in the water that is precipitated at the degree to which the water is heated, preventing same from passing into the boiler where they would be precipitated on the shell and tubes, and owing to the high temperature be baked on so hard that in some cases it is almost impossible to chip them off.

The pump room contains two sets of pumps, the first to be installed being a Walker pumping engine of one million gallons capacity in twenty four hours, its size being: steam steam cylinders seventeen inches in diameter, twelve inch stroke and fifteen inch water cylinders and has a capacity of one and one half million gallons in twenty four hours. This pump obtains its water from the main reservoir through a twelve inch suction pipe and discharges through a ten inch pipe into the mains.

The capacity of the plant is two and a half million gallon in twenty four hours. The present amount being pumped is about one hundred twenty thousand gallons. The pressure carried for domestic use being 50 pounds per square inch, for fire a pressure of 60 to 90 pounds being maintained, depending upon the location of the fire.

The wells are six in number and are six inches in diameter, being driven to a depth of from 45 to 70 feet, all flowing into a main reser-

PUMPING STATION.

OUR ENGINEERS AT THE PUMPING STATION.

We will first take up the boiler room for here lies the energy which gives us power.

The type of boiler used at the water works is known as the return tubular. There are two of these, their dimensions being twelve feet long, forty-eight inches in diameter and containing thirty-six, three and a half inch tubes. They are fed by what is known as a duplex feed pump. That is, two pumps mounted side by side and on the same base. The valve of each pump receiving its motion from the piston rod of the opposite side by means of a rocker shaft lever.

The pump obtains its supply of water from what is known as an open feed water heater. This consists of a cylindrical closed tank made of steel plates containing corrugated iron pans over which the cold water flows, coming in contact with the cylinder twelve inches in diameter, twelve inch stroke and water cylinder eight inches in diameter.

This engine is supplied with water from the main reservoir through an eight inch suction pipe to each water cylinder and discharged through a six inch discharge pipe from the pump into a cushioning chamber which is kept partly filled with air to form a cushion for the mains. This chamber is twelve feet high and four feet in diameter and is connected directly with the mains. Owing to the incompressibility of water its action upon the mains in being discharged from the pumps is rather severe but this chamber being partly filled with air which is compressible and elastic lessens the shock or hammer of the water on the mains.

The second pump to be installed is a Worthington duplex pump, having veir, 20 feet in diameter and 15 feet deep.

Two of the wells are driven in the bottom of the reservoir and flow all the time. The other four are driven two at the south and two at the north of the reservoir. These are piped over into the main reservoir and only flow after the water has reached a depth of about three feet below which level the water has never been pumped.

These outside wells are made to flow by means of a small pipe attached to the suction pipe to pump which produces a partial vacuum in them, causing them to flow over into main reservoirs.

From this description it will be seen that we have a finely equipped water works. The water is absolutely pure. We have no cases of typhoid fever here. One of the things home seekers need to look after.

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW.

What a Heap of Happiness it would Bring to Buchanan Homes.

Hard to do housework with an aching back. Hours of misery at leisure or at work. If women only knew the cause; backache pains come from sick kidneys, Doan's Kidney Pills will cure it, Buchanan people endorse this. Mrs. M. Griffin, of West Front St., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills procured at W. N. Brodrick's drug store and I think them an excellent remedy for backache and kidney complaint. I was troubled for some time with a dull aching feeling in the small of my back often quite severe more especially if I over exerted myself or took a slight cold. I used a great many remedies of which some were worthless and others relieved me for a time. This I cheerfully say about Doan's Kidney Pills. I received more permanent relief from them than from any other remedy I ever took." For sale by all dealers; price 50c. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name, Doan's and take no other.

Rev. O. J. Roberts, former pastor of the Presbyterian church here, and now located at White Lake, has received a letter from his son Ellis in Chicago, stating that he had been promoted from an electrician to clerk in the chief accountant's office of the Pullman Car Works, with a good salary attached.

"If women would pay more attention to their health we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would observe results they would find that the doctors' prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for."

"In consulting with my druggist he advised McElee's Wine of Cardui and Theford's Black-Draught, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me."

Wine of Cardui is a regulator of the menstrual functions and is a most astonishing tonic for women. It cures scanty, suppressed, too frequent, irregular and painful menstruation, falling of the womb, whites and flooding. It is helpful when approaching womanhood, during pregnancy, after childbirth and in change of life. It frequently brings a dear baby to homes that have been barren for years. All druggists have $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

HURDLE RACES

A Good Time for Everyone.

The coming West Michigan State Fair which is to be held in Grand Rapids, Sept. 29th to Oct 4th, promises to be one of the most successful fairs ever held in the middle west.

It starts out this year under particularly happy prospects, for it is backed financially by the leading merchants and business men of Grand Rapids who have subscribed and paid in most liberally toward its maintenance, over $15,000 being on hand to make the fair a go. This means that the premiums will be a tangible thing and will incite exhibitions of the best grade, it will bring to the fair the finest stock, the best poultry, as well as a generous amount of fine entertainments.

One of the many interesting features will be running races, and among the running races will be hurdle races, than which there are none more exciting and none full of more clear and clean sport. The entries in all departments are filling up most satisfactorily and it will be a winner from the word go, and the features of the fair will warrant the generous patronage of the western part of this state.

The premium list is ready for mailing now, and the pleasant feature of that is that the premium list can be guaranteed as soon as the prize is won; there's a good deal in that!

The West Michigan State Fair will be held at Comstock Park, and the new bridge over the river at that point will be ready and the street cars will run across it, thus carrying passengers into the fair grounds.

The railroads are planning for an immense throng, and have made a half-fare rate for the fair. The city will be at its best at that time, so that there is every prospect for a good time at the fair. Those wishing a Premium List or other information can write Deafness Cannot be Cured by local application as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Sent for circulars, free.

F. J. GIBNEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists. Hall's Family Pills are the best. Just call "No 9" and central will give you the Record office. Then tell us any bit of news you know.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON IX, THIRD QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, AUG. 31.

Text of the Lesson, Num. xxi, 1-9. Memory Verses, 6-8—Golden Text, John iii, 14, 15—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1902, by American Press Association.]

1-3. He fought against Israel and took some of them prisoners.

This is the story of Arad the Canaanite, who dwelt in the south. He seems to have remembered the visit of the spies and possibly at that time did some talking and threatening, but now it is no handful of men who have come; it is a whole nation that he sees approaching, and in his folly he seeks to resist them, for he knows not the Lord nor His purposes. When Abram first came to the land, the Canaanites were in the land, and 400 years later we saw them there in last week's lesson (Gen. xii, 6; Num. xiii, 29). There are about thirty-eight years between the last lesson and this one, for in chapter xx, which begins with the death of Miriam and ends with the death of Aaron, we read in verse 1 that they are back at Kadesh, where they were in chapter xiii, 26, when they sent the spies, and we know from chapter xxxiii, 38, that Aaron died in the fortieth year after they left Egypt. How little is known of those thirty-eight years! It was time lost in wandering because of unbelief, for they are no nearer the promised land now than they were in the last lesson. How many believers thus wander a lifetime on the borders of a land they never enter, and all because of unbelief! They do really put their trust in the Lord Jesus and accept Him as their Saviour, but because they cannot obtain some one else's experience and will not take God at His word they wander on lacking assurance.

4. And they journeyed from Mount Hor by the way of the Red sea to compass the land of Edom, and the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way.

Mount Hor is memorable as the place where Aaron died. Moses, Aaron and Eleazar went up into Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation, and Moses, stripping Aaron of his garments, put them upon Eleazar, and Aaron died there (Num. xx, 27, 28). He was not sick, but his time had come to go home, and this is the brief account of it. It was gain to him. It was very far better (Phil. i, 21, 23, R. V.). The reason they had to compass the land of Edom instead of going through it was that the king would not allow them to pass through (Judg. xi, 16, 17).

5. And the people spake against God and against Moses.

They loathe the manna and say that there is no bread and no water. So they are full of trouble because they are rebellious and unmanageable. The record concerning them is found in Ps. lxxviii, 17, 18, 19, 22, 37, 40, 41.

What a record of enmity against Him who loved them and sought only their welfare! See His heart toward them in Ps. lxxxii, 10-16. "I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt."

6. And the Lord sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people, and much people of Israel died.

The New Testament admonition in this connection is, "Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted and were destroyed of serpents" (1 Cor. x, 9). Lest any one might think that he never would be thus guilty, it is written in the context, "Let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall," and lest one might think that his trials are unusually heavy and too much to be borne see verse 13.

Therefore, the people came to Moses and said: "We have sinned, for we have spoken against the Lord and against thee. Pray unto the Lord that He take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people."

Many a time Moses had prayed for them, and it is written of him that "Moses, His chosen, stood before Him in the breach to turn away His wrath, lest He should destroy them" (Ps. cv, 23). Moses and Samuel and Daniel and other great intercessors are types of Him who ever liveth to make intercession for us (Heb. vii, 25; Rom. viii, 34), and there is exceeding great comfort in such words as I John i, 9, and Prov. xxviii, 13, l. c. Yet the time came when neither Moses nor Samuel, Noah, Daniel nor Job could avail for Israel if they should pray for them (Jer. xv, 1; Ezek. xiv, 14).

8. And the Lord said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent and set it upon a pole, and it shall come to pass that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live.

Thus Moses did, and it came to pass as the Lord had said. He who told Moses to do this saw in it a symbol of Himself on the cross for the sins of the world, and He so spoke of it to Nicodemus in our Golden Text for this lesson (John iii, 14, 15). That old serpent, the devil, by sin has bitten our race, and multitudes are perishing, but as the likeness of that which had bitten Israel was put upon a pole for their deliverance so the Lord Jesus was on the cross made sin for us that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him (1 Cor. v, 21). The serpent on the pole was suggestive of a dead, not living, serpent. So in Christ on the cross we see sin rendered harmless to injure those who are in Christ. "The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law; but thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ" (1 Cor. xv, 56, 57). As quickly as the eyes of a blind Israelite fell upon the serpent on the pole he lived, and the moment a sinner looks to Jesus on the cross, suffering in His stead, there is life for him in Christ, as it is written, "Look unto me and be ye saved" (Isa. xlv, 22). The serpent on the pole was no thought of Moses, but the Lord's own provision.
