COLONIAL PARTY.

Thirty Club and Their Friends Enjoy a Social Evening.

"A health to alle, both ye old friends and ye newe."

The ladies of the 30 Club with their gentlemen and lady friends spent the evening of Wednesday, January 28, at the home of Mrs E. W. Sanders.

The guests were met at the door by ladies each holding a tallow candle and looking very quaint with their hair powdered and their costumes of such an old fashioned style. The house, as appropriate for the occasion, was tastefully decorated with flags and evergreens and was lighted throughout by tallow candles. About sixty guests were present, many of whom appeared in colonial style, and it was indeed interesting to hear the history of many of the old costumes there.

The forepart of the evening was spent in dancing old fashioned reels to the sweet strains of Mr. M. Cathcart's violin. Contests were then entered into. In the guessing contest it was necessary for Mrs. Carrie Crotsier and Mr. Frank Sanders to draw cuts, the later won the prize; and of the spelling contest Mrs. Gertrude Rough was the winner.

An appropriate supper was served in the most old fashioned way possible, with Mrs. Sadie Hosford presiding over the tea urn. For once, everyone present had enough to eat of the good things "like mother used to make." The remainder of the evening was spent in playing games of various kinds and as the guests departed about 11:30 they declared it was one of the most pleasant evenings spent and that the committee, composed of Mesdames Hosford, Peck and Boyle and Misses Wilcox, and Redden certainly deserved a great deal of praise.

So on all occasions like that of "Colonial Evening" let us think "Enjoy life while you live, for you will be a long time deadde."

"Coonley's Beef Iron and wine with Nervine did me lots of good last year; give me a bottle for my wife." Edward Herring, South Bend Large bottles 50c at Dr. E. S. Dodd & Son's.

HAPPY-GO-LUCKY.

Unique Midwinter Picnic Enjoyed by Club Members and Friends.

The special meeting of the Happy-Go-Lucky Club was held at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Porter last Tuesday evening and proved to be a most enjoyable affair.

It was a midwinter picnic and every arrangement was carried out to the final detail, to make the effect real. In one corner of a room was a lake, made of unframed mirrors, and bordered with evergreen trees, through the park evergreens were used freely, and such signs as are usually seen at a summer resort were in evidence; "Please keep off the grass," "No spooning allowed," "Boats to let," "Bathing Suits for rent," etc. etc.; a popcorn booth completed the summer scene.

Supper was served on the would-be lawn the guests sitting on the floor and using wooden plates, steel forks, etc., and drinking pink lemonade.

At the card tables Miss Minnie Shafer won the ladies prize, a vase, and Mr. Will Watson of Three Oaks, the gentlemen's prize, a picture of Shakespeare.

HOLD UP

Niles Citizen Victim of Bold Attempt at Robbery.

Edward W. Stewart of Niles who, in company with Leo Fry, was returning from his work, in the Board and Paper Works, was confronted by two men, who covered them with their revolvers and Stewart was ordered to give up his money. A scuffle ensued and the desperado fired a shot from his revolver which by good fortune was deflected from its course by striking Stewart's dinner pail, and inflicted only a flesh wound. His companion ran, yelling for the police whom he soon found. In the meantime the robbers made their escape and have not been found. In their hasty departure a letter and revolver were dropped which may be a clue to their identity.

"One bottle of Coonley's Tonic Ext. of Sarsaparilla cured my daughter of a bad case of catarrh and eruption on her face, leaving her complexion smooth and fresh." Charles Bruce, contractor, South Bend Large bottles 50c at Dr. E. S. Dodd & Son's.

SHOT AN INTRUDER.

Charles Boucher, a Well-Known Cattle Buyer, Has a Close Call.

Galen is greatly stirred up over a sensational shooting affair, which occurred in the village the other night. Postmaster Glover, who did the shooting, had reason to suspect that some one was clandestinely visiting his wife. He had entertained the idea for some time, it is said, and he finally decided to investigate. He waited until what he considered a seasonable hour, when he closed the post office and hurried home. Upon his arrival at the Glover domicile, he found the doors securely fastened. His suspicions became stronger than ever and he forced a door. And at this stage of the game, Charles Boucher made a dive for a door on the opposite side of the house. Mr. Glover at once brought his shooting irons into play, pursuing the fleeing man into the street.

Richard W. Montross, who lives just opposite the postmaster's house, happened to be near by when the shooting commenced, and he started across the road to see what the trouble was. As he did so, Boucher ran toward him and Postmaster Glover fearful of hitting Mr. Montross, shot low a couple of times, one of the bullets lodging in the heel of Boucher's right foot. Boucher, who was putting up the sprint act of his life, did not allow so slight an injury to impair his speed until he had arrived at the village saloon, from which place he dispatched a messenger to a livery for a rig to take him to New Carlisle. A few minutes later he left the village, and has not since been seen by the villagers. Boucher has three divorces to his credit. All of the parties concerned are past middle life. The postmaster is now stopping at the village hotel.—Niles Star.

Judge Coolidge announced Saturday that he will not summon any talesmen for the case but the jury will be drawn from the regular panel. Benton Harbor men who may sit as jurors in this murder case are; Ald. Frank W. Jordan, John Scoarier, Arthur Beoney and L. W. Ruggles.—Benton Harbor Evening News.

We publish in this issue the dates and places of the farmer's institutes for the month of February. The benefits that can be secured from attending these is known to many of our up-to-date farmers.

The New Buffalo high school will give a very creditable entertainment at Rough's Opera House on Friday evening, and we feel, knowing as we do that it comes under the best auspices, it ought to be liberally patronized.

In an interview this week with Mr. MacSmith, of the Indiana Electric Roads, he said that Buchanan would not be overlooked, and that when they had the present load off their hands they would come to Buchanan and desired to meet a number of the leading business people, not for a bonus as they ask nothing but the right to do a legitimate business, he also stated there had been no thought and of purchasing the M. B. H. & C. that there had been no arrangement made what they would do in regard to power. Mr. MacSmith is a very agreeable and a straight forward man and when he comes to Buchanan let him be accorded a ready hearing.

This communication is better than pages in a newspaper about the value of the Wall Atlas. It shows how the atlas goes to the heart of the home to the unfolding mind of the child. It makes him ask questions, to help as nothing else can to ripen his dreams into words and teach him knowledge. You get the Atlas free at this office with the Record, for a year's subscription. BRUNKE FOUND GUILTY

Crime is Manslaughter—Will not be Sentenced for Several Days.

The jury in the Brunke trial brought in a verdict of guilty of manslaughter on Wednesday evening at 11:30 after having been out something over eight hours. They asked for mercy for the prisoner.

The punishment for the crime is imprisonment of from one day to fifteen years in the penitentiary and a fine of from 10 cents to $1,000, or both fine and imprisonment.

The defendant was near his brothers and sisters when the verdict was read by the foreman of the jury, John Lawrence, and received his sentence without demonstrations. His sisters wept bitterly.

The court thanked the jury for their faithful service and attention and discharged them.

Brunke has been placed in charge of the sheriff by Judge Cooledge.

Prosecuting Att. Riford is reported to be well satisfied with the verdict and believes it a fair one.

READ ALL OF THIS.

It Will Amply Repay Buchanan People to Make a Note of This Information.

Will the reader from morbid curiosity alone, if from no other reason, read carefully the statement published below, then compare it with similar statements made by other medical preparations which appear daily in Buchanan papers.

Mr. S. F. Snell, sugar manufacturer, of Division street, Dowagiac, says: "I found by personal experience that Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Sherwood & Burlingame's drug store is a medicine of rare virtue. I had a severe lameness which was something unusual and when, on my feet I had an aching across the loins. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me almost immediate relief and it was only a short time till the lameness and backache were a thing of the past. Doan's Kidney Pills did for me all they claimed to do."

Just such emphatic endorsement is plentiful in Buchanan. Call at W. N. Brodriek's drug store and ask him what his customers report. For sale by all dealers. Price 50c Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no other.

SALARIES FOR SOLONS

Proposition Before the Legislature to Pay the Lawmakers So Much a Session.

RADIOAL MOVE ON KING ALCOHOL

Measure That Gives Him No Rights That Any One Need Respect—Whiting Close to Death.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 30. — The oft-tried scheme to raise the salaries of the state legislators is on foot again, and this time to do or die. Representative Colby has introduced a resolution sending the proposition to the people for decision at the spring election and he will introduce another resolution in skeleton form to provide for the possibility of defeat by the people in which case the skeleton resolution will be used toward the close of the legislative session to order the submission to the people a second time of the proposition. Under Representative Colby's plan the legislators would receive a stated salary of $1,000 for service in the regular session of the legislature with pay for possible special sessions provided for at $2 a day.

Aimed at the Liquor Traffic.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 30. — A measure aimed at the liquor traffic is before the senate in the form of a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the state constitution relative to the liquor traffic. The resolution, for which Senator Lockerby, who introduced it, refuses to stand as more than nominal father, provides for the submission to the people of a proposition to prohibit the manufacture, gift, or sale of spirituous, malt, or vinous liquor in this state, except for medicinal, mechanical, chemical, or scientific purposes, and declaring that no property rights in such spirituous, malt or vinous liquors shall be deemed to exist, except the right to manufacture or sell for medicinal, mechanical, chemical, or scientific purposes under such restrictions and regulations as may be provided by law.

WHITING SUFFERS A COLLAPSE

Doctors Say They Have Done Their Best, but He Seems Still Nearer Death.

St. Clair, Mich., Jan. 30.—Hon. Justin R. Whiting was unconscious yesterday morning, and the end is believed to be near at hand. The patient maintained the improvement which ensued Wednesday after he had rallied from a collapse until midnight. Then he became restless, and towards day-break suffered another collapse. Since then he has not even recognized Dr. Burtless, the family physician, whom he never failed to greet when he entered his room Wednesday.

The physicians say they have done all that they can do for the sick man. Dr. Jennings, of Detroit, and Dr. Wilson, of Port Huron, who were in consultation Wednesday afternoon with Dr. Burtless, diagnosed the case, as Dr. Burtless had done, as intoxication of the liver, caused by indigestion. They have been unable to check the giving off of poison from the liver.

Mrs. Fleckenstein charged her husband with brutality and drunkenness, in which she claimed he kicked her and knocked her to the ground. The bill of complaint contains other charges too lurid for publication. Dr. Fleckenstein did not appear against his wife.

"I dreaded the change of life which was fast approaching. I noticed Wine of Cardui, and decided to try a bottle. I experienced some relief the first month, so I kept on taking it for three months and now I menstruate with no pain and I shall take it off and on now until I have passed the climax."

Female weakness, disordered menses, falling of the womb and ovarian troubles do not wear off. They follow a woman to the change of life. Do not wait but take Wine of Cardui now and avoid the trouble. ## FUEL OF FUTURE

Michigan Peat Abundant and Valuable—Kalamazoo and Van Buren Deposits Very Rich.

Expert Opinion Places the Cost at $2 Per Ton—Large Tracts Owned by Carl G. Kleinstuck and A. M. Todd—The Former Has Devoted Years to Investigation.

Peat as the poor man's fuel is destined to come into general use, according to Carl G. Kleinstuck of this city. Mr. Kleinstuck has been a citizen of this county for many years and lives on a beautiful farm just outside the city limits. For the past 30 years he has been interested in peat and its possibilities in this state, where it abounds plentifully in many counties. He recently purchased over 1,000 acres of peat land in Kalamazoo, Allegan and Van Buren counties and intends to go into the extensive production of crude peat for fuel. He has considerable peat land on his farm here and it has already yielded a considerable quantity of the stuff.

Not long ago Mr. Kleinstuck spent three months in Europe inspecting the large peat swamps there and comparing the quality of the European product with American peat. As a result, he is satisfied that American peat far exceeds European peat in quality and is more abundant. Samples from the peat beds of Kalamazoo were submitted to experts in the government experiment station at Bremen and pronounced by them to be a very superior quality. It was the general opinion there that the Michigan peat beds may become as valuable as those in Holland or Germany. These Michigan beds seem to have been formed by old time growths of Buffalo grass and are rich in fuel properties.

USES OF PEAT.

"The great field open for peat in the American market is well known," said Mr. Kleinstuck today. "This spongy class of vegetable matter is used for paper making, bedding, gas, coke, gutta percha, blankets, soap, etc. I do not propose, however, to work my swamps for these purposes, as the American peat is not so fibrous as that of foreign countries. Owing to this fact it is of better use for fuel. In Holland and northern Germany where peat is used almost exclusively for fuel, it requires almost a year to dry it. My experiments have proved that from two weeks to one month is a sufficient time to dry Michigan peat for use. In the swamp land I have purchased there is sufficient peat to last the people of Michigan for half a century. I have not been able to work these swamps extensively as yet but expect to soon. The only possible drawback that may appear is the scarcity of labor.

"Do not expect that peat will revolutionize the present methods of heating, nor do I expect that in a few months it will accomplish wonders. Although the peat may be burned in ordinary wood stoves, they should be altered somewhat to burn it to the best advantage. Peat is a great deal cheaper than other fuels, yet is almost unknown as such except to the Germans and Hollanders in this country. The heat it gives is not so much of a blazing heat as that of coal, but has a more steady glow and is far more desirable for good cooking. It contains no sulphur and will not burn out grates.

CULTIVATED IN EUROPE
"In Europe great time and labor are spent in cultivating peat, yet they have a poorer quality than is found in Michigan. In Holland and Germany it is used in locomotives and when mixed with molasses is used for stock food. A large contract for peat was recently made by the Holland navy. The little town of Helena, Va. shipped to New York city last year 8,000 tons of moss litter (for peat) to be used for bedding. Philadelphia and Boston each had a large or larger shipments. This same quality of peat, I am sure, can be found within 16 miles of New York city. It retails at $14 per ton. Canada I know to have as fine a grade of peat as that sent from Holland, yet the Dominion is not able to compete for the New York trade, because of the steamship freight from Toronto to New York. "With this new peat industry well established, it would not be surprising if 'moore,' or mud baths, as they are better known, would become a fad. The baths are made from peat and are considered very healthful. At present they are quite the rage in Europe. I believe that as a mosquito exterminator a smoking piece of peat has not its equal. Wood alcohol and chemicals are also made from it. The peat to be taken from Michigan and is principally crude peat and will be used almost entirely for fuel, however. When dried it loses about 80 per cent of its original weight and about 5 per cent of its value. I believe that a superior quality of fuel peat can be prepared and sold at less than $3 per ton. This will mean a big saving to the poor, with wood fast disappearing and coal prices at the mercy of trusts and combines."—Kalamazoo Telegram.

Magazine Reviews

The Woman's Home Companion for February is a patriotic number. "Lincoln's Neglected Birthplace," "The Birthplace of the American Flag," and George Gibbs' picture illustrating the battle between the Scarpis and the Bonhomme Richard, speak of the quality of the magazine. The fiction include "The Flight of Penella," short stories by Clara Morris and Tudor Jenks. The Nature Study Club deals with the American Hawks. There is a page of unusually beautiful theatrical pictures. The author of the famous "Bunny" stories is writing a series of children's tales. All the Departments are full of timely suggestions. Mrs. Herrick tells how to give a Sunday-night supper. Miss Gould describes the latest fashions and there are some excellent suggestions for evening entertainments. Published by The Crowell Publishing Co., Springfield, Ohio; one dollar a year, ten cents a copy.

"WHAT SHALL WE EAT."

Every day the same old question, What shall we eat for breakfast, for luncheon, for dinner? assaults with monotonous regularity the patient housewife who seeks to provide good living for the family, in agreeable variety at a moderate cost. There is a daily department in the Chicago Record-Herald which is intended to answer this question satisfactorily every day in the year. It is entitled "Meals for a Day," and provides menus for the three meals every day, with the necessary recipes. These menus and recipes are carefully selected by the Record Herald's household editor, and cash prizes are awarded to the best that are received. Housewives everywhere are invited to participate in the competition. For full particulars see the "Meals for a Day" department in the Chicago Record-Herald.

Telling the Truth to Children.

The ordinary child loves truth as he does flowers and sunlight. He trusts others and is himself to be trusted till he learns fraud and deception from his elders. This is a principal which should be recognized by young parents who are welcoming the first little ones into their homes. They should make up their minds not only never to deceive their children by word or deed, but also to insist upon the same rule being carried out by the nurse-girls and other domestics. How many times one overhears threats made to children which make one's heart ache for the poor little creatures. One day this summer a mother and grandmother entered a railroad train with a baby girl of less than two years. It was very warm in the car and the child was sleepy and fretful. The two women joined forces in thinking up every horrible threat possible with which to frighten the child into quiet. They told her the policeman was coming; the conductor would throw her out of the window; the ragman was almost there with his black bag, and that they would go away and leave her alone unless she was still. When it was time for the train to start, the mother had to leave the baby with the grandmother, who was evidently taking her to her home in the country. As she went she told the child she was going to get her a banana and some candy—and such promises with no thought of fulfilling them seem as bad as the threats.—Mary Gillette Geer in The Household for February.

SOME WINTER BIRDS.

Nuthatches and Chickadee Make Snowy Days Merry.
There are three birds that at any time, if it is not very stormy, will help to make many a winter's day merry. These are the two nuthatches and the chickadee. They are often found together, and are as much features of the season as withered leaves or snow and ice. Everybody knows the chickadee. Emerson, in a poem, has been its best biographer. But the lively nuthatches have been too much neglected. Perhaps it is because they do not sing yet they are not mute, and their querulous cries fit well with many a wild winter day. But what we can see is as much to be considered as what we hear, and so I wish to say a word about sights at his season so largely take the place of sound. These three birds are always busy, and this is significant. If never idle, it behooves us to know what is the meaning of their ceaseless activity. Watching them closely, we find they are searching for food. Like ourselves, they must eat to live, but the trunk of a tree does not appear to be a promising field for food. This is because our eyes are not so sharp as theirs, and we get a valuable hint from this simple fact. If we looked at all objects more closely than we are apt to do, we would see more. In winter nature does not display herself for our ready recognition. Only in the glory of summer days is she on dress parade. With few exceptions, nature's bright uniforms have been laid aside in midwinter. A plainer dress best fits the winter season, and it is one so plain at times that sharp eyes are needed to distinguish the moving figures from the background.

WHAT GOES INTO A DAM.

From The Greatest of Power Dams, in Leslie's Monthly for February.
The ordinary layman who sees the results of such labor as the dam across the Hudson River at Glen Falls cannot grasp the details with any comprehension. To say that 150,000 barrels of cement were used in making the concrete in which the huge blocks of granite were laid; to state that 400,000 tons of this same granite were built into the wall; that 30,000 trees were cut for the woodwork, that 1,000 men labored for three years to complete this narrow barrier stretching across the river, represents only a series of ungraspable ideas. The cable ways used to transport buckets of cement and blocks of stone were the largest in the world, the biggest 2,400 feet in length. It needs 11,400 feet, or fully two miles of wire, to run this gigantic aerial road. The finished dam—it will probably be completed early next spring—will be 1,400 feet long, exclusive of the 400 foot wall of the canal built to conduct the water to the turbine wheels. The greatest height will be 154 feet, with a width along the top of seventeen feet. There are one or two such constructions slightly larger in size, but none that bar so mightily and powerful a river. The power developed will be 50,000 horse power at times.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

How Can I Keep Up with the Times?

IT is pretty hard to keep well informed on the political news, the scientific news, the literary news, the educational movements, the great business developments, the hundreds of interesting and valuable articles in the hundreds of excellent magazines. About the only way it can be done by the average busy man and woman is to read a magazine like "The Review of Reviews," and, as it is the only magazine of the sort, it is a good thing to send $2.50 for a year's subscription.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT says:
"I know that through its columns views have been presented to me that I could not otherwise have had access to; because of earnest and thoughtful men, no matter how widely their ideas diverge, are given free utterance in its columns."

EX-PRESIDENT GROVER CLEVELAND says:
"I consider it a very valuable addition to my library."

TO SEE INSTITUTIONS.

Legislature Will Adjourn in Order to Give Solons the Opportunity.

WILL RECONVENE ON FEB. 10

Then the Lawmakers Are Expected to Get Down to Business—Expenditures To Be Kept Down.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 27.—On Friday of this week the legislature will adjourn until Tuesday, Feb. 10. This is for the purpose of enabling the committees to visit the several state institutions. It was hoped to start on these journeys one week earlier, but the necessary arrangements could not be made. With this junketing out of the way the solons will get down to business in earnest.

REPRESENTATIVE F. S. NEAL.

put through the mill, notwithstanding the determination at the outset to cut out the "suspension of rules" business to a large extent, passing bills under such suspension only in extreme cases. So many members, however, have bills of this nature which they desire to get through at once that the "scratch my back and I'll scratch yours" programme has served to pretty effectually dispose of this determination.

Protests Went Unheeded.

One day last week a couple of the Wayne county members did make an emphatic protest against the suspension of rules for the passage of a local bill asked for by a member from the western part of the state, but when it was recalled that the objectors were the beneficiaries of the suspension on the previous day, their protests went unheeded. This simply goes to show that the only way to get rid of this burden is to amend the constitution so that a large majority of the local propositions can be taken care of at home and thus kept out of the legislature altogether.

The committee appointed by Commander Anthony of the Michigan G. A. R. to look after legislation providing for the publication by the state of the records of the Michigan soldiers and sailors in the war of the rebellion and Spanish-American contest met here several days ago and drafted a bill making an appropriation of $20,000 for this purpose. This committee consisted of ex-Congressman Alfred Milnes of Coldwater, ex-Representative Foote of Kalamazoo and Col. Frederick Schneider of Lansing. The records have all been compiled under the direction of the adjutant and are now on cards in his office. This work has been done during the past ten years in accordance with laws enacted by successive legislatures. It is now proposed to publish these records as a sort of monument to the heroes of the state, so that those still living may have these records to preserve in substantial form and the families of the dead may have them to preserve as legacies of great worth.

"Michigan in the War," which was published a number of years ago, contains the records of the commissioned officers only, but the contemplated volume will include the record of every citizen of Michigan who served in either war, however humble may have been his station. There is small probability that the present legislature will provide for the $250,000 monument that has been recommended by the state commission, but the veterans see in the volume proposed a monument but little, if any, less prized, and they are unanimous in their request that the bill be passed, and it doubtless will be.

State Game and Fish Warden.

During the past few weeks there has been considerable discussion as to the succession in the office of state game and fish warden, the alleged situation being that the governor is bound under a promise made some time ago to appoint a gentleman whom a majority of the senators say could not be confirmed, whereas his personal preference is for a fellow townsman who could be confirmed. Now the law governing this office, unlike that which applies to most of the other important appointive offices, does not provide that the senate shall confirm the appointment. This leaves the governor free to make an appointment independent of the senate. This situation has induced Senator Bangham to introduce a bill providing that all appointments to office by the governor shall be by and with the advice and consent of the senate.

Punishment for Anarchists.

If a bill introduced by Senator Brown becomes a law Michigan will be in position to mete out proper punishment to such anarchists as may undertake to stir

BENTON HARBOR.

There are three cases of small pox in St. Joseph and the city schools have been closed.

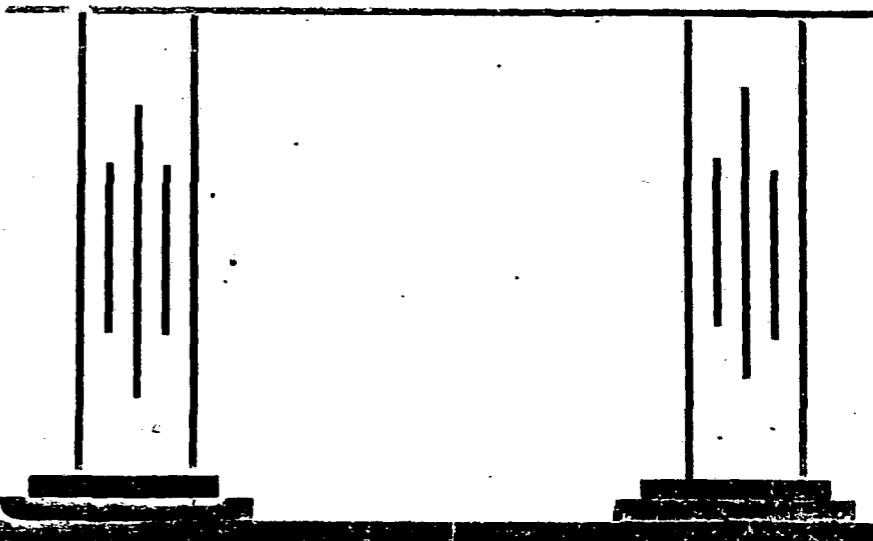

The Boston Ladies Symphony Orchestra gave one of the finest musical treats, last night ever heard in this city.

The celebrated Brunke-Shearer murder case closed January 28, and the jury retired at 3:05 p. m. After deliberating eight hours and a half they brought in a verdict of manslaughter and recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the court. Judge Coolidge will wait till Monday before rendering his decision. Attorney James O'Hara for the defense has moved a stay of proceedings and the case may go to the supreme court.

The Bailey insurance case was started in the circuit court Thursday morning and proves very interesting. There are several lawyers employed to represent the different claimants, it being a three sided affair. The late Dr. Bailey transferred his insurance of $3,000 which he had in the M. W. A. and the Bankers' Union from his first wife and children and his father to his second wife, thus making three claimants for the money. The case rests mainly on two points, viz., whether the divorce obtained in North Dakota from the first wife was legal, and whether the doctor was unduly influenced by the then Mrs. Duncan, or was mentally competent at the time the transfer of insurance was made, part of which was done during his last sickness. As it was ratified by the Bankers' Union the very day of the doctors death there is also another question of legality involved. The witnesses examined Thursday were: Dr. Wheelock, Harry Rough, Mrs. E. E. Glidden, a Mr. Miller, from Chicago, Drs. Curtis, Peck and Henderson and Herbert Roe. Some of the testimony was quite sensational and highly interesting. The case is being heard before Judge Coolidge without a jury and the lawyers are sifting the matter very thoroughly.

LESSON V, FIRST QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, FEB. 1.

Text of the Lesson, Acts xvii, 22-24. Memory Verses, 28, 29—Golden Text, Acts xvii, 18—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1902, by American Press Association.] 22. I found an altar with this inscription, To the Unknown God. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship Him declare I unto you.

The Thessalonian persecutors followed the apostles to Berea and stirred up the people against them so that Paul went on to Athens, leaving Silas and Timothy at Berea. Those who conducted Paul to Athens brought back word to Silas and Timothy to follow quickly, which they did. While Paul waited for them, seeing the city wholly given to idolatry, he did not fail to preach Jesus and the resurrection in the synagogues and in the market as he had opportunity. So they brought him to Mars hill, the Areopagus, and asked him to tell them of this new doctrine; hence this discourse in which he speaks of their great religiousness and takes as his topic the inscription on the altar to the unknown God.

23. God that made the world and all things therein * * * giveth to all life and breath and all things.

He takes them to the first verse in the Bible, they being probably wholly ignorant of the Scriptures, and tells them of one who made sun, moon and stars, the mountains and the sea and all living creatures and therefore needs not be propitiated nor any gifts from man, seeing that He Himself gives to all creatures all that they possess or need. In one of the oldest portions of the Bible we read that "in His hand is the soul of every living thing and the breath of all mankind" (Job xii, 10), yet there are many who possess the Bible who do not seem to believe this and act as if God required something from them before He would do anything for them. They do not know Him as the one who "giveth to all," who "gave His only begotten Son."

25-28. And hath made of one blood all nations of men, * * * for in Him we live and move and have our being.

The great Creator and sustainer of all things wants us to know Him and reveals Himself sufficiently in nature to make people want to know Him better (Rom. i, 20, 21), and where people are living up to the light they have and earnestly desiring more, as in the case of Cornelius and the queen of Ethiopia's treasurer, God will take means to enlighten them. His nearness to us is strikingly described in Rom. x, 6-10, but there it speaks of those who have His word and in verses 14, 15, raises the question of how can those who have not His word hear it unless some one take it to them.

29. For as much then as we are the offspring of God we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold or silver or stone, graven by art and man's device.

Since God created us, how can the things which we make be our gods? The folly of worshipping idols is fully and simply set forth in Isa. xl, 18-26, and elsewhere in the prophets. But what shall be said of the church of today, which seems to put such trust in idols of men and metal rather than in the living God? Is not the cry heard, If we had the man or the men or if we had the money, how much we might do! Whereas the Spirit of God says, "There is none that calleth upon Thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of Thee." "The silver is Mine and the gold is Mine, saith the Lord of Hosts" (Isa. lvi, 7; Hag. ii, 9). If the church would trust in Him and not in men nor man's wisdom nor man's works, He might have opportunity to fulfill to her II Chron. xvi, 9; Mal. iii, 10.

30, 31. But now commandeth all men everywhere to repent, because He hath appointed a day in which He will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom He hath ordained.

God is long suffering, not willing that any should perish, therefore, for the time, passing over much that deserves punishment, although the sinner, because of the hardness of his heart and his natural enmity to God, takes advantage of the mercy only to do worse (II Pet. iii, 9; Eccl. viii, 11). The book just quoted from says, "God shall bring every work into judgment with every secret thing, whether it be good or whether it be evil" (Eccl. xii, 14), and this is abundantly confirmed in the New Testament. Our Lord often spoke of the judgment to come (Matt. vii, 22, 23; xi, 22, 24; xii, 36; xxv, 34, 41, 46) and also said that the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son (John v, 22). I do not find in Scripture that which some speak of as a general judgment and a general resurrection of all, good and bad, at the same time; but I do find that the dead in Christ shall rise first, a thousand years before the unrighteous, and that our Lord calls the first the resurrection of the just (I Thess. iv, 16; Rev. xx, 5, 6; Ps. i, 5; Luke xiv, 14). The judgment of all believers for their sins is past on Calvary (John v, 24; Isa. xliii, 25). Their judgment for service will be at the judgment seat of Christ at the first resurrection.

32-34. When they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

They had their gods and heroes and great leaders, but that one had risen from the dead was folly in the sight of their wisdom, simply an impossibility; so they turned away, having heard enough of such nonsense, and Paul, having borne faithful testimony, turned away from them. But his testimony was not in vain, for some believed, both men and women, and that is all we can expect in this age of gathering out the church. There is comfort in John vi, 3—"All that the Father giveth Me shall come to Me," etc.

LATEST FASHION NOTES.

FOR CALLING OR STREET WEAR.

A costume of mixed suiting is here shown, with a blouse waist displaying a natty vest of white peau de soie trimmed in black braid. The strapped collar is of novelty braid over white, and piped with white. It has pockets and cuffs to match, and the strappings for the skirt are disposed between the box plaits. The waist has a postilion back.

Some of the new skirts are arranged in graduated box plaits all around, the plaits being very narrow and flat at the top, widening out as they descend, and when released giving the fashionable fullness at the feet. Soft pliable materials are especially appropriate for this style of skirt, and many of the models are threaded horizontally with bands of inserting, the band passing beneath the plaits. Three or four rows of inserting arranged at regular intervals and sometimes forming a slight dip in front, are used. The skirts are hung over fireproof foundations and the plaits are either secured on the under side or else they are stiched with Corticelli silk down to flounce depth and then left to flare gracefully. They are usually made with inverted plaits in back.

Coenley's Beef, Iron and Wine with Nervine is a perfect Tonic and Nourisher. It is a true food and helps in all cases by building up and increasing the strength. It can be taken with all other medicines. Large bottles 50c Dr. E. S. Dodd & Sons.

STATE AND COUNTY NEWS

Samuel Hess, of Three Oaks, died last Sunday. He was a prominent figure in the county having served three terms as treasurer, being elected first in 1868 and twice re-elected. Postmaster Hess of Three Oaks is a son of the deceased.

Postmaster Shears of Benton Harbor is telling a good joke on himself these days. One morning recently a ragged little German girl about nine years old, came into the lobby of the post office where Postmaster Shears and several other gentlemen were standing. They noticed the child's torn shoes and wet feet, and Postmaster Shears, who also has the care of the poor, offered to take the child and get her a new pair of shoes and stockings, at the same time taking hold of the child's arm to direct her to the store where they would do the purchasing. She cast one terrified look at the specter covered eyes of her would be benefactor and darted out of the door and round the corner as fleet as a deer. Then followed a hearty laugh at the expense of the postmaster.

The St. Joseph public schools, by order of the school board, have been closed on account of the smallpox and will remain closed during this week and next.

As all the children in the second grade were exposed, it was deemed advisable by the board to close all the classes in the entire schools to avoid as much as possible the spread of the disease.

Wm. Daniel, nightwatch at Cassopolis, was killed Monday night by the falling of a huge icicle from the rear roof of a store. The top of the officer's head was cut off as smooth as though done with a knife. He was a young man of 25 years.

GLENDORA.

Mrs. Lou. Smith entertained the Baptist Ladies' Aid Society last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Griswold, of Ashtabula county, Ohio, are the guests of their sister Mrs. Austin Adams.

A number of parties went from here last Friday to St. Joseph to take advantage of the sales.

After two weeks absence on account of storm and sickness, Elder Bemann was again in his pulpit at the Baptist church, last Sunday.

Mrs. Carrie Penwell was called to South Bend this week on account of the death of her brother, Homer Lamb. He died of neuralgia of the heart.

Geo. Boyce Jr., is suffering from a large boil on his hand.

On Sunday morning, Mr. Sam. Shirk came near losing their house and contents. Fire was generated in the upper story on account of a defective stove pipe. Two beds and some children's clothes were burned.

The "beautiful snow" is about gone and it is pretty hard traveling now.

The Baptist church will give an oyster supper at Kempton Hall on the evening of Feb. 4, the proceeds to be used to paint the church. A liberal patronage is solicited.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church meets with Mrs. Anna Hess today.
