Palladium's Account of the Basket Ball Game Last Wednesday Evening

"O wad the gift were gi' us,
To see ourselves, saithers see us."
Then the following account of the basket ball game from the Palladium would not have been written:

"The game was very fast. The Reserves scoring in the first minute of the play and retaining the lead nearly all of the game.

Buchanan adopted slugging tactics in the second half and many claims of foul play were made by the Reserves but were not allowed by the referee, who had suddenly become nearsighted.

The reserves think with an impartial referee the score would have been decidedly different.

Arrangements are being made for a return game to be played in this city in the next week or two at which time the home team will have an opportunity of proving their superiority."

The slugging tactics were adopted by the Reserves and it is not likely a return game will be played. Prof.
Mercer as referee allowed more than the Reserves were fairly entitled to and still they were dissatisfied.—Ed.

County Seat News.

John Mikesell, the Berrien Springs
young man who shot his father June 15th, 1902, has been on trial for murder the past week at the county seat.
The dead man, William Mikesell, was a hard character, all the witnesses which were called agreeing in this, and that his son was much the better of the two.

The trouble which resulted in the murder of the father, was over the housekeeper, Mrs. Pastro, a woman who had come from Indiana to keep house for the elder Mikesell. It was thought by William that his son was supplanting him in the affections of the housekeeper.

Mrs. Pastro was on the witness stand Wednesday and testified to the brutal character of the murdered man, and that he had threatened to kill her and his son John.

In Dr. Robinson's testimony on Thursday, he told of having extracted three bullets from the body at the autopsy. The flannel shirt worn at the time of the murder was shown to the jury, the holes in the shirt made by the bullets being plainly seen.

Prosecuting Attorney Riford finished his plea Friday morning; Judge Coolidge gave a brief and simple charge to the jury, who then retired and at 2:15 p. m. returned a verdict of "Not Guilty."

A Legacy of the Grip.

Is often a run-down system. Weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys often follow an attack of this wretched disease. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the splendid tonic, blood purifier and regulator of Stomach, Liver and Kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system, and restore to health and good spirits after an attack of Grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50c. Perfect satisfaction

JESTS OF SENATORS.

Incidents of the Lighter side of Life in the Senate.

John C. Calhoun, when Vice President did not believe that, as the presiding officer of the Senate, he had any right to call Senators to order for words spoken in debate. John Randolph of Roanoke abused this license by opening a speech with the words: "Mr. Speaker—I mean, Mr.
President of the Senate, and would be President of the United States—which God, in his infinite mercy, avert!" and then launching into one of his characteristic tirades.

Calhoun's name recalls nullification
When this heresy was at its most rampant stage, the Northern Senators depended largely upon John Holmes of Maine as champion of their side of the chamber, on account of his ready wit. John Tyler tried to badger him one day by asking what had become of that political firm once mentioned by Randolph as "James Madison, Felix Grundy, John Holmes, and the devil."

"The partnership" answered Mr.
Holmes, promptly, "has been legally dissolved. The senior member is dead; the second has gone into retirement; the third now addresses you;
and the last has gone over to the nullifiers; and is electioneering among the honorable Senator's constituents."

Clay and Webster were not habit-ual humorists, but both had the gift of entertaining as well as of entralling their audiences. Clay ran most to illustrative anecdote. While he was in the house, a prominent politician deserted the Whig party in the hope of starting a general revolt. To his dismay, he found himself quite alone and then bent all his energies to getting back into good standing.
The incident reminded Clay of a story. Said he:

A stage-coach took aboard a passenger who insisted upon riding with the driver, and who diligently drew from the contents of a bottle carried in his greatcoat pocket. When his potations at last overcame him, he fell off. The coach stopped long enough for some charitable travelers to alight and pull the poor fellow out of the mud.

"Ha!" he exclaimed, as he looked down at his tattered garments, "we had quite a (hic) turnover, didn't we?"

"Oh, no," answered one of his rescuers, "there was no turnover, you only fell off."

"I say," he persisted, "there was a (hic) turnover, and I leave it to the company."

"Every one joined in assuring him that the coach had not upset."

"Well," he remarked ruefully, as he tried to climb back to his former perch, "if I'd known that (hic) I wouldn't have got off."

On a certain afternoon the Senate clock got a fit of striking in the midst of one of Webster's most effective speeches. After it had stuck fourteen or fifteen, Webster held up one finger. "Mr. President," said he,
"the clock is out of order, I have the floor."—From Francis E. Leupp's
"Humors of Congress" in March Century.

Buchanan's Business Openings.

Splendid opportunity for a couple of good factories; two good brick buildings ready, waiting for occupation.

Under the above head we will publish from time to time business opportunities as we see them, and any one desiring information and addressing the Record we will do all we can to furnish information desired.

Court Stenographer.

The friends of court stenographer Atkinson are asking the representatives at Lansing for an enabling act to increase his salary to $2,000.

We believe that every man should be paid well for his work but are not sufficiently acquainted with the work required to express a personal opinion, but we publish this so that any of our readers who are interested in the matter, in any way, may inform our representative at Lansing.

A clergeman in Pennsylvania once remarked that he thought something of a man's character may be told by his walk, and we think it is equally true that a man's character may be somewhat judged from his sidewalk. The condition of the walks on many of our village streets the past week has been such as to cause every pedestrian much annoyance. With a little care a great deal of this might have been avoided.

NOMINATE VILLAGE OFFICERS.

At a Union Caucus held at the Engine House in the village of Buchanan, Michigan on the evening of February 28, 1903, the following persons were nominated for the various village offices:—For President, Geo. H. Black; for Trustees, Chas. F. Pears, Frank A. Stryker, and Dr. O. Curtis; for Clerk, Geo. H. Richards, for Treasurer, Jacob E. Arney; Assessor, Elmer Remington.

A. C. Roe was Chairman of the meeting and Harry O. Weaver Secretary.

The Prohibition Caucus convened at Council rooms February 27 1903. Myron S. Mead was elected Chairman and O. F. Richmond Secretary. After being duly sworn, the following named persons were nominated for the various offices:—Myron S. Mead, President; Alfred Mead, Clerk; Wm. F. Runner, Treasurer; Hiram M. Mowry, Assessor; Jay Glover, Wm. Troutfetter, and Edward Able, Trustees.

Mr. Cornelius Smyer, South Bend, says: "Give me an other bottle of your Wine Lo-ti- Coonley's Beef, Iron and Wine with Nerveine. I took a bottle last Spring and it helped me just like you said, I slept better right away." It is sold by E. S. Dodd & Son's. Large bottles 50c. Take no other for there is no other equal to it.

Childhood Days.

Mrs. Geo. Howard, in looking over a collection of old papers, found the following clipping, and thinking it very amusing, was desirous of having it appear in print. The writer was seven years old when the letter was written, her father at that time, being post-master here:

A LITTLE GIRL'S LETTER.

Trix Mansfield, who is in Grand Rapids, wrote a letter to her "pa" J. G. Mansfield, the other day, which is worth publishing. It is as follows:

Dear Pa;
I thought I would write a few lines to you. I rode on a dummy to the lake. I saw a man go up in a balloon. Pa, won't you send my doll in a box up to the head of my little bed in my play house? If her red dress is in the box, send it, and if she is dressed. If not take and put her in a shoe box and put her white dress on, if you can find it and put in her red dress too, and her lace bonnet and her plush bonnet too, and all the things in the box, and tie the box up tight and send to me.

Trix Mansfield.

and don't forget to send her to me.

FAREWELL RECEPTION.

Many Friends Gather to Bid Rev. and Mrs. Marvin Goodbye.

The reception given on Saturday evening February 28 at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Roe, was a very pleasing affair and enjoyed by one hundred guests.

After an hour of social converse a fine program was given; excellent music by the orchestra, beautiful solos charmingly rendered by Mrs. Harry Perrott and Mrs. Mercer, piano solo by Miss Seymour and a poem by Mrs. S. E. B. Smith. (which is reproduced in these columns.) This was followed by the presentation to Rev. and Mrs. Marvin of a hand painted china pitcher (the work of Miss Ella Hahn) and a silver teaset in token of the good will and love of the Presbyterian congregation; the presentation was made by Mr. Joe Beistle preceded by a neat little speech. Rev. Marvin replied in his happy, pleasing way, wishing his people all good things in time to come.

Dainty two course refreshments were served, good wishes and farewells given and at a late hour the guests departed, carrying in their hearts sweet memories of the occasion and of the stay of Rev. and Mrs. Marvin in this community.

May God bless them in their future home.

For years we've been watched o'er and preached to with care,
When weather was stormy and when it was fair,
With pastor and people there's nothing gone wrong,
For the ties that bound us are still dear and strong.

Now what is the matter, pray tell us who know,
Why our preacher from us has decided to go?
In well doing it can't be he has grown tired
And his heart in its calling with less zeal fired.

Can it be he seeks a more beautiful town,
With scenery finer and of more renown,
When Buchanan can boast of its Chapin dam,
O'er the picturesque St. Jo that is no sham?

We've a spacious church with a lovely steeple,
Very dear to us Presbyterian people,
Our congregation is stylish as any,
And I've sometimes thought may surpass many.

In our officials there is all that's desired,
And all our church discipline ever required;
We've a faithful sexton that swings to and fro,
The bell in the belfry, as you all well know.

We've an organ big and a choir select,
Upon this condition with pride we reflect;
And when the pew folks unite in singing,
With melody sweet the air then seems ringing.

We've a Sunday school just like other churches,
That for God's truth just as earnestly searches,
And in that broad vineyard with diligence true,
The laborers their duty and part well do.

And a power of might is our Ladies Aid,
For many a bill has their hard substance paid,
And still willing hearts and ready hands,
Too,

To the cause they hold dear pledge themselves anew.
Now what is the matter, pray tell us who know,
Why our pastor from us has decided to go?
For he has 'not staid till we drove him away,

Neither has he grumbled to us 'bout his pay.
Against him I'm sure we have made no complaint,
Tho' we have not exactly pronounced him a saint,
For perfection in man is not found upon earth,

And of it in woman there's sometimes a dearth.
From the word of God he has preached to us straight,
And very kindly asked us not to come late.
When 'twas time for service divine to begin,

He would gladly have seen us our places in.
If he thought in some things we hardly did right,
He did not with us wage a quarrel and fight,
For bones of contention he has had no taste,

And with them he did not his time and words waste.
That incubus dire that over us hung,
A big church debt, when he came us among,
We've seen melt away with his weapons of skill, Determination and persistent good will.

In our merry makings with us he's been glad
And an interest keen in our welfare had,
And his shoulders broad have helped carry the load,
If one was found anywhere along our road,

He has stood by the bed of suffering and and pain,
When hope had departed and prayers in vain,

He has pointed the way to a happier shore
When the conflict is ended and life's dream o'er.

Dear hearts he has joined with the marriage token,
When the solemn vows by them had been spoken,
"Dust to dust" he has said o'er our fondly loved dead,
And words of compassion to stricken hearts said.

In sorrow or gladness, in weal or in woe,
With his people loved he's been ready to go.

Of our busy lives he has become a part,
As he walked among us uprightly of heart.
To our pastor and wife I sincerely say,
In our hearts there is sadness that you go away;
We shall with regret to you both say adieu
And may Heaven's choicest blessings descend on you.

BAND CONCERT

Village Band Boys Furnish Excellent Program.

On Friday night at the opera house the band boys gave a concert; the most elaborate and well selected program was rendered, and the audience was delighted at the progress the village boys had made during the past year, and surprised at the amount of home talent which has been developed in the boys these winter evenings through the skill and care of their leader Mr. Dickinson.

In an impromptu address made by Mr. Dickinson, at the opening of the concert he said, he presumed the boys would be able to play better some future time, when they had secured uniforms, the fund now being raised is for this object.

The band boys were assisted with some excellent musical numbers by Mrs. Harry Perrott, who sang a solo, Mesdames Mercer and Garland, who rendered a duet, Mrs. Friday a solo; and by a reading by Mr. Friday. The village orchestra also gave two very acceptable numbers.

The accompanists were Misses Hubbell, Seymour, and Stryker.

IN MEMORIAM

LOTTIE MUNSON

Was born at Wheatland, N. Y., July 23 1833, and died February 27, 1903, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Burch, in Buchanan Mich.

In her early life she united with the Baptist church of which she remained a constant member as long as she lived.

Her mother died when Lottie was nineteen and left the daughter in charge of seven children all younger than she. Lottie proved herself faithful in the discharge of her duties as housekeeper, and in caring for the motherless little children, till all were grown up and left to a home for themselves. After that she still remained at home caring for her invalid father as long as he lived.

Since then she had also cared for an invalid uncle, after which, with the exception of about two years which she spent in Dakota, her home was made with her sister, Mrs. Burch.

She had been in poor health for some time and during the last four weeks that she lived, she suffered intensely, but through it all she was very patient till the end, which came unexpectedly to those near and dear to her. Besides a large circle of friends, she leaves to mourn her departure, two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Burch, of Buchanan, Michigan, Mrs. J. J. Bronson, of Whitehall, Michigan and three brothers, Jones, who resides near Carey, Michigan, Wellington in Pe Ell, Washington, and Frank, in Holland, Michigan.

A. T. UPHAM.

Mr. A. T. Upham, formerly of Bridgeman, who has been residing in Oak St. in this village for some time, died Sunday night at 10 o'clock from cancer of the stomach.

His wife and five children survive him; two unmarried sons at home, and one in Kalamazoo, two daughters, Mrs. Drago and Mrs. Schriber, living north of town.

There was a short service at the residence on Tuesday, at 12 o'clock and the funeral was held at the Grange Hall at 2 o'clock.

Right Trusses

There should be no guess-work about trusses. They have an important mission. They must do what they should or they are worse than none. Many are sacrificing comfort and safety by wearing ill fitting trusses. Others who might be cured by a rightly fitting truss are using none. Those we carry are, we believe, the right ones. Can be fitted perfectly and exert a steady, even pressure. Wear well and can't easily get out of order.

TEAMSTERS TO THE FRONT

Inform Chicago City That She Must Buy Coal Mined by Men with Cards.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—Union labor, represented by its chief leaders in Chicago and the nation, urged Mayor Harrison to award no city contracts for Maryland or West Virginia coal. Kanawha valley coal excepted. President Young, of the National Teamsters' union, significantly intimated to the mayor that his organization would refuse to handle the objectionable fuel. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, headed the delegation of twenty, which protested against these coals on the ground that they were mined by convict and non-union labor. Gompers had a telegram from John Mitchell which said: "You will confer a favor upon the United Mine Workers of America and union labor in general by protesting against the purchase of these coals on public contracts."

The move outlined above is understood to be general all over the United States, the object being to force these operators to unionize their mines by having the coal boycotted.

DEPUTY WAS HELD UP

By a Man Whom He Attempted to Arrest—Story of a Wild Western Incident.

Gilroy, Cal., Feb. 26.—Deputy Sheriff Statton attempted to arrest a man at San Felipe suspected of highway robbery. The bandit covered Statton with a pistol, forced him into his buggy, and mounting a horse belonging to a vaquero forced him to drive toward Bell's Station, two miles, when the stranger dismounted, turned loose the horse and got in the buggy, after relieving Statton of $200 and a watch. At Bell's Station, twenty miles from Gilroy, in the mountains, the robber bought food. Captor and prisoner then journeyed ten miles farther, where the highwayman released Statton and took to the hills.

There is a genuine mad dog scare at Buchanan, and not without cause.—Niles Star.

"A terrible cough set in, that, in spite of a good doctor's treatment for several weeks, grew worse every day. Why Women Now Look Younger.

A question which might elicit considerable interesting discussion is: why are the typical modern women twenty and even thirty years younger in manners, dress and appearance than were their grandmothers at the age? One might reply, says Mrs. Woodrow Wilson in the March Cosmopolitan, very pertinently that, in the first place, they have decided not to grow old; and, believe me, it is a question of will. Having made this decision, they seek the means which shall enable them to retain their youthful appearance. They understand that beauty and ill-health are not congenial companions; consequently, the women of to-day live much in the open air, loving the breeze far more than the easy chair and the open fire.

Young People's Alliance.

The regular monthly meeting of the Y.P.A. of the Evangelical church took place on Thursday evening of last week at the home of Miss Anna Andrews, west of town.

A very interesting program was rendered; a paper on Washington and some history events were given by Clayton Houseworth; a paper on Lincoln was read by Mrs. J. C. Rehm; instrumental solos by Nina Deihl and Cassie Brower; duet by Mr. Houseworth and daughter; trio by the Conrad young people; recitations by Glenn Moyer, and Irvin Swartz; instrumental duet by Eva Simpson and Nina Deihl. One of the pleasing features of the program was "Nearer my God to Thee" rendered in the mute language, by Harry Bailey. A social time was enjoyed after the literary exercises, and refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rehm.

Forecasts for March.

The first regular storm period for March is from 2nd to the 7th. At this time the Earth is fully under the influence of her own vernal equinox, blended with a Venus disturbance. From about Tuesday the 3rd, to Friday the 6th, there are reasons to expect all the changes and phenomena of a very decided storm period. A marked change to warmer and falling barometer will lead rapidly into cloudiness, with general rain and thunder storms in the south. Rains may also be expected in central and northern sections, but change to much colder will follow the rains, with heavy snow squalls generally along the northern side of the country. Sharp change to cold will bring up the rear of these storms, bringing the temperature quite to the frost line far into the south.

The 9th and 10th are central days of a reactionary perturbation, intensified by Moon in perigee on the 10th. In all our publications, for nearly twenty years, we have explained that an electrical crisis is annually to be looked for about the 10th to 15th of March. The Moon being at full and on the celestial equator on 13th, within two days of its perigee, on the 10th, we are naturally to look for electrical phenomena out of the ordinary during this annual period this month. If the moon's perigee or nearest approach to Earth, had fallen two days later, or coincident with full Moon on the equator on the 18th, violent storms and tidal waves would have been almost a certainty in the south. As it is, marked disturbances of this kind need not be a surprise in that part of the country. Heavy earth currents of magnetism and electricity, auroral lights, seismic convulsions and quickened volcanic activity, are among the things reasonably to be expected during and about the 10 to 15.

The regular storm period, centering on the 16th and extending from the 13th to the 20th, will bring a time of exceedingly unsettled weather, with probability of many heavy, and some dangerous storms. The barometer and hygrometer will prove faithful monitors at this, as well as at all other times of violent storms and changes. The indications point to two decided disturbances during this central period in March, one at the very beginning of the period, and the other about the 17th and 18th. The storms on and about the 18th will barely subside before the entrance to reactionary storm conditions due 21st and 23rd. This is at the center of the Vernal equinox, and many equinoctial squalls, with much unpleasant weather may safely be counted on. In all central, western and northern sections, mingled rain, snow and raw, depleting winds will render it exceedingly hard and trying on unsheltered live stock. Every possible effort should be made for the feeding and protection of the dumb brute creation through this equinoctial crisis. Thousands of cattle and sheep will perish, when a last determined effort to protect and feed them would tide them successfully into the opening spring and summer. From both the standpoints of mercy and commercial gain, spend some of your thoughts, time, money and labor, to shield the shivering, perishing creatures, that plead dumbly and dependently at your gates, against the last cruel, cutting blasts of departing winter.

The last general storm period in March is central on the 27th, covering the 25th to 30th. This period is covered, also, by Mercury perturbation. The Moon is on the celestial equator on the 27th and its new on the 28th. As we approach these days it will turn phenomenally warm for the season, the barometer will fall to low and dangerous readings, and any where from Friday the 27th to Monday the 30th, it will be wise to keep an eye on the gathering storm indications. Very warm, humid weather, with greatly depressed barometer, will presage violence and danger, especially in all central to southern parts of the country. Late snow and sleet storms will be most natural northward. The month, in every probability, will reach its close in the midst of the cold wave at the end of these storms.—I. R. Hicks in Word and Works.

LOST HEIRESS SEEMS FOUND

If She Has Got It Right She Will Come Into a Wad of a Cool $100,000.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Feb. 26.—Dr. John T. Woods, of Fulton, this county, is anxious to locate Annie Rothschild, aged 28, who has fallen heir with two sisters, to a fortune of $100,000 by the death of an uncle in Bohemia. The family emigrated from Bohemia about fifteen years ago. The mother died and the father disappeared. The three children were cared for in a Chicago asylum. In 1884 Annie was adopted by a family in Austin, Ills., and all trace of her has been lost. Her sisters are Mrs. Clara Cawkins, of Kalamazoo county, and May Rothschild, of Saugatuck.

The foregoing facts have been previously published, and the following telegram from New Orleans may solve the problem: "Mrs. Edward Howard, of 2640 Bayou road, is without doubt the heiress of $100,000, a lucky windfall which she least of any other person expected, for she was left an orphan at a tender age and had even forgotten the name of her father. But as the telegrams from Austin, Ills., where she was raised, say that she was adopted by a family named Nicholson, a circumstance that cannot be duplicated in that small town, there is scarcely any doubt of her identity."
