LADIES PLAY BASKET BALL

Royal Neighbors Win Game From Eastern Star.

Wednesday night the game of basket ball played at the opera house between the ladies of the Eastern Star and Royal Neighbors, was quite a source of pleasure and amusement to the audience who attended.

The Royal Neighbors took the lead and when the first half of the game was over the score stood 4 to 0 in favor of the Royal Neighbors. Two of the Eastern Star ladies, Mrs. Sanders and Mrs. Stryker dropped out at the close of the first half, and Mrs. Knight and Miss Harper took their places. In the Royal Neighbor team none were disabled or dropped out.

Some brilliant playing was seen by those present, excellent guarding, and good basket throwing, especially being noticeable. The game was not roughly played, the ladies being much less vigorous in their playing than the business men the previous week.

The final score stood 9 to 1, the Royal Neighbors being the winners. The band played some excellent selections before the game opened.

Suit Commencing.

A party of young people from here attended a dance at Berrien Springs in January and expected to return to the village after the dance on a special train advertised on the M. B. H. & C. to return that night. The train did not come back and the party are commencing a suit against the R. R. The young people were Misses Carrie Schafer, Susie Butler, Zoe Shear, Dr. Jessie Filmar, Joseph Cohl and Mr. and H. H. Hosford. Beside this party Mr. John Hershonow was on the train expecting to return that evening, and like the others was compelled to remain in Berrien till morning.

The preliminary hearing was had in Justice Hammond's court in Benton Harbor Tuesday. Cady & Andrews represent the young people. According to law a railroad must pay $50 forfeit for failure to run a train as advertised.

False Report

For some time there has been a rumor going around the town that D. L. Boardman, a former and highly esteemed citizen of our village, who recently removed to Grand Encampment, Wyo., had failed. We refrained from making any notice of it until we could learn more definitely in regard to the fact.

Mr. Boardman in writing to a friend in the village says: "That in the purchase of stock, they bought on the basis of $20,000 investment, but owing to one of the firm's failing to invest his share and not realizing as soon as expected they had to ask an extension of time from their creditors which was cheerfully granted by all concerned. They were doing well as a good spring trade was opening up and the best of prospects ahead of them."

GOLDEN WEDDING

Elder and Mrs. Wm. Roe Have Pleasant Celebration.

On Friday April 10 occurred the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Elder and Mrs. William M. Roe. Mr. Roe was born in Henry county, Ind. April, 26, 1830, and was the sixth son of Eli and Margaret Martindale Roe. When six months old he came with his parents to St. Joseph county, Ind., where on a farm a few miles north of South Bend he spent his boyhood days. Fifty five years ago the 16th day of last January he delivered his first sermon and his life has been spent in the service of the church of Christ as a minister of the gospel.

Miss Harriet E. Whitman, the eldest child of Bradford and Catherine Overocker Whitman, was born in Mentor, Ohio, January 18, 1838. She came with her parents to Elkhart county, Ind., in 1844 and in 1848 she came to South Bend. She was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Wm. M. Roe, the Rev. Thomas Hackney, a minister of the Methodist church officiating.

The following are the children of this union: Lutie C. Roe G. Over, north of Buchanan, Marshall A. Roe, of Chicago, a member of the Webber quartette, Carleton S. Roe, editor of Bryan Press, Bryan Ohio, Wilma May Roe, of Chicago.

They were all present to add good cheer to the aged parents who are justly proud of their family.

A Communication.

BUCHANAN, MICH., April 8, 1903.
EDITOR RECORD:

Dear Sir:—Hoping a little communication to your esteemed paper would be acceptable to you I thought I would avail myself of this opportunity. How pleased I am that the people did not elect me president! If they had, Brother Chapin would have taken the power from the dam and used it in South Bend, so you see the citizens and tax payers have escaped a bad condition as you well know they say, "Once gone never will be returned again." No, no, no, once more I am very glad to know that the citizens have said by their vote for me that they think I am able to make a living without any help from the town so have escaped another great calamity. I am so glad on this account and many other things which I will not take too much of your valuable time to speak of. Now once more I thank all for their high appreciation of me.

Fraternally yours,
M. S. MEAD.

TROUBLE BEGINS

At the Same Point with Buchanan People as Elsewhere.

Trouble begins with the first backache. 'Tis serious trouble too—kidney trouble. Neglected means other pains more dangerous. Urinary disorders quickly follow. Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

Mr. George W. Closson, proprietor of the large livery stable and hack line, at 137-139 West Main street, and residing at 320 Territorial street, Benton Harbor, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Harry L. Bird's drug store have been used in my family and undoubted results were obtained. My wife first learned of them through her brother-in-law, Mr. J. P. Mitchell, employed as mail clerk on the Michigan Central R. R., between Detroit and Chicago. He advised her to use them and they proved to be an excellent remedy. I heartily join Mrs. Closson in endorsing this valuable medicine. To anyone complaining of backache or any of the incidentals which follow in the wake of that far too prevalent complaint kidney disease, my advice is, use Doan's Kidney Pills."

Just such emphatic endorsement is plentiful in Buchanan. Call at W. N. Brodick's drug store and ask him what his customers report.

For sale by all dealers, price 50c. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no other.

Buchanan's Business Openings.

Splendid opportunity for a couple of good factories; two good brick buildings ready, waiting for occupation.

When a person finds fault with his local newspaper nine times out of ten he is one who does not take it and possibly does all he can against it.

In an article from Saginaw to the Palladium the writer says that the intention of the Indiana & Western Interurban R. R. Co's. to discontinue work on the line from South Bend to St. Joseph has caused consternation at Buchanan and Berrien Springs. We doubt if the writer knows where Buchanan is. There is no need of any "consternation" here, Niles is the place that is in hot water.

NON-DELIVERY OF MESSAGE

Resulted in the Loss of an Important Law Case.

Sweet & Ketcham, local attorneys, recovered a judgment of $167.00 and costs in Judge Edwards' court, against the Western Union Telegraph Company, in payment of damages for the non-delivery of a message and consequent loss and injury. The case was tried on Wednesday, April 1st, in the local court, Atty. Victor M. Gore appearing for themselves.

The plaintiffs were retained in the case in the Probate court of Berrien county involving the settlement of the Burton Jarvis estate. On the morning of September 24th, Mr. Ketcham went to Buchanan to argue the case before the commissioners there, but on learning from Buchanan attorneys who were retained by other claimants in the case that the trial would be adjourned and no hearing had on that day, he left on the 1 o'clock train for Benton Harbor where he had business, making arrangements for informing the home office what the adjourned day was when it was decided upon.

It appears that the case was adjourned until September 25th, the day following, instead of some weeks distant, and Mr. Sweet, who was at the Dowagiac office, was informed of this at 11 o'clock in the morning of the 24th. He immediately telegraphed his partner at Benton Harbor, in care of Mr. John A. Doelle, principal of the high school, whose guest he was, to be on hand in Buchanan on September 25th. The telegram reached Benton Harbor at 12:58. After transacting his business, Mr. Ketcham went to Mr. Doelle's home and was with the principal at his home and at the high school until 1:30. It appears from the evidence that at 10 minutes to 2 the messenger came to the high school with the telegram and was directed by Mr. Doelle to hurry down to the Pere Marquette station and informed him that Mr. Ketcham was going north on that road on the next train, which left at 2:45. Mr. Ketcham, in company with another attorney, reached the station at two o'clock and was there until the train left at shortly after a quarter to three.

No telegram had been delivered, and it was not learned that there had been a failure to deliver until early the next day, when Messrs Sweet and Ketcham met in the Morton house at Grand Rapids. As a consequence of the negligence and failure of the telegraph company the plaintiff's case was lost and the damage resulted. The action was brought under the statute covering the liability of telegraph companies for loss caused by their negligence.

The case will be appealed to the Circuit court.

Mrs. Pears Entertains.

Mrs. Emma Pears gave a very charming, informal card party in honor of Mrs. John Graham, of Chicago, on Thursday night. There were fifty ladies and men present, the lucky winners of the prizes being Mrs. Alfred Richards and C. D. Kent.

Delicious refreshments, under the supervision of Mrs. Devin, caterer, were served to the guests. A most delightful evening was spent by all present.

Colfax Peck of Denver, Colorado was married Wednesday to a prominent Denver lady.

Special Easter music at the M. E. church and sermon on this subject. All cordially invited.

A new house is being built on the lot adjoining Mr. Jake Arney's residence on the west. The house is being erected by Mr. Clarence Rollings.

COUNTY SEAT NEWS

The trial of Edward Schaefer, who is accused of murdering John Wells, a hack driver, on the night of March 12, is occupying the court this week. Adjury was drawn who, it is thought, will be satisfactory to all.

Among the large crowd of spectators in attendance are the divorced parents of the murdered boy, his father Wm. Wells, of Berrien Springs, and his mother now Mrs. Carney, of Chicago. County attorney I. W. Riford appears for the prosecution, assisted by Geo. M. Valentine, appointed by the court for that purpose, and Messrs. Thomas and James O'Hara, of St. Joseph, appear for the defendant.

PORTAGE PRAIRIE

Will Hess has been suffering from a large carbuncle under his arm. He looks as if he had been quite sick.

Mrs. Clayton Smith has purchased a new Victor Incubator preparatory for a summers work.

Mrs. Dell Blackmun and Mrs. McFaul were in town Tuesday.

The Sunday School Convention on the 5th. inst. was well attended and every one seemed to be interested.

Alvin Morley spent Sunday with friends in New Buffalo.

Ed Kempton has rented the farm belonging to Lewis Paul and will soon move there.

On Saturday night the Odd Fellow of Glendora and Galien were the guests of there brethren in New Buffalo.

Mr. Alvin Morley has sold his farm in Elm Valley to a Mr. Northrup of Hartford.

Death of Mrs. Mary Kincaide.

On Thursday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robt. Henderson, Mrs. Mary A. Kincaide passed away after many years of suffering. She was 74 years old February 3 of this year and has been a widow since 1891. She was the mother of seven children; surviving her are two sons, one in Portland, Ore., and one in Fort Wayne, Ind., and one daughter, Mrs. Henderson, of Buchanan.

Mrs. Kincaide was a member of the Methodist church in which for many years she did active Christian work. She has been an invalid for twelve years, and has sustained several strokes of paralysis.

A short service will be held at the Henderson home to-morrow morning in charge of Rev. Douglass, and the body will be taken to Fort Wayne for interment, where she will lie by her husband's side. Though death is always a source of sorrow to the loved ones left, it seems especially fitting that the home going of this aged Christian should be just at Easter time, when thoughts of resurrection are paramount.

LESSON II, SECOND QUARTER, INTER-NATIONAL SERIES. APRIL 12.
Text of the Lesson, I Cor. xv, 20, 21,
50-58—Memory Verses, 55-58—Golden Text, I Cor. xv, 20—Commentary
Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1903, by American Press Association.]
20. But now is Christ risen from the dead and become the first fruits of them that sleep.

We have today a great and glorious chapter truly, beginning with the gospel by which we are saved and ending with the complete subjugation of all things unto Him who died for our sins and was buried and rose again the third day, according to the Scriptures (verses 3, 4). The writer of this epistle, with whom we have recently been journeying so much, seemed to know nothing but Christ crucified, Christ risen and ascended and Christ returning to reign.
It would be well if there were many like him. In this chapter he gives special prominence to the resurrection, proving that the life and death of Christ would have availed us nothing if He had not risen; that apart from this great fact there is no gospel to preach, no ground for faith, no salvation; but, Christ being risen, all is well with those who trust in Him, and as He is in His risen body so shall we be (Phil. iii, 21; I John ii, 2).

21. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.
By one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin, and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of One shall many be made righteous (Rom. v, 12, 19). All are in Adam without exception, and therefore all are sinners and dead in trespasses and sins (Eph. ii, 1). All who, being convinced of sin, have accepted Christ are in Christ, and He is wisdom, righteousness, sanctification, redemption and life eternal to all who truly receive Him (I Cor. i, 30; I John v, 12).

50. Now, this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit in-corruption.

The kingdom of God will be that condition of affairs on earth when the will of God shall be done on earth as it is done in heaven (Matt. vi, 10), or, as in verse 28 of our chapter, when the Son, having (during the thousand years, Rev. xx) subdued all things unto Himself and cast Satan and all his followers into the lake of fire, God shall be all in all. In order to enjoy that kingdom and its glory, these present mortal bodies of flesh and blood must be changed and be made like His resurrection body of flesh and bones (Luke xxiv, 39). They will be as real and tangible as His resurrection body, but no longer subject to the powers and circumstances which control our mortal bodies (Luke xxiv, 31; John xx, 19).

51, 52. Behold, I shew you a mystery.
We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed in a moment. . . .

In I Thess. iv, 16-18, this is more fully set forth and so simply and clearly that only those who do not wish to can fail to see it. Our Lord Himself referred to it in these words: "He that believeth in Me, though he die, yet shall he live, and whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die" (John xi, 25, 26). The natural man can never see nor inherit the kingdom of God unless he is born from above, born the second time, and all who, being born again, belong to the kingdom must in one of two ways obtain a body fit for the kingdom—the body must die and rise from the dead at His coming or be in a moment changed without dying, as were the bodies of Enoch and Elijah.

53, 54. Then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

Corruptible and mortal are terms referring to our present bodies; incorruptible and immortal describe the bodies that shall be ours at His coming, when we shall be like Him. This quotation from Isa. xlv, 8, 9, reminds us that when the kingdom comes and the glorified church is with Christ reigning over it (Rev. v, 9, 10), Israel shall have her place, with her rebuke taken away from off all the earth, for she shall see Him coming in His glory.
55-57. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

In Hos. xiii, 14, from which part of this is quoted, the words are: "O death, I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will be thy destruction. Repentance shall be hid from mine eyes." Thinking of these words, I often say that I am glad that God hates death and the grave and will destroy both and will never alter His purpose about it. While in the case of the believer the curse of death is changed to a blessing and brings only gain and the very far better (Phil. i, 21, 23), yet the fact stands that death is an enemy, and to talk of death as one of the worst of enemies with the best friend.

58. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, for as much as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

The glories of the resurrection, the kingdom, the new earth, concerning which Paul said Rom. viii, 17, 18; I Cor. iv, 17, 18, and many such words may well encourage us to be steadfast in the faith, unmoved by any false doctrine and gladly walking in the good works which He has prepared for us.
He only wants us so to present to Him our bodies, which is truly a reasonable thing, since He has bought us with a great price, that He may unhindered work in us all His good pleasure, causing all grace to abound toward us (Eph.
ii, 10; Rom. xii, 1, 2; I Cor. vi, 19, 20;
II Thess. i, 11, 12; II Cor. ix, 8).

Of Galveston, Texas.

"Wine of Cardui is indeed a blessing to tired women. Having suffered for seven years with weakness and bearing-down pains, and having tried several doctors and different remedies with no success, your Wine of Cardui was the only thing which helped me, and eventually cured me. It seemed to build up the weak parts, strengthen the system and correct irregularities."

By "tired women" Mrs. Adams means nervous women who have disordered menses, falling of the womb, ovarian troubles or any of these ailments that women have. You can cure yourself at home with this great women's remedy, Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui has cured thousands of cases which doctors have failed to benefit. Why not begin to get well today? All druggists have $1.00 bottles. For any stomach, liver or bowel disorder Theodor's Black-Draught should be used.

Magazine Reviews

The handsome cover of The Designer for May is significant of the many good things which follow, prominent among which are, of course, fashions and millinery for spring and summer, also many novelties in trimmings, all of which are most attractively illustrated. Aside from the fashion features worthy of the highest commendation are "Floral Photography," by Hubert McBean Johnston, "Chinese Little Folks," by Jessie Juliet Knox, and a full-page poem, "My Lady's Gown," by Maun Sutton. "Sweet Briar," "By Proxy," and "A Memorable Memorial Day" are the three short stories of the month, while "The Housecleaners" is a delightful farce delightfully illustrated. "A May-Day Celebration" and "A Hunting Party" are suggestions for entertainments, and directions for making many handsome novelties in crochet supply the fancy work. "What Women Are Doing" and "Helps Along The Way" are two departments which grow in interest each month, while "Book Notes," "In Mother Land," "The Kitchen Kingdom," "Toilet Table Chat," and "Etiquette Hints" are features which are valuable as well as entertaining. "Points on Dreemaking" treats this month of the making of shirred garments, and the "Lessons in Millinery" tells how to make a Shepherdess hat, "Novel Interiors," "Selections for the Recitationist," and poems by Theodosia Garrison. Edwin L. Sabin and others add still further attraction to this remarkably attractive number.

Spring and Summer Fashions.

Flower effects are the chist distinction of the sheer Summer fabrics. The Louise silks have acquired such softness and grace that they are extensively used for the all around Summer gown, and the Habutai and Tokio varieties exhibit an embroidered elaboration that makes them appropriate for dressy wear. Taffetas are now procurable in a soft, rustleless quality.

The chiffons approach the silks in wearing quality, being much heavier than their predecessors.

Canvas is assuming great importance in the realm of Spring frocks and coats; it is used as cloth, with strappings, stitchings, etc.

Basket-weave cotton chevrons, madras and mercerized cottons offer modish suggestions for the shirt waist suit, and the smartest shirt-waist are made of mercerized fabrics; such as vesting cheviot, linen and canvas.

Nearly every gown, whether made of a soft woollen or a sheer wash fabric, is characterized by shirring.

The reign of lace continues. Soft and flimsy Tenerriffe and Mexican laces are the novelties of the season.

The new braids, which will be used in profusion, are soft and pliable and well suited to forming designs on the gown, and the new buttons, glistening with colored stones and enamel are examples of the highest art of the jeweler.—From The Delineator for May.

LATEST FASHION NOTES

A PRETTY SHORT COAT.

This very novel coat is suitable for either velvet or peau de soie, and recalls some of the portraits of earlier days. The deep collar, which may almost be called a cape, is edged with Vandyck-pointed Irish crochet lace, and the coat, which is here made of velvet, is ornamented with straps of peau de soie stitched with Corticelli stitching silk, and is further decorated by small buttons and dainty bowknots.

The yoke jacket, recalling the Norfolk, returns to us with a few modifications, or rather merely one modification, and that the loose front. The yoke and the plait effect remains the plaits in this instance being simulated and on the fronts reaching to the belt, while in back the plait-shaped piece is very wide where it joins the yoke, then narrows to the waist and widens a trifle again on the basque. The yoke is cut with points and adorned with buttons in front, similar buttons apparently fastening the belt on either side of the front. The revers, collar, and cuffs are of plaited cloth.

The Most Unpleasant Feature

Of shoe-wearing used to be the breaking-in process. People used to expect at least a week's foot unhappiness. They looked for it and were seldom or never disappointed.

Different now. It is a daily occurrence for us to have people say about a new pair of shoes: "They are as comfortable as the old one's." It ought to be so.

A shoe that is the shape of the foot, that is not too large, and not too small, will feel comfortable from the first minute you wear it.

DEATH RIDES THE GALE

Cyclonic Wind in Arkansas and Alabama Makes Mourning in Many Homes.

TWO COUNTIES FEEL ITS WRATH

In Arkansas, and a Settlement Is Wrecked in Alabama.

Nineteen Persons Dead So Far as Known and Scores of Wounded Reported, Some of Whom Will Die.

Little Rock, Ark., April 9.—A cyclone three miles wide passed through Cleburne and White counties, north of here, razing to the ground everything in its path. The scene is remote from telegraph, and details are hard to obtain. At Little Red, eighteen miles from Judsonia, seven or eight persons in one house were instantly killed, the survivor being an infant. Near Pangburn an old man named Williams was blown off a mountainside and killed. Many are reported injured and it is feared that the loss of life will be large. Houses were picked up and carried several hundred feet. Two were killed at Heber, Cleburne county.

Names of Nine of the Dead.

A special correspondent of The Gazette wires from Searcy, Ark., that he had gone over a portion of the track of the storm, and that trees were twisted from their trunks and houses demolished. The towns of Little Red, Albion, Bradford, Heber and Pangburn have been heard from thus far. The dead are: Jim Leggett, Joe Leggett, Tom King and wife, three King children, and a young lady school teacher, who was boarding at Kings, all of Little Red; A. C. Williams, near Heber.

List of the Known Injured.

The injured—Infant child of the King family; Mrs. A. C. Williams, not expected to live; Buck Neeley, Searcy; Albert Kiler, Elbert Derrle, and Walker Pollard, Little Red; two of the Pollard family near Albion; Mrs. Hoverton and children, Pangburn, not expected to live; Miss Parkhouse, Little Red, leg broken and skull fractured; Walter Muller, Pangburn, leg broken; Mrs. Henry Wells, injured internally, fatally; unknown woman, Pangburn, both legs broken; Tom Houston, near Heber, both arms broken; unknown man at Bradford.

ALABAMA TOWN VISITED

Ten Are Killed, Several Fatally Hurt and Much Property Destroyed.

Hanceville, Ala., April 9.—A tornado passed over Hanceville settlement, one and a half miles north of here, and as a result ten persons are dead, four are fatally injured and a dozen are more or less seriously hurt, while the destruction to the property is heavy. The dead are: Mr. and Mrs. Mason Griffin, James Griffin, Henry McCoy, Fred McCoy, Miss Virdie McCoy, C. C. Oden (prominent planter), Miss Norma Oden, Hester Oden and Mrs. Thelma Oden.

The injured, of whom several will die, are: Son and niece of Nathan Griffin, Mrs. Henry McCoy and two children, R. G. Quick, family of McCoy (seven persons), Mrs. Holstine Horton, Miss Inez Horton, Dink Quick, Richard Griffith, Mrs. C. C. Oden and Miss Griffith.

The storm came from the southeast, and its roar was so terrific that it woke many people, some of whom fled from their houses in time to escape death in the ruins of their homes. Buildings were tossed about like paper boxes, and several structures were blown a hundred yards or more. The body of McCoy, who was a prominent farmer, was blown 200 yards and landed in a sand pit. The house of Mrs. John Norton was blown down, but the family escaped by crawling under the bed, while the timber and brick fell on top, the bed breaking the force of the fall. The houses of the Oden and Griffin families were smashed to splinters, and it seems marvelous that any of their occupants escaped death.

Trees were uprooted in all directions, and many were blown across the Louisville and Nashville railroad track, delaying trains for a time. The roar of the storm was heard at Hanceville, where it awoke many people, but no damage was done here. As soon as the destruction wrought became known here, rescuers hurried to the scene to give attention to the dead and wounded.

BLOW OFF A MOUNTAIN TOP

Fate of Williams and His Wife—Some Freaks of the Storm.

Little Rock, Ark., April 9.—A special to The Gazette from Heber says: In the tornado which swept across this section A. C. Williams, living ten miles south of Heber, was killed. He was 70 years old and lived with his wife on top of one of the mountains south of this town. His house was caught up by the wind and thrown down the mountainside, he being killed. His wife was badly injured and is not expected to live.

A white man named Houston, living near Williams, had both arms broken. At Pangburn six residences were blown down and a flock of sheep and a number of cattle, hogs and horses were killed. A large church near Pangburn was blown half a mile. At Little Red postoffice, Albert Kiler, Elbert Derrle, Walker Pollard, Mrs.

Pollard and Tom King lost all their houses, barns and other buildings. Forty-three residences and sixteen barns, destroyed, and other wreckage, is the record of the damage reported up to this writing.

The tornado swept everything in a path a mile wide.

BONILLA GETTING HIS RIGHTS

His Enemies in Honduras Seem Nearing the End of Their Ropes—Cause of the War.

Panama, April 9.—A dispatch from Honduras received, via San Salvador, announces that General Sierra has abandoned Nacome and it is believed that he will flee to Salvador. The town of Coray has also been captured by the forces of General Bonilla, and only the Honduran capital, Tegucigalpa, now remains in the power of President Arias.

General Sierra, on the conclusion of his term as president of Honduras, prevented the installment of General Bonilla, who was elected president in his stead, and had General Juan Angel Arias, his private secretary, elected president of Honduras, and he himself appointed commander-in-chief of the army with extraordinary powers, which office was created for him. General Bonilla thereupon hoisted the standard of rebellion.

UNION AND NON-UNION MIX

Strikers Make the Attack and Four of Them Are Arrested with Two Non-Strikers.

Baltimore, April 9.—As one hundred non-union structural iron workers were waiting in the Calvert station of the Pennsylvania railroad to board a train for Pittsburg they were approached by a number of union men, who tried to dissuade them from taking the places of strikers. Finding their arguments unavailing several of the union men resorted to violence, and a lively scene ensued.

Reserves from the central police station quickly arrived upon the scene and arrested four union and two non-union men and a special officer who was with the latter. The other non-union men proceeded on their way to Pittsburg.

Hugh H. Hanna on the Board.

Washington, April 9.—Hugh H. Hanna, of Indianapolis, has been designated as the third member of the commission to set up an international system of gold standard exchange. The other members are Charles A. Conant and Professor Jeremiah Jenks.

HUGH H. HANNA.

VANISHES FROM VIEW

President Finds a Lodge in a Wilderness, a Boundless Contiguity of Shade.

WILL STAY THERE SIXTEEN DAYS

Unmolested by the All-Pervading Newspaper Man or Kodak Fiend—Perhaps.

Cinnabar, Mont., April 9.—President Roosevelt is in the fastness of Yellowstone park, and for the next sixteen days he expects to enjoy complete rest and cessation from public duties. He will be in almost daily communication with Secretary Loeb at Cinnabar, but nothing except of the utmost importance will be referred to him. In company with John Burroughs, the naturalist who accompanied him from Washington, he will closely study the nature of the various animals that inhabit the park.

MAJOR W. L. PITCHER.

portance will be referred to him. In company with John Burroughs, the naturalist who accompanied him from Washington, he will closely study the nature of the various animals that inhabit the park.

All the Trails Are Guarded.

The president has looked forward to this outing for some time, and he was in a particularly happy frame of mind when he led the cavalcade into the park. Every trail leading into the preserve is closely guarded, and no one will be allowed to disturb the president's solitude. His headquarters will be at the home of Major Pitcher, the superintendent of the park. A number of camps have been established in different localities, and these will be occupied by the president from time to time.

Goes in on Horseback.

The special train bearing the president and his party arrived at Gardner, the entrance to the park at 12:30 p. m. and was met by a detachment of the Third cavalry and a number of cowboys. Major Pitcher also was on hand to welcome the president. Luncheon was served in the president's car, after which the president, dressed in riding breeches and coat, with a light colored slouch hat on his head, mounted his horse and made a brief address to the people congregated near his train. He then bade the members of his party good-bye and led the way into the park. Burroughs followed in an army wagon.

Prospect for a Good Time.

The train returned to Cinnabar, where Secretary Loeb and the remainder of the party will live in it while the president is absent. On April 24 the president will start on his trip to St. Louis and the Pacific coast. The weather here is very mild, and reports from the park are to the effect that there is but little snow in the vicinity of the president's headquarters.

STEVENSON LOSES HIS HAIR

Ex-National Vice President Tries to Put Out a Fire and Is Painfully Burned.

Bloomington, Ills., April 9.—Adlai E. Stevenson, ex-vice president of the United States, lost his hair and mustache and received painful burns on the face, head and hands while trying to extinguish a fire in his home. The fire started in a bed room, and when the statesman rushed into the room, the curtains were ablaze. Without calling for aid Stevenson attacked the flames.

In a twinkling the hair sizzled from his head and went up in a puff of smoke. As the amateur fire fighter sought to save his hair the fire seized his mustache and blistered his face. He retreated before his clothes caught fire. The loss by fire to the house is $1,000.

She Wanted to See Loubet.

Paris, April 9.—A stylishly dressed woman entered the court yard of the Elysee palace and asked to see President Loubet in such an excited manner that it was evident that her mind was unbalanced. She was taken to the police infirmary, where she gave the name of Lapiere.

Pekin, April 9.—A telegram from the province of Ho Nan reports that anti-taxation riots have broken out in the districts around Hwai King Fu.

HIGH SCHOOL BOY TURBULENCE

Gives the Education Board of Madison, Wis., Trouble—Parents Approve the Proceedings.

Madison, Wis., April 9.—Led by the son of the superintendent of schools, and the sons of some of the best families in Madison 300 high school students went on a strike for single, or half-day, sessions. They congregated in mobs about the high school building and made such a disturbance that a detail of police was called to suppress them.

About two-thirds of the 550 students in the school are out, and the strikers are making vigorous efforts to gain accessions to their ranks. The strike is approved by the parents of a number of the students and secretly encouraged, it is said, by some of the teachers.

START OF THE PLAGUE

That Has Held Mazatlan in Its Grip—Did Not Know What Was the Disease.

Mazatlan, Mex., April 9.—Drs. Carbajal and Guzman are back from their recent trip to the pueblos of El Quito, El Quemado and El Zapote. It is said they were informed by reliable people that at the end of 1901 there was an epidemic of plague at those ranches, though at the time nobody knew that it was the dreaded disease and there was no alarm.

When the plague appeared at Mazatlan the survivors of the other epidemic knew that the same disease had previously visited them and so reported to the authorities. Drs. Carbajal and Guzman's examination confirms the report.

Wants an Ethnological Trust.

Berlin, April 9.—Hjornstjerne Bjornson, the Norwegian dramatist, politician and writer, has two-thirds of a page of The Tageblatt on one of his favorite ideas, an ethnological and political trust of all the Germanic peoples, in which he includes the United States, Germany, England, Austria, Scandinavia, Denmark, The Netherlands and Switzerland.

Kansas in Favor of a Drought.

Topeka, Kan., April 9.—Returns from all the towns in Kansas which held elections disclose the fact that the vote in favor of enforcing the prohibition law is the most overwhelming in the history of the state. Only six towns of any importance in the state voted in favor of a liberal policy toward the saloons.

A new religious sect with a very strange belief has begun to gather in this city. They are called "Israelites or followers of the Flying Roll" and were told by a vision that the second coming would occur within three years in this city. Christ is to come in the persons of his faithful ones who will number 144,000 (or 288,000 counting their wives) when all arrive and no one else will be saved. They will reign on the earth during the 1,000 years of millenium, and thistles and weeds will not grow, but the earth will yield seven fold. In the meantime the wicked will be punished though they do not believe in a hell. They wear skull caps and let down their long hair during their services.

Death at La Porte

Jos. Anstiss and wife went to La Porte on Monday to attend the funeral of their son's father-in-law, James L. Gree, who for nearly 39 years was baggagemaster of the Lake Shore railroad at LaPorte.

Mr. Greer had many interesting experiences during the 39 years of service for the Lake Shore. He was twice seriously injured, once being caught in the smashing of a truck of baggage by an engine, as a result of which he suffered several broken ribs, and another time being caught in a frog and run down by an engine, which laid him up for several months. He watched with pride the growth of the corporation for which he had worked so continuously. Though at times he seemed brusque in his ways to those who did not know him, there was no better hearted man than James Greer, whose fidelity and conscientious discharge of his duties was deserving of the recognition given by the Lake Shore company, when just a year ago it gave him an assistant to do the work that he might enjoy with ease and a pension the rest of his life.

The deceased was born in New Orleans, La., and last Christmas celebrated his 70 birthday anniversary. Surviving him are the wife, Mrs. Charlotte Greer, and two daughters, Mrs. William Anstiss and Miss Mary Greer. He was a member of LaPorte lodge, No. 36, I. O. O. F. The funeral were held 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the residence of William Anstiss, 810 Virginia avenue. Dr. G. C. Moor officiated. The obsequies were under the auspices of the Odd Fellows. The burial took place at Patton cemetery.

RARE WILD ANIMALS.

All the Wonders of Creation Are to be Found in Ringling Brothers' Famous Menagerie.

The most valuable collection of wild animals in the world is the menagerie feature of Ringling Bros. show the largest circus organization of all time. Among the odd creatures nowhere else to be seen, and above price, are two giraffes, the last of their tribe; the only Rhinorouss in captivity; the almost extinct Gau, or horned horse; a real baby Elephant, born January 8, 1903, standing no higher than its mother's knee, and the only one ever bred, born and reared in captivity; and a gigantic troop of 40 elephants, the largest company ever shown under canvas, and more than twice as many as are with any other show in America. In this priceless collection of odd animal creatures the specimens are all perfect types, and 108 cages, lairs and dens are used to carry them. The big menagerie tent is the largest ever made for a circus, and so big that an army of 5,000 men could be easily maneuvered within its walls. Naturalists and explorers of fame positively pronounce this menagerie the rarest, largest and most valuable in existence. Frequently colleges and schools are closed so that students may have the privilege of inspecting this wonderful exhibition of wild animal life. One may practically make a tour of the world in the time devoted to the study of this immense zoological display and never again will an opportunity present itself of seeing a great many animals almost extinct. The horse exhibition of the Ringling Bros. World's Greatest Shows is another surpassing feature that separates this marvelous show from all others. There are 650 horses with the big enterprise, over 300 of which are performing animals of blue blooded pedigree. The capital invested in this department of the World's Greatest Shows is enormous and beyond the reach of the promoters of other exhibitions. The vastness of the different departments of the Ringling Bros. great shows indicate the spirit of progression which has always characterized their policy. This is further evidenced this year by the production of a dramatic spectacle, Jerusalem and the Crusades, involving 1,200 characters, a ballet of 300 and a singing chorus of 200, and requiring the use of a stage larger than the combined size of the stage space in 100 theaters. Over 2,000 costumes, the designs and make of Pasisian artists, are employed, and the scenes of marching hosts, dancing galaxies, galloping knights, Ecclesiastical groupings and dramatic incidents form a spectacular display indiscribably fascinating. The music composed for this magnificent production is rendered by the largest portable grand organ ever built, and a band of fifty selected soloists. The scenic investiture is elaborate and ornate, and the spectacle in its entirety is incomparably the most important and successful historical display ever shown under canvas. The ring performances of the great circus this year are characterized by the same policy of enlargement and novelty. Three hundred and seventy-five of the pick and flower of Europe, America and the Orient in the circus profession are to be found in the huge arena program. Many of the leading artists in the riding, acrobatic and gymnastic numbers have never been in this country before, and are celebrated in their foreign homes. The big circus canvas is the largest ever made, and will seat 5,000 more people than any other show. Eighty-five double length cars are required to transport the immense equipment, horses and personal factors. The street pageant circus morning is the biggest and most varied ever organized. This feature of the Ringling Bros. shows has always been immeasurably superior to the efforts of all others, and this season is more diversified, resplendent, novel, sensational and longer than ever before. The big show will be in South Bend one day only, April 27, and give two performances, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and 8 o'clock in the evening.

March 30th one of the most interesting and pleasing meetings of the year was held with Mrs. E. S. Dodd, subject, "Music and Drama."

The articles were all exceptionally fine and entertaining and instructive. "Some American Composers," by Mrs. Whitman, was a history of some of the most famous songs, and brief history of the best American composers and their work.

Mrs. E. S. Dodd's subject was one with which she is perfectly familiar, "Music," and she gave a list of the different musical instruments first used.

"Oringin of Popular Songs," by Mrs. Worthington, was pronounced by all a gem gave the origin of "Yankee Doodle," "Star Spangled Banner," etc., and closed with description of "My Old Kentucky Home," Mrs. Dodd singing the verses at intervals.

Mrs. East read a few short poems called "Bandanna Ballads," descriptive of negro character. Mrs. Weaver read an excellent paper on "Booth and Forest." Mrs. Crotser an article on "Charlotte Cushman." Mrs. M. G. Dodd, a paper on "Joseph Jefferson." Mrs. Johnson an article on "American Sculptors." Mrs. Dodd surprised the club by serving dainty refreshments.

April 6th the club met with Mrs. Alice Rose. "Our First Magazine," a paper by Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. E. S. Dodd an article on "Margaret Ossilli Fuller," prepared by Mrs. Howard. Mrs. Johnson gave an interesting talk on "Ernest Thompson Seton" Mrs. Peacock a talk on "Eugene Field," Mrs. Stryker a reading, "Martin Dooley on Books and Reading." The club was delighted to have Mrs. John Graham with them for the afternoon.

New Families are Welcome.

The changes in the Benton Harbor rail road in making this a starting point for some of the trains will bring several new families to Buchanan, whom the village people gladly welcome.
