THE CENTRAL PAID $6000

To a Dowagiac Man for Injuries he Received.

L. H. Jacoby, a stone mason aged 51 years, whose home is at Dowagiac, received a check for $6000 from the Michigan Central railroad company this week in full settlement of a claim for damages resulting from injuries received on January 24th last.

The settlement was made without the commencement of a suit and it is believed to be the largest amount ever paid by a corporation to a claimant for damages, except through the award of a jury at the conclusion of a long legal fight.

On January 24 Jacoby was assisting in unloading steel shares for grain drills, from a car on the siding at Dowagiac, wheeling the same on a truck from the car into the warehouse.

The accident occurred when a freight engine and eight cars backed down the siding against the car in which Jacoby and James Gardner were at work, throwing the former to the floor of the car and seriously injuring his spine. Gardner although badly jarred by the sudden jolt, was not seriously injured. Jacoby went to work again a few moments after his fall thinking his injuries were not serious, but an hour later was forced to cease work because of the pain in his back and was assisted home by his fellow employees, where he was confined to his bed for over two months, last Thursday being the first day he was able to be out since the accident.—Niles Sun.

Disorderly Boys.

No one expects boys to be as sober as men but they ought at least to be orderly. Mr. Benj. S. Crawford says a number of boys out rollicking on Wednesday evening, going by his house stopped and peeped into the windows and when he went to the door they ran in every direction trampling over his flower beds and damaging them.

Boys, you are known and if there is a reputation of anything of the kind some of you will be sorry. This is to warn you.

John Milliard, South Bend says; Coonley's Tonic Ext. of Sarsaparilla is the best medicine made, it cured me of a terrible Eczema after all other blood medicines had failed. Be wise and take it first, only 50c a large bottle at E. S. Dodd & Son's.

Canning Factory Established by H. A. Hathaway.

The Hastings Industrial Company of Chicago was well represented at the Hotel de Mars last Sunday. Among the guests connected with that corporation were: John L. Peterson, bookkeeper and settler, who was on his way to Arcadia to settle with the stockholders of the canning factory; H. A. Hathaway, promoter, who had just returned from Beulah, where he and Mr. Sherrod were successful in getting the capital stock fully subscribed for an $8,000 canning factory. Mrs. Hathaway had also come up from her home at Buchanan, Mich., on a short visit. Mr. Miller, the builder, who has just completed a cheese factory at Pomona, was also there on his way to Onokama; Mr. Simmons, who had just completed the Arcadia factory, was going to Beulah, and the party was completed by Joseph Maurer, builder at Bear Lake, and Mrs. Maurer.—Bear Lake Beacon, April 10.

Wernli—Boardman Company.

The Wernli—Boardman Co. is rearranging the second floor of their store preparatory to placing their millinery department in front. Their new spring line will be here in a few days and they will show a full line of street and dress hats.—Grand Encampment, (Wy.) Herald.

The above was handed to us by Mrs. H. A. Hathaway. This does not look like failure; the report so persistently circulated around town. We are thoroughly glad that the story is false and that our esteemed friend, Boardman, is doing well, and hope that success only may attend him.

Giant Quartette.

The concert given by the Giant Quartette at the opera house Tuesday evening was greatly enjoyed by those present. The instrumental music was played in perfect unison and accord, and the vocal numbers were loudly applauded.

THE AMOUNT WAS $3,000

The Michigan Central R. R. Settle With Mrs. Jay Godfrey.

On July 15 of last summer Mrs. Jay Godfrey, while walking near the Michigan Central track, was seriously hurt by a mail bag being thrown from the west bound mail train passing here shortly after 6 o'clock.

She was badly hurt, and was compelled to abandon her position as ticket agent and operator.

She has suffered much and is still having difficulty in walking owing to an injury to her back.

Without a law suit the company have given her $3,000 and the privilege of an annual pass over all their lines.

She was in the employ of the company many years. The family go soon to California where they will buy a county home and make their permanent residence.

QUEER WHITE HOUSE MAIL

President Receives Cart Loads of Odd Letters.

The president gets a large number of "fake" or "queer letter every day from insane people all over the United States and Europe. The executive receives a great quantity of mail, but few people have an idea of the amount of this "fake" mail that it falls to the lot of the president's secretary to open.

The mail for the president is handled in the official mailroom at the city postoffice in Washington and is delivered at the White House by a special carrier detailed from the force of employees at the executive mansion. There are six letter cases in this room, and each case contains one box for the mail of the president and his family. The number of letters for the president alone runs from 300 to 400 a day and from ten to fifteen of these are the "fake" letters.

There is one man out in California who has been writing to the various presidents for a number of years. He numbers each letter and the last received was No. 360. One of these missives was opened some time ago by permission of the president's secretary and found to contain only a number of unintelligible hieroglyphics something like shorthand. Of course they find their way ultimately into the waste paper basket at the White House, but they are not allowed to be destroyed at the postoffice.

Another "freak" who has been writing to the presidents for long years, scorns envelopes and stamps and uses postal cards altogether. If he does not finish what he has to say in one he takes another, numbering them consecutively. Sometimes he uses five or six. During the period of the Spanish war he wrote almost every day and gave orders as to the movements of the fleets in Asiatic waters.

Not very long ago a letter was received addressed to "George Washington, President of the United States." Letters come addressed to the president all sorts of ways. His is "The President," but he gets them all from "His Majesty" and "His Excellency" down to simple "Teddy Roosevelt." Of course every Christmas scores of letters come for Santa Claus, care of the president, from children who imagine he is a sort of fairy godfather.—Washington Post.

Save your money! We guarantee Coonley's Tonic Ext. of Sarsaparilla at 50c a bottle equal to any of the $1.00 Sarsaparilla made. ## NEEDLESS FIRE ALARM

Only a Chimney Burning Out but Many People Alarmed at False Reports.

Wednesday afternoon about four o'clock there was an alarm of fire. Soon the laddies were tugging the hose cart and hook and ladder through the mud and rain up the hill toward the school building.

The report gained circulation that the school building was on fire and the people flocked from all parts of the village.

Some unknown person sent in the alarm to the power house that the union school was ablaze and extra pressure was turned into the pipes.

A much excited people cooled down when the firemen reached the home of Mrs. Griffith and found that it was only a chimney burning out and no harm was being done; and what seemed a big fire, burning a building that would effect so large a number of people as the school house undoubtedly would, proved to be only a false alarm.

Birthday Dinner.

KEEPING PROMISES

Buchanan. Appreciates Always When Promises are Kept.

Every time you read about Doan's Kidney Pills, you are told they cure every form of kidney ill, from backache to urinary disorders. How are our promises kept? Ask any citizen who has tried the treatment. Ask the man who makes the following statement:

Mr. John Mays, General Insurance Agent, living at 191 Lake Avenue, Benton Harbor, says: "To say I endorse the claims made for Doan's Kidney Pills feebly expresses what I think of the preparation. For several months I had my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills and thinking they might benefit me I procured a box at Harry L. Bird's drug store. I could feel the good effects right away, and by the time I had used three quarters of the box the pain in my back and side had entirely passed out of existence. I am only too pleased to testify to the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills."

Just such emphatic endorsement is plentiful in Buchanan. Call at W. N. Brodick's drug store and ask him what his customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster Milburn-Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

TERMS $1.25 PER YEAR

In another column will be found an account of a canning factory by H. A. Hathaway. We are pleased at the success of our people where ever they may be and hope that some of them may be able to do something for Buchanan.

Grand Jury Charge.

Through the kindness of Leroy S. Bronson, one of the grand jurors, we publish else where in to-days issue the charge of Judge Coolidge to the grand jury. It ought to be read by every good citizen of the county.

If an epidemic of small pox were to visit our county, no effort would be too great for us to make, no money would be too much for us to spend to stamp out the evil, but daily we see constantly before us a plague worse than small pox ruining both body and soul and we stand idly by. Let every man who loves his home do all to aid this jury in ferreting out the great evils. You may not see how it can affect your home but if it has not already be sure it will if not stamped out or at least suppressed.

Boys.

We want to say a kindly word to the boys. Every person expects the boys to have a good time and would be sorry if they did not have, but they ought to be careful about how they have a good time. It seems that it would hardly be possible for any one to have a good time by injuring others, but we are sorry to say that is true, and some boys seem to be happy only when they are doing unkind and harmful things to others, and some continue it even when they are grown to manhood. If any of the boys small or large who read this are inclined to do these things let us appeal to your better nature for you have it if you will try to find and cultivate it, not for any other's sake but your own, stop doing those things which will eventually make you a character despised by all and perhaps by yourself.

In another column we have a complaint from one of our citizens about the boys which we hope will not be repeated.

Does Advertising Really Pay?

If there is a lingering doubt in the mind of any whether advertising really pays, let him read the following extract from a letter which came to our desk April 15, and which is from one of the nursery men in Berrien Co.: 'Enclosed find check to cover amount due you for advertising, as per bill rendered.

My ad in the RECORD has paid me well, in fact better than any other ad I have run.'

This advertiser carried space in these columns continuously from October 15 to April 1 and the results are more than satisfactory. Spasmodic advertising is not of greatest value to the advertiser, to reap the full benefit one must advertise continuously.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON III, SECOND QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, APRIL 19.

Text of the Lesson, Rom. xiii, 7-14. Memory Verses, 9, 10—Golden Text, Rom. xiii, 10—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1908, by American Press Association.] 7. Render therefore to all their dues; tribute to whom tribute is due, custom to whom custom, fear to whom fear, honor to whom honor.

After assuring us of our high and holy place in the love of God through the gift of His dear Son and that nothing can possibly separate us therefrom and telling us in chapters ix to xi of God's unchanging purpose concerning Israel, He then entreates us from chapter xii onward to let God have our whole being that by a righteous life which He will live in those who are yielded to Him He may make Himself known to others. Submission to the powers that be, cheerfully paying tribute and taxes, rendering respect as foreigners would in a country where they are temporarily abiding—these things Christians should gladly do because they are citizens of heaven and thus command the country to which they belong.

8. Owe no man anything, but to love one another, for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

Some one has said that love is the law itself in manifold action, an obligation never fully discharged. Love is seen perfectly only in Christ, never in sinful mortals. If any think that they have seen it perfectly in some redeemed one, let them consider such in the light of I Cor. xiii, 4-7, and also consider one of Mr. Spurgeon's definitions of sin as anything that the Lord Jesus would not think or say or do or bless. If one should ask, Where, then, is the perfect love which casteth out fear? (I John iv, 18) one answer would be, There can be no fear while abiding in His perfect love.

9. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Love worketh no ill to his neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

These commands deal with our treatment of our neighbor, for we can prove our love to God (the sum of the first four commandments, Matt. xxii, 36, 37) only by our love to our neighbor. "He that loveth not his brother, whom he hath seen, how can he love God, whom he hath not seen?" (I John iv, 20) Love is always kind, studies to please, cannot injure, seeks not its own welfare first, but rather the welfare of others, therefore cannot engage in any pursuit or business which would impoverish others while enriching itself.

11. And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep; for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

The epistles are written to believers, those who by faith in Christ are saved, have passed from death to life and yet seem to be asleep and talk in their sleep (Isa. xxix, 10; Ivi, 10, margin). The tendency of believers to sleep, both under the most glorious and the most awful circumstances, is seen in Peter, James and John on the Mount of Transfiguration and in Gethsemane (Luke ix, 32; xxii, 45, 46), showing how utterly foreign, even to redeemed people, heavenly things are and how unable we are to grasp them. Samson asleep in the lap of Delilah shows how the strongest are apt to be overcome by the things of this world, and Jonah asleep in the storm while the heathen captain and sailors called upon their gods is a wonderful picture of the church, asleep to such commands as Mark xvi, 15, while the blind zeal of the heathen should put us to shame.

12. The night is far spent, the day is at hand. Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness and let us put on the armor of light.

It seems strange to those who boast of the progress of the century to speak of this being still the world's night, but it is even so, and the day will not dawn till the morning star appears and then the sun (Rev. xxii, 16; Mal. iv, 2). When He said, "Ye are the light of the world" (Matt. v, 14), He certainly meant that the world needed sight and was therefore in darkness. The progress is like that of Cain and is not progress in or toward righteousness, for the whole world still lieth in the wicked one (I John v, 19). Believers are children of the light and of the day (I Thess. v, 5) and waiting for the day to dawn, for only then will our full salvation come, to which we are drawing nearer every day, as stated in the last verse.

13. Put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ and make not provision for the flesh to fulfill the lusts thereof.

The believer is said to receive Christ (John i, 12) and also to put on Christ (Gal. iii, 27) and to be in Christ (I Cor. i, 30), but in whatever way our relation to Christ is spoken of the fact is recognized that the old man, the self life, is still in us and is to be persistently reckoned dead or put off (Rom. vi, 11; Eph. iv, 22, 24; Col. iii, 9, 10; I Cor. iv, 10, 11). We are to have no confidence in the flesh, to worship God in the Spirit and rejoice in Christ Jesus (Phil. iii, 3). We are to have the mind of Christ Jesus, and, as He never pleased Himself, so we, if filled with His Spirit, will not live unto ourselves in any selfish way (Phil. ii, 5; Rom. xv, 3). There is no salvation for any sinner or any kind of a sinner except by the blood of Christ apart from any works of ours (Rom. iv, 5; Tit. iii, 5), so the life that is expected from us cannot be lived by us, but must be lived by Christ in us without our help. We yield ourselves to Him, and He lives the life and works the works (Gal. ii, 20; Phil. ii, 13). Whatever is done, it is His working in us His good pleasure (Col. i, 29; I Cor. xv, 10; I Thess. i, 11), that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen! (I Pet. iv, 11).

BASE BALL.

The first home game of the high school base ball series will be played with the Niles high school team Saturday afternoon at the school grounds. Buchanan has a good team and the comparative score at St. Joseph is no criterion of its strength. Niles defeated Dowagiac last Saturday and is sure to show a good article of ball. In order to pay necessary expenses a small admission of ten cents will be charged, with a five cent rate for children under twelve. It is believed that all will see the reasonableness of the charge. As the grounds are not enclosed the management must depend largely upon the fairness and generosity of the spectators. A conspicuous ticket bearing upon the back a simple scoring device will be furnished each one as he pays. These should be kept throughout the game to prevent misunderstanding.

Supervisor Thompson Hurt.

J. B. Thompson, at his home two miles west of town, met with a serious accident on Tuesday while moving a safe into his house. His right arm was terribly crushed at the elbow joint.

The safe was being taken into the house on a plank, when it slipped, fell on Mr. Thompson's arm, breaking it so badly that the bones were splintered and protruded through the flesh.

Physicians from Niles were hastily summoned who did every thing possible to relieve the intense pain and dress the wound. It is feared that amputation will be necessary. Mr. Thompson is supervisor of Niles township.

Sparks administrator, and Frank Jarvis executor of the estate of Burton and Elizabeth Jarvis deceased, to determine to whom the $1,789 life insurance should be paid. I believe Theford's Black-Draught has doctors' bills for more than one. For the common ailments, such as constipation, indigestion, hard colds, bowel complaints, chills and fever, biliousness, headaches and other like ailments no other medicine is necessary. It invigorates and regulates the liver, assists digestion, stimulates action of the kidneys, purifies the blood, and purges the bowels of foul accumulations. It cures liver complaint, indigestion, sour stomach, dizziness, chills, rheumatic pains, headache, backache, kidney troubles, constipation, diarrhoea, biliousness, piles, hard colds and headache. Every drugist has Theford's Black-Draught in 25 cent packages and in mammoth size for $1.00. Never accept a substitute. Insist on having the original made by the Chattanooga Medicine Company.

I believe Theford's Black-Draught the best medicine on earth. It is good for any and everything. I have a family of twelve children, and for four years I have kept them on foot and healthy with no doctor but Black-Draught. A. J. GREEN, Ilwaco, La.

Some Late Legislative Doings—Owosso's Mayor's Political Retirement—State News.

Lansing, Mich., April 16.—Farmer Harvey, of Gibson township, Bay county, told the senate committee on towns and counties that he had been offered more money than he had ever earned in his life to favor the proposition for the transfer of his township to Arenac county, but had refused it. He also said that he knew of other residents of Gibson township who had received similar offers. The Pay county delegation before the committee denied the charge that only the abstract men were opposed to the township being given to Arenac. They showed that a very large number of the Bay county board of supervisors and the common council of Bay City and West Bay City were opposed to the separation.

Poll-Closing Question at Detroit.

Lansing, Mich., April 16.—Partly for the purpose of meeting Governor Bliss' one objection to the bill for keeping the polls open in Detroit until 8 p. m., Representative Duncan is pushing a bill to provide for a central board that would count the ballots cast in every precinct of the city. The governor feared that if voting were continued until 8 o'clock the lateness of the count by precinct inspectors would afford more opportunities for perverting the returns.

Bank Assessment Bill Changed.

Lansing, Mich., April 16.—The section of Senator Cannon's tax bill providing for the assessment of all bank stocks in the city, village or township in which the bank is situated was stricken from the bill. The vote on the amendment was 16 to 12.

Owosso, Mich., April 16.—Mayor V. M. White has retired from office and from public life. After reading a review of the past year's work he made a touching reference to himself. Shaking with physical infirmity, brought on by his recent hard drinking, and agitated more by mental agony, the mayor said:

"And I'll say now, gentlemen, there is no happier woman in Owosso tonight than Mrs. White, because she will not know again what she has known of me in the last few days. In politics, all men have their weaknesses. My weakness you know, but I assure you, gentlemen, it is cut out forever."

Insanity Pleaded as Extreme Cruelty.

Owosso, Mich., April 16.—H. O. Frieseke, a prominent brick manufacturer, and one of the wealthiest men in the city, has been granted a divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty from his wife, an inmate of the eastern asylum for the insane, who was prominent in church and club work till she lost her mind two years ago. He must pay her $200 a year alimony while she lives to meet the expenses of her keeping in the asylum.

THE MOST UNPLEASANT FEATURE

Of shoe-wearing, used to be the breaking-in process. People used to expect at least a week's foot unhappiness. They looked for it and were seldom or never disappointed.

Different now. It is a daily occurrence for us to have people say about a new pair of shoes: "They are as comfortable as the old one's." It ought to be so.

A shoe that is the shape of the foot, that is not too large, and not too small, will feel comfortable from the first minute you wear it.

INFURIATED CITIZENS

Hang a Negro for Just Plain Murder and Then Start with the Torch.

PLEAS FOR LAW AND ORDER VAIN

No Resistance to the Mob When It Breaks into the Jail,

But Part of It Appears to Have Opposed the Lynching—One Victim Is Not Enough.

Joplin, Mo., April 16.—An infuriated mob took an unknown tramp negro from the city jail and hanged him to a telegraph pole at the corner of Second and Wall streets, two blocks from the jail. The negro was charged with having murdered Police Officer C. Leslie, who was killed in the Kansas City-Southern railroad yards while endeavoring to arrest several negroes suspected of theft. Officer Leslie had ordered several negroes who had taken refuge in a box-car to surrender, and when they failed to do so he fired several shots at the car. During the shooting a negro slipped from the car, and coming up behind the officer shot him through the head.

How the Negro Was Captured.

The negro then fled and within a short time passes were after him. About 3 p. m. Lee Fullerton, aged 21, located the fugitive in a slaughter house just east of Joplin. The negro was armed with a rifle and defied arrest. Fullerton slipped into the structure unobserved and crept up behind the negro. Suddenly he sprang at the unsuspecting fugitive, and before resistance could be made he had the negro on his back with a knife at his throat. The negro then surrendered his rifle, and pointing the weapon at him Fullerton marched him out of the building.

Mob Was Hungry for Blood.

With the assistance of another man the negro was brought to Joplin and placed in jail. News of the capture spread rapidly and the jail was speedily surrounded by hundreds of people. There were cries of "Lynch him" on all sides and City Attorney P. H. Decker mounted the jail steps and made a strong plea in behalf of law and order. This served to temporarily stay the mob, but did not appease it, and a short time after Decker's speech the mob started to batter in a section of the jail wall. Within fifteen minutes the mob had gained entrance to the jail and secured the negro.

FLEADER IS LISTENED TO

But His Pleading Is of No Avail and the Prisoner Is Hanged.

As he was dragged forth City Attorney Decker again interfered and urged that the negro be given a trial. For half an hour he talked, and the mob listened to him with the negro in its custody. At one time it seemed that the city attorney would win, as members of the mob began dispersing, but suddenly a rush was made for the spot where the negro was being held and he was dragged two blocks from the jail, a rope fastened around his neck, and after the rope had been thrown over the cross bar of a telephone pole a score of men attempted to pull the negro from the ground.

As many more seized the negro and pulled to prevent him being hanged. For some moments it was a veritable tug-of-war, but reinforcements on the free end of the rope proved the stronger and the negro, despite his protestations of innocence, was finally swung into the air and strangled to death, while shouts of satisfaction went up from the mob.

The name of the negro was not known, and he was a stranger in Joplin. As soon as the negro was dead the mob dispersed in the twilight, and later the body was cut down and taken in charge by the coroner. There is still great excitement in Joplin, and it is feared that more trouble will follow in case the associates of the dead negro are apprehended.

JUST GAVE THE MOB A START

It Goes Next on an Expedition of Terrorism and Arson.

The lynching of the negro served to only temporarily satisfy the mob, and later hundreds of men again assembled and rioted through the negro section of the city, burning houses, stoning negroes, and finally drove every negro from the confines of Joplin. The police were powerless. The first act of the mob after hanging the negro was to demand the release from jail of a local character known as "Hickory Bill," who was under arrest on the charge of assaulting a negro. In the hope that this would appease the mob the prisoner was set free.

But the mob did not disperse; instead a rush was made through Main street, the principal street of Joplin, and every negro was frightened off the street and fled to the north part of the city, where the colored population resides. In this way the negroes were driven from all parts of the city to the negro section. Then the mob charged down on the section. Stones were thrown, doors and windows of negro houses were broken in, and finally several were fired. The fire department responded, but many of the houses were burned to the ground. The mob made endeavors to prevent the fire department from extinguishing the flames, and was partly successful. All the officers of the city, township and county were called out, but the mob swept them aside and proceeded with the rioting. Mayor Trigg ran from corner to corner, and mounting boxes made earnest appeals to the mob to cease, but beyond cheering the mayor vociferously the mob swept on. After the hundreds of frenzied men composing the mob had vented their wrath in the north end of the city they rushed to the southern end where lived a number of negroes. Their houses were vacant and not a negro could be found. Three more houses were fired and two were consumed.

Manufacturers' Convention Adopts Resolutions Denouncing Union Methods

—Carroll D. Wright Speaks.

New Orleans, April 16.—The delegates to the national convention of the Association of Manufacturers devoted practically all of their time to the discussion of the labor question. Resolutions opposing and denouncing union methods and declaring for the "free shop" system, and disapproving of all strikes were adopted, while a thorough organization of employers of labor was advocated and urged. Action was taken to further the last proposition. Convict labor was declared a bad system. Carroll D. Wright addressed the delegates on the question of combination and defended the workmen's combinations and said they had done much good. He predicted a time in the near future when the men would, taboo the strike.

Toledo, O., April 16.—President John Mulholland, of the International Association of Allied Metal Mechanics, in reply to the address of President Barry, declares that Parry is ignorant of the real conditions existing among the laboring classes; that he is ignorant of the real purposes of the trades unions, and declares that he is inconsistent in that he declares it an outrage for workmen to organize, yet he urges manufacturers to organize against the workers.

CONGRESS OF LATIN PEOPLE

Represents All the European Latins and Those in America, Totaled at 165,000,000 Souls.

The delegates claim to represent the peoples of France, Italy, Spain and Portugal, the various Balkan states and the whole of Central and South America, aggregating 165,000,000 souls. Signor Nasi, minister of public instruction, delivered a speech designed to show that the congress was not intended as a threat to other races, and that its object was merely to "defend the Latin world against the advance of other peoples wishing to conquer the globe."

M. Chaumie, French minister of public instruction, said the union of the Latin race must be along the paths of peace and the diffusion of civilization. A Brazilian delegate, Senhor Aranha, spoke of the Latin tendencies of South America. The Argentine minister, who was prevented from being present, telegraphed his acceptance in the name of his government of all the decisions of the congress.

BAR TO PROSECUTIONS

Put Up by the Government in the Smuggling Cases in Porto Rico.

NO BRAKE ON THE GRAND JURY

It Can Go Ahead and Find Indictments—Statement by the Washington People.

Washington, April 16.—The department of justice has received a dispatch from the United States attorney at San Juan stating in substance that the judge having jurisdiction of the smuggling cases had instructed the grand jury to proceed with the investigation notwithstanding the order of the department of justice to the United States attorney not to prosecute them. He asked for further instructions, to which the department has sent the following reply: "Your duty is to obey my instructions to dismiss pending smuggling cases and present no new cases until otherwise directed. Considerations of moment not confined to Porto Rico or individuals involved have moved administration, after full investigation and deliberation, to course directed, which will be adhered to. But if the judge calls upon you or the court requests you will perform your usual functions before the grand jury. The fact that the government may not or will not prosecute if indictments are found, does not prevent consideration by the grand jury."

Department Makes a Statement.

The following statement was made by the department relative to the smuggling cases referred to in the San Juan dispatch of yesterday: "The facts are that the treasury department approved a settlement in one of the pending cases on the basis of relief from the criminal liability upon payment of a fine equal to double the amount of duties. Instruction to this effect was given to the United States attorney at San Juan by the solicitor of the treasury, and upon inquiry by the United States attorney of the department of justice for confirmation of this instruction the subject was brought before the cabinet, and it was directed by the president that Secretary Moody and Postmaster General Payne should investigate the entire subject upon their arrival at Porto Rico, and that the cases should be dealt with in accordance with their recommendation."

Instructions to Pettigill.

"The recommendation was that all criminal proceedings should be dismissed and discontinued upon the payment of the civil obligation, as above indicated. In accordance with this recommendation the attorney general directed the United States attorney for Porto Rico [Pettigill] to dismiss pending cases and to present no more cases to the grand jury until he was otherwise instructed. The cases involve certain officers of the army and navy, and certain civilian employes of the government of Porto Rico."

PAYNE AIDS THE EXPLANATION

What He Discovered While He Was Enjoying Porto Rican Air.

Postmaster General Payne dictated the following statement: "These cases were called to the attention of the cabinet because they involved officers of the army and navy, and at the request of the attorney general the secretary of the navy and the postmaster general, who were about to visit Porto Rico, were asked to make a personal investigation into the facts of the case. "It seems that certain officers had brought to San Juan articles for personal use which were subject to customs duties, especially cigars and some liquors, and it was said that a present of some of the cigars was made to a local club in San Juan. There was no charge of importing anything upon which it was proposed to make money, or to sell for profit—simply personal effects for personal uses, some of which, it seems, were given away. "We were advised by the secretary of the treasury—such cases coming under his jurisdiction—that in cases of this character where there was no intention to import for profit * * * it is customary not to prosecute criminally, but to settle such cases by the payment of the penalty. This was done in this case, and the officer or officers in question have paid the penalty imposed by the treasury department, which is twice the amount of the original duties. "A settlement on this basis having been approved by the secretary of the treasury, it seemed to the secretary of the navy and to the postmaster general that criminal prosecution would be persecution, and we felt entirely justified in recommending that no further action be had in these cases."

Negotiations Deadlocked.

London, April 16.—The Morning Post correspondent at Shanghai telegraphs that the treaty negotiations with the United States are at a deadlock through China's refusal to abolish all the internal customs houses in accordance with the United States demand. China admits, adds the correspondent, that over 1,000 such customs houses are still open.

Another Labor Difficulty Settled.

St. Paul, Ap. 16.—All matters in dispute between the officials of the Northern Pacific Railway company and the conductors and the trainmen have been settled to the satisfaction of both officials and men.

EXPLAINS A PENSION ACT

Matter of Interest to Veterans Who Have Lost Limbs in the "Line of Duty."

Washington, April 16.—Commissioner of Pensions Ware has issued an order interpreting the act of March 2, 1903, concerning cases of those who have lost limbs in the service. The ruling says: "The said act contains the words, 'or where the same is in such a condition as to prevent the use of an artificial limb.' The word 'use' is not to be considered as equivalent to the word 'wear.' A person may be able to wear an artificial limb when it would be of no use. There must be some practical utility to the use. The words of the act above quoted apply to instances where the amputation is below the middle, in length, of the bone, but above the joint. In such cases, where the condition is such as to prevent the use of an artificial limb, the increased pensions shall be granted. "Where the amputation is made at the middle of above, there can be no use of artificial limb. The middle point of the bone shall be determined in accordance with Curran decision of the office."

PRESIDENT'S WHEREABOUTS

He Is "Somewhere in the Yellowstone Park Between Soda Butte and Yancey's," You Know.

Cinnabar, Mont., April 16.—President Roosevelt is somewhere in Yellowstone park between Soda Butte and Yancey's. Today he will start for the geysers country. An incident that occurred in the park shows how closely every approach to the president is guarded. An employe of the Yellowstone Park Transportation company was discovered by a member of the Third cavalry about five miles from where the president made his camp. The man probably was there on business, but the soldier asked no questions and would listen to no explanation. He placed the employe under arrest and marched him to the post headquarters at the point of a pistol. There the man disclosed his identity and was released.

Grand Jury Begins Work.

The Jurors are Instructed by the Judge.

SITUATION IS APPALLING

The Court Was Careful, Cautious and Comprehensive in the Charge.

The grand jury was called to order Tuesday afternoon in the Circuit court room. There were only eighteen men on the jury, the following having been excused: Wilson Anson, S. E. Bolton, John H. Richardson, Dexter Jaggart and John W. Donahue. Sixteen members constitute a quorum; twelve votes are necessary to find an indictment. The following make up the jury:

George Arend, Baroda
Leroy S. Bronson, Bertrand
Lorenzo Camfield, Benton Harbor
John R. Colvin, Benton Harbor
R. P. Chadlock, Benton Harbor
Phillip Giesler, Derby
George Kissinger, St. Joseph
Henry Kruger, New Buffalo
J. W. Lason, Benton Harbor
C. D. Nichols, Berrien Springs
P. E. O'Brien, Berrien Centre
Allen M. Randall, Bainbridge
John Ray, Buchanan
Lee Ross, Berrien Springs
Darwin E. Sutherland, Benton Harbor

T. P. Turner, Lakeside
Robert Walton, Niles
Reuben B. Wheaton, Galien.

Following is Judge Coolidge's complete charge to the grand jury sent us by one of the jury:

Gentlemen of the Grand Jury: The laws of this state authorize the circuit judge, whenever he may deem it advisable, to call together a grand jury.

This body of men, in the eye of the law, is selected to discharge an important public function, on account of their high moral character, their intelligence and regard for the maintenance of law. Under that system of judicial administration, which prevails in this state, it is summoned only upon an apparent emergency, calling for an investigation into causes and conditions of lawlessness and crime, which have become serious and which the ordinary tribunals of justice have failed to detect or punish. That emergency, in my opinion, has arrived.

There has existed lately and now exists in some of our cities, a condition of shameful violation of those laws which seek to restrain vice and protect virtue; to remove temptation from the young and to prevent the saloon from being converted into a brothel, where brawls, sordid intoxication, gambling, indecent commingling of the sexes, and sales of liquor to minors are carried on.

A tendency to attach annexes of crime to the saloon has developed. Minors are enticed into these resorts, and placed on the highway to physical, mental and moral degeneracy. Gambling, an insidious vice more pernicious and destructive to the public, than the liquor habit, has flourished in its most insidious and alluring form. Embezzlement, official disgrace and tragic ruin of both life and character have resulted. Places for the congregation of lewd and lascivious persons have become notorious, and have been allowed to flourish and flaunt their immunity from punishment in the eye of the public, to the humiliation of every decent law-abiding citizen.

It would be idle and hypocritical to attempt to hide the fact of these existing conditions of lawlessness. They have existed, they do exist, and there is no decent excuse for the existence.

The logical and inevitable outcome of such an encouragement of lawlessness might have been easily foretold by any sagacious observer of human nature. They that sow to the wind shall reap the whirlwind."

The moloch of lawlessness encouraged by official or public indifference has had its victims and the life of an innocent Christian boy has been sacrificed in blood upon its altar. Three cases of homicide within the short space of seventy days have been tried within these walls, and two of them, if not all of them, were the direct result of open and continued violation of the law and neglect to stop it till too late to prevent a terrible tragedy.

You are summoned to investigate the causes of this condition and if probable guilt of maintaining places where the law is thus violated be established, to return to this court an indictment against their proprietors and against all who aided or abetted in the same.

I deem it appropriate, considering the character of the body whom I am now addressing and the objects for which they are assembled to say a few words of a general nature.

It will be observed by some that the police officers are the persons chargeable with negligence in not enforcing the laws which I have had in consideration. This is partially but not wholly so.

A more dangerous and plausible cause of lawlessness however exists than the apparent indifference of the officers. In all of our growing cities an attempt is seriously made by many to shield the institutions of crime on the grounds that they are the natural attendants of the municipal growth and that any attempt to suppress them would interfere with material prosperity. It is amazing to hear an intelligent man advocate a proposition so stupid and degrading. The theory that our rural cities should adopt the morals of a few criminal wards of Chicago or New York is pretentious and absurd. No policy can be more suicidal than the healthy and permanent growth of our rural cities than this. Their prosperity depends upon the character of the inhabitants and on the number of skilled and regularly employed laborers. This class of persons does not frequent the abodes of crime. The town which has the large body of thrifty industrious, law-abiding citizens, is the more prosperous one. Spendthrifts lessen the amount of legitimate trade and hasten conditions of poverty. A city which is rearing a progeny of physical, mental and moral degenerates, will suffer sooner or later in every element of prosperity. It is possible that a few individuals in a community may reap profits from the wages of sin but the community itself actually loses, as the moral scale lowers. A prosperity based upon the "open door" of lawlessness is a snare and a delusion. The man of business who advocates it is a moral assassin. For his own paltry and selfish emolument, he plunges a dagger into the very heart of the body politic.

It will not be claimed by me that the evil habits or inclinations of man can be cured or eradicated by law. This must be done through other agencies. But great evils may be largely lessened or arrested by being driven out of the open field. The notorious violation of the law tends to bring the law itself into disrespect; to increase the temptations; to remove all restraint and to open the sluice gates of evil passion.

It must be seen from what I have said that my desire is that your investigation shall be especially directed to those saloons which have annexes of crime; to all gambling establishments; to houses of ill fame; to those saloons in the habit of selling liquors to minors, intoxicated persons and which are kept by reckless, drunken or irresponsible persons who create and maintain a condition of lawlessness. At the same time, if in your opinion, there has been a serious offense not alluded to by me, which has been neglected by the officials, it will be your right and duty to indict. My attention has been called to one case of this kind but I do not regard it proper for me to single out any specific case or any persons. I leave such matters to your good judgement.

You may be called upon to investigate charges of neglect or wilful misconduct on the part of police officers whether you do so or not. I purpose at the close of your present labor to adjourn your meeting to some future day. If in the meantime, the police officers in my opinion have grossly neglected to enforce the laws which I have mentioned, I will, upon your reconvening, instruct you to investigate thoroughly such cases with a view of indicting all police officers who have so offended for malfeasance and misfeasance of office.

The laws impose upon these officers certain duties in the suppression of crime, and for gross negligence in so doing, they are liable criminally. It remains to be seen whether police officers can wink at conditions of lawlessness with impunity.

Upon retiring to your jury room you will elect by ballot, a foreman and give notice of the fact to the court. You may select a clerk of your number, to preserve minutes of your proceedings and of evidence given. You have a right to the services and attendance of the prosecuting attorney except when you are voting on any matter or expressing your opinions thereon. The foreman has the right to administer oath. An indictment can be found by the affirmative vote of at least 12 jurors. You can not be called upon to reveal anything which takes place in the jury room.

ORVILLE W. COOLIDGE.

LATEST FASHION NOTES

DINNER GOWN OF BLUE VOILE

Every woman admires pretty dinner gowns, and every woman should make it a point to look as charming as possible on such occasions as call for a gathering around the festive board. Our illustration shows a dinner gown fashioned of pastel-blue voile. The blouse waist is gathered to a deep yoke, embroidered with Corticelli filo silk in a spreading flower design, and the odd garniture that frames the yoke and extends down the front consists of black velvet diamonds edged with narrow silver braid. The vest is made of narrow folds of voile and the tucked sleeves spring out into puffs ending in ruffles.

The skirt is adorned with clusters of horizontal tucks and completed with a Vandyck-pointed flounce handsomely embroidered with Corticelli filo silk to match the yoke, falling over a gathered under-flounce of pastel-blue chiffon. The belt is of black velvet fastening with a silver buckle in front.

Entire lace blouses are still fashionable, though some models show a lustrous cloth or silk combined, this being noticeable when the blouse is to be worn with a skirt made of the same material as that used with the lace. Long basques or skirts of the lace, having the edges finished with the cloth or silk, are an innovation on some of these models.
