COLORED EVANGELIST.

An Unique Product Preaching Revival Sermons at Niles.

Niles, Mich.—Rev. J. A. Aikens, colored evangelist, alias "pulpit magnet," alias again "anthracite diamond," is here with the glad tidings. He came all the way from the West Indies to bring salvation to the colored people of Niles.

Rev Aikens is a remarkable man in more ways than one. He is distinguished for an inky blackness, his epidermis rivalling in dusky gloom a slab of dead finished ebony.

Another of his characteristics is the bewildering fervor of his oratory.
In the more impassioned moments he flings grammar to the dogs, violates every rule of pronunciation and soars into the empyreal of stormy garrulity. At such times he literally takes the kinks out of the most hardened sinner.

The revered gentleman's career has been crammed with thrilling experiences. He says so himself, and if he doesn't know, who does?

While in Birmingham, Ala., last September, he and Booker T Washington attended the colored Baptists' national convention. Some miscreant who had abandoned the Lord's vinyard, preferring to hobnob with satan, called "fire" at one of the crowded sessions. That was enough. In a second several thousand "coons" were struggling to get out. During the melee 119 (these are the preacher's own figures) were killed.

"The Lord whispered in my ear just fifteen years ago a message like this," says Mr. Aikens: "Jonathan Aikens, hear this, you go out and convert the world." Next day I went, and have been rustling for the Master ever since."

"How many conversions have I made? From 75 to 200 per week.
This preacher is getting tired, and if the Lord will only pump a little generosity into the hearts of the colored people here I'd like to stay permanently. Can't live on hot air, though, and that seems to have been the favorite diet of colored preachers in these parts. If the colored folks of this town want conversion they'll have to pay for the job."

Mr. Aikens' unique harangues at the church have become a feature of the town. Crowds attend his meetings—whites as well as blacks—and all derive much entertainment from the minister's peculiar brand of eloquence.

FORM ASSOCIATION.

The Rural Route Carriers of the County Meet and Organize.

The Carriers' association of Berrien county met Wednesday evening, the 24th, in the post-office, St. Joseph, and completed their county organization. This is their second meeting, the first having been held at Niles, and nearly all the carriers were in attendance.

There are 23 carriers in Berrien county and 18 have already become members of the organization. This organization is a part of the State society and the State has a membership in the National association. The national meeting will be held in Chicago sometime in September.

H. C. Knight, carrier Route 1 of this city, was elected president; G. Z.
Allen of Niles, secretary; Mr. Gibson of Three Oaks, treasurer.

The meeting was very interesting and will, no doubt, prove of great importance to the boys who take an interest in it.—St. Joseph Press.

A Delightful Time.

About fifty members and friends of the Young People's Alliance met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Waterman Friday evening to hold their monthly business meeting.

After the transaction of business they listened to a very interesting musical program after which Mr. and Mrs. Waterman served ice cream and cake and fruit. The rest of the time was spent in good social chats and at a late hour the young people returned to their homes.

DEATH OF WELL KNOWN RESIDENT.

Aged Citizen Passed Away Saturday.

George Royal Treat was born in Monroe Co. New York, Nov. 27, 1823, died June 27, 1903, aged 79 years, 7 months.

In 1844 he moved to Modina Co.
Ohio, where he worked at his trade as wagon maker. In 1850 he moved to Buchanan where he has since resided. His first twenty years here were spent in railroading, two years as section boss and eighteen years as freight agent, resigning this position on account of poor health. The balance of his active life was occupied in grocery business and farming.

He was married three times. The first time Jan. 1, 1845 - to Marietta Merrill who died May 6, 1849, and on April 10, 1853 to Theodolinda Cooper who died Aug. 28, 1855, and on June 17, 1858 to Mary E. Baker who died Sept. 7, 1902. Hermon L. Treat and Marietta Redden are children of the first marriage, Chas. B. Treat of the second, and Frank A., Willis W., Alta and Del Treat, Effie Hathaway and Lucy Wynn of the third, all of whom are living, except Hermon L. Treat who died June 11, 1863. He had two sisters and three brothers. All have died except Wm. Treat who now resides in Brooklyn, Ohio.

Religiously he was a believer in Christ, not only as his Saviour, but the Savior of all men. For many years he has been associated with the Larger Hope church of Buchanan, and for several years was one of its trustees. He was not a great talker but he was a good thinker, and his life was exemplary.

The funeral was held at the house Sunday at three-thirty p. m., June 28th, Elder J. E. Paton conducting it, assisted by Elder Chas. Shook, Richards and Emerson undertakers.

Pleasant Evening.

The Woodmen and Royal Neighbors planned a very pleasant social gathering Saturday night which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O.
P. Woodworth as complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Zed Jarvis, of Dow-agiac. There were about thirty people present, who indulged in various games, enjoyed some music, and partook of ice cream and cake.

Beside Mr. and Mrs. Zed Jarvis, there were present Mrs. Metzger of Granger, Indiana, and her daughter, Mrs. Judy of Oakland, California, who were here visiting Mr. and Mrs.
F. W. Dickinson.

All had a royal neighborly time, and the affair was one which will always be recalled with pleasure.

From Our Exchanges.

A representative of the state fisheries at Grand Rapids has been in the county and just finished planting 30-000 large-mouth black bass. Among the most prominent streams and waters stocked with fish were Paw Paw river and little Paw Paw lake.—Palladium.

It may be of interest to Michigan people to know that the decks of the cup defender Reliance are constructed of Michigan pine. It took two carloads of the finest grade which were furnished by a Bay City firm. The lumber was picked with the greatest care and every inch of it was subject to the closest scrutiny before it was shipped.—St. Joseph Press.

The divorce case of Geo. W. Vincent complainant, versus Ruth Vincent, was heard this morning by Judge Coolidge at his office in this city. The parties reside at Buchanan, the complainant being represented by Attorney Batchelor. The complaint is based on a charge of cruelty.—Niles Sun.

Michigan Central R. R. Co. will sell excursion tickets on July 3 and 4 limited to return July 6th at one fare for the round trip, except stations on main line between New Buffalo and Detroit which will be one and one half cents per mile each way,

ESTABLISH AN ASYLUM

Flying Rollers Have Established One at Benton Harbor for Children.

The peculiarities of the church of Israel as they gather at Benton Harbor oftentimes startles Benton Harbor people. This sect still insists that Benton Harbor will be the meeting point where Christ will, during the next three years, greet his 144,000 chosen ones.

The latest startling announcement made by this sect was that no children were allowed to remain in any home of the people but an asylum has been established on Colfax avenue where today twenty little ones ranging from one year to sixteen years of age, are housed.

The parents are allowed to visit their children but the order from Benjamin, who is at the head, is that the little ones must be kept in this asylum. The order is also issued that as far as possible no more children will be brought into the world but that the mothers and fathers will hereafter use their best energies in providing food and clothing for the masses who are gathering here from all parts of the globe.

Judge Coolidge

Will be Candidate for Supreme Bench.

As Judge Coolidge's term as circuit judge will expire Jan. 1, 1905 and the term of the new supreme justices will begin the same time, he has consented to allow his name to be used as a candidate for the Supreme Bench.

As soon as the new statute became a law increasing the number of members of the supreme court, friends of the Berrien judge at once began to bestir themselves in his behalf, acting under the well established principle that it is the early bird as a rule that gets the worm, in the game of politics.

Yielding to the wishes of his friends, the judge finally consents and in a letter to a friend yesterday he said:

"There may be a chance for a Berrien county candidate and I have decided to allow my name to be considered if my friends think it best."

Judge Coolidge is a learned gentleman, with a host of friends who will fight for his nomination.

Hillsdale College Celebrates.

The celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the laying of the corner stone of Hillsdale College recalls the Political Campaign of 1857. The friends of the college sought the power to confer degrees, which had been to that time reserved to institutions supported by the state, and promoted the nomination and election of the President, Edmund B. Fairfield, as Lieutenant Governor.

Will Carleton, the poet, who graduated at Hillsdale in 1869, will read a poem, written for the celebration, Rev. Dr. L. A. Crandall, of Chicago, of the class of 1873, will deliver an address, Dr. James B. Angell, the president of the University of Michigan, will be present with congratulatory greetings, and representatives of other institutions and public officials have indicated their intention to come.

In case of rain, the exercises will take place at the College Church at 11:00 a. m.

On Wednesday July first, there will occur a double wedding, at the Sabin Farm, which Burton Weaver has rented and has ready for occupancy. The weddings will occur at 9 o'clock p. m. in the presence of a number of invited guests.

Badly Shaken.

Tuesday afternoon Mr. Thomas Mars of Berrien Center met with a serious mishap. He tried to capture a swarm of bees that had alighted in an apple tree and he fell from the tree and sustained severe bruises and a general shaking up, that he can hardly afford as he is no longer young and has been seriously ill this spring. Probably his strong constitution will prove too much for his injuries but he will have to ache a little as the price of his fall.

It is truly a remarkable migration of races that is described in Mr. Moffett's article on "This Year's High-Tide of Immigration." The Immigration Bureau's figures are analyzed by Mr. Moffett and made to disclose their real meaning. The photographs of racial types accompanying the article were taken in June especially for the Review of Reviews, and illustrate the very latest arrivals at the port of New York from southeastern Europe.

CLEAR LAKE FARM

Most Delightful Summer Resort. Has Flourishing Business—Many Improvements Made This Season.

THE Clear Lake Farm, situated about 4 miles from Buchanan is opening its third season as a resort with bright prospects. A number of guests have already arrived and many more have their rooms engaged for later in the season. Those who have once spent a week at Clear Lake Farm are the ones who wish to spend each summer there, finding its rest and recreation the means of health and renewed strength.

THE house was built for a private residence and has large and airy rooms, being provided among other conveniences, with bath room and large cistern, affording an unlimited supply of soft water, the mere mention of which will suffice for residents of a smoky city and users of hard water. The long, wide veranda in front, from which one views Clear Lake in all its beauty, is a favorite lounging place, fitted up with rockers, porch swings, hammocks, pillows, benches, etc., for everybody.

In addition, we have convenient cottages, on the high wooded bank of the lake fitted up for lodgings or for housekeeping, and this has been done with an eye single to the comfort and well-being of our guests.

Letter From St. Louis Missouri.

Though the daily papers have contained so many accounts of the terrible floods in the west, the horror of the situation seems more real as we read a personal letter from one on the ground. The following is taken from a letter from a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anstiss:

"We are having terrible times here, the floods are so bad there are no trains running either out of St. Louis or into St. Louis. Both bridges across the Miss. River are condemned and no trains, not even an engine, can go across, and that cuts St. Louis off from every thing on that side and the floods are all around St. Louis so we are penned in here and refugees are being brought to St. Louis by boat. There are hundreds and thousands of people in St. Louis without any homes or any place to stay only where the city fixes a place for them. Some of them are in an old empty glass factory and others are in other vacant buildings any where they can get.

There are three little towns on the east side of the river, all close together, Granite City, Madison and Venice, and they are all under water; the dike or levee gave way that kept the waters back from these towns and the waters just swept over the towns and within an hour the water was up to the roofs of houses and lots of people were drowned and others ran for their lives with just what they had on, some half clothed. The levee broke Sunday morning early and people got on the highest ground they could find and on the tops of their houses and in tree tops and there were over 500 people and children huddled together on the top floor of the Madison school house, and they did not have anything to eat, the trains could not get over there to rescue them.

Rose Merrett, George's cousin, has a train which always run through those towns over what we call the Merchant's bridge, nothing but trains go across that bridge and the approach on the other side of that bridge gave way, the embankment washed away and just left the ties and rails and the train did not dare go any further than that place and the approach to the bridge on this side was sinking and going out too, but Rose Merrett made up a rescue train, an engine, flat car and one box car, (they did not dare take more), and he would just creep his train across to the other side as far as he dared take the train and the people on the other side would bring women and children in row boats to the bridge, and make them walk that trestle to the train, and he and his train crew saved hundreds of people that way.

Mr. Merrett is a cousin of the Easts that live in Buchanan, the East girl that goes with Elsie, her father is Mr Merrett's own cousin. They had to quit running the rescue train yesterday (Monday) afternoon.

The people that had little row boats (there were no other boats there then and just a few of them) charged the people all the way from 3 to 5 dollars to take them from the roofs and trees to dry land or the bridge and if they did not have money they would go and leave them and not help them at all. One man had his wife and children on a roof and the water was almost up to them and he had his gun that he had saved and had been shooting for help and every boat that would pass he would call them but they would pass right on, and so after three or four boats passed he leveled his gun at a man in a boat and told him if he did not come and get them he would shoot him and he made the take them off and to the bridge and he kept the gun pointed at the man's head all the time till they got to the bridge, but now they make the people take them for nothing."

BIG GRAPE JUICE MILL

Kalamazoo, June 23.—The Lawton Vineyard and the Lawton Grape Juice company met here last night and consolidated, the capital of the new company being $1,009,000. James A. ## LATEST FASHION NOTES.

PROMENADE GOWN IN RUSSIAN BLOUSE EFFECT.

Hopsack is one of the most fashionable of dress goods, and a beautiful promenade costume is made of this material in a champagne color. The Russian blouse effect is well portrayed.

The mutton-leg sleeves are inset with a handsome applique work of broad cloth, as is also the skirt. Cord ornaments also help to add style and finish, and appear on both skirt and jacket. All of the stitching is done with Corticelli stitching silk, which lends itself so well to this class of work. Notice the several rows at the bottom of the skirt, and the fancy stitching on sleeves and blouse.

Marion Harland.

A very interesting feature of the Sunday edition of The Chicago Record Herald, and one looked for by every woman reader of that paper, is the page devoted to Marion Harland. Under the heading "The Housewives' Exchange" queries and answers appear on subjects which conscientious housewives enjoy discussing. Wholesome advice is given about the care of children and how to make home beautiful and attractive.

On the same page are also to be found some of Marion Harland's famous recipes. She is considered an authority on this subject, many people making it a practice to preserve her recipes whenever they are published.

A word about Marion Harland herself. Thousands of people who have read her articles are desirous of knowing more about her. Her real name is Mary Virginia Terhune. She was born in Amalia County, Virginia, Dec. 21, 1831; received a good education; began to write for the press at 14, and in 1856 married Rev. Edward Payson Terhune. Besides writing for the press, she is the author of a large number of books. She has a summer home called Sunnybank at Pompton, N. J., but at present is living in New York City.

Niles Sees a Chance to Land a big Concern.

The members of the firm of Vaughan & Bushness, drop forge work manufacturers of Chicago, were here yesterday looking over the situation with a view of moving their works here. This firm employs 125 men and pays good, big wages. On account of labor troubles, high rentals, etc., they are desirous of getting out of Chicago. They require a site five acres square and would erect buildings that would cost $30,000.

The visitors were shown about the city by Messrs George E. Flower, C. E. Smith and other members of the Business Men's Association, and upon leaving assured the latter gentlemen that they will in a few days send on a definite statement of the conditions under which they would come to Niles.—Star.

$25 To Colorado And Back.

It has been estimated that between 8,000,000 and 10,000,000 persons in the United States take a vacation every summer. They spend between $400,000,000 and $500,000,000 yearly in pursuit of pleasure. This is a great deal of money to spend during a vacation, but this season the expenditure per capita may be somewhat less on account of the low railroad rates offered by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway.

From July 1 to 10 this line will sell tickets to Colorado and return from Chicago for $25. This will enable many to enjoy their summer's outing at slight expense. Colorado summer resorts are cooler than the seashore.

For scenic beauty the Rocky Mountain region is famous the world round. The most attractive spots among these peaks are beautifully pictured and faithfully described in a new book just published by the passenger department of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway. It will be sent on receipt of six cents to pay postage.

Through train service, Chicago to Denver, every day via the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and the Union Pacific.
