ANOTHER INDUSTRY FOR BUCHANAN.

Added to our Already Thriving Institutions—More Money
Needed—If we Would Secure Other Valuable Institutions Offered to us.

The people of Buchanan ought to give a vote of thanks to a very few men who have, under heavy difficulties and serious obstacles, succeeded in pushing the work of securing additional industries for the village until at last they are coming.

Yesterday a contract was signed with the B. Duster Co. Manufacturers of high grade turkey and ostrich feather dusters. The proprietors, Messrs. Breen and Baruhurst, are both young men and have made a good impression on our citizens, who are thoroughly convinced that they will do a legitimate and thriving business. They are both married men and will move their families to Buchanan.

One of the obstacles in the way of securing factories is the lack of means; a few men have been burdened to secure what we have and if others are to follow more people will have to be willing to give, to help on what is already secured and what is in view.

The Duster Co. will go to work as soon as the move can be made. Possibly in less than two weeks we will see the work in operation and when in full force they will give employment to quite a number of women and girls. They have an advertisement in today's Record for help. All who desire employment will leave their names at the Record office and they will be considered in order. First name on the list will be given the first opportunity and so on down the list until all positions are filled.

IN MEMORIAM

ELIZABETH ANN SWINK
Was born in Tunkhannock, Wyoming Co. Penn., June 3, 1843 and died at the home of her brother Geo.
R. Swink July 2 1903, aged 60 years and 29 days.

She came with her parents to Berrien Co., Mich. when three years of age. She joined the Baptist church at Niles about thirty-eight years ago;
in after years there being no Baptist church that she could attend she united with the United Brethren at Buchanan seven years ago.

She is survived by three sisters and one brother, Mrs. Wm. Hathaway, Mrs. Eunice Rhodes, George R. Swink,
of this place, and Mrs. Caroline Listenberger of Bremen, Ind.

GEO. D. IRWIN

Was born at Champlain, Clinton
Co., N. Y., June 15, 1833 and died at Buchanan, Mich., July 3, 1903, aged 70 years and 18 days.

He was married June 15, 1856 to Janette Read at Niles, Mich. To them were born eight children, three sons and five daughters, four of whom one son and three daughters survive.
They are Guy, Elizabeth and Edith Irwin and Mrs. Margaret Rice.

He was converted and united with the United Brethren church at Berrien Springs in the year 1857 changing his membership to the Advent Christian church of Buchanan in 1888.

Brother Irwin has been a resident of this city since March, 1888, and has been known as a respected citizen, a kind husband and father and exemplary christian. He has served as trustee of the Advent Christian church of this place for a number of years and his plain matter of fact, common sense will be missed in its councils.

Golden Wedding.

Robert Bugoyne was born in Deyonshire England Aug. 8, 1822. Martha Short was born March 23, 1837, England, Leistershire. They were married in Chicago, June 30, 1853,
where they lived a short time; later came to Buchanan twp. and engaged in ship building. Here they reared their family of nine boys and one daughter, Mrs. Will Parmater.

The golden wedding of that event was celebrated at the home of George Burgoyne near Bridgman June 30,
inst. not all the children were there;
sickness and distance presented but tokens of paternal love were not overlooked; a five dollar gold piece from each showed their appreciation beside other remembrances.

A large canvas tent occupied the lawn in front, the tables were there spread and yet room for the guests to sit; the older ones told reminiscences of the past and the young athletes tested their nerve and activity. The united age of the children is 384; the oldest 48, the youngest 26. A marked feature in Mr. Burgoyne's life work is rearing so large a family in harmony and thrift.

Climate and Crop Report.

The United States Department of Agriculture, climate and crop bulletin of the weather bureau, Michigan section, publish the following for the week ending June 29, 1903.

The mean daily temperature for the week ended June 29 was 59.7 degrees or 8.3 degrees below the normal; the average total precipitation was 1.17 inches, or 0.42 of an inch above the normal; the sunshine averaged 58 per cent of the possible amount.

Although the early part of the week
was quite cool, the ample showers followed by the warm weather of the past few days has caused a marked improvement in all crops. The rain has been especially beneficial to wheat,
rye, oats, barley, peas and meadows,
which are in a much better condition than they were a week ago. In the southeastern counties of the Lower Peninsula the rains were heavy enough to flood low lands and rot late potatoes, beans and late corn, but such damage is generally light and not very extensive. The warm weather of the past few days has greatly improved the color and size of corn and been generally beneficial to all crops.

Wheat is filling nicely and beginning to mature—harvest will begin in the extreme southern counties some time this week. Rye is generally quite promising. The condition of oats is rather uneven, but generally the straw is short, although the head is a fair size and filling well. Corn is small and backward, but shows great improvement in color; it is not well cultivated at present. Sugar beets, peas and early potatoes are doing well. Beans have been germinat-ing slowly. Buckwheat seeding is well advanced in the central and part of the southern counties.

Haying is quite generally begun in all portions of the Lower Peninsula;
the yield from the old meadows is poor; new meadows are yielding fairly well, but not as much as last year;
the cut so far has been generally well secured.

Berrien: Corn backward; oats
wheat, rye and clover doing well; late apples promising; early potatoes fine, meadows improved.

Saved From Terrible Death.

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Bargerton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles.

The Value of Language Study.

An indispensable part of a truly liberal education consists of training in the science and art of interpretation. Language is the distinctively human means of communication. A knowledge of language which is essentially different from that possessed by the fluent speaker of several languages is absolutely essential to the precise and satisfactory interpretation of any language. Language is the form in which the highest expressions of human thought and feeling come to the individual man and to the succeeding generations of men. Language is, therefore, the essential form of what we call literature, in the widest meaning of that word. The interpretation of language is the use of the key that unlocks all the treasures of literature. Therefore language must be studied as a training in the science and art of interpretation, or else the accurate and comprehensive knowledge of the best thoughts, feelings, and activities of humanity is shut out of the mind.

To acquire the science and art of interpretation, the prolonged and careful study of some one language is absolutely indispensable. Such a study of one language is not only indispensable, but it is sufficient for the average college student. For this purpose it is even far better to concentrate upon one language than to divide the time among three or four languages.—By Prof. G. Trumbull Ladd in the July—September Forum.

LAWYERS MEET AT NILES

To Determine What is Conceded by Both Sides in the Case of Buchanan Against Chapin.

Attorney A. C. Roe, representing the village, and Attorney M. L. Howell, who is counsel for Mr. Chapin, met at Niles Friday of last week to determine upon such features of the water power controversy as they could agree upon, such admissions to be presented to the court instead of testimony.

A number of points were considered but there is still no decision upon them, although some of our neighbors have said there was

The Niles star says: From a remark dropped by Attorney Howell, the Chapin forces will claim that at the time Holmes and English, the builders of the dam, entered into a contract with the village, whereby the power was never to be transmitted elsewhere, the dam was owned by the Buchanan Power and Electric company, and that the contract is therefore void; that Holmes and English, not being the owners of the dam, could not bind any subsequent owner.

Arm Broken

E. J. Rickerson, the young laundryman, met with quite a serious accident today. In attempting to throw off a belt from the washer, by some means, his arm was caught between the belt and pulley and one bone of the arm, between the wrist and elbow, broken and the doctor says the other twisted. The accident is painful but no serious result is expected to follow.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING

Miss Edna Mae Morgan is United in Matrimony to Dr. Vaspashion Cottingham.

This afternoon at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Alma Morgan, occurred the marriage of her daughter, Edna Mae, to Dr. Vaspashion Cottingham, of Mc Pherson, Kansas.

The bride was dressed in a dainty creation of thin white, and carried white roses. The bride's maid was Miss Bernice Mead, a cousin of the bride; she carried carnations. The best man was Mr. Warren Cottingham, a brother of the groom.

The house was tastily decorated with smilax and sweet peas, presenting a very pleasing appearance, Miss Florence Mead, also a cousin of the bride, played the wedding march, to the strains of which the happy pair entered the fragrant parlors.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. D. Cole, the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church. A delicious wedding supper was served after the ceremony, and was presided over by four young ladies, members of the Original club, of which the bride is a prominent member. The couple will leave tonight for Mc Pherson, Kansas where a reception will be tendered them upon their arrival. Dr. Cottingham is a graduate of the College of Osteopathy at Kirckville, Missouri, but has been a successful practitioner in Mc Pherson since his graduation.

Miss Morgan is one of Buchanan's fair daughters, a graduate of our high school and a prominent young lady in the social life of the village. A large number of beautiful gifts were received, which the bride will carry to her new home with a host of best wishes for her future happiness.

MOB MET WITH LEAD

Evansville Outlawry Receives a Check at the Muzzles of the State Rifles.

SEVEN OF THE RIOTERS ARE DEAD

While Four of the National Guard Are Hurt Defending Law and Order.

Precautions Against an Outbreak Prove Futile—Object of the Mob's Violence Dying at Vincennes.

Evansville, Ind., July 7.—Following four days of rioting and general lawlessness this city has at last seen the most terrible of its experiences with rioters. Seven persons are dead and fourteen are known to be injured, with at least that number more thought to be hurt.

Others Rioters Seen to Fall. Six other rioters were seen to fall, but got away before their names were learned. At least that number more are suspected of being hurt.

MOB WAS VERY PERSISTENT Kept Up the Pressure Until a Shot Was Fired—Then Havooc. At 10:30 p. m. the members of company A, First regiment, Indiana National Guard, after a day's vigilance guarding the county jail and 100 deputy sheriffs under Sheriff Chris. Kratz, fired point blank into a mob of 1,000 men gathered on Fourth, Division and Vine streets, surrounding the Vanderburg county jail, and attempting its capture.

At 9 p. m. the mob gradually became more and more excited, its manifestations of uneasiness more frequent, and at 10 p. m. it was seen that nothing could prevent an assault on the jail.

At 10:30 p. m. the rioters pressed slowly forward, and innocent on-lookers and the curious followed. Slowly they forced the militiamen back toward the jail until the alley way between Division street and the stone building was reached.

At 9 p. m. the mob gradually became more and more excited, its manifestations of uneasiness more frequent, and at 10 p. m. it was seen that nothing could prevent an assault on the jail.

JUST STOPPED TO LOOK ON

Was Why Mr. and Mrs. Allman Are Bereaved of a Daughter. There were many sad scenes, but the saddest was on Division street, where lying between her grief-stricken father and mother the little Allman girl was dead, with her breast torn away with a buckshot charge, because some deputy sheriff fired high when he should have fired low.

orders: "Keep that mob back. Call on them to halt. If they don't halt shoot them down. We can't take any more chances. Men be careful, but for God's sake, keep a close watch!" shouted the captain and his men prepared for another struggle.

It did not come. The rioters got out of sight quickly, and fearing that another charge would be made scattered, they stood in knots around the corners in the vicinity. They could be heard at the jail arguing with themselves, "Let's go get the murderers," called one. "Down with them!" "Kill them!" and a score of cries were heard.

Within a half hour things had become so quiet that care could be taken of the dead and injured. The wounded soldiers were taken into the jail and found to be four in number. The others were picked up and taken to hospitals and their homes in ambulances and carriages.

Inside the jail forty-five prisoners lay terrified in the darkness, sixteen of them negroes whose lives would soon go out if a mob should capture the jail. Meantime more troops are coming to the city and the sheriff's deputies are preparing and a mob will get a warm reception.

MAYOR TRIES TO QUELL RIOT

Negro Families Take to the Open in Terror—Saloons Closed.

Evansville, Ind., July 7.—Following the race riots of Sunday night and yesterday morning the situation here is still menacing, and outbreaks are liable to occur at any minute. The day was one of nervous dread. Early in the afternoon the Evansville company of militia quietly assembled around the jail and wanted there under arms.

In the shooting of Sunday night, it is reported to officers, Henry Arms, a young white man, was shot in the thigh. He will recover. The grand jury met and indicted Lee Brown, the negro who killed Patrolman Massey, of murder in the first degree.

Baptisttown is being depopulated. Negro families by the dozens are leaving, some of them taking refuge in the open country. Newburg road leading to the east is lined with negroes in wagons and camped by the roadside. Nearly all are armed. The firearms and ammunition taken from the stores handed into Sunday are still in the hands of those who composed the mob.

Negro Brown is Doomed. Wounds He Received from the Evansville Officers Are Proving Fatal. Vincennes, Ind., July 7.—Rumors that an Evansville mob might come here to lynch Lee Brown, the negro who killed Patrolman Massey, have caused great excitement, though the cooler heads say there is no possibility of this.

Brown is pronounced to be dying by Drs. Breck, Nesham, McDowell and Smadel. The prisoner is so weak from loss of blood from the bullet wound in his left lung that he cannot stand, and death will come within a few hours say the doctors.

Some More Civilization.

Mount Vernon, Ind., July 7.—An excursion on the steamer D. A. Nisbet broke up in a big fight, and six persons were shot. Kinney Givens, of this city, and Frank Kirk were shot in the legs and arms. Givens shot and fatally wounded a man named Brown, from Henderson, Ky. One man from Henderson named White, was shot in the breast and fell into the river. His body has not been recovered.

Decatur, Ind., July 7.—Fuel was added to the flames of public indignation here when it became known that Will Foreman, leader of the mob in the race riot here Friday night, was fined $1 for assault and battery on the negro. No other arrests were made.

PONTIFF SEES THE SUN

Once More E'er the An'el of Death
Writes: Finis for Leo XIII.

WILL LIVE THROUGHOUT THE DAY

Says the Doctor, but Life Is a Very Slender Thread.

Waking from an Induced Sleep the Pope Asks to See the Sun
Once More.

Rome, July 7, 7:42 a. m.—The pope took nourishment four times during the night. His pulse shows a slight improvement. At half-past 6 this morning he left his bed for an arm chair.

Rome, July 7, 8:55 a. m.—Another morning has broken on the pathetic scene within the simple chamber of the Vatican where Pope Leo lies dying. As the light of dawn penetrated into the room the pontiff whispered to his devoted physician that he desired the shutters of the windows to be opened, saying: "I wish to see once more, perhaps for the last time, the rays of the sun."

His Sleep Was Deathlike.

It is just a short while that the pope came back to consciousness from a sleep which Dr. Lapponi had induced by a strong dose of chloral. His sleep was so deathlike that artificial respiration tion was continued, and Dr. Lapponi every few minutes leaned anxiously over the couch to observe the illustrious patient and listen to his hardly perceptible breathing.

DR. G. MAZZONI.

Will Probably Live Today.

Pope Leo awoke wet with perspiration, feeble to the extreme and his voice hardly audible. The fits of coughing had brought pains in his chest and shoulders, and thinking his end was now near he said to Dr. Lapponi: "Tell me when the time really comes." The doctor assured him holiness that he believed the danger of his immediate passing was averted for the night and for today.

TOLD BY THE BULLETINS

Progress of the Pontiff to That Bourne Whence No Traveler E'er Returns.

Rome, July 6, 10:30 p. m.—The change for the worse in Pope Leo's condition is augmenting rapidly. At 9 o'clock his holiness was unmistakably sinking, so that Dr. Lapponi, alarmed, consulted with the pope's relatives, Cardinal Rampolla and other ecclesiastics, who decided that extreme unction should be given and it was administered by Mgr. Piffert, Pope Leo's confessor.

London, July 7.—An agency dispatch from Rome, dated 1:25 this morning, says that for the last three hours the pope has remained motionless. He has refused all nourishment and is sinking rapidly. The body is assuming the stiffness of death. All present in the chamber are praying.

Rome, July 7, 1:30 a. m.—Dr. Lapponi has just expressed the opinion that the pope will live until the morning. His holiness is still conscious.

Rome, July 7, 1:45 a. m.—Repeated doses of chloral have enabled the pontiff to sleep, but contrary to previous nights artificial respiration is continued, and Dr. Lapponi goes every five minutes to the bedside to observe the patient and listen to his breathing.

Rome, July 7, 3:35 a. m.—The pope awoke from his sleep which was induced by doses of chloral very feeble and in pain, but with his mind quite clear.

INTERVIEW WITH DR. LAPPONI

Explains the Situation, and Shows the Pope's Indefatigable Energy.

Rome, July 7.—The correspondent of the Associated Press interviewed Dr. Lapponi during his brief absence from the Vatican. It was easy to read in the pale face the signs of anxious days and nights spent watching his august patient, while his words proved unmistakably how deep an affection he bears for Pope Leo. "Unfortunately," said Dr. Lapponi, "I cannot give you any really consoling news. I cannot share the optimism which is spreading today, which is not owing to a definite change for the better but to the spirit of the pope, who is giving further proof that his indefatigable energy continues.

"The truth is that the pontiff's condition is stationary which means that it is very grave. I will go so far as to say that although he may live for several days it would be cherishing an illusion to think he may recover, unless some unforeseen crisis occurred. His pulse has become, to use a medical term, evanescent, which means almost imperceptible. The pope, except during short periods of uneasiness, when his cough is troublesome, is generally bright and in good spirit, and displays great force of character.

"This morning, again, at his own wish, he left his bed and seated himself in his arm chair, as he finds a sitting posture more comfortable than being recumbent. What surprises all who approach him is that there has been no change in the lucidity of his intellect, which disease has not affected. For instance, not a single detail of the ceremony of the last communion escaped the pope's observation. He spoke of it with great interest, recalling each personage who participated.

"The worst symptom, apart from the feebleness of the pontiff's pulse, is his low temperature, which is stationary at 31 centigrade. He continues to take nourishment at short intervals, but not in such quantities as his weakness requires or his doctors wish. Nothing medical science can suggest and his organism can stand has been left untried; for instance, oxygen, cutaneous revulsives, digitalis and caffeine, which have also been injected to produce more rapid effect. The disease is senile pneumonia in a torpid form, which is now at its maximum intensity, but which may have begun unobserved before the pope complained of any feeling of illness."

TEACHERS NOW CONGREGATE

Many Thousand of Them Gather at Boston, Where the Annual Convention Is Opened.

Boston, July 7.—The influx of many thousand teachers in the public schools and other educational institutions was explained to the stranger when they gathered at Mechanics' hall for the opening session of the annual convention. The meeting began by the singing of a Bach chorus by a large chorus, followed by a blessing by Rev. Edward Everett Hale, D. D., of this city.

The usual welcoming speeches were made by the governor of the state and mayor of the city and they were duly responded to. Then President Elliot, of Harvard university, and president of the association, delivered an address on the "New definition of the Cultivated Man." Andrew F. West, dean of the graduate school of Princeton, followed with an address on "The Present Peril of Liberal Education." Many of those who were unable to gain access to Mechanics' hall attended the lecture at the public library on "Literary Boston," by Miss Lillian Whiting.

SEEMS TO BE SOME DOUBT

Of the Success of the New York Plan of Settling Strikes That Was Recently Developed.

New York, July 7.—At a meeting of the United Board of Building Trades, at which thirty-seven unions were represented, the employers' plan of arbitration was repudiated, and the meeting re-indorsed that of the Fuller Construction company.

Acting Secretary Mullaney said: "There will not be an organization which will accept the employers' plan. The strike committee of five in this board will make all settlements of disputes. On Wednesday we will receive again the brotherhood of carpenters, who went away from us a year ago. They will go on strike immediately and so every building trade in the city will be out."

Charles L. Biditz, president of the employers' association, said: "This action is taken by the walking delegates. Our dealings are entirely with the unions, or their representatives."

Nominal Penalty for a Crime.

Ferlin, July 7.—The appeal has been heard before a court martial of Ensign Huessner from the sentence of four years' imprisonment and degradation imposed on him May 26 for killing his old friend, Artilleryman Hartmann, because the latter did not salute him properly. The court, on the ground of the extreme youth of the prisoner, reduced his sentence to two years and seven days' incarceration in a fortress.

Memorial to Kischeneff Victims.

London, July 7.—Six thousand Jews attended a memorial service for the victims of the Kischeneff massacre in the assembly hall at Mile End. Prior to the service an appeal was made by the Zionists for funds to establish a home in Palestine for the Kischeneff orphans.

Injured by a Giant Cracker.

Sturgeon Bay, Wis., July 7.—Ethel, daughter of Representative Miner, was seriously burned by the explosion in her face of a giant firecracker, and may be permanently disfigured. Police are searching for the boy who threw the firecracker.
