Climate and Crop Report.

The United States Department of Agriculture, climate and crop bulletin of the weather bureau, Michigan section, publish the following for the week ending Aug. 24, 1903.

The mean daily temperature for the week ending August 24 was 67.1 degrees, or 1.2 degrees above the normal; the average total precipitation was 0.32 of an inch, or 0.18 of an inch below the normal; the sunshine averaged 72 per cent of the possible amount.

Warmer temperatures and fairly well distributed light showers have forwarded the growth of outstanding crops and the condition of the soil is considerably improved for plowing.

The harvest of oats, peas and spring wheat in the Upper Peninsula is progressing favorably. In the Lower Peninsula oats and peas are now about all secured; there is considerable rust in late oats; peas are general-

Beans, late potatoes, buckwheat and sugar beets have made good progress during the past week and generally continue promising; beans and buckwheat are filling nicely. Corn has improved quite generally, but still continues generally backward; it is setting for ears slowly and has not commenced to glaze, except in the extreme southern counties. With favorable weather conditions from now on the bulk of the corn crop in the southern counties will be safe from injury from frost about Septem. ber 20 and in the central and northern counties about September 25.

Pastures and meadows have improved during the past week and are generally in fair condition. Clover seeding is good and quite promising. Plowing has made good progress in all portions of the Lower Peninsula and much land in the central and southern counties is about ready for the fall seeding of wheat and rye.

The high winds of Friday blew down considerable, fruit, especially apples; may correspondents report scab in the general opinion seems to be for a fair crop.

Berrien Co.: Plowing well advanced; potatoes, beans and apples promising; corn safe about Sept. 15.

Baron de Waggstaffe of Russia Honors Buchanan With His Presence.

Cousin of Capt. and Alfred Richards-Has Crossed the Ocean Fifty-two Times.

Buchanan has the honor of entertaining a most distinguished visitor, Baron de Waggstaffe of Russia. The Baron was reared and educated in in this country, studied medicine andgraduated with honors. After practicing here for some time, he went to Russia, graduated from a medical college there and was soon having none but nobility for his patients. He was at one time exceedingly successful in a critical illness of a certain government official, and upon his recovery, the official presented him with a magnificent estate and secured for him the title of Baron.

He now has three palatial residences, one in St. Petersburg, another 400 miles north of that city, and one near London. He has crossed the ocean fifty-two times, and is now in his 84th year.

NO HOPE FOR THE SHAMROCK

Fourth Race for the America's Cup Is No Race, but Shows the Reliance's Superiority.

New York, Aug. 28.—With Reliance less than a third of a mile from the finish and Shamrock III, hull down on the horizon, fully two miles astern of the gallant defender, the fourth race of the present series for the America's cup was declared off because of the expiration of the time limit of five and one-half hours, as happened on Thursday last. The Herreshoff wonder beat the Shamrock. hopelessly in the fifteen miles of windward work, rounding the outer mark twelve minutes and thirty seconds ahead of her, a gain in actual time of eleven minutes and twenty-nine seconds, and down the wind she steadily increased her lead.

Fully as discouraging as the sailing qualities displayed by the challenger was the atrocious manner in which she was handled. The Yankee skipper not only out-mandeuvered his rival in the spectacular battle for position at the start, as he has done every time they have met, but, worse still for the downhearted supporters of Shamrock, Captain Wringe repeated his blunder of Tuesday. He crossed the line in the wake of Reliance with a handicap of sixty-one of the precious seconds for which Fife has sacrficed so much in sail spread for time allowance. Both boats went over the line too late, but the Shamrock was the worst handicapped.

LONDON THE AUTHOR

RAPID RISE OF A YOUNG GENIUS OF CALIFORNIA.

His New Book, "The Call of the Wild," Which Has Been Very Well Received-How He Became a Literary Man.

Since Kipling wrote his "Jungle Book" there have appeared various writers 'of "animal stories"-Thompson-Seton, William J. Long, Sewell Ford and others. Among the latest and most successful of these, though writing along different lines from any of his predecessors, is Jack London, a young Californian, whose sketches in the magazines first began to attract attention about three years ago. His latest story is "The Call of the Wild," just issued by Macmillan, of which the hero, Buck, is a dog, a noble animal of mixed St. Bernard and shepherd breed, and the story recounts the adventures that befell this gallant fellow in the wilds of Alaska.

Although Jack London is not yet twenty-seven years of age, he has crowded into the short space of his life experiences enough for half a century. He is the son of parents who wandered from eastern homes, meeting in California, where they were married and bequeathed to their son the pioneer and adventurous spirit which had actuated them. He was born in San Francisco on Jan. 12, 1876. The boy had a hard life, supporting himself by manual labor even before he had reached the age of nine years. He was not an ordinary boy, however, and what might have coarsened one of less strength of character was to him a valuable experience. Speaking of his early life, Mr. London recently said in an interview published in the Reader:

"Almost the first things I realized were responsibilities. I was wage earner as ranch hand long before I was nine, when my mother moved to Oakland, where I, worked as newsboy. After that I went with the oyster pirates and salmon fishermen along the Sacramento river. Some of these men were Greeks. The life was eventful, but strange and hard, the men, some of them, cutthroats. The San Francisco water front holds many phases of life and romance and danger.

"After a year or two I shipped as common sailor and went to Japan

JACK LONDON.

When I came back I entered a cotton mill, where I worked from 5 in the morning until 11 at night. I had been to school'some and had written compositions which had been praised—the usual thing, you know."

In 1894, when eighteen years of age. Mr. London tramped 10,000 miles through the United States and Canada. adopting for a time the vagrant life for purposes of sociological and economic study. Speaking of his experience as a tramp and its effect upon his life, Mr. London says:

"Before I took that tramp across the United States I loved hard work, loved to do it, wanted to throw myself into it. and 4th Friday evenings of each month at fairly gloried in manual labor. I ac complished more than I was paid for or expected to do from sheer love of it. In Buffalo I was arrested and thrown into M. holds its regular meetings on or before jail as a tramp; my hair was clipped; the first full moon of each month. Steven and I was subjected to the regular tramp routine. There I saw that the workman was simply in the social pit W. meets the 3rd and 4th Saturday evening was literally holding on the sides with his hands, and I resolved then and there never to work again manually, for in that way man gets beneath the capitalist. From that day I was a socialist."

Returning to the home of his boyhood, Mr. London entered the University of California in 1896, but remained only a year, being obliged to give up his collegiate studies because of a lack of funds. About this time the Klondike was beginning to attract the mining prospector and gold seeker, and Mr. London's adventurous spirit led him thither. While unsuccessful in his search for gold, he accumulated there a fund of experience and information which has served as a basis for very much that he has written.

Upon his return from the Klondike Mr. London wrote "The Man on the Trail," which the Overland Magazine published in 1899. This first success was followed by eight other short stories, all of which, with one exception, were published in the Overland and were subsequently collected in book form under the title of "The Son of the Wolf," which brought him recognition from the literary world. Other stories by Mr. London are "The League of the Old Men," "The White Silence," "The God of His Fathers," "Daughter of the North," "The Children of the Frost," "Kempton-Wace Letters" and "The Call of the Wild," the last being considered his best work. It is at least attracting very general and favorable attention.

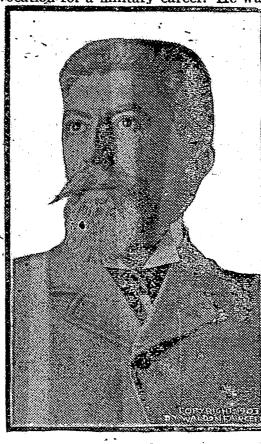

"EL MOCHO," DIPLOMAT.

Famous Venezuelan Fighter Now

Minister to the United States. General Jose Manuel Hernandez, who, as minister plenipotentiary, will re-establish the Venezuelan legation at Washington, is called by his countrymen "El Mocho" ("The Maimed"). The nickname is a term of endearment and indicates the popularity of the battle scarred veteran, who in thirty-three years has fought in over a dozen rebellions, sometimes for, sometimes against the government. It was in one of these rebellions, in a battle at Ciudad Bolivar, that one of his fingers and part of another on the right hand were shot first under fire in 1868, when he took part in the revolution which overthrew General Falcon. He fought against Guzman Blanco and was sent several times to prison.

Some years later he was in the Unit ed States, where he remained, studying and traveling, until 1896. Returning to Venezuela he became in 1897 the candidate of the Conservative party for president. The government declared his opponent, Andrade, elected. Hernandez appealed to the supreme court and was thrown into prison by Crespo. He was released in February, 1898, and in ten days had raised an army and led a revolt against Crespo, who was slain in battle.

In October, 1899, General Hernandez started a revolt against General Castro. After many battles he was defeated and imprisoned. He was in and out of prison several times until Dec. 12, 1902, when he was released upon his declaration of a desire to aid his country in the troubles which threatened with England and Germany. Appreciation of this action of the old warrior and revolutionist was shown by his appointment as minister to the United States.

LORENZO PEROSI.

The Talented Priest-Composer Discovered by Plus X.

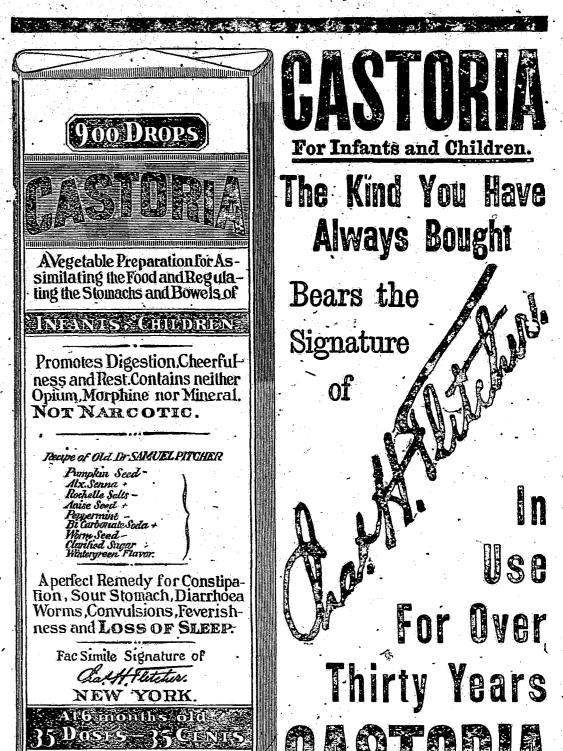

Among the notable deeds of Pope Pius X. was his discovery some years ago of a rare musical genius among the priests of Venice. Lorenzo Perosi sprang into fame in 1899 and was hailed as "the Wagner of church music." His "Resurrection of Christ," the fourth of his oratorios, was heard at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York in 1899 and had already delighted the critical audiences of the continent.

Perosi was born at Fortuna in 1872. He inherited musical talent and as a youth won distinction as a pianist, organist and composer. His own preferences led him to the priesthood, and he put aside a musical professorship to assume the ecclesiastical habit at Venice. Cardinal Sarto interested himself in the priest-composer and when he had produced his first oratorio, "The Passion of Christ," launched him among the music lovers of Venice as a new star in the firmament of song. Perosi is small of stature and insignificant in appearance except when inspired by music. As a conductor he becomesvery excited and is more acceptable to the audience in that role than to the musicians he leads.

RUNS UP AGAINST UNCLE SAM

One of Our Consuls Murdered in Syria by an Unknown.

Demand Made on the Sultan for Reparation-Missions also in Danger-Squadron Ordered to Beirut.

Washington, Aug. 28.—Prompt and vigorous action is being taken by the United States government to secure the punishment of persons implicated in the assassination of United States Vice Consul William C. Magelssen, at Beirut, Syria, Sunday last. Minister Leishman, at Constantinople, who reported the fact to the state department, has been instructed by the state department to demand a thorough investigation of the affair and the punishment of those involved in the crime, and the European squadron, consisting of three warships, has been ordered to proceed imediately to Beirut to support the demands of the United States minister, should this be found necessary. The murderers are not known so far as reports to Washing-

Immediate Orders to Cotton.

This latter measure was determined upon as a result of conferences which have been held over the telegraph and telephone wires between the officials here during the day and the evening and the president at Oyster Pay. The latter felt that no time should be lost in dispatching Admiral Cotton's squadron to Turkish waters, and he gave instructions to Acting Secretary Darling that immediate orders be given Admiral Gotton to proceed at Further Reason for Action.

The president's determination to lose no time in getting the squadron to Beirut was also due in part to information received by Acting Secretary Loomis, of the state department, from the president of the American Board of Missions at Boston, indicating that an attempt had been made to burn the Euphrates college building at Harpoot. This dispatch said: "Information just received that an attempt has been made to burn the Euphrates college buildings. Conditions increasingly alarming. Great anxiety felt for the safety of American citizens there."

Acting Secretary Loomis has cabled to Minister Leishman, at Constantinople, to make imediate demands on the porte to take adequate measures for the protection of all United Statesans at Beirut, and to prevent any attack on the college buildings.

Acting Secretary Loomis has received a rather remakable cablegram from Minister Leishman, in which the latter stated that he had called at the Turkish foreign office at Constantinople to inquire about the assassination of the United State vice consul, and that the minister of foreign affairs emphatically denied any knowledge of the report. He also attempted to discredit it. The cablegram gave no other information. Under the circumstances the state department officials are inclined to believe that the Turkish foreign office is not in touch with the situation at Beirut. They do not attach sufficient importance to Minister Leishman's last message to cancel the order for the squadron to

A telegram from Oyster Bay says: "For several days President Roosevelt has been following closely the developments of the situation in Turkey. With the country in such a turmoil as now prevails almost anything is likely to happen. With a view to considering the subject the more carefully the president and Secretary of State Hay had arranged for a conference today at Sagamore Hill. At this conference the president and Secretary Hay will consider the Turkish situation carefully.

In absence of definite information concerning the assassination of the vice consul the president will take no decided action beyond that already taken in sending the European squadron to Beirut. This action is viewed now as a precautionary measure. It is the determination of the United States to support its demands upon Turkey for the punishment of the murderer or murderers of Consul-Magelssen, but until the circumstances surrounding the murder are known officially and precisely the United States will not take any drastic

A demand that officials of the United States be afforded protection for their lives and property will be made, and the Turkish government will be held responsible for the assassination of Consul Magelssen, whatever may be the circumstances of the case. President Roosevelt is concerned over the situation as it has developed because it indicates an intolerable condition of affairs in Turkey. He recalls the fact that only recently a Russian consul was murdered in Turkey.

Magelssen was 30 years old. He was educated in the common schools of Minnesota and was a student of the Lutheran college at Decorah, Ia., for

IOWA POPULISTS MEET

L. H. Weller Nominated for Governor-Spirited Debate Over the Referendum in the Platform.

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 28.—The ticket: Governor, L. H. Weller, Nashua; lieutenant governor, S. T. Harvey, Des Moines; judge of the supreme court, J. A. Lowenberg, Ottumwa; railroad commissioner, Walter McCullah, David City; superintendent of public instruction, Hilo Bunce, Stuart. The Populist state convention nominated the foregoing ticket without contest, but indulged in a spirited debate over the platform. One faction, headed by Howard Rose, of Chariton, desired to eliminate the demand for the referendum and confine the party's appeal on this line to the initiative.

The platform indorses the Omaha platform of 1892; favors the adoption of the intitiative and referendum in all elections of state and national character: demands the right to elect, both as to who shall be public officials that what shall be the public policy in government shall be conserved of the people, and that all forms or systems invasive of this right shall be repealed.

Burglars Get a Man's Valuables Twice in a Year-Durand Wreck Verdict-Notes.

Bay City, Mich., Aug. 28.—Wenona beach has enjoyed a genuine sensa tion the past week. "The Head Walters" are at the Casino, including a number of vivacious chorus girls. It appears that two traveling men became enamored of these performers, forgot their home ties at Dayton, O., and Jackson, Mich., respectively, and persistently followed the company. Manager Porter and Basso Pierce took them to task at Ann Arbor, where they put up at the same hotel, and again at Durand.

They Get What's Coming to Them. The girls were from the Detroit Conservatory of Music, and they rebuked the mashers at every turn. This did not chill them, however, and their actions at Wenona beach became so obnoxious that the male members of the company, J. Ed Pierce, W. A. Inman, Jack Vincent, and Bert Wainright constituted themselves a vigilante committee and gave the two mashers an unmerciful drubbing, to the delight of the campers and the relief of the girls. His "Rush" Training Didn't Help. One of the fellows profersed to have been center rush on the U. of M. football eleven some years ago. Spectators say that the most daring center rush of a fotball eleven was tame compared to the rush the theatrical people made after the performance upon the persistent suitors. When the last down was scored, there was little more than rags, tatters and bruises left to show where the once gay trav-
