Attempt to Bribe a Member of the State Prison Board for a Contract.

LETTING HAS BEEN POSTPONED

Mrs. McKnight Put on Trial—State Wins Against the Railways—Michigan Notes.

Jackson, Mich., Dec. 1.—Offers of boodle made to Warden Vincent and Thomas J. Navin, a member of the prison board, caused the board to postpone until Dec. 10 the awarding of $15,000 contract for a new cell block in the state prison here. Dr. W. H. Bills, president of the board, said the offer to Warden Vincent was made during the last meeting of the board, and that the would-be bribe-giver was immediately called before the board. Dr. Bills, however, refused to disclose the name of the man or the company of jail builders that he represented.

Mrs. McKnight on Trial. Cadillac, Mich., Dec. 1.—Mrs. Mary McKnight, of Pipe Lake, was placed on trial here on the charge of murdering her brother, John Murphy, by poison. The case was brought here on a change of venue from Kalkaska county, where it was found impossible to get a jury. The deaths of Murphy's wife and child will figure prominently in the trial, and still other suspicious deaths have been connected with Mrs. McKnight's name.

Charge Is Using Wood Alcohol. Grand Rapids, Mich., Dec. 1.—John Deboe, of the Deboe Manufacturing company, this city, has been arrested charged with using wood alcohol in the manufacture of lemon extract. The prosecution was brought by State Dairy and Food Commissioner, Smith. This is the first time that a prosecution of the sort has ever been brought in this country. The arrest is the result of a month's investigation, the suspicions of the food department having been aroused during a general analysis of all extracts sold in the state. The penalty in case of conviction is a fine of $500, or imprisonment from ninety days to three years.

WAS NO BREACH OF CONTRACT

For Michigan to Repeal the Statute Exempting Certain Railways from Taxation.

Detroit, Dec. 1.—A dispatch from New York says: "In the supreme court of the United States an opinion has been delivered by Justice Holmes in the case of the Wisconsin and Michigan Railroad company vs. Auditor General Powers, of the state of Michigan. The case involved the laws of Michigan relative to the right of that state to tax railroads lying north of the 44th degree of north latitude. "These roads were exempt prior to 1897, when the state passed a law repealing the statute of exemption. The railroad company contended that the passage of this act was a breach of contract, but the court held that such was not the case and affirmed the opinion of the court below."

Cause of the Marquette Strike. Marquette, Mich., Dec. 1.—Not a wheel has turned on the Marquette street railway system in consequence of the strike of conductors and motormen. The strike is due to the effort of the company to provide work this winter for all its men. The number of cars run was cut down, but instead of laying off employees, the hours of work were reduced. The men demanded 20 cents an hour, an increase of 3 cents, and this was refused. When the company offered to reduce the force this also was vetoed by the strikers.

Lets Out 350 Miners. Houghton, Mich., Dec. 1.—The discharge of 350 men at the mines of the Cleveland Cliffs company at Ishpeming was totally unexpected, and came because of a slackened demand for iron ore and the enormous stock piles accumulated. While the discharge will make business dull it will not cause suffering, as the demand for miners is brisk elsewhere.

Goes to Look at the Beets. Detroit, Dec. 1.—Secretary Wilson and Senator Burrows have joined a party, including several Michigan representatives and a delegation of Michigan beet sugar manufacturers to spend three days visiting the principal beet sugar centers in this state. A special train has been secured for the trip.

Average Wages of Females. Lansing, Mich., Dec. 1.—The canvass in eleven cities, including Detroit, by Mrs. Ella A. Whipple, woman inspector for the state labor bureau, shows that the average wage per day received by female workers was 94 cents, a slight increase over that shown in the report of last year.

RELEASED BY DEATH

Mr. John Kirk Passes Away After Long Illness.

GRIEF PROSTRATES WIFE

Funeral Tuesday Afternoon—Body Shipped to Sandwich, Ill.

Sunday night at 8:20 John Kirk, after one year of illness and suffering passed to his long home. His wife, who has had the anxious care of him for so long a time, is prostrated by grief and the relaxation which follows so long and continuous a strain.

Just a year ago, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk left for Providence, R. I., where they hoped the climate would benefit the sick man. When they returned March 12, Mr. Kirk had grown worse, and was able to sit up only about an hour a day. After being here a week he was compelled to take his bed, and never sat up any afterward.

The attending physicians and the members of the family thought, many times the patient was dying. The sickness was due to paralysis, and a complication of other diseases. At times it was most distressing to witness his attempts to make himself understood, as the vocal chords were paralyzed.

Mr. Kirk was 43 years of age on June 25 last; he was well known and respected in the community. The funeral occurred this afternoon, conducted by Rev. Douglass, and the remains, accompanied by Mrs. Kirk and Will Griffith, will be taken to Sandwich, Ill., where Mrs. Kirk's relatives are buried.

A. J. Glover Dead.

Succumbs to Pneumonia—Death Hastened by Advanced Age.

Tuesday morning at 12:30 occurred the death of Andrew J. Glover, father of Mrs. Edward Cooper, caused by pneumonia, hastened by the infirmities of old age.

For many years he has been a resident of Buchanan, having in recent years made his home with his daughter. Had he lived till January, he would have been 89 years old. The funeral will occur Thursday morning, conducted by Rev. W. J. Douglass, of the M. E. Church.

Concord Guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Billings, Mr. and Mrs. H. Warner and Mr. and Mrs. F. Warner, of Concord, Mich., were the guests of Mrs. H. H. Beaman last Wednesday, and spent Thursday at Mr. and Mrs. Myron Mead's. The Warners were brothers of Mrs. Mead. They left for their home Friday morning.

APPREHENSIVE OF TYPHOID

Threat of an Epidemic at Chicago University—Students Warned To Be Careful.

Chicago, Dec. 1.—President Harper, of the University of Chicago, has warned the students against a typhoid fever epidemic at the university. Several cases of fever have developed in the last few days, and the authorities, fearing a serious siege, have begun the most rigid efforts to stamp out the disease before it gets a firmer hold among the students.

Before a special meeting of all the students Dr. Harper personally asked university men and women to do all in their power to help the authorities in their efforts to rid the university of the disease and prevent the classes having to be broken up and the students sent to their homes.

AH SIN HITS BACK

Will Not Let Chinese Go to South Africa to Work for the British.

London, Dec. 1.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe that the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. This decision, says The Morning Post, is due mainly to legislation by the Dominion of Canada excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory.

It is understood that the Chinese provincial governors warmly support the decision of the Peking government, and are even prepared to prohibit emigration altogether, should such action be found necessary.

UMHOLTZ OIL COMPANY

Is Making Progress—Down to a Depth of 565 Feet.

MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

Called For Thursday Afternoon at 3 O'clock at Home of Mr. Umholtz.

Some time since there was struck at the Umholtz oil well an eight foot vein of what was thought to be silver ore and although a number of amateurs have pronounced it silver there has been no announcement to that effect from any authoritative source. A sample was sent to the Agricultural College at Lansing but they did not assay metals.

They are now down 565 feet and there is bubbling through the water some gas, and when a match is applied it burns. They have also struck a second vein of the same as the eight foot previously struck and supposed to be silver.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Umholtz oil well is called for Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock on important business.

EVERYBODY BUYS

Clothing At Spiro's.

The Big Store is popular because people can get what they want here. There isn't a good article of clothing for Men and Boys that we haven't in stock. Not just a sample or two, or a window display, but a full complete stock with all the sizes wanted and at the prices you wish to pay. The "big store" doesn't mean a "high priced" store. You know if you buy one package of food it costs fifteen cents while two can be had for a quarter. Same with clothes. We buy suits by the thousands for our four stores and get prices the single store dealers never dream of. You get this reduction, too. Why, there isn't another store in the city that can meet your wants in clothing like this one. Everything needed is here and abundance. We can clothe the men and boys—each in a dozen different ways—at a dozen different prices. Come with any amount you choose and you are sure of the best possible values—because it is SPIRO'S where trading is safe and prices so much less than others can afford to ask. This is good honest advice—you'll admit it when you see the stock and fully realize the folly of losing time hunting elsewhere.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1908.

If you are taking two or three publications, by letting us send in your subscriptions we will save you enough to pay for the RECORD one year.

We publish in today's RECORD a letter in regard to our dark streets, and if we had written it, it could not more fully express our opinion. Why not have our streets lighted when Mr. Chapin is willing to light for two months, at the old rate, pending negotiations for lighting permanently? Some time ago, when the Sunday school convention met here, we asked the people to light the fronts of their houses, and they generally responded. Mr. Theodore Thomas even put up a big lamp and ever since, we find on our way home, several lanterns lighted and on the porches. Light the front of your houses and if convenient, put out a lantern.

Snow Storm.

Some one suggests that our story of the heavy snow of 1842-3 gave the weather man an idea, and we had better prepare for a good long winter, and it really looks so, as ever since the 17th we have had spirts of snow almost every day, and Sunday we had a regular 1842 43 snow storm, there being on the ground Monday morning about one foot of snow.

How Deep is our Interest?

Sunday morning about the time of going to church the heavens were full of beautiful white flakes of snow which covered the earth to quite a depth. Oh what a splendid excuse to stay at home and enjoy the Sunday newspaper!

If this snow had fallen on Monday morning or any other morning during the week how many who made it an excuse on Sunday would have done so? We do not know how other churches were affected, but we suppose much as the one we attended.

We will not be hasty and say that all should have gone to church in the snow. There are some persons, the aged, infirm, delicate and children who, no doubt were justified in remaining in doors. But that does not excuse those who could not be counted among the above.

The world stands and looks on: at the church member, and be sure they measure one's interest in the church by what he does. Is it any wonder that the world stands aloof from the church when they see so little interest?

Why in Darkness?
BUCHANAN, MICH., NOV. 23 1908.
Mr. Editor: For some time I have been waiting to see some one speak about the condition of our village during these dark nights, but as no one seems to be interested sufficiently to speak about it, I do so very reluctantly.

I understand Mr. Chapin has offered to light the village at the old rate pending negotiations for new contract. If this is so, why are we in darkness?

Some accident or crime on account of the darkness may involve the town in considerable damage. Let us have lights, and at once,

TAX PAYER.

Thanksgiving Dinner

Thursday evening at the home of Louis Runner the B. O. B's. and J. N. R's partook of a sumptuous six o'clock dinner, which was served in three courses. The house was beautifully decorated with Thanksgiving decorations and the colors of the respective clubs.

The evening was spent in playing progressive lynch. The first prize was won by Berton Broceus, the consolation by Lura Keller. Later in the evening dainty refreshments were served. The enjoyment was added to by the presence of Rex Lamb and Charles Marble. The young people departed in the wee small hours voting Louis a royal entertainer.

Who's the Loser?

The contract for lighting the streets of South Bend with electricity has, we are informed by a resident of that place, been given to the South Bend Electric company. For a number of years Charles A. Chapin furnished that municipality with the street lighting, but the above named company will perform this work for ten years to come.—Niles Star.

On inquiry it has been discovered that the South Bend Electric Co. and Chas. A. Chapin are one, and the same. Who is the loser?

Elder Shepard went to Detroit on Friday of last week where he is in charge of a mission, which he has started recently. He expects to remove his family in the near future.

Magazine Reviews

The Trail of the Serpent.

The serpent is a forty foot python, and the trail it makes through London, where it is let loose by a most unlucky set of circumstances, is a much more subtle one than one would at first thought believe. Mr. Sidney Kendall follows it closely in the December McClure's much to the breathless interest and chuckling amusement of the reader. The story is a striking example of the humor that there may be in mere situations.

St. Nicholas for 1904.

St. Nicholas, for thirty years the best and best beloved of children's magazines! "I know of no magazine here or in England which will compare with it," says Rebecca Harding Davis. "The children of this generation are fortunate in having such a magazine," adds Lucy Larcom. "Nothing that has ever come into my household of children has been in equal degree the stimulus to their artistic and literary tastes," is George W. Cable's tribute.

And St. Nicholas for 1904 will be more entertaining, and better than ever before. B. L. Farjeon wrote before his death a delightful story called "A Comedy in Wax." It has adventure for the boys, fairy doings for the girls, and a pretty bit of a love story for their elders: and will run through several numbers.

The Refert Courteous.

The pulpit steps of the kirk in Morebattie, a little town in Scotland—and there were as many as twenty leading to the high platform from which the minister preached—were occupied each Sabbath by the deaf old women of the parish, who knew their Scripture as well as the minister himself. One of these pious old persons was wont to interrupt the minister's wanderings by citing his authority for each and every quotation.

"That's frae Paley's Evidences," she would say, and "He got that out o' the Concordance." Or "That's frae the Lamentations o' Jeremiah," till the minister could stand her interference no longer and exclaimed with much irritation: "I wish you'd hold your tongue, you meddling old woman!" With her equanimity in no wise disturbed, the old soul nodded her head wisely and replied: "Aye, sir, that's yersel."—From Leslie's Monthly for December.

Exercise for the Busy Housewife.

If a woman is too busy to take a daily walk outdoors, she should seek to get as much fresh air and healthful exercise in her home as possible. Hold the body erect, the weight resting upon the balls of the feet, the chest active and thrown back, before an open window or door while inhaling deep draughts of fresh air. This should be done several times a day. In sitting at the machine, table or desk, incline the body from the waist. Do not hunch the shoulders or bow the back. If the eyes become tired, rest them for a few seconds either by closing, easily or changing the direction and angle of vision by looking off from the work.

A swaying of the body (from the waist) backward and forward and to the right and left will rest the muscles of the waist and back.

For a few minutes lie flat upon the back, relax the entire body, become passive in mind and calm in spirit, and you will rise a renewed woman.—December Woman's Home Companion.

"Uncle Joe" and his Democratic Ways

Speaker Cannon is what Mr Bryan would call a man of the plain people. He doesn't like fuss and pretension. On the floor of the House he used to roll up his sleeves in the heat of debate and pound his desk with his fist. His gesticulations are famous for their vigor, though not for their Delartean gracefulness. He is a small, wiry, spare man, with a sharp, shrewd face. He wears his old clothes most of the time,—the waistcoat unbuttoned full length,—and a little old slouch hat. Twice he was seen with a high hat,—once when his duty as committeeman required him to ride to the Capitol with McKinley when the latter took the oath as President, and again at McKinley's funeral. The day he was made speaker he appeared in a fine frock coat, with a boutonniere in his lapel, and men said "Uncle Joe" was putting on his airs in his new dignity. But next day he was in his den, the Speaker's room, his feet upon the table, his hand-me-down suit hanging loosely upon his body, the vest open to the waist, the cigar-ashes scattered over his person, and all about him the leaders of the Republican party and scores of members in the most familiar and democratic conference—"a havin' o' our little visits and a gentle shakin' o' 'em down into their committee assignments."

A "character," the "David Harum" of the political world, he is. But he is a wholesome, a strong, character. He understands human nature, and he understands the American people. He knows the United States as a chess player knows his board and his pieces. He is sagacious, honorable, faithful. He loves his country; his party and his fellow-men. He may not be ornamental, but he is to be trusted. He will make a good Speaker, because he will keep his party together and secure results.—From "Speaker Cannon: A Character Sketch," by "Mentor," in the American Monthly Review of Reviews for December.

MANY NAMES

Of Michigan Men and Women are on the Petition.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 24.—Petitions bearing the signatures of nearly 20,000 men and women of Michigan have already been submitted to the senate asking that Reed Smoot, a senator for Utah, be expelled because he is one of the 13 apostles of the Mormon church, which, so it is alleged, sanctions polygamy. A western senator who is taking a good deal of interest in the case, said today that $100,000 is available to secure evidence and employ lawyers to prosecute the case against Smoot before the senate committee on privileges and elections, of which Senator Burrows is chairman. He would not say who is furnishing his $100,000, but from another source it is learned that Miss Helen Gould, of New York, daughter of the late Jay Gould, and possessor of many millions, is furnishing most of it.

Last March when Smoot came to Washington and was sworn in as a senator it was proposed to Senator Burrows that during the recess himself and other members of the committee go to Utah and inquire into the Mormon situation with special reference to ascertaining whether the church, as an organization, was meddling in politics. "The Michigan senator didn't think it was worth while. There was no question of the regularity of Smoot's election so he had the same right to a seat in the senate as any other senator. Now that petitions are coming to the senate by the bale, not only from Michigan, but from other states, he thinks that there must be an investigation. So do not a few other republican senators!

Elmer Hawblitzel, Lakeville, says "Wine Lo-ti" (Cooney's beef, iron and wine with nerfine) brought my wife out and done her more good than any other medicine we gave her. Give me two more bottles for my father." Price 50c a bottle at Dr. E. S. Dodd & Son's.

ST. JOSEPH

Twice burglars have attempted to open the safe at the Nowlen lumber yards, in Benton Harbor, and each time they have failed. The odd part of the affair is, that the company claim to leave no money in the safe at night.

The Crescent society, of the St. Joseph high school, is planning to start a magazine, "The Crescent" devoted to fiction and school news.

Louis Haas entertained all the "newbies" of the Twin cities, Thanksgiving. "It is reported that some took more than one piece of pie, but no investigations were made."

A. L. Church, county clerk, will go to Georgia to hunt, this fall. Gus is a clever hunter and always bags a lot of game.

A rousing debating contest is being planned between the members of the classes of the St. Joseph high school. Two separate debates will be held, one between representatives of the junior and senior classes, the other between the freshmen and sophomores.

The inadvisability of asking 50c admission to a football game, was proved at Benton Harbor; the other Saturday, when a much smaller crowd attended that game than previous matches.

The Twin city hunters who sallied forth for game this fall are now returning, heavily laden with the fruits of their sport.

William Campbell Hicks, of Benton Harbor, was in Grand Rapids a short time ago, on business. As Mr. Hicks was ascending a broad flight of stairs, overlooking a reading room, in a "furniture city" hotel, he became aware of someone speaking his name below. He glanced over the railing and looked into the reading room. There a lawyer, of Grand Rapids and an elderly lady were sitting. The woman was fingering a volume of Mr. Hick's novel "Joachim's Daughter," which gave evidence of being much perused. "Have you read this?" the lady enquired. "Yes, yes indeed," said the man, "I found out, after reading it, that a lawyer down in Benton Harbor wrote it. It's a remarkable story. Why, I couldn't lay it down until I had finished it. There's a Roman soldier, one Panthera, who gets locked up in prison. I just wished, with all my heart, that he'd be set free, but he wasn't. I just wish I could get my hands on that author this minute, and maybe I wouldn't make him free that Roman!"

—Mr. Hicks continued to his room.

LIVER TROUBLES

"I find Theford's Black-Draught a good medicine for Liver disease. It cured my son after he had spent $100 with doctors. It is all the medicine I take."—MRS. CAROLINE MARTIN, Parkersburg, W. Va.

If your liver does not act regularly go to your druggist and secure a package of Theford's Black-Draught and take a dose tonight. This great family medicine frees the constipated bowels, stirs up the torpid liver and causes a healthy secretion of bile.

Theford's Black-Draught will cleanse the bowels of impurities and strengthen the kidneys. A torpid liver invites colds, biliousness, chills and fever and all manner of sickness and contagion. Weak kidneys result in Bright's disease which claims as many victims as consumption. A 25-cent package of Theford's Black-Draught should always be kept in the house.

"I used Theford's Black-Draught for liver and kidney complaints and found nothing to excel it."—WILLIAM COFFMAN, Marblehead, Ill.

The Mary and Ann Problem Again.

I feel a little disappointed that no one in the high school has yet presented to the editor of the Buchanan RECORD a correct solution of the Mary and Ann problem. Surely all must feel a deep interest in Ann's age. I reiterate my prediction that many of the high school pupils can correctly solve this unique problem. I am waiting to read their names in the RECORD, with the proper solution submitted.
