BRIGHT PROSPECTS

In Store for the Christian Church—Arrangements
Completed by the

TRUSTEES AND ELDERS

And Church Will be Opened For Services Commencing Next Sunday.

There are few who will not be pleased to learn that the trustees and elders of the Christian church have come to a mutual agreement that the church shall be opened for meeting and Sunday school, provided that Elder Veach does not officiate as pastor; he has agreed not to do so as he has accepted the pastorate of the Disciple church at Metz, Indiana.

This is looked upon by the members of the church as the beginning of the end of an unfortunate affair; and it is hoped that the church will again move along without friction and fulfil its mission of "peace on earth and good will to men."

SUIT FOR $50,000.

Suit Brought By C. A. Chapin
Against F. M. Gray of Niles

NOT FAIR PLAY IS CLAIM

Trouble is Over Purchase of Buchanan Property.

Grand Rapids, Mich.—C. A. Chapin the millionaire of Niles, Mich., has commenced suit in the circuit court against F. Marion Gray of Niles, asking for damages in the sum of $50,000, for alleged misconduct on the part of Gray while retained as agent by Chapin, in effecting a real estate purchase.

The case appears to be another litigation growing out of the trouble into which the village of Buchanan was thrown through the efforts to secure control of the water power property and privileges, Gray being the agent in making purchase of such properties.

It is alleged that instead of procuring the best figures for his employer, Gray arranged some side contracts by which he forced the owners of the property to purchase at $50,000 three pieces of farm property located in Michigan and Indiana, whose maximum value could not exceed $21,000.

It is claimed that the property and rights in Buchanan were not valued to exceed $60,000 and that instead of securing options at the price of $75,000 Gray arranged for the sale to Chapin for $100,000 on condition that his personal farm be taken off his hands at $50,000.

School Notes.

HIGH SCHOOL

The second semester work in the high school will begin next Thursday morning and in the grades next Monday morning.

All of the pupils in the grades will take the regular semester examinations during the last two days of this week. The high school pupils are taking their semester examinations during the first three days of this week.

Next week new classes will be formed in physiology, American literature and grammar.

Bessie Royer is back again after two weeks absence on account of illness.

The third grade began the study of the human body last week.

An imaginary journey to the north was enjoyed by the pupils in the third grade.

Cecil Bruce, Inez Seybert, Warren Davis A division, and Beatrice Gage, Nada Woodworth and Maude Haslett B division, fourth grade wrote the best stories last week.

Third grade pupils will have lessons this week on ice, snow, frost and stars.

The pupils of the fifth grade were favored by a guitar and zyther duet, by Lena Emmons and Mattie Royer.

Joe Voorhees, Lottie Ravin and Solly Hershenow of the third grade, have been present every day this year.

Pupils of the fifth grade have enjoyed reading sketches from "Tom Brown's School Days."

Amelia Taylor, eighth grade, is in school again after a short illness.

In a written spelling-down contest Friday Ira Boyer won.

Agnes McFallon and Cora Lentz proved to be the best spellers.

"The Indian" was the subject for last week's composition in sixth grade. Alice Lumley wrote the most interesting story.

Glen Salesbury and Willie Paul, of the sixth grade, gave the circulation of the blood through the heart, in the shortest time, twenty-five seconds.

BROCEUS SCHOOL.

Amanda, Grover, and Minnie Rose were neither absent nor tardy during the first semester.

Elmer Zimmerman has a perfect mark in history in his report book.

Orville Minum is well and in school again.

The lower grades are looking forward to their spelling contest with their sliced animal puzzle.

Amanda Rose stood 100 in the examination in arithmetic; Wilbur Zimmerman, and also pupils in the third grade, handed in excellent papers.

Fred Parren of the second grade was perfect in the examination in geography and numbers.

Guy Swift was the first to report the correct number of legs that a spider has.

In spite of the weather, the flag still floats over our snow fort.

Our printing will please you.

B class won in first grade spelling contest.

Mrs. Rouse, Mrs. Salesbury and Mrs. Keller were first grade visitors, last week.

First and second grades are learning a new song—"I'm Little January."

The story of Agoonak the Eskimo, is interesting the second grade pupils and serves as a basis for language and geography.

Transformation.

An English farmer had a number of guests to dinner and was about to help them to some rabbit when he discovered that the dish was cold. Calling the servant, he exclaimed, "Here, Mary, take this rabbit out and eat it and bring it back a little hotter!"

A Slander.

The Lady—I gave you a piece of pie last week, and you've been sending your friends here ever since.

The Tramp—You're mistaken, lady. Them was my enemies.—Judge.

Economical.

"Doesn't it cost you a good deal to run this yacht, old man?"

"Yes, but my wife can't spend a cent when she's here."

SPIRO'S INVENTORY SALE.

After Christmas we take an inventory of our stock. The holiday buying naturally leaves many odds and ends, broken lots, and overlooked patterns, everything in fact that is left from a big season's selling.

We make it a rule never to carry over these remnants. Every year at this time we sort over, pick out and arrange certain patterns and sizes that we wish to move rapidly and cut the prices.

Here and there are groups of overcoats that have not moved as rapidly as we thought they would—we'll just take $6 off the price of every one of them. That's one instance. On another lot the reduction is $4, and so on.

Here's a fine suit of underwear that was overlooked—we'll mark that $1.00—it was $1.50.

In suits you'll find bargains galore—reductions that mean savings of $2.50 to $6 on a suit—and a selection that is almost as extensive as at the height of the season.

A splendid chance for you to save wisely and shrewdly on every article you need in the wearing apparel line and an opportunity not to be overlooked.

Remember a Spiro bargain is as good as the regular stock, but less to pay, that's all.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

It is presumed that the president is greatly gratified that the Cuban senate has this week ratified the so-called "permanent treaty" with the United States, including the requirements made upon the Queen of the Antilles, which were at one time thought to be very severe. The time for ratification would have expired January 22. Cuba seems to be making progress. Now let us have peace.

To do entire justice to Perry S. Heath, secretary of the republican national committee, it is proper to record that he has not shirked, but when his name was called in the court here trying Machen, the Groffs and Lorenzes, for conspiracy to defraud the government, he promptly answered "present." If he has anything to hide concerning his official conduct as First Assistant Postmaster-General, he is not seeking to hide it by running away.

The contest over Panama and the president's conduct in recognizing that republic, still holds the floor in the senate. The attack is made by half of the democratic members and from a strictly partisan point of view. The defence of the president is vigorous and adequate and mostly in the hands of Senators Spooner, Wis.; Aldrich, -R. I.; Dolliver, Ia; and Beveridge, Ind. The most vicious denunciatory attacks have been made by Senators Carmack, Tenn., and Newlands of Nevada, who did not hesitate on Thursday to charge the president with wilfully breaking the laws of the country and repeatedly violating his oath. The republicans have presented a solid phalanx in defence of the president's justice and prudence. Mr. Newlands proposed that congress disavow the orders of president and resume peaceful negotiations with Colombia; but he did not come to the front when Mr. Allison challenged him to introduce a resolution thus rebuking and dishonoring the president, and see what would come of it. The fight is made, and will be made henceforth till the election in November, on the democratic allegation that the administration sent dispatches to our naval commanders in Panama, instructing them not to allow any Colombian troops to land, even to enforce the sovereignty of Colombia on her own territory. This specification is denied or admitted only in a modified form by republicans, who insist that Colombia had a "reasonable time" in which to ratify the treaty, and that, on her offensive refusal to do so, the president was obligated by law to act as his judgment dictated, to promote the interests of his country and "collective civilization." Thus is the issue joined.

The Washington clerks are dreadfully mad because they are hereafter to be expected to work seven hours a day, but they keep their indignation bottled up inside them with remarkable success. They work 285 days in a year, when they take their regular leave of a month, and their "sick leave" of another month, and as they get from $3 to $15 a day for the exertion, it is suspected that even if they were to resign in a body their places might be filled by persons who would think it a real soft snap.

The democratic newspapers are foolishly vociferous concerning an alleged difference between the president and Senator Hanna. They may save their breath. There is no such difference. The president will be re-nominated and elected. Hanna is keeping faith with him and is not "laying pipes" for the succession. Hanna has many friends and admirers, but they would not like to see him injure his deserved popularity by trying to stem the strong current of public preference for Mr. Roosevelt. He is not a conspirator.

It was proposed by Senator Bacon to pay Colombia for the loss of Panama, and Senator Hale astonished everybody by acquiescing. Whereupon a senatorial wit alluded to it as "the gold cure for the Panama jag."

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobick of Colusa, Cal., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by W. N. Brodrick, druggist.

JANUARY CLEARING SALE!

We call attention to the fact that this sale is strictly for YOU, we say for you because we have no old Shelf Worn goods to work off. In this respect it differs from the ordinary clearing sale--differs too because our stock being new and up-to-date, many of the items we offer at less than it will cost to lay them in, under the present condition of the markets when prices are rapidly advancing.

Fortieth Anniversary

On the occasion of the fortieth anniversary of the beginning of his business life in Three Oaks Mr. Edward K. Warren, assisted by his former employers and business associates, Hon. Henry Chamberlain and Hon. James L. McKie, will receive friends and former customers "at the old stand" Saturday January 23, in the afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock and in the evening from 7 to 10. This invitation includes all former customers of Henry Chamberlain, Chamberlain, McKie & Company; McKie & Warren; James L. McKie; Edward K. Warren; Chamberlain, Warren & Hatfield; and employes of the Warren Featherbone Company.

Basket Ball

Nearly 60 people from Buchanan attended the basket ball game at Berrien Springs, Friday night; going in four sleigh loads and many single rigs. Mr. House took the two teams.

The two games were among the most interesting of the season, all playing fine ball. This was the first the girls had played under the new rules and they did fine work.

Berrien Springs girls were larger girls and the game ended in a tie, 7 to 7. This score was not known by the referee for some time so the tie was not played off. The girls who played were: Mary Keller, Dora Hershonow, Mabel McGowen, Lura Keller, Lulu Broceus, Edna Kean, captain.

Boys' game stood 22 to 6 in favor of Buchanan, with the following boys playing: Geo. Currier, Fred Fuller, Louis Runner, Fred Douglass, Fred Lyddick, captain.

75c now at the Buchanan Cash Grocery buys as much wheat flour, fresh ground buckwheat flour, and corn meal, as $1.00 at the credit store.

DEMISE OF MARTHA JONES

At the Home of Her Sister Mrs Wm. Mead.

LAST MONDAY EVENING

After a Long and Useful Life—Prominent Resident and Member of Presbyterian Church.

On Monday evening, at the advanced age of 82, Miss Martha Jones passed away at the home of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Mead. She was beloved by all who knew her—an honored resident of the village, which had been her home for many years.

Miss Jones was a "shut in" having been an invalid for a long-time.

The funeral will occur tomorrow, at 1:30 at her late residence. Rev. Cole, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of which she was a member, will officiate.

30 CLUB.

The ladies of the 30 Club met last Wednesday with Mrs. Louise Sanders. The day was devoted to the study of Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Mrs. Lura Pears read a fine biographical sketch; Mrs. Bower read Mrs. Cora Rough's well prepared paper in which appeared various criticisms of Holmes as a writer.

At Miss Searls' request Mrs. Boardman and Mrs. Pears entertained the ladies with a beautiful duet. Mrs. Carrie Weaver read an interesting paper on Holmes as an after dinner speaker, after which the ladies entered into a general discussion and many points of interest were brought out.

Roll call was responded to by quotations from the author. The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Kingery Jan. 20.

The ladies are thoroughly enjoying their work for the year, and since they have been elected to a membership in the State Federation of Women's Clubs, they find that they can be of benefit to others. They have very recently contributed to the Stone Memorial Scholarship Fund, which provides opportunities for young women to attend the University of Michigan, who otherwise could not go; the money being furnished them on very reasonable terms.

Special—shelf worn and also new and good copies second hand school books. Money savers.

DOWN INDEFINITELY

Chicago Theater Curtains Not to Rise Again Until the City Council Is Ready.

NEW ORDINANCE IS POSTPONED

Fire Tests To Be Made in the Iroquois
 —Many Churches Under the Ban.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—From action taken by the city council it is evident that the theaters in this city will not be able to reopen their doors for some time. The meeting of the council was for the purpose of considering the revision of the building ordinances, and it was generally expected that the proposed amendments would be considered and adopted; that the proprietors of the theaters would know what would be demanded of them, and would be able to commence their alterations at once.

Postponed Until the Council Is Ready.
 When the measure was called up Alderman Mayor moved that consideration be deferred; that all the proposed amendments be published, and that the whole subject be taken up when the council was ready. Alderman Foreman seconded the motion, declaring that some of the changes were of a character that required extensive investigation, and that it was not proper for the council to pass upon fifty of these at a single sitting. The motion was passed and all consideration of the new ordinance was postponed until the council is ready.

Interesting Tests To Be Made.
 Arrangements have been made by Mayor Harrison and the proprietors of the Iroquois theater by which the building is to be used for the purpose of testing automatic sprinklers, fire extinguishers and kindred appliances before it is reconstructed. There will be no large fire permitted in the building—only sufficiently heat being provided to test the fusible caps of sprinklers. Tests of theater curtains will also be made, and the efficiency of all appliances required by the city fire ordinance will be demonstrated.

The Last Straw.
 It was Saturday night, and owing to the temporary absence of his wife it fell to Mr. Brown to attend to the usual process of giving his eight-year-old son a bath and putting him to bed. He had left his evening paper with a man's reluctance and had hurried matters along with more speed than the little chap was accustomed to. However, he endured it all without a protest until it came to the prayer. It was his habit after "Now I lay me" to ask the divine blessing upon a long list of relatives and friends, calling each by name.

"Please God," he began, "bless papa and mamma, grandpa and grandma and Aunt Edith and Uncle George and—"
 A pause. His father, thinking to curtail the list of beneficiaries, softly insinuated an "Amen." Not heeding the interruption, the little supplicant drew a long breath and continued, "And Aunt Alice and Cousin Annie and—"
 "Amen!" Again his father said "Amen."
 This was more than flesh and blood could stand, and, lifting his little head, he exclaimed, with tears of indignation, "Papa, who's running this prayer; you or me?"—Harper's Monthly.

Bravery Immortalized.
 At an entertainment at which Nelson met Benjamin West just before he went to sea for the last time he remarked to the artist, "I never pass a printshop where your picture of the 'Death of Wolfe' is in the window without being stopped by it." West, of course, acknowledged the compliment, and Nelson went on to ask why he had painted no more like it. "Because, my lord," answered the artist, "there are no more subjects." "Blank it," said Nelson, "I didn't think of that," and asked him to take a glass of champagne. "But, my lord, I fear your intrepidity will yet furnish me with another scene, and if it should I shall certainly avail myself of it," the painter observed. "Will you," said Nelson, pouring out bumpers and touching his glass violently against West's—"will you, Mr. West? Then I hope I shall die in the next battle." He sailed a few days later, and West painted "The Death of Nelson."—London Chronicle.

Ropes and Strings.
 "He seems to think he's a winner with the girls."
 "Yes, he thinks he knows the ropes."
 "I guess that's why it's so easy for them to get him on a string."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Night Was Her Terror.
 "I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at W. N. Brodrick's drug store.

OHIO IS AGAIN BEREFT

Asa S. Bushnell Ex-Governor and a Prominent Business Man, Has Passed Away to His Rest.

ASA S. BUSHNELL.
 tending the inauguration of Governor Herrick, died at Grant hospital in this city at 1:52 this morning. The end came peacefully. All day long he had lain in a profound stupor, a somewhat irregular pulse-beat being the only indication of life. His wife and family, who were summoned from Springfield when he was first stricken had been almost constant attendants at his bedside and were with him at the last. He will be buried at Springfield.

Asa S. Bushnell was born at Rome, N. Y., Sept. 16, 1834. He came to Ohio when 11 years old, residing since 1851 at Springfield. From a position as bookkeeper he rose to a partnership in the Gardner, Bushnell & Glessner company, manufacturers of farming implements, of which he became president in 1886. He served in the civil war, being mustered out with the rank of captain; chairman of the Republican state executive committee in 1885; declined the nomination for lieutenant governor in 1887; was a delegate-at-large to the Republican national convention in 1892, and served two terms—from 1895 to 1899—as governor. Two weeks ago he divided three-quarters of a million dollars among members of his family as a New Year's gift.

PANAMA POLICY INDORSED

Live Stock Association Enthusiastically Says "Well Done" to the National Administration.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 1.—By unanimous vote and with great show of enthusiasm the National Live Stock association adopted resolutions heartily indorsing the policy of President Roosevelt with reference to the building of the Panama canal, and ordered a copy sent to the president.

The subjects of railroads and forest reserves were considered in relation to their effect upon the live stock industry. Shortage of cars, slow time in transit, and high tariff, formed the burden of a number of addresses. That legislation might be had remedying the exclusion of stock men from forest reserves was the demand of every speaker.

RACINE BATHS
 Turkish or Medicated

THOSE who see a Racine Bath Cabinet never buy any other. We control by patents the four vital features, without which you will never be satisfied. Most of our output is sold to owners of other cabinets. They taste the pleasure and health that lies in a hot air bath, and then want a modern cabinet. We alone give our lowest price to the user. For that reason, no dealer or agent handles the Racine. Prices $5 up. Freight or express prepaid; finest heater, vaporizer and face-steaming attachment included. Also prescriptions for 35 medical baths. We sell on approval, guaranteeing that no other cabinet is even half so good—and leave the judgment to you. Please write a postal to-day for our catalogue.
